DAN GEHN BIO

Dan Gehn begins his 24th year as Director of Rowing and head men's rowing coach at Gonzaga University in 2017. Under his guidance Gonzaga crew has become a recognized team on the West Coast and in recent years the Bulldogs have started to appear on the national rowing scene.

Since 2001, Gonzaga has competed as a member of the Western Intercollegiate Rowing Association. His Varsity 8+ and Junior Varsity 8+ teams have had 22 WIRA top-three finishes since moving into the conference, winning the Varsity 8+ and Junior Varsity 8+ in 2009. The Varsity 8+ boat also claimed Gold in 2012 and most recently in 2013 and 2014. In 2005, 2008 and 2011, Gehn was named the WIRA Coach of the Year. They won the California Cup twice, in 1997 and 2003 at the San Diego Crew Classic

Gonzaga has also made a mark on the national scene, obtaining automatic bids to the IRA National Championships in 2009, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014.

It was the first-ever bid for the Junior Varsity 8+ and the second for the Varsity 8+ in 2009. The Varsity 8+ placed 17th, its best finish in school history - since the IRA's was made the official men's national championships in 1997, while the Junior Varsity 8+ placed 13th. As a team, which included the Freshman 8+, the Zags earned a collective 16th place finish.

Gonzaga earned bids to the IRA national championship in the Varsity 8+, Junior Varsity 8+ and Freshman 8+ in both 2011 and 2012. The 2011 campaign saw the Varsity 8+ tie its best finish in school history, finishing 17th. The Junior Varsity 8+ placed 14th and the Freshman 8+ captured 17th. The Bulldogs 2012 season ended with their Varsity 8+ claiming 18th at the IRA's, while the Freshman 8+ took 17th and the Junior Varsity 8+ placed 15th.

The Zags earned bids to the 2013 IRA National Championship in the Varsity 8+, Second Varsity 8+, Varsity 4+ and the Open 4+. The Open 4+ placed 11th; the highest finish in school history, while the Varsity 8+ took 22nd and the Second Varsity 8+ claimed 18th.

In 2014, the Varsity 8+ finished 24th and the Second Varsity 8+ took 18th. The 2008 season was no different as the Varsity 8+ obtained a bid to the IRA National Championships placing 21st. It was the school's first appearance since the IRA became the official men's national championship 12 years prior. They also had their first appearance in the USRowing Top 20 rankings debuting at number 18. The varsity four advanced to the IRA Championships in 2017.

The Bulldogs are no strangers to the IRA's, having made their first splash in 1996 when the Varsity 8+ finished 13th. Since then the Varsity 4+ has dominated for the Zags, finishing fourth in 1998, 2006 and 2007. The Varsity 4+ also claimed a seventh place finish in 2005 and a ninth place finish in 2004.

Helping programs garner national recognition is something Gehn has prided himself on since entering the coaching profession in 1989 as freshman men's rowing coach at the University of Wisconsin, his alma mater. His freshman rowing squads were repeatedly ranked among the nation's elite squads for freshman crew. In 1989 his freshman 4+ claimed the championship at the IRA Championship Regatta. During his six-year tenure at Wisconsin, Gehn's squads won six Midwest Rowing Championships and had four top-six finishes in both the Eastern Sprints and IRA Championship Regatta.

Prior to his coaching career, Gehn was a standout rower at Wisconsin until he graduated in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts in sociology. While a member of the Badger rowing squad, Gehn helped guide his teams to four straight top-three finishes at the IRA Championship Regatta, including a freshman championship in 1985. The Badgers 1986 varsity 8+ also claimed a national title at the Cincinnati Regatta and during the 1986, '87 and '88 seasons Wisconsin won the Ten-Eyck Trophy representing the overall team champion at the IRA's. Gehn finished his four years of rowing at Wisconsin with his squads never finishing lower than eighth at a national event with 10 finishes in the top three or higher.

Gehn was able to parlay his rowing success in college to a spot on the U.S. National Rowing Team in 1987. That team won a Silver Medal at the Pan American Games in Indianapolis, Ind.

A true promoter of crew, Gehn has worked during the summer with several United States Rowing Association Developmental Camps. In 1999 and 2000 Gehn worked with the USRA Men's Development Camp in Madison, Wisc., and coached his squad to several top three finishes at the Canadian Henley Regatta, including a first place finish for the Intermediate 8+. In 1993 Gehn coached at the United States Olympic Festival working with athletes from the North and West squads. Gehn has two daughters, Lucy and Grace, and a son Angus.

MARK VOORHEES BIO

Gonzaga University men's rowing assistant coach and recruiting coordinator Mark Voorhees is entering his seventh year on the men's rowing staff and ninth year at Gonzaga. Prior to taking his current position, Voorhees served as an assistant coach for the Bulldog women's program from 2008-2010.

Since joining the staff in 2010, GU's novice rowing has thrived. Under Voorhees' guidance, the Bulldog Novice 8+ have claimed silver each year at the Western Intercollegiate Rowing Association (WIRA) Championships except 2014, 2015, and 2017, and followed those performances up with 17th place finishes at both the 2011 and 2012 IRA National Championships. In 2013 he coached both the Varsity 4+ and the Open 4+ at the IRA Championships, where the Open 4+ placed 11th. In 2014 the Second Varsity 8+ took 18th at the IRA Championships.

Recruiting has also flourished under Voorhees' direction, with the recruiting class of 2017 boasting 14 student-athletes -- the largest recruiting class in the program's history.

In his two years on the women's staff, Voorhees focused on coaching the Varsity 4+. The Bulldog Varsity 4+ won gold at the 2009 WIRA Championships and placed second at the 2009 West Coast Conference Championships to help GU win its 12th title in 13 years. In 2010, the Varsity 4+ claimed fourth at the WIRA Championships and again earned silver at the WCC Championships.

While a student-athlete at Gonzaga, Voorhees earned All-WIRA first team honors two-straight seasons (2002, 2003) and served as the team's captain in 2004. As a senior he helped lead the Varsity 4+ to a ninth place finish at the IRA Championships and the Varsity 8+ to a fourth place finish at the WIRA's. His junior season, he was part of the Varsity 8+ that took fifth at the ECAC National Rowing Invitational, finished second at the WIRA's and won the Cal Cup at the San Diego Crew Classic.

After graduating from Gonzaga in 2004 with a Bachelor of Science degree in exercise science, Voorhees relocated to Philadelphia to train in hopes of earning a spot on the US National Team. During his time in Philadelphia, he trained and raced at the pre-elite and elite levels for Vesper Boat Club, winning several US National and Canadian Henley Championships. He also competed in numerous National Selection Regattas, the '06, '07, and '08 World Championship Trials and the 2008 Olympic Trials. Voorhees married fellow Gonzaga alum Sinead Harris-Jones ('07) in August of 2013.
