THE MEET

The Illinois men's track and field team heads to Lincoln, Neb., for the Big Ten Indoor Championships this weekend at Nebraska's Devaney Center Indoor Track. For the first time in history, both men and women, will compete on the same track for the conference crown against several of the nation's top-ranked squads. The meet begins Friday at 10 a.m. CT with the start of the heptathlon followed by the field events and running trials beginning at 12:20 p.m. Finals for the long jump, shot put, pole vault, 3,000m and distance medley relay will all be held on Friday. The remaining 14 finals will take place on Saturday, beginning at 10 a.m. with the remaining events of the heptathlon. Running finals start at 12:55 p.m., with the final event, the 4x400m relay, scheduled for a 5:15 p.m. start. Live results will be available throughout the meet at fightingillini.com.

The 2012 Big Ten Men's Indoor Track and Field Championships will be televised tape-delayed by the Big Ten Network on Saturday, March 10 at 12:30 p.m. CT. Tim Neverett will call the action of the championships.

ILLINOIS HISTORY AT THE BIG TEN INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

Illinois has won a total of 21 Big Ten indoor team titles, with the most recent coming in 1989. Last season, the Illini finished 7th at the indoor conference meet, scoring 57 points overall. Andrew Riley earned 16 of those points with a three-peat victory in the 60m hurdles and a third place finish in the 60m. Other returning scorers from a year ago include Stanley Azie, who was fifth in the 200m and sixth in the 60m and Cody Klein who placed sixth in the pole vault last year. Kyle Engnell and Ryan Lynn were part of the distance medley relay team which placed third and Malcolm Taylor ran in the 4x400m relay team which finished seventh at last year's conference championship.

LOADED BIG TEN FIELD

It will be one of the most competitive Big Ten Championships, as five of the 10 competing teams are currently ranked in the USTFCCA Top 25. No. 8 Minnesota holds the highest spot followed by No. 11 Indiana, No. 13 Ohio State, No. 15 Nebraska and No. 18 Penn State. Minnesota is the three-time defending conference champion.

HEAD COACH MIKE TURK ON THE 2012 BIG TEN INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS:

"I think our preparation for the conference meet has been really good. We know Andrew Riley and Stanley Azie will be strong for us, however great performances from our middle distance and with our freshman will be key to put us in a good position to score points. These guys have put forth their best efforts in practice and so I'm confident good performances will come from all the hard work. Everyone has put the work in, trained smart and are ready to run and perform this weekend."

ILLINI ATHLETES TO WATCH:

• Andrew Riley, Sprints / Hurdles (Sr., Kingston, Jamaica)

Senior Andrew Riley, a national champion and seven-time All-American, is the three-time defending champion in the 60m hurdles at the Big Ten Indoor Championships. Riley was the 2009 Big Ten Freshman of the Year and a first-team All-Big Ten honoree in 2010 and 2011 after helping the Illini to a seventh place finish with 16 individual points. He will head into the conference meet ranked first in the 60m hurdles after notching an NCAA automatic qualifying mark of 7.53 at the Tyson Invitational, which also ranks as the second-fastest time in the NCAA. For his efforts at the Invitational, Riley was named the Big Ten Athlete of the Week for the week of Feb. 13. The Kingston, Jamaica, native is undefeated in the event, winning the title at all three meets in which he has competed. He also will run the 60m dash, which he is currently tied for first with a school record and season-best time of 6.68.

• Stanley Azie, Sprints (Sr., Bolingbrook, Ill.)

Senior Stanley Azie scored in the 60m and 200m last year and is poised for solid performances in both short sprinting events at the Big Ten Indoor Championships. Azie clocked the fifth-fastest 200m time in the Big Ten at the Illini Classic with a mark of 21.73. He owns titles in the 60m and 200m this season while also ranking third in the conference in the 60m dash with a season-best time of 6.75.

HEAD COACH MIKE TURK

Mike Turk was named the head coach of the Illinois men's track and field in June 2011 following a two-year stint as interim head coach. Turk is in his seventh season overall at the University of Illinois coaching the jumps, throws and multi-events. He is well known as one of the top field event coaches in the country and is especially heralded for his development of athletes in the throwing events. Beginning with the 2011-12 season, he will also coach the women's throws events at Illinois.

Turk has accumulated over 20 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, including 18 years at the NCAA Division I level. In his career, Turk has coached All-Americans in nine different events, including the long jump, triple jump, high jump, shot put, weight throw, hammer throw, discus, decathlon and 800m.

Turk led the Illini to the program's best finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships in 23 years during the 2011 season. The Illini tied for 12th overall, marking the highest finish by an Illini squad since placing seventh in 1988. The Illini earned seven first-team All-America honors and one second-team award for their performances at nationals, including a third-place finish by the 4x100m relay, a runner-up showing by Andrew Riley in the 110m hurdles, a sixth-place finish by Stanley Azie in the 100m and an eighth-place effort in the 400m hurdles by Cody Wisslead. The Orange and Blue also boasted three Big Ten Champions, with Riley in the 110m hurdles, Wisslead in the 400m hurdles and the 4x100m relay.

During the 2011 indoor season, the Illini tied for 22nd at nationals, the highest indoor finish by an Illinois squad since 1998 (17th). Riley won his second career national title, as he raced to victory in the 60m hurdles at the NCAA Indoor Championships. Freshman Davis Fraker, who broke the school record in his first collegiate throw, was the first Illini ever to qualify for nationals in the weight throw and earned second-team All-American honors. Riley also competed a three-peat in the event by winning the 60m-hurdle title at the Big Ten Indoor Championships while Matt Bane captured the Big Ten title in the pole vault.

In his first year as interim head coach in 2010, Turk worked to change the culture of the program and made great strides from the indoor to the outdoor season, which was capped off by a national title in the 110m hurdles by Andrew Riley. Turk's squad qualified 16 athletes to the West Preliminary Round of Championship and advanced in three events to the NCAA Championships, with Riley in the 110m hurdles, junior Cody Wisslead in the 400m hurdles and the 4x100m relay. At the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, the Illini turned in their best conference finish since 2006, as they placed sixth overall. Turk also coached junior Matt McHugh into the record books again, as the Exter, N.H., native recorded school records during the indoor and outdoor seasons. McHugh smashed the school record in the weight throw with a mark of 63-2 3/4 (19.27m) and broke his own school record in the hammer throw twice, tallying a personal-best mark of 202-10 (61.83m).

During the 2009 season, Turk coached a pair of athletes who altered Illinois records that had stood for 30 years. Junior Greg Shroka placed sixth in the high jump with a personal-best height of 7 feet, 1 1/2 inches (2.17m) at the NCAA Outdoor Championships to become the first Fighting Illini outdoor All-American in the event since Gail Olson took fifth in 1979. McHugh broke Bob Carper's school record of 187-4 set three decades ago when he marked 190-4 (58.02m) in the hammer throw at the Illinois Invitational. Along with those record-setting marks, Turk also guided junior Casey Fonesbeck to a sixth-place finish in the shot put at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, where he also qualified for the NCAA Mid-east Regionals with a personal-best distance of 57-3 3/4.

Fighting Illini field event athletes also achieved a number of milestones in 2008 under Turk, as Shroka became just the third athlete in Illinois history to leap over seven feet in the high jump, marking 7-0 1/4 at the Illinois Twilight. Shroka went on to earn All-Mideast Region honors, narrowly missing a trip to the NCAA Outdoor Championships and scoring at both the Big Ten indoor and outdoor meets. In the throwing events, Fonesbeck earned a trip to regionals and scored at the Big Ten outdoor meet in the shot put with a mark of 57-1 that ranks 10th in Illinois history. In addition, multi-event athlete Andrew Zollner moved up to second on the Illini all-time list in the decathlon, with a personal-best point total of 6,776 points at the Big Ten Championships.

In 2007 under Turk, Nick Brown continued his success at the conference championships by finishing second in the long jump and fourth in the triple jump at the Big Ten Indoor Championships and third in both events at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships. Brown also competed in the long and triple jumps at the NCAA Mid-east Regional Championships. Turk helped guide Shroka to a successful rookie campaign, as he scored as a redshirt freshman at the Big Ten Championships and qualified for the regional championships. Zollner also came on strong, taking sixth in the decathlon and ninth in the heptathlon at the conference meets. In addition, Chad Gridley improved his personal-best in the discus by over 20 feet.

Turk made an immediate impact with the Fighting Illini in his first year with the program in 2006. His athletes crashed the record books, with nine all-time top-10 performances in Illini history, with the season highlighted by the outstanding achievements of Brown. Under Turk's leadership, Brown was an NCAA Championships qualifier in both the long and triple jumps during the indoor season and in the triple jump during the outdoor season, earning All-America honors in the long jump indoor and the triple jump outdoor.

Prior to coming to Illinois, Turk spent six years coaching the men's track and field and cross country program at Western Michigan University. As head coach, he led the 2003 Broncos to a top-20 ranking in the NCAA Division I Team Power Ranking (USTCA). Turk was named the 2003 Central Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year in cross country and the 2004 Central Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year in outdoor track. In six years at Western Michigan, Turk coached two All-Americans, three school record holders, seven NCAA Qualifiers, a conference record holder and All-Mid American Conference performers in the long jump, triple jump, high jump, shot put, discus, hammer and decathlon.

Prior to joining Western Michigan's program, Turk was the assistant coach for both Marquette University and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee's men's and women's track and field programs. While at Marquette, Turk coached several All-Americans and NCAA Championships qualifiers, including the school's first-ever women's indoor NCAA qualifier and first-ever men's indoor NCAA All-American. Upon his departure from Marquette, Turk's athletes had set 27 school records. While at UW-Milwaukee, Turk coached numerous NAIA All-Americans including the 1989 NAIA outdoor 800m national champion.

Turk is a USATF Level III certified coach in the jumps and throws and as an instructor. He is a part of the USATF Coaches Education Level II staff, helping co-author the USATF Level II Throws curriculum and serving as the combined events chairperson. Turk is a popular clinician and has spoken at numerous clinics throughout the country. He is also a lead instructor at the prestigious Ironwood Throws Development Camp, organized the King of the Ring Throws Clinic and has authored several articles.

As a student-athlete at Augustana College in Rock Island, Ill., Turk received his bachelor's degree in Physical Education in 1985 and competed on the varsity track and field team. He was the 1984 CCIW Conference Champion in the shot put.

Turk and his wife, Lori, reside in Mahomet and have three children, daughters Hannah and Payton and a son, Sam.

• Cody Klein, Pole Vault (So., Sparta, Ill.)

Sophomore Cody Klein, who has had a strong season thus far, looks to carry his past success into the Big Ten Championships meet. He is one of only a hand full of pole vaulters to clear a height of 17 feet this season, doing so twice so far during this season. Klein notched a PR of 17-2.75 (5.25m) at the Illini Classic. That marks is tied for eighth highest in school history and third in the Big Ten behind Nebraska's Nate Polacek (5.44m) and Ohio State's Heath Nickles (5.30m). Illinois is coming off a strong showing at last years Big Ten Championship meet with fellow sophomore Matt Bane earning Big Ten Champion honors. Klein, who finished sixth in last years meet, looks to improve.

• Jim Riddle, Distance (Sr., Naperville, Ill.)

Senior Jim Riddle is one upperclassmen in the distance area who looks for a Big Ten title in the 3,000m and 5,000m. He is one of a handful of distance runners who have set personal-bests this season, including improving his career-best 5,000m time (14:03.16) by 17 seconds at the Husky Classic a few weeks ago. His time also ranks among the Illini best, sitting at fifth fastest in school history and sixth in the conference. The 2012 NCAA cross country championships qualifier won the 3,000m title at the Illini Classic earlier this season and is joined this weekend by talented seniors Phil Pompei and Colin Mickow, along with freshman Ian Barnett.

• Ryan Lynn, Middle Distance (So., Park Ridge, Ill.)

Ryan Lynn is one of the emerging middle distance runners for the Illini, after taking three first-place finishes this year and ranking in the conference and national level as a sophomore. Lynn has set personal-bests in all four of the races he's competed in this season. He took first in the 600m at the Illini Open (1:20.51) and Mark Colligan Memorial (1:19.74) and placed first in the 800m at the Illini Classic (1:51.34). Lynn also set a college-best 800m time at the Tyson Invitational with a time of 1:49.42, a time which ranks ninth fastest in the Big Ten and 10th fastest in school history. Another Illini to watch in the middle distance area is freshman Joe Mcasey as both Mcasey and Lynn will be a part of the 4x400m relay team which sits at 10th fastest in the conference with a time of 3:16.26.

• Cody Wisslead, Hurdles (Sr., Sciota, Ill.)

Senior Cody Wisslead is another contender to score team points for the Illini in the 60m hurdles. Wisslead won the event title earlier this season at the Orange and Blue Open and set a personal-best time of 7.94 at the Tyson Invitational after he qualified for the finals. The time at the Tyson Invitational ranks fifth-fastest in the conference as well as on the national level. Wisslead will also be a part of the 4x400m relay team, which he has three times this season.
