JUST FOR KICKS

Illinois is...

...9-7-1 in the NCAA Tournament

...8-5-1 in NCAA Tournament under Rayfield

...12-0-1 when scoring first

TOURNAMENT TIDBITS

- Illinois is making its third Round of 16 appearance in the last five years, all coming during Rayfield's tenure.
- The Illini have faced an ACC team twice in the postseason, playing Florida State in 2005 and 2006. The 2005 meeting occurred in the second round, while the 2006 matchup also was in the Round of 16.
- The Big Ten has two representatives remaining in the NCAA Tournament. Along with the Illini, the Minnesota Golden Gophers made the Round of 16 and will play Notre Dame.

A FAMILIAR PLACE

Although Illinois has never played North Carolina, one Illini is no stranger to Chapel Hill. Head coach Janet Rayfield led the Tar Heels to their first national title in 1982. It marks her first return trip to her alma mater as a head coach since 1994, when she was at the helm of the Arkansas Razorbacks.

PLENTY OF NOTHING

In her first year as a starter in goal, Alexandra Kapicka has collected nine shutouts, the fourth most in a single season in school history. She has allowed just one goal through the last five matches, had a career-high 11 saves against Missouri and also made a stop on the Tigers' final penalty kick to send Illinois to the NCAA Round of 16. The Arlington Heights, Ill., native is on track to have one of the best goals against averages in program history. Kapicka currently has a 0.71 GAA, which is the second best by an Illini keeper in a single season and also ranks second among the Big Ten keepers this year.

A SECOND HELPING FOR HILBRANDS

In her second year in the Orange and Blue, forward Jordan Hilbrands notched her first two career goals, both of which were game-winners. Her first goal came in Illinois 1-0 victory over Michigan. Last weekend, the Bexley, Ohio, native notched her second game-winner in the second overtime against Memphis, propelling the Illini to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

NWEKE ON HER WAY

Junior forward Chichi Nweke played a key role in the attack over the weekend. Not only did Nweke assist on the game-winning goal in Illinois' 1-0 win over Memphis, but also she tallied her team-leading seventh goal of the season against Missouri. The goal gave the Illini a 1-0 lead in the 56th minute before the Orange and Blue eventually defeated the Tigers in PKs.

OK WITH OT

Illinois had only played two overtime games the entire year and hadn't played extra time since Aug. 31 until hitting the postseason. All three of the Illini's postseason matches have reached double overtime, with two going the full 110 minutes before the penalty kick shootout. The Orange and Blue have shown persistence throughout the last 323 minutes of play, remaining unbeaten and giving up just one goal during the span.

ROLE PLAYERS

When Illinois went to a penalty kick shootout against Missouri, two Illini that hadn't played a minute all weekend stepped in to fulfill the important role of taking a PK. Sophomore midfielder Krystin Miller nailed the first PK for the Orange and Blue, while sophomore forward Christina Sahly drilled the third one en route to Illinois' 4-3 win.

BIG TIME BIG TEN

Illinois had three representatives named to this year's All-Big Ten teams. Senior defender Emily Zurrer earned first-team accolades for the third consecutive year. Junior midfielder Jackie Santacaterina and sophomore defender Danielle Kot each earned second-team honors. Santacaterina's award was the second in a row for her, while Kot was named a Big Ten All-Freshman last season. Additionally, sophomore midfielder Krystin Miller earned Illinois' Big Ten Sportsmanship Award.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

Illinois' defense has been solid throughout the season, giving up just 16 goals to its opponents which is the second fewest in the Big Ten. The Orange and Blue's 0.71 GAA also ranks second in the conference. The Illini D hasn't given up more than one goal in 15 of the last 16 matches.

NORTH CAROLINA AT A GLANCE

The Tar Heels earned a No. 1 seed for the NCAA Tournament. UNC's only loss this season came at the hands of top-ranked Notre Dame. The Tar Heels are led by Casey Nogueira with 22 goals and seven assists on the season. Goalkeepers Anna Rodenbough and Ashlyn Harris have split the majority of time between the posts, giving up just 14 goals and combining for 14 shutouts.

MAKING IT LOOK EZ

Senior defender Emily Zurrer earned team of the week honors from Soccer Buzz and Top Drawer Soccer after her performance in Illinois' win against Purdue. She tied her career high with her fourth goal of the season against the Boilermakers. It also was Zurrer's third game-winner of the season, the most in her career. Her six career game-winning goals are tied for sixth in school history.

DESJARLAIS DELIVERS

Senior midfielder Marti Desjarlais has delivered her best season yet for the Orange and Blue. In addition to assisting on the game-winning goal against Purdue, Desjarlais also assisted on the game-winner against Iowa State earlier in the season. The Pewaukee, Wis., native has tallied three goals on the season to collect a career-high eight points.

RPI UPDATE

Illinois currently is ranked 27th in the RPI. The Illini are the third highest among Big Ten teams, behind Penn State (12) and Minnesota (22).

FINISHING STRONG

Throughout history of the Illinois soccer program, the Illini have constantly finished the regular season on a high note. Illinois has won each of its regular-season finales since 2000, holding an impressive 11-1 record when concluding the season. On top of that, the Orange and Blue are a perfect 12-0 when finishing the regular season at home.

THAT WAS KNOTS

Sophomore forward Laura Knutson became the 10th different Illini to score this season when she tallied her first goal of the year against Ohio State. Knutson has led Illinois in assists the majority of the season and is currently tops with five.

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

Illinois owns the advantage on virtually every stat category over its opponents this season. The Illini have out-scored their opponents 11-3 in the first half and own a 22-15 goal advantage overall. The Orange and Blue have out-cornered opponents, 102-73, and out-shot opponents, 258-200, with a 103-79 on frame advantage.

Women's Professional Soccer draft. Masar, an Urbana native, is the first Illini soccer player in history to be drafted. She will reunite with former associate head coach Marcia McDermott who is the General Manager of the Red Stars.

MYKINES MAKING MARKS

Freshman forward Marissa Mykines added her second goal of the season and the first game-winner of her career against Michigan State. It also marked the first Big Ten goal of her career.

ZURRER MAKES THE CUT

Senior defender Emily Zurrer was selected as a candidate for the Lowe's Senior CLASS award, making her the second Illini in history to receive recognition, along with former forward Ella Masar. Zurrer is the only Big Ten representative among the 30 seniors chosen from across the country for their abilities not only on the field, but in the classroom and community as well.

AWESOME ALVIS

Senior defender Jamie Alvis raked in a pair of honors after her outstanding play in Illinois' 2-1 win over Missouri. Alvis was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week and also earned a spot on Soccer America's Team of the Week, marking her first career weekly honors. The Cypress, Calif., native played the entire match and was crucial to Illinois' shutting out Missouri through the first half, not allowing a shot on goal.

ZURRER MAKES HERSELF AT HOME

Senior defender Emily Zurrer wasted no time making herself at home as she notched the game-winning goal in Illinois 1-0 win over Dayton in her first game since returning from the Olympics in Beijing. Zurrer earned Soccer America Team of the Week honors for heading in the golden goal in the championship game of the Illini Challenge Cup.

ALUMNI UPDATE

Members of last year's senior class have taken their talents to the international level this fall. Former defender Mary Therese McDonnell earned her first international cap as a member of the Irish National Team and also saw time against the U.S. National Team in September, as the Irish fell to the Americans, 1-0, at Giants Stadium in New York. In addition, former forward Ella Masar and goalkeeper Lindsey Carstens have been training in Norway.

HEAD COACH JANET

RAYFIELD
SEVENTH SEASON
93-51-12

Now entering her seventh season as head coach of the Fighting Illini, Janet Rayfield has established Illinois as one of the top soccer programs in the country. Year after year, her Illinois teams have broken school records and set new benchmarks for success. Most recently, Rayfield led Illinois to its fifth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2007, while a school-record seven Illini garnered All-Big Ten honors. In addition, the Orange and Blue dominated their opponents at home during the 2007 season, setting a Big Ten record with seven consecutive shutouts at the Illinois Soccer and Track Stadium, a streak the 2008 squad will look to continue.

Rayfield guided the 2006 squad to a school record-tying 16 wins, a top-10 ranking, a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and a berth in the Round of 16. That Illini team also became the first in the history of the Big Ten to boast the conference Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year and the Freshman of the Year in Ella Masar (offensive), Emily Zurrer (co-defensive) and Chichi Nweke (freshman). In addition, Masar was named a second-team All-America selection by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America, while Zurrer was a third-team selection by the NSCAA.

The 2005 season was no different, despite entering the season with more question marks than in previous years. The Illini wasted no time answering those doubts, defeating No. 17 Nebraska 1-0 early in the season. The Orange and Blue proceeded to extend its streak of first-round Big Ten Tournament wins to seven and qualify for its third-straight NCAA Tournament and fifth in the last six years. Illinois defeated No. 20 Florida in the first round on the Gators' home field, advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight year.

After the season, senior defender Christen Karniski became the most decorated Illini in school history, earning recognition as the Big Ten co-Defensive Player of the Year, second team All-American by the NSCAA and Soccer Buzz, and first team Scholar All-America by NSCAA among her 10 postseason awards.

The Illini were just as successful in 2004 as Rayfield led her team to their best postseason record in school history, advancing to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. The Illini finished the season with a record of 4-0 against the always-powerful Big 12 conference, which included a 2-1 come-from-behind upset over ninth-seeded Texas A&M in the second round of the NCAA tournament. The squad also set a school record for consecutive wins (7), with Tara Hurless earning All-America status for the second-straight year.

In 2003, Rayfield led the Illini to the best season in the program's history with a 16-4-2 record, a top-10 national ranking, the program's first Big Ten Tournament title and a top-16 seed in the NCAA Tournament. In addition, the 2003 Illini featured two All-Americans in goalkeeper Leisha Alcia and forward Tara Hurless, a first for Illinois. For her efforts, Rayfield was named Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year by Soccer Buzz.

Rayfield not only has a wealth of soccer experience but also a fierce determination to succeed and an immense amount of respect from her peers. Rayfield served as President of the NSCAA, an organization that includes over 16,000 members, in 2003-04. In addition, she continues to assist at the youth national team level whenever possible.
