SUSAN BUSH

HEAD COACH | FIFTH SEASON

Houston native Susan Bush, a former standout player at North Carolina, enters her fifth season as head coach of the University of Houston soccer team.

Bush, the third head coach in program history, had previously spent two years on Houston's coaching staff working as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator before assuming the role of head coach on March 29, 2007.

The 2010 Conference USA Coach of the Year Susan Bush led the Cougars to the best finish in program history, capping off a 12-5-4 season by finishing third in Conference USA and reaching the semifinals of the C-USA tournament. Bush also guided senior Lauri Byrne and sophomore Katelyn Rhodes to the All C-USA First Team and the National Soccer Coaches Association of America 2010 All-Central Region Team, the first Cougar soccer student-athletes to earn NSCAA All-Region honors since Sophia Mundy in 2005. After putting together an impressive freshman class in 2009, Bush led three of the newcomers to the C-USA All-Freshman Team. Cami Koski, Danielle Munoz and Jasmine Martinez all received All-Freshman team honors, while Koski and Munoz were also named to the C-USA All-Conference Second Team.

Bush also recently married assistant coach Eric Quill during the 2011 summer.

During her third year as head coach, Bush helped guide Jessica Rathweg to her second consecutive All-Conference USA Second Team honors. Striker Lauri Byrne led the team in goals for the second year in a row on her way to being named All-C-USA Third Team. Jessica Zavalza tied for the team-lead in points with seven. Freshman Katelyn Rhodes also shined in her first year under Bush's instruction, as she tied for the team lead in goals with three. Bush put together perhaps the most talented incoming freshman class in Houston history and will welcome 11 newcomers into the program.

2008

In her second year leading the Cougar soccer program, Bush coached Stephanie Derieg to C-USA All-Freshman Team honors and Jessica Rathweg to the C-USA Second Team. Under her guidance, Jessica Zavalza provided Houston with a much needed offensive spark, finishing the year as the team's leading goal scorer and point earner.

2007

During her first season as head coach, Bush saw one of her recruits, Lauri Byrne, earn a spot on the C-USA All-Freshman Team. Byrne paced the Cougars in assists, shots, overall scoring and tied for the club lead in goals scored. In addition, Islara Rodriguez spent time playing for the Puerto Rican national team as they sought a bid to the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in China. The emergence of top-quality, young talent has given Cougar fans a glimpse of a successful future.

Bush's teams have also found success in the classroom. Thirty-three student-athletes have been named to the C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll during her tenure for maintaining a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. In addition, six players were named to ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VI teams.

During Bush's time at Houston, she tutored Sophia Mundy, the first two-time All-C-USA First Team selection in program history. Mundy was also selected as the C-USA Preseason Player of the Year in 2006.

Bush joined the UH program in 2005. Following her retirement from professional soccer, Bush worked in private business in Washington D.C. In her first season leading the program, Bush put together a top-flight class of newcomers, establishing herself as one of the top young coaches in C-USA.

No stranger to big-time soccer, Bush has competed at the highest level, earning 10 caps for the U.S. National Team from 1998-2003. Bush tallied three goals and six assists while playing for the USA. She was a member of the gold-medal winning teams at the 1999 and 2000 Nordic Cups, the 2000 Gold Cup and the 2000 Australia Cup. In the opening-round game of the 2000 Gold Cup, Bush knocked in a goal while assisting on four others, playing the full 90 minutes in the 8-0 win over Costa Rica.

She earned her first national team start on Dec. 16, 1998 against Ukraine. She was the youngest player and only high-school age player to earn a spot in the camps leading up to the 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup. She also spent time in national camp prior to the Sydney Olympics in 2000 earning a spot as an alternate for the Olympic squad.

Bush played collegiately at North Carolina and was a part of three national championship squads, two as a player (1999, 2000) and one as a student assistant (2003). Bush was the offensive MVP of the 1999 NCAA Championship game, a 2-0 defeat of Notre Dame, and a Second Team All-ACC selection in 2000.

In 2002, Bush captained the Tar Heels, was an ACC All-Tournament Team honoree and a finalist for the Hermann Trophy, presented annually by the Missouri Athletic Club to the top male and female soccer player in the college ranks. During Bush's playing career, UNC had a remarkable 90-8-4 mark with a 22-4-2 record in ACC play.

Following her collegiate career, Bush was a second-round pick of the San Diego Spirit of the Women's United Soccer Association. She played briefly for the Spirit, before the league ceased operations.

Bush attended UNC after a stellar prep career at St. John's High School. She was named a Parade High School All-American in 1998 and 1999 and was named the Parade High School Player of the Year in 1999. She earned a bachelor of arts degree in from UNC, double-majoring in history and political science. Bush is currently working on her Masters of Education in Sports Administration at the University of Houston.

COACHES & STAFF

ERIC QUILL

ASSISTANT COACH • FIFTH SEASON

Eric Quill, a former professional soccer player, is in his fifth season as an assistant soccer coach at the University of Houston.

Quill came to Houston after spending a year working with Silver Eagle Distributors in Houston.

In his role as the program's first assistant, Quill serves as the recruiting coordinator and assists with both practice and in-game coaching.

He played professionally for nine seasons in Major League Soccer for the Tampa Bay Mutiny (1997-2001), Kansas City Wizards (2002-2003), Dallas Burn, now FC Dallas (2004) and the New York/New Jersey MetroStars, now Red Bull New York (2005).

Quill's top performances came from 2000-2001 when he scored seven goals and 19 assists while making 48 starts for Tampa Bay.

He played one season at Clemson University, tallying six goals and five assists. Following his freshman season, he signed a Project 40 contract with Major League Soccer and was allocated to Tampa Bay.

Quill also had some extensive experience with the U.S. National Team, playing with the U-23, U-20 and U-16 squads. He was named to the final 23-man roster for a friendly match against El Salvador on November 17, 2002. It marked his first call-up to the Senior National Team, but he did not play. Quill was invited to a U-23 camp in January 2000. Along with all Project-40 players, he played in a closed-door match vs. Turkish champion Galatasaray (7/10/1998), a 4-1 win.

Quill married Head Coach Susan Bush during the Summer of 2011.

JENNA OLSON

ASSISTANT COACH • FIFTH SEASON

Jenna Olson, a former standout player at UNLV, starts her fifth season as goalkeeping coach.

Olson joined the Cougar program after spending the 2006 season as a student assistant with her alma mater. In addition to coaching the UH goalkeepers, Olson will assist in practice planning and serve as the director of the Cougar Soccer Camps.

Olson, the Mountain West Conference's all-time leader in goals against average (0.90), is the only goalkeeper in league history to earn All-Conference honors three times. She was named a First Team honoree in both 2004 and 2005 and was named to the Second Team in 2003. She also earned a spot on the 2005 MWC All-Tournament Team and was a Soccer Buzz Third Team All-Region selection that season.

She played in 68 career games for the Rebels, making 59 starts. Olson had a career mark of 35-20-4 with a school-record 26 shutouts. She also holds the career marks for saves (305) and is second in career goals against average (0.90). Olson also owns single-season records for goals against average (0.34) and shutouts (8).

During her senior campaign in 2005, she missed the first half of the season with a broken foot but came back to lead UNLV to the 2005 MWC Tournament Championship and the NCAA tournament, posting an incredible 0.34 goals against average in the last 10 games.

While a prepster, Olson led Edison (Calif.) High School to a pair of Sunset League championships and the 2001 Division II CIF Championship. She was a First Team All-Sunset League honoree and was named the top defensive player in the CIF.

She also played for the California South ODP team and was a member of the Santa Anita Strikers, one of the top club teams in the country.

Olson, a native of Huntington Beach, Calif., is a 2006 graduate of UNLV with a degree in kinesiology.

Over the 2010 summer, Olson married Mark Olson.
