

SEMINOLE ATHLETIC TRAINING CAMP
JUNE 8th - 11th, 2008
FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
SOUTHGATE HALL
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA 32316

Recognized as one of the outstanding athletic training camps in the country, the SEMINOLE ATHLETIC TRAINING CAMP will give high school athletic training students valuable experience and education in the areas of care and prevention of athletic injuries. This will be the 32nd straight year the camp is taught by the Florida State Athletic Training staff.

Participants will spend a large amount of time in laboratory settings, stressing practical applications and techniques. They will gain important skills in taping, wrapping and other procedures that are used in the athletic training room on a daily basis.

The SEMINOLE ATHLETIC TRAINING CAMP is conducted during a 3 ½ day period and will cover such topics and include materials as:

- HEAT PROBLEMS
- HELMET AND SHOULDER PAD FITTING
- ANKLE, KNEE AND SHOULDER INJURIES
- EMERGENCY PROCEDURES
- ACTUAL DVD FOOTAGE OF ATHLETIC INJURIES
