THE MEET

The Illinois women's track and field team heads to Lincoln, Neb., for the Big Ten Indoor Championships this weekend at Nebraska's Devaney Center Indoor Track from Feb. 24-25. The meet kicks off Friday at 10:50 a.m. CT with the start of the pentathlon followed by the running trials, which are set to begin at 12:00 p.m. Finals of the pentathlon, shot put, pole vault, long jump, 3,000m and distance medley relay will all take place on Friday afternoon. Meet action resumes at 11:00 a.m. CT on Saturday for the high jump, with running finals scheduled to begin at 12:30 p.m. The final event of the meet, the 4x400m relay, is scheduled to start at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday. Live results will be available throughout the meet and linked on fightingillini.com

The 2012 Big Ten Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships will be televised tape-delayed by the Big Ten Network on Saturday, March 10 at 12:30 p.m. CT. Tim Neverett will call the action of the championships.

ILLINOIS HISTORY AT THE BIG TEN INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Fighting Illini have won a total of five Big Ten indoor team titles since the women's championships began in 1982, with the most recent coming in 1996. Illinois has also won a total of 25 individual indoor titles in field events, tied for most in the Big Ten. They also have earned the second-most relay crowns (10) and third-most track titles (36), giving them the second-most total individual titles (71) in the conference.

Illinois finished seventh at the 2011 Big Ten Indoor Championships with 61 points, as Ohio State took home the team title with 122.5 points. Ashley Kelly won her first Big Ten title in the 400m while the Illini also scored points with a runner-up finish by Samantha Murphy in the 800m, a fourth-place finish by Kelly in the 200m and also by the distance medley relay squad. The 4x400m relay squad of Ryisha Boyd, Kelly, Marissa Golliday and Latoya Griffith, who are all back this season, posted a fourth-place finish in the event. Freshman Stephanie Richartz also scored points for the Orange and Blue, placing fifth in the pole vault.

HEAD COACH TONJA BUFORD-BAILEY ON THE BIG TEN INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

"We're about as prepared as we can be going into this weekend. The goal is to score more points than we did last year and finish higher and get some Big Ten championships out of it. We need to count on our sprinters to step up because they are definitely the strong area. For the most part, everyone is running fast and we've set a lot of personal-bests or season-bests."

ILLINI ATHLETES TO WATCH:

- Ashley Kelly, Sprints (Sr., Chicago, Ill.)

Senior Ashley Kelly looks to defend her Big Ten title in the 400m set at last year's conference championship. The All-American holds four top-10 times in the Big Ten, including being a part of the fastest 4x400m relay team this season, seventh in the 200m, ninth in the 400m and 10th in the 60m.

- Ashley Spencer, Sprints/ Hurdles (Fr., Indianapolis, In.)

Freshman Ashley Spencer will look to score at the Big Ten meet after a great start to her career at Illinois. Spencer comes in with the fastest time for the Illini in both the 200m and 400m running a 23.74 and 53.45 respectively. Spencer broke the Illinois school record in the 400m and the time is the fastest in the Big Ten. She is also ranked third in the 200m in the conference.

HEAD COACH TONJA BUFORD-BAILEY

Tonja Buford-Bailey, one of the greatest athletes in Illinois and Big Ten women's track and field history, is in her fourth season as head women's track and field coach and her ninth year overall on the Illinois coaching staff.

During the 2011 track season, the Illini women collected nine total All-America distinctions and eight All-Big Ten selections, including an individual Big Ten indoor title in the 400m (Ashley Kelly), while also breaking four school records (indoor 400m, 10,000m and indoor and outdoor pole vault) and a Drake Relays record (Stephanie Morgan - 1,500m). In her third season at the helm, Buford-Bailey saw the Illini score points at both the indoor and outdoor NCAA Championships and led the Orange and Blue to a fourth-place finish at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships. Tamika Robinson (60m hurdles) and Kelly (outdoor 400m) each earned first-team All-America honors after placing in the top eight at their respective national meets.

During the 2010 season, Buford-Bailey continued her role as head women's track and field coach while also assisting the Illinois men's squad as the sprints and hurdles coach. She coached hurdler Andrew Riley to the NCAA title in the 110m hurdles along with guiding Tamika Robinson to All-America honors in the 100m hurdles at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. Illinois also received a national title in the indoor 3,000m and four total Big Ten titles from Angela Bizzarri and All-America honors in the shot put at both national meets from Aja Evans with Buford-Bailey at the helm. In total, Buford-Bailey has coached nine individual Big Ten champions.

In her first season as head coach, Buford-Bailey was honored as the USTFCCA Head Coach of the Year for the Midwest Region, after directing the Fighting Illini to a 12th-place finish at the NCAA Championships, the program's best team finish since tying for 10th in 2002, and a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Midwest Regional Championships, the best in school history.

Under the guidance of Buford-Bailey in 2009, Illinois had a national champion in Angela Bizzarri (5,000m), two All-Americans in Deserea Brown (400m hurdles) and Aja Evans (shot put), and a total of eight athletes qualify for the NCAA Outdoor Championships. She also helped Illinois athletes win a total of four titles at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, coaching Brown to the 400m hurdles title, Melissa Bates to the 400m title and the 4x400m relay to a runner-up finish. Bates, who was one of four Illini in the 400m final at the Outdoor Big Ten Championships, saw drastic improvement in her first season as a 400m runner, improving her time by nearly four seconds to 53.39 and qualifying for the NCAA Outdoor Championships for the first time.

Buford-Bailey was promoted to succeed her former coach, the legendary Gary Winckler, who retired following the 2008 season. Winckler spent 23 seasons as head women's track and field coach, winning a total of 11 Big Ten team titles and coaching Illini athletes to a total of 321 All-America accolades. Buford-Bailey began to take over head coaching responsibilities during the 2008 season, when she served as associate head coach. She joined the Illinois staff as an assistant in 2004 and is certified as a USATF Level II coach in the sprints and hurdles.

The summer of 2007 was an eventful one for Buford-Bailey, as she was selected to coach the female sprinters and hurdles at the Pan American Junior meet held in Sao Paulo, Brazil. Buford-Bailey's squad racked up nine of the 23 medals needed to win the team title (six gold, one silver, two bronze).

In her first season as a coach in 2004, Buford-Bailey made an immediate impact as the Illini boasted their first 400m hurdles Big Ten champion in seven years, took home the 4x400m Big Ten title for the first time since 1996 and finished third at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships.

During the 2005 season, Buford-Bailey's runners continued to have success on the track with the Illinois women finishing second at the Big Ten Indoor Championships in Ann Arbor, Mich. That same year Illinois won its second-straight 4x400m conference title on the way to winning the 2005 Big Ten Outdoor Championships. The next season, Waller became the 2006 Big Ten champion in the 60m hurdles.

During her career at Illinois, Buford-Bailey was a 10-time All-America selection and won a Big Ten-record 25 individual and team titles. She finished as a four-time Big Ten Athlete of the Year award winner and was named Athlete of the Championships three times. Buford-Bailey also received the prestigious University of Illinois Dike Eddleman Female Athlete of the Year award in 1992 and 1993. In 1992, she won the NCAA 400-meter hurdles outdoor title, and received a selection to the UI All-Decade team. Buford-Bailey became the first Illini female athlete to make the U.S. Olympic team.

Buford-Bailey was a three-time Olympian, earning a bronze medal in the 400m hurdles at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta to become the first female Illini athlete to win an Olympic medal. She also made the Olympic teams in 1992 and 2000. In addition, Buford-Bailey was the first woman in history to break the 53-second mark in the 400m hurdles, doing so on two occasions. She closed out the 1995 season ranked second in the world and her mark of 52.62 seconds in the 400m hurdles still remains third on the all-time world list.

Buford-Bailey is married to former NFL wide receiver Victor Bailey. The two wed in October 1995 and have one son, Victor Jr. (13), and a daughter, Victoria (8).

• Stephanie Richartz, Pole Vault (So., Island Lake, Ill.)

Sophomore Stephanie Richartz has had an incredible indoor season, setting a new school record in every meet she's competed in. She currently ranks second in the Big Ten with a vault of 13'10" (4.22m) and is tied for 13th in the country. Richartz looks to keep her streak of breaking school records alive as well as earning a Big Ten title in the conference meet this weekend.

• Ryisha Boyd, Sprints (Sr., Brick, N.J.)

Senior Ryisha Boyd is another contender to score team points for the Illini in the 600m. Boyd has won the event title three times earlier this season at the Illini Classic, Mark Colligan Memorial, and Orange and Blue Open. She set a personal record at the Orange and Blue Open with a time of 1:30.88 and looks to better that at the Big Ten Championships. Her time currently ranks second best in the Big Ten.

• Jesica Ejesieme, Sprints (So., Rowlett, Tx.)

Sophomore Jesica Ejesieme looks to compete in her first Big Ten Championships after transferring from the University of Oklahoma. She is tied for the fastest time in the 60m hurdles and has the fourth fastest time for the Illini in the 400m. Her 60m hurdle time of 8.32 is currently tied for fourth fastest in the Big Ten.

• 4x400m Relay

An event they have traditionally been very successful in, the Illini are hoping for a strong showing in the 4x400m relay. Having won four different titles throughout the season, the Orange and Blue look to improve upon last year's indoor Big Ten Championship fourth place finish. The team ran their fastest time this season at the Tyson Invitational ranking third in school history with a time of 3:36.20. The 4x400 relay will be the final event run at the championships and is slated to take place at 5:00 p.m. CT.

ILLINI MOVE INTO THE TOP 10 IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Several Illini have posted performances ranking among the top 10 in school history this season. Sophomore Stephanie Richartz has set a new school record every time she has competed. She started with a jump of 13-1 1/2(4.0m) at the Illini Open and continued to improve to her current jump of 13-10 (4.22m) which she set at the Tyson Invitational. Freshman Ashley Spencer also has a spot among the top 10 in school history. Spencer set a new school record in the 400m with a time of 53.45 followed by senior Ashley Kelly with a time of 53.59. With her 200m time of 23.80, Spencer ranks fifth. Senior Ryisha Boyd has improved her 600m time this season enough to second fastest on the top-10 list with a time of 1:30.88. The 4x400 relay looks to improve their time of 3:36.20, which is tied for third best in school history. The distance crew also has a few Illini to crack the record list. Sophomore Katie Porada is ranked eighth in the mile with a time of 4:46.33 and junior Courtney Yaeger is ranked sixth in the 5,000m with a time of 16:50.49. In the 60m hurdles, sophomores Breeana Coleman and Jesica Ejesieme are tied for the ninth fastest on the list with times of 8.32. Lastly, Kendall McCaugherty, who ranks seventh in the top-10 looks to improve upon her jump of 5-9 1/4(1.76m).
