Bulldogs Grab No. 2 Seed Against No. 15 Valpo

Gonzaga University earned its highest seed in seven NCAA Tournament appearances Sunday when the Bulldogs received a No. 2 seed against No. 15 Valparaiso University.

The Bulldogs and the Crusaders will tip off in the late game Thursday at KeyArena in Seattle. Michigan State University and the University of Nevada will meet in the 4:35 p.m. opener of the second session, with Gonzaga and Valparaiso tipping off 30 minutes following the completion of that game. Tip off is estimated to be somewhere between 6:30-7 p.m. PST.

In the second season of the pod system, the Gonzaga/Valpo/MSU/Nevada pod winner will advance to the St. Louis, Mo., Regional. The other Seattle pod has No. 8 seed University of Alabama facing No. 9 seed Southern Illinois University at 11:40 a.m. on Thursday, with No. 1 Stanford University taking on No. 16 University of Texas-San Antonio 30 minutes following the conclusion of the first game. The winner of the SIU/Bama/Stanford/UTSA pod will be in the Phoenix, Ariz., Regional.

The Gonzaga/Valpo winner will face the MSU/Nevada winner on Saturday at 12:20 p.m., while the two winners from the other pod will meet 30 minutes following the conclusion of the first game.

The standard Regional designations – West, South, Midwest and East – have been eliminated from NCAA lingo, with the Regional sites being referred to by the city name to help avoid confusion of where the various pod winners are headed.

Gonzaga is the West Coast Conference regular-season and tournament champion, while Valpo duplicated that in the Mid-Continent Conference.

Bulldog Bites

- ☑ Gonzaga and Valparaiso have never met on the basketball court.
- ☑ Gonzaga is making its sixth straight NCAA Tournament appearance and seventh overall. The Bulldogs are 8-6 in NCAA Tournament play, reaching the Elite Eight in 1999, the Sweet 16 in 2000 and 2001 and advancing to the second round in 2003 before dropping a 96-95 double-overtime game to Arizona is what many consider the best game of the 2003 tournament. ESPN thought enough of the contest to declare it an Instant Classic.
- ☑ Valparaiso is making its seventh NCAA Tournament appearance since 1996. The Crusaders are 2-6 overall. The Crusaders advanced to the Sweet 16 in 1998.
- ☑ Valparaiso head coach Homer Drew is back on the sidelines after a one-year "sabbatical." Drew, who coached Valpo for 14 seasons prior to resigning on April 25, 2002, agreed to return to the bench when his successor – and son – Scott Drew resigned last summer to assume the reigns at Baylor University. The elder Drew had been the Special Assistant to the President for University Advancement since leaving the bench.
- ☑ Gonzaga reached yet another first in the USA Today/ESPN Top 25 released Sunday following the announcement of the NCAA Tournament Bracket – the Bulldogs getting an all-time best No. 2 ranking and a first place vote. The Bulldogs garnered their inaugural No. 1 vote in the AP poll last week, and received two this week in remaining third. Stanford returned to No. 1 in the USA Today/ESPN and AP balloting, one of the two teams – last week's No. 1 Saint Joseph's the other – to beat Gonzaga this season. Kentucky moved ahead of Gonzaga into the No. 2 spot in the Associated Press poll, the final AP poll of the season as the sportswriters don't do a final poll after the NCAA Tournament. Gonzaga is at its highest ranking in the two respective polls. Gonzaga was sixth in the final two regular-season AP polls of the 2002 season (AP doesn't do a post-season poll), while the Bulldogs were sixth in the final two regular-season USA Today/ESPN polls that year prior to finishing 16th in the final poll following the NCAA Tournament. USA Today/ESPN will have one more poll following the NCAA Tournament.
- ☑ Gonzaga University senior guard Blake Stepp has been named one of 20 finalists for the John R. Wooden Award All-American Team and Player of the Year. The award is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate basketball player. The winner will be announced on April 10, when CBS will nationally broadcast the "John R. Wooden Award Show Presented by Allstate" live from The Los Angeles Athletic Club beginning at 10 a.m. PST. Stepp becomes the third finalist from Gonzaga, joining Casey Calvary who was the Bulldogs inaugural Wooden Top 10 All-American in 2001 and Dan Dickau who became Gonzaga's first Wooden Award Top Five All-American in 2002.
- ☑ Blake Stepp became Gonzaga's all-time 3-point leader with his eight second-half treys against San Diego the last week of the regular season. He has 286 career treys to pass Richie Frahm who had 280 from 1996-00.
- ☑ After passing Richie Frahm for the all-time 3-point mark, Blake Stepp moved past the current Seattle Sonic in career scoring with 11 points in the West Coast Conference Tournament semifinals. Stepp has 1,644 points, fifth on the all-time list to surpass Frahm's 1,621.

Bulldog Bites

☑ Head coach Mark Few is tied for second with former Kansas head coach Roy Williams for most career wins by a fifth-year head coach with his 132 victories. Few's career mark is 132-31. Few and the Bulldogs would have to win the national championship in order for him to pass Everett Case, who posted a 137-29 record at North Carolina State in his first five years of 1947-51. Few's 105 wins rank second for fourth-year head coaches. Case's 107 wins also top the 4-year list. Few heads the list for wins by a third-year head coach with an 81-20 record.

☑ Blake Stepp has been named to the College Sports Information Directors of America All-America second team with a 3.24 GPA in business administration. He was a third team Academic All-American a year ago. Emeka Okafor of the University of Connecticut was named the Academic All-American of the Year with a 3.74 GPA in finance. The first team was comprised of Adam Hess, William and Mary, 3.53, finance; Chris Hill, Michigan State, 3.84, finance; Michael Kuebler, Hawai'i, 3.67, business administration, Adam Mark, Belmont, 3.96, computer science, and Okafor.

☑ In the five years Mark Few has been the head coach at Gonzaga only Duke has more wins than the Bulldogs. Duke has won 148 games, Gonzaga 132 and Oklahoma 130.

☑ Gonzaga's Ronny Turiaf is one of 20 finalists for the Naismith College Basketball Player of the Year Award presented April 9 by the Atlanta Tipoff Club.

☑ Senior Cory Violette recorded his 28th career double-double with his 22 points and 10 rebounds against Santa Clara in the West Coast Conference Tournament semifinals. Ronny Turiaf also posted his 13th career double-double against SCU with 10 points and 12 rebounds. It was the first time Gonzaga had two players with a double-double since Violette (15/20) and Zach Gourde (20/12) combined for the feat Dec. 6, 2001, against Fresno State in the Fab Four Classic at The Forum in Inglewood, Calif.

☑ Blake Stepp has moved past John Stockton and into second on the career assists list with 626. Matt Santangelo (1997-00) leads with 668. He has had eight double-digit assists games in his career and has four this season. He and Santangelo are the only two players in Gonzaga history to score 1,500 points and have 600 assists.

☑ Heading into this season, only Gonzaga University, the University of Florida and Duke University have lost less than 10 games in each of the past five seasons. Gonzaga has posted marks of 29-4, 26-7, 26-9 28-7 and 24-9, respectively, in that stretch. The last time Gonzaga hit double-digits in the "L" column was 1998 with a 20-10 campaign. Head coach Mark Few has never had double-digit losses in his five years. Duke went 25-7 and Florida 25-8 last season. GU (27-2) and Duke (27-5) are assured of doing it a sixth straight year, while Florida's run is over with a 20-10 record this season.

Bulldog Bites

- ☑ Gonzaga advanced to the NCAA Tournament by virtue of winning its fifth West Coast Conference Tournament title in the last five years. The Bulldogs defeated host Santa Clara University 63-62 in the semifinals as the Bulldogs came from as much as an 11-point second-half deficit. Ronny Turiaf's put back of his own miss with 5.1 seconds to play lifted the Bulldogs to the victory. Gonzaga then disposed of Saint Mary's College 84-71 in the title game. The Bulldogs had their streak of four straight WCC Tournament titles snapped last year, but the Bulldogs received an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament.
- ☑ Gonzaga head coach Mark Few became the first coach in 46 years to win four straight West Coast Conference Coach of the Year awards, and Blake Stepp won his second straight Player of the Year award as a Bulldog received the nod for a fourth straight year. Few, in his fifth season on the Bulldog bench, joined legendary University of San Francisco coach Phil Woolpert as the only coaches in conference history to be recognized four straight years by their peers. Woolpert did it from 1955-58. Stepp became the fifth Bulldog since Gonzaga joined the conference for the 1979-80 season to win Player of the Year honors. Stepp, an honorable mention selection and the WCC Freshman of the Year in 2001, was joined on the first team by teammates Cory Violette and Ronny Turiaf. Adam Morrison and Sean Mallon were both named to the All-Freshman team.
- ☑ Gonzaga was in the top 10 in eight team statistical categories nationally through statistics of March 9, including No. 1 in scoring margin (+17.1) and field goal percentage (51.9). The Bulldogs are 2nd in rebound margin (+8.7), 3rd in 3-point field goal percentage (42.3), 5th in scoring offense (83.0) and field goal percentage defense (38.3), 7th in assists/game (18.5) and 9th in free throw percentage (75.8).
- ☑ Gonzaga has two individuals ranked in the NCAA statistics through March 9. Blake Stepp is 7th in assists/game (6.9) and 28th in 3-point field goal percentage (42.5). Cory Violette is 37th in field goal percentage (56.1).
- ☑ Gonzaga's new basketball home has a name. Gonzaga President Rev. Robert J. Spitzer, S.J., announced following last Saturday's finale in The Kennel that the new home next door will be named the McCarthy Athletic Center after brothers Phil and Tom McCarthy of Salt Lake City and their families. The two are Gonzaga alums and have been significant contributors to the university over the years, including to the arena project. Phil is a member of Gonzaga's Board of Trustees, Tom a member of the university's Board of Regents.

Bulldogs Garner No. 2 Seed in Seattle; Face Valparaiso In First Round; Placed In St. Louis Regional

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – March 15, 2004

BULLDOGS BACK IN KEYARENA: Back to the beginning. That might be the rallying cry for Gonzaga University's men's basketball team as the Bulldogs head to KeyArena for the NCAA Tournament First/Second Round beginning Thursday against Valparaiso University. KeyArena is where Gonzaga's current 6-year run in the NCAA Tournament began in 1999. The Bulldogs topped the University of Minnesota 75-63 and then disposed of Stanford University 82-74.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME: KeyArena has become Gonzaga University's home away from home. In addition to the NCAA success of 1999, the Bulldogs have won two other games in the facility. Gonzaga defeated the University of Washington 76-66 on Dec. 13, 1999, as the Huskies moved their home games to KeyArena while their arena was undergoing a major remodel. Earlier this season Gonzaga beat then-No. 3 University of Missouri 87-80 in KeyArena in a game nationally televised by CBS, Gonzaga's inaugural CBS regular-season nationally televised game.

ST. LOUIS REGIONAL: Should Gonzaga University move on the Sweet 16 the next stop would be St. Louis, Mo. The superstitious were hoping Gonzaga would be played in the Phoenix, Ariz., Regional because in 1999 the Bulldogs went from Seattle to Phoenix to continue their march to the Elite Eight. The Bulldogs might be the favorite of St. Louis fans if the Bulldogs advance. Former Bulldog shortstop Bo Hart was called up to the St. Louis Cardinals last summer and took the city by storm with his torrid start and hustling approach to the game. He's ticketed to be in the lineup again this season.

Men's Basketball

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - March 15, 2004

ZAGS WHEN RANKED: Gonzaga University is 62-10 when nationally ranked, including a perfect 25-0 at home with this season's 11-0 home record. The mark includes games against teams in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Top 25.

PERFECT AT HOME... Gonzaga University recorded its fourth perfect home slate in the last six years with this year's 11-0 mark.

...AND IN THE WCC: Gonzaga University recorded its first perfect West Coast Conference season with this year's 14-0 mark. The Bulldogs became the first WCC team to run the table since Pepperdine University in 1992. Gonzaga's previous WCC best was 13-1 in both 2001 and 2002.

FEW AT GU: While fifth-year head coach Mark Few is prominent on the national coaching lists of success, he's also climbing on the Gonzaga University charts. With GU's victory in the regular-season finale he moved past Claude McGrath for third in career wins at GU, Few now with 132. Hank Anderson leads the list with 291 in 21 years while Dan Fitzgerald is second with 254 in 15 years. Few is also fourth in career winning percentage among Bulldog coaches at 81.0 percent (132-31), but first among coaches who spent more than one season on the Bulldog bench. Frank McKeivitt (88.9), Charles Henry (84.6) and George Varnell (83.3) all spent one season as head coach. Varnell (1908-09) was the first head coach in GU history after the team went its first year of existence without a head coach. McKeivitt (1910-11) was the third head coach in GU history and Henry coached during WWII in 1943-44.

VIOLETTE BOARDS AND PASSES: Senior Cory Violette is third in career rebounds with 859, becoming just the third Gonzaga player to grab 800 career boards - Jerry Vermillion (1,670) and Gary Lechman (910) the others.

NOW THERE ARE THREE: Blake Stepp, Ronny Turiaf and Cory Violette are all members of the Gonzaga University 1,000-point club. Turiaf joined the club with 19 points against Saint Mary's College on Jan. 17 and now has 1,202 for 15th. Stepp was already a member entering the season and has 1,644 for fifth, three shy of passing Jeff Brown (1,646, 1992-94) for fourth. Violette reached the milestone against Washington State University and has 1,313 career points for 13th. He needs 28 points to pass John Stockton (1,340, 1981-84).

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – MARCH 15, 2004

FOR THREE: Blake Stepp and Kyle Bankhead continue to climb on Gonzaga University's all-time 3-point list, Stepp taking over the top spot from Richie Frahm (280, 1996-00) with 286. Bankhead has 168 treys for sixth, passing Jon Kinloch (157, 1993-96). Stepp is also the all-time 3-point attempt leader with 734, surpassing Frahm (662).

FROM THE LINE: Ronny Turiaf and Blake Stepp each moved into the Gonzaga University Top 10 for free throws made last season. Turiaf is now 2nd with 462. Stepp has 372 for sixth. Turiaf and Stepp each tied Frank Burgess' single-game record of 16 free throws made in a game last season. Turiaf did its against Indiana University in the Maui Invitational when he went 16-for-18, then matched the mark again when he went 16-for-22 against the University of Cincinnati in the NCAA Tournament First Round. Stepp went 16-for-20 against the University of Washington to get his piece of the record.

BLOCK IT: Ronny Turiaf continues to move up the blocked shots list at Gonzaga University with 119 as he has passed Tim Ruff (99, 1981-85) for second. Casey Calvary (1998-01) is the all-time leader with 207.

20 OR BUST: Entering this season Gonzaga University was tied for 11th in consecutive 20-win seasons with six. The University of Arizona leads with 16, followed by the University of Kansas with 14 and the University of Kentucky with 13. Gonzaga is tied with the University of Connecticut, Oklahoma State University, the University of Oklahoma and Syracuse University.

BULLDOGS CLOSE BOOK ON THE KENNEL: The Kennel, home of Gonzaga University's Bulldogs, has gone silent for the final time following a men's basketball game with last Saturday's 80-64 win over Santa Clara University. The Bulldogs went 397-104 in 39 years in the building for a 79.2 winning percentage. The Kennel gained the reputation as one of the toughest courts in the country, the Bulldogs losing a 29-game home winning streak Dec. 31, 2002, that ranked third longest in the country. Since 1991 the Bulldogs went 161-15 at home for a nifty 91.5 winning percentage. Gonzaga went 10-2 at home in 2003; 13-0 in 2002, winning by an average of 24.6 ppg; 12-0 in 2001, winning by an average of 24.7 ppg, and 10-1 in 2000. GU is 56-3 in The Kennel over the past five seasons. The 1999 Bulldogs completed a 10-0 season in The Kennel, winning by an average of 31.9 ppg. The Bulldogs also posted undefeated home campaigns in 1993 (13-0) and 1994 (14-0). The Bulldogs put together a 34-game home-court-winning streak from 1992-95, at the time the country's second-longest active streak. Gonzaga's men's and women's basketball teams will move into the McCarthey Athletic Center next season and a new log of Kennel history will begin. The current building is being constructed on the site of Gonzaga's former baseball facility, with a new baseball stadium scheduled to be constructed just south of the old field and east of Gonzaga's Law School.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – MARCH 15, 2004

NCAA APPEARANCES: Gonzaga University will be making its sixth straight NCAA Tournament appearance, the third longest streak among West Coast schools. The University of Arizona is bidding for a 20th straight trip to the tourney, and Stanford University a 10th straight appearance.

THEFT: While Blake Stepp is known for his scoring and assists, he continues to move up Gonzaga's career steals chart with 150 for third. John Stockton is the leader with 262.

DEPTH: Gonzaga University's depth is reflected in the fact 10 players are averaging double-digit minutes. Senior Blake Stepp leads the way with 34.1 minutes/game, followed by senior Cory Violette at 29.4 and junior Ronny Turiaf at 27.4. Senior Kyle Bankhead (24.6), freshman Adam Morrison (20.9) and senior Tony Skinner (20.0) also average better than 20 minutes/game, giving the Bulldogs six players averaging better than 20 minutes a night.

BULLDOGS SIGN THREE: Gonzaga University signed three players to letters-of-intent during the early November signing period. Josh Heytvelt, a 6-10 forward from Clarkston, Wash.; David Pendergraft, a 6-5 guard from Brewster, Wash., and Pierre Marie Altidor-Cespedes, a 6-1 combination guard from Montreal, Canada, will join the Bulldogs in the fall. The signings were not unexpected as all three had made verbal commitments to attend Gonzaga, Pendergraft making his verbal following his sophomore season. Heytvelt is a two-time All-State 3A selection, averaged 20.1 ppg last year as a junior. Pendergraft averaged 24.5 ppg and 10.0 rpg last season as a junior, helping the Bears to a 28-0 record and Washington State Class A title. Altidor-Cespedes was rated as the third best two-guard at the ABCD camp in 2003 held in upstate New York. He was recruited by most of the Big East schools as well as Florida.

NEW ZEALANDER ENROLLS: Calum (Cal-um) MacLeod, a 7-0, 220-pound center from Wellington, New Zealand, joined Gonzaga University's men's basketball team earlier this semester. The newest Bulldog arrived in Spokane for the start of second-semester classes and has been practicing with the Bulldogs since his arrival. He will redshirt this season and have four years of eligibility remaining beginning with the 2004-05 season. MacLeod has been playing for the New Zealand Junior National Team, the Tall Blacks. The team, so named because of their black jersey, most recently played in the Oceanic Games qualifying tournament for the Junior World Championships. New Zealand lost to Australia, which features University of Utah 6-10 freshman Andrew Bogut.

THREE OR BUST: Gonzaga University has extended its streak of consecutive games with a 3-pointer to 359. The last time the Bulldogs failed to hit a trey was Jan. 27, 1993, when the Bulldogs went 0-for-5 at home against Portland.

STEPP JOINS 1,000-POINT CLUB: Junior guard Blake Stepp has cracked Gonzaga University 1,000-point club with 1,644 points for 5th. He's three points shy of moving into fourth. Stepp is the 25th player to score 1,000 or more points in Gonzaga history.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE: With a 3.24 GPA in business administration, Blake Stepp earned College Sports Information Directors of America All-America second-team recognition this season after being a third-team pick in 2003.

BOMBS AWAY: The trey is a staple of Blake Stepp's arsenal and he continues to move up the single-season and career 3-point charts at Gonzaga. His 286 career 3-pointers have moved him past Richie Frahm (280, 1996-00). His 98 treys in 2003 rank 2nd all-time on the Gonzaga single-season list.

DISHIN' IT: Blake Stepp is also an adept passer, his 198 assists in 2003 3rd on the Gonzaga single-season list, and his 620 career assists moving him ahead of John Stockton for second. Matt Santangelo is the leader with 668.
