NOTING THE SEMINOLES

Florida State is ranked in the top three in five national polls while holding the top spot in the Rivals.com top 25 poll. The Seminoles held the top spot in the Collegiate Baseball poll for six consecutive weeks. FSU maintained a 16-7 record while holding the top spot in the nation.

Florida State ventures north to face Maryland in a three-game conference set beginning Friday. FSU leads the all-time series 48-3, including a 20-1 record in games played in College Park. The Seminoles enter this weekend's series winners of 27 straight games over the Terrapins including 19 consecutive victories on Maryland's home turf.

PROBABLE STARTERS Florida State vs. Maryland

FRI: Bryan Henry, rhp vs. Casey Baron, lhp
SAT: Michael Hyde, rhp vs. Ryan Moorer, rhp
SUN: Danny Rosen, rhp vs. TBA

Florida State became the first team to reach the 30-win plateau in Division I this season. The Seminoles at 39-7 have the highest winning percentage (.848) in the nation and join Vanderbilt as the only two teams in the nation with 39 wins.

Florida State leads the ACC in batting (.360) and fielding percentage (.973), while ranking fourth in the league in ERA at 3.35.

With nine ACC games remaining, Florida State surpassed last year's season total of 16 conference victories with win number 17 in game two against Miami. Since joining the league in 1992, FSU is the only team in the ACC to post 14 or more league wins in each of the last 16 seasons. The school record for conference wins in a season in 22 set bck in 1999.

Bryan Henry and Tony Thomas Jr. named semifinalists for both the Dick Howser Trophy and Golden Spikes Award.

THE PROBABLE STARTERS FOR FLORIDA STATE

FRIDAY: Senior Bryan Henry will make his 14th start of the season, all on Friday, as Florida State travels to face Maryland for its fourth road conference series of the season. Henry is 11-0 on the year with an ERA of 2.45. He earned his sixth consecutive ACC victory last weekend at Miami, but not before getting some offensive help from his teammates in the top of the ninth to cap a four-run come-from-behind victory over the Hurricanes. Henry pitched eight innings allowing six runs, four earned, on eight hits. He struck out eight while walking just one. The senior right hander has now posted at least seven or more strikeouts in nine of his last 13 starts this season and in eight of his last nine outings. The Tallahassee, Fla., native also pitched eight innings of four hit ball against North Carolina two weeks ago. Against Boston College, Henry also pitched eight innings allowing one run on four hits while striking out 10. He has allowed a run or less in eight of his 13 starts this season. Henry has pitched a season-high eight innings four times this season including consecutive back-to-back games against North Carolina and Miami. He kept Indiana scoreless on six hits, while giving up one run on four hits to both BC and UNC. He has worked three games this year where he has pitched at least six innings without issuing a free pass. Henry has made 25 career starts against league opponents posting a career record of 15-5 with an ERA of 2.73. He has registered 145 strikeouts against ACC teams and just 43 walks. In 2007, Henry is 6-0 in six ACC starts throwing 49 innings and posting an ERA of 2.76. His strikeout to walk ratio is 3.86 to 1 in league play this season. Henry is 2-0 in two career starts against Maryland. Two years ago in College Park, Henry led the Seminoles to a 7-2 victory as he threw seven innings allowing one run on four hits and three strikeouts.

SATURDAY: Senior Michael Hyde will look to return to the hill for his 13th start of the season in Saturday's contest against the Terrapins. Hyde is looking for that elusive ninth win after starting the season with eight straight victories. He dropped two of his last four decisions while earning no decisions in his last two starts. The Tallahassee, Fla., native is tied for second on the team in victories (8) and is second among starters with an ERA of 2.79. He has worked into the fifth inning in nine of his 12 starts but has not made it through four complete innings in three of his last four games. After pitching a combined 4.1 innings in games against Duke and NC State, Hyde bounced back and pitched six solid innings against Virginia Tech in earning a no decision. The Tallahassee, Fla., native allowed two runs on six hits while striking out three. Against North Carolina, Hyde pitched 3.1 scoreless innings allowing just one hit. He was relieved in the fourth after walking two straight batters. Hyde has lost just three games in his last 23 starts dating back to last year. He worked a season-high 7.0 innings against Boston College. The senior right hander is 16-3 in his last 23 starts for the Seminoles dating back to last year, while posting a career mark of 24-5 as a member of the Garnet and Gold. In a victory over Boston College, Hyde allowed two first inning runs, but settled down to shut out the Eagles for the next six. He struck out four and did not issue a walk for the second time all season. This will be Hyde's 19th career start against an ACC opponent as he has compiled a record of 8-2 with a 4.66 ERA. Hyde is 1-0 in his career against Maryland with two appearances including a start last season. In last year's 4-3 FSU win, Hyde gave up two runs on six hits in six innings of work. Two years ago, he worked a scoreless inning in relief as he struck out a batter.

SUNDAY: Junior Danny Rosen will look to make his second career start on Sunday in College Park. The junior college transfer made his debut as a Seminole starter last weekend in Miami. Rosen threw four plus innings giving up four runs, three earned, on five hits. He walked four and struck out three in suffering his first loss of the season. The four innings pitched by Rosen against the Hurricanes was a season-high. The Miami, Fla., native also pitched game one of the series down in Coral Gables as he earned a save securing FSU's four-run, come-from-behind victory in the ninth. Rosen has appeared in 21 games for Florida State this season, second most on the team, and is 1-1 with a 3.77 ERA. In 28.2 innings of work, he has struck out 36 and walked 10 while limiting opponents to a .224 batting average. Rosen leads the team with eight saves in nine chances in 2007.

MARYLAND SERIES

Florida State ventures north to face Maryland in a three-game conference set beginning Friday, May 4. FSU leads the all-time series 48-3, including a 20-1 record in games played in College Park. The Seminoles enter this weekend's series winners of 27 straight games over the Terrapins including 19 consecutive victories on Maryland's home turf. The Terps last victory over Florida State came on March 26, 1998 in Tallahassee. Maryland defeated FSU 5-2 back on May 2, 1993 in the Terps' lone home win over the Seminoles. Florida State has won all 15 series against Maryland since joining the ACC in 1992. FSU's .941 winning percentage over Maryland is the second highest among ACC opponents trailing only Boston College, who the Seminoles have defeated in all six games since the Eagles joined the conference in 2006.

THE TERRAPINS IN 2007

Maryland currently sits in sixth place in the Atlantic Division with a league mark of 7-17. The Terrapins moved back to .500 on the season with a 1-0 shutout over Towson on Tuesday. They faced Maryland Eastern Shore in a mid-week match-up on Wednesday. Maryland has lost six of its last seven games including five straight in ACC play. The Terps finish their regular season schedule at home with a pair of three-game sets against Florida State and North Carolina. Maryland is 13-8 overall at Shipley Field and 3-6 in league play. AJ Casario leads the team in batting with a .320 average, while Mike Murphy and Dan Melvin are tied for the team lead with five home runs. Roger Clemens Award Watch List candidate Brett Cecil heads up the Maryland pitching staff as he leads the team with five wins, eight saves and 53 strikeouts.

AGAINST THE TERRAPINS

Jack Rye and Tony Thomas, Jr. are the only two players on the 2007 roster that has played in all six games against Maryland over the past two seasons. Rye is a career .316 (6-for-19) hitter against the Terrapins with a double, two runs scored and two RBI's. Thomas has also collected six career hits against Maryland.

On the mound, the Seminole pitching staff has posted an ERA of 2.67 the last two years. Bryan Henry is 2-0 as a starter throwing seven innings in each of his two starts. Michael Hyde and Brian Chambers are the only other pitchers on the current staff to have at least two appearances against Maryland. Luke Tucker earned two saves in as many appearances last year pitching a combined two innings of shut-out baseball. He gave up just one hit and struck out two over those two innings of work.

seven, three-game series to start the 2007 season. The series against Maryland is the fourth three-game set on the road for the Seminoles this season. FSU is 6-3 away from home in 2007 collecting series victories over Duke, NC State and Miami. The Seminoles have posted series sweeps against Wake Forest, Boston College and Virginia Tech. With the two victories over Miami last weekend, Florida State surpassed last year's ACC win total of 16. Since joining the league in 1992, FSU is the only team in the ACC to post 14 or more league wins in each of the last 16 seasons. The school record for the most ACC victories in a season is 22 set in 1999 that year the Seminoles finished league play at 22-2. The Seminoles lost at home for the first time in league play to North Carolina and now stand with a record of 11-1 in Dick Howser Stadium. FSU started a season 9-0 at home for the fifth time overall and for the first time since 2002. In 2001 and 2002, the Seminoles went undefeated at home in conference play posting a perfect 12-0 record. This year Florida State won its first seven conference games before falling at Duke in game two of the series. It was the Seminoles' best start in ACC play since 1999 when the Garnet and Gold started 13-0. Since joining the ACC in 1992, FSU started league play winning its first six games just three times.

HOME RUNS ON THE ROAD

Before Florida State's weekend series against Duke, the Seminoles had 12 home runs through the first 28 games. They left Durham with 21 round trippers in 2007. Yes, Seminole batters hit nine home runs vs. Duke, three in each series, including five by second baseman Tony Thomas, Jr. Thomas hit back-to-back homers in his first two at-bats in game one including the team's first lead off home run of the season. Tommy Oravetz hit his first collegiate homer, while Mark Hallberg hit his first round tripper as a Seminole. Nineteen of the 35 home runs hit by Florida State this season have come on the road including the nine hit against Duke. Florida State registered five against Miami hitting three in game

one. It was the fourth time this season the Seminoles hit three home runs in a game. Three others have come on the road vs. the Gators including two in Gainesville and one in Jacksonville. The final two came against NC State in Raleigh

NATIONAL SEMIFINALISTS

Senior Bryan Henry and junior Tony Thomas, Jr. were both named semifinalists for the Dick Howser Trophy and the Golden Spikes Award as announced by the respective organizations on Tuesday, May 1.

For the Golden Spikes Award - in total, 40 college and universities are represented on the 2007 semifinalists list. Among the conferences, the ACC landed 10 players on the list to lead the nation. FSU was one of nine schools with multiple players selected to the semifinalists list including three schools from the ACC in North Carolina, Virginia and Georgia Tech. The winner will be announced on June 29 during the 2007 USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Show presented by Major League Baseball.

Past Florida State winners of the Golden Spike Award include J.D. Drew (1997), Mike Loynd (1986) and Mike Fuentes (1984).

The Seminoles are one of seven college and universities to have two or more semifinalists in the running for the Howser Trophy as announced by the NCBWA and the St. Petersburg Area Chamber of Commerce. Criteria for consideration for the trophy include performance on the field, leadership, moral character and courage, qualities that were exemplified by Dick Howser's life. The winner will be announced at the College World Series on Friday, June 15.

J.D. Drew is the lone FSU recipient of the Dick Howser Trophy winning the award in 1997.

ACC ACCOLADES – PART VI

FSU received honors from the league office four weeks in a row and six times this season. Senior Bryan Henry became the first Florida State hurler to win Pitcher of the Week honors in 2007 after his masterful effort on the mound last Friday in a 4-2 Florida State victory over No. 2 UNC.

Henry matched his season-high in innings pitched for the third time this season with eight solid innings against UNC. He allowed just one run on four hits while striking out eight. Henry and the Seminoles handed UNC's Robert Woodard his first loss of the season and just his fourth loss in his career.

Henry joins Buster Posey (April 16), Brandon

Reichert (April 9) and Tony Thomas, Jr., who has been named ACC Player of the Week three times in 2007 winning the award on February 12, March 5 and April 2.

HENRY JOINS ELITE COMPANY

Bryan Henry collected his third career honor as ACC Pitcher of the Week with this week's announcement by the league office. He now becomes the third pitcher in FSU history to win ACC Pitcher of the Week honors at least three times joining Paul Wilson, who won the award a school record six times, and Mike Ziegler (3).

3-PEAT FOR THOMAS

Tony Thomas, Jr. has been recognized by the league office as the ACC Player of the Week three times this season. It is the ninth time that FSU has had an athlete win the weekly honor three times in a season. He joins a list of five other Seminole greats to be recognized by the league office three times in the same year (Paul Wilson and J.D. Drew each won the award three times in a season twice). The last Florida State player to perform such a feat was Mike Ziegler in 2000.

WELCOME BACK LUKE

Luke Tucker made his first appearance of the season in game one against Virginia Tech in FSU's 14-1 victory. Tucker entered the game in the top of the seventh and was untouchable as he threw a scoreless inning issuing a walk, while striking out two. The senior right hander sat out the first half of the season after suffering an internal impingement to his right shoulder. Tucker found his way back to the mound after going through vigorous stretching programs to get his shoulder back into a routine of pitching everyday. He went back out on the mound in a mid-week contest against the Gators and got the Seminoles out of a bases loaded, two out jam in the seventh as he got Jared Kubin looking on strikes. In his third game of the season, he pitched 1.1 innings in game three against UNC and once again looked impressive. He faced five batters and allowed just one hit. In Tucker's fourth appearance against Miami in game three, he pitched a scoreless inning allowing a hit while striking out two.

INHERITING RUNNERS

Junior transfer Danny Rosen has provided the Seminole bullpen with a huge lift since arriving on campus as a walk-on this season. Rosen leads the team with eight saves in nine opportunities, but more importantly he has pitched well in tough situations. In six of his 20 relief appearances, Rosen has inherited 13 runners allowing only two to score. Those two runs that scored came in his first appearance as a Seminole and in the second game of the season against Tennessee. Senior Brian Chambers has been just as effective in the same situation as he has inherited 15 runners on eight separate occasions allowing four to score.

HE GOT IT

Mike Martin crossed another milestone off his to do list with his team's sweep of Minnesota last season. With the 12-4 win in the second game of the series, Martin became only the eighth coach in NCAA history to reach the 1,400 win-plateau and only the sixth active coach to do so. Of the eight coaches with 1,400 wins Martin has the fourth-best winning percentage and the second-highest winning percentage among active Division I coaches. Of the top 10 coaches across all divisions for wins, only four coaches have a winning percentage above .700 and Mike Martin is among that group. Martin passed another legend with FSU's 14-6 win over Florida in Gainesville as he moved into fifth place all-time passing former High Point and Virginia Tech head skipper Chuck Hartman. Overall, Martin ranks third in the DI 1,400-win club behind Stephenson and former Texas coaching legend Cliff Gustafson for winning percentage.

BEST START THROUGH 46 GAMES

With a record of 39-7, Florida State is off to its best start through 46 games since posting the same mark in 1991, a season in which the Seminoles advanced to the College World Series. It is the third time in school history that FSU has posted a record of 39-7 under legendary head coach Mike Martin.

NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Tony Thomas, Jr. is having a season that only few can ever dream of as the Seminole second baseman ranks in the top 10 in 10 different offensive categories in the ACC. Heading into this weekend's game against Maryland, Thomas ranks in five national categories including doubles per game, runs per game, batting average, slugging percentage and triples per game. Bryan Henry has the second most wins in the nation with 11, while he ranks 18th with 88 strikeouts. Danny Rosen's 8 saves is good for 33rd nationally, while Mark Hallberg sits 28th in sacrifice hits per game at 0.26.

ON DECK FOR THE SEMINOLES

Florida State will have its work cut out with only 9 games remaining on the 2007 schedule. Of the three teams that are left, two of the remaining schools advanced to the College World Series a season ago including Miami (road), Clemson (home) and Georgia Tech (road). Three of the four schools have an RPI that rank in the top 50 including Clemson at No. 24.

NO. 1 IN THE NATION

Florida State held the top spot in Collegiate Baseball's top 25 poll for six straight weeks before handing over the reigns to Vanderbilt this week. The Seminoles earned their first No. 1 ranking of the season as released by Collegiate Baseball on Monday, March 19. The Seminoles, who are coming off a series victory Miami in Coral Gables, sit at 17-4 in the conference and 39-7 overall. FSU has posted a record of 16-7 while being ranked No. 1 in the nation. Florida State also held the top spot in the nation for six weeks starting on March 14, 2006.

FIFTH PLACE ALL-TIME FOR #11

Chalk up yet another milestone for Florida State head coach Mike Martin. With the Seminoles 14-6 win over Florida in Gainesville back on February 20, Martin moved into sole possession of fifth place on the NCAA all-time wins list with 1,445 victories. Martin passed former High Point and Virginia Tech head coach Chuck Hartman on the list, who retired after 46 years as a collegiate head coach. Martin currently sits with 1,474 career victories.

11 WINS FOR HENRY

Thanks to a four-run ninth inning by the Seminole offense last Friday night in FSU's 7-6 come-from-behind win over Miami, Bryan Henry remained perfect on the season moving his record to 11-0 in 13 starts. Henry becomes the 19th pitcher to reach the 11-win plateau in a single season since Florida State joined the ACC back in 1992. The win was also career victory No. 29 for Henry moving him into a tie with Randy Choate (1995-97) for 9th place all-time on the career wins list at Florida State.

GRAND NIGHT FOR POSEY

Buster Posey broke up a one-run Seminole lead in the sixth inning of game two against Miami with his first career grand slam. The sophomore catcher took a 1-2 offering from Hurricane pitcher Alex Koronis and hit it over the wall in right center for his second home run of the season. The round tripper proved to be the eventual game-winner for the Seminoles.

MULTI-RBI GAMES

Three Seminoles have posted five or more RBI's in a game this season including Mark Hallberg, Jack Rye and Buster Posey. Rye was the first to eclipse the mark in 2007 driving in six runs in FSU's 16-3 victory over North Florida. Hallberg then drove in a career-high five RBI's in the series finale against Siena. Last Saturday night against Miami, Posey set the season-high for RBI's in a single-game with seven against the Hurricanes. Four of the seven came on Posey's first career grand slam.

SAVE AND START IN THE SAME WEEK

Two days after earning his eighth save in nine chances in 2007, junior Danny Rosen took the mound for the second time in three games against the University of Miami. But this time as the Sunday starter. Rosen made his first collegiate start as a Seminole throwing a career-high four plus innings in FSU's 7-1 loss. The Miami, Fla., native struck out three and walked four in suffering his first loss of the season.

BEST START IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Florida State's 23-0 start was by far the best start in school history, surpassing the team's previous best start by eight games. The Seminoles have started a season with at least a 10-0 record seven times in the program's 60-year history. In the second game against Siena, the Seminoles moved to 16-0 with an 8-3 victory over the Saints, breaking the school record for the best start ever. In 1975, under then head coach Woody Woodward, Florida State began the year 15-0. They finished the '75 season with a mark of 49-10 advancing to the College World Series and finishing the season with a ranking as high as No. 7 by Collegiate Baseball. 1975 also marked the first year as an assistant coach for current head coach Mike Martin. This is the best start in 28 seasons under the legendary ball coach.

FSU All-Time Best Starts:

- 1) 2007: 23-0
- 2) 1975: 15-0
- 3) 1972, 1985: 12-0
- 4) 1956, 1999: 11-0
- 5) 1971: 10-0

RUNS IN BUNCHES

Sure the Seminoles have scored 400 runs through 43 games this season, the eighth highest 43-game total to start a season in school history, but what is impressive is how they are scoring those runs. The Seminoles have posted multiple runs in 99 innings this season and have scored at least one run in 166 of the 358 innings they have played.

EARLY NOLE GETS THE 'W'

Florida State has managed to put runs on the scoreboard in the early goings of the 2007 season outscoring the opposition 164-75 in the first three innings. The Seminoles have scored 50 or more runs in five innings this season, including the first (59), third (60), sixth (63), seventh (59) and eighth (56) innings. Florida State has scored in every inning that they have seen an at-bat this season including a run in extra innings.

RUNS A-PLENTY

The Seminoles have scored 421 runs through 46 games, an average of 9.2 runs per game. That run production through 46 games is the eighth highest total to start a season in the 60 years of Seminole baseball. The school record for most runs scored in a season is 752 set in 1982. That year the Seminoles advanced to the NCAA Regionals playing 74 games averaging 10.2 runs per game. Below is a listing of the top five seasons through the first 46 games in Seminole baseball history:

- 1) 1982 543 runs
- 2) 1980 476 runs
- 3) 1996 466 runs
- 4) 1986 457 runs
- 4) 1985 457 runs
- 8) 2007 421 runs

TWO OUT RUNS

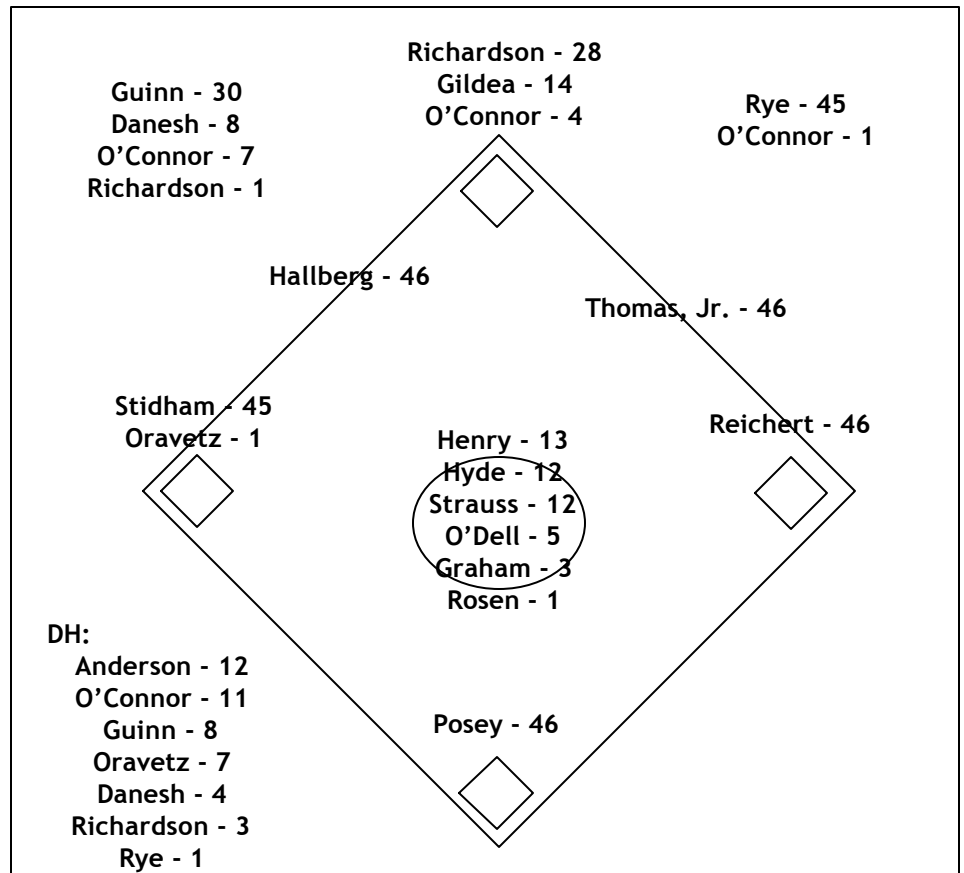

When it comes to two out run production Florida State has produced so far this season. Through 46 games this season, the Seminoles have scored 169 runs with two outs. That's 40.1% of their run production in 2007 coming with two outs. FSU scored a season-high 11 runs with two outs twice. First coming in the series finale against UNC Asheville, a game the Seminoles won 15-1. The Garnet and Gold then scored 11 runs on two outs in a 15-3 victory over Duke in game one of the series in Durham. Against the Gators, FSU scored nine runs on two outs including four in the first two innings. The Seminoles scored another nine runs on two outs in a 10-2 win over Appalachian State in game two of that series. In the Seminoles first ACC series in 2007, Florida State outscored Wake Forest 22-10 as 12 of the 22 runs recorded came on two outs.

AND TWO OUT HITS

Yes, you can say the Seminoles are off to their best start in school history and you can point to a lot of reasons why this has happened. But probably the most overlooked stat is what the team is doing with two outs in an inning. FSU is batting .336 as a team posting 184 hits in 547 two-out opportunities. Five Seminoles are batting .380 or better, eight have registered 10 or more hits and seven have tallied 10 or more RBI's. Junior Jack Rye leads the team with two out RBI's as 27 of his team leading 47 runs batted in have come in that situation. Rye also leads the team with 23 two-out hits.

GAMES STARTED BY POSITION

DOUBLE-DIGIT RUNS & HITS

The Seminoles got off to a hot start in 2007 as they scored double-digit runs in 13 of their first 17 games. FSU had a string of eight straight double-digit run games earlier this year. In the 60-year history of Seminole baseball, Florida State registered double-digit runs in eight consecutive games just twice, the last time coming in 2003 when the Seminoles strung together nine straight games of 10+ runs. FSU has posted 19 double-digit run games this year.

FSU has also posted double-digit hits in 38 of its 46 games played so far including a streak of 16 straight at one point in the season. Since 1996, the Seminoles have had a streak of eight or more double-digit hit games 10 times, including a more recent streak of 11 games in a row which came to an end in game two vs. UNC. This year's 16 straight double-digit hit games are the longest of record dating back to 1996. The previous best was 10 straight posted back in 2003.

HOLD IT RIGHT THERE

Florida State is leading the ACC in limiting the opposition to the fewest number of stolen bases attempted in 2007. Opponents have attempted a league low 30 stolen bases against the Seminoles and catcher Buster Posey is a big reason for that. Through 46 games, Posey is throwing out 41.4% of attempted base stealers. He has had only 29 stolen base attempts against him all season. Posey has also picked off a pair of base runners on the season. To put the number in perspective, North Carolina is second in the ACC with 48 attempted stolen bases.

FROM CATCHER TO PITCHER

Sophomore Buster Posey made his much anticipated pitching debut at Florida State in the third game of the series against UNC Asheville. Posey went from behind the plate to the mound in the top of the fifth and pitched a scoreless inning. The Leesburg, Ga., native induced a pair of groundball outs including an inning ending 6-4-3 double play.

30 WINS AND COUNTING

With a 10-4 win over NC State in game one last Friday, Florida State became the first team to reach the 30-win plateau in Division I this season. The Seminoles at 39-7 have the highest winning percentage (.848) in the nation and join Vanderbilt as the only two teams in the nation with 39 wins.

LIMITING THE ERRORS

At one stretch during the season, Florida State went six games without committing an error, a span covering 63.2 consecutive innings. It is the longest errorless streak since 1993 when FSU went five straight games without posting an error. FSU also started the season with a streak of 36 consecutive innings without committing an error.

Through 46 games this season, FSU has posted a fielding percentage of .973 committing 48 errors in 1,754 total chances. The 2005 and 2006 squads rank as two of the top five best defensive teams in FSU history posting a .967 fielding percentage in each of the last two years. Here is a look at the top five fielding teams in school history dating back to 1973:

SEEING DOUBLE

Florida State has hit 129 doubles through 46 games this season, that's an average of 2.8 doubles per game. If the Seminoles continue on their current doubles pace, they could hit 154 doubles, falling slightly off pace of the school record of 182 double hit in 72 games back in 1990, an average of 2.5 doubles per game that year.

PERFECT FEBRUARY

Florida State posted a perfect 14-0 record in the month of February for just the fifth time in the 60-year history of Seminole baseball. It was the first time the Seminoles went undefeated in the first month of the season since 1979 when the Garnet and Gold went 2-0. The previous record for the best undefeated mark in the month of February was 5-0 registered back in 1976.

WALK-OFF JACK

FSU played its first extra inning game of the season on March 16 against Wake Forest and came through with a victory defeating the Deacs 7-6 in 11 innings. Junior Jack Rye, who has come through in clutch situations for the Seminoles this season, provided FSU with its first walk-off hit of the season singling home the winning run with two outs in the bottom of the 11th. Rye registered his third RBI of the game as his single glanced off the glove of the leaping second baseman. The ball trickled away just enough to allow Rye to reach first and pinch runner Ryan Strauss to score from third for the game-winner.

FSU IN THE ACC

Heading into the mid-week contest against the Gators, Florida State ranked as the top hitting and fielding team in the conference. FSU has posted an average of .360 through 46 games, while registering a team fielding percentage of .973. The Seminoles are fourth in the ACC in team ERA at 3.35.

Tony Thomas, Jr. leads the league in eight offensive categories, while ranking in the top 10 in two others including stolen bases per game (3rd) and home runs per game (8th). Listed below are the following categories that Thomas leads the ACC in:

Batting Average450
Hit/Game	1.87
Runs/Game	1.52
Doubles/Game	0.54
Triples/Game	0.13
Total Bases/Game	3.20
On-Base %543
Slugging %770

Bryan Henry leads the league in wins and games started as he sits with a 11-0 record in 13 starts. He also ranks in the top 5 in four other pitching categories including:

Opp. Batting Average227 (3rd)
Strikeouts/Game	9.39 (4th)
Innings Pitched/Game	6.49 (4th)
ERA	2.45 (5th)

Three Seminoles sit in the top 15 in the ACC as ranked by ERA. Bryan Henry leads all FSU starts and ranks fifth followed by teammates Michael Hyde in 8th (2.79) and Ryan Strauss in 11th (3.03). Florida State is the only team in the conference to have three of its starting pitchers rank in the top 15 in ERA.

ONE IS A LONELY NUMBER

Florida State was the last remaining unbeaten team in Division I baseball until a March 21 tilt against Jacksonville. JU handed the Seminoles their first loss of the season, snapping FSU's 23-game winning streak to start the season.

FIRST COLLEGIATE HOME RUNS

D'Vontrey Richardson and Jason Stidham each hit their first collegiate home run against the Florida Gators in the Seminoles 14-6 victory in Gainesville. Stidham connected on a solo shot in the top of the fifth off reliever Josh Edmondson. The freshman third baseman sent a 1-2 offering over the wall in right for his first digger of the season. Richardson hit a three-run shot in the top of the eighth to put a stamp on the Seminole victory. The freshman center fielder sent a rocket shot that cleared the bleacher seats in left for his first career round tripper.

Stephen Cardullo got in on the action as he hit his first collegiate home run against North Florida. The freshman from Coral Springs, Fla., took the first offering he saw from Osprey reliever Paul Morales and sent the ball over the wall in left center for a three-run shot.

Ohmed Danesh registered his first collegiate home run in game two against North Carolina. Danesh blasted a solo shot over the right field to lead off the Seminole fourth.

2007 HONORS & AWARDS

Bryan Henry was named Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week on Monday, February 5, 2007 for his performance on the mound against Tennessee on opening day. He added ACC Pitcher of the Week for his masterful performance against No. 2 North Carolina.

Rivals.com recognized first-year third baseman Jason Stidham as the Freshman of the Week for his performance against Tennessee.

Tony Thomas, Jr., has been honored by the league office three times in 2007 (2/12, 3/5, 4/2). He was also honored as the Louisville Slugger and NCBWA National Player of the Week for his play at Duke.

Brandon Reichert received ACC Player of the Week honors thanks to his play against NC State. Catcher

Buster Posey joined the list of ACC honorees as he was recognized as the Player of the Week for his play against Jacksonville and Virginia Tech.

Thomas, Henry, Reichert and Posey have each received accolades on the National Honor Roll by the College Baseball Foundation.
