Series 5-3

- This marks Georgetown's second-consecutive postseason berth after falling in a heartbreaker at Rutgers, 57-55, in the first round of last year's WNIT. It is also the second-straight postseason berth for Head Coach Natasha Adair in just her third season on the Hilltop. Prior to last season, GU advanced to the quarterfinals of the WNIT in 2009. Overall, this is the seventh appearance in the WNIT for the Blue & Gray and the program is 4-6 all-time in the tournament.

- The Hoyas went 17-12 on the season with an impressive mark of 8-3 in nonconference play closing out the portion of the year with a seven-game win streak and a perfect 3-0 record at home. Following the nonconference schedule, the Hoyas sat at No. 3 in the first RPI of the season. In league play, Georgetown went 9-9 overall with a 5-4 record at home and a pair of overtime victories.

- The Blue & Gray faced third-seeded Marquette in the BIG EAST Tournament quarterfinals after earning a first-round bye. The Hoyas fell, 80-66, to the eventual BIG EAST Tournament champions.

- Sophomore guard Dionna White leads the team in scoring with 15.2 ppg which ranks her fourth in the conference. She also has 5.0 rpg and is ranked second on the squad in assists with 7.8 on the season. White has 93 steals on the year to lead the BIG EAST and rank 14th in the nation. Her 3.3 steals per game leads the league and is eighth in the country. She was a Second Team All-BIG EAST honoree.

- Woodard hit her 1,000th point in the loss to DePaul and has already hit 500-career rebounds this season against Penn State. Against Villanova, she hit 100 blocks. By meeting all three milestones, she is just the fourth Hoya in program history to accomplish the trifecta.

- Adomako hit her 1,000th point at Providence. She hit 500 rebounds in the victory at Butler. The last time two Hoyas hit 1,000 in one season was 2010-11 with Sugar Rodgers and Monica McNutt.

- The Hoyas have played in three overtime games this season going 2-1.

Hoyas in the Polls

12/26/16 RV/NR

AP/USA Today

- With the win over Butler, the Hoyas clinched a first-round bye in the tournament.
- Following GU's seven-game road trip, the Hoyas had two home games before breaking for finals and the holidays. Georgetown had 16 days in between nonconference and conference play.
- Georgetown's 8-2 nonconference record is its best non-league mark since 2011-12 when the Hoyas opened the year 11-2 leading up to BIG EAST play. GU's seven-game win streak was also its finest since 2011-12.
- Virginia Tech marked the beginning of a seven-game road swing for the Blue & Gray. The Hoyas played in six different locations over 24 days. GU had just three home nonconference contests this season.
- Mykia Jones had a breakout game at Towson. The senior transfer scored 15 points with two rebounds, two assists and two steals also going 3-of-4 from beyond the arc. She singlehandedly kept GU in the game during a big Towson run in the first half.
- GU Head Coach Natasha Adair saw a familiar face on the opposing sideline at Towson. Head Coach Niki Reid Geckeler was an assistant on the Hilltop for 10 years. Adair and Reid Geckeler were on the same staff for four seasons under former Head Coach Pat Knapp.
- With nine rebounds against Penn State, Faith Woodard surpassed the 500 board mark. She is one of just 24 women in program history to do so.
- The pair of Faith Woodard and Dorothy Adomako have been impressive this season with the two of them both posting double-doubles against George Washington and at Minnesota.
- The Hoyas competed at the San Juan Shootout over Thanksgiving. However, due to concerns with Zika, the tournament has been moved to Daytona Beach, Fla., and the games are now on Thursday and Friday.

HEAD COACH NATASHA ADAIR

NATASHA ADAIR HEAD COACH THIRD SEASON | 72-84 (FOUR SEASONS)

Natasha Adair enters her third season as the Georgetown University head women's basketball coach. When Director of Athletics Lee Reed introduced her on April 14, 2014, Adair became the ninth women's basketball head coach in the history of the program.

Last year, the Hoyas returned to the postseason for the first time since 2011-12. Georgetown went 16-14 overall marking a huge improvement from the previous year and the third-best turnaround in the nation. The squad was 9-9 in BIG EAST Conference play earning the fifth seed in the conference tournament. The team's record and RPI gave GU a berth in the WNIT where the Blue & Gray lost a heartbreaker to Rutgers University at the buzzer.

Dorothy Adomako and Dionna White were both named Second Team All-BIG EAST, and White was also selected to the All-Freshman Team. Seven players were named to the BIG EAST All-Academic squad marking the most honorees in the past 10 years.

During the summer, Adair was a featured speaker at a USA Basketball Coaching Clinic in New York City.

In Adair's first season on the Hilltop, Adomako was named the BIG EAST Freshman of the Year, honorable mention All-BIG EAST and was a unanimous selection to the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team. In May, Adair was presented with the "Standard of Living" 2015 Community Award as the team did an unprecedented amount of community service in her first year.

She came to the Hilltop from the College of Charleston where she was at the helm for two seasons. However, Adair is no stranger to the Georgetown program after serving as an assistant coach for six seasons (1998-2004).

During the 2013-14 season, in College of Charleston's first season in the Colonial Athletic Association, Adair led the team to a record of 19-15, marking the third-highest win total in the school's Division I era. Additionally, the squad finished third in conference play, defeated five postseason teams from the previous year and advanced to the semifinals of both the CAA Championship and the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI).

In her first season at the College, Adair guided the Cougars to 16 wins. The squad also earned a spot in the WBI postseason tournament. She is the first coach to lead teams to back-to-back postseason berths in program history. Prior to College of Charleston, Adair spent 14 seasons in the assistant coaching ranks.

The Silver Spring, Md., native spent eight years as an assistant to Women's Basketball Head Coach Mike Petersen at Wake Forest University. She was promoted to associate head coach in 2007 and helped guide the Demon Deacons to four postseason tournament appearances, including the program's second 20-win campaign (20-14) and a run to the NIT Second Round during the 2011-12 season.

As the recruiting coordinator and post coach for the Deacons, Adair successfully recruited a number of top-ranked players in the country and was part of the winningest women's basketball staff in Wake Forest history, coaching a senior class that posted 72 wins from 2009-12.

Prior to Wake Forest, she served as an assistant coach for six years at Georgetown. Similar to her position with the Deacons, Adair was primarily responsible for the post players. She was instrumental in the development of All-American, WNBA All-Star and three-time WNBA champion Rebekkah Brunson, who was selected with the 10th overall pick in the 2004 WNBA Draft by the Sacramento Monarchs.

Adair has developed and mentored 12 players who went on to play at the professional level.

Adair played two seasons at Pensacola Junior College before transferring to the University of South Florida under Head Coach Trudi Lacey, former general manager and head coach of the WNBA's Washington Mystics. She led the squad in rebounding during the 1993-94 season with 238 (8.8 rpg) and graduated with a degree in communications in 1994.

A former high school All-American and a top recruit in the country with interest from UConn, Syracuse, Georgetown and USF in 1989-90, Adair (nee Barnes) was inducted into the Albert Einstein High School Hall of Fame in November 2011.

She has two children, son Aaron Michael (19) and daughter Allyssa Michelle (11).

- With Olivia Ramil joining the team, the Hoyas now have a pair of sisters on the roster as she joins older sibling Jodi-Marie. There are 18 teams in Division I with a set of sisters on the roster, and there are just seven teams in Division I with a pair of non-twin sisters on the squad.

- GW marked the start of Head Coach Natasha Adair's third season. Adair returned to the Hilltop after serving as an assistant with the Hoyas for six seasons. She has a talented staff including former players Melba Chambers (C'99) and Sarah Jenkins (C'05) as well as Associate Head Coach James Howard who was an assistant for one season on the Hilltop.

- Junior guard Dorothy Adomako and sophomore guard Dionna White earned unanimous BIG EAST Conference Preseason honors at the league's annual women's basketball media day held at Madison Square Garden in New York City. Additionally, the Hoyas were picked to finish fifth in the BIG EAST Preseason Coaches' Poll receiving 51 points.

- Cynthia Petke transferred to Georgetown from Chipola College. She attended Gopal Bilingual International College in Cameroon before coming to the United States. Petke spent one season at Hutchinson Community College and one season most recently at Chipola College. Last year, she led Chipola in scoring averaging 14.4 ppg and rebounding with 11.0 rpg.

- Mikayla Venson transferred to Georgetown from Virginia. She will have to sit out a year before competing due to NCAA rules. Venson averaged 15.1 points per game to lead the Cavaliers as a sophomore, and led the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) in free throw percentage, shooting 87.4 percent from the charity stripe. She set the program's season 3-point record with 70, and finished her career at ninth on the all-time 3-point scoring list with 131 to her credit to tie Dawn Staley.

- GU added walk-on Marvellous Osagie-Erese to the roster in the midst of preseason. Osagie-Erese was a four-year letterwinner and one-year starter in high school. Her team won the Super Essex Conference Championship as a junior and senior. The squad won the North Jersey Section 2 Group 4 Title twice and was the Team of the Year in 2015-16. Individually, she scored more than 1,000 points in her career and was named First Team in the American Division as a senior. Off the court, Osagie-Erese was the class valedictorian and a member of the National Honor Society and Environmental Club. Her sister, Angel, is a manager with the Hoya women's squad and a sophomore at Georgetown.

- Mykia Jones is now eligible after transferring to the Hilltop from Wake Forest University. Jones appeared in all 33 games for the Demon Deacons with 10 starts to her credit last season. The guard averaged 4.9 ppg and 1.7 rpg as well as 1.2 apg. Jones was 27-of-84 from beyond the arc shooting 32.1 percent for the season. She had a career-high 16 points in a win over Tennessee Tech and managed 13 points going 3-of-4 from beyond the arc against Missouri.

- Junior Tyshell King is a member of the Starfish Foundation. The goal of the Starfish Foundation is to get scholars to, and through, college. The organization provides financial assistance, mentoring and wrap-around support to help the scholars achieve their full potential. It was founded by Soledad O'Brien and her husband. O'Brien plays an important role in King's life along with her local mentor. King has interned with her for the past two summers.

- Ki-Ke Rafiu is the new graduate assistant after serving as a player/coach last season. She made the decision to retire in 2014-15, and played an important role on the bench and in the locker room. Off of the court, Rafiu collects sporting goods to bring back to her native Nigeria where she holds clinics for young girls on basketball and also on the importance of getting an education.

- Outside of class, boot camps and individual workouts, the team has been getting out into the local community to truly live Georgetown's motto of "Cura Personalis," which is Latin for "care for the whole person". On September 10, the team served as guides at the 10th Annual Stomp Out Sickle Cell Walk (SOS) on the National Mall. The team volunteered at So Others Might Eat (SOME) on O Street in Northwest D.C. SOME is an interfaith, community-based organization that exists to help some of the 8,350 homeless men, women and children in our nation's capital. Finally, the squad worked at the National Capital Walk to End Alzheimer's.

- The inaugural BIG EAST Women's Basketball Transition Game program was held this fall in Midtown Manhattan. Juniors Dorothy Adomako and Cynthia Petke were chosen as the two Hoyas to represent Georgetown at the event. Student-athletes from across the conference's 10 member schools enjoyed an interactive educational and professional development weekend, which included Q&A sessions with such industry leaders as Doris Burke, the New York Liberty's Katie Smith and Teresa Weatherspoon and etiquette and branding specialist DeNita Turner.

John R. Thompson Jr. Athletic Center

Georgetown University officially dedicated the John R. Thompson Jr. Intercollegiate Athletic Center during ceremonies on the Hilltop on Thursday, October 6. The facility was named for the Hall of Fame men's basketball coach who led the Hoyas to the 1984 NCAA Championship and 596 wins in 27 years on the sidelines.

Construction of the John R. Thompson Jr. Intercollegiate Athletic Center began in October 2014. The two-year project included bulk excavation, underground utilities and foundations preparation, as well as street reconfiguration. Construction was substantially complete on August 13, 2016.

The Thompson Center transformed the athletics experience at Georgetown with a facility that now supports the demands our student-athletes face on a daily basis. It was built adjacent to McDonough Arena and, with roughly 144,000 square feet of newly-constructed space, will house:

- New practice courts, locker rooms, team meeting rooms, lounge areas and coaches' offices for men's and women's basketball.
- Sports performance/weight training facility and sports medicine/training room areas for all varsity student-athletes.
- A student-athlete academic center, auditorium and team meeting facilities for all varsity sports programs.
- Team-dedicated locker rooms for men's & women's basketball, men's & women's soccer and men's & women's lacrosse.
- A new equipment room -- more than 4,000 square feet -- that will service all 29 intercollegiate sports and more than 750 student-athletes.
- Hoyas Forever Hallway to honor the University's rich athletic tradition and history.
- A courtyard for student-athletes that has a comfortable meditation area with a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
