'Noles, Aggies meet on Super Road to Omaha

Making its 34th consecutive and 49th overall NCAA postseason baseball appearance, Florida State entertains Texas A&M in the best-of-three Tallahassee Super Regional. The Seminoles are making their 11th Super Regional appearance in 13 seasons since the NCAA adopted the new format in 1999. It is the most appearances by a single school in the nation. Mike Martin Field at Dick Howser Stadium is also serving as the host site for an eighth time, which also leads the country. On the line for the Seminoles is a 21st appearance in the College World Series. FSU enters the Super Regional as one of only four remaining teams that has a chance to play in the first CWS at Omaha's new TD Ameritrade Stadium and to have played the final CWS at Rosenblatt Stadium.

- Florida State and Texas A&M have met three times previously, including twice in the post-season. The Seminoles have a 2-1 edge, including two postseason wins - 12-9 in the second game of the 1986 NCAA Regional in Tallahassee and 7-3 in the 1999 College World Series. In both years the 'Noles went on to play in the CWS championship game. Texas A&M's lone victory (9-1) came in the 1992 Oscar Mayer Tournament at the Metrodome in Minneapolis;
- FSU is playing host to a fourth consecutive Super Regional; a first for the program and just the fourth school to hold that distinction. It's a special accomplishment, especially for fourth-year Seminoles Mike McGee, Stuart Tapley, Tyler Everett and Parker Brunelle, who vying for a third trip to the CWS in four seasons. What sets apart the '08 signing class - which includes redshirt juniors Taiwan Easterling and Jack Posey - is they arrived in the midst of a seven-year drought between CWS appearances; the longest in the program's storied history.

* No team has played more NCAA Tournament games than FSU with 212 in program history.

* Since the bracket expanded to 64 teams in 1999, the top eight national seeds have advanced to the College World Series 59 times out of 96 opportunities. Six of the last seven CWS champions have (2004-08, 2010) been unseeded in the tournament. LSU (2009) was the last seeded school to win the title.

* Florida State faced 12 schools that were selected to this year's field of 64, including three- national seeds Virginia, Florida and North Carolina - which advanced to the Super Regional round. The Seminoles posted a 21-14 record against NCAA tournament teams, claiming seven series victories, while tying in three others. FSU took 3-of-4 from Florida, the No. 2 overall national seed. They also posted series victories against UCF (2-1), Jacksonville (2-0), Miami (2-1), Georgia Tech (1-0), Georgia (2-1) and Maine (2-0). The Seminoles tied Clemson (2-2), NC State (2-2) and Stetson (1-1). FSU was 1-3 against No. 1 Virginia and 1-2 against No. 3 North Carolina, for an overall 5-6 record against the top three seeds in the field.

FSU sweeps to Tallahassee Region title Florida State put a cap on its 27th NCAA Regional title with Monday's 11-1 victory over Alabama in a completion of Sunday's suspended game. The 'Noles rolled to a 3-0 mark, opening with a 6-5 win over Bethune-Cookman, followed by a 9-5 victory over Alabama in the winner's bracket match-up. With the sweep, the Seminoles have strung together 13 consecutive NCAA Regional victories, dating to 2008. FSU put together its best offensive weekend in a month, batting .398 over the three-game regional...Taiwan Easterling (.714), James Ramsey (.615), Rafael Lopez (.500) and Sherman Johnson (.455) led the offensive charge...Mike McGee drove in a team-high five runs, followed by Ramsey with four...FSU's pitching staff was solid, posting two games without a walk. McGee and Scott Sitz combined on a five-hitter in the title game...Ramsey earned MVP honors and was joined on the all-tournament team by Devon Travis, Lopez, Johnson and McGee.

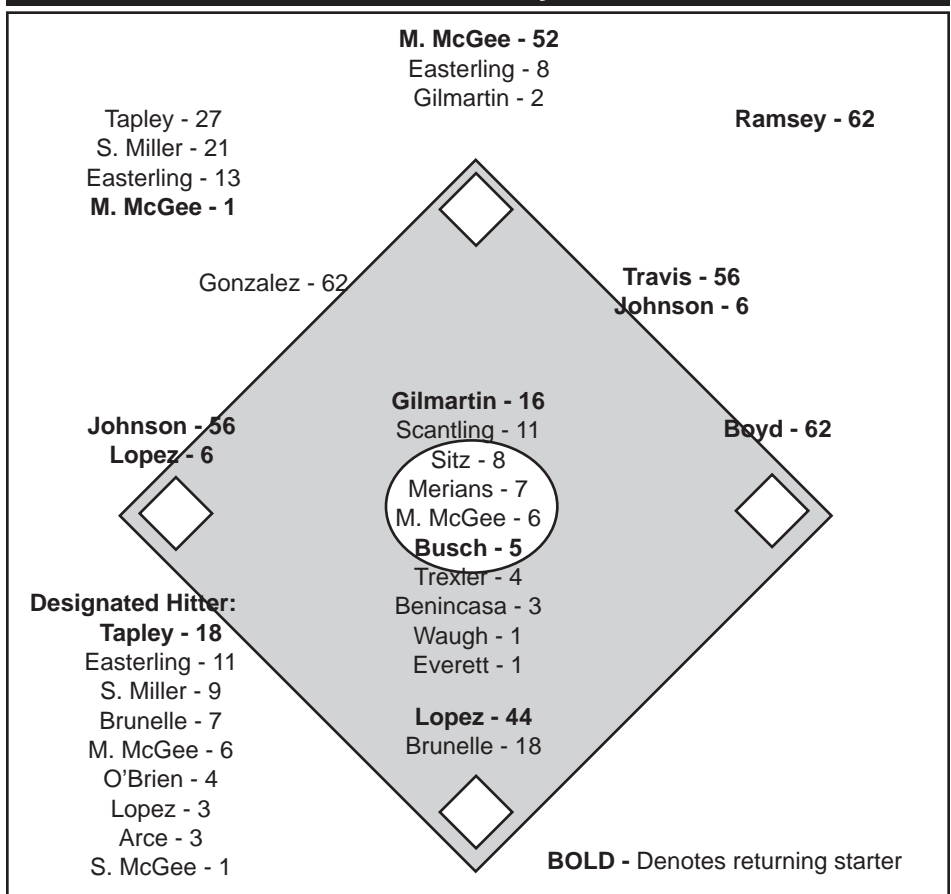

'Noles shine against Florida foes The Seminoles enjoyed great success against in-state opponents during the 2011 regular season, posting a 13-4 overall record against six different Florida schools. FSU won six series and split another. Over the past two seasons the Seminoles are 24-9 against their in-state rivals, padding their total with a Tallahassee Regional victory over Bethune-Cookman.

2011 In-State Series Records

Florida	3-1
Florida Gulf Coast	2-0
Jacksonville	2-0
Miami	2-1
UCF	2-1
Stetson	1-1
Bethune-Cookman	1-0

Continuing their ACC prowess For the fifth consecutive season, Florida State earned at least a share or the ACC's Atlantic Division title, rolling up a 19-11 record to secure the No. 2 seed. It was the fourth outright divisional crown for the Seminoles, who followed up by reaching the ACC Championship game for a third consecutive season. Virginia, the nation's No. 1 NCAA seed, spoiled FSU's title defense run with a 7-2 win in Sunday's championship game. The 'Noles went 2-2 in the tournament at

Seminole Starts By Position

Durham Bulls Athletic Park, losing the opener to NC State before beating Clemson and Georgia Tech to reach the title game. 'Noles James Ramsey, Mike McGee and Rafael Lopez earned All-Tournament honors...FSU was also well-represented on the All-ACC teams, which honor the leagues best at the conclusion of the regular season. Devon Travis, Sean Gilmartin, Ramsey and McGee were first-team selections, while Daniel Bennett and Lopez were second-team honorees.

Non-conference dominance For the second consecutive season, Florida State has enjoyed great success against non-conference opponents, amassing a 24-4 overall mark. The whopping success includes a 7-2 record against SEC opponents, capped by its two regional wins over Alabama. The 'Noles also had winning records against teams from the Atlantic Sun (5-1), Colonial (3-0), Big South (3-0), America East (2-0), Conference USA (2-1), MEAC (1-0) as well as the DII Gulf South (1-0). The 'Noles were 21-4 against non-conference foes in 2010 pushing their two-year total to 45-8, all the while maintaining one of the nation's toughest schedules.

Seminole Millennium Men Florida State's success on the baseball diamond over the course of its 64-year history is well-documented. The Seminoles have the second-highest winning percentage in college history. Those winning ways followed FSU into the new millennium. Since 2000, no program has won more college baseball games than Florida State under the direction of Mike Martin. Here are the top five programs based on wins since 2000 heading into the NCAA postseason.

1. Florida State	590
2. Rice	576
3. Texas	575
4. South Carolina	562
5. North Carolina	545

Reaching 40 never grows old FSU earned its 40th victory of the season with an 8-6 victory over Clemson (5/19) at Dick Howser Stadium. It marked the 34th consecutive season, including all 32 under Mike Martin's direction, that FSU has reached the standard for excellence in college baseball circles. The opening game of the final regular season series was the FSU's 53rd of the 2011 season and equalled the same number of games it took the 2010 Seminoles to reach 40 victories. In fact, since the 2000 season only five teams have reached 40 wins in fewer than 53 games.

Efficiency key to offensive productivity Outsourcing the opposition is the key to victory and Florida State has found a variety of ways to become one of the most productive offensives in the county. One of the primary keys is its offensive proficiency. The Seminoles lead the nation in walks (362) for the third time in four seasons. That patience at the plate had led to a .409 on-base percentage, which ranks 5th nationally. Seminole batters have been hit by pitches 75 times, and though the team is batting just .294, it ranks 7th nationally in runs scored (447), 12th in runs per game (7.2) and 12th in scoring margin (+2.9). FSU's 405 RBI ranks 7th nationally and is 2nd in doubles (146).

newly-legislated BBCOR bats will have on the power numbers in 2011, the Seminoles have remained quite productive. Through 62 games, 12 different Seminoles have combined to produce 55 home runs. Given the dramatic changes nationally with the toned down bats, FSU's production compares favorably to last season, when 11 different Seminoles combined to produce 76 home runs through their first 62 games. The 'Noles are 14th nationally in homers in 2011.

Terrific with two outs

Florida State has been a thorn in the side of opponents at a time when it might seem an inning is coming to an end. The Seminoles have scored 196 two-out runs through 62 games – out of 447 total runs scored - accounting for 43.8 percent of their run production this season. FSU has earned its runs as well, racking up 160 two-out RBI. FSU's top two-out RBI producer is James Ramsey (27), followed by Sherman Johnson (22) and Jayce Boyd (21). Mike McGee (17), Devon Travis (14), Rafael Lopez (14) and Justin Gonzalez (14) are followed Stuart Tapley (12).

Sixth shutout most since '06

With its 8-0 victory over UCF on May 6, the Seminoles posted their sixth shutout victory of the season. It came just six days after FSU posted its first shutout win at Miami since 1993. Jamey Shouppe's pitching staff also counts a pair of shutout wins over VMI (12-0, 15-0), one against Hofstra (7-0) and Maryland (6-0) on the year. The six shutouts are the most in a season by Florida State since they registered seven during the 2006 campaign.

RPI among the nation's best

Florida State earned a No. 5 NCAA national seed in no small part due to outstanding NCAA RPI ranking. The Seminoles came out of the ACC Tournament with pivotal wins over Clemson and Georgia Tech and an NCAA RPI ranking of No. 5. FSU's success against an outstanding schedule proved critical to its seeding. The 'Noles played more games against the top three RPI teams - North Carolina, Virginia and Florida - than any program in the nation, and posted a 5-6 mark in those games. In all, FSU was 8-8 against teams with the top eight RPI rankings, and 14-11 vs. the Top 20. Perhaps more importantly, FSU's lowest-ranked RPI opponent was Maine (162), which went on to win the America East conference to qualify for a regional berth.

'Noles in the national rankings

Florida State is well-represented in this week's individual and team national statistical rankings, led by pitcher Sean Gilmartin. The left-hander is tied for 5th in wins (12) and 9th in strikeouts (122). Relief ace Daniel Bennett is tied for 3rd in appearances (38) and tied for 10th in saves (15), while the Seminoles collectively share the national lead in saves (23). Sherman Johnson is tied for 3rd in walks drawn (57)...On the team side the 'Noles rank 1st in Division I in walks (362), 2nd in doubles (146), 5th in on-base percentage (.409) and 7th in RBI (405) on runs scored (447).

Climbing the FSU Top 10 lists

Sean Gilmartin's start on Saturday will be the 50th of his career, good for 8th on the all-time list... Gilmartin's 313 career strikeouts rank 8th, eight behind Jon McDonald (320)...Daniel Bennett picked up his 18th career save which ties him with teammate Mike McGee for 4th all-time...Bennett's 15 saves this season ties him for second with

Tyler Chambliss (15) on the single-season list... Mike McGee has 509 total bases, which ranks 7th all-time, and trails Mike Fuentes (521)...McGee ranks 6th all-time in RBI (243) and trails J.D. Drew (257), while his 52 home runs rank 5th and 57 doubles are tied for 10th...he also need 6 hits, 8 walks and 11 runs scored to crack the top 10 career charts in those three categories...senior Stuart Tapley is tied for seventh with 31 hit by pitches, one behind Mark Barineau (32) in sixth place.

McGee flirting with FSU first

Florida State senior standout Mike McGee currently shares the team leads with 10 home runs and is tied for second with 56 RBI - 10 behind team leader James Ramsey - has an opportunity to do something in 2011 that no other Seminole has accomplished in the previous 63 seasons. No Seminole has led the team in home runs and RBI for three consecutive seasons. McGee is one of just four players to string together back-to-back seasons as the leader in those categories, joining Doug Mientkiewicz (1994-95), Frank Fazzini (1984-85) and Mike Fuentes (1979-80). Fazzini came the closest to pulling off the trifecta, when he finished second in RBI in 1983 – just four shy of the team lead.

Gilmartin is Spikes semifinalist

FSU junior pitcher Sean Gilmartin was selected as one of 25 semifinalists for the Golden Spikes Award, presented to the nation's top player by USA Baseball. Florida State has produced four Golden Spikes Award winners - more than any college program in the country. Mike Fuentes, Mike Loynd, J.D. Drew and Buster Posey are past recipients of the treasured trophy. Mike McGee was also a preseason candidate for the GSA.

McGee, Gilmartin hunting other honors
The College Baseball Hall of Fame has also selected Mike McGee and Sean Gilmartin for two of its most prominent national awards. McGee, winner of the inaugural John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award in 2010, is once again among the 10 semifinalists for the trophy presented to the player who best excels on the mound and at the plate. Gilmartin is a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Award, presented in honor of the former Florida State All-American and coach. His is also one of 10 semifinalists for the 2011 Pitcher of the Year Award. All three of the awards will be presented at the July 3 College Baseball Hall of Fame's Night of Champions in Lubbock, Texas.

Sunday streak comes to end

Florida State saw its incredible streak of 25 consecutive Sunday victories come to an end with a 7-6 loss to North Carolina on April 10. It was the first setback on a Sunday for the Seminoles since falling to Virginia 6-3 in the ACC Tournament championship game on May 24, 2009. Mike Martin's 2011 FSU baseball team got off to a rousing start in an attempt to continue its incredible run of Sunday success, which ran the length of the 2010 campaign – 17 games. The 'Noles won their first seven Sunday games this season, including a couple in dramatic fashion. On March 20th they edged Virginia 12-11 in 10 innings on Rafael Lopez' s solo homer to lead off the top of the 10th. Lopez also had the game-winning sacrifice fly in a walk-off, 4-3 win over Boston College. The setback against the Tar Heels was the Seminoles first at home since March 8, 2009 against Boston College – a 25-month run. A number of significant victories were established during the streak, which began in 2009 with an NCAA Regional record-setting 37-6 throttling of Ohio State for the title. Last season, Florida State captured its 2010 ACC title with an 8-3 tournament win over NC State on Sunday. A week later they knocked off Oregon 5-3 to claim the NCAA Norwich Regional title. The 'Noles capped the run of 2010 Sunday victories with an 8-5 NCAA Super Regional triumph over Vanderbilt, securing their 20th CWS appearance.

Bonus baseball bonanza

The 2011 Seminoles were party to a historically improbable streak, playing five consecutive extra-inning games. The school record string began with FSU's visit to Florida on March 15 and continued through the March 23 home game against Stetson, an 11-inning affair. The Seminoles were 1-4 over that five-game stretch, which included four one-run decisions and one two-run contest. By all accounts, FSU had only been involved in four consecutive extra-inning games once before - in 1987 - when they strung together two each against Jacksonville and Miami. Dating back to the March 13 home game against Boston College, a 4-3 FSU walk-off win in the home ninth, the 'Noles played five consecutive one-run games. The last of those came during the extra-inning streak. It was the first time in the 64-year history of the program - spanning 3,486 games - that the Seminoles were involved in five consecutive one-run games. Following the win over BC, FSU fell at Florida (5-4) in 10 innings, at Virginia 4-3 and 5-4 - in 10 and 11 innings - and closed that series with a 12-11 win in 10 innings over the Cavaliers. The first four of those games were decided in walk-off fashion.

Streaks & Things

Junior James Ramsey extended his streak of reaching base to 51 consecutive games through the regional tournament. Ramsey has reached in 61 of 62 games this season, with the lone blemish coming a 2-1 loss at Georgia on March 5...Jayce Boyd has the next-longest active streak of reaching base, which is currently at 28 games...Ramsey also has a team-best 8-game hitting streak, which pales in comparison to his 24-game streak (10th in school history) established earlier this season... Sherman Johnson has reached base safely in 59 of 62 games this season...Sean Gilmartin has strung together 16 consecutive "quality starts" (6 IP, 3 earned runs), dating to the 2010 CWS. It's tied for the second-longest active streak in the nation... Boyd has been on a two-month tear at the plate. On April 6 he was hitting .248 and he enters the Super Regional with a .335 average that had climbed as high as .241. He has 16 multi-hit games over the past two months.

Seven men guided the Florida State baseball program through its first 32 years, each enjoying some measure of success. In his 32nd season as the Seminoles' head coach, Mike Martin continues to redefine success by any standard of measure. With his 1,672 career victories - a .744 winning percentage that led all active NCAA Division I coaches entering the season - 32 consecutive regional tournament appearances and 14 trips to the College World Series, Martin's place in college baseball history is secure.

Martin was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2007. Since then he has eclipsed the 1,500- and 1,600-win milestones, returned to the College World Series twice in the last three seasons and shown no sign of slowing down, while continuing to turn out All-Americans, Major League Draft choices and postseason participants.

Only two men, Texas' Augie Garrido and Wichita State's Gene Stephenson, have won more games than the man whose uniform number - 11 - is universally substituted for his name among players, fans, colleagues, and even family members. There's a reason Martin is treated like family among the Florida State faithful. He has been associated with the Seminoles for 39 of the program's 64 seasons - as a player, assistant coach and head coach.

There have been 3,538 baseball games played in FSU history and Martin has been involved in 2,633 of those in some capacity. Even more impressively, he's been on the field or in the dugout for 1,939 of the Seminoles' 2,572 all-time victories. In a sport where you're immortalized for batting .300, Martin has more than doubled that success rate - having had a hand in 75 percent of the program's victories in some capacity.

The 2010 season brought more of the same success for Martin and the Seminoles, who extended their consecutive NCAA Regional appearances streak to 33, culminating an impressive postseason run with a 14th trip to the College World Series. FSU's 48-20 campaign included a fifth Atlantic Coast Conference championship, which marked the 16th league title for a Martin-coached club. Mike McGee and Tyler Holt, stars from the 2010 season, were recognized by earning All-America and All-ACC honors. In all, Martin's Seminoles have collected 78 All-America and 98 All-ACC honors. Furthermore, he has coached six players - Mike Fuentes, Mike Loynd, J.D. Drew, Shane Robinson, Tony Thomas, Jr. and Buster Posey - who were named National Player of the Year. Three of those have been honored over the last six seasons.

Over the past three decades, Martin has developed a program that consistently turns out great teams. FSU baseball is the second-winningest program all-time, trailing only Texas, which has played 114 seasons - that's 51 seasons more than the Seminoles.

Since the start of the 2000 season, Florida State has won more games (588) than any other program. Since 1990, no Division I school has more top 10 finishes, 50-plus win seasons or participated in more NCAA Regionals.

Dating to 1990, the Seminoles have flourished in the postseason. From their 21 consecutive NCAA Regional appearances - 17 as the hosts - FSU has finished its season at the College World Series 10 times. Since the start of Super Regional play in 1999, FSU has reached the penultimate postseason round nine times and played host at Dick Hower Stadium on seven occasions.

Seminoles On The Air

For the 30th consecutive season, Florida State flagship stations - WNLS 1270-AM and WFLA 100.7-FM - are calling every pitch of 2011 Seminoles baseball. Tom Block and Eric Luallen call the action, with weekday games airing on WNLS and the weekend action over on WFLA. The veteran tandem also provides the audio for every game through All-Access on Seminoles.com.

Howser Stadium has hosted more than 3 million college baseball fans

At the completion of a two-year, $12 million overhaul, Dick Howser Stadium secured its rightful place among the best collegiate baseball facilities in the country. More than three million fans have taken in a ballgame at the stadium named for Florida State's first All-American player. On April 2, 2005, Florida State University dedicated the stadium field to current coach Mike Martin, who succeeded the stadium's namesake and has taken the program to its greatest heights. Mike Martin Field at Dick Howser Stadium has been home and host to some of finest players and teams.

FSU players and coaches enjoy the convenience and luxury of a clubhouse and locker room located directly behind the Seminole dugout. The Griffin Family Clubhouse was described by former Seminole and 2004 World Series Champion Doug Mientkiewicz as being 'better than 95% of the big league clubhouses' he has seen. The locker room contains personalized wooden lockers for each player, a separate locker room for the Seminole coaches and trainers, and a video area where FSU players and coaches can watch film.

The stadium also houses the baseball offices, all of which overlook the field. In addition, the players don't have to leave the facility for weight training or to receive treatment in the athletic training room. Completely covered and lighted batting cages provide players with year-round access. A state-of-the-art press box facility, including home and visiting radio booths, a television booth and auxiliary areas, set Howser apart from virtually all others.

Ongoing efforts upgrade and maintain the facility since its debut have included the addition of an exterior brick façade, a new sound system and improvements to the scoreboard.

Stadium capacity increased to 6,700 as additional seats were added during the two-year construction project. FSU annually ranks in the top 10 nationally in attendance. In 2008, Florida State set single-season records for both total home attendance (202,132) and average home attendance (4,930). It marked the first time in school history that more than 200,000 fans turned out. The Seminole faithful helped reach a new landmark in 2009, when the 41-game home slate brought 184,227 to the ballpark, pushing FSU's all-time, home attendance past 3-million.

The Seminole faithful set the standard for all others in the ACC as more than 100,000 FSU fans have attended games at Dick Howser Stadium each of the last nine years and 11 of the last 12. No ACC school has drawn as many fans in the new millennium.

Fan support, a superior facility and a professional game operation is one reason FSU has been chosen as an NCAA Regional site 23 time in 27 years. Howser has also been the host to seven Super Regionals.

The stadium was dedicated in honor of Dick Howser in March of 1988 prior to an exhibition game between Florida State and the Kansas City Royals. As part of the stadium dedication, Kansas City all-stars George Brett and Bo Jackson helped unveil a new $150,000 matrix scoreboard and a bronze bust of Howser. While the bust of Howser still stands in Haggard Baseball Plaza, the matrix scoreboard was replaced in January 2004 with a new $800,000 video board, which stands 40 feet high and 70 feet wide.

The playing surface dimensions measure 320 feet to right field, 400 feet to center and 340 feet to left. Prior to the 1986 season, a screen was added to the top of the right field wall, increasing in five-foot increments from 20 feet in the power alley to 30 feet in right field — providing a distinctness that stands alone.

The Mike Loynd "Tradition Room" — built thanks to the generous donation from the same-named former Seminole All-American pitcher — serves as a showcase to Florida State's rich baseball tradition.

Fans continue to flock Howser Stadium

Florida State continues to rank as one of the top draws in college baseball at Dick Howser Stadium. Through May 31 (32 home games), FSU ranks seventh in average and total attendance among Division I programs - tops among Atlantic Coast Conference and Florida schools. The April 12 sellout crowd of the Florida game pushed FSU beyond 100,000 in total attendance for the 10th consecutive year. The Seminoles closed the regular season averaging 4,753 fans per game at home, which is second only to the record-setting 2008 average of 4,930. Seminoles' supporters turned out from the start this season as 15,508 (5,169 avg.) attended the season-opening series against VMI. It was also the third-largest, three-game opening series opening crowd. FSU fans set a record in 2007 when 17,301 turned out for the first three games against Hofstra. Here are the current national figures through May 31:

School (home games)	Total	Avg
1. LSU (38)	400,295	10,534
2. Ole Miss (32)	261,006	8,156

Tribute to the Zookeeper: Drew Hankin

FSU baseball lost one of its most passionate fans earlier this year with the passing of Drew Hankin. In honor of the Zookeeper of the Animals of Section B, a likeness of Hankin and his name appear on the building beyond the left field fence.

2011 HIGHLIGHTS

- First-team All-ACC selection as a UTL/DH, marking third time he's been honored in that capacity by the league
- Semifinalist for the John Olerud Award as National Two-Way Player of the Year - he won the inaugural award in 2009
- Converted his first three save opportunities, registering 8 strikeouts, highlighted by striking out side to preserve win over No. 1 Florida ... 3 of 5 saves have come against nationally-ranked teams (Florida, twice; UNC) ... also logged a win in relief at Virginia
- Moved into starting rotation on May 1 and has gone 3-2 with wins over NCAA Regional opponents UCF and Alabama and nationally-ranked Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament
- Only active player in Division I with 21 career wins, 18 career saves and 52 career home runs
- Starting CF when not on the mound after three seasons in LF. He has made 52 starts this season in CF
- Bidding to be the first player in FSU history to lead the team in HRs and RBI for three consecutive seasons
- Has earned either a save or win in FSU's last three NCAA Regional-clinching games, getting the win over Ohio State in 2009, earning a save vs. Oregon in 2010 and emerging as the winning pitcher vs. Alabama in 2011

2011 HIGHLIGHTS

- Excellent commodity out of the bullpen who is first in the ACC in appearances (38) and games finished (28). Ranks second in the conference with 15 saves
- Has played a large role in FSU's impressive mark of 43-1 when leading after eight innings
- Recorded a season-high four strikeouts in two appearances this season, fanning 4 at Virginia on March 18 and 4 at Miami on April 29
- His 15 saves in 2011 is tied for second-most in school history, joining Tyler Chambliss (2005). Bennett is three shy of matching the single-season school record of 18 held by Mac Scarce (1971)
