

Dear Colonials Fans,

The SIDEOUT CLUB is an integral part of the continued success of The George Washington University volleyball program.

For nearly a decade, members have provided much-needed assistance to our program as we build upon a tradition of excellence. In order to continue our growth and maintain that competitive edge, we are very mindful of how much we depend on your support.

SIDEOUT CLUB members are the champions of our program. In addition to providing financial assistance, we want you to become more involved in our season, and create a community of support for our student-athletes. There are many levels in the SIDEOUT CLUB, and we have revised the privileges for each. I encourage you to check out how you can be involved this year.

Join us on our journey towards an Atlantic 10 Championship and berth in the NCAA Tournament.

Go Colonials!

Sincerely,

Amanda Ault
