FBI Uncovers Bribery, Corruption

Federal authorities have arrested ten people for fraud and corruption after a two-year covert investigation. Four of those individuals are DI assistant basketball coaches. U.S. Attorney Joon H. Kim alleges that four assistant coaches—Emanuel Richardson (Arizona), Chuck Person (Auburn), Lamont Evans (Oklahoma State) and Tony Bland (USC)—took cash bribes in order to steer elite basketball players, who were NBA bound, toward certain sports agents, financial advisors, and apparel companies. Each coach has been charged with bribery conspiracy, solicitation of bribes, honest services fraud, conspiracy to commit wire fraud, and Travel Act conspiracy. They all are facing a maximum sentence of 80 years in prison. Schools have already taken action. Arizona suspended Richardson and relieved him of all duties. Auburn suspended Person without pay. Oklahoma State suspended Richardson and relieved him of all duties. USC placed Bland on administrative leave and hired a former FBI director to conduct an internal investigation. Authorities also allege that James Gatto, the director of global marketing for Adidas Basketball; Merl Code, a former player for Clemson who is now affiliated with Adidas; and Munish Snood, the founder of Princeton Capital—an investment service firm that manages professional athletes’ money, paid $100,000 at the request of a Louisville assistant coach to freshman Brian Bowen to get him to commit to Louisville. The money also ensured that Bowen would have Snood manage his money and sign with Adidas upon entering the NBA. Bowen has been suspended indefinitely. Louisville coach Rick Pitino was fired following the FBI’s report. The investigation is ongoing and the allegations brought forth by the federal authorities constitute violations of NCAA bylaws.

SA Compliance Conundrum

Rules
- SAas can obtain between 500-100 points by answering the Student-Athlete Compliance Conundrum on days 1-5 that the newsletter is dispersed (ex: Answering on day 1=500 points, day 2=400, etc.).
- Coaches and Sport Administrators can obtain points by answering both the SA (100 points) and Coaches Compliance Conundrum (100 points) on days 1-5.
- One SA per team can answer and earn points.
- One coach per team (unless a dual sport coach) can answer and earn points for his/her team.
- Sport supervisors earn points for each of their sports.
- At the end of each semester, the winning team will receive an occasional meal from the Athletics Compliance Office!

Question: You are traveling with your team for an away-from-home contest. You have a frequent flier account and would like to receive points while traveling. Is it permissible for you to receive frequent flier points while traveling with the team?

Choices:
A. No, because receiving frequent flier miles would be considered an extra benefit.
B. No, because you did not purchase the flight with your own money.
C. Yes, because SAas are permitted to receive frequent flier points/miles while traveling to and from intercollegiate practice and/or competition.

E-mail answers to Chandra (cbwirth@gwu.edu) or Lauren (ljdoby1@gwu.edu).

Remember to report your community service hours at www.GWsports/lifeskills.
Does It Count? CARA Reminder

Countable athletically related activities include any required activity with an athletics purpose involving student-athletes and at the direction of or supervised by one or more of an institution’s coaching staff (including strength and condition coaches) and must be counted within the weekly and daily limitations under Bylaws 17.1.7.1 and 17.1.7.2. Let’s put your CARA knowledge to the test. Would the following scenarios be considered countable?

Monthly Compliance Conundrum

Question: The GW’s volleyball program has scheduled an alumni game for later this month. If a student-athlete competes in this alumni game and does NOT compete at all for the remainder of the season, does she utilize a season of competition? Remember you must cite the Bylaw to get points.

A. Yes.
B. No, provided the event is counted as one of the institution’s maximum number of contests or dates of competition as permitted in the particular sport per Bylaw 17.
C. No, because student-athletes are allowed to compete in alumni games without them counting towards their season of competition.

Monthly reminder to ensure that all CARA logs, contacts and evaluations and telephone calls are being logged through ARMS. Don’t forget to run reports to ensure all the information has been added correctly.

Are you Hosting a Recruit?

- Collect itemized receipts (these are the receipts that list out what was purchased) for any purchases you make using Entertainment Money (host cash) or a GWorld Card.
- Only the host and the recruit can have their meals paid for by the GWorld Card and host cash. Other teammates can attend the meals but cannot be paid for by the host money.
- DO NOT give the recruit or a teammate the host envelope at any time. You may only give the host envelope to another teammate if you are both hosting the recruit (e.g., splitting the host time for the visit) and you both have signed a Host Form with the Athletics Compliance Office.
- DO NOT purchase ANY items at CVS or 7-Eleven with the Entertainment Money or GWorld Card.
- DO NOT post any pictures of the recruit to your social media pages.
- Return all unused cash, receipts, and the GWorld card in the original envelope to your coach at the conclusion of the visit.
