

UIC vs. Georgia Tech Postgame Quotes

Paul Hewitt on playing UIC

"I thought we showed a lot of maturity against a very good team and, what I think, (Cedrick Banks) is one of the better offensive players I've seen in a long time moving without the ball. He reminds me an awful lot of a young man I coached at Villanova, Kerry Kittles."

"We knew it was going to be a very, very tough environment. People asked me why I would schedule this game. Because of all the respect we all have in the college basketball world for UIC and Coach Collins and what he does."

Coach Collins on playing Georgia Tech

"I thought my guys put forth the kind of effort that it takes to compete throughout the country. I think Georgia Tech is obviously a very good ball club with a lot of different weapons."

"I was just so pleased with the effort that we put forth against the Georgia Tech team."

"I'm really not into moral victories. I just hope that if the team is into moral victories, and play hard in practice and compete in the next games, then it's all worth it."

"It does show that when we compete, when we play hard, we have a chance, and that's what I'm looking for."
