Coaching Staff

Tiffany Marsh
Head Coach
Georgetown University

Tiffany Marsh enters her sixth season as the head coach of the Georgetown University field hockey team after serving as the interim head coach for the 2007 season. Marsh joined the Hoyas after serving as an assistant at American University for one year, guiding the Eagles to a 14-7 record and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Prior to her stint at AU, Marsh graduated from the University of Maryland, where she helped the Terrapins to their fourth national title in program history in her senior campaign. As a senior forward with the Terps, Marsh earned her third-consecutive second team All-Region award after racking up 39 points on 12 goals and 15 assists. She was also named to the 2005 NCAA All-Tournament Team. In her four years with the Terrapins, Marsh accumulated 102 points while playing in 93 games. In her senior season she started all 25 games for Maryland, surpassing her 100th point on an assist during the Terps regular season game against American at Jacobs Recreational Complex. The Marathon, N.Y. native, graduated in May 2006 with a degree in business and criminal justice. Marsh currently resides in Bethesda, Md.

Kathryn Masson
Assistant Coach
Georgetown University

Kathryn Masson, will enter her third season at Georgetown, joining the Hoyas for the Fall 2010 campaign. Masson comes to the Hilltop from the University of Maryland, where she served as a volunteer coach during the 2009-2010 campaign after shining on the Terrapins Field Hockey team from 2004-2007 as a goalkeeper. Masson, a Richmond, British Columbia native and University of Maryland graduate, will work primarily with the Hoya's defensive and goalkeeping units. Prior to Georgetown, Masson was a volunteer assistant at Maryland, a position she held for the Fall 2009 and Spring 2010 campaign. As a volunteer coach, Masson served as a goalkeeping and defensive specialist. She assisted the Terps in finishing with a 23-1 overall record which featured an ACC Championship and an appearance in the NCAA Championship final.
