BULLDOGS HEADS EAST FOR WNIT SECOND ROUND: Gonzaga will hit the road for second round action in the 2005 Sportsview.TV Women’s National Invitational Tournament with the Bulldogs heading to Springfield, Mo., for a meeting with Southwest Missouri State University. The Bears picked up a 83-56 win over Southern Methodist on Thursday night to advance to the second round. Gonzaga will have some heavy travel plans ahead of them, leaving Spokane on Friday night with an overnight stay in St. Louis before the trip about 3 hours southwest to SMS. Should Gonzaga win its second round match-up there is a possibility they could remain on the road to face the winner in the other bracket. This marks the first time Gonzaga has advanced past the first round of the Women’s NIT after dropping a first round decision at Oregon State University last season. The Bulldogs other WNIT appearance came in 1994 when 8 teams played in a tournament format in Amarillo, Texas. Gonzaga went 1-2 in that tournament to finish in seventh place.

For Immediate Release - March 19, 2005

Matthews Named WCC Player of the Year: Senior guard Shannon Matthews was named the West Coast Conference Player of the Year after the Bulldogs finished the regular-season with a 25-2 record and 14-0 mark in WCC action. Matthews ranked second on the team with 11.7 points per game while leading the WCC with 6.6 assists per game. During the season Matthews became the Bulldogs career assists leader against Arizona State University and moved up to fifth on the WCC career assists list. Matthews ranks sixth in the NCAA in assists per game entering the WCC Tournament.

Graves Named Coach of the Year: Head coach Kelly Graves was named the West Coast Conference Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons after guiding the Bulldogs to a perfect WCC season at 14-0. Graves earned his first WCC Coach of the Year honor two seasons ago when the Bulldogs moved from eighth place in 2002 to a second place finish in 2003, posting an 18-12 record. This season Graves team has earned its first national ranking finishing the regular-season in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches polls.

Four Zags Earn All-WCC Honors: In addition to Shannon Matthews and Kelly Graves winning individual honors, four Gonzaga players were named to the All-West Coast Conference team. Matthews and senior Ashley Burke earned first-team honors while Anne Bailey and Raeanna Jewell were honorable mention selections. Matthews averaged 11.7 points and 6.6 assists per game to earn her second straight first-team mention. Burke averaged 14.3 points and 5.9 rebounds per game while shooting a team-high 54 percent from the floor. This is Burke’s third first-team selection joining current assistant coach Jennifer Mountain and Ivy Sapiro as the Bulldogs only three time first-team honorees. Bailey and Jewell received their first All-WCC accolades with Bailey averaging 9.6 points per game while Jewell averaged 8.8 points. This is the second time that Gonzaga has had four players selected to the All-WCC team. The first time was in 1989 when Carla Cufman, Jennifer Mountain and Tammy Tibbles earned first-team honors with Kay Koppelman landing on the honorable mention squad.

Head Coach Kelly Graves: Kelly Graves is in his fifth season as the head coach of the Gonzaga University Bulldogs looking to take the team to back-to-back post-season berths for the first time in the Division I history of the program. Graves has compiled a 80-68 record at Gonzaga but has built the Bulldogs into a West Coast Conference title contender with consecutive second place finishes in the league. In 2003 he was named the WCC Coach of the Year after leading the Bulldogs to a seven game turnaround. Last season the Bulldogs lost in the WCC title game and advanced to the Women’s NIT, the first post-season appearance for Gonzaga in ten seasons. Prior to taking over the Bulldogs program Graves built Saint Mary’s College into a WCC power with two post-season appearances. His career record is 146-94 including a 65-47 WCC mark.

Bulldogs Win WNIT Opener: A healthy Shannon Matthews returned to spark the Bulldogs to a 71-57 win over Brigham Young in the opening round of the Sportsview.TV Women’s NIT played in front of 3,603 fans at the McCarthy Athletic Center. Ashley Burke added 15 while Anne Bailey and Stephanie Hawk chipped in with each 10. The Bulldogs were deadly from three-point range hitting 6-of-11 for 54 percent.

Gonzaga Ties WCC & School Wins Record: The Gonzaga women’s program hit another milestone on Wednesday night as the Bulldogs notched their 28th win of the season to match the West Coast Conference and school record. Gonzaga’s 1985 NAIA squad set the bar with 28 wins as they advanced to the District tournament finishing the year with a 28-4 record. The 28 wins also matches Santa Clara’s total from the 1991 season when the Broncos finished 28-3, winning the Women’s NIT during the former 8-team format played in Amarillo, Texas.

Scouting Southwest Missouri State: Gonzaga hits the road for a Monday night game at Southwest Missouri State University out of the Missouri Valley Conference. The Lady Bears were regular-season champions of their league with a 15-3 record and like Gonzaga were left out of the NCAA Tournament after falling in their league tournament on the host school’s floor. The Lady Bears are led by Jenni Linguor with 19.4 points and 6.3 rebounds per game. Linguor again had the hot hand for SMS in the WNIT opener connecting for 23 points on 6-of-13 shooting. This will be the first meeting between the two schools even though Gonzaga fans are familiar with the SMS program after Jackie Stiles guided them through the NCAA Regional in Spokane several years ago. Gonzaga and SMS should also be an interesting mix of styles as the Lady Bears like to live by the 3-point shot and Gonzaga likes to pound the ball in low. Southwest Missouri State averages 88.3 3-pointers per game while shooting 42 percent from long range for the season.
BULLDOG LEADERS: Gonzaga seniors Ashley Burke and Shannon Mathews continued their assault on the West Coast Conference career record books as both players moved up one spot on their respective charts following Wednesday's win over Brigham Young. Shannon Mathews passed out six assists to move her career total to 93 and move past former Santa Clara guard Jennifer Lucas. Mathews will now look to become just the fourth WCC player with more than 600 assists, needing seven more. Burke scored 15 points against BYU to pass former San Francisco guard Brittany Lindhe into 9th place on the WCC career list. Burke remains one of four Gonzaga players to score more than 1,600 career points and one of 11 players to accomplish that feat in WCC history.

BULDOG REACH SECOND STRAIGHT WCC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME: The Bulldogs reached their second straight WCC Championship game but were once again denied the championship as Santa Clara held off a late GU run to win 77-66. Ashley Burke scored 28 points and Gonzaga played a majority of the game without WCC Player of the Year Shannon Mathews. Last season Gonzaga fell in the title game by three points to Loyola Marymount. Gonzaga is still the only WCC team not to reach the NCAA Tournament.

BURKE EARNS ALL-WCC TOURNAMENT HONORS: Senior Ashley Burke did her best to guide the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Tournament bid as she was named to the WCC All-Tournament team. Burke averaged 18.3 points and 6.3 rebounds per game for Gonzaga during their three-game tournament run. Burke shined in the WCC Tournament game scoring a season-high 28 points. Burke was solid from the field shooting 57 percent while hitting 96 percent from the free throw line.

FIRST TITLE SINCE 1988: The Gonzaga Bulldogs clinched their first WCC women's basketball title since winning the league during the 1987-88 season with an 11-3 record. The Bulldogs finished 14-0 in the WCC and set a new school mark for WCC wins in a season. Gonzaga previously hit 11 wins in back-to-back seasons of 1988 and 1989 as the season-high. Gonzaga also became only the second team in West Coast Conference history to run the table and finish 14-0 in league play. Portland was the first team to accomplish the feat in 1997, a team on which Kelly Graves served as an assistant coach.

CONFERENC PEFORMANCE: With the close of the regular-season, Gonzaga was one of only three schools to go undefeated during conference play for the 2005 season. The Bulldogs were 14-0 in the West Coast Conference marking only the second time that a team has gone undefeated in WCC action. Portland was the first with a 14-0 record in 1997. Also going undefeated in league play this season were Louisiana State University with a 13-0 record in the Southeastern Conference and Temple University with a 15-0 record in the Atlantic-10 Conference.

GONZAGA AT HOME: Gonzaga extended its current home winning streak to 14 games with an opening round win over BYU in the Sportsview.TV Women's NIT on Wednesday night. Gonzaga is now 14-0 in the new McCarthey Athletic Center moving their win streak into a tie with the University of New Mexico for the 14th longest home winning streak in NCAA Division I.

NATION'S LONGEST WINNING STREAK ENDS: Gonzaga had the nation's longest winning streak come to an end in the WCC Tournament Championship game against Santa Clara. The Bulldogs had won 23 straight games, falling one short of Portland's WCC record of 24 straight wins. Along the way Gonzaga earned its first national ranking in both major polls climbing to No. 23 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll and No. 24 in the Associated Press poll. Gonzaga remained among the teams still receiving votes in both polls this week.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - MARCH 19, 2005

BURKE TAKES FREE THROW RECORD: Ashley Burke moved into first place on the Bulldogs career free throw list during the WCC Tournament connecting on 24-of-25 free throws. Burke passed former Gonzaga standout Ivy Safranski as she pushed her career total to 385 made free throws.

BURKE AND JEWELL IN SELECT GROUP: Gonzaga seniors Ashley Burke and Raeanna Jewell both joined an exclusive group of players this season as they both scored more than 1,000 points and pulled down more than 600 rebounds. Burke ranks 4th with 1,622 points and 3rd with 691 rebounds. Jewell is 10th with 1,075 points and 6th with 637 rebounds. Also on that list are Jessica Malone (1,703 pts/642 rebs), Carla Curfman (1,333 pts/621 rebs) and Juanita Rivera (1,021 pts/820 rebs).

RIDENOUR GETS INCREASED MINUTES: Sophomore Katy Ridenour was called to increased duty during the WCC Tournament as she played a career-high 31 minutes during the semifinal win over Pepperdine. Ridenour helped control the point position after WCC Player of the Year Shannon Mathews was sidelined with an ankle injury 10-minutes into the game. Ridenour then played 28 minutes in the championship loss to Santa Clara.

KANE STEPS INTO STARTING ROLE: Sophomore Rachel Kane was called into the starting line-up during the WCC Tournament championship game after Shannon Mathews status was a game-time decision. Kane played 12 minutes after making her first start since starting at Weber State during her freshman season. Kane suffered an ACL injury at the start of WCC play and has worked to get back into playing shape most of this season.

BAILEY’S POURS THEM IN AGAIN: Sixth-man sensation Anne Bailey continue to spark the Bulldogs off the bench as the junior forward hit double-digits in two of the Bulldogs three games at the WCC Tournament. After being limited to just 2 points against Portland in the opener, Bailey hit for 21 and 12 in the next two games to end the WCC Tournament with 11.7 points a game. Bailey again responded in the WNIT opener with 10 points against BYU.

FOURTH SENIOR STEPS UP: Gonzaga senior Delphine Lecoutre made herself known as part of the Bulldogs senior class with two solid games at the WCC Tournament. Lecoutre sparked the Bulldogs big run during the opener against Portland as she connected for 14 points on 7-of-13 shooting. Lecoutre followed that up with four early points against Pepperdine as the Bulldogs advanced to the WCC championship game.

GRAVES IN THE WNIT: This year marks the third time Kelly Graves has guided a team into the Women’s NIT. Graves has a 2-2 record in WNIT games with a 1-1 mark with Saint Mary’s College in 2000 and a 1-1 mark with Gonzaga. The Bulldogs as a team are 2-3 all-time in WNIT action with a first-round loss to Oregon State last year and a seventh place finish at the 1994 event held in Amarillo, Texas, prior to Wednesday win over BYU.

Santa Clara: Michelle Cozad, Kayla Huss
Gonzaga basketball has now made at least one 3-pointer in 37 straight games dating back to the 2004 season. During the Bulldogs final home game in the Martin Centre on Feb. 15, 2004, Gonzaga witnessed its consecutive game streak with a 3-pointer made come to an end against the University of San Francisco. That 0-for-6 performance against the Lady Dons ended a 222 game streak in which the Bulldogs had made at least one 3-pointer in a game. The Bulldogs record for 3-pointers made in a game is 14 against UC Riverside on Dec. 31, 2001. Gonzaga has recorded 17 games with 10 or more 3-pointers made since the 3-point basket was incorporated into the college game including a 13 3-pointer effort against Santa Clara this season.

Gonzaga has now blocked at least one shot in 35 consecutive games this season. Gonzaga played their first regular-season game in the new building on Nov. 20, picking up a 87-41 victory over Utah (12) on Dec. 3 and Idaho (11) on Dec. 18. The 12 blocks against Nevada tied a school record for blocks in a game, the previous 12-block night coming against Alaska-Anchorage in 2001 at the Great Alaska Shootout.

Gonzaga set a New West Coast Conference record for attendance at a women’s basketball game when 5,825 fans watched the Bulldogs wrap up their perfect WCC season on Saturday night. Gonzaga finished the season averaging 1,680 fans, a new single-season record for Gonzaga. Gonzaga played in front of more than a 1,000 fans during 7 of its 13 home games this season.

Second Perfect Home Season: In addition to a perfect run in the WCC, Gonzaga has also been perfect at home running their record to 14-0. This is the second time that Gonzaga has gone undefeated at home as a NCAA Division I member. The first perfect home season was in 1994. Gonzaga has turned Spokane into a true home court advantage with a 37-4 (90 pct.) home record over the past three years including a 19-2 (90 pct.) record in WCC contests.

Brains and Basketball: Gonzaga had two players recently earn Academic honors when seniors Shannon Mathews and Ashley Burke were named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic District-VIII team. Mathews was a first-team selection with a 3.40 GPA in journalism while Burke was a second-team member with a 3.26 in sociology and public relations. Mathews will now be eligible for the Academic All-America team released later this week.

Slapping on the ‘D’: Gonzaga has turned the phrase “Defense Wins Championships” into a true statement after the WCC’s top defensive team finished off a memorable WCC regular-season title. Gonzaga leads the WCC in field goal percentage defense allowing opponents to shoot 34.7 percent for the season. That total ranks 7th in the NCAA. Only six times this season has an opponent shot over 40 percent against the Bulldogs with Gonzaga posting a 3-3 record in those contests. The Bulldogs have also limited their opponents scoring totals with a WCC leading scoring defense of 53.6 points per game. That total ranks 14th in the NCAA. Gonzaga has also excelled in rebound margin with a plus 7.6 rebound margin while picking up 4.5 blocks and 8.2 steals per game.

Schramm to Redshirt: Gonzaga freshman post player Sarah Schramm will redshirt the 2004-05 season after suffering a stress fracture in her hand prior to the regular-season. Schramm scored four points during the Bulldogs exhibition win over Lewis-Clark State prior to suffering the injury.

Anderson Out for the Season: Junior forward Ashley Anderson will miss the remainder of the season after an MRI revealed that she suffered a torn ACL in her left knee prior to the Bulldogs Dec. 18 game against the University of Idaho. Anderson was averaging 8.3 points and 5.5 rebounds per game prior to the injury. Last season Anderson was an honorable mention All-WCC selection with 11.4 points and a team-high 6.5 rebounds per game.

New Home for Bulldogs Basketball: Gonzaga basketball has a new home this season as the Bulldogs opened play in the new 6,000 seat McCarthy Athletic Center. The $25 million project was completed in October of 2004 and serves as the home for men’s and women’s basketball. The Bulldogs played their first regular-season game in the new building on Nov. 20, picking up a 87-41 victory over Utah Valley State College. Gonzaga also knocked off Lewis-Clark State College by 60 points in the building during their only exhibition game of the season.

Bulldogs Sign Three New Players: Gonzaga head coach Kelly Graves announced the signing of three new players that will join the Bulldogs team for the 2005-06 season. Signing national letters of intent with the Bulldogs were guard Jami Bjorklund, forward Maria Hassett and forward Simone Santos. Bjorklund is a 5-11 senior out-guard from Spokane’s University High. Hassett is a 6-2 forward at Aloha High School in Beaverton, Ore., where she plays for former Gonzaga standout Ivy Safrański. Santos is a 6-2 junior college sophomore from Brazil that currently plays at Western Nebraska Community College.
