GEORGIA TECH TRIES TO SNAP SKID AGAINST NO. 6 CLEMSON ON HOMECOMING SATURDAY

Georgia Tech, coming off back-to-back ACC road losses, hosts undefeated and sixth-ranked Clemson Saturday night under the lights of Bobby Dodd Stadium (8:12 p.m./ABC).

The Yellow Jackets, 6-2 overall, 3-2 in the ACC and out of the Top 25 for the first time since mid-September, lost at Miami last Saturday, 24-7. Tech had two costly special teams errors and its spread option offense was held to season lows for rushing (134 yards) and total offense (211).

Tech, still in the hunt for the ACC's Coastal Division title, leads the nation in third-down percentage, ranks fifth in rushing and sixth in pass efficiency.

Clemson, 8-0 and 5-0, has a stranglehold on the Atlantic Division after whipping visiting North Carolina, 59-38, last Saturday. The Tigers scored 35 points in the third quarter and produced 450 yards of total offense, 375 by quarterback Tajh Boyd.

Boyd leads the ACC in passing and total offense. Freshman phenom Sammy Watkins has scored 10 touchdowns and leads the ACC in receptions. Running back Andre Ellington rushes for 93.1 yards per game.

Georgia Tech leads the all-time series, 49-25-2 and has won four of the last five meetings. Clemson won last season in Death Valley, 27-13.

NOTING THE YELLOW JACKETS

■ A Tech victory Saturday would assure it of a winning season, and it would also secure at least a .500 finish in ACC play for a conference-record 17th straight season.

■ The Yellow Jackets, 4-0 at home, are attempting to stay unbeaten in Bobby Dodd Stadium for the first time since 1999.

■ Georgia Tech leads the nation in third-down percentage (.586), ranks fifth nationally in rushing (321.1), sixth in pass efficiency (175.2), seventh in fewest sacks allowed (0.63) and eighth in pass defense (170.5).

■ The Yellow Jackets dropped out of the national polls this week for the first time since Sept. 11, but are receiving votes for both polls.

■ Georgia Tech's four remaining regular season games include home games against 6th-ranked Clemson, 15th-ranked Virginia Tech and 22nd-ranked Georgia, and a road game at Duke.

■ The Yellow Jackets have produced eight one-play touchdown drives. Last season Tech had zero.

■ Clemson (4th nationally) and Tech (9th) are two of the least-penalized teams in college football.

The Jackets jumped out to a 24-0 lead in part to a faked field goal that went for a touchdown, fell behind 27-24 in the fourth quarter, then kicked two field goals in the final 5:40 for the win.

■ Dabo Swinney's first game as Clemson's head coach came vs. Georgia Tech midway through the 2008 season.

■ Tech is 2-0 in night games this season, including a 1-0 record at home.

■ Georgia Tech has two of the ACC's 10-leading rushers: Orwin Smith (8th/64.5) and David Sims (10th/62.0).

COASTAL DIVISION UP FOR GRABS

Since ACC divisional play began in 2005, only Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech have represented the Coastal Division in the ACC championship game. This season, five teams are separated by one loss.

One path Georgia Tech could take to the division title -- as difficult as it may be -- is to win its three remaining conference games, coupled with another loss for both Miami and Virginia.

GEORGIA TECH IN HOMECOMING GAMES

■ Georgia Tech is 48-14-1 all-time in Homecoming games.

■ The Yellow Jackets have won 14 of their last 15 Homecoming games, losing only to Virginia in 2008 during that stretch.

■ Tech is 2-1 in Homecoming games against Clemson. The last such meeting was a 10-9 Tech victory in 2005.

■ Saturday's game marks the second time in three years that the Yellow Jackets have hosted a top-10 team for Homecoming. In 2009, Tech beat fourth-ranked Virginia Tech 28-23.

■ Four of Tech's last six Homecoming games have been decided by a touchdown or less.

YELLOW JACKET-TIGER CONNECTIONS

■ Georgia Tech has two players on its roster from South Carolina -- Lance Richardson (Ware Shoals) and David Sims (St. Matthews). Richardson is out for the season with an injury, while Sims starts at B-back.

■ Clemson has 16 players on its roster from Georgia -- David Beasley (Columbus), Vic Beasley (Adairsville), Corey Crawford (Columbus), Will Harrison (Marietta), Corico Hawkins (Milledgeville), Grady Jarrett (Conyers), Martin Jenkins (Roswell), C.J. Jones (Lincolnton), Ammon Lakin (Johns Creek), Rennie Moore (Saint Marys), Garry Peters (Conyers), Darius Robinson (College Park), Brandon Thompson (Thomasville), Reid Webster (Woodstock), Scott Wilson (Woodstock) and Dawson Zimmerman (Lawrenceville).

■ Vic Beasley (Clemson) and Catlin Alford (GT) both attended Adairsville High School.

■ Kantrell Brown (Clemson), Dante Stewart (Clemson) and David Sims (GT) attended Calhoun County HS (SC).

■ Rashard Hall (Clemson), Carlton Lewis (Clemson) and Rashaad Reid (GT) attended Saint Augustine HS in Florida.

■ Grady Jarrett (Clemson) and Tyler Kelly (GT) both attended Rockdale County HS.

■ Martin Jenkins (Clemson) and Euclid Cummings (GT) both attended Centennial HS.

■ C. J. Jones (Clemson) and Rusty Scott (GT) both attended Lincoln County HS.

■ Rennie Moore (Clemson) and Bryce Sweeney (GT) both attended Camden County HS.

■ Garry Peters (Clemson) and Corey Alford (GT) both attended Heritage HS.

■ Brandon Thompson (Clemson) and Fred Holton (GT) both attended Thomasville HS.

■ Georgia Tech head coach Paul Johnson ('79) and Clemson associate head coach Dan Brooks ('76) are both Western Carolina graduates.

TECH, TIGERS CONSISTENTLY NEAR TOP OF ACC

Since 2008, when Paul Johnson took over at Georgia Tech and Dabo Swinney midway through the season at Clemson, the Yellow Jackets and Tigers have posted identical 19-10 records in conference play. Only Virginia Tech (22-6) has won more ACC games over the last four years.

LAST 4 SEASONS COMBINED (2008-2011)

Rk.	School	ACC	Overall
1.	Virginia Tech	.22-6	.38-11
2.	Georgia Tech	.19-10	.32-16
	Clemson	.19-10	.30-18
4.	Florida State	.17-11	.30-17

LAST 6 SEASONS COMBINED (2006-2011)

Rk.	School	ACC	Overall
1.	Virginia Tech	.35-9	.59-17
2.	Georgia Tech	.30-15	.48-28
3.	Clemson	.29-16	.47-27
4.	Boston College	.25-19	.46-27

TECH'S HOMESTRETCH A DIFFICULT ONE

Georgia Tech has four remaining regular season games -- three home games against nationally-ranked teams and a road game against an ACC Coastal Division rival.

■ Tech's four remaining opponents have a combined record of 23-7.

■ Clemson (6th), Virginia Tech (15th) and Georgia (22nd) are all ranked in the AP poll.

TECH OPPONENTS RARELY GET FLAGGED...

■ Georgia Tech's opponents have been called for just 28 penalties in eight games. By comparison, Clemson's opponents have been called for 56 penalties.

■ Tech's opponents are being penalized an average of just 19.6 yards per game. Again, by comparison, Clemson's opponents have been whistled for 58.4 yards per game in penalties.

■ Three times this season -- vs. Kansas, Maryland and last week at Miami -- Tech's opponents were called for just one penalty for five yards. Kansas' only penalty -- a delay of game -- was taken intentionally to allow more room for a punt.

.. AND TECH IS LIGHT ON PENALTIES, TOO

■ Georgia Tech ranks ninth nationally in fewest penalties (4.38 per game). The Yellow Jackets were whistled for a season-low two penalties last week at Miami.

■ Clemson ranks fourth nationally in fewest penalties (3.75). The national leader is Navy (2.29).

BALANCED ATTACK

Unlike the previous five seasons when the Georgia Tech offense leaned on Calvin Johnson (2006), Tashard Choice (2007), Jonathan Dwyer (2008, 2009) and Anthony Allen (2010), this year's offense is more balanced:

■ No player averages 70 yards rushing, but three -- Orwin Smith (64.5), David Sims (62.0) and Tevin Washington (57.5) -- average better than 55 yards.

■ Eleven different offensive players have scored at least one touchdown and six different players have at least three TDs.

■ Twelve different players have had at least one 20-yard offensive play (rushing or receiving).

1,000-YARD RUSHER x 3

There are three career 1,000-yard rushers on the Yellow Jacket roster -- senior Roddy Jones (1,658), junior Orwin Smith (1,058) and junior quarterback Tevin Washington (1,014).

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

■ Georgia Tech ranks second in the ACC and 17th nationally in scoring (38.4 points per game).

■ The Yellow Jackets' scoring average is their highest since 1999.

■ Georgia Tech has scored in 25 of 32 quarters.

■ Eleven different players have scored at least one touchdown -- five A-backs, three B-backs, two quarterbacks and one wide receiver.

■ Out of Tech's 42 touchdowns, 36 have been scored by non-seniors.

■ Fourteen of Tech's touchdowns have been on plays of 20 yards or longer.

■ Tech is 30-of-35 scoring inside the red zone, including 27 touchdowns and three field goals.

■ Tech was just the second team in ACC history to score more than 200 points through its first four games.

■ The Jackets are outscoring opponents 81-14 in the third quarter. Tech has scored in the second quarter in every game this season.

■ Georgia Tech scored on its first possession in each of the first six games of the season (5 touchdowns, 1 field goal). The Yellow Jackets, in fact, scored on their first offensive play in each of the first three games.

DEFENSE DESERVES SOME LOVE

- Tech ranks eighth nationally in pass defense and 18th nationally in pass efficiency defense.
- Georgia Tech has more interceptions this season (9) than it had all of last season (8).
- The Jackets have forced four interceptions over the last three games combined.
- Last week at Miami, Tech held the Hurricanes to just three second-half points. Miami scored 24 points in the game, but seven of those came on a fumble recovery in the end zone.
- At Virginia, Tech held its opponent scoreless in the second half for the second time this season (also vs. Western Carolina). Last season the Jackets did not hold any opponent scoreless in any half.
- Maryland entered the fourth quarter with just three points against Tech.
- Tech has allowed just 14 third-quarter points.
- Over the last three games, Tech's opponents are a combined 23-of-66 (.348) passing for an average of 120.7 yards per game.

MORE FROM THE 24-7 LOSS AT MIAMI

- Georgia Tech had season-lows for points (7), points in a half (0/2nd), first downs (14), first downs by rushing (9), rushing yards (134), rushing attempts (48), rushing touchdowns (1), total offense (211), average gain per play (3.4), penalties (2) and penalty yards (10)
- The Yellow Jackets had a season-high three turnovers.
- Tech's defense had season-bests for first downs allowed (14) and total offense (262).
- The Jackets were shutout in a half for the first time since the second half of the 2010 Independence Bowl vs. Air Force. Tech has had just two scoreless halves over the last three seasons.
- Tech's seven points were its fewest in a road game since Nov. 8, 2008, when it scored seven points at North Carolina. It was also Tech's fewest points in an ACC game since that game at UNC in 2008.
- Tech's 211 yards of total offense were its fewest since Oct. 11, 2008, when it had 199 yards vs. Gardner-Webb.
- The two teams combined 31 points -- the fewest in a Tech game since Oct. 13, 2007, when the Jackets and Miami combined for 31 points.
- The two teams combined for just three second-half points -- the fewest combined points in a half involving Tech since LSU and the Jackets combined for three points in the second half of the 2008 Chick-fil-A Bowl.
- The two teams combined for just three penalties -- the fewest in a Tech game since Oct. 31, 1992, when Duke and the Yellow Jackets combined for three penalties. The 15 combined penalty yards were the fewest in a Tech game since Nov. 16, 1985, when the Jackets and Wake Forest combined for 15 penalty yards.

- Georgia Tech had no offensive plays of 20 yards or more for the first time this season.
- Lamar Miller's 27 rushing attempts were the most by a Tech opponent in the Paul Johnson era.

OPPONENTS HAVE THREE NON-OFFENSIVE TDs

- Georgia Tech opponents have scored three touchdowns this season in unusual fashion -- two fumble returns/recoveries and one blocked field goal return. Western Carolina returned a blocked field goal for a touchdown in the season opener. NC State returned a Synjyn Days' fumble for a TD. Miami recovered a fumbled punt in the end zone for a touchdown.
- Georgia Tech did not have a field goal blocked in each of Paul Johnson's first three seasons with the Yellow Jackets. This season, two Tech field goals have been blocked, including one at Virginia and one in the season opener vs. Western Carolina that was returned for a touchdown.

GEORGIA TECH'S START WAS HISTORIC

- Georgia Tech started 6-0 for the first time in 45 years, since 1966, and for the 13th time in the 119-year history of the program.
- The Yellow Jackets were 3-0 in the ACC for the first time since 2006.
- Tech started 2-0 on the road for the first time since 2001.

ON THIS DATE IN TECH HISTORY

Georgia Tech is just 3-11-1 all-time when playing on October 29th, but the last time the Yellow Jackets played on this date was a 10-9 win over visiting Clemson in 2005... P.J. Daniels scored the only touchdown of the game in that '05 contest... seven of the 15 games Tech has played on Oct. 29 came against Duke... a 48-7 win over Duke on this date in 1966 made the Jackets 7-0 on the season... in 1921 Tech played at the Polo Grounds in New York against Penn State.

STEPHEN HILL GIVES TECH BIG-PLAY THREAT

When junior WR Stephen Hill's number has been called this season, he has usually responded with a big play:

- Hill averages 31.2 yards per reception, which ranks first nationally.
- He has six receptions of 40 yards or longer and three catches of 70 yards or longer.
- Four of his 18 receptions this season have been for touchdowns.
- Has three 100-yard receiving games this season and two games with 150 yards.
- Hill enters the Clemson game 11 yards shy of 1,000 career receiving yards.
- Hill's 181 receiving yards vs. Western Carolina were the 15th-most single-game yards in Tech history.
- Hill, against North Carolina, made one of the great one-handed catches in college football this season: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rCS-iqymQrk>

HILL ON PACE FOR NCAA RECORDS

At his current pace, junior wide receiver Stephen Hill is close to the pace to break the NCAA single-season record for most yards per reception. Hill averages 31.2 yards per reception (18 receptions). He'll need 12 more receptions this season to qualify for the record book. Hill has a long way to go, but he is also on pace for the career record of 24.4 yards per reception:

NCAA Single-Season Record/Yards Per Reception

Brennan Marion	Tulsa	2007	31.9	39 for 1,224
Stephen Hill's current stats:			31.2	18 for 561
(Hill needs 30 receptions to qualify for record)

NCAA Career Record/Yards Per Reception

Henry Ellard	Fresno St.	1982	24.4	62 for 1,510
Stephen Hill's current stats:			25.4	39 for 989
(Hill needs 50 receptions to qualify for record)

WASHINGTON-TO-HILL: A CAPITAL DUO

On a team known for its rushing attack, juniors Tevin Washington and Stephen Hill have quietly developed into one of the top home run passing combinations in Georgia Tech history. Three of the 24 longest pass plays in Yellow Jacket history have been Washington to Hill, and two of those long plays (82 and 77 yards) came in the season opener against Western Carolina.

To put Tech's longest pass plays into perspective, consider that Tech's greatest receiver, Calvin Johnson, is not on the list of the 24 longest pass plays. Also, Washington-to-Hill is the only quarterback-receiver combination that is on the list three times. In fact, Joe Hamilton-to-Dez White (two times) is the only other combination listed more than once.

PAUL JOHNSON'S OFFENSE FOR DUMMIES

- Georgia Tech's offense is called the spread option. It is not the "triple option". The triple option is just one play, or a series of plays, within the offense. Tech runs the triple option roughly 20 percent of the time.
- There are two A-Backs, or slot-backs, that line up outside and behind the tackles (there is no tight end). The A-Back is a hybrid position, part runner and part receiver.
- The B-Back many people call the fullback because he lines up directly behind the quarterback.
- There are two wide receivers, who usually receive single coverage.
- The quarterback is very rarely in the shotgun, but otherwise there are more similarities with the popular spread offenses than most people think.

MORE MISCELLANEOUS

- Georgia Tech's game at Middle Tennessee State was its first road game against a team from a non-BCS automatic qualifying conference since playing at BYU on Aug. 28, 2003. The Yellow Jackets were scheduled to play at Army in 2008, but the Black Knights opted out of the contract.
- Georgia Tech has placed at least two players on the All-ACC first team in each of the last five seasons.
- Since 1982, the Yellow Jackets have had 78 first team All-ACC selections.
- Eight Jacket offensive linemen have earned first or second team All-ACC honors over the last four years.
- The entire Tech coaching staff is back from a year ago. Charles Kelly, the secondary coach who is in his sixth season, has been at Tech the longest. Tech is one of 14 FBS teams that retained their entire coaching staff from 2010.
- Georgia Tech is in its 119th season of football.
- Georgia Tech's average of 323.3 yards rushing per game in 2010 not only led the nation, it broke an ACC single-season record.

SANFORD WILL BE ACC LEGEND

Lucius Sanford, a defensive leader under head coach Pepper Rodgers in the mid-1970s, will be recognized as Georgia Tech's "Legend" during the 2011 ACC Football Championship Game weekend. The consummate linebacker, Sanford led the Yellow Jackets in tackles in three of his four seasons, making 433 total tackles, which at the time was a school record (he now ranks fourth all-time). He currently serves as executive director of Georgia Tech's Letterwinner's Club.

TOTALLY OFFENSIVE AGAINST THE JAYHAWKS

Georgia Tech's offense ran – and sometimes passed – wild in the Sept. 17 win over Kansas, breaking school, ACC and NCAA records:

- Georgia Tech's 768 yards of total offense not only smashed a school record that stood since 1948, it ranked fifth in ACC history.
- The Jackets' 431 yards of total offense in the second half broke a school record for total offense in a half.
- Tech averaged 13.1 yards per play, breaking a school record.
- The Jackets' 604 yards rushing broke a school and ACC record. It was the most rushing yards by an FBS team since Nov. 29, 2003, when Rice racked up 672 on the ground at Louisiana Tech.
- Tech's average of 12.1 yards per rushing attempt (604 yards on 50 attempts) broke an NCAA record.
- The Jackets averaged 23.4 yards per pass attempt, which was their highest average in at least 30 years.
- The Jackets averaged 41.0 yards per pass completion (164 yards, 4-of-7 passing) – the fifth time under Paul Johnson Tech has averaged at least 40 yards per pass completion in a game.

FEATURE STORIES NOTEBOOK

HOLTON GETS ENCOURAGEMENT FROM A FALCON

Georgia Tech sophomore safety Fred Holton tore his Achilles tendon in an August scrimmage and is out for the 2011 season. The news was tough to swallow for Holton, who was competing for a starting job and had worked extremely hard over the off-season.

Holton, however, got some encouragement out of the blue from Atlanta Falcons wide receiver Harry Douglas. When Douglas, who overcame a serious injury of his own, heard the news about Holton, he reached out to the Yellow Jacket DB via Twitter. Douglas sent a series of four Tweets to Holton, offering encouragement and giving him his cell number.

YELLOW JACKET ARTISTS

Senior cornerback Michael Peterson and junior wide receiver Daniel McKayhan are both exceptional artists. The Yellow Jacket duo found an unusual spot to hone their painting skills – a multi-level homeless shelter in downtown Atlanta.

Peterson earned his degree in the spring, and is playing an important role on defense this fall. His oil paintings have been featured in the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and on NCAA.com.

MAGNA CARTER

Several Yellow Jackets players had interesting and productive internships over the summer, but perhaps most noteworthy was junior linebacker Morgan Carter. The Rutgers transfer interned with the U.S. Supreme Court in Washington, DC.

IMPROBABLE DETOUR

Following Hurricane Katrina, Louisiana native Tony Zenon and his family fled his home state. The Zenons packed up everything they could, got in the car and began driving with no destination in mind. They stumbled upon Albany, Ga., settled there and Tony began playing at Deerfield Windsor Academy, where he put up remarkable numbers in high school.

FIVE GRADUATES

Five Yellow Jackets are playing this fall as graduate students. Roddy Jones, Tyler Melton, Jason Peters, Michael Peterson and Logan Walls have already received their undergraduate degrees.

THE DAYS FAMILY

Redshirt freshman quarterback Synjyn Days is joined on the Yellow Jacket team this fall by his brother, true freshman linebacker Jabari Hunt-Days. But perhaps the most interesting story concerning the Days family is that Synjyn's mother, Paula, was an assistant coach on his middle school team. Paula coached the offensive and defensive lines.

MEDICAL CONDITION HALTS McCOY'S CAREER

Defensive lineman Denzel McCoy found out before the season that a rare heart condition known as "Cardiomyopathy" may have prematurely ended his football career. McCoy redshirted last season after learning of the condition in 2010, but had hoped that he would eventually be cleared to play. McCoy will continue to receive a scholarship at Tech and is assisting the program as a student assistant.

FEATURES NOTEBOOK

■ Senior linebacker Steven Sylvester was a childhood friend of Atlanta Braves slugger Jason Heyward in McDonough, Ga.

■ Sophomore kicker Justin Moore, earlier this year, received some individual coaching from Morten Anderson -- the former Atlanta Falcon who is the all-time leading scorer in NFL history.

HEAD COACH PAUL JOHNSON

Western Carolina (1979) / 32-16 in 4th Season at Georgia Tech / 139-55 in 15th Season Overall

Paul Johnson, a two-time Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year and the mastermind behind Georgia Tech's high-production offense, is in his fourth season as head coach of the Yellow Jackets.

Under Johnson, Georgia Tech was one of college football's biggest surprise stories in 2008 and won the ACC championship in 2009. The ACC Coach of the Year in 2008 and 2009, Johnson's teams have appeared in a bowl game each of the last three seasons.

In four seasons on the Flats, Johnson has compiled a record of 32-16, including a 19-10 mark in ACC play. No coach in Tech history won more games than Johnson in their first three seasons. Over the last four seasons combined, only Virginia Tech has won more ACC games than Johnson's Jackets.

In 15 seasons overall as a head coach, Johnson owns a career record of 139-55. His career winning percentage (.716) ranks in the top 10 among active BCS head coaches.

Johnson enjoyed success as the head coach at Georgia Southern (1997-2001) and Navy (2002-2007) before being named Georgia Tech's 12th head coach on Dec. 12, 2007.

What Johnson has accomplished at Georgia Tech has been remarkable:

- In his first two seasons at Tech, Johnson was named the ACC Coach of the Year. He is the first coach to win the award in his first two years in the league.
- In 2008, he was named National Coach of the Year by CBS Sports.
- In 2009, the Yellow Jackets won the ACC title outright for the first time since 1990, defeating Clemson in the ACC Championship Game.
- Tech played in a BCS bowl game for the first time in 2009.
- Under Johnson, Tech has averaged nearly nine wins per season.
- In each of his three previous seasons, Tech has ranked in the top five nationally in rushing offense. Last season, the Yellow Jackets led the nation in rushing (323.3 ypg).

- In 21 of Johnson's 40 games at Georgia Tech (entering 2011), the Yellow Jackets produced more than 400 yards of total offense. Tech scored at least one rushing touchdown in 35 of 40 games under Johnson through 2010.

- Over the previous three seasons, Tech has produced four 1,000-yard rushers -- Jonathan Dwyer in 2008, Dwyer and Joshua Nesbitt in 2009, and Anthony Allen in 2010.

- Over the previous three years combined, the Yellow Jackets have produced 12 first team All-ACC selections.

- Tech has produced two first team All-Americans under Johnson --

Michael Johnson in 2008 and Derrick Morgan in 2009.

- Since Johnson's arrival, a Tech player has been named ACC Offensive Player of the Year (Dwyer in 2008) and ACC Defensive Player of the Year (Morgan in 2009).

- Entering 2011, Johnson was 11-2 at Tech in games decided by five points or less, 6-4 at Tech against nationally-ranked opponents, 10-7 in road games, 23-5 when scoring at least 20 points, 16-1 when scoring more than 30 points.

- In 2009, Tech won in Tallahassee (Fla.) for the first time in school history, beat a top-five ranked team at home (Virginia Tech) for the first time since 1962 and won on the road in Charlottesville (Va.) for the first time since 1990.

- Also in 2009, Tech earned its highest national ranking (7th) since 1999.

- In 2008, the Jackets broke a seven-year losing skid to rival Georgia, beating the 13th-ranked Bulldogs, 45-42, in Athens (Ga.).

- Under Johnson, Georgia Tech's Academic Progress Report (APR) scores have risen each of the last three years.

In 2010, Georgia Tech earned a bowl bid for the 14th consecutive season, tying for the fourth-longest current streak in college football. The Yellow Jackets, who lost four juniors to the 2010 NFL Draft and played the final four games without injured quarterback Joshua Nesbitt, finished 4-4 in the ACC and led the nation in rushing offense for the first time in school history.

GAME #1

Western Carolina 21

(nr/rv) Georgia Tech 63

September 1, 2011 | Atlanta, Ga.
Bobby Dodd Stadium | 42,131

Orwin Smith scored two of Georgia Tech's four first-quarter touchdowns, Stephen Hill caught two touchdown passes from Tevin Washington and Georgia Tech beat Western Carolina 63-21 in the opener for both teams.

The Yellow Jackets piled up 662 yards of total offense -- their most productive game since 2000 -- but they struggled throughout the night to hold on to the football, losing two of six fumbles and allowing a second-quarter punt to get blocked and recovered for a touchdown.

Brandon Pechloff, who was sacked three times, had 180 yards passing for Western Carolina.

Georgia Tech, facing an FCS opponent that dropped to 10-46 since the start of 2006, showed flashes of a formidable passing game after ranking 119th in the nation last year.

Washington completed eight of 13 passes for 271 yards and three TDs. No. 2 quarterback Synjyn Days was 3 of 3 passing for 94 yards. Hill caught four passes for 181 yards. The yardage totals were career highs for all three players.

Georgia Tech had more yards passing in the first quarter (148) than it had in any game last season (130 in an Oct. 2 win over Wake Forest).

The Yellow Jackets, who led the nation in rushing last year, racked up 260 yards on the ground. Smith finished with 84 yards, which included a 77-yard score, on just four carries.

Western Carolina scored three touchdowns in the second quarter but still trailed by 21 points at halftime.

Georgia Tech coach Paul Johnson was surely irritated by his team's propensity to fumble.

Leading 28-0 near the end of the first quarter, Jackets B-back Charles Perkins lost a fumble that Western Carolina's Rainey Ala recovered at the Georgia Tech 31. The Catamounts went three-and-out, but Georgia Tech's Euclid Cummings fumbled away the ensuing punt return that Courtland Carson recovered at the Georgia Tech 4.

Pechloff's 2-yard run on the next play made it 28-7.

After the Catamounts had a 13-play, 64-yard drive that ended with Michael Vaughn's 4-yard run and cut the lead to 35-14 late in the second, Georgia Tech answered with Washington's 26-yard TD pass to Roddy Jones.

But following another three-and-out by Western Carolina, the Jackets allowed Ala to block a 45-yard field goal attempt that was recovered by Isaiah Moore and returned for a 69-yard score to make it 42-21 at halftime.

GAME #2

(rv/rv) Georgia Tech 49

Middle Tennessee 21

September 10, 2011 | Murfreesboro, Tenn.
Floyd Stadium | 30,502

One week after rolling up over 600 yards and 60 points, Georgia Tech proved it could score quickly through the air or grind it out on the ground with its triple-option attack.

Tevin Washington threw for two long touchdowns and ran for two scores, and Georgia Tech (2-0) pounded Middle Tennessee State (0-2) 49-21 before MTSU's record crowd of 30,501.

The Yellow Jackets, who took a 28-0 second-quarter lead, scored on their first play from scrimmage. Washington hit Tony Zenon down the left sideline for a 73-yard touchdown only 14 seconds into the game.

Georgia Tech then went to the ground for all 17 plays on its next possession to score on a 98-yard drive after MTSU had downed its first punt at the 2. Tech took 9:25 off the clock, had five different ball carriers and made six first downs before Washington scored on a 2-yard keeper for a 14-0 lead.

The Yellow Jackets finished with 596 total yards, 382 on the ground. Washington left in the third quarter after completing 5 of 8 passes for 202 yards, while David Sims and backup quarterback Synjyn Days led Tech's rushers with 91 yards each.

MTSU started its second possession at its 40 after Tech's kick-off went out of bounds, and Logan Kilgore hit Anthony Amos for a 20-yard pass on first down. But the drive stalled at the Tech 29 and Alan Gendreau missed on a 46-yard field goal attempt.

The Yellow Jackets went back to the air and scored on the next play, a 71-yard pass from Washington to Stephen Hill. Hill was hit by defenders around the 32, but broke loose for a 21-0 lead with 2:12 left in the first quarter.

An interception by Tech's Isaiah Johnson stopped MTSU at the Tech 10, and this time the Yellow Jackets mixed up the pass and the run to build a 28-0 lead with 10:45 to go in the second quarter. Washington connected with Hill for 43 yards and Roddy Jones and Sims had 14-yard carries on the seven-play drive before Washington kept on the option for a 7-yard touchdown.

Johnson also came up with a fumble recovery on the Blue Raiders' next drive, but Tech had to punt for the first time 7 minutes before halftime.

MTSU finally got on the scoreboard 3:12 before halftime after an 11-play. D.D. Kyle dragged defenders into the end zone on a 15-yard touchdown run.

Georgia Tech was the third Atlantic Coast Conference visitor to MTSU's Johnny (Red) Floyd Stadium since the Raiders moved up to the Football Bowl Subdivision in 1999. But the Yellow Jackets were the first to blow out MTSU; Virginia won by only two points in 2007 and Maryland lost in 2008.

The Yellow Jackets tacked on another touchdown midway through the third quarter when Orwin Smith's 2-yard TD run capped an 11-play, 6-minute drive that covered 85 yards.

Georgia Tech put in Days on the next series, and he directed two touchdown drives. The redshirt freshman ran keepers for 10 and 28 yards before scoring on a 5-yard run with 1:27 left in the third.

Middle Tennessee was celebrating its centennial with a birthday cake unveiled at halftime of the home opener.

GAME #3

Kansas 24
(rv/rv) Georgia Tech 66

September 17, 2011 | Atlanta, Ga.
Bobby Dodd Stadium | 42,025

Led by Orwin Smith, who had more than 100 yards rushing and receiving, Georgia Tech piled up a school-record 768 yards in a 66-24 rout of the Jayhawks.

Georgia Tech (3-0) also set a school mark with 604 yards rushing and played with a passion and focus that was missing a year ago in an mistake-plagued loss to Kansas.

The Yellow Jackets ran at will and mixed in three long passes against Kansas (2-1).

Georgia Tech averaged a 28-25 upset by the Jayhawks last season, a bitter defeat that sent the Yellow Jackets spiraling to a losing season.

Georgia Tech also set a school record with 604 yards on the ground in its highest-scoring game since a 69-14 win over Samford in 2007.

Losing its 10th straight road game, Kansas gave up three one-play scoring drives to the Yellow Jackets, including their first offensive snap of each half.

Georgia Tech averaged 12.1 yards each time they ran the ball. That broke the NCAA record, an 11.9-yard performance in 1973 by Bear Bryant's Alabama team against Virginia Tech.

Smith needed only five carries to put up 157 yards. Peoples added 110 yards on five carries.

Smith set the tone on Georgia Tech's first offensive play, breaking off a 95-yard touchdown for yet another record-longest run in school history.

Tevin Washington had another efficient day at quarterback, completing 4 of 7 for 164 yards. He connected with Smith on a 67-yard touchdown and hooked up with Jones on a 52-yarder. Washington also completed a 41-yard pass to Smith that came up short of the end zone, giving the junior A-back 108 yards on his two receptions.

Georgia Tech had gone seven years since its last player, Calvin Johnson, had rushing and receiving touchdowns in the same game. Both Smith and Jones did it against the Jayhawks.

Smith also was the first Yellow Jackets player since at least 1978 to account for more than 100 yards on the ground and through the air.

Kansas kicked a field goal on the last play of the first half and actually went to the locker room only down 24-17. It was all Georgia Tech after that.

Peoples took off from the 37 on the opening play of the third quarter and the rout was on.

The Yellow Jackets finished with their highest-scoring second half since putting up 96 over the final two periods of their famous 222-0 victory over Cumberland in 1916.

Georgia Tech broke the school record of 558 yards rushing against VMI in 1975, and the 706-yard mark for total yards set in 1948 against Citadel.

GAME #4

(rv/25) North Carolina 28
(25/24) Georgia Tech 35

September 24, 2011 | Atlanta, Ga.
Bobby Dodd Stadium | 46,849

Tevin Washington threw a long touchdown pass and ran for two scores, including a 5-yarder with about 5 1/2 minutes remaining that gave No. 25 Georgia Tech a 35-28 victory over North Carolina. The Yellow Jackets improved to 4-0 for the first time since 1990, the season they shared the national title with Colorado.

The Tar Heels (3-1, 1-1 ACC) were actually the ones who fought back from a 28-14 deficit going to the final period, tying the game on Giovanni Bernard's 55-yard run with 7:22 left.

Georgia Tech needed only four plays to respond in its conference opener.

Running back Roddy Jones reached out to take a pitch from Washington that looked too far in front of him, going 48 yards down the sideline to the North Carolina 9. Two snaps later, with Finch and others clearing the way, Washington carried it in himself for the winning score with 5:20 left.

Stephen Hill had a huge game for Georgia Tech with six receptions for 151 yards, including a 59-yard touchdown. Bernard rushed for 155 yards and two TDs.

The Yellow Jackets came in with the nation's highest-scoring offense (59.3 points a game) and leading in several other offensive categories. While not nearly as dominating as they were in the first three games, they still had another big day offensively, piling up 312 yards on the ground and 496 yards in all.

Washington had a fumble and an interception, but he mostly ran the offense just as it's drawn up. He completed 10 of 14 passes for 184 yards, hooking up with Hill on Georgia Tech's seventh one-play scoring drive of the season midway through the second period.

Hill should've had another score, dropping a sure TD pass late in the game after he again broke free behind the secondary. He pulled up with some sort of cramp or hamstring problem just as the ball arrived, then hobbled to the sideline.

It was hard to get too mad at the 6-foot-5 receiver, especially with the leaping, one-handed grab he made on a pass in the first half, somehow getting his fingers on the ball and pulling it down as he fell hard to the ground.

Washington also ran 25 times for 74 yards, taking quite a pounding from the Tar Heels.

North Carolina's Bryn Renner completed 17 of 25 for 204 yards, but a couple of interceptions plagued the sophomore in his first start outside of Chapel Hill.

The Tar Heels trailed 17-7 at halftime, and Tech drove for a field goal on the opening possession to extend its lead.

Renner and Bernard led North Carolina back. Renner completed five straight passes on a right-down-the-field, 74-yard drive the first time he got the ball, three of the completions going to Dwight Jones before Nelson Hurst hauled in a 6-yard scoring pass.

Washington guided Georgia Tech on a 13-play, 81-yard drive and scored on a 1-yard dive. The Yellow Jackets also made the 2-point conversion for their biggest lead.

GAME #5

(21/21) Georgia Tech 45

NC State 35

October 1, 2011 | Raleigh, N.C.
Carter-Finley Stadium | 55,811

Georgia Tech's offense kept on scoring - and the defense put up an important touchdown, too. It all added up to the Yellow Jackets' best start since they were national champions.

Orwin Smith rushed for three touchdowns and No. 21 Georgia Tech used a fourth-quarter flurry of points to beat North Carolina State 45-35 to extend its best start in more than 20 years.

Smith finished with 74 yards and scored on runs of 13, 9 and 3 yards. The Yellow Jackets (5-0, 2-0 ACC) were held to a season-low 413 total yards -- they entered averaging 630.5 yards per game -- but opened with five wins for the first time since their national championship season in 1990.

Georgia Tech led 21-0, briefly allowed N.C. State to make a game of it in the third quarter and pulled away with three touchdowns in a 2-minute, 22-second span of the fourth.

Mike Glennon was 20 of 29 for 163 yards with touchdown passes covering 9 yards to Jay Smith and 1 yard to Tyler Purvis for the Wolfpack (2-3, 0-2).

Tevin Washington completed just four passes for Georgia Tech -- but two were touchdowns, covering 9 yards to David Sims and 38 yards to Roddy Jones. He rushed for 43 yards but finished 4 of 12 for 117 yards through the air.

James Washington rushed for a career-high 131 yards for the Wolfpack. His 46-yard touchdown run got N.C. State within a score, down 21-14.

That's when Georgia Tech used a scoring flurry befitting the nation's most productive offense to take a huge lead.

Smith closed a 13-play drive that demoralized N.C. State by taking a pitch from Tevin Washington around right end and diving across the goal line with 12:29 left.

On State's next offensive play, Isaiah Johnson picked off Glennon's pass and returned it for a score, and Tevin Washington hit Jones deep for a TD that made it 42-14 with 10:07 left.

N.C. State made things interesting with two touchdowns in the final 34 seconds, including Brandon Bishop's 33-yard return of Synjyn Days' fumble with 20 seconds left to finish the scoring.

Glennon made it 21-7 with 1:15 left in the half on his scoring pass to Smith, and N.C. State got within a score on Washington's long touchdown run on its first play of the second half.

That came after it looked as though the Yellow Jackets would have their way against an N.C. State team that entered with one of the worst -- and most injury-riddled -- defenses in the ACC.

Smith capped each of Georgia Tech's first two drives with touchdown runs. Four plays after Jamea Thomas took a snap on a fake punt and rumbled 27 yards for a first down, Smith took a pitch through the right side and ran 13 yards for a score.

Then, he made it 14-0 with 3:34 left in the first quarter when he took a handoff 9 yards for his second touchdown.

Washington then made it 21-0 with his short flip to Sims on the first play of the second quarter, giving Georgia Tech a 173-30 advantage in total yards.

GAME #6

Maryland 16

(13/13) Georgia Tech 21

October 8, 2011 | Atlanta, Ga.
Bobby Dodd Stadium | 45,905

Tevin Washington ran for 120 yards and two touchdowns and No. 13 Georgia Tech's least impressive offensive showing of the season was enough to beat Maryland 21-16.

Georgia Tech led 21-3 before holding off the Terrapins' fourth-quarter comeback.

Georgia Tech (6-0 overall, 3-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) matched its wins total from 2010, when it finished 6-7. The Yellow Jackets averaged almost 52 points in their first five wins and began the day ranked first in the nation in rushing and second in scoring.

Quarterback C.J. Brown, who replaced starter Danny O'Brien, had a 77-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter for Maryland (2-3, 1-1). Davin Meggett, who had 86 yards rushing, scored from the 1 with 7:33 remaining to cut the lead to 21-16.

But Maryland was stopped on a fourth-and-8 play from its 46 on Brown's incomplete pass with 2:31 remaining, ending its comeback bid.

Brown was 4-of-17 passing for 36 yards and an interception. He had nine carries for 124 yards.

O'Brien was replaced after completing only 1 of 6 passes for 17 yards and an interception.

Washington had scoring runs of 7 yards in the first quarter and 3 yards in the third. Orwin Smith had a 10-yard scoring run in the second quarter.

Maryland's only points in the first three quarters were Nick Ferrara's 30-yard field goal at the end of a 14-play drive on the Terrapins' first possession.

Washington was Georgia Tech's leading rusher, but he struggled as a passer as he completed only 6 of 19 passes for 114 yards and an interception.

Maryland is left with a possible quarterback controversy. Coach Randy Edsall pulled O'Brien after the sophomore's second-quarter interception, his sixth of the year.

Brown took over and remained in the game after he was picked off by Rod Sweeting in the end zone in the third quarter.

Georgia Tech led 14-3 at halftime but wasted two second-quarter chances to stretch the lead.

Maryland turned to Brown on its next possession.

Maryland left guard Andrew Gonnella was taken off the field in an ambulance after suffering an apparent left leg injury in the fourth quarter.

With most Maryland players standing or kneeling on the field, the game was delayed for about 15 minutes as medical personnel from each team worked in a circle around Gonnella. A cart was first driven on the field but then left as the ambulance followed.

GAME #7

(12/12) Georgia Tech 21
Virginia 24

October 15, 2011 | Charlottesville, Va.
Scott Stadium | 47,692

The Virginia Cavaliers beat No. 12 Georgia Tech at its own game, 24-21.

Georgia Tech (6-1, 3-1), off to its best start since 1966, came in with one of the nation's top offenses, but it was held to just two pass completions and a season-low 296 yards by a Virginia defense that made the most of an extra week to prepare.

The Cavaliers (4-2, 1-1 ACC) sealed the victory by holding onto the ball for the final 6 minutes, making five first downs to get inside the Yellow Jackets' 5.

But they didn't need to score, and when quarterback Michael Rocco took a knee for a 3-yard loss on the game's final play, thousand of fans surged onto the field at Scott Stadium.

Kevin Parks ran for one touchdown for Virginia, Rocco hit Tim Smith for a 37-yarder and Clifton Richardson had a 22-yard run, all in the first half, as Virginia built a 24-14 lead.

Georgia Tech almost struck very quickly to start the second half, with Tevin Washington running 85 yards on the first play from scrimmage, but the play was called back by a penalty.

The Yellow Jackets then did it the hard way, using 19 plays and converting two fourth-and-1 plays and a fourth-and-5 before Washington scored on a 1-yard run. The fourth-and-5 was initially a fourth-and-10, but defensive tackle Nick Jenkins was called for being offside, and Washington ran for 23 yards on the next play to the Cavaliers' 5 and scored two plays later.

The teams traded punts the rest of the way until Virginia took over at its 23 with just under 6 minutes left. Jones started with runs of 11 and eight yards, caught an 18-yard pass from Rocco to convert a third-and-6 from the Virginia 49 and the Cavaliers never gave it up.

Virginia gained 407 yards against former coach Al Groh's 3-4 defense.

The Yellow Jackets erased a 14-0 deficit with two touchdowns in 98 seconds in the second quarter. Washington capped an 80-yard drive with a 7-yard touchdown run, and Rod Sweeting intercepted a Rocco pass three plays later and returned in 32 yards for the tying touchdown.

Freshman David Watford came on at quarterback for one series for Virginia, and led a 72-yard scoring drive. He bulled his way for a first down on third-and-1, and also carried it the last 22 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

When Chase Minnifield intercepted a deep pass by Washington on the ensuing series, Rocco came back and led them 41 yards in eight plays to Robert Randolph's 36-yard field goal.

Virginia struck quickly at the start with two touchdowns in the first 8:20.

The Cavaliers drove 73 yards after the opening kickoff, a drive kept alive by Rocco's 8-yard pass to Tim Smith on third-and-3 from the 23. Two plays later, Parks took it in from the 6.

The Yellow Jackets were penalized twice on their opening series, riling up the small crowd at Scott Stadium, and when Rocco hit Smith for 37 yards and a 14-0 lead, it got really loud.

GAME #8

(20/19) Georgia Tech 7
Miami 24

October 22, 2011 | Miami Gardens, Fla.
Sun Life Stadium | 43,716

JoJo Nicholas recovered a fumbled punt for a touchdown plus added an interception, Lamar Miller ran for 93 yards and a score and Miami's banged-up defense was dominant as the Hurricanes topped No. 20 Georgia Tech 24-7 -- holding the high-octane Yellow Jackets more than 300 yards and nearly 36 points below their season averages entering the game.

Mike James also had a touchdown run for Miami (4-3, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference), which won consecutive games for the first time this season and has now beaten Georgia Tech three straight times.

Georgia Tech (6-2, 3-2) came into Saturday averaging 517 yards of offense. The Yellow Jackets got only 211 on Saturday, their lowest total since a loss to Iowa in the Orange Bowl after the 2009 season. In its last 35 games, Georgia Tech has rushed for less than 200 yards only three times, all at Sun Life Stadium--95 at Miami in 2009, 143 in the Orange Bowl and 134 in this one.

Washington threw right to Nicholas on the Yellow Jackets' first offensive snap of the game, a mistake that set Miami up at the Georgia Tech 46. It was doubly costly for the Yellow Jackets, with center Jay Finch going down with what appeared to be a knee injury and eventually getting carted off the sideline for evaluation.

The Hurricanes needed 12 plays to score from there, Harris extending the drive with a 13-yard pass to Phillip Dorsett on fourth-and-3 from the 39, and James later capping it with a 2-yard run for a 7-0 Miami lead.

With 10:17 left in the half, Nicholas found himself again in the right place at the right time for Miami.

Zach Laskey dropped back to receive a punt for Georgia Tech, the bouncing ball coming straight at him as he stood at the 9-yard line. He tried to grab it as a horde of Hurricanes sprinted toward him, misplayed it and could only watch as the football kept going into the end zone. Nicholas dove on it just past the goal line for a touchdown that put Miami up 14-0.

In the first half alone, Georgia Tech failed on a fake-punt attempt, had the interception to help create one Miami touchdown and then the blown punt return to give the Hurricanes seven more points. Nonetheless, with 1:02 left in the half, the Yellow Jackets were within 14-7.

A 20-play, 92-yard drive for Georgia Tech on the scoreboard. Washington completed all three of his attempted passes during the marathon possession, plus rushed the ball nine times for 22 yards--including a 1-yard touchdown plunge.

Travis Benjamin ran the ensuing kickoff back 48 yards, and Harris hit Tommy Streeter with a 32-yard gain on first down to get Miami to the Georgia Tech 14. Two plays later, Miller ran up the middle for a touchdown from there with 25 seconds left in the half, restoring the 14-point cushion and getting help from a sealing block by guard Jon Feliciano.

It was a costly celebration. Feliciano got hurt jumping around after the score, leaving the game with a leg injury. He rejoined his teammates on the sideline late in the third quarter, on crutches and wearing a walking boot on his left ankle. An X-ray was negative, but Golden is not sure of Feliciano's status.
