TOURNAMENT NOTES

- Georgetown's NCAA Tournament berth is the sixth under Head Coach Brian Wiese. The Hoyas have been to the tournament on seven previous occasions. In 2015, the Hoyas failed to advance on penalty kicks against Boston College in the Sweet 16, and the year prior Georgetown failed to advance against the eventual national champions, the University of Virginia, in the Elite 8.
- In 2012, the squad was the national runner up, falling to Indiana, 1-0, in the national championship game. Prior to that season, the program had never moved beyond the second round of the tournament with previous appearances in 2010, 1997 and 1994. The Hoyas are 8-4-5 overall in the NCAA Tournament.

BRIAN WIESE

HEAD COACH
12TH SEASON
DARTMOUTH '95

Now in his 12th season on the Hilltop, Georgetown Head Coach Brian Wiese has seen the most success in the program's history. Wiese and the Hoyas have placed the program on the national stage and Georgetown is regarded as one of the top contenders in the country year after year.

In 2015, the Hoyas had an impressive season with a mark of 16-2-3 overall and 9-0-0 in BIG EAST Conference play, winning both the BIG EAST Conference regular season and championship titles. The tournament championship was the first in program history. Georgetown went on a program record 18-game unbeaten streak including a 14-game win streak. With the Blue & Gray failing to advance in penalty kicks in the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, the unbeaten streak continued into 2016.

Individually, Brandon Allen became GU's first-ever MAC Hermann Trophy Finalist. He joined Joshua Yaro as an All-American and five Hoyas were regional All-Americans. In the BIG EAST, JT Marcinkowski was named the Freshman of the Year and Yaro earned Defender of the Year honors. Additionally, eight Hoyas were selected All-BIG EAST and the coaches won Staff of the Year honors for the third time in Wiese's tenure.

Following the season, six players moved on to the MLS with Yaro being selected as the second overall pick and Keegan Rosenberry earning the third overall selection. Cole Seiler was selected in the first round, 16th overall, and Josh Turnley was drafted 42nd overall. Allen and Alex Muyl both signed homegrown contracts for the first time in program history.

Wiese and company broke onto the national stage in 2012, which will be remembered as the most successful in program history. The Hoyas went 19-4-3 with a mark of 6-2-0 in the BIG EAST Conference. The squad was the third overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and the 19 wins were the most in program history. The Hoyas were the BIG EAST Blue Division Champions, the BIG EAST Championship runners-up and advanced to the national championship game in penalty kicks in a thrilling game against the University of Maryland after Georgetown began the season unranked.

With all of the success, the coaching staff was not forgotten as Wiese was named the United Soccer Coaches Division I Coach of the Year and Associate Head Coach Zach Samol earned United Soccer Coaches Northeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

In his tenure at Georgetown, Wiese has coached 17 players who have signed with an MLS squad, one Hermann Trophy finalist, three Hermann Trophy semifinalists, nine All-Americans, 25 regional All-Americans, nine BIG EAST Players of the Year and 36 All-BIG EAST honorees as well as the College Cup Most Outstanding Offensive Player. On the academic side, he has had two Academic All-Americans, one Academic All-Region honoree, two BIG EAST Scholar-Athletes and one Elite89 Award winner.

The team has seen unprecedented success under Wiese with five NCAA Tournament berths in a six-year span. The squad has also won four BIG EAST regular season championships, one BIG EAST Tournament championship and been ranked among the top 25 in eight seasons including stints at No. 1 in the nation.

Wiese earned his first collegiate head coaching job at Georgetown in March 2006 after a successful stint as the associate head coach at the University of Notre Dame. Following his first season, Wiese and his staff brought in one of the biggest recruiting classes in school history as the Hoyas welcomed 11 newcomers to the program.

From 1996-2005, Wiese worked under nationally-recognized coach Bobby Clark for five seasons at Stanford University and then for five more at Notre Dame. In those 10 seasons, the teams posted a combined record of 136-48-25, advanced to nine-straight NCAA Tournaments and made one trip to the championship match. At UND and Stanford, Wiese worked with 11 All-Americans and eight Academic All-America selections as well as four players who were candidates for the MAC Hermann Trophy.

Wiese joined Notre Dame as an assistant in 2001 and was promoted to associate head coach in 2005. During his time with the Irish, he helped guide the team to five NCAA Tournament appearances (reaching the Sweet 16 in 2003 and 2005), to the 2003 BIG EAST Tournament title and the 2004 BIG EAST regular season championship. He was named to CollegeSoccerNews.com's Top Assistant Coaches List in 2001 and was part of the BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year on two occasions (2001 and 2003).

Prior to his stint at Notre Dame, Wiese spent five years (1996-2001) as an assistant coach at Stanford University. The Cardinal posted a 71-21-12 record during that time and made four NCAA Tournament appearances. The team posted a 10-4-4 record in 1996, its first winning season in four years, was ranked second in the country in 1997 when they went 13-5-2 and finished the 1998 season No. 2 in the country after reaching the NCAA title game and finishing 18-5-2. In 2000, Stanford was ranked No. 1 in the country during the season, finished 18-3-1 overall and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. That year, the Cardinal posted a 0.44 goals-against average, the best in the country, and were second in the country with 68 goals scored. During his time at Stanford, Wiese earned a master's degree in product design (mechanical engineering) in 1998.

A 1995 graduate of Dartmouth College in New Hampshire, Wiese earned a Bachelor of Arts in mechanical engineering. A goalkeeper, he was a three-time All-Ivy League selection, two-time Academic All-Ivy League honoree, was named the team's most valuable player in 1993 and captained the team as a senior.

Wiese played professionally briefly for the Bulawayo Highlanders in Zimbabwe. He began his coaching career in 1995, serving as the head coach of the Upper Valley Lightning boys U-15 club team in New Hampshire. Following that, he moved out west, taking over as the head coach of the Del Mar (San Diego) Tsunami girls U-17 club team from 1995-96.

Wiese and his wife Becky have three children Morgan (16), Ted (14) and Maya (12).

HOYA NOTES

• As of senior day, the seniors have amassed 47 wins in their time on the Hilltop including 23 in BIG EAST play. The group has appeared in two NCAA Tournaments advancing to the quarterfinals in 2014 and the third round in 2015. They have been a part of a BIG EAST Regular Season Title as well as the program's first ever BIG EAST Tournament Championship in 2015. Combining for 12 goals and 24 assists, this class will be missed for their contributions and leadership.

• Georgetown has solidified a spot in the BIG EAST Championship with its 0-0 tie with Providence.

• The victory at No. 3 Maryland snapped a 30-game win streak for the Terps that spanned two seasons. It also closed out nonconference play for the Hoyas with a 6-1-1 record.

• With a win at DePaul, the Hoyas snapped their overtime streak as freshman Derek Dodson scored the game winner in the 89th minute to win the game in regulation. It was Dodson with both goals in the game in his home state.

• The victory over Stony Brook marked GU's third-consecutive overtime game. The last time the Hoyas played three-consecutive overtime games was in 2011 when the team went 2-0-2 in that span.

• Georgetown's win over No. 19 Coastal Carolina was the first over a ranked opponent since Creighton during the 2015 season.

• The Hoyas are coming off of a 2-0 victory at American University on Friday. It was the first season-opening win since 2012.

• GU was picked fifth in the BIG EAST Conference Preseason Coaches Poll. Additionally, Marcinkowski was named the BIG EAST Preseason Goalkeeper of the Year and senior midfielder Christopher Lema earned a spot on the Preseason All-BIG EAST squad.

• In July, Georgetown University and Shaw Field have played host to one of the biggest soccer clubs in the world. As a lead up to an International Champions Cup match, the Hoyas hosted Manchester United for a pair of practices and a pre-match press conference. Man U fell to FC Barcelona in the International Champions Cup at FedEx Field. It was preseason for the Premiere League giants.

• Marcinkowski has been a member of the U.S. National Team Pool since 2010. He has earned 26 caps for the U-14 through U-20 national teams with 13 shutouts to his credit. This past spring, Marcinkowski took the semester off to train exclusively with the U.S. U-20 Men's National Team. He played and trained in Costa Rica with the squad, and was on the U.S. roster for the 2017 FIFA U-20 World Cup in Korea Republic.
