A QUICK LOOK AT THE VIRGINIA TECH SERIES

Virginia Tech travels to Tallahassee for a three-game series for the second time in three years. Florida State leads the all-time series 25-5, including a record of 20-4 in games played inside Dick Howser Stadium. The overall winning percentage of .883 is third among ACC opponents (Boston College 1.000, Maryland .941, Virginia Tech .833, Wake Forest .790 and Virginia .784). The Seminoles had a streak of 15 consecutive victories over the Hokies before Virginia Tech downed FSU 9-7 last year in Blacksburg. Florida State has won 11 straight games at home over the Hokies with the last Virginia Tech win in Tallahassee coming on April 21, 1989, a 7-5 VT victory. FSU has been victorious in 16 of the last 17 meetings overall. The Seminoles have held the Hokie offense in check over the last eight games played in Tallahassee as the Garnet and Gold have yielded just two runs per game.

THE HOKIES IN 2007

Virginia Tech enters the weekend with an overall record of 17-17, 6-7 on the road and 4-11 in the ACC. The Hokies defeated Richmond at home in their lone mid-week game as their contest against Radford on Wednesday was postponed due to weather. Virginia Tech has gone 3-3 on the road in the ACC as the Hokies opened league play in 2007 taking two of three from Georgia Tech in Atlanta. VT has dropped four straight league series including back-to-back sweeps at the hands of Virginia and Clemson. Through 34 games, Virginia Tech is batting .291, while posting a team ERA of 5.87. Sean O'Brien, Nate Parks and Warren Schaeffer have started all 34 games for the Hokies this season, while O'Brien leads the team with a .349 average. Parks is the team leader in runs scored (32), while he sits atop the ACC in stolen bases with 29 in 33 attempts.

AGAINST THE HOKIES

Florida State will look to extend its 11-game home winning streak against Virginia Tech in Tallahassee this weekend. Jack Rye has hit well against the Hokies the past two seasons posting a .400 average (8-for-20) with two doubles, a triple and five RBI's. The Seminoles hit six home runs in last year's series win in Blacksburg including two by Dennis Guinn, one by Buster Posey and one by Ryan Strauss. Guinn led all hitters last year as he went 7-for-16 with a double, two triples, two home runs, five runs scored and seven RBI's. He slugged 1.125 and registered an on-base percentage of .438. Ruairi O'Connor hit the Hokies well two years ago batting .429 in seven at-bats. He recorded a pair of doubles and drove in five runs as the Seminoles swept at home.

On the mound, Bryan Henry has not given up a run to the Hokies in seven innings of work covering two appearances. Last year, the Tallahassee, Fla., native got the win pitching six scoreless innings allowing four hits, while striking out seven. Ryan Strauss pitched three scoreless innings in relief back in 2005 giving up just one hit. Michael Hyde is the only returning Seminole pitcher with two starts. Hyde earned the win in 2005 allowing two runs on eight hits, while striking out six. He struggled last season giving up three runs on five hits in 2.1 innings of work.

Over the last two seasons, with the Hokies joining the ACC starting in the 2005 season, Florida State is 5-1 against Virginia Tech. The Seminoles have hit .323 and have posted a team ERA of 3.06. On the flip side, the Hokies have hit .239 and have posted a team ERA of 7.59.

THE PROBABLE STARTERS FOR FLORIDA STATE

FRIDAY: Senior Bryan Henry will make his 11th start of the season, all on Friday, as Florida State returns home to face Virginia Tech for its third home conference series of the season. Henry is 8-0 on the year with an ERA of 2.60. He earned his third consecutive ACC victory last weekend beating NC State 10-4 as he pitched seven solid innings on a season-high 124 pitches. He struck out seven batters, while allowing three runs on six hits. Henry set down 11 of the last 13 batters that he faced registering five of his seven strikeouts over the last three innings. The senior right hander has now posted at least seven or more strikeouts in six of his last 10 starts this season and in five of his last six outings. Against Boston College, Henry pitched eight innings allowing one run on four hits while striking out 10. Henry is 1-0 lifetime against the Hokies in two appearances including one start. He has yet to yield a run to Virginia Tech in seven innings of work. The Tallahassee, Fla. native has allowed a run or less in six of his 10 starts this season. Henry has pitched a season-high eight innings twice this season keeping Indiana scoreless on six hits, while giving up one run on four hits vs. BC. He has worked three games this year where he has pitched at least six innings without issuing a free pass. Henry has made 22 career starts against league opponents posting a career record of 12-5 with an ERA of 2.87. He has registered 120 strike outs against ACC teams and just 39 walks.

SATURDAY: Senior Michael Hyde will look for his ninth win in 11 starts as he takes the mound on Saturday against the Hokies. Hyde is tied for the team lead with Bryan Henry in wins (8) and is third among starters with an ERA of 2.82. Hyde has dropped his last two decisions after starting the season with eight straight victories. He has pitched just 4.1 innings in the last two games. The two losses are just the third suffered by Hyde in his last 21 starts dating back to last year. He has worked into the fifth inning in eight of his 10 starts including four games of pitching into the sixth. He worked a season-high 7.0 innings against Boston College. The Tallahassee, Fla., native is 16-3 in his last 21 starts for the Seminoles dating back to last year, while posting a career mark of 24-5 as a member of the Garnet and Gold. In a victory over Boston College, Hyde allowed two first inning runs, but settled down to shut out the Eagles for the next six. He struck out four and did not issue a walk for the second time all season. This will be Hyde's 16th start against an ACC opponent as he has compiled a record of 8-2 with a 4.90 ERA. This will be Hyde's third start against Virginia Tech as the right hander is 1-0 in his career.

SUNDAY: Junior Ryan Strauss will look to make his 10th start of the season on Sunday against NC State. He has pitched at least five innings in eight of his nine starts in 2007, while throwing into the seventh in three of his last five outings. The Tampa, Fla., native set career-highs in innings pitched (8) and strikeouts (8) against Indiana. He threw seven innings in back-to-back league games earning victories over Wake Forest and Boston College. Strauss gave up just one run in his first two league games, before allowing four runs against Duke in an 8-5 victory. He held BC without a hit for the first six innings. Strauss is 7-0 on the year and leads the team with a 2.59 ERA. He has pitched two games in which he did not issue a walk. He earned his first career win as a starter as he pitched five solid innings against Tennessee on opening weekend. This will be Strauss' fifth start against an ACC opponent and second appearance against the Hokies. He pitched against Virginia Tech in 2005 throwing three shutout innings allowing one hit while walking three.

FLORIDA STATE IN ACC PLAY

Florida State is 10-2 in the ACC and has won all four, three-game series to start the 2007 season. The Seminoles boast a perfect 6-0 record at home after opening league play with a pair of series sweeps over Wake Forest and Boston College. For the second year in a row and for the seventh time overall, FSU has started a season at 6-0 on its home turf. In 2001 and 2002, the Seminoles went undefeated at home in conference play posting a perfect 12-0 record. Florida State won its first seven conference games before falling at Duke in game two of the series. It was the Seminoles' best start in ACC play since 1999 when the Garnet and Gold started 13-0. Since joining the ACC in 1992, FSU started league play winning its first six games just three times.

NO. 1 IN THE NATION

For the fourth straight week, Florida State remained No. 1 in the Collegiate Baseball top 25 poll. The Seminoles earned their first No. 1 ranking of the season as released by Collegiate Baseball on Monday, March 19. The Seminoles, who opened ACC play with a pair of home series sweeps against Wake Forest and Boston College, sit at 10-2 in the conference and 31-4 overall. FSU has posted a record of 9-4 while being ranked No. 1 in the nation. Florida State last held the top spot in the nation for six weeks starting on March 14, 2006.

ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK – PART IV

For the second week in a row, a Seminole student-athlete was selected as the Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Player of the Week as Brandon Reichert was recognized for his efforts in leading Florida State to a series victory at NC State over the weekend. Reichert had an outstanding weekend as he hit .583 in three games going 7-for-12 against the Wolfpack with a home run, three doubles and seven RBI's. Reichert registered multiple hits in all three games against NC State, while posting multiple RBI's in games one and three. The senior first baseman posted a career-high four RBI's on Friday night to go along with his first home run of the season. Three of Reichert's four RBI's in game one came on two outs.

Reichert then capped a Seminole come-from-behind victory in game three. With the bases loaded and the Seminoles trailing 4-2, Reichert gave the Seminoles their first lead of the game, a lead they would not relinquish, by lacing a bases clearing double to right field. Reichert finished Sunday's game with three consecutive hits. The Tallahassee, Fla., native was also perfect from the field in all three games converting on all 38 chances at first base. He reached double-digit put outs in all three games.

Reichert joining Tony Thomas, Jr. who has been named ACC Player of the Week three times in 2007 winning the award on Feb. 12, Mar. 5 and Apr. 2.

FROM CATCHER TO PITCHER

Sophomore Buster Posey made his much anticipated pitching debut at Florida State in the third game of the series against UNC Asheville. Posey went from behind the plate to the mound in the top of the fifth and pitched a scoreless inning. The Leesburg, Ga., native induced a pair of groundball outs including an inning ending 6-4-3 double play.

HE GOT IT

Mike Martin crossed another milestone off his to do list with his team's sweep of Minnesota last season. With the 12-4 win in the second game of the series, Martin became only the eighth coach in NCAA history to reach the 1,400 win-plateau and only the sixth active coach to do so. Of the eight coaches with 1,400 wins Martin has the fourth-best winning percentage and the second-highest winning percentage among active Division I coaches. Of the top 10 coaches across all divisions for wins, only four coaches have a winning percentage above .700 and Mike Martin is among that group. Martin passed another legend with FSU's 14-6 win over Florida in Gainesville as he moved into fifth place all-time passing former High Point and Virginia Tech head skipper Chuck Hartman. Overall, Martin ranks third in the DI 1,400-win club behind Stephenson and former Texas coaching legend Cliff Gustafson for winning percentage.

FIFTH PLACE ALL-TIME FOR #11

Chalk up yet another milestone for Florida State head coach Mike Martin. With the Seminoles 14-6 win over Florida in Gainesville back on February 20, Martin moved into sole possession of fifth place on the NCAA all-time wins list with 1,445 victories. Martin passed former High Point and Virginia Tech head coach Chuck Hartman on the list, who retired after 46 years as a collegiate head coach. Martin currently sits with 1,467 career victories.

BEST START IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Florida State's 23-0 start was by far the best start in school history, surpassing the team's previous best start by eight games. The Seminoles have started a season with at least a 10-0 record seven times in the program's 60-year history. In the second game against Siena, the Seminoles moved to 16-0 with an 8-3 victory over the Saints, breaking the school record for the best start ever. In 1975, under then head coach Woody Woodward, Florida State began the year 15-0. They finished the '75 season with a mark of 49-10 advancing to the College World Series and finishing the season with a ranking as high as No. 7 by Collegiate Baseball. 1975 also marked the first year as an assistant coach for current head coach Mike Martin. This is the best start in 28 seasons under the legendary ball coach.

FSU All-Time Best Starts:

- 1) 2007: 23-0
- 2) 1975: 15-0
- 3) 1972, 1985: 12-0
- 4) 1956, 1999: 11-0
- 5) 1971: 10-0

EARLY NOLE GETS THE 'W'

Florida State has managed to put runs on the scoreboard in the early goings of the 2007 season outscoring the opposition 137-56 in the first three innings. The Seminoles have scored 40 or more runs in all but two innings so far this season, including the first (45), second (43), third (49), fourth (43), sixth (48), seventh (56) and eighth (48) innings. Florida State has scored in every inning that they have seen an at-bat this season including a run in extra innings.

RUNS A-PLENTY

The Seminoles have scored 355 runs through 36 games, an average of 9.9 runs per game. That run production through 36 games is the sixth highest total to start a season in the 60 years of Seminole baseball. The school record for most runs scored in a season is 752 set in 1982. That year the Seminoles advanced to the NCAA Regionals playing 74 games averaging 10.2 runs per game. Below is a listing of the top five seasons through the first 36 games in Seminole baseball history:

- 1) 1982 441 runs
- 2) 1996 386 runs
- 3) 1980 378 runs
- 4) 1986 367 runs
- 1985 367 runs
- 6) 2007 355 runs

RUNS IN BUNCHES

Sure the Seminoles have scored 355 runs through 36 games this season, the sixth highest 36-game total to start a season in school history, but what is impressive is how they are scoring those runs. The Seminoles have posted multiple runs in 87 innings this season and have scored at least one run in 142 of the 300 innings they have played.

TWO OUT RUNS

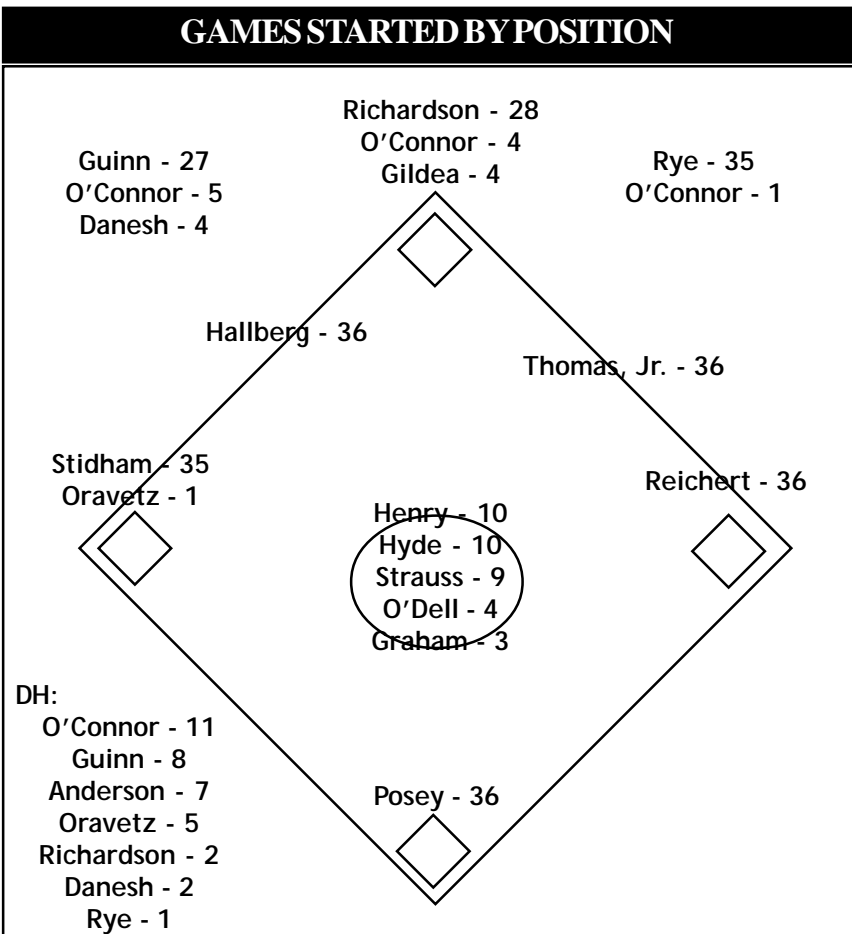

When it comes to two out run production Florida State has produced so far this season. Through 36 games this season, the Seminoles have scored 143 runs with two outs. That's 40.3% of their run production in 2007 coming with two outs. FSU scored a season-high 11 runs with two outs twice. First coming in the series finale against UNC Asheville, a game the Seminoles won 15-1. The Garnet and Gold then scored 11 runs on two outs in a 15-3 victory over Duke in game one of the series in Durham. Against the Gators, FSU scored nine runs on two outs including four in the first two innings. The Seminoles scored another nine runs on two outs in a 10-2 win over Appalachian State in game two of that series. In the Seminoles first ACC series in 2007, Florida State outscored Wake Forest 22-10 as 12 of the 22 runs recorded came on two outs.

AND TWO OUT HITS

Yes, you can say the Seminoles are off to their best start in school history and you can point to a lot of reasons why this has happened. But probably the most overlooked stat is what the team is doing with two outs in an inning. FSU is batting .343 as a team posting 147 hits in 429 two-out opportunities. Five Seminoles are batting .400 or better, eight have registered 10 or more hits and seven have tallied 10 or more RBI's. Junior Jack Rye leads the team with two out RBI's as 25 of his 38 runs batted in have come in that situation. Rye also leads the team with 20 two-out hits.

30 WINS AND COUNTING

With a 10-4 win over NC State in game one last Friday, Florida State became the first team to reach the 30-win plateau in Division I this season. The Seminoles at 32-4 have the most wins and the highest winning percentage (.889) in the nation. North Carolina, Vanderbilt and Virginia each reached 30 wins just this week.

HOME RUNS ON THE ROAD

Before Florida State's weekend series against Duke, the Seminoles had 12 home runs through the first 28 games. They left Durham with 21 round trippers in 2007. Yes, Seminole batters hit nine home runs vs. Duke, three in each series, including five by second baseman Tony Thomas, Jr. Thomas hit back-to-back homers in his first two at-bats in game one including the team's first lead off home run of the season. Tommy Oravetz hit his first collegiate homer, while Mark Hallberg hit his first round tripper as a Seminole. Fourteen of the 26 home runs hit by Florida State this season have come on the road including the nine hit against Duke. Three others have come on the road vs. the Gators including two in Gainesville and one in Jacksonville. The final two came against NC State in Raleigh this past weekend.

DOUBLE-DIGIT RUNS & HITS

The Seminoles got off to a hot start in 2007 as they scored double-digit runs in 13 of their first 17 games. FSU had a string of eight straight double-digit run games earlier this year. In the 60-year history of Seminole baseball, Florida State registered double-digit runs in eight consecutive games just twice, the last time coming in 2003 when the Seminoles strung together nine straight games of 10+ runs. FSU has posted 17 double-digit run games this year.

FSU has also posted double-digit hits in 30 of its 36 games played so far including a streak of 16 straight at one point in the season. Since 1996, the Seminoles have had a streak of eight or more double-digit hit games nine times. This year's 16 straight double-digit hit games are the longest of record dating back to 1996. The previous best was 10 straight posted back in 2003.

SEEING DOUBLE

Florida State has hit 107 doubles through 36 games this season, that's an average of 2.97 doubles per game. If the Seminoles continue on their current doubles pace, they would hit 166 doubles, just under the school record of 182 hit in 72 games back in 1990, an average of 2.5 doubles per game that year.

HOLD IT RIGHT THERE

Florida State is leading the ACC in limiting the opposition to the fewest number of stolen bases attempted in 2007. Opponents have attempted a league low 20 stolen bases against the Seminoles and catcher Buster Posey is a big reason for that. Through 35 games, Posey is throwing out 36.8% of attempted base stealers. He has had only 19 stolen base attempts against him all season. Posey has also picked off a pair of base runners on the season. To put the number in perspective, UNC is second in the ACC with 38 attempted stolen bases.

ONE IS A LONELY NUMBER

Thanks to a sweep of Wake Forest to open ACC play and a little help from Ole Miss and Arkansas last weekend, Florida State remained the lone unbeaten team in Division I baseball...that was until a March 21 tilt against Jacksonville. JU handed the Seminoles their first loss of the season, snapping FSU's 23-game winning streak to start the season. Florida State was the last of the remaining undefeated teams in Division I baseball this season.

WALK-OFF JACK

FSU played its first extra inning game of the season on March 16 against Wake Forest and came through with a victory defeating the Deacs 7-6 in 11 innings. Junior Jack Rye, who has come through in clutch situations for the Seminoles this season, provided FSU with its first walk-off hit of the season singling home the winning run with two outs in the bottom of the 11th. Rye registered his third RBI of the game as his single glanced off the glove of the leaping second baseman. The ball trickled away just enough to allow Rye to reach first and pinch runner Ryan Strauss to score from third for the game-winner.

LIMITING THE ERRORS

Florida State's consecutive games without committing an error came to an end at six last Tuesday night at the Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville against Florida as the Seminoles posted two errors in the loss. The last time the Seminoles posted an error was in the third inning of game one against Boston College. That was a span of 63.2 consecutive innings without committing an error, the longest errorless streak since 1993 when FSU went five straight games without posting an "E". FSU started the season with a streak of 36 consecutive innings without committing an error.

Through 36 games this season, FSU has posted a fielding percentage of .975 committing 35 errors in 1,391 total chances. The 2005 and 2006 squads rank as two of the top five best defensive teams in FSU history posting a .967 fielding percentage in each of the last two years. Here is a look at the top five fielding teams in school history dating back to 1973:

A PERFECT FEBRUARY

Florida State posted a perfect 14-0 record in the month of February for just the fifth time in the 60-year history of Seminole baseball. It was the first time the Seminoles went undefeated in the first month of the season since 1979 when the Garnet and Gold went 2-0. The previous record for the best undefeated mark in the month of February was 5-0 registered back in 1976.

FSU IN THE ACC

Heading into the weekend, Florida State ranked as the top hitting and fielding team in the conference. FSU has posted an average of .367 through 36 games, while registering a team fielding percentage of .975. The Seminoles are third in the ACC in team ERA at 3.07.

Tony Thomas, Jr. leads the league in seven offensive categories, while ranking in the top five in three others including triples per game (2nd), stolen bases per game (3rd) and home runs per game (5th). Listed below are the following categories that Thomas leads the ACC in:

Batting Average493
Hit/Game	2.08
Runs/Game	1.64
Doubles/Game	0.58
Total Bases/Game	3.53
On-Base %566
Slugging %836

Three Seminoles sit in the top 12 in the ACC as ranked by ERA. Strauss is ninth with a mark of 2.59, followed by teammates Bryan Henry in 10th (2.60) and Michael Hyde in 12th (2.82). Florida State is the only team in the conference to have three of its starting pitchers rank in the top 15 in ERA.

FIRST COLLEGIATE HOME RUNS

D'Vontrey Richardson and Jason Stidham each hit their first collegiate home run against the Florida Gators in the Seminoles 14-6 victory in Gainesville. Stidham connected on a solo shot in the top of the fifth off reliever Josh Edmondson. The freshman third baseman sent a 1-2 offering over the wall in right for his first digger of the season.

Richardson hit a three-run shot in the top of the eighth to put a stamp on the Seminole victory. The freshman center fielder sent a rocket shot that cleared the bleacher seats in left for his first career round tripper.

Stephen Cardullo got in on the action as he hit his first collegiate home run against North Florida. The freshman from Coral Springs, Fla., took the first offering he saw from Osprey reliever Paul Morales and sent the ball over the wall in left center for a three-run shot.

Tommy Oravetz connected on his first collegiate home run in Florida State's series victory over Duke. Led off the ninth inning in game two with a solo shot over the wall in right center.

2007 HONORS & AWARDS

Senior right hander Bryan Henry was named Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week on Monday, February 5, 2007 for his performance on the mound against Tennessee on opening day. Rivals.com recognized first-year third baseman Jason Stidham as the Freshman of the Week for his performance against Tennessee. Tony Thomas, Jr., has been honored by the league office three times in 2007 (2/12, 3/5, 4/2). Thomas joins a list of six other Seminole greats to be recognized by the league office three times in the same year. The last Florida State player to perform such a feat was Mike Ziegler in 2000. Thomas was also honored as the Louisville Slugger and NCBWA National Player of the Week for his play at Duke. Thomas and Henry have both been recognized by the College Baseball Foundation as a National Honor Roll Player of the Week honoree three times this season. Most recently, Henry received the honor for his performance against NC State, while Thomas was honored for his play against Duke. Brandon Reichert received ACC Player of the Week honors thanks to his play against NC State. The senior first baseman also received accolades as a National Honor Roll Player of the Week honoree by the College Baseball Foundation.
