Cougars Prep For C-USA Championship In Tulsa ...

- The University of Houston women's basketball team will play the Marshall Thundering Herd at 1 p.m. CST Thursday, in the opening game of the 2007 Conference USA Women's Basketball Championship, presented by Aeropostale, at the Reynolds Center in Tulsa.
- The Cougars (8-18), who earned the No. 9 seed face No. 8 Marshall (15-14) for the second time this season. The Herd knocked off UH 57-41 on Dec. 2, 2006 in Huntington, W.Va. Tye Jackson, C-USA's leading scorer (21.8 ppg), did not play in that game due to injury.
- Marshall leads the all-time series two games to none. Thursday will mark the first neutral site meeting of the two schools.
- This is UH's lowest seed in the C-USA Championship since 2003. That season, Houston entered as the No. 10 seed and lost to No. 7 Southern Miss in the first round, 71-69. The Cougars are 7-9 all time in C-USA Championship games with one Championship title, earned in 2004.
- The top four seeds, Tulane, UAB, East Carolina and Rice, earned first-round byes and begin play in the quarterfinal round, which begins at 1 p.m. Friday, March 2. Following the Cougars' game on Thursday, No. 5 UTEP takes on No. 12 Memphis at 3:30, No. 7 Southern Miss and No. 10 Tulsa face off at 6 p.m. and No. 6 SMU and No. 11 UCF face off in the night cap at 8:30 p.m.
- All first and second round games will be video streamed live on the internet at www.ConferenceUSA.com. Fans can also click the women's basketball championship logo on UHCougars.com to visit the Championship Central page.
- Houston will suit up seven players for the rest of the season after losing Maya Onikute to academics.
- The Cougars probable starting five is: Alona Obaze (5-5/G), Tye Jackson (5-10/G), Whitney James (5-10/F), Sunshine Misa-Uli (5-11/F) and Sha'Quaylon McKinney (6-3/C).
- Jackson (21.8 ppg) is C-USA's leading scorer and ranks seventh nationally. She earned First-Team All C-USA honors Tuesday for the second-straight year.
- James has stepped up her play in the last five games, averaging 9.4 ppg and 7.0 rpg. Obaze has averaged 11.4 ppg in UH's last five.
- Sunshine Misa-Uli has also had a strong showing over the past five games, averaging 8.6 ppg and 8.8 rpg.
- The Cougars have advanced to at least the quarterfinal round in five of the last six tournaments. The No. 9 seed is UH's lowest since 2003, when Houston earned the No. 10 seed entering Championship play.
- Marshall will counter with KaShawna Curry (6-1/F), Alix Barnette (5-8/G), Meagan Samis (6-0/F), Jill Justice (5-10/G) and Modupe Ishola (6-2/C).
- Ishola had 23 points and 14 rebounds in the last meeting on Dec. 2.

Streaks, Storylines & Sidebars ...

- With UH's 91-86 overtime win over Rice (Jan. 2), UH head coach Joe Curl earned career win number 275. He ranks fourth among active C-USA coaches with his win total.

- UH's win over SMU on Jan. 27 was win number 140 for Curl with the Cougars. He is now 35 victories shy of Jessie Kenlaw's all-time coaching mark of 175 wins at Houston. Kenlaw was 175-104 (.627) in nine seasons from 1976-85.

- The Cougars will finish the season winless on the road for just the second time in program history. UH is 0-13 in road games this season with its only win away from the Bayou City coming in a neutral site-double overtime win over Prairie View A&M at the Women of Troy Classic in Los Angeles on Dec. 15.

- The Cougars were last held winless on the road during the 1998-99 season, going 0-12 in games away from Houston.

- Houston turned the ball over a season-low eight times against Rice (Jan. 2). It was the 12th time in school history the Cougars have had single digit turnovers. The school record of five turnovers was set against Rice on Feb. 3, 2006.

- Tye Jackson, named to the Naismith Trophy watch list earlier this season, returned to game action on Dec. 6, just 20 days after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery. In 11 games, she has averaged 21.2 ppg and 7.5 rpg.

- As a team, UH has shown the most improvement on the rebounding glass. Despite being outscored 1,882-1,655 by its opponents, UH sits at +2.2 on the rebounding margin chart, averaging 44.3 rebounds per game. Last season, UH was outrebounded 1,324-1,103 and finished -7.6 on the margin.

- UH has outrebounded its opponents on the offensive boards in 14 of 19 games this year. The Cougars hold a 490-388 offensive rebounding edge this year and are leading C-USA, pulling down 18.9 offensive rebounds per game.

Jackson A First Teamer Again ...

- Junior guard Tye Jackson was named first team All Conference USA Tuesday, earning a spot in the league's top five for the second-straight year.

- Joining Jackson on the first team was Lauren Neaves (Rice), Jillian Robbins (Tulsa), Carmen Guzman (UAB) and Jami Montagnino (Tulane)

- Jackson (21.8 ppg) is C-USA's leading scorer and ranks seventh nationally. She is the only player in C-USA to rank among the top-15 in scoring (21.8/1st), rebounding (6.8/12th), assists (4.15/6th) and steals (2.1/9th).

- She has scored 10 or more points in each of her 20 starts with 14 20-plus point games, two games with 30 or more points and seven double-doubles. Her season-best of 31 came against East Carolina (Jan. 10).

- She also ranks 100th nationally in assists per game (4.2) and 36th in three-point field goals per game (2.4).

- She missed the season's first six games due to knee surgery.

Cougars Set C-USA Rebounding Marks ...

- Against SMU on Jan. 27, UH set a pair of C-USA offensive rebounding records.

- The Cougars tied their own previous all-games record for most total rebounds (68) and set the mark for most offensive boards (36) in a game.

- Louisville held the old C-USA games only offensive record with 33 against Cincinnati on Feb. 16, 2003.

- The 68 rebounds is the fourth-best total in school history, nine off the UH record of 77 boards, set on Feb. 24, 1977.

- The Hofheinz Pavilion rebound record 70 rebounds was set on Nov. 16, 1979 against North Texas.

Double-Double City ...

- Against SMU on Jan. 27, the Cougars achieved a feat that may not have ever been done before.

• Four players, Whitney James (17/14), Tye Jackson (21/10), Sha'Quaylon McKinney (18/16) and Sunshine Misa-Uli (14/12) each finished the 81-65 win with double digits in points and rebounds.

• It was the first time in school history and the first time in league history that a team had four players in one game with a double-double.

• Research on this 'record' is ongoing, but it appears that the Cougars are the first women's team in NCAA Division I history to have four players finish with double-doubles.

Twenty-Two Minute Shaq Attack ...

• Sha'Quaylon McKinney put together a career night in 22 minutes of UH's 81-65 win over SMU on Jan. 27.

• McKinney finished with a career-best 18 points and 16 rebounds, her first career double-double.

• She finished the evening with a 10-13 effort from the charity stripe and nine of her 16 rebounds on the offensive glass.

Previously Against Marshall ...

Marshall 57, Houston 41

Dec. 2, 2006 • Cam Henderson Center • Huntington, W.Va.

• Despite 16 points from Sha'Ratta Hawkins, the University of Houston women's basketball team dropped its Conference USA opener, 57-41, to Marshall at the Cam Henderson Center.

• Houston (0-6, 0-1 C-USA) played well in spurts, but could not overcome a strong inside game from the Thundering Herd (6-2, 1-0 C-USA). Marshall dominated the paint, 34-20, paced by a career-high 23 points for center Modupe Ishola. Ishola also added a game-high 14 rebounds. The Herd also converted Houston's 18 turnovers into 21 points.

• The Cougars struggled to shoot it all game long. Houston finished with a 29-percent clip (18-for-62) and was just 2-for-14 (.143) from behind the arc. UH had six field goals in the first eight minutes of the second half, equaling its output from the opening 20 minutes. The Cougars also struggled to get to the free throw line taking just six attempts to Marshall's 25.

• Trailing 23-14 at halftime, UH traded buckets with Marshall over the first 10 minutes of the second half with the Herd holding a 34-26 advantage with 11:42 remaining.

• Hawkins bookended a 9-0 run with a jumper and a three over 2:35 that pulled UH within one at 36-35 with 8:07 remaining. Following a Marshall timeout, the Herd ran off a 12-2 run of their own, putting the game out of reach for UH at 48-37 with 3:41 left. The Cougars had just two field goals in the last eight minutes of the game, going 2-for-13 with five turnovers.

• Hawkins, the only UH player to score in double figures, finished the night with 16 on a 7-for-16 shooting night. She added seven rebounds and two steals, but struggled with nine turnovers. Ryan Meyers finished with 11 rebounds while Maya Onikute chipped in a career-best 10 rebounds.

• Both teams started the game off cold, mustering just two baskets apiece in the first five minutes. With the scored tied at six with 13:16 left, Marshall went on a 12-3 run to lead 18-9 with 3:04 left in the opening stanza. Houston suffered a 7:30 scoring drought, turned the ball over 10 times and was 6-for-30 (.200) from the field in the first half and 1-for-9 from behind the arc.

Kind Overtimes ...

• UH is 2-0 in overtime games this season, knocking off Prairie View A&M on Dec. 15 and beating arch-rival Rice on Jan. 2.

• Prior to the 96-90 double-overtime win over Prairie View, UH had not played an overtime game since March 4, 2005, a 76-73 OT win over Charlotte in C-USA Championship play.

• UH knocked off Rice 91-86 in extra time on Jan. 2.

• The Cougars have outscored their opponents 34-23 in extra time this season.

• The last double OT game was on Feb. 8, 2004, an 83-78

3OT win over Tulane.

• UH is 21-14 all-time in overtime games. The Cougars have played three overtime games in a season four times.

Avoiding The Big Run ...

• In UH's 18 losses this season, a common theme has emerged, the opponents big run.

• Some have been small, like Texas Tech's 10-0 jaunt in the last five minutes of the game.

• Others have not been so kind, such as Duke's 35-9 first-half run.

• Listed below are the opponent runs in UH's 18 losses.

Opp.	Run	Duration (Half)	Final Score
Texas Tech	10-0	5:05 (2nd)	69-51
@ Duke	35-9	15:43 (1st)	81-35

The Youngsters Are Running Amuck ...

• With medical issues sidelining Becky Gibson and Ryan Meyers and three players missing due to academics, UH is left with just two active players who had NCAA Division I playing experience entering the season.

• Tye Jackson (21.2 ppg/7.5 rpg) and Sha'Quaylon McKinney (3.8 ppg/3.7 rpg) both suited up for the Cougars last season.

• Three players (Whitney James, Sunshine Misa-Uli, Alona Obaze) came from junior college while two (Ryan Bradley, Ashlee Joseph) made the jump from high school.

• Senior Twiggy McIntyre played in 93 career games while at Kansas State but must sit out this season due to NCAA transfer regulations.

THE BOOK ON COACH CURL

• Under Coach Curl, the Cougars have posted a combined 120-63 (.655) record over the past five-plus seasons.

• During that span, UH has made back-to-back WNIT appearances (2001, 2002), including a battle against Oregon for the 2002 Championship, and two consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances (2004, 2005).

• Named coach of the year by the Associated Press, Basketball Times, USBWA, ESPN.com and C-USA following UH's record-setting 28-4 campaign in 2003-04.

• That year, UH won the C-USA regular season and tournament crowns, earning the Cougars a No. 3 seed in the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

• Former standout Chandi Jones (2000-04) was named the C-USA Female Athlete of the Decade.

• Jones is one of only five UH basketball players, male or female (Otis Birdsong, Clyde Drexler, Elvin Hayes, Hakeem Olajuwon) to have their jersey retired.

• Prior to joining Houston, Curl spent time as a head coach at Trinity Valley CC (1990-93), Stephen F. Austin (1993-94) and Blinn College (1994-98).

• In 1994, Curl led SFA to a Southland Conference title and NCAA Tournament slot, earning Southland Coach of the Year honors.

• Curl and his wife Lesa have two daughters, Angela and Jennifer, both of whom played for the Cougars.

Game 1

Texas Tech 69, Houston 51
Nov. 14, 2006 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - Freshman Ryan Bradley had a career-high 18 points on an 8-for-8 shooting night, but it was not enough as the University of Houston women's basketball team opened the 2006-07 season with a 69-51 loss to Texas Tech, Tuesday on Guy V. Lewis Court at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Bradley, playing in her first collegiate game, made all eight of her shot attempts, including two triples, to lead all players in scoring. She tied the school record for field goal percentage in a game and is only the second player in school history to achieve that milestone. Sonya Watkins was 13-for-13 in a game against SMU on March 5, 1985.

The Cougars (0-1) had a short bench with only seven players available for the game. The Lady Raiders (2-0) did its best to exploit the tired legs, converting 19 points off of 20 Houston turnovers and dominating in the paint, 22-8. It was Tech's 16th-straight win over Houston, dating back to 1990.

Behind the strong rebounding effort of Ryan Meyers, UH out-rebounded Tech by a 41-39 margin, including a 12-8 advantage on the offensive glass. Meyers grabbed a game-high 16 boards, 13 on the defensive end.

Maya Onikute also found double figures, knocking in 15 points, pulling down seven rebounds and dishing out five assists.

On the heels of a 12-point halftime cushion, Tech opened the second stanza with a 10-2 run to lead 47-32 with 14:16 left in the game. UH did its best to chip away at the lead, and pulled off an 8-2 run over four minutes to trail by eight, 55-47, with 6:48 remaining.

The teams traded buckets over the next several minutes and the margin was again eight at 59-51 with 5:01 left. That was as close as UH would get for the rest of the night as UH missed its final seven shots of the evening and the Lady Raiders closed out the game on a 10-0 run, cruising to the 18-point win.

Tech led 34-26 at the break, shooting nearly 60 percent (5-for-9/.556) from behind the three-point line. Houston struggled from the field, shooting just 37.5 percent (12-for-32). Baughman and Murphree each tallied eight points in the opening 20 minutes. Bradley led all players with 11 in the half.

The Lady Raiders opened on a 10-2 run in the first three minutes but Houston pulled it back within six, 11-5, at the 16:15 mark, but a 10-2 run by the visitors increased the margin to 14, 21-7, with 12:43 remaining.

Tech was led by Alesha Robertson who finished with 13 points and 13 boards. Three other players found double figures as Brooke Baughman had 17, Jordan Murphree had 15 and Erin Myrick closed the night out with 10. Baughman was 5-for-6 from behind the arc, equalling Houston's output from distance for the entire game.

Game 2

No. 6/5 Duke 81, Houston 35
Nov. 19, 2006 • Cameron Indoor Stadium • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. - Alison Bales and Bridgette Mitchell scored 16 points apiece Sunday to lead No. 5 Duke to an 81-35 win over Houston.

The 46-point loss was Houston's worst defeat since a 95-49 loss to Tulane on Feb. 5, 1997.

The Cougars' 35 points ties the lowest single-game output in the program's 36-year history and only the third time the school has failed to score 40 or more points in a game. The previous occurred in a 98-37 loss to Baylor during the 1975-75 campaign and a 62-35 loss at Middle Tennessee State last year.

Houston missed its first four shots, not getting on the board until the 17:24 mark of the first half with the score 7-2. After a Ryan Bradley jumper at the 13:01 mark cut the deficit to seven, UH would not score again for over seven minutes.

During that span, the Blue Devils went on a 13-0 run, making the margin 20, 26-6, with 6:11 left. Houston was 0-for-8 from the field with four turnovers during the run.

Duke ran the lead to as many as 26, and led 39-18 at the break. Abby Waner had 15 points and six assists for Duke (3-0). Wanisha Smith added 11 points. Mitchell's 12 rebounds helped Duke dominate the boards 58-36 and outscore the Cougars 48-16 in the paint.

Sha'Ratta Hawkins came off the bench for 13 points to lead Houston (0-2). With just seven healthy players, the Cougars got 17 points from their starters.

Ten Blue Devils scored, and none played more than 25 minutes. Duke scored on eight of its first 11 possessions of the second half, paced by three layups by Mitchell, to lead 56-27 with 12:55 to play. Bales hit two baskets midway through the second half to spark a 12-0 run that Duke used to put the game out of reach.

Waner hit three of seven 3-point tries in the first half and had 11 points by the break. Bales had 10 in the first half. The 6-foot-7 Bales helped Duke score 29 second-chance points. She blocked three shots in the game's first 15 minutes and ended up with four blocks.

Game 3

TCU 57, Houston 46
Nov. 22, 2006 • Daniel Meyer Coliseum • Fort Worth, Texas

FORT WORTH, Texas - The University of Houston women's basketball team could not overcome a poor shooting performance as it dropped its third-straight game, a 57-46 decision to TCU, Wednesday at Daniel Meyer Coliseum.

Houston (0-3) was just 16-for-59 from the field in the game (27.1 percent). TCU (1-3) didn't light the building up either, shooting 20-for-60 (33.3 percent), but the Lady Frogs took advantage of 14 fast-break points, combating UH's full-court press. Houston has lost three-straight games to start the season for the first time since the 1999-2000 season.

Houston dominated the rebounding battle, pulling down 52 boards to TCU's 39. Ryan Meyers grabbed 11 boards, her second double-digit rebounding performance of the season.

Sha'Ratta Hawkins poured in a season-high 18 points, leading all players on the evening. Alona Obaze also found double figures, finishing with a career-best 14 points.

The Cougars trailed by 10, 26-16, with just over 18 minutes left in the game. A 21-9 Houston run over the next seven minutes gave UH its first lead of the season, 37-36, with 10:13 left in the game. The lead was short lived as TCU was back on top for good, 38-37, with 9:39 left. TCU pressed the advantage and used a 15-2 run to lead by 12, 51-39, with 5:45 left. The Cougars tallied just four field goals in the last 10 minutes of the game.

The Cougars trailed 22-16 at the break, making just five field goals in the opening 20 minutes. UH's 14.7 field goal percentage (5-for-34) was its worst performance in a half this season.

UH missed its first four shots and by four in the first three minutes. UH tied it up on two occasions, but could never take the lead in the half. The Cougars had an extended scoring drought of nearly seven minutes that spanned the end of the first half and the beginning of the second.

Game 4

No. 16/17 Michigan State 68, Houston 55
Nov. 26, 2006 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - Victoria Lucas-Perry scored 21 points to lead No. 17 Michigan State past the University of Houston women's basketball team 68-55 on Guy V. Lewis Court at Hofheinz Pavilion, Sunday.

The Spartans (4-1), playing their first road game of the season, never trailed in the game, but cold shooting in the second half kept it close. Houston (0-4), off to the worst start to a season in school history, was within single digits for most of the second half, but once again outside shooting let UH down. After firing at a nearly 50-percent clip in the first half (13-28/464), UH reverted in the second half, shooting 7-for-35 (.200) and going 0-for-12 from behind the arc.

The opening 12 1/2 minutes of the second half were ugly on both ends of the court as MSU missed eight of its first nine and 10 of 15 while committing six turnovers. Houston, despite missing its first six shots, trailed by only eight, 54-46, with 8:22 left. The Cougars would get no closer, scoring just two field goals in the final four minutes of the game.

Aisha Jefferson added 17 points and 15 rebounds, and Rene Haynes scored 13 for Michigan State.

Sha'Ratta Hawkins led Houston with 16 points, her third-straight game in double figures. Maya Onikute added 11 points, six rebounds, three assists and three steals while Ryan Meyers grabbed 12 rebounds. Meyers has pulled down double-digit boards in three of UH's four games this season.

The Cougars showed some life on the glass this afternoon, pulling down 37 rebounds to MSU's 38. The Spartans held a decided height advantage against UH, but Houston muscled 20 offensive rebounds to MSU's 12, turning those opportunities into 17 second-chance points.

UH, who missed its first three shots while giving up three turnovers, withstood a 15-1 Michigan State run over the first 3:18 of the game, coming back to within six, 20-14, with 10:46 left. MSU pressed the lead to double digits once again, paced by 17 first-half points from Lucas-Perry and 11 from Haynes.

Houston used an 8-2 run of its own over two-plus minutes to move the margin to five at 34-29 with 3:48 to go. The teams would trade buckets over the final three minutes with MSU holding a seven-point lead, 41-34, at the half.

Game 5

West Virginia 73, Houston 47
Nov. 30, 2006 • WVU Coliseum • Morgantown, W.Va.

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. - Britney Davis-White scored a game-high 17 points, all in the second half, to lead West Virginia to a 73-47 win over Houston, Thursday at the WVU Coliseum.

The Cougars (0-5), mired in the worst start in school history, shot under 30 percent (16-59/271) for the third time this season. WVU (3-3) had four players in double figures and knocked in seven triples on the night.

Davis-White, who took just one shot in the opening 20 minutes, was 5-for-9 in the second half, including three triples. She made more threes than UH's entire team (1-12).

After trailing 32-20 at the half, Houston pulled off an 8-0 run over the first 2:35 of the second half to shrink WVU's lead to five at 33-28. As has been the case all season, the offense failed the Cougars as the Mountaineers rattled off an 11-2 run to lead 45-30 with 11:49 left. During that span of 5:14 UH was 0-7 from the floor with three turnovers.

WVU would run the lead to as many as 28, taking advantage of a strong inside game that dominated UH in the paint by a 30-18 margin. UH had two droughts of more than four minutes without making a field goal and the Cougars hit just four field goals in the final 11:31 of the game. The Mountaineers also took advantage of Houston's mistakes, converting 21 points off UH's 15 turnovers.

Sha'Ratta Hawkins and Ashlee' Joseph led UH with 10 points on the night. For Joseph, it set a career best and her first career game in double figures. Hawkins has scored in double digits in four consecutive contests.

Yinka Sanni finished with 16 points, 11 of which came in the first half, and nine rebounds for WVU, while Laquita Owens and Sparkle Davis each knocked in 10.

Houston started off the game strong, moving out to a 4-0 lead and holding the lead for the first 6:34 of the game. The teams traded buckets and the lead over the next few minutes but UH's offense went ice cold after the hot start. WVU ended the half on a 23-10 run with UH going just 2-for-16 with three turnovers during the final 8:23 of the opening stanza.

UH was 4-for-6 (.667) from the field during the first 5:38 of the game, but 12-for-53 (.226) for the rest of the game.

Game 6

Marshall 57, Houston 41
Dec. 2, 2006 • Cam Henderson Center • Huntington, W.Va.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. - Despite 16 points from Sha'Ratta Hawkins, the University of Houston women's basketball team dropped its Conference USA opener, 57-41, to Marshall at the Cam Henderson Center.

Houston (0-6, 0-1 C-USA) played well in spurts, but could not overcome a strong inside game from the Thundering Herd (6-2, 1-0 C-USA). Marshall dominated the paint, 34-20, paced by a career-high 23 points for center Modupe Ishola. Ishola also added a game-high 14 rebounds. The Herd also converted Houston's 18 turnovers into 21 points.

The Cougars struggled to shoot it all game long. Houston finished with a 29-percent clip (18-for-62) and was just 2-for-14 (.143) from behind the arc. UH had six field goals in the first eight minutes of the second half, equaling its output from the opening 20 minutes. The Cougars also struggled to get to the free throw line taking just six attempts to Marshall's 25.

Trailing 23-14 at halftime, UH traded buckets with Marshall over the first 10 minutes of the second half with the Herd holding a 34-26 advantage with 11:42 remaining.

Hawkins bookended a 9-0 run with a jumper and a three over 2:35 that pulled UH within one at 36-35 with 8:07 remaining. Following a Marshall timeout, the Herd ran off a 12-2 run of their own, putting the game out of reach for UH at 48-37 with 3:41 left. The Cougars had just two field goals in the last eight minutes of the game, going 2-for-13 with five turnovers.

Hawkins, the only UH player to score in double figures, finished the night with 16 on a 7-for-16 shooting night. She added seven rebounds and two steals, but struggled with nine turnovers. Ryan Meyers finished with 11 rebounds while Maya Onikute chipped in a career-best 10 rebounds.

Both teams started the game off cold, mustering just two baskets apiece in the first five minutes. With the score tied at six with 13:16 left, Marshall went on a 12-3 run to lead 18-9 with 3:04 left in the opening stanza. Houston suffered a 7:30 scoring drought, turned the ball over 10 times and was 6-for-30 (.200) from the field in the first half and 1-for-9 from behind the arc. Marshall made nine of its 28 shots and one of nine from the three-point line.

Meg Withrow added 10 points for the Herd while Alissa Hammond added nine.

Game 7

Houston 78, Cal State Bakersfield 66
Dec. 6, 2006 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - Behind a career-best 22 points from Ryan Meyers, the University of Houston women's basketball team earned its first win of the season, knocking off Cal State Bakersfield 78-66.

Meyers was 9-of-13 from the floor, including a 4-for-5 effort from the charity stripe. She is UH's first 20-plus point scorer of the season and also tallied UH's first double-double of the year, tying a season high with 16 rebounds.

Houston (1-6) stopped a six-game losing streak, scoring a season-high 78 points while shooting a season-best 34.1 percent from the field.

The Cougars were dominant in the boards, outrebounding the Roadrunners (3-2) 60-40, including a 24-8 edge on the offensive glass. Houston parlayed those 24 offensive rebounds into 18 second-chance points.

All-America Candidate Tye Jackson made her season debut after missing UH's first six games due to a knee injury. Just 20 days removed from arthroscopic surgery, Jackson played 21 minutes, finishing with 14 points, six rebounds and three steals. Half of her points came in the final 1:14 of the game.

Leading by 11 at the break, Houston used an 8-2 run to push the lead to 17, 43-26, just over two minutes into the second half.

UH pushed the margin to as many as 22, leading 55-33 with 12:29 remaining. CSUB hung in there using an 11-4 run of its own to pull within 15 at 59-44 with 9:48 left. An 8-1 UH run had the lead at 20, 67-47, with 5:10 left.

UH's offense started to wane in the final minutes and the 'Runners were right back in it with an 13-2 run that spanned just under four minutes and had the lead back into single digits, 69-60, with 58 seconds left.

During the run, the Cougars were 0-for-5 from the floor with a pair of turnovers. UH did not fold, hitting 7-of-8 free throws in the final minute and using some timely fast breaks to earn the 12-point win.

Sha'Ratta Hawkins finished with 11 points and eight rebounds. It was the sixth-straight game the sophomore guard has scored in double digits. Rhondi Naff's 13 points led five 'Runners in double figures. Kelley Tarver and Krista Arase each added 12, Naomi Johnson finished with 11 and Jessi Loring added 10.

Houston led at the half for the first time this season with Meyers' seven points and 11 rebounds leading the way. CSUB only had 18 rebounds as a team in the opening 20 minutes as UH controlled the glass by a 37-18 margin.

Game 8

Houston 96, Prairie View A&M (2 OT)
Dec. 15, 2006 • Galen Center • Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - A layup by Tye Jackson 21 seconds into the second overtime gave the University of Houston a lead it would not relinquish in a wild 96-90 double overtime win over Prairie View A&M in the second game of the Women of Troy Classic at the Galen Center Friday.

Houston (2-6) played its first double-overtime game since Feb. 8, 2004, an 83-78 triple overtime win over Tulane. UH is 20-14 all time in overtime games.

After Jackson's layup, Prairie View pulled it to within one, 91-90, off a jumper by Tanesha Barefield with 2:47 remaining. It was the last field goal of the evening and UH hit five of its eight free throws in the final two minutes to earn its second-straight win and 15th-straight over the Lady Panthers.

The Cougars made a comeback of their own, battling from a 4-point overtime deficit with 1:46 left. Sunshine Misa-Uli put back her own rebound with 1:21 left and Jackson finished a layup with eight seconds left to knot it at 86, forcing the second OT.

Jackson, who tallied 10 of her game-high 28 points in the extra 10 minutes, was playing in only her second game of the season after missing UH's first six contests due to injury. She finished the night 10-for-25 from the field, 5-for-8 from the free throw line with three triples, six rebounds and five assists. She played 48 minutes with tired legs contributing to her team-high 12 turnovers.

Houston (2-6) struggled to hold on to the ball, turning it over 35 times. Prairie View (2-6), who gave it up 29 times themselves, converted UH's miscues into 43 points. UH shot a season-best 44.2 percent (38-86) from the field, the first time the Cougars eclipsed the 40-percent plateau since Feb. 26, 2006, a 74-71 win over UAB.

After erasing PVAMU's halftime lead 3:12 into the second half, the Cougars tried to break out, twice with 6-0 runs, but the Lady Panthers timely three-point shooting kept the game close. PVAMU hit five triples in the second half and nine for the game.

Neither team seized much of an advantage until Sha'Ratta Hawkins took a 40-foot pass from Ryan Meyers and knocked in the fast-break layup, giving UH a two-point cushion, 77-75, with 27 seconds left in the second half. Candice Thomas answered for PVAMU, weaving in between the UH defense and putting in a layup with 11 ticks left on the clock.

Hawkins finished with a double-double, 15 points and 13 boards while Meyers added nine along with 11 rebounds. Maya Onikute earned her first-career double-double, scoring 14 points and pulling down 11 rebounds. Misa-Uli had a career-best 17 points and nine rebounds. PVAMU's Gaati Werema finished with 21 points and 13 boards, both team highs. Smith finished with 19, Thomas had 17, and Barefield and Shakeya Johns both ended the night with 13 points.

Game 9

USC 65, Houston 42
Dec. 16, 2006 • Galen Center • Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - A poor offensive first half put the University of Houston women's basketball team into a hole it could not escape from as UH lost 65-42 Saturday at the Galen Center in the final game of the Women of Troy Classic.

After scoring 11 in the first half, the Cougars tallied 31 points in the second half. The Cougars never got USC's lead under the 20-point margin from halftime. The Women of Troy led by as many as 29, but UH used an 8-2 run in the final 2:27 to work it down to 23 at the final buzzer.

Houston (2-7) saw its two-game winning streak snapped while USC (6-4) earned its fourth-straight win over the Cougars and third-straight overall. The Cougars struggled from the free throw line, shooting just 3-for-12 (.250).

Tye Jackson was the only UH player to find double figures, finishing with 11 points. Jackson earned a spot on the all-tournament team.

USC was led by Shay Murphy's 15 points, Nadia Parker's 16 points off the bench and Chole Kerr's 12 points.

After leading 3-2 in the first half, not much went right for Cougars as they were outscored 32-8 in the final 16:47 of the half. The Cougars made just five field goals, shooting a shade over 20 percent (5-24/20.8). UH had more turnovers (14) than points in the half and USC converted those turnovers into 13 points.

UH's 11 points in the opening half was the second-fewest points allowed all time by the Women of Troy and the worst single-half output in school history. The Cougars were also outrebounded badly, 27-13. USC had 13 offensive rebounds, equaling UH's total output on the boards. Murphy had 10 points in the half for the Women of Troy, the 35th-straight game she's finished in double figures.

Game 10

Houston 82, Miami (Fla.) 73
Dec. 19, 2006 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - Tye Jackson's double double paced an impressive performance by the University of Houston women's basketball team as it knocked off an eight-win Miami team 82-73.

Houston (3-7) was playing without its leading rebounder as Ryan Meyers will miss the rest of the season with a hand injury.

Jackson finished with a team high 21 points and 10 rebounds, the third double double of her career. Sha'Ratta Hawkins added 16 points and nine boards off the bench.

UH's inside game was in full force, winning the battle of the boards, 52-37, 22-12 on the offensive glass, earning 22 points off those offensive rebounds. UH also tallied 28 points in the paint to Miami's 20 and tied a season low with 14 turnovers.

Houston took the lead for good 1:13 into the second period on a three-point play by Whitney James. James made a layup underneath while being fouled and converted the free throw, giving UH a three-point cushion at 42-39 with 18:47 left.

That play was on the front end of a 22-9 run by UH that was capped by a pair of threes from Obaze on consecutive possessions with 9:53 left, giving UH an 11-point lead, 59-48. Miami brought the lead down to four with a 9-2 run that was all Renee Taylor to trail 61-57 with 7:28 left. A 7-0 run going the other way for the Cougars slammed the door, giving UH a 68-57 lead with 5:16 remaining. Houston would keep the lead in double-digits for the rest of the game until a three by Taylor, her seventh of the night, went in with three seconds left, making the final margin 82-73.

Taylor set a Hofheinz Pavilion record with 42 points, the most ever by a UH opponent. The previous record for an opponent was Tamika Whitmore's 38, set on Feb. 21, 1997. Pat Luckey's 43 points on Jan. 13, 1996 remains the overall arena standard. Taylor set a school record on a 13-for-24 shooting night, with seven three pointers and a 9-for-9 effort at the charity stripe.

UH and Miami were knotted at 37 at the break, with UH getting to the free throw line 10 times and using some strong inside play to hang with a Miami squad that knocked down seven threes in the half. Taylor had four of the triples herself, finishing with 16 points.

The Hurricanes started the game on a 7-0 run, with all seven points coming from Taylor. The Cougars withstood the first onslaught and battled to tie it up at 13 with 14:11 remaining. Miami continued to press, moving out to a five-point lead at 27-22 with 9:44 left, but UH went on an 8-3 run to knot it up at 30 with 5:50 left. The teams traded 7-0 runs over the final five minutes of the half and Jackson split a pair of free throws with 49 seconds left to square it up for the fifth time at 37 apiece.

Game 11

Charlotte 81, Houston 58
Dec. 21, 2006 • Halton Arena • Charlotte, N.C.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Charlotte used a 19-5 run midway through the second half to knock off the University of Houston women's basketball team, 81-58, Thursday at Halton Arena.

Trailing by 14 at the break, Houston tried to break out in the second half, but could never get the lead under 12.

After a layup by Ryan Bradley (Houston, Texas/Madison HS) brought the score to 45-33 with 17:15 remaining, A tip-in by Ashley Spriggs on the next possession started the 19-5, 6:19 run that put the game away.

During that span, UH hit only one field goal, with the other three points coming on free throws.

Charlotte (6-5) moved to 6-0 at home this season, while Houston (3-8) dropped to 0-6 on the road.

The 49ers hit for 31-of-70 field goals and were 14-for-15 from the free throw line. Houston struggled from the floor, shooting just 35 percent (23-for-64). The Cougars three-point shooting (3-for-16) and free-throw shooting (9-for-15) were not up to par either.

The 49ers put the game away with some strong inside play, turning 20 offensive rebounds into 19 second-chance points. Charlotte won the overall battle of the boards 51-33 against a UH team that was a shadow of the squad that knocked off Miami two nights ago.

Tye Jackson finished with a team-high 16 points while Sunshine Misa-Uli had 11 and Whitney James finished with a career-best 10 points.

Over half of Charlotte's points came off the bench with Whitney Hoey knocking in a game-high 17 and Wendy Stywalt hitting for 12. Aysa Jones (15) and Traci Ray (10) also hit for double digits. Burgin was the game's leading rebounder with nine.

With Houston holding a 10-8 lead just over five minutes into the game, Charlotte took control, ending the half on a 34-18 run, leading 42-28 at the break. Charlotte's 42 points was the largest number of first-half points given up by UH this season and tied for the most given up in either half.

Game 12

Houston 91, Rice 86 (OT)
Jan. 2, 2007 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - A 5-0 run to start overtime game the University of Houston women's basketball team the cushion it needed to get past arch-rival Rice by a 91-86 margin at Hofheinz Pavilion.

The Cougars hit their first two shots in the extra period and went up by six, 85-79, with 2:38 left. The Owls had the lead down to two points twice in the last two minutes, but UH hit 4 of 6 free throws in the final 44 seconds, sealing the victory and equalizing UH's record in conference play.

Houston (4-8, 1-1 C-USA) holds a 39-6 lead in the all-time series, 19-2 at Hofheinz Pavilion and 2-0 in overtime games. Rice (7-7, 0-1 C-USA) lost its fourth-straight overall and has dropped four of the past five contests to the Cougars.

UH converted Rice's 19 turnovers into 26 points and used 20 offensive rebounds to tally 16 second-chance points. Rice played without leading scorer Lauren Neaves, who has missed the past two games due to injury.

Tye Jackson had a season-best night, with her second double-double in the last three games, knocking down a team-best 30 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. In four games against the Owls, Jackson has been dominant, averaging a shade over 25 points per game.

Ashlee Joseph came off the bench to score a career-best 20 points.

With 14 seconds left in regulation, and Rice leading 76-75, Jackson was fouled on a shot from the elbow. Her first free throw was off the front iron and no good, but the second went in, knotting things up with 5.6 seconds left.

Houston had the game seemingly put away, ahead by nine, 69-60, with 6:02 left, but a 13-2 run by Rice over the next 3:25 had UH in a two-point hole, 73-71, with 2:37 left. A layup by Whitney James with 1:44 left knotted it at 74, but Berezhyńska dropped a three on the next possession, giving Rice the 76-73 lead with 1:28 left.

Maya Onikute's jumper with 24 ticks on the clock pulled UH to within one at 76-75, setting up the last-second flurry.

James finished the night with a career-best 17 points. She almost grabbed the double-double, finishing with nine boards. Onikute added 14 points.

Rice ran off to an 8-2 lead in the game's first three minutes as UH missed its first four shots. A 12-1 UH run midway through the opening 20 minutes had the Cougars up 5, 23-18, with 8:33 remaining. Houston pushed the lead to seven with 5:30 left, leading 31-24.

Rice found its mettle and pulled off a 14-4 run to close out the half, leading 41-35 at the break. During that five-minute span, UH was 1-for-11 from the floor. Jackson knocked in 15 in the first half off of 17 shots in 17 minutes.

Tulane 83, Houston 161

Jan. 5, 2007 • Fogleman Arena • New Orleans, La.

NEW ORLEANS - Tulane used a 16-5 run out of halftime to seal an 83-61 win over the University of Houston women's basketball team in Conference USA action at Fogleman Arena.

Jami Montagnino finished with a game-high 33 points, knocking down seven three pointers. She finished 11-of-14 from the field, 7-of-9 from behind the line and 4-4 from the charity stripe with seven rebounds in 31 minutes.

Houston (4-9, 1-2 C-USA) was within two late in the first half, but could not get the deficit down under 18 in the second half. Tulane (12-3, 1-1 C-USA) won its third-straight over the Cougars and seven of eight overall.

Tye Jackson finished with 20 points, leading the Cougars. Whitney James finished with 12 points and nine boards while Sunshine Misa-Uli finished with 10. Ashlee Joseph pulled down a career-best 10 rebounds.

Trailing 40-24 at the break, Houston did not hit a shot for the first 2:20 of the second half and went into a 25-point hole, 52-27, with 16:32 left. From there it was academic and Tulane cruised to the 22-point win.

After turning the ball over just eight times against Rice on Jan. 2, UH reversed its fortunes, giving the ball up 18 times. Tulane converted those giveaways into 23 points. Houston held a 20-16 advantage on offensive rebounds, but Tulane converted their offensive boards into 23 second-chance points.

UH was handcuffed by poor shooting, firing at a 28-percent clip on the night. UH had been above the 30-percent line in the previous five games. A positive for the Cougars was their free throw shooting as UH knocked down 83 percent (20-24) of its shots from the line, including 16-17 in the second half.

Dominique Philpots was the only other Tulane player in double figures, closing the night out with 12 points and 11 rebounds.

Tulane was out to a 18-6 lead in the first eight minutes as Montagnino dropped in her first four shots, all triples. UH withstood the onslaught and pulled off a 9-0 run to trail 18-15 with 10:27 remaining. A 4-0 run by the Green Wave moved the lead back to 22-15 with 7:59 left. From there, Tulane ended the half on an 18-4 run, paced by nine points from Montagnino, who finished the first half with 21 points.

Game 14

UTEP 87, Houston 70

Jan. 7, 2007 • Don Haskins Center • El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - The University of Houston women's basketball team gave the top-ranked team in Conference USA all it wanted for the first 35 minutes of the game, but a 23-11 run over the last 5:56 gave UTEP an 87-70 win at the Haskins Center.

Jareica Hughes tallied 24 points to lead UTEP (14-1, 3-0 C-USA) to its eighth-straight win at home. Houston (4-10, 1-3 C-USA) dropped to 0-8 in road games this season. Today's game featured 28 lead changes and 14 ties.

In the end, UH could not overcome turnovers at the wrong time and failed to take advantage of a season-best 50-percent (25-50) effort from the floor. The last time UH fired at a 50-percent or better clip was Jan. 8, 2006, a 92-58 win over Southern Miss. That night, UH was 33-61 (.541).

Tye Jackson finished with 22 points, fouling out with under a minute left. Whitney James ended the night with 17 while Maya Onikute had 14.

Trailing by one at the half, UH battled throughout, and the first 13 minutes of the second half was much like the opening 20 minutes, with numerous ties and lead changes. Neither team had more than a three-point lead until UTEP struck with under seven minutes left.

UTEP led 60-55 with 7:29 left, but a 4-0 run by UH, paced by buckets from Jackson and James, had UH within three at 62-59 with 6:38 left, forcing UTEP to burn a timeout. UTEP rattled off five-straight out of the timeout to move the lead back to five, 67-62, with 4:19 left.

UH struggled offensively through the late part of the game, failing to convert on eight-of-10 possessions, trailing by nine, 71-62, with 2:58 left. From there, UTEP took control, holding UH to one field goal in the final three minutes. Head coach Joe Curl received a double-technical foul with 9.8 left in the game.

Turnovers became an issue in the game as Houston gave it up 25 times, resulting in 24 points for the Miners. UTEP dominated the inside early, scoring their first 10 points off layups. They finished the game with 30 points in the paint, 17 second-chance points off 23 offensive rebounds and also six points on the fast break.

Hughes led all players with 24 points, while Tasha Marisset finished with 22, Kasia Krezel with 11 and Ana Valtierra with 10. Ma

The game was a nip-and-tuck affair in the opening half with 12 lead changes and the score tied 11 times with neither team taking more than a three-point advantage. UTEP went into the locker room with a 1-point, 35-34 lead, thanks to a buzzer beater from the top of the key by Taylor. Both teams shot around the fifty-percent mark for the first 20 minutes.

Game 15

Houston 82, East Carolina 77

Jan. 10, 2007 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - A three-pointer by Alona Obaze with just over a minute left helped to seal an 82-77 win over East Carolina for the University of Houston women's basketball team, in Conference USA action Wednesday on Guy V. Lewis Court at Hofheinz Pavilion.

With the shot clock winding down, the junior guard found herself open on the right side, taking a pass from Sunshine Misa-Uli and burying the triple with 1:15 left. Houston (5-10, 2-3 C-USA) snapped a two-game losing streak and won its sixth-straight over the Pirates (7-10, 2-2 C-USA).

Houston had led by as many as 12 with 8:55 left in the game. An 8-2 run by the Pirates had the lead at two, 68-66, with 4:57 left. UH quickly moved it back to six at 72-66 with 3:17 remaining. ECU would not go away and had it back down to two moments later. The Pirates were within three with 1:37 left, setting up Obaze's three that gave UH a six-point cushion.

The Cougars shot a season-high 36 free throws, but only connected on 24 (.667). When it counted, in the final 31 seconds, Houston knocked down 4-6 from the charity stripe to seal the win.

Whitney James netted her first-career double-double, hitting for a career-best 20 points and 11 rebounds. She is the fifth UH player to hit a double double this season.

Tye Jackson led all scorers with 31 points. She set a season high and earned her fourth-career 30-point game.

Obaze finished with 12 points while Misa-Uli had nine points and seven boards. UH dominated the rebounding battle against a bigger ECU team, finishing the night with 44 boards to 34 for the Pirates. The Cougars converted 24 offensive rebounds into 21 second-chance points.

LaCoya Terry led the Pirates with 21 points. Cherie Mills and Jasmine Young both finished with 15. ECU's Gabriela Husarova came off the bench to score a career-best 12 points.

UH led at the half for only the second time this season following a slow first two-plus minutes that saw the two squads combine to miss their first eight shots over the first 2:20, UH ran off a quick 4-0 lead forcing ECU to burn a timeout. After that spurt, both teams settled in and traded baskets for several minutes swapping the lead six times.

With 10:35 left in the half, ECU ran off a 7-0 run to lead 23-26, but UH came back to take a 27-26 lead with 7:02 remaining. UH pushed its lead to eight, 36-28, with 4:13 to go and ECU got within three twice in the last few minutes, but a three by Jackson, her 19th point of the first half, gave Houston the 43-37 halftime advantage.

Rice 70, Houston 56

Jan. 21, 2007 • Autry Court • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - A double-double by Rice's Lauren Neaves, coupled with a poor shooting night for the University of Houston women's basketball team, helped the Owls to the 70-56 win, Rice's first over Houston at Autry Court in over a decade.

Rice's last win over its longtime rival on the home court came on Feb. 10, 1996 by nearly an identical score. That night, UH fell by a 70-57 margin.

Neaves finished the night with a game-high 23 points and 19 rebounds. Tye Jackson and Sunshine Misa-Uli led Houston with 16 and 14 points, respectively.

The Cougars (5-11, 2-4 C-USA) and the Owls (10-9, 3-3 C-USA) both played with short benches, suiting up seven and eight players, respectively.

After both Sha'Quaylon McKinney and Misa-Uli fouled out, UH was forced to play the final three minutes with no substitutions.

Rice built on its 37-27 halftime lead with a 10-4 run over the first 4:33 of the second half, leading 47-31 with 15:27 remaining. An 8-4 run by UH over five minutes pulled the lead back to single digits at 53-44 with 8:01 to go.

A 15-6 Rice run out of the final media timeout put the game away as UH trailed by 20, 70-50, with 90 seconds left. Houston fought until the buzzer as Jackson sunk a long three to put the final difference at 14, 70-56.

Houston had a disappointing night from the floor, shooting just a shade over 30 percent (22-73), including a 3-14 (.214) effort from the free-throw line.

Whitney James, who had averaged 15.2 ppg in the last five outings finished with just six points on a 2-12 shooting night. Jackson struggled from the floor as well, finishing 6-25.

Ashlee Joseph pulled down a career-best 11 rebounds.

Rice started the game on a 6-1 run, which was quickly reeled in as UH knotted things at eight with 16:06 remaining.

Rice pulled off an 11-0 run over 3:12 to lead by 10, 21-11, with 10:19 left. UH had it down to single digits twice but a pair of free throws by Tara Watts gave the Owls the ten-point cushion at the break.

Kadie Riverin finished with 16 points for Rice while Samantha Stovall grabbed 10 rebounds. UH had just 11 turnovers, its second-lowest total of the season.

Houston 70, Tulsa 54

Jan. 25, 2007 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - Tye Jackson finished with 24 points and a career-high 12 rebounds to lead the University of Houston past a struggling Tulsa squad, 70-54, in Conference USA action on Guy V. Lewis Court at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Jackson, an All-America candidate, netted her third double-double in 11 games and the sixth of her career. She led a Houston attack that recovered nicely from a dreadful 30 percent shooting performance just four days ago at Rice. Tonight, UH was 27-58 from the field (.466), its second best shooting night of the season. The Cougars were a season-best 45.5 percent from behind the arc (5-11) and tied a season-best with 17 points.

Houston (6-11, 3-4 C-USA) has won five-straight at home while Tulsa (7-12, 2-5 C-USA) has dropped three of its past four games. The Golden Hurricane never got warmed up, shooting 30.5 percent (18-59) on the night. They were 2-15 (.133) from the three-point line and committed 22 turnovers, which were converted into 22 points by the Cougars.

The Cougars, playing with just seven student-athletes on their active roster, pushed their 17-point halftime lead to 27 ten minutes into the second half, leading 54-27 with 9:57 left. UH's led buzzer-to-buzzer and the lead was never below 16 in the second half.

Sunshine Misa-Uli finished with 14 points, most coming inside the paint. UH held a 34-24 advantage on points inside and also won the rebounding battle 42-39. Whitney James tied a career high with 12 rebounds.

Tulsa's Jillian Robbins (Spring, Texas) led all players with 25 points and 15 rebounds, her 14th double-double of the season. Teka Brooks also found double figures, finishing with 11 points.

Houston led 35-18 at the break behind 12 points from Jackson and a near-50-percent shooting effort (14-30/.467). Tulsa shot just 19 percent (5-26) and its 18 points was the lowest total for a UH opponent in a half this season. UH took the ball inside, scoring 16 of its points in the paint and tallying 16 points off 15 Golden Hurricane turnovers.

The Cougars took a 14-point lead, 23-9, with 8:52 left in the half, pushing it to 19, 35-16, with 1:07 left. Tulsa made just three field goals in the final 13 minutes of the half.

Houston 81, SMU 65

Jan. 27, 2007 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - Four players with double doubles and a record-setting rebounding night helped to lead the University of Houston women's basketball team to an 81-65 win over SMU at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Forty of Houston's 81 points came from its post players, and the Cougars closed the night out with a C-USA single-game record 36 offensive rebounds. Those 36 rebounds turned into 38 second-chance points and 28 points in the paint. UH totaled a season-high 68 rebounds, tying a C-USA single-game record and also the fourth-highest total in school history, to SMU's 40.

Tye Jackson led the way with her second-straight double double and fourth of the season. She finished with 21 points and 10 rebounds, hitting 10-12 from the charity stripe. Whitney James (Edmond, Okla./Edmond Memorial HS/North Oklahoma College) netted her second-career double-double with 17 points and a career-high 14 rebounds.

Sunshine Misa Uli had 14 points and a career-high 12 rebounds, but the night belonged to Sha'Quaylon McKinney. The senior had a career night, finishing with 18 points and 16 rebounds. She hit 10 of 13 free throws while playing just 22 minutes.

The Cougars (7-11, 4-4 C-USA) have won six-straight games at Hofheinz Pavilion and picked up their first win at home over SMU since March 7, 1992. SMU (11-9, 3-5 C-USA) has dropped four in-a-row.

Trailing by seven at the break, UH used a 27-6 run over the first 10:10 of the second half to take a 13-point advantage, leading 56-43 with 9:50 left in the game. A 9-2 SMU run over the next 2:30 had the margin down to six, 58-52, with 7:01 to go. A 9-0, 3:34 run by Houston put the game away for good with 3:27 remaining. SMU was within nine, 69-60, with 2:32 left, but the Cougars hit 12-14 free throws in the final 2:30 to ensure the victory.

Jillian Samuels led four SMU players in double figures with 22 points. Katy Cobb and Janielle Dodds both finished with 12 points while Brittany Gilliam finished with 11.

A 28.2 percent (11-39) first-half shooting percentage had the Cougars in a seven-point, 37-30 hole at the break.

UH went nearly six minutes without scoring a field goal but SMU could not capitalize, leading 18-15 with 8:30 to go. Houston was within one, 22-21, with 5:36 left, but a 6-0 SMU run had the lead to seven, 28-21, with 4:12 left.

SMU led by as many as nine, 32-23 with 3:18 to go, but a 7-2 Houston run brought the margin down to four with under two minutes remaining. UH would not score in the final 1:56 and a three by SMU's Samuels gave the Mustangs their seven-point cushion heading into the locker room.

Game 19

Tulane 71, Houston 16

Feb. 1, 2007 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - The University of Houston women's basketball team saw its six-game home-winning streak snapped by a 71-56 loss to Tulane, Thursday in Conference USA action on Guy V. Lewis Court at Hofheinz Pavilion.

A 12-2 surge in the final three minutes of the first half gave Tulane (18-4, 7-2 C-USA) a lead it would not relinquish as Houston (7-12, 4-5 C-USA) lost on its home court for the first time since Nov. 26.

The Cougars were within nine, 37-28, with 16:30 left in the game, but a 10-0 Tulane run over the next 3:09 had the Green Wave out to a 19-point cushion, 47-28, with 13:21 remaining.

Houston missed its first nine shots of the second half did not tally its first field goal until Whitney James knocked down a jumper with 12:31 remaining, a span of 7:29. UH turned the ball over eight times during its cold snap from the floor and hit just eight field goals in the half.

Houston had its worst shooting performance in five games and the third-lowest percentage of the season. UH was 17-60 (.283), 1-12 (.083) from behind the arc and 21-35 (.600) from the charity stripe. The Cougars finished with 22 turnovers which were converted into 26 Tulane points. The Tulane bench accounted for 44 of the team's 71 points.

Tye Jackson nearly had a triple double, closing the night out with 20 points, 10 rebounds and nine assists. It was the third-straight double-double for the reigning C-USA Co-Player of the Week.

James was the only other UH player in double figures, tallying 13 points. Sha'Quaylon McKinney continued her strong play, finishing with nine points, nine rebounds and a pair of blocks.

UH was strong on the boards, outrebounding Tulane by a 52-41 margin, including a 20-10 advantage on the offensive glass. Houston did not take advantage, converting just 10 second-chance points.

Nikki Luckhurst scored a season-high 20 points off the bench, including four three-pointers.

Alendra Brown finished with 13 and Jennifer Sands added 10. Tulane's Jami Montagnino hit a career milestone on the night, surpassing the 1,000-point plateau for her career. She finished with eight points.

Tulane led 37-26 at the half, courtesy of a 12-2 run over the final 2:44 of the first half.

Tulane's Luckhurst tallied 10 of those points, knocking in a total of 12 in only six first-half minutes.

UH did not score a field goal in the final 5:33 of the half.

Game 20

UTEP 69, Houston 16

Feb. 3, 2007 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - A 26-9 UTEP run over the final eight minutes handed the University of Houston women's basketball team its second-straight defeat, a 69-61 loss in Conference USA action on Guy V. Lewis Court at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Houston (7-13, 4-6 C-USA) celebrated National Girls and Women In Sports Day, honoring longtime UH supporter Nikki Drake during a halftime ceremony. UTEP (18-4, 7-3 C-USA) won the season series over UH for the first time ever.

The Cougars led by nine, 52-43, following a three by Alona Obaze with 8:06 remaining. From there, the UH offense went cold, managing just two field goals the rest of the way. UTEP took the lead, 57-56, with a 16-4 run over the next 4:37.

Houston kept it within three for the next two minutes, but an intentional foul on Tye Jackson with 1:10 remaining allowed the Miners to hit 3-4 free throws on two possessions to push the lead to six, 63-57, with just over a minute left.

UH's inability to hit shots, going 2-11 with five turnovers in the last eight minutes allowed UTEP to take the win. For the game, the Cougars were 20-53 (.377) and 3-12 (.250) from behind the three-point line.

After not taking a free throw in the first half, UTEP was 16-22 from the stripe in the second half, including a 9-12 mark in the games final 70 seconds. Houston finished 18-25 from the line.

After trailing by one at the half, Houston opened the second half on an 8-2 run, leading 35-28 with 15:41 remaining. UH extended the lead to nine twice, but could never push it to double figures. Jackson finished with 23 points, 21 in the second half, five rebounds and five assists. She was 8-9 from the free-throw line.

Sunshine Misa-Uli was the only other UH player in double figures, finishing with 10 points and nine rebounds.

Jareica Hughes, playing with a shoulder injury, finished with 20 points to lead UTEP. Kasia Krezel and Izabela Piekarska both had 12 and Ana Valtierra scored 11.

The first half was nip-and-tuck the whole way, with neither team grabbing more than a three-point advantage. Both squads struggled from the floor, combining to shoot 19-51 (.372) from the floor. Houston was 8-10 from the charity stripe, holding the Miners without a free-throw attempt in the half. The Cougars had 11 first-half turnovers, but UTEP was unable to take any sort of advantage, converting just two points.

Game 21

UCF 78, Houston 73

Feb. 9, 2007 • UCF Arena • Orlando, Fla.

ORLANDO, Fla. - A second-half span of 5:23 without a basket handed the University of Houston women's basketball team its third-straight defeat, a 78-73 loss to UCF, in Conference USA action at UCF Arena.

The Cougars (7-14, 4-7 C-USA), winless in 10 games on the road this season, had overcome a 31-26 halftime deficit with a 20-8 run over the first eight minutes of the second half.

UCF (8-16, 3-8 C-USA) withstood the UH onslaught and came back with a 9-2 run of its own to lead 48-47 with 10:29 remaining.

Following a layup by Sunshine Misa-Uli with 9:10 left, that pulled UH within three, the Cougars would not score again until Alona Obaze knocked down a three pointer with 3:43 left.

During that five-plus minute time period, UH was outscored 16-0 and trailed 63-49 with 4:33 remaining.

The Cougars pulled it to within single digits after Tye Jackson converted a four-point play with 3:07 left. After the teams traded buckets over the next few possessions, Jackson knocked down a jumper with 1:26 left to pull the Cougars within seven at 69-52.

That was as close as UH would get until the final five seconds of the game as UCF held on thanks to some late free-throw shooting. The Golden Knights, who entered the evening shooting around 60 percent from the stripe, were 11-12 from the charity stripe in final 1:11 of the game, negating UH's comeback effort.

Jackson ended the night with 30, leading all players and earning her fifth-career 30-point game. Misa-Uli and Whitney James each finished with 12, adding eight and nine rebounds, respectively.

The Cougars trailed 31-26 at the break after giving up an eight-point lead midway through the first half. With the score at 14-8 Houston with 10:43 remaining, the Cougars were outscored by a 23-12 margin for the rest of the half. The teams combined for 24 turnovers and failed to connect on eight combined three-point attempts.

Keunta Miles led five UCF players in double figures with 17. Jackie Akers added 13, Celeste Hudson poured in 12 and Shante Cummings and Kristin Thomas each finished with 10. Thomes also pulled down a game-high 10 rebounds.

Game 22

Southern Miss 63, Houston 11

Feb. 11, 2007 • Reed-Green Coliseum • Hattiesburg, Miss.

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - A 27-11 Southern Miss run in the last 10 minutes of the game led to the fourth-straight loss for the University of Houston women's basketball team, a 63-51 defeat in Conference USA action at Reed-Green Coliseum.

The Cougars (7-14, 4-7 C-USA) dropped their 11th-straight road game despite another strong game from All-America candidate Tye Jackson. Jackson finished with a game-high 24 points and pulled down a team-high 10 rebounds for her sixth double-double of the season.

The Golden Eagles (12-13, 6-6 C-USA) used a 9-2 run over two-and-a-half minutes to erase a five-point Houston lead, taking control at 44-42 with 8:51 left. Following a pair of 30-second timeouts by the Cougars, Southern Miss scored five-straight points to lead 49-42 with 7:38 to go. All told, UH was outscored 27-11 over the game's final 11:31 as UH scored only four field goals.

A 13-5 UH run out of halftime, erased the Golden Eagles' nine-point halftime lead, pulling the Cougars within one at 33-32 with 13:47 remaining. A pair of free throws from Jackson gave UH its first lead since early in the first half moments later. Some solid work on the fast break by Alona Obaze helped UH push the lead to five at 40-35 with 10:52 to go. Obaze had a steal, a layup and an assist on consecutive possessions.

Ryan Bradley added 11 points and five rebounds, her best scoring game since the season opener against Texas Tech. Whitney James and Sunshine Misa-Uli each grabbed nine rebounds.

Kendra Reed led Southern Miss with 22 points. Liz Biland added a double double with 10 points and 10 rebounds. Southern Miss converted Houston's 27 turnovers into 28 points.

The Cougars trailed by nine at the half, failing to score a field goal in the final six minutes of the half and shooting 7-for-25 (.280) with 16 turnovers. Half of Southern Miss' points in the half were converted off of UH turnovers.

Houston took an early 7-5 lead with 14:26 left, but an 11-0 Southern Miss run over the next two minutes had the Eagles leading 16-7 with 11:49 to go. UH had the margin back to six on two occasions, but costly turnovers and cold shooting gave Southern Miss the 28-19 halftime lead.

Game 23

Tulsa 81, Houston 73

Feb. 15, 2007 • Reynolds Center • Tulsa, Okla.

TULSA, Okla. - Houston gave up a five-point halftime lead and dropped an 81-73 decision to Tulsa, in Conference USA action at the Reynolds Center.

Houston (7-16, 4-9 C-USA) was paced by 22 points from Tye Jackson. Tulsa (10-15, 5-8 C-USA) outscored the Cougars 12-4 over the final two minutes to earn a split in the season series between the two squads.

UH was held scoreless for a span of 5:27 early in the second half and outscored 12-0 during that run, giving the Golden Hurricane a 48-43 lead with 13:41 to go. The Cougars came back with a 16-10 run of their own to retake the lead at 59-58 with 7:25 to go. UH would not lead the rest of the night, but remained in striking distance, knotting the score five times in the next five-plus minutes.

The Cougars, playing with a short bench and forced to foul, failed to convert on six of their final eight possessions while Tulsa was 8-for-8 from the charity stripe in the last two minutes, leading to the 12-4 closing run.

The UH offense showed signs of struggle in the second 20 minutes, shooting 13-for-42 (.31) from the field, 3-for-10 (.300) from behind the line and only getting to the free-throw line three times. Tulsa shot fifty percent in the second half and was 17-for-19 from the line. For the game, the Golden Hurricane was 21-for-28 from the free throw line while Houston made all seven of its attempts.

Sunshine Misa-Uli added her third-career double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds. The Cougars have dropped five-straight games and remain winless in 12 games on the road this season.

Houston held a 43-39 advantage on the boards, converting 21 offensive rebounds into 36 second-chance points. UH gave up just 12 turnovers, its lowest total in six games.

Tulsa's Jillian Robbins led all players with 29 points and 12 rebounds. She surpassed the 2,000-career points plateau during the second half of tonight's game. Larissa Williams added 14 points while Valerie Siemens finished with 15 points, 12 of those coming in the second half.

The Cougars held a 41-36 halftime edge after shooting 47.1 percent (16-34) in the opening 20 minutes. Misa-Uli had 10 points, all coming in the paint and Jackson added 13. UH held a 23-15 rebounding edge, converting 12 second-chance points off nine offensive rebounds. Houston moved out to a 17-8 lead in the game's first five minutes hitting seven of its first 10 shots, including three triples.

Game 24

SMU 61, Houston 50

Feb. 17, 2007 • Moody Coliseum • Dallas, Texas

DALLAS - The University of Houston women's basketball team staged a valiant second-half comeback, but it fell short with a 61-50 loss to SMU in Conference USA action at Moody Coliseum.

Houston (7-17, 4-10 C-USA) trailed by as many as 18 early in the second half, before going on a 26-15 run to bring the lead down to seven at 48-41 with 4:58 left. The Cougars were unable to get closer and dropped their sixth-straight game.

SMU (10-15, 5-8 C-USA) was paced by 17 points from Janielle Dodds. Sharee Shepherd added 11 points and Elbie Gates added 10, all in the first half.

Tye Jackson led the Cougars with 18 points, tying a season high with five three pointers. Ashlee' Joseph added nine points and 10 rebounds.

Alona Obaze scored nine points in a gritty 39 minutes despite suffering from a bout with the stomach flu.

UH shot just 30 percent (18-60) for the game and gave the ball up 19 times. Those 19 turnovers were converted into 25 points by the Mustangs. SMU was dominant on the boards and in the paint, pulling down 47 rebounds to UH's 39 and outscoring the Cougars 32-14 inside.

The Cougars will finish the season without a win on the road for just the second time in program history. The last came during the 1998-99 season, when the Cougars finished 0-12 in games away from Hofheinz Pavilion. UH will finish the regular season 0-13 on the road.

UH was in a 32-15 halftime hole after shooting just over 22 percent and making only five field goals. After the Cougars took a 2-0 lead with 17:41 to go, SMU closed the half out on a 32-13 run, holding UH to a pair of field goal droughts over four minutes.

Jackson was limited to eight first-half minutes and Whitney James missed over 11 minutes while getting stitches for a cut sustained while diving for a loose ball. Gates came off the bench to score 10 in the opening half.

Game 25

Houston 86, Memphis 73

Feb. 22, 2007 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - The University of Houston women's basketball team had three players finish with 20-plus points as the Cougars snapped a six-game losing streak with an 86-73 win over Memphis in Conference USA action on Guy V. Lewis Court at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Alona Obaze scored a career-high 24 points on the night, including six three pointers, to lead all players. She finished the night 8-13 from the field, 6-10 from behind the line with four assists, three rebounds and three steals.

Tye Jackson and Whitney James each tallied double doubles, with Jackson adding 22 points and 11 assists and James scoring 21 with 10 rebounds.

Houston (8-17, 5-10 C-USA) turned a six-point halftime lead into a 15-point advantage five minutes into the second half in the Cougars first home game since Feb. 3, 2007. Memphis (4-25, 1-14 C-USA) never led in the game as UH took its third-straight win over the Tigers.

UH opened the second half on a 12-3 run, leading by 15, 53-38, with 16:38 to go. Memphis had it down to 11 moments later, but the Cougars came back with an 8-0 run to lead by 18, 63-45, with 13:05 remaining. Houston pushed the lead to as many as 21 with just over four minutes left but nearly allowed Memphis back in the game as the Tigers pulled off an 11-1 run over a period of three minutes. Houston's defense took over, holding Memphis without a field goal for the final 1:55.

Houston set season highs with 22 assists a 55.6-percent effort from behind the arc and 10 three-pointers made, also tying the teams' season best mark with a 50-percent effort (34-68) from the field. UH's 10 triples tied a Hofheinz Pavilion record and is also tied for the fifth-best team mark of all time.

Ashlee' Joseph pulled down a career-high 12 rebounds, seven coming on the offensive glass, helping Houston to 20 second-chance points off 19 offensive rebounds. UH won the rebounding battle 44-31.

The Cougars opened the game on a 6-0 run, but Memphis brought the margin back to two moments later. A 17-9 Houston run over the next 7:31 gave UH its first double-digit lead of the night, 23-13 with 9:09 to go in the half. With UH holding a 10 point, 32-22 lead with 5:25 left, the Tigers pulled off a 13-4 run over 3:25 to trail by one, 36-35 with 1:33 remaining. The Cougars closed the half out on a 5-0 run to lead 41-35 at the break.

Memphis was paced by 21 points from Aroha Jennings and 16 points and eight rebounds from Jazmyn Green. Alysse Davis added 11 and Devin Necaide dropped in 10.

Game 26

UAB 84, Houston 63

Feb. 24, 2007 • Hofheinz Pavilion • Houston, Texas

HOUSTON - UAB set a Hofheinz Pavilion record with 12 three pointers as they handed the University of Houston women's basketball team an 84-63 defeat in the regular season finale for both squads on Guy V. Lewis Court.

The Blazers (17-11, 12-4 C-USA) shot nearly 60 percent from behind the line (12-21/.571), hitting 10 of their 12 triples in the opening 20 minutes. UAB's record eclipses the previous mark of 11, set by DePaul in 1999. Houston (8-18, 5-11 C-USA), never led and struggled offensively, firing at a 33.3 percent clip (24-72) on the evening.

UAB's 32-15 run in the final 10 minutes of the first half gave the visitors a 19-point halftime cushion. The Cougars trailed by as many as nine in the early going, but an 8-0 run, featuring six-straight points from Tye Jackson pulled it down to one, 12-11, with 11:09 remaining.

The Blazers' Amanda Scott, who had hit seven three pointers all season long, came off the bench and knocked down three triples in the first half, helping to pace the long UAB run to close the opening period.

UH started the second half on a 5-0 run, but UAB hit shots and pushed the margin to as many as 21, 61-40, with 9:28 to go. A layup by UAB's Diamond Rogers with 7:32 left pushed the lead to 22, the Blazers' biggest of the night. An 8-0 UH run over the next 2:02 had the lead down to 13, 66-53, with 5:34 left. UH would score just three more field goals in the game's final five minutes and would fall by 21.

Jackson finished with a game-high 22 points, struggling on an 8-29 shooting night from the floor. Sunshine Misa-Uli had 18 points and 14 rebounds, both career highs, for her third double-double of the season. Whitney James scored 10 points and pulled down six rebounds.

Sha'Quaylon McKinney, the team's lone senior, was honored in a pregame ceremony on the court. She pulled down eight rebounds.

Rogers led the Blazers with 19 points. Britney Jones came off the bench to score 16 and Scott finished with 11. Carmen Guzman closed out the day with 12 points and seven rebounds.
