MEN'S AND WOMEN'S TENNIS WEEKLY UPDATE

September 30-October 6, 2002

What's On Tap:

The tennis ladies will be off until October 18-20, when the Flames travel to Des Moines, Iowa for the Drake Invitational. The men hop back on the courts this Saturday, as they host Chicago State at 10:00 a.m.

NEWS & NOTES:

BODMER TAKES OVER TOP SPOT:

Last weekend at the Western Illinois singles tournament senior Nick Bodmer (Downers Grove, Ill./Downers Grove North) won the 50th singles match of his career, surpassing former UIC great Scott Davies to become the winningest singles player in UIC annals.

WINNINGBERG:

Newcomer James Wonneberg (Elgin, Ill./St. Charles/Elgin CC) has become quite the success story early in his UIC tenure. At Western Illinois last weekend, Wonneberg went 6-0 en route to the Flight D crown. At Marquette this past weekend, Wonneberg went 3-1 to take home the consolation championship in Flight 6. To top things off, Wonneberg teamed with Pat Zufan (Darien, Ill./Downers Grove South) to grab the Flight 3 doubles crown.

MORE BODMER:

Breaking records is one thing, while remaining on top of your game is another. Bodmer was able to stay consistently good after breaking the record by taking second-place in the top-flight of the first two tourneys. So far, the senior is 7-2 on the season.

Z WITH A W:

Zorica Malesevic (Banja Luka, Republika Srpska, Bosnia and Herzegovina) came out of the gates in a hurry for UIC. The senior won the Flight 4 title at the Bowling Green State Invitational over the weekend after beating Heidi Romer of BGSU four-and-four.

FLIGHT 2 TAKES OFF:

In Flight 2 doubles action in Ohio, Ayca Gumuscu (Ankara, Turkey/Evrensel College) and Zvezdana Malesevic (Banja Luka, Republika Srpska, Bosnia and Herzegovina) teamed up to grab the title with three-straight wins including the clincher over Dressman and Wiles of Xavier, 8-6.

NEW KIDS ON THE COURT:

The newcomers of the women's tennis team showed why had coach Shannon Tully couldn't wait to get them wearing the red and blue. In Flight 2, Corey Steven (Wichita, Kan./Kapaun Mt. Carmel) won her first match, then lost to eventual champ, Clary of Xavier, and then persevered to take third with a win over Emily Narczewska of Ind. St., 6-2, 7-6 (2). In Flight 5, Athanasia Giannoulpolou (Agrinio, Greece/Lee College) took second-place, while Molly Smith (Leawood, Kan./Notre Dame de Sion) took fourth in Flight 4.

DEROUIN BACK AT IT:

Nicole Derouin (Moline, Ill./Moline), the reigning Horizon League Player of the Year, opened up her season with her usual solid play. In doubles action, she paired with Steven to take second-place in Flight 1, losing a tough title bout with Clary and Bauer of Xavier after a pair of wins.
