WILLIAMS, GUTHRIE, CRUTCHER NAMED ALL-BIG TEN

Illinois had a strong showing in the 2004-05 Big Ten Conference women's basketball all-conference teams with three individuals earning accolades. Senior Angelina Williams earned first team All-Big Ten honors from the media and was a second team selection by the coaches. Williams was Illinois' first first-team selection (media or coaches) since Iveta Marcauskaite in 2002.

It was Williams' third straight year as a member of an all-conference team. She was a second team selection by the coaches and a third team pick by the media in 2002-03 as a sophomore. As a junior in 2003-04, she was a third team media pick and an honorable mention coaches pick.

Illini senior Tiffanie Guthrie and freshman Danyel Crutcher also earned recognition from the conference. Guthrie was an Honorable Mention selection by both the coaches and media, while Crutcher was named to the coaches All-Freshman team. The media does not select an All-Freshman team. Crutcher was Illinois' first All-Freshman team selection since Angelina Williams in 2002.

ANGEL HAS ALL-AMERICAN YEAR

Senior Angelina Williams had a career-year, one that ranks among the best in UI history. Here are some highlights:

- #4 on scoring chart: Williams finished her career as the fourth best scorer in Illinois history. After scoring 32 points in two Big Ten Tournament games and 16 in the Illini's WNIT game, she surpassed the 1,600 point barrier and finished with 1,639 career points.

- Clutch 'Angel': Williams hit two clutch shots in 2004-05 in the final seconds to give the Illini a win or tie. On Dec. 4 at No. 21 Louisiana Tech, Williams hit a three-pointer with 2.5 seconds left to send the game into OT, where the Illini eventually won 71-65. Then, in the Big Ten opener at Michigan, she hit an eight-foot baseline jumper with 7.5 seconds left to give Illinois a 65-63 win.

- Williams Among Big Ten Leaders: Williams finished the Big Ten season ranked among the top-15 in the conference in eight categories: scoring (3rd), steals (5th), FT pct. (6th), blocked shots (t-8th), assists (14th), FG pct. (15th), 3FG pct. (15th) and 3FG made (15th).

- Double-Trouble: Williams had the longest double digit scoring streak in the conference – 18 games – until a three-point performance (on only three shots) vs. IPFW on Feb. 22. She hit double-figures in 26 of 30 games this season.

- More 'Angel' tid-bits: Williams was the Illini's top scorer 18 times in 2004-05 and scored at least 20 points 13 times – tied for the most in the Big Ten.

- She can play 'D' too: Williams collected her 100th career blocked shot at Wisconsin on Feb. 10 and finished with 112 for her career, which is fourth all-time at Illinois. She is also sixth on the career steals list with 201. She finished the conference slate ranked fifth in the Big Ten in steals (2.25) and tied for eighth in blocked shots (1.19).

GUTHRIE 10TH ON SCORING LIST

After scoring 35 points in two Big Ten Tournament games and 16 more in the season finale at Indiana State, senior Tiffanie Guthrie upped her career scoring total to 1,382 and moved into 10th place on the Illinois career scoring list. Earlier in the season, Guthrie had a conference-long streak of 19 straight games of scoring in double-figures, but it ended Feb. 10 at Wisconsin.

WIGLEY STEPS UP

Wigley scored double figures in six consecutive games and seven of the last eight to end the season. In those eight games, she averaged 12.1 points and 6.9 rebounds while shooting .488 from the field (40-82) and .739 from the line (17-23). During that eight-game span, she recorded three double-doubles - the first three of her career - with 14 points and 10 rebs. vs. PSU on 2/13, 11 points and 10 rebs. vs. IPFW on 2/22 and 10 points and a career-high 11 rebs. vs. MSU on 3/4.

ILLINOIS & RANKED FOES

When Illinois topped No. 21/20 La Tech, 71-65 in OT on Dec. 4, it marked the 11th straight season in which the Illini have beaten a ranked opponent. The Illini also beat No. 16/17 UCLA on Dec. 19. During the 11-year streak, UI has knocked off a ranked team 25 times. Illinois finished 2004-05 2-7 against ranked foes.

STREAK BUSTERS

Illinois' win at Louisiana Tech on Dec. 4 ended a couple of impressive streaks for the Lady Techsters. La. Tech had won 161 consecutive home games against unranked teams and 30 consecutive home games overall - the second longest streak in the nation. The win by the Illini also helped bump La. Tech out of the next AP Top-25 poll, ending a streak of 220 consecutive weeks in the poll. From a winning percentage standpoint, La Tech is the toughest place to play in women's basketball. The Techsters are 413-25 (.943) all-time in Ruston.

OTHER SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

• Getting Defensive: The Illini held eight opponents to less than 30% shooting from the field, including five of the last nine.

Angelina Williams hit shots to tie or win games at the buzzer twice in 2004-05.

Illinois' average of 59.9 points allowed is the second best in school history, behind only the 1976-77 team that allowed 50.3 points per game.

• Bouncing Back: The Illini were 8-4 in games following a loss in 2004-05. They had only one three game losing streak and dropped two straight just two other times.

• Illini Win in West Lafayette: Illinois' road victory over Purdue on Feb. 3 ended a string of 12 straight losses to the Boilermakers and was the first win in West Lafayette for a UI team since Jan. 22, 1984 - a span of 18 games.

• Number 9-0-0: Illinois' win over Central Michigan on Dec. 28th was the 900th game of Head Coach Theresa Grentz's Hall of Fame Career. She is 636-284 (.691) all-time.

• Shooting Stars: UI shot .500 or better in eight games last year, something it accomplished only four times in 2003-04. The team's .608 shooting percentage vs. No. 16 UCLA marked the first time a UI team shot .600+ since 3/14/02 vs. W. Kentucky (.600).

• Stealing the Opener: Illinois set a school record with 25 steals, six by Maggie Acuna, in the season opening win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

DID YOU KNOW?

Giving up just 1,797 points during the season, (59.9 per game), the 2004-05 Illini had the best defensive year since 1976-77, the first year of basketball at Illinois.

GAME 1: Illinois 88, Ark.-Pine Bluff 38

Nov. 20, 2004 • Assembly Hall, Champaign, Ill.

Angelina Williams scored a game-high 17 points as Illinois opened the season with a 50-point drubbing of Arkansas-Pine Bluff at the Assembly Hall. Freshman Danyel Crutcher notched a double-double (11 pts., 11 reb.) in her first collegiate game. The Illini (1-0) forced 34 turnovers, including a team-record 25 steals and had five players in double digits en route to the victory. The 50-point margin of victory is Illinois' second largest home victory in school history.

GAME 2: Illinois 64, Saint Joseph's 50

Nov. 23, 2004 • Alumni Field House, Philadelphia, Pa.

Angelina Williams scored a game-high 22 points and Jeré Issenmann hit five of six three point attempts as Illinois (2-0) picked up its first road victory of the season, 64-50, against Saint Joseph's. Issenmann finished with a career-high 15 points, and freshman Danyel Crutcher pulled down a game-high 12 boards. St. Joe's tried to slow down the pace and shorten the game, but the Illini led by two at the break and pulled away in the second half.

GAME 5: Illinois 71, Louisiana Tech 65

Dec. 4, 2004 • Thomas Assembly Center, Ruston, La.

Illinois' women's basketball team won a thriller when Angelina Williams banked in a three-pointer with 2.7 seconds to play to force overtime and the Illini outscored the Lady Techsters 13-7 in the extra period to capture the victory. The Lady Techsters had won 161 straight at home over unranked opponents and 30 consecutive overall at home, which was the second longest streak in the nation. Louisiana Tech entered the game with the best home winning percentage of any team in the NCAA at .945 (413-24) and had not lost a home game against an unranked foe since Jan. 30, 1992.

GAME 9: Illinois 82, Illinois State 72

Dec. 21, 2004 • Redbird Arena, Normal, Ill.

Illinois survived a fired-up Illinois State squad and a barrage of three-point field goals to come away with a hard-fought 82-72 victory at Redbird Arena in Normal, Ill. Angelina Williams was brilliant once again, netting a game-high 27 points and also adding eight boards, five blocked shots and four assists in the win. The Orange and Blue shot .500 (32-64) from the field, including a red-hot .643 (18-28) in the second half. They held a double-digit rebounding advantage (43-29, +14) and blocked eight shots on the night.

GAME 10: Illinois 82, Central Michigan 44

Dec. 28, 2004 • Assembly Hall, Champaign, Ill.

Illinois' women's basketball team jumped out to a 10-2 lead and was never seriously threatened in an 82-44 win over Central Michigan in front of 1,345 fans at the Assembly Hall. The game, which saw every Illinois player who played score, marked head coach Theresa Grentz's 900th career game on the sidelines. Seniors Tiffanie Guthrie and Angelina Williams each scored 14 points to lead four players in double figures in the Fighting Illini's most balanced scoring effort of the season.

GAME 11: Illinois 65, Michigan 63

Dec. 30, 2004 • Crisler Arena, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Angelina Williams hit an eight-foot baseline jumper with 7.5 seconds to give Illinois the victory in its Big Ten opener at Crisler Arena. Tabitha Pool's three-point attempt at the buzzer was no good and the Illini earned the road win. Williams led the Fighting Illini with 29 points and Maggie Acuna scored a career-high 10 points on 5-of-6 shooting. Illinois led 41-27 at the break, but MU crept back into the game and finally drew even when Jessica Sterling hit a three-pointer with 15 seconds remaining to knot the score at 63. After an Illinois timeout, Williams hit the game-winner from the baseline to move the Illini to 9-2, 1-0.

GAME 12: No. 18/19 Iowa 72, Illinois 58

Jan 2, 2005 • Assembly Hall, Champaign, Ill.

Illinois fell 72-58 to No. 18/19 Iowa in front of 1,843 fans at Assembly Hall, snapping a five-game winning streak for the Fighting Illini. An 8-5 Illinois run to start the second half, six of which came from Angelina Williams, closed the gap to 46-42, but Jaime Cavey's 3-point play with 15:28 to go started Iowa's decisive run and Iowa's Crystal Smith held Williams scoreless the rest of the way. Tiffanie Guthrie led Illinois with 18 points. Erin Wigley scored 14 and Williams had 12.

GAME 13: Illinois 73, Northwestern 65

Jan. 9, 2005 • Welsh-Ryan Area, Evanston, Ill.

Tiffanie Guthrie poured in a season-high 23 points and Angelina Williams had 22 as Illinois improved to 6-1 on the road with a 73-65 win at Northwestern. It was Illinois' 10th consecutive victory over Northwestern and its seventh straight win at Welsh-Ryan Arena. The 6-1 road start is the best in school history. Illinois led by 15 early in the second half, but the Wildcats went on a 20-4 run to take a brief 43-42 lead midway through the half. The Illini responded, however, with a 9-0 run of their own - six of which came from Williams - to regain control of the game.

GAME 14: Penn State 76, Illinois 41

Jan. 13, 2005 • Bryce Jordan Arena, State College, Pa.

Illinois women's basketball team lost to Penn State tonight, 76-41 in front of 7,229 fans in State College, Pa. Penn State used a 17-0 run over a six minute span near the end of the first half to break open what was a 16-16 tie. The Illini went 0-for-7 over that same amount of time and trailed 33-20 at halftime, which was the closest they would get for the remainder of the game. Angelina Williams was Illinois' leading scorer with 17 points.

GAME 27: Illinois 65, Michigan 56

Feb. 27, 2005 • Assembly Hall, Champaign, Ill.

The Illinois women's basketball team sent its seniors out in style with a 65-56 victory over Michigan in front of 2,224 fans at Assembly Hall. It was the last regular season game at home for Illinois' three seniors, Tiffanie Guthrie, Jeré Isenmann and Angelina Williams. Guthrie notched her ninth career double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds and moved into 12th on the UI all-time scoring list with 1,331 points, passing current Michigan assistant coach Lynette Robinson. Williams finished her career with eight points, five assists, three blocked shots and two steals, while Isenmann hit two free throws in her regular season finale to finish with two points and two rebounds. The Illini came out strong, opening up a 17-8 lead midway through the first half thanks in large part to the hot shooting of junior guard Janelle Hughes. Hughes would connect on her first five shots and finish the half 5-of-7 from the field with 12 points and four rebounds as the Illini pushed the lead to 34-19 at the break.

GAME 29: #7/7 Michigan St. 61, Illinois 50

March 4, 2005 • Consecro Fieldhouse, Indianapolis, Ind.

Illinois' women's basketball team dropped a heartbreaker, 61-50 in overtime to second-seeded and eighth-ranked Michigan State in the quarterfinals of the Big Ten Tournament in a game that was a back-and-forth battle that featured eight lead changes and 14 ties. The Illini had a chance to win the game at the end of regulation, holding possession of the ball for the final minute of the game and getting off two shots. Tiffanie Guthrie, who had 10 rebounds-all offensive, pulled down a rebound with 36 seconds left and with 18.5 seconds the Spartans fouled the Illini which meant the shot clock would be turned off and the Orange and Blue would get the ball with an opportunity for the victory, but Guthrie's six-footer in traffic was no good and the game went to overtime tied at 50. Michigan State controlled the overtime period, holding the Illini scoreless. Three Fighting Illini had double-digit rebounds, led by Audrey Tabon's career-high 12. Erin Wigley posted a double-double with 10 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. It was her third double-double in the last seven games and the third of her career. Maggie Acuna added seven rebounds and five assists. Guthrie collected her second consecutive double-double and the 11th of her career after scoring 20 points to go along with her 10 rebounds.

GAME 30: Indiana State 72, Illinois 60

March 16, 2005 • Hulman Center, Terre Haute, Ind.

Illinois opened a 12-point lead in the first half and were tied at halftime, but the Sycamores rallied in the second half for the win. Illinois closed its season 17-13 while Indiana State moved to 23-8 on the year. Tiffanie Guthrie and Angelina Williams each had 16 points for the Fighting Illini and Guthrie added 11 rebounds for her fourth consecutive double-double. Erin Wigley continued her strong late season play and added her sixth straight double-digit scoring performance with 15 points. Williams scored 14 first half points as the Illini jumped out to an early 17-5 lead, but Indiana State outscored the Fighting Illini 26-14 over the final 13:55 of the half to knot the score at the break. The momentum of the game changed when Williams picked up her fourth foul with 13:23 and the Illini down just three. With Williams out, the Sycamores pushed their lead to eight before Williams re-entered near the six-minute mark. From that point on, the closest the Orange and Blue would get was six-points. The Fighting Illini pounded the Sycamores on the glass, outrebounding them 44-27, but the Illini committed 20 turnovers to Indiana State's nine and ISU connected on nine three-pointers.
