Women's Round of 16

#6 STANFORD (24-2) 4, #10 MICHIGAN (23-6) 1
QUOTES

STANFORD HEAD COACH LELE FOROOD

On advancing to the quarterfinals...

"Michigan is a tough team. We had a very close match with them last year and it was pretty tight again. We had our chances, we couldn't close out some things when we were up and the match got closer, but great job, especially by Emily Arbuthnott to nail down that third set. In a way, we are tuned into the tournament now, in some ways things are easier, but the teams get tougher. We will bring it on Sunday and see how we do."

STANFORD PLAYER
EMILY ARBUTHNOTT

On clinching the match...

"It feels pretty good, to be honest. I have been lucky to clinch quite a few matches this season, but to do so in the Round of 16 is pretty exciting and I am just ready to move to the next round."

MICHIGAN HEAD COACH RONNI BERNSTEIN

On today's match...

"I'm proud of the girls. We played a really poor doubles point and just weren't ready to go at a couple swats, but we really stepped up in singles and gave us a chance at least. I feel like we fought hard and put ourselves in position, but we came up short."
