

Top Reasons To Have Season Tickets

Exciting College Football – Your Houston Cougars have the fourth longest home winning streak in the nation and tied for longest in school history! Along with winning streak, your Cougars:

1. Return nine starters on offense, including Heisman Trophy candidate Case Keenum
2. Led the NCAA in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense in 2009
3. Are the first school in NCAA history to return a 5,000 passer and three 1,000 yard receivers the following year

Heisman Trophy Candidate Case Keenum - Led the nation in total offense and enters 2010 with chance to become the NCAA all-time leader in passing yards. Keenum is the back-to-back Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Total Offense statistical champion.

Aggressive Cougar Defense - Led by new Defensive Coordinator Brian Stewart, the Cougars promise to be an aggressive attacking defense this season. On the field, the Cougars will be led by linebacker Marcus McGraw, who was fifth in tackles per game in the FBS in 2009.

Catch Carrier if You Can! - Tyron Carrier is back as one of the most dynamic kickoff return specialists in college football! Carrier was ninth in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in yards per return and ran back four kickoffs for touchdowns in 2009!

Excellent Football Seating – As you know, there is not a bad seat in Robertson Stadium. There are many different options to purchase season tickets, depending on each individual's needs.

Tailgating and Family Fun - Houston fans have created a fun and welcoming tailgating and pregame environment. Whether fans go to the Family Fun Zone, the Pavilions or tailgate with friends at their vehicle, Robertson Stadium has become much more than a place to watch a Cougars' victory!

