TRANSFERABLE

Since 1993, when the NCAA rules changed to allow players immediate eligibility at the I-AA level, Illinois State has had 42 players transfer from I-A schools. ISU's I-A transfers on this year's roster include: Adam Blankenship (DL, Nebraska); Pierre Jackson (WR, Minnesota); Brandon Joyce (OL, Indiana); Dan Passarelli (WR, Northern Illinois); Pierre Rembert (RB, Michigan); Cameron Siskowic (LB, Washington St.) and James Stevenson III (DL, Illinois).

NOTABLE NEWCOMERS

Since the Gateway began recognizing an all-newcomer team in 1994, over 42 Redbirds have been cited for achievement in their first season. In 2005, running back Pierre Rembert and defensive back Tom Nelson added their names to the list.

GIMMIE A I-A

When the Redbirds travel to Kansas State on Sept. 2, it will be the 12th straight season in which Illinois State has played a Division I-A opponent. The last time the 'Birds didn't schedule a I-A game was in 1994. It will also mark ISU's second straight season facing a team from the Big 12, after the 'Birds played at Iowa State in 2005.

ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST

With a 61-35 dismantling of then No. 1 Southern Illinois in Carbondale and a 38-3 rout of then No. 13 Northern Iowa in Hancock Stadium, the Redbirds have beaten at least one ranked foe in eight of the last nine seasons.

DRONE IN THE ZONE

Quarterback Luke Drone was locked in during the 2005 season and his numbers were loaded. Drone ended the season with 2,930 yards passing, the second highest total in school history, while completing a school record 64.5 percent of his passes.

MR. ROBINSON'S NEIGHBORHOOD

Laurént Robnison has laid claim to his neighborhood - the ISU record books. Robnison already owns the school record for catches in a game (14), catches in a season (86), receiving yards in a game (292) and receiving yards in a season (1,465). The records that are in his sights for 2006 are: catches in a career (needs 26), receiving yards in a career (needs 431), touchdown receptions (needs one) and 100-yard games in a career (needs four).

MEN OF HONOR

The Redbird football team concluded the spring semester with 35 players on the AFNI Athletics Honor Roll, a new team record.. The Redbirds also compiled a 2.68 grade point average for the semester, which was the highest team GPA by the football team in over a decade.

THE SIKO KID LOOKS FOR THE FIFTH

When Brent Hawkins claimed the 2005 Gateway Defensive Player of the Year award, it marked the fourth straight by a Redbird player and tied the league record for consecutive league MVPs with Northern Iowa (1991-94). Cameron Siskowic hopes to extend that ISU streak. The senior linebacker was a finalist for the 2005 Buck Buchanan Award and led the conference in tackles with 132 and averaged 12 tackles per game.

26 AND COUNTING

Illinois State's Laurént Robnison enters the season with at least one catch in 26 straight games. The senior wide receiver needs four more games with a catch to claim the school mark of 29 by Vito Golson.

40 DAYS AND 40 NIGHTS

Actually it is a little less than 67 days -- that's how many straight 24-hour days a person would have to work to equal the 1,595 community service hours that the Illinois State football team put in last academic year. Typically, the goal for the entire athletic department is 1,000, but the Redbird gridders put in 1,595 hours themselves.

GETTING OFFENSIVE

For the second time in three seasons, ISU led the Gateway Conference in total offense. In addition to leading the league in offensive production, the Redbirds also set the school standard for total offense with 477.5 yards per game and passing offense with 268.7 yards per contest.

THIRTY SOMETHING

The Redbirds scored 30 or more points in seven of the 11 games last season, en route to being the highest scoring team in the conference and in school history with 39.2 points per game. The Redbirds' average point total also ranked No. 5 nationally in points per game.
