DOMINIQUE SACHSE

A graduate of the University of Houston School of Communications, Dominique Sachse has built a successful broadcast career and received awards from the Associated Press and the Houston Press Club for her spot news reporting. She has been featured in many newspapers and magazines articles and anchors the 5 and 10 p.m. news on Channel 2 in Houston.

As an active alumna, she has sat on the board of both the Alumni Organization and the Communications Alumni Association. In 2002, she was named a Distinguished Alumni from the University.

In addition, she is actively involved in fund-raising events for the University, and in particular, events that support opportunities for student-athletes.
