* The Seminoles return five position starters and eight pitchers who saw action off the mound in 2008 including a trio of starting pitchers in senior Bo O'Dell and sophomores Geoff Parker and Mike McGee.

* The Seminoles will start the season ranked as high as sixth by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association. Three other preseason polls rank Florida State in the top 10 including seventh by Collegiate Baseball, tied for ninth by ESPN/USA Today and 10th by Rivals.com.

* Stuart Tapley was named a Preseason All-American, while Tyler Holt and Jason Stidham joined Tapley on the watch list for the Brooks Wallace Award.

OPENING DAY

Florida State embarks on the 2009 season winners of 10 in a row on opening day, while posting an all-time record of 53-7-1 (.877). The Seminoles have suffered a loss on opening day just seven times in 61 years with two of those losses coming in Tallahassee. In 1998, the Garnet and Gold fell to Notre Dame at a neutral site marking the last time FSU has dropped a season opener. The last time FSU lost a season opener at home was 1981 when Georgia Southern defeated the Seminoles 3-2. Auburn handed Florida State its only other opening day loss at home back on March 20, 1958 as the Tigers swept the opening day doubleheader (4-3, 10-7). When it comes to home openers all-time, Florida State is 57-4 (.934) with only one loss coming in the last 27 years. Under Hall of Fame head coach Mike Martin, FSU baseball is 26-3 on opening day.

FIRST SERIES OF THE SEASON

Florida State has not lost the first series of the season since 1981 - a streak of 27 consecutive series victories. In 61 years of FSU baseball, the Seminoles have only lost a season opening series twice. The last time the Seminoles lost a series to open the season came in 1981 when Georgia Southern took two of three games from Florida State. The only other time the Garnet & Gold lost a series to open the season came in 1958 when Auburn took both games of a two-game set. Overall, FSU is 50-2-9 in season opening series.

FLORIDA STATE VS. HOFSTRA

Florida State and Hofstra square-off in a weekend series for the second time in the last three years. The two teams met for the first time in 2007 as the Seminoles swept the three-game series in Tallahassee outscoring the Pride 37-5. D'Vontrey Richardson is the top returning hitter from that 2007 series as the Leesburg, Ga., native posted a .545 batting average (6-for-11) with a double, a triple, two RBI and five runs scored. Jason Stidham contributed with a .417 average (5-for-12) with a pair of doubles, three runs scored and three RBI. As a team, the Seminoles hit .449 for the series. The Florida State pitching staff was equally impressive posting a 1.00 ERA in 27 innings of work. The Seminoles held the Pride to just five runs, three earned, on 18 hits while holding Hofstra to a .191 team batting average on the weekend. Of the 12 pitchers that made an appearance against the Pride in 2007, only two are back in 2009 including a pair of seniors in Jimmy Marshall and Bo O'Dell. Both Marshall and O'Dell threw a scoreless inning in relief. Marshall struck out one, while O'Dell struck out two.

ACC PRESEASON POLL

For the second year in a row, Florida State is favored to win the ACC's Atlantic Division title as voted on by the league's 12 head coaches. The Seminoles garnered 67 points including eight first place votes. Since the league's inception of divisional play in 2006, the Seminoles have captured two Atlantic Division crowns including back-to-back titles in 2007 and 2008. North Carolina received the nod as preseason favorites to win the ACC as well as capturing the Coastal Division. The Tar Heels tallied 72 points with 12 first-place votes to win the Coastal while receiving 10 of 12 votes to win the overall league title.

TAPLEY GARNERS PRESEASON ACCOLADES

Coming off a freshman campaign in 2008 that witnessed Stuart Tapley register the 10th highest batting average in school history for a player with under 200 at-bats, the Freshman All-American finished second on the team in batting (.383) accumulating 75 hits in 196 at-bats. He tied for fourth on the team with eight home runs while driving in 40 runs in 57 starts. Tapley settled in nicely at third base as he closed out the year on a 34-game errorless streak.

All player and coach interviews must be arranged through the FSU Sports Information Office. Players and coaches should not be called directly under any circumstances.

For his efforts, Tapley received Preseason All-America accolades from the NCBWA (3rd Team) and Collegiate Baseball (3rd Team) in 2009.

BROOKS WALLACE AWARD

A year after Buster Posey became the first Seminole player to claim the Brooks Wallace Award, given to the nation's top collegiate baseball player, three more Seminoles will open the 2009 season looking to follow the same path. Junior Jason Stidham and sophomores Tyler Holt and Stuart Tapley were all recognized on the Wallace Preseason Watch List as announced by the College Baseball Foundation in conjunction with Mizuno and the College Baseball Hall of Fame. In 2007, Tony Thomas, Jr. was named one of three finalists for the award.

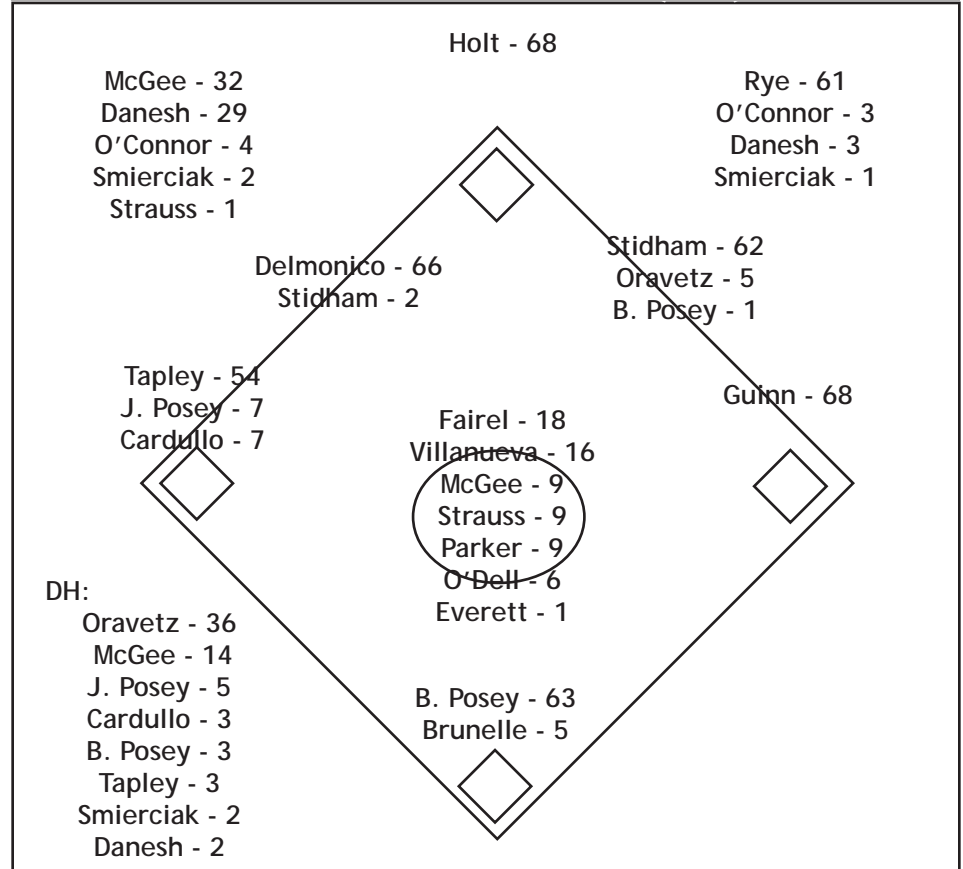

STIDHAM STREAKING INTO 2009

Jason Stidham enters opening weekend against Hofstra on the heels of a six-game hitting streak. What's even more impressive is how the junior finished off his second season with the Garnet and Gold. Over the final 10 games of the 2008 season, all coming in postseason play, Stidham hit .477 (21-for-44), the highest average among everyday starters. His average in the NCAA Tournament was 188 points higher than where his average stood following the ACC Tournament (.289). The Palm Bay, Fla., native recorded four doubles, two home runs, 11 runs scored and 17 RBI en route to a .705 slugging percentage and a .554 on-base percentage. During that span of 10 games, Stidham registered a hit in nine of 10 games with multiple hits in seven games.

'I DON'T GIVE A DARN' AT SHORTSTOP

Who's on first. What's on second. I don't know is on third. Tomorrow is pitching, Today is catching and I don't give a darn is at shortstop. It all goes back to the famous comedy act between Abbot and Costello...Do you say I don't give a darn? Actually it's Jason Stidham, but are you getting where I'm going with this? When the Seminoles take the field on opening day against Hofstra, Stidham will be the fifth Seminole in as many years to play at short. The last time Florida State started the same person at shortstop in consecutive seasons was Stephen Drew (2002-04). Since the departure of Drew following the 2004 season, there have been five different starters at short - Ryne Jernigan (2005), Buster Posey (2006), Mark Hallberg (2007), Tony Delmonico (2008) and now Jason Stidham in 2009.

A HOLT OF LIGHTNING

It may be only his second season at Florida State but sophomore Tyler Holt is the only returning Seminole in 2009 to have started all 68 games a season ago. Holt quickly made his presence felt in centerfield committing just two errors in 167 chances en route to a .988 fielding percentage. The Gainesville, Fla., native hit .324 in his first season and was a tough out for opposing teams as he reached base in every game during the regular season - a span covering 55 straight games. Holt finished his freshman campaign second in the nation in walks with 64 as he earned second team Freshman All-American honors. Holt also caught fire at the end of the 2008 season hitting .462 for the Seminoles in the NCAA Tournament.

2009 SCHEDULE

Eleven teams on this year's schedule recorded 28 or more wins a season ago. Six schools earned a bid to participate in an NCAA Regional in 2008 with two teams advancing to the College World Series. A total of four schools on the slate in 2009 finished last year ranked in the top 25. The Seminoles will compete in a 30-game ACC schedule for the fourth year in a row. The schedule features all but one league school (Duke). Since the ACC adopted divisional play in 2006, the Seminoles have posted a league record of 64-25 and have captured back-to-back Atlantic Division titles. Over the last three seasons, Florida State has fared well both at home and on the road in the ACC going 33-12 and 31-13, respectively.

SEMINOLE LEADERSHIP

Florida State returns six position starters, including Tyler Holt, Ohmed Danesh, Mike McGee, Stuart Tapley, Jason Stidham and Tommy Oravetz, that combined to play in 578 games. Last year, those returning Seminoles combined to hit .337 on 392 hits in 1,164 at-bats. Eight hurlers enter the 2009 season with a combined 288 innings of work last year. Sophomores Mike McGee and Geoff Parker lead all pitchers with nine starts apiece.

TEAM CAPTAINS

Seniors Jimmy Marshall, Tommy Oravetz and Ruairi O'Connor were named team captains for the upcoming season. Marshall has pitched in 80 games since 2006 including 78 in relief which ranks 10th all-time at Florida State. Oravetz is coming off a junior season in which he registered career numbers in every offensive category. O'Connor is a career .276 hitter for the Seminoles and will display his versatility on the field, at the plate and on the base paths during the upcoming season.

'09 CLASS HIGHLY RANKED

The Seminoles were recognized by Collegiate Baseball with the nation's eighth best recruiting class in 2009. Since associate head coach Jamey Shouppe took over as recruiting coordinator in 1990, FSU has had a class ranked in the top 25 each year while 13 of his 18 classes have been ranked in the top 10 with six of those classes ranked in the top five. Included in this year's class are three transfers - Rafael Lopez (Indian River Community College), Robby Stahl (Tallahassee Community College) and Mike Meschke (North Florida Community College). Four freshmen were selected in the MLB Draft but opted to postpone their major league career and attend college. Those individuals include Kris Castellanos, Sean Gilmartin, Hunter Scantling and Austin Wood.

SEMINOLE HEAD COACH

#11 Mike Martin • Head Coach

30th Season • FSU (1966)

2009 HIGHLIGHTS

Entering his 30th season as Florida State's head coach, Mike Martin continues to cement his legacy as one of collegiate baseball's most prolific coaches. Over the last two years, the legendary Seminole coach won his 1,500th game and was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. The Florida State graduate is one of just four baseball coaches in the history of the NCAA to win 1,500 games at the Division I level and is 62 victories away from becoming only the third coach to reach 1,600 career victories.

Mike Martin has become the face of Florida State baseball having been associated with the Seminoles for 37 of FSU's 62 seasons. He is by far the winningest coach in the history of the program. Of the 3,339 baseball games played in program history, Martin has been involved in 2,446 as a player, assistant coach and head coach. What is even more impressive is Martin's involvement in 1,805 of the 2,438 all-time victories at Florida State. In one way or another Martin has been a part of more than 74% of FSU's victories.

Martin has led the Seminoles to the College World Series 13 times and to 29 consecutive NCAA Regional Appearances. He has won 15 conference championships since taking over as the field general in 1980 with 11 from the Metro Conference and four as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference. He is a six-time Metro Conference Coach of the Year and has been awarded ACC Coach of the Year five times. Seventy-two Florida State players have earned All-America honors under Martin, while 91 players have garnered first and second team All-ACC recognition. He has coached seven players, Jeff Ledbetter, Mike Fuentes, Mike Loynd, J.D. Drew, Shane Robinson, Tony Thomas, Jr. and Buster Posey, who were named National Players of the Year, including three in the last four years.
