TRANSPORTATION ADVISORY – ESPN College GameDay

Houston, November 14, 2011 – In anticipation of ESPN's College GameDay broadcast from the University of Houston campus, Parking and Transportation Services is issuing a transportation advisory for the area around, and including, the E. Cullen Circle.

ESPN trucks and crew will arrive on campus Wednesday evening, November 16, to begin set-up preparations. This work will continue through Friday. Faculty, staff and students traveling in/around the E. Cullen circle should be cautious of increased pedestrian traffic and stage equipment.

On Saturday, November 19, University Drive will be closed at entrance 4 from 12:00am – 12:00pm. Lots 1C and 1D will be closed and unavailable for parking. During this time there will be no vehicle access to the UC Circle, MD Anderson Library and Hilton Hotel Circle. University Drive, including lots 1C and 1D, will reopen at noon on Saturday.

A large crowd is expected beginning early Saturday morning and lasting throughout the afternoon. Anyone traveling to campus should anticipate possible traffic delays, increased pedestrian traffic and limited parking availability. The game against SMU begins at 2:30pm. For additional game day parking information, visit www.uhcougars.com.

For additional information on transportation and parking options during this event, please contact the Parking and Transportation Customer Service Center at 713-743-1097, or parking@uh.edu.
