

STEVE STRICKER ILLINI GOLF CLASSIC

The Steve Stricker Illini Golf Classic benefits the student-athletes participating in the Illinois men's golf program.

The University of Illinois is a world-renowned, land grant institution located in Champaign-Urbana.

Money raised will be directed towards scholarships, academic services, and programmatic needs to enhance the opportunity for Illini golfers to compete in the classroom and on the golf course.

STEVE STRICKER

- Qualified for the 2010 Ryder Cup team for the United States.
- Ranked in the top five in the world during the 2009 and 2010 seasons.
- Nine tour victories, including two in 2010—the Northern Trust Open and the John Deere Classic.
- Finished runner-up to Tiger Woods in the Inaugural FedEx Cup Playoffs in 2007 and finished the season ranked fourth in the world behind Woods, Phil Mickelson and Jim Furyk. Stricker won the first tournament in the playoff, the Barclays.
- Only player to finish inside the top 15 all four years of the FedExCup.
- Qualified for the 2009 President's Cup team, which the U.S. won 19 1/2-14 1/2. He posted nine top-10 finishes in 2007 and ranked sixth in average putts per greens in regulation.
