ARLENE BROWN

#13 • CHANDI JONES

2004 KODAK ALL-AMERICAN • C-USA PLAYER OF THE DECADE
2000-04 • Bay City, Texas

Chandi Jones, who closed out her collegiate career in 2004, is heralded as one of the best basketball players ever, male or female, to attend the University of Houston.

The 5-10 guard from Bay City, Texas, led the Cougars onto the national stage during her four-year career.

She was named Conference USA's Female Athlete of the Decade in 2005, and was also named the league's basketball player of the decade and earned a slot on the C-USA All-Decade Team.

She was a 2004 Kodak All-American, the first in school history, as well as a three-time C-USA Player of the Year (2002, 2003, 2004). She earned First-Team All C-USA honors in each of her four seasons and is UH and C-USA's all-time leading scorer with 2,692 points. That mark ranks her 15th on the NCAA career scoring list.

She became C-USA's all-time scoring leader on Feb. 15, 2004, while leading Houston to a 73-65 victory at East Carolina. She finished the game with 21 points to surpass the previous record held by Tamika Whitmore, who bucketed 2,488 points in 120 games for the Memphis Tigers from 1996-99.

Jones ranks third all-time in UH basketball scoring history, behind only Elvin Hayes (2,884 points) and Otis Birdsong (2,832 points).

She won the national scoring title in 2003, averaging 27.5 points per game. Her career average of 23.6 points per game is a C-USA record.

Jones reached double figures in an NCAA-record 114-straight games, scoring in double digits in every game she played for UH. The previous record for double-digit scoring games was 92, set by former NCAA Player of the Year Jackie Stiles of Missouri State.

She reached the 2,000-point plateau in just 84 games, the third-fastest player in NCAA history to do so. Only Lynette Woods of Kansas (70) and Stiles (83) did it faster.

Jones tore her ACL with nine games remaining in the 2001 season, but still was the nation and C-USA's leading freshman scorer, averaging 21.5 points per game.

Following her return to form in 2002, Jones was named National Comeback Player of the Year by the Women's Basketball News Service.

Jones led UH to a nearly 70-percent winning percentage, as Houston was 88-38 (.698) during her career. She led UH to the 2004 C-USA Regular Season and Tournament Titles, both firsts for the Cougars. She earned MVP honors at the 2004 C-USA Championship.

Her jersey was retired on Feb. 5, 2005, the first such honor for a UH women's player. Jones' number 13 hangs in the rafters of Hofheinz Pavilion along with some of the great names in college basketball history including: Hayes, Birdsong, Clyde Drexler, Hakeem Olajuwon and former UH coach Guy V. Lewis.

At the close of her career, she became the first UH women's player to be selected in the first round of the 2004 WNBA draft. Jones was chosen eighth overall by the Phoenix Mercury and later traded to the Detroit Shock. Jones is currently playing overseas after playing for the Minnesota Lynx for the past two seasons.
