Spring Break Reminders

- Daily and weekly hour limitations do not apply to CARA activities from March 12–17 (University's Vacation Period).
- Most programs have a declared week of Sunday - Saturday. Therefore, a program must provide a day off either Sunday, March 11th or on one of the vacation days during that week (March 12th - 17th).
- If practice is held on Sunday, March 11th the program cannot exceed 4 hours on that day.

Enjoy Your Break!

Academic Reminders

- Monday, March 5: SAAC Meeting
- Monday, March 12 - Saturday, March 17: Spring Break
- Friday, March 23: Last day to withdraw from course with a “W” using RTF-EZ
- Sunday, March 25: Last day to withdraw from course with a “W” on GWEB

Student-Athlete Compliance Conundrum

There is a twist with this month's compliance conundrum. In addition to our standard point awarding system, this month you will also be able to deduct 200 points from another team with your correct answer! Happy Compliance Games! And may the rules be ever in your favor!

Situation: Net is a women’s volleyball student-athlete who will be going home for spring break. She has secured a job at the local Boys and Girls Club for the week.

Question: Are there any GW Athletics Compliance forms that Net must complete in order to work during spring break?

Answers:
A. No, because the employment is during spring break.
B. Yes, but just an email to Athletics Compliance letting them know she is working.
C. No, there are no forms required by GW to work at any time.
D. Yes, the Employment Approval form in ARMS.

Monthly Compliance Conundrum

Lane Line is a men’s swimming prospect who is on an official visit and wants to swim laps. The Smith Center pool will be open for free swim during the days he is on his visit but the pool is not open to the public.

Question: Can Lane swim laps in the pool while he is on his official visit?

WHAAAA?!?!

Answer: No, Lane cannot swim laps in the pool while he is on his official visit. Only those in the Contact/Evaluation Period can use the pool. Lane is on a Contact ONLY period.
