* - Atlantic 10 Conference Match
All matches/times are subject to change.

2017 Notes

- GW was picked to finish sixth in the Atlantic 10 Preseason Poll. The top six teams in the standings at the end of the regular season will compete at the Atlantic 10 Championship, November 17-19, at the A.J. Palumbo Center in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

- GW has the luxury of boasting a pair of setters with extensive experience running an offense. Graduate transfer Stacey Benton joins the Colonials from Dartmouth where she appeared in 257 sets across four seasons and totaled 1,861 assists. She was limited by injury to just four matches in 2016 but is poised to be a big contributor in her final collegiate season.

Sophomore Jaimeson Lee returns to the Colonials after getting valuable experience in her debut season. The Austin, Texas, native appeared in 61 sets as a rookie and totaled 271 assists (4.37/ set). Her familiarity with her hitters will be a big help as the Colonials navigate the opening weekend and beyond.

- The setters enter the 2017 season with plenty of options at the net to put down balls and score points. Junior and 2015 A-10 Co-Rookie of the Year Kelsey Clark (447 career kills), senior Aaliya Davidson (592 career kills) and senior Kristel Moor (244 career kills) all have a proven capable of producing quality swings. Sophomores Skylar Lott (195 kills as a freshman) and Jordan Young (84 kills as a freshman) are looking to build upon solid freshman seasons. Newcomers Callie Fauntleroy and Marianna Warren will also have plenty of opportunities to make an impact.
