THE GAME

Coming off a 30-22 win over Georgia Southern in Statesboro, Furman returns home this Saturday to face Wofford in the SportSouth televised season finale for both teams. Kickoff is set for 3:00 p.m.

With a victory Furman can secure its 11th consecutive winning season and third place Southern Conference finish after being picked to finish fourth and fifth, respectively, in a pair of SoCon preseason polls by coaches and media.

Wofford is coming off a 31-28 loss to Samford in Spartanburg.

Furman's players will wear a special helmet decal this Saturday in honor of long-time Paladin equipment manager Spear Sedgley, who will be honored at halftime. Sedgley, who is waging a courageous battle with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), commonly known as Lou Gehrig's Disease, worked two years (1988-89) as part of Furman's film crew before taking over duties as football equipment manager beginning in 1990, a position he held for 20 seasons prior to his retirement earlier this year.

LAST MEETING

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (Nov. 22, 2008) -- Ben Widmyer ran for two touchdowns and passed for another score to lead FCS ninth-ranked Wofford to a 35-10 Southern Conference victory over 20th-ranked Furman Saturday afternoon at Gibbs Stadium.

Widmyer ran 11 times for 80 yards and scored on runs of 19 and four yards, and the senior quarterback completed 8-of-11 passes for 125 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown strike, to pace Wofford (9-2, 7-1 SoCon).

The triumph was the second straight for Wofford (9-2, 7-1 SoCon) over Furman (7-5, 4-4 SoCon) but the Terriers' first in Spartanburg over the Paladins since 1998, breaking a four-game Furman winning streak at Gibbs Stadium.

Wofford rushed for 313 yards in the contest, led by Dane Romero' game high 97 yards. The Terriers outgained Furman 438-365.

Furman managed 139 yards on the ground, including a team high 10-carry, 90-yard effort by Mike Brown. Redshirt freshman Sederrick Cuningham collected a career high 11 passes for 89 yards and rushed for 28 yards on five carries for the Paladins.

Furman grabbed an early 7-0 lead, taking the opening kickoff and covering 72 yards in five plays. A Mike Brown 55-yard run to the Wofford 9 was followed three plays later by a Brantley Kendall 1-yard plunge into the end zone less than three minutes into the game.

Wofford was forced to punt on its first possession, but the Terriers oiled up their offensive machine on their second possession, moving 64 yards in 15 plays and converting a pair of fourth down plays along the way before Dane Romero scored on a 5-yard run with 2:30 to go in the first quarter to knot the game at 7-7.

The Terriers took the lead for good on their next possession with an 12-play, 80-yard drive capped by a 19-yard touchdown run on an option keeper by quarterback BenWidmyer at the 10:20 mark of the second quarter.

Furman appeared poised to answer back after taking the ensuing kickoff and moving from their own 26 to the Wofford 4. After Tank Baker was stopped for no gain on a third-and-two play, the Paladins went for it on fourth down with a direct snap play to Sederrick Cuningham, but the freshman was tackled at the line of scrimmage.

After taking over possession with 3:03 to go in the half, Wofford turned in several big plays for their last strike of the first half. A 37-yard pass from Widmyer to tight end Fenn Allen gave the Terriers a first down at the Furman 49. Four plays later Widmyer beat a Paladin blitz by finding Andy Strickland alone behind the Paladin defense for a 29-yard touchdown pass with 36 seconds to go on the first half for a 21-7 lead.

Furman used a 32-yard Matthew Cesari field goal of the final play of the half to make it 21-10, but that would be it for the Paladin offense, which turned the ball over on downs on all four of its second half possessions, including stops at the Wofford 16, 38, 3, and 36.

The Terriers, meanwhile, padded their lead with a pair of second half touchdowns, tallying once in both the third and four periods.

Furma free safety Thomas Twitty racked up a game high 16 tackles.

NOTING THE PALADINS

► 104th SEASON...The 2009 campaign marks the 104th season of football at Furman. The first school in South Carolina (along with Wofford) to play football, Furman since 1889 has compiled a 561-421-38 record in 1020 games. A member of the Southern Conference since 1936, Furman has captured a record 12 league championships (1978, '80, '81, '82, '83, '85, '88, '89, '90, '99, '01, & '04).

► WINNING SEASON ON THE LINE...Sporting a 5-5 record, Furman can secure its 11th consecutive winning football season on Saturday with a victory over Wofford. The last time the Paladins suffered a losing campaign was 1998 (5-6). Furman's stretch of 10 consecutive winning seasons is the second longest active streak among Southern Conference schools, trailing only Appalachian State, which (counting this year) has reeled off 16 straight winning campaigns.

► THIRD PLACE...In addition to a winning season hanging in the balance, Furman, now 4-3 in Southern Conference play, can nail down sole possession of third place in league play with a victory over Wofford this Saturday. The Paladins, who guaranteed themselves at least a third place finish with last Saturday's 30-22 win over Georgia Southern, were picked fourth and fifth in a pair of SoCon coaches and media preseason polls.

► TWO STRAIGHT IN STATESBORO...Furman's 30-22 win over Georgia Southern on Saturday marked the Paladins' second straight victory in Statesboro and followed a 24-22 triumph at Paulson Stadium in 2007. In all Furman went 3-3 versus GSU in Statesboro this decade.

► PALADIN STADIUM PROWESS...This fall marks Furman's 29th season in Paladin Stadium where it has compiled a 143-37-1 record (.793), including a 37-9 mark (.804) under Bobby Lamb — the best mark of any Furman head coach. Over the last five-plus years the Paladins have posted a 29-6 mark (.829) at home.

► SENIOR SEND-OFF...Saturday's Furman-Wofford game will mark the final game in the careers of 15 Paladin seniors, who have helped Furman compile a 26-19 overall record (.578) and 18-11 Southern Conference mark (.621) over the last four seasons.

► STEED STANDS OUT...Furman beleaguered defense got an early boost against Georgia Southern on Saturday when sophomore cornerback Ryan Steed (Mt. Pleasant, S.C.) intercepted an Eagle pass and returned it 44 yards for a touchdown to give the Paladins a 14-0 lead. Steed, who tallied three tackles in the contest, picked up a second interception later in the contest to help the Paladins secure the 30-22 victory. He currently leads the SoCon with 15 passes defended (11 PBUs) and Furman with four interceptions.

► MCGRATH GETS THE START...Redshirt freshman rover Mitch McGrath (Longwood, Fla.) earned the first start of his career last Saturday against Georgia Southern and responded by racking up eight tackles and a half tackle for loss.

► MIMS TAKES AIM AT FURMAN CAREER RECEPTIONS RECORD...Furman junior wide receiver Adam Mims (Birmingham, Ala.), turned in a strong performance against Georgia Southern, catching seven passes for 139 yards and a touchdown, which covered 29 yards. More significantly, Mims, with 136 career catches, positioned himself within striking distance of Furman's career receptions record currently held by Isaac West (140 receptions, 2001-04).

► R.J. SPINS HIS WEBB, AGAIN...The 2009 season has afforded twice injured senior wide receiver R.J. Webb (Pickens, S.C.) to complete another comeback. In catching three passes for 36 yards and a touchdown in the season opener against Presbyterian, Webb returned to the field almost a year to the day after sustaining a torn anterior cruciate ligament in the Paladins' 2008 season opener versus Mars Hill when, ironically, he caught three passes for 36 yards and a score before his season ending injury. In 2007 he appeared well on his way to a fine campaign before suffering a torn ACL in a 27-17 victory over Coastal Carolina. In 10 games this year he has caught 26 passes for 272 yards and three touchdowns while also displaying a still solid arm by completing a 55-yard pass versus Missouri off a flanker reverse. Webb, who is now 15th on the school's career Top 20 receptions ledger, threw for 1,634 yards and 12 touchdowns his senior year at Pickens High School, where he helped his squad to the state playoffs before bowing to a Greenville High School squad led by current Paladin signal caller Jordan Sorrells (Greenville, S.C.).

► MORE ON WEBB...As a senior it might be hard to believe but the Auburn game marked the career debut for R.J. Webb (Pickens, S.C.) as a kick returner, and the senior responded with a quality effort, returning a school record nine kickoffs for 195 yards (21.7 avg.), thereby breaking the previous standard of seven returns by Brian Bratton vs. Villanova (2002). His switch to kick return duties was due to the absence of Sederik Cunningham (Zephyrhills, Fla.), who did not make the trip to Auburn because of a death in the family.

► SORRELLS SETS NEW FU CAREER PASSING MARK...In passing for 83 yards (10x24) against Auburn two weeks ago, senior quarterback Jordan Sorrells (Greenville, S.C.) became Furman's all-time leading passer, surpassing Ingle Martin (2004-05). Heading into Saturday's game against Wofford, Sorrells now has thrown for 6,007 yards. He is now second in career total offense (5,987 yards) and ranks fourth in Furman history in career touchdown passes (37).

► TOUCHDOWN TERSOO...Furman running back Tersoo Uhaa (Gainesville, Ga.) has found the end zone in nine of the Paladins' 10 contests, including once Saturday against Georgia Southern. Three weeks ago against Appalachian State he rushed 19 times for a career high 104 yards and a score. As a true freshman a year ago he paced Furman with eight rushing touchdowns and now has 20 in his career.

► CESARI SOLID FROM 3-POINT RANGE...Spurred by a strong performance against Western Carolina on Sept. 26 when he converted all four field goal attempts and was named SoCon Special Teams Player of the Week following a 33-14 Furman victory, Furman placekicker Matthew Cesari (Atlanta, Ga.) continued his strong season work by converting his only try, a 42-yard effort, against Georgia Southern. Cesari is having a fine year (10-of-12), and over the last 15 games the senior left-footer has made 14 of 16 attempts. He is now 19-of-24 (79.2%) on field goal attempts for his career.

► ANDERSON A HIT AT LINEBACKER...Furman sophomore linebacker Kadarron Anderson (Greenwood, S.C.) has proven to be quite a hit — literally — this year, especially in the Paladins' last six games when he has combined for 90 tackles. He currently ranks fourth nationally in tackles, averaging 11.8 per game. In the Paladins' 33-14 win at Western Carolina on Sept. 26 he recorded a then-career high 17 tackles, 14 of which were solos. The following week he notched a game high 14 tackles against league leader Elon en route to earning SoCon Defensive Player of the Week honors, and tallied another career high with 18 stops against Samford.

► EXPERIENCED GUARDS...Senior guards Tyler Haynes (Birmingham, Ala.) and Heath Cockburn (Dalton, Ga.) have combined for 63 starts and 4,366 snaps in their careers.

► WILLIAMSTURNING HEADS...Highly regarded true freshman running back Jerry Williams (Prattville, Ala.) has gained the attention of Furman's coaches and fans since the first day of preseason practice, which isn't surprising given the fact that he is a product of ultra-successful Prattville (6-A) High School, which posted a 43-1 record and won three 6-A state championships during his tenure there. As a senior he rushed for 1,383 yards in 19 touchdowns en route to earning Alabama Sportswriters Association All-State honors as well an invitation to play in the prestigious Alabama-Mississippi All-Star Game. In 10 games (all starts) thus far he has rushed for 385 yards (4.9 ypg) and three touchdowns, one of which came last week against Georgia Southern. Against The Citadel, he rushed nine times for a team high 83 yards, including a season long 40-yard burst in the second half.

► CAROLINA SUCCESS STORY...Furman boasts the second best record (82-40) among NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) and Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) programs in the Carolinas since 2000.

► RECORD SETTING CROWD...The 81,506 fans in attendance at Auburn two weeks ago marked the biggest crowd to ever witness Furman play football. The previous standard had been 80,508 at Clemson in 1989.

► HAWK HAS A DAY...Furman senior punter Trent Hawk (Norcross, Ga.) fashioned one of the finest days of his career versus Auburn two weeks ago, averaging 48.1 yards on eight punts on the way earning Southern Conference Special Teams Player of the Week. Four of his punts covered 50+ yards, and one traveled a season best 60 yards. Three of his efforts sailed inside the Auburn 20, with none reaching the end zone, and his first punt of the second half, which traveled 49 yards, was fumbled at the Auburn 6 and recovered by Furman, which scored on the next play. Hawk is averaging a solid 40.4 yards per punt this year on 40 attempts. His strong work is the main reason why the Paladins pace the SoCon in net punting.

► FORCIER FINDS THE END ZONE...A week after scoring his first touchdown as a Paladin on a 25-yard run against Appalachian State, sophomore quarterback Chris Forcier (San Diego, Calif.) threw his first TD, a 17-yard strike to R.J. Webb (Pickens, S.C.) in the Paladins' recent loss to Auburn. Against the Tigers Forcier directed Furman to a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns, rushing nine times for 33 yards and completing all four pass attempts for 96 yards and a score.

► TWO FBS FOES THIS YEAR...In facing Missouri and Auburn this year, Furman played two FBS (formerly I-A) opponents for the first time in a season since 1982. That year the Paladins dropped a 26-0 season opening decision to North Carolina State but later dumped South Carolina, 28-23.

► DEJA VU...If Furman defensive end Kyle McKinney (Atlanta, Ga.) says he's seen it before, take him at his word. That's because in blocking Samford's game winning 38-yard field goal attempt on the final play to preserve a recent 26-24 Furman victory, he replicated the heroics he registered last year against Samford when, in the game's waning seconds, he broke through the line to block a Samford PAT attempt that would have tied the game with 1:52 remaining (Furman won 28-27 in Birmingham). In another interesting twist to the story, Samford's Richie Fordham scooped up the blocked kick, ran 10 yards, and appeared to have a chance to take it to the end zone before being tackled by Furman's Max Lerner (Birmingham, Ala.) to seal the results. Last year in Birmingham it was none other than Lerner who completed McKinney's game saving play when he stepped up to tackle a Samford player who had scooped up the deflected PAT just a few yards shy of the end zone.

► A QUICK LOOK BACK...Furman came within a whisker of taking down then-12th ranked Elon on Oct. 3, dropping a tough 19-12 verdict to the Phoenix. The game came down to the last few ticks when Elon freshman kicker Adam Shreiner booted a 37-yard field goal with two seconds remaining to give the Phoenix a 13-12 lead, capping a 7-play, 52-yard drive. Elon tacked on a final score with no time on the clock after an attempted lateral by Furman on the ensuing kickoff was fumbled into the end zone, where it was recovered by the Phoenix. A 1-yard scoring plunge by Tersoo Uhaa (Gainesville, Ga.) with 1:56 left in the game gave Furman a 12-10 lead, but a botched snap on the PAT proved costly and left the door open for Elon's game winning field goal.

► MARRIED MAN...Jordan Sorrells, the son of Furman offensive coordinator and Paladin All-Southern Conference signal caller Tim Sorrells (1977-81), married his high school sweetheart, Sarah Kathryn Williams, in May of this year.

► GETTING IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM, TOO...In addition to its success on the field, Furman ranks as the SoCon leader in NCAA Academic Progress and Graduation Success Rates, as detailed by the four-year averages (2006-09) below. Figures courtesy of the NCAA.

► 2009 TEAM CAPTAINS...Five players will serve as team co-captains in 2009: QB Jordan Sorrells (Greenville, S.C.), NT Justin Brown (Warner Robins, Ga.), BAN Julian Hicks (College Park, Ga.), DE Kyle McKinney (Atlanta, Ga.), and TE Chris Truss (Atlanta, Ga.).

► WHEN THE CLOCK STRIKES ZERO...Furman did major damage against Chattanooga with the clock showing zero — literally. The Paladins scored touchdowns on the final play of the first, second, and third quarters. Tersoo Uhaa (Gainesville, Ga.) reeled off a 34-yard touchdown run on the final play of the first quarter to give Furman a 21-7 lead, and his second score of the contest, a 2-yard plunge, came on the last play of the first half, staking the Paladins to a 28-10 advantage. In third quarter Ryan Steed (Mt. Pleasant, S.C.) pounced on a fumble in the end zone with no time on the clock to give Furman a 35-13 lead.

► FURMAN MAN...As head coaching tenures go, Bobby Lamb doesn't qualify as a big time veteran, but when factoring in total years of association with Southern Conference schools, he could rightfully be considered the dean of league coaches. For Lamb, the 2009 campaign marks his 28th season at Furman. That tenure includes four seasons as a player (1982-85), 16 years as an assistant coach (1986-01), and eight seasons as head coach (2002-present). No other league mentor can match that length of service to a league school.

► PURPLE AND ORANGE...Junior offensive tackle Antonio Frazier (Chattanooga, Tenn.) wears orange in the morning and purple in the afternoon and on Saturdays — literally. As a participant in Furman's dual degree pre-engineering program with Clemson, he now attends ceramics and materials engineering classes at Clemson in the mornings before returning to Furman to practice football in the afternoons. Upon graduation, the fourth-year member of the Paladin football program will have diplomas from both schools.

► FIRST SINCE 1998...When freshman defensive end Josh Lynn (Fort Lawn, S.C.) got the starting nod in the season opener against Presbyterian, it marked the first time a true freshman position player had started in the season opener for Furman since 1998. That year true freshman Louis Ivory started for the Paladins at fullback against Clemson, as did first year cornerback Rodney Johnson.

► NEW VIDEO BOARD DEBUTS...The 2009 season offers Furman fans a new game experience in Paladin Stadium in the form of a new scoreboard that will contain a video board, full color ribbon, and static scoreboard equipped to display a wide variety of statistics, information, graphics, animation, and live and recorded video. The video board measures 13 feet high by 32 feet wide, and the ribbon board is 4 feet by 32 feet. Capturion Networks, based in Laurel, Miss., is the manufacturer, and the board operator is Mark-It Productions from Boiling Springs, S.C.

► FURMAN LEGACY...Furman football 2009 has a connection to the university's origin in the person of sophomore linebacker Rick Furman (Greenville, S.C.), the fifth great grandson of the school's founder (1826), Dr. Richard Furman. Rick's father, Richard, uncle, Earle Furman, Jr., grandfather, Earle Furman, Sr., and grandmother, Carolyn Hendricks Furman, all graduated from the university, and his mother, Nancy Yeargin Furman, was an All-American tennis player at Rollins College who played professionally at Wimbledon.

► SMALL WORLD...Furman senior defensive ends Shaun Van Rensburg (Jacksonville, Fla.) and Kyle McKinney (Atlanta, Ga.) have more in common than just a position. They both have lived in South Africa. Van Rensburg, who was born in Cape Town, South Africa, and was an Under 10 and Under 14 national equestrian (horse riding) champion, has had the distinction of meeting both Nelson Mandela and Bishop Desmond Tutu. His family emigrated to the United States in 2000. McKinney, meanwhile, lived in South Africa for two years, as a third and fourth grader, after his mother was relocated there with IBM.

► MAX LERNER: TV STAR...Starting junior rover Max Lerner (Birmingham, Ala.) starred in the 2007 hit MTV series "Two-A-Days: Hoover High." In the series, Lerner and several former Hoover High School teammates were profiled in depth from the start of their 2005 football campaign all the way to the conclusion of the Buccaneers' 14-1, Alabama 6A state championship season. Lerner tallied 85 tackles and three interceptions for Hoover his senior year en route to garnering all-state honors. Hoover finished the 2005 campaign ranked No. 7 nationally by USA Today.

► A SHOT FROM THE PAST...Furman sophomore tight end Colin Anderson (Dallas, Texas) has an interesting tie to history as he is a direct descendant of General Robert C. Anderson, who was in command of Union forces at Fort Sumter when the Civil War began on April 12, 1861.

► NFL PALADINS...Furman currently has two former players in the National Football League (NFL) ranks: RB Jerome Felton '08 (Detroit Lions) and CB William Middleton '09 (Jacksonville Jaguars). Felton was a fifth round draft selection of the Lions in 2007 and Middleton a fifth round pick of the Atlanta Falcons earlier this year.

► CFL PALADINS...Furman also has two former players in the Canadian Football League (CFL), including WR Brian Bratton '05 (Montreal Alouettes) and OT Joel Bell '09 (Saskatchewan Roughriders).

FURMAN OVERTIME GAMES (4-6)

After going 0-4 in its first four overtime games, Furman has posted a 4-2 mark in its last six overtime clashes. The Paladins are 3-2 in extra period games under head coach Bobby Lamb.

2009 FURMAN PALADINS

Head Coach Bobby Lamb

From his days as a highly successful player at both the high school and collegiate level, to his tenure as an assistant coach, and, most recently, as head coach, Bobby Lamb has enjoyed notable success.

Through seven seasons as mentor at his alma mater he has compiled a 56-29 record (.659 winning percentage). That ranks among the top winning percentages among active FCS head coaches with at least five years of service to their institutions and fourth among Furman head coaches, trailing only his former head coach Dick Sheridan (.744), Jimmy Satterfield (.689), and W. L. Laval (.688).

The success Furman has enjoyed under Lamb is even more laudable when considering the nationally renowned liberal arts university boasts the most rigorous academic regimen of any SoCon school that competes for the league championship. Indeed, since the NCAA instituted its Academic Progress Rate (APR) monitoring system, which tracks eligibility, retention, and graduation, Furman's football program has produced the highest APR scores among league schools. The story is the same when examining NCAA Graduation Success Rates (GSR), with Furman leading the SoCon.

Furman's on-the-field results have mirrored the success in the classroom as the Paladins have compiled a 35-17 record (.705) versus SoCon foes, made four FCS playoff appearances, and claimed the 2004 conference championship during Lamb's tenure.

That coaching and success have been constants in Lamb's life appear to be nearly preordained. The son of a highly successful prep coach in Georgia and winner as a high school and collegiate player and assistant coach, he assumed the reins of Furman's football program in December of 2001, marking the culmination of a lifelong dream of becoming a collegiate head coach. To realize his dream at his alma mater made the moment even more special.

The next signal moment in his head coaching experience came in 2004 when he directed Furman to a 10-3 record, SoCon championship, and No. 5 final national ranking — a performance that netted him league coach-of-the-year honors. He followed up that success by leading his Paladins to an 11-3 record, NCAA I-AA (now FCS) semifinal playoff finish, and No. 3 final national ranking in 2005.

A Commerce, Ga., native, Lamb had served as an assistant on the Paladin staff for 16 years before becoming Furman's 21st head coach; and, while at 46 years of age he still ranks as one of the younger mentors in the SoCon, in terms of total years of experience with his current school, he has no peer. Indeed, when combining a highly decorated four-year playing career with his time as a member of Furman's coaching staff, his 26 years of service to his alma mater rank first among current league head coaches.

A former Paladin standout quarterback and 1995 inductee into the University's Athletic Hall-of-Fame, Lamb spent 13 years as quarterbacks coach and from 1993 to 2001 served as passing game coordinator before being tapped to succeed Bobby Johnson as head coach following his departure to Vanderbilt. Lamb's assistant coaching tenure also included work with the program's receivers and defensive ends.

As a member of the Paladin coaching staff, he has played a pivotal role in some of the greatest seasons in school history, including six SoCon championships, a national championship, and a national runner-up finish. Furman's record during his tenure as an assistant coach was 126-65-3 (.657).

Fueling Furman's team success during his span as an assistant and in his first five years as head coach has been the outstanding play of Lamb-developed quarterbacks. The latest product is Ingle Martin, an all-conference signal caller who in 2005 passed for a school record 2,959 yards and 20 touchdowns prior to being selected by the Green Bay Packers in the fifth round of the 2006 NFL Draft.

In 2001 Lamb oversaw the emergence of Billy Napier, a two-time all-conference performer who completed a stellar career by passing for a then-school record 2,475 yards, finishing second in the nation in passing efficiency, and setting a new league season completion percentage standard (68.5 percent).

Prior to Napier, he assisted in the development of Justin Hill (1997-00) into an all-league player. In 1999 Hill directed Furman to a 9-3 record and league championship season that included a 28-3 win over North Carolina.

Before Hill, he helped mold Braniff Bonaventure (1993-96) into an all-conference signal caller and national record holder for most consecutive pass attempts (217) without an interception. Bonaventure's emergence followed that of two-time all-conference quarterback Frankie DeBusk (1987-90), who Lamb mentored during the 1989 and '90 seasons. DeBusk shattered several school records, many formerly held by Lamb, including career passing yards and total offense.

Prior to taking over duties as quarterbacks coach in 1989 under then-head coach Jimmy Satterfield, Lamb directed the program's defensive ends for two seasons, including a 1988 campaign that saw All-America performers Kelly Fletcher and Chris Roper play a crucial role in Furman leading the nation in scoring defense (9.7 ppg) and headlining the Paladins' drive to a school season best 13-2 record and I-AA national championship.

Furman's success during his tenure as an assistant coach only continued the level of achievement he helped deliver as an all-star prep and college quarterback.

Lamb came to Furman in 1982 under Dick Sheridan after fashioning a fine career at Commerce (Ga.) High School, where he played for his father, Ray Lamb. In 1981 he was named by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution as its AA Back-of-the-Year after leading Commerce to a 13-1-1 record and state championship.

At Furman he put his impressive ability and field savvy on display beginning in his sophomore season when he stepped in for injured starting quarterback David Charpia to lead the Paladins to a 17-14 win over Georgia Tech on the way to 10-2-1 record, league championship, and I-AA semifinal playoff finish. In his first full season as a starter in 1984, he helped engineer Furman to an 8-3 record, including a 34-30 triumph over North Carolina State.

As a senior in 1985 he recorded perhaps the most effective season ever by a Paladin quarterback, completing 133-of-228 pass attempts for 2,264 yards and 24 touchdowns (only six interceptions). His 171.20 passing efficiency rating led the nation and helped the Paladins post their fourth straight win over a I-A opponent with a 42-20 rout of North Carolina State. In addition to going undefeated in league play (6-0) and notching the program's third conference title in four seasons, the Paladins finished as national runner-up with a 12-2 record. In recognition of his outstanding play, he was named SoCon Player-of-the-Year, Furman Male Athlete-of-the-Year, South Carolina Male Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year by the South Carolina Athletic Hall-of-Fame, and Carolinas Male Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year by the Charlotte Athletic Club.

In helping Furman to a 39-10-1 record (.790) during his playing career, Lamb, who still holds a number of school records and two league standards, helped fashion the second best four-year stretch in school history. During his playing and coaching tenure at Furman, the Paladins have notched a 215-99-4 record (.682) and have captured nine of the school's league record 12 league championships.

Lamb graduated from Furman in 1987 with a bachelor of arts degree in health and exercise science and in 1992 added a master's of education degree in the same field.

He and his wife, Allyson Acker of Greenville, have two children: a daughter, Sallie, and a son, Taylor.
