CLINIC DIRECTORS:

Steve Mrowka, Head Coach,
The George Washington University

Coach Mrowka is in his fourth year at GW. In his three years at GW, he has seen twelve of his Colonial players drafted or signed to professional contracts. Prior to GW, he was the head baseball coach at Georgia College (408-222 record). At Georgia College, he led the Bobcats to several NCAA Div. II Regional's and #1 national rankings in 1998 and 2001. In addition, Coach Mrowka spent six summers as the head coach of the Hyannis Mets in the Cape Cod League. During his playing days, Coach Mrowka was drafted in the ninth round by the Boston Red Sox, played and graduated from the University of North Carolina.

Bob Smith, Assistant Coach,
The George Washington University

Coach Smith enters his first season on the Colonials staff. Smith is coming back to the college game after spending the past twelve years running the Richmond Baseball Academy, which he founded in 1995. Under Smith's guidance RBA has developed over 160 college baseball players, including first-round MLB draft picks Matt Moses (#21, 2002) and Justin Verlander (#2, 2004), the 2006 American League Rookie of the Year. Prior to 1995, Smith coached at VCU, University of Kentucky, University of Tennessee and Louisiana State University. Coach Smith played and graduated from Mississippi State University

Dan Hodgson, Assistant Coach,

Coach Hodgson is in his second season as a full-time member of the GW staff after having served as the Colonials' volunteer assistant. Prior to GW, Hodgson coached at Georgia College and Kenyon College, his alma mater.
