

The George Washington University
Mount Vernon Campus
Guidelines for Visiting Teams

- ◆ All vehicles should enter the campus via the Whitehaven Parkway (refer to enclosed directions to campus):
 - All vehicles that need to park should do so in the garage underneath the tennis courts, which is the first left turn after entering the campus via the Whitehaven Parkway (refer to enclosed campus map). On weekends, parking in the garage is free all day. Access to the campus is via the stairwell and elevator in the Clock Tower (follow posted signs in the garage). Please do not park anywhere else on campus.
 - Charter buses that need to park can do so in the rectangular bus cut-out. The bus cut-out is located on the right hand side of Campus Drive directly adjacent to the Mount Vernon Gym. Parking space is available for up to two charter buses.
 - Please note that visitors to GW's Mount Vernon Campus are never allowed to park on the streets adjacent to the campus; those who do are subject to fines and/or towing.

- ◆ All spectator seating for the field is on the side of the field opposite the team benches (follow signs upon arrival). Spectators are not should not stand on the side of the field adjacent to the team benches or in the roadway adjacent to the field.

- ◆ The observation tower located on the side of the field is off limits at all times.

- ◆ Restrooms are located in the entryway to The Pub on the lower level of the Ames Building (follow posted signs).

In case of an emergency, contact GW University Police by phone at (202) 242-6111 or in person at the Gatehouse inside the W Street entrance to the campus; do not call 911 directly!!! GW University Police will coordinate the response of emergency personnel in order to ensure that they are directed to the appropriate location. If needed, there is a phone located on the field between the team benches.
