LAST TIME OUT: JACKRABBITS ELIMINATE ISU FROM WNIT

Senior guard Megan McCracken had a team-high 15 points on four three-pointers, but Illinois State's postseason journey ended with a 61-48 setback to host South Dakota State in the second round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) in front of a school-record 5,719 fans at Frost Arena on March 17, 2007. The Redbirds' season ends with a 22-11 overall record, while the Jackrabbits advance to the WNIT round of 16. Kristi Cirone joined McCracken in double figures with 11 points, while Kenyatta Shelton narrowly missed her second consecutive double-double with nine points to go along with eight rebounds. South Dakota State was led by senior Megan Vogel's 23 points, five rebounds and four assists. Andrea Verdegan also chipped in 10 points for the Jackrabbits. South Dakota State built as large as a nine-point lead in the first half before seeing the Redbirds finish the stanza on a 22-16 run over the final 12 minutes of the stanza to pull within 33-30 at halftime. The Jackrabbits started the second half on a 9-2 run, and after building a double-digit lead, never allowed the Redbirds to get any closer than six points for the remainder of the game.

WNIT EXPANDS FIELD

For the first time, each of the nation's 31 conferences were represented in the WNIT. The tournament expanded to 48 teams this year to accommodate an automatic berth for each of the conferences. The eight-team addition was made to accommodate a specific goal: The WNIT wants to give more playing opportunities to teams who win their regular-season conference title but don't capture their conference tournament and the ensuing NCAA Tournament automatic bid. In the past, some of those teams did not have any chance to play in the postseason, but now the WNIT holds an extra eight spots for them.

ISU ALL-TIME IN THE WNIT

Illinois State has appeared in five recognized WNIT Postseason Tournaments; the Redbirds have a 4-10 all-time record in the tournament. ISU's most successful finish was in the 1987-88 season, when the `Birds finished fourth overall in the field. The Redbirds also appeared in the WNIT following the 1983-84, 1989-90 and 1995-96 campaigns.

THE MARATHON AT REDBIRD ARENA

Illinois State needed three overtimes to outlast Conference USA Tournament runner-up Rice in the WNIT first round on March 15, 2007, and made history in the process. Only two Valley teams have played in games lasting longer than ISU's 3-OT win over Rice: Indiana State 107, Missouri State 101 (4-ot) at Springfield, Jan. 28, 1989, and Drake 112, UNI 106 (4-ot) Jan. 23, 1993 in Des Moines.

BLANKING THE OWLS IN THIRD EXTRA PERIOD

After Illinois State and Rice played to a 8-8 tie through the first two overtimes in the WNIT first-round, the Redbirds put the clamps down in the third extra period, outscoring the Owls, 10-0, to run away with the ten-point (71-61) win in the only triple overtime game in school history.

EARLY KRICK PRESENCE LEADS TO REDBIRD VICTORIES

Freshman guard Maggie Krick hasn't scored in double figures since February 2, but her offensive presence early in games continues to be a springboard for the Redbirds. Illinois State was 8-1 when Krick provided the Redbirds' first points of a contest, with its only loss coming in the State Farm MVC semifinals against sixth-seeded Creighton.

ALL-TIME IN THE POSTSEASON

Illinois State has made nine overall appearances in the postseason, including NCAA at-large berths in each the 1982-93, 1984-85, 1988-89 and 2004-05 campaigns.

SHELTON QUICK TO DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Freshman Kenyatta Shelton's sixth double-double of the season came in just 22 minutes on the court against Rice in the first round of the WNIT. Only Redbird legend Cathy Boswell - a USA Olympian whose jersey hangs above Doug Collins Court at Redbird Arena - had more double-doubles as a freshman. Boswell had 15 of her 48 career double-doubles as a freshman.

PINGETON IN THE POSTSEASON

Two of head coach Robin Pingeton's four Redbird teams have made postseason appearances, after the 2004-05 team advanced to the NCAA Tournament. In her three years at Iowa State, where she served as an assistant and associate head coach, the Cyclones made two postseason appearances, including the 2000-01 squad that advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. In the eight seasons (1992-2000) at her alma mater St. Ambrose, Pingeton led the Bees to five NAIA National Tournaments, including Elite Eight berths in the 1995-96 and 1999-2000 campaigns.

2006-07 Redbird Basketball Game Notes

CIRONE NAMED VALLEY PLAYER OF THE YEAR

After leading the Redbirds to their first 20-win season since the 1989-90 campaign, Illinois State sophomore point guard Kristi Cirone was named the Jackie Stiles Player of the Year by the Missouri Valley Conference's head coaches and media representatives, the league office announced Thursday. Cirone is just the third player in Redbird history to claim the annual honor. Susan Wellman captured Player of the Year accolades following the 1987-88 season, and Pam Tanner claimed the award for the 1988-89 campaign. The award caps off an award-filled week for Cirone, as she was named to the Valley's First-Team, the scholar-athlete second team, and also received an all-defensive team nod. The Chicago native is just the fourth sophomore in league (Gateway and MVC) history to claim the Valley's top individual honor.

CIRONE, SHELTON AND LEWIS EARN ALL-VALLEY NODS

For just the fourth time in program history, Illinois State's women's basketball team had three players elected to the four All-Missouri Valley Conference teams. Sophomore guard Kristi Cirone added to her already impressive list of accolades by being named to the All-Valley first-team, along with garnering an all-defensive team nod; Kenyatta Shelton was named to the league's all-freshman team and sophomore Nicolle Lewis was an all-MVC honorable mention selection.

CIRONE, LEWIS NAMED SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

After leading the Redbirds to the second seed in this week's 2007 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference women's basketball tournament, Illinois State's sophomore tandem of Kristi Cirone and Nicolle Lewis garnered recognition by the conference office as scholar-athlete honorees. Cirone was named to the second-team, while Lewis was an honorable mention scholar-athlete selection.

20 WINS ... IT'S BEEN A WHILE

Illinois State stretched its season win total to 20 with its victory at Creighton on March 3. The last time Illinois State collected at least 20 wins in a single season was in the 1989-90 campaign, when it went 21-11 overall (14-4 Gateway), captured a regular season conference championship, and tallied a sixth place finish in the WNIT. Illinois State has tallied nine individual 20-plus winning seasons in its 36-year history.

REDBIRDS SET SINGLE-SEASON BLOCKS RECORD

The Redbirds' 127 total blocks were the most in for a single-season effort in program history. ISU's 11 blocks in the 71-61 triple-overtime win over Rice were one short of the ISU record for a game, but set the Redbird Arena record for blocks in a game. Nicolle Lewis' 57 blocks led the team, were the second most in the Valley, and tied for the second-highest single-season effort in program history. She is just one termination away from tying Leslie Farrell (1988-89) the second-most

A DOMINATING SEASON ON THE GLASS

Illinois State has strung together one of the most dominating rebounding campaigns in program history. The 2006-07 Redbirds are averaging 40.8 rebounds per game, the best single-season effort in school history, and the most since the 1994-95 season, when ISU averaged 39.4 caroms per contest. In 20 of ISU's 22 wins, it has out-rebounded each opponent.

ROAD WARRIORS

Illinois State finished 8-1 on the road in MVC play. Its eight league road wins equal that of regular season champion Southern Illinois, who also finished 8-1 in MVC road contests. In contrast, the Redbirds finished the regular season 5-4 in Valley games at Doug Collins Court at Redbird Arena.

CARRYING THE LOAD

While the Redbirds have used eight different starting combinations this season, when examining ISU's game-by-game breakdown, it is evident as to which players have been mainstays in the lineup. Kristi Cirone has led Illinois State in scoring in 17 individual games, and Lashawn Johnson was the Redbird rebounding leader in 14 contests.

DIVERSITY IN SCORING

Illinois State had seven players with 200 or more points this season: Kristi Cirone (541), Nicolle Lewis (324), Megan McCracken (307), Lashawn Johnson (242) and Kenyatta Shelton (246) Maggie Krick (212) and Tiffany Hudson (213) all eclipsed the mark.

13 LEAGUE WINS ... A MILESTONE IN NORMAL

Illinois State's 72-54 win at Creighton on March 3 represented its 13th win in Missouri Valley Conference play, matching the most league wins the Redbirds have tallied since the 1996-97 season. The 'Birds have won 13 or more MVC contests just two times since joining the Valley in the 1992-93 season.

THE BEST NEVER REST

Kristi Cirone averaged 34.5 minutes per game in 2006-07, the most on the team, fifth most in the Valley this season and seventh most in Redbird history. Cirone logged 34.9 minutes per game as a freshman last season, the seventh highest average in program history. She played a career high 51 minutes in Thursday's WNIT first round win over Rice.

CIRONE CHARITABLE FROM THE FREE THROW LINE

Kristi Cirone, Illinois State's leader in scoring, assists and steals, has also left her mark on some of the all-time free throw shooting marks at ISU this season. Cirone's 148 made free throws ranks second all-time for a single-season effort, and her 192 attempts were also the second most all-time.

MORE CIRONE NOTABLES

Kristi Cirone is one of just five players in the nation who average at least 15 points and five assists per game, and is one of just two point guards to average at least 15 points, five assists, and own a 2.0 or higher assist/turnover ratio. The 2007 Jackie Stiles MVC Player of the Year has also surpassed some impressive milestones as the second season of her career winds down: she now has 306 career assists, tallied her 100th steal against Bradley in the MVC quarterfinals and now has 103 career thefts; she went over the 900-point plateau with 22 points against Rice and now has 930 career points, and Cirone ended the 2006-07 with 99 three-point field goals, just one short of her 100th career trey.

10-YEAR ANNIVERSARY

The Redbirds' Feb. 10 win over Missouri State clinched Illinois State's first 10-win Valley season since the 1996-97 campaign, a span of 10 seasons. ISU has tallied nine-win MVC campaigns twice (1997-98 and 2003-04) during the stretch. The Redbirds have collected 11 double-digit win seasons in their history in both the Gateway and Missouri Valley Conferences.

A 3-POINT BARRAGE

To say that Illinois State has been a good three-point shooting program under the tutelage of head coach Robin Pingeton would be an extreme understatement. The top four single-season made three-point field goal totals have occurred under Pingeton, including this season's 200, which ranks third overall for a single-season effort. The top four attempted three-point field goal campaigns have all come under Pingeton (this season's 563 ranks third all-time), and her teams also represent two of the top five single-season three-point percentages in school history, including this season's .355 mark, which is the fourth highest total in the ISU record books.

QUICK FIRST-HALF STARTS LEAD TO REDBIRD VICTORIES

Illinois State led at the half in 23 of its 33 overall games this season, and was 21-2 in those contests. The Redbirds outscored their 10 Valley opponents by an average of 7.5 points in the first half this season. They also corralled 21.0 rebounds in the first frame, compared to just 16.4 first-half caroms for their MVC opponents.

FLAWLESS MVC FIRST-HALF CARRIES HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE

While Illinois State's record-setting start to Missouri Valley Conference play was halted with the Feb. 2 five-point (70-65) setback to Evansville, the Redbirds' unblemished (9-0) first half of the league slate is still worthy of further examination. It is the first time since Illinois State joined the MVC (1992-93) that a Redbird team has gone undefeated in the first nine games of the conference slate, and marks just the third time in the program's 36-year history that ISU has entered the second half of a league schedule without a loss. The 1984-85 and 1988-89 teams started out with 9-0 and 16-0 records, respectively, in Gateway Conference play.

HITTING THE DOUBLE-DIGIT MARK IN THE WIN COLUMN

Illinois State clinched its 10th win of the season with its 84-72 victory over host Southern Illinois on Jan. 4, marking the quickest it has reached the 10-victory plateau in 17 years (1989-90 season). There are just two teams in Redbird history (1973-74 and 1976-77 squads) that have reached 10 wins in less than 14 total games.

SEVENTH HEAVEN

Illinois State's 68-55 win over Eastern Michigan on Dec. 17, 2006 was their seventh victory of the season, marking the most single-season non-conference wins an ISU team has compiled in 23 years. Former Redbird head coach Jill Hutchison's 1982-83 team won 12 games against non-Gateway Conference foes.

'Birds Rout Odyssey in Exhibition, 101-76

NORMAL, III. - Sophomore preseason All-Missouri Valley Conference point guard Kristi Cirone poured in a game-high 26 points on 9-of-12 shooting, leading Illinois State's women's basketball team to a convincing 101-76 win over visiting Odyssey in their exhibition opener here at Redbird Arena Saturday afternoon.

All 15 of Illinois State's players played in the victory. Freshman guard Maggie Krick and junior center Lashawn Johnson joined Cirone in double figures, with each chipping in 10 points. Sophomore guard Brooke Singleton was ISU's top rebounder, collecting six caroms.

Cirone's 26 points included a perfect 6-for-6 effort from beyond the three-point line. She also collected six assists (just three turnovers) and had six steals on the defensive end.

The 'Birds opened up the second half on a 10-5 spurt to take a 57-37 lead. Illinois State extended its lead to 31 points (88-57) with 7:21 left after a three-pointer by Lincoln Community College transfer Tamara Butler, capping off a 15-4 Redbird run.

Illinois State forced 30 Odyssey turnovers in the game with their full-court pressure defense.

GAME 1

NIU Tops Redbirds in Season Opener, 97-69

DEKALB, III. - Redbird guards Tiffany Hudson and Sara Stevenson each recorded career-highs in scoring, but it wasn't enough to overcome a 60 percent second-half shooting performance by Northern Illinois, as the host Huskies defeated Illinois State, 97-69, at the Convocation Center Saturday afternoon. The game was the season opener for both teams.

Hudson had a career-best 14 points, while Stevenson chipped in with a career-best 11. Lashawn Johnson contributed eight rebounds and a career-high 12 rebounds.

NIU had four players in double figures, led by Stephanie Raymond's 22 points and seven assists. Whitney Lowe tallied 20 points, including a 4-for-7 effort from three-point land.

The Redbirds missed their first five shots from the field, as Northern Illinois jumped out to the early 8-0 lead. After falling behind by as many as 10 points, the 'Birds cut the lead to four points, 30-26, after a three-pointer by Megan McCracken. But the Huskies finished the half on a 7-4 run, and took a 43-30 lead into the locker room at halftime.

NIU stretched its lead to 52-34 in the first two minutes of the second-half, and never looked back in coasting to the 28-point win.

Redbirds Defeat Loyola For First Win, 77-66

CHICAGO, Ill. - Freshmen Maggie Krick and Kenyatta Shelton combined for 32 points to lead Illinois State's women's basketball team to its first victory of the 2006-07 season, as the Redbirds used a strong defensive effort to upend host Loyola Chicago, 77-66, at the Joseph J. Gentile Center Tuesday night. Illinois State has now defeated the Ramblers in each of the last three seasons.

Krick had a game-high 18 points; Shelton had her first career double-double with 14 points and 11 rebounds, and Lashawn Johnson collected 12 points and four rebounds. Loyola was led by Jenna Real's 14 points. The Birds held the Ramblers' leading scorer Marquise Hanser to just 10 points on 4-of-15 shooting.

The Redbirds finished the first half on a 10-3 run in the final 3:45 to push the advantage to 45-35 heading into the locker room at halftime. Shelton had a game-high 14 points and four rebounds to lead the Redbirds.

The Redbirds carried the lead into the first five minutes of the second half. But they were held scoreless for the ensuing 5:15, and allowed Loyola to pull within one point (53-52) with 11:15. The Birds quickly answered with a 7-0 spurt to take an eight-point lead (60-52), and Loyola never got any closer.

Second Half Fight Lifts Redbirds Over Stony Brook

CHICAGO, Ill. - The outstanding second-half play by Lashawn Johnson, who finished with 12 points, including 10 in the second half, combined with Kristi Cirone's double-double off 11 points and 10 assists, lifted the Illinois State women's basketball team over Stony Brook, 73-63, in the opening game of the DePaul Invitational on Friday night. Johnson hit five free throws during a 22-6 finish over the final 5:30 by ISU.

Leading all scorers was ISU freshman Kenyatta Shelton with 19, as fellow first-year player Maggie Krick tossed in 13 for the Redbirds. Stony Brook was led by Mykeema Ford with 17 points and Dana Ferraro who added 12.

Despite committing 11 turnovers in the first half, including two in the first minute that resulted in Stony Brook baskets, Illinois State went into halftime with a 31-29 lead. Cirone, who missed her first eight field goals, threw in two points on a pair of free throws, while dishing out seven assists in the opening frame.

Redbird sophomore Nicole Lewis came out after the half, hitting a layup and blocking a pair of Seawolves' shots to spark the Illinois State defense.

The Redbirds drained 11 consecutive shots from the line to close the game and secure their second win.

No. 19 DePaul Uses Hot Hands to Drop ISU, 90-64

CHICAGO, Ill. - Seven first-half baskets from beyond the arc by DePaul put the Illinois State women's basketball team in an early hole, as the Birds trailed by double-digits for the duration of the second half, ultimately falling 90-64 in the championship game of the DePaul Invitational, Saturday night at McGrath Arena.

Leading all scorers was Blue Demon guard Allie Quigley, who finished with 26 total points. The Redbirds were led by Kenyatta Shelton with 14 points, while Kristi Cirone tossed in another 12.

The Redbirds fall to an even 2-2, as DePaul improves to 2-1, going 2-0 in its home tournament and walking away with the championship hardware.

DePaul jumped out to an early 9-2 lead in the game's first two minutes, forcing four early Redbird turnovers with their pressure defense. DePaul extended their lead to 17 points (38-21) mid-way through the first-half, and went into the locker room at halftime on a 6-2 run to claim their largest lead, 45-26.

Both teams traded baskets for three minutes after the intermission, but the Blue Demons used a 15-0 run, spanning 2:30, to put the Birds away for good, leading by as many as 30 points in the stretch.

GAME 5

Hudson Leads ISU Past Chicago State, 81-53

NORMAL, Ill. - In her first start of the season, junior co-captain Tiffany Hudson had a career day, scoring 18 points and dishing out nine assists as the Illinois State women's basketball team defeated visiting Chicago State, 81-53, Sunday in the home opener at Redbird Arena.

Hudson's play wasn't the only story for the Redbirds, as four players scored in double figures and the team doubled up the Cougars on the glass, 47-22. Freshman Kenyatta Shelton finished with 15 points and recorded her third double-double with 10 rebounds. Sophomore Brooke Singleton also set her career high with 11 points, including a three-for-three effort from behind the arc, and senior Sara Stevenson chipped in 10 points off the bench.

Hudson's matched her previous career-high with 14 points in the first half. The Birds out rebounded the Cougars, 22-10. Lashawn Johnson led ISU as she collected a team-high six boards in the half.

The second half started out much like first, with both teams scoring back and forth before the Birds began their final run with 13:19 left in the game. Illinois State extended their lead to 25 points, and finished the game on a 25-11 run.

Illinois State Rolls Over E. Illinois, 101-72

NORMAL, Ill. - Senior co-captain Megan McCracken came off the bench to set a new career high with 27 points and tied her school record with seven made three pointers as the Illinois State women's basketball team shot a sizzling 49 percent from beyond the three-point arc in a record-setting 101-72 victory over Eastern Illinois Tuesday night at Redbird Arena.

Four Birds scored in double figures, including freshman Kenyatta Shelton, who recorded her fourth double-double of the season with 16 points and 11 rebounds. Sophomore guard Kristi Cirone also tallied a double-double with 10 points and a career-high 12 assists. Nicolle Lewis chipped in a career-best tying 12 points.

Illinois State connected on 15 three-pointers en route to hitting the century mark for the first time since March 2, 1990 when ISU defeated Eastern Illinois, 107-68.

Hot shooting from the perimeter helped the Birds go on two big runs (16-5 and 20-2) in the first half, breaking open the scoring for a 52-35 halftime lead.

ISU went on a 19-8 run over the first 7:30 of the second half, opening up a commanding 71-43 advantage. The Birds led by as many as 36 points in the ensuing 3:00 before clearing their bench with more than five minutes left.

Redbirds Upend Unbeaten BSU, 82-72

NORMAL, Ill. - The Illinois State women's basketball team withstood a furious second-half comeback from Ball State behind sophomore Kristi Cirone's season-high 25 points, 19 in the second half, and senior Megan McCracken's 20 points off the bench as the Birds defeated the Cardinals 82-72 Wednesday night at Redbird Arena.

Freshman Maggie Krick also stepped up in the win with 17 points on 7-of-11 shooting, to go along with five assists. Krick also tied for the team lead in rebounds with seven boards along with junior Lashawn Johnson.

The Redbirds built a 21-point lead at the half and were forced to hold on as Ball State shot 54 percent in the second half. BSU would cut the lead to 73-70 with 36 seconds left in the game before Cirone sealed the victory with seven free throws.

The victory, the team's third straight, improves the Redbirds' record 5-2. ISU hands the Cardinals their first loss of the season (5-1), despite the efforts of Julie Demuth, who scored 28 points and grabbed 16 rebounds.

ISU Wins Fourth Straight, 89-73 Over Miami

NORMAL, Ill. - Sophomore point guard Kristi Cirone poured in a career-high 28 points to go along with 10 assists, and junior center Lashawn Johnson set her career-high in just one half, finishing with 15 points, as Illinois State's women's basketball team captured its fourth consecutive victory with an 89-73 decision over visiting Miami (Ohio) at Redbird Arena on Dec. 9.

Junior guard Tiffany Hudson also finished in double figures with 11 points, and junior Tamara Butler had a season-high seven points and four rebounds in 13 minutes off the bench. Illinois State collected 50 rebounds for the second time this season, and committed a season-low 12 turnovers. Cirone, who missed her first career triple-double by just two rebounds, became only the second player in ISU history to record at least 10 assists in a game without committing a single turnover.

The Redbirds used a 22-7 run over the final eight minutes of the first half to build a commanding 49-37 lead at intermission. Miami trimmed the advantage to single-digits mid-way through the second half, but the Redbirds answered with a game-clinching 8-2 run down the stretch to run away with their sixth non-conference win of the season and second consecutive over a MAC opponent.

ISU Wins Fifth Straight, Defeats EMU, 68-55

NORMAL, Ill. - Freshman forward Kenyatta Shelton collected her fifth double-double of the season with 20 points and 10 rebounds to lead Illinois State's women's basketball team to a hard-fought, 68-55 win over preseason Mid-American Conference West Division favorite Eastern Michigan at Redbird Arena Sunday afternoon. The teams battled all game, but the Redbirds went on a 9-0 scoring run to end the game.

Illinois State improves to 7-2 on the year. EMU drops to 4-5 overall.

The Redbirds overcame an eight minute second-half scoring drought and 23 turnovers, but they also rebounded their counterparts (49-to-31) for the fifth consecutive game.

After EMU took a 12-11 lead, Nicolle Lewis' layup jumpstarted a 13-2 Redbird run that saw the 'Birds extend their lead to 24-14 with 9:26 left in the half. ISU took a 38-31 lead into halftime.

ISU came out firing in the second half, jumping out to a 12-2 run thanks to six quick points from Kristi Cirone, to make the score 50-33. EMU charged back to cut the lead to four with 2:28 left, but a 9-0 game-ending spurt sealed the Redbird win.

Iowa State Halts ISU Winning Streak, 74-67

AMES, Iowa - Illinois State's women's basketball team erased a 13-point second-half deficit to regain the lead with less than eight minutes remaining in the game, but host Iowa State used a 15-6 run in the final seven minutes to defeat the upstart Redbirds, 74-67, in front of 6,243 fans at Hilton Coliseum Wednesday night.

The loss ends a five-game winning streak for the Redbirds, and moves their season record to 7-3.

Illinois State put three players in double figures, led by Kristi Cirone and former Iowa State guard Megan McCracken's 11 points each. Senior center Lori Trumblee chipped in 10 points off the bench for the Redbirds, while junior guard Tiffany Hudson connected on three three-point field goals in the second-half comeback, and finished with nine points. Iowa State was led by All-American candidate Lyndsey Medders' 18 points.

Trailing by just four at halftime, the Redbirds fell behind by 13 points with 16:29 left in the second half before going on a 23-8 run to take a 61-59 lead with under eight minutes remaining. But Iowa State connected on four of its last six shots down the stretch to claim the come-from-behind win.

UW-Green Bay Upends Redbirds, 92-64

GREEN BAY, Wis. - Wisconsin Green Bay sophomore guard Rachel Porath recorded a near perfect shooting effort with 16 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the field (4-of-5 three-point field goals) to lead the Phoenix to a wire-to-wire 92-64 victory over Illinois State in front of 1,182 fans at the Phoenix Sports Center Friday night. The 28-point margin marks the Redbirds' largest margin of defeat this season.

The loss is Illinois State's second straight, and drops their season record to 7-4 heading into a week-long Christmas break. Wisconsin-Green Bay improves to 9-1 overall.

Porath led a group of six Phoenix players in double figures. The Redbirds were led by Kristi Cirone's 10 points, all in the second half. Tiffany Hudson and Wisconsin native Nicolle Lewis each chipped in with eight points.

UW-Green Bay recorded two unanswered 10-point runs in the first half to build as large as an 18-point cushion. After the 'Birds cut the Phoenix' 14-point halftime lead to 11 early in the second half, UW-Green Bay went on a 13-5 spurt to claim a 19-point advantage, and never looked back, leading by as many as 30 points in the game's late stages.

GAME 12

Redbirds Collect 70-59 Win Over Creighton

NORMAL, Ill. - Sophomore point guard Kristi Cirone poured in a game-high 22 points and dished out five assists to lead Illinois State's women's basketball team to a wire-to-wire, 70-59, win over Creighton in the Missouri Valley Conference opener for both teams at Redbird Arena Friday night. Dating back to last season, the Redbirds have defeated Creighton three consecutive times for the first time in program history.

Illinois State broke a two-game losing skid with the win, and improved to 8-4 on the season (1-0 MVC). Creighton drops to 3-9 and 0-1. The only other Redbird in double figures was Megan McCracken, who finished with 12 points. Kenyatta Shelton and Maggie Krick each chipped in eight points. The Bluejays put four players in double figures, led by Chevelle Herring's 13 points.

The Redbirds built as large as a 12-point lead in the first half before seeing the Bluejays answer with a late run to pull within five points at halftime. In the second half, ISU built three double-digit leads, only to see Creighton cut the margin to three points with six minutes remaining. But the Redbirds finished the game on a 9-1 run to post the win.

Redbirds Defeat Drake, Stay Perfect in MVC

NORMAL, Ill. - Starting guards Kristi Cirone and Maggie Krick combined for 39 points and 12 rebounds to lead the Illinois State women's basketball team to a convincing 64-50 win over Missouri Valley Conference preseason favorite Drake at Redbird Arena Sunday afternoon. The Redbirds have now won their initial two league contests for the first time since the 2003-04 season. The victory also clinched head coach Robin Pingeton's 50th win at the helm of Illinois State.

Illinois State improves to 9-4 on the season (2-0 MVC) with the win. Drake drops to 5-7 and 0-2. Senior guard Megan McCracken, who started the second half for the second consecutive game, scored nine points and dished out three assists while holding the Bulldogs' Lindsay Whorton scoreless in the second half. Drake was led by Brandy Dahir's 14 points on 4-of-11 shooting.

The Redbirds built as large as an 11-point lead in the first half before Drake made a late run to pull within five (29-24) at the intermission. In the second half, the Bulldogs stayed within striking distance in the early stages before McCracken's layup with 6:22 remaining gave the Redbirds a double-digit advantage that they would not relinquish. ISU finished the game on a 9-4 run.

ISU Tops SIU, Remains Perfect in MVC Play

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Sophomore point guard Kristi Cirone clinched her best road performance of the season, pouring in a game-high 27 points on 8-of-11 shooting to lead Illinois State to a convincing 84-72 win over host Southern Illinois at SIU Arena Thursday night. With the win, the Redbirds remain undefeated in Missouri Valley Conference play and atop the league standings.

Cirone led a group of four ISU players in double figures, as Megan McCracken (18) Maggie Krick (11) and Lashawn Johnson (11) all contributed in the offensive flurry. The Salukis (6-8, 2-1 MVC) were led by Carlai Moore's 13 points.

Illinois State (10-4, 3-0 MVC) built as large as a six-point lead in the first half before Southern Illinois went on an 11-5 run in the final three minutes of the stanza to take a three-point advantage at halftime. The Redbirds outscored the Salukis 23-10 in the first seven minutes of the second half to open up a double-digit lead. After leading by as many as 16 points, the Birds held off a late SIU rally to post the victory.

Illinois State Upends Evansville, 89-81

EVANSVILLE, Ind. - Sophomore point guard Kristi Cirone scored a game-high 27 points for the second consecutive game to lead a foursome of Redbirds in double figures as Illinois State claimed sole possession of first place in the Missouri Valley Conference with an 89-81 win over host Evansville in a battle of previously unbeaten teams at Roberts Stadium Saturday afternoon. With the win, ISU improves to a perfect 4-0 in the Valley, and sits alone atop the league standings.

Kenyatta Shelton, playing on an injured foot, contributed 18 points and tore down eight rebounds; Megan McCracken, making her second consecutive start, hit four three pointers en route to 16 points, and Tiffany Hudson chipped in 15 points to go along with nine assists off the bench. Lashawn Johnson scored nine points and pulled down a career-high tying 12 rebounds in the game.

In one of Illinois State's (11-4, 4-0 MVC) most up-tempo contests of the season, the Redbirds ended the first half on a 23-13 run to take a commanding 49-35 lead at halftime. In the second half, the Purple Aces (10-5, 3-1 MVC) cut the Redbird lead to 10 points twice in the final three minutes, but didn't chip further into the advantage until the game was well in hand with less than a minute remaining.

Illinois State Upends Wichita State, 87-73

NORMAL, Ill. - Nicolle Lewis and Megan McCracken each tallied 16-point individual efforts as host Illinois State defeated Wichita State in dominating fashion, 87-73, in a Missouri Conference game at Redbird Arena Thursday night. The Redbirds led by as many as 40 points in the game, which ended on a sour note, as an altercation and two ejections occurred with just under 13 minutes remaining in the game.

Wichita State's Antonette Wells and ISU's Lashawn Johnson were ejected for fighting with 12:54 left. After a tie-up underneath the north basket, a mutual altercation began between the two players, and it was immediately broken up by officials Rich Choponis, Marvin Sykes and Scott Doberstein. But shortly thereafter, Wells went after Johnson near the Redbird bench, and landed a punch. After each player received a technical and personal foul, they were ejected per NCAA rules.

Illinois State led by as many as 36 points in the first half, and stretched the advantage to as many as 40 points with 17:38 remaining in the second stanza before head coach Robin Pingeton cleared her bench with 10 minutes remaining. The Shockers finished the second half on a 23-12 run to close the scoring gap.

Redbirds Remains Unbeaten in MVC Play; Defeat MSU, 76-47

NORMAL, Ill. - The Illinois State basketball team remains unbeaten in Missouri Valley Conference action and atop the league standings, thanks to sophomore center Nicolle Lewis' career-high 19 points and seven rebounds, along with the team's tremendous defensive effort in the 76-47 victory over Missouri State on Saturday at Redbird Arena.

Down two starters (freshman Kenyatta Shelton and junior Lashawn Johnson), the Redbirds won by 29 points, tying their largest margin of victory this season, while also giving up a season-low 47 points. ISU also out-rebounded Missouri State 51-30, despite being without their top two players statistically on the glass.

Kristi Cirone also came up big once again offensively for the Birds with 21 points and eight assists. This game marked Cirone's sixth game with over 20 points scored and her 12th consecutive double-digit scoring effort.

Leading the Redbirds off the bench was freshman Ashleen Bracey, who put up a career bests in minutes (17), points (8) and rebounds (11).

ISU Wins Seventh Straight, 89-81 Over Sycamores

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. - Junior center Lashawn Johnson recorded her first career double-double with 15 points and 12 rebounds to lead Illinois State's women's basketball team to an 89-81 win over host Indiana State in front of 5,588 at the Hulman Center Friday night. With the win, the Redbirds remain undefeated in Missouri Valley Conference play (7-0), and clinch their best start to the conference slate since the record-setting 1988-89 season. ISU's seven-game winning streak also matches the longest streak under head coach Robin Pingeton.

Johnson led a group of five Redbirds in double figures, as Nicolle Lewis recorded her third consecutive double-digit scoring effort with 17 points, Kristi Cirone tallied 18 points, Megan McCracken had 17 points, and Tiffany Hudson chipped in 11 points off the bench. Indiana State was led by Laura Rudolphi's 18 points.

The Redbirds built as large as a 20-point advantage in the first half, and took a 50-31 lead at halftime after ending the frame on a 6-0 run. They went up by 23 points just one minute into the second stanza before seeing the Sycamores staged a furious comeback and cut the lead to just two points (68-66) with more than five minutes remaining. The Birds hit eight free throws in the final minute to clinch the victory.

ISU Improves to 8-0, Defeats UNI 60-58

CEDAR FALLS, Iowa - Illinois State's frontcourt duo of Nicolle Lewis and Lashawn Johnson combined for 35 points and 18 rebounds to lead the Redbirds to a hard-fought, 60-58 win over host Northern Iowa at the McCleod Center Thursday night. The win was the 250th career triumph for head coach Robin Pingeton, and clinched ISU's first win at UNI since the 1997 season, a span of 11 contests.

Lewis scored a game-high 19 points and Johnson scored 16 points and collected a career-high 14 rebounds. The Panthers put four players in double figures, led by Jessie Biggs' 15 points on 7-of-11 shooting.

The Redbirds built a six-point lead in the first half, and extended the advantage to 10 (32-22) with 18:39 left in the second half. But UNI tied the game twice in the final three minutes, and ISU needed to hold off a late Panther surge to seal the two-point win.

UNI, in position to tie or win the game on the final possession, called timeout with just seven seconds remaining. Tara King, the Valley's leading scorer, missed a driving shot, but Nicole Clausen corralled the offensive rebound and took a three-pointer from the top of the key with three seconds left that bounced off the front iron, sealing ISU's 60-58 win.

ISU Moves to 9-0 in MVC; Defeats BU, 55-47

NORMAL, III. - The Illinois State basketball team tightened its defense holding in-state rival Bradley to 29 percent shooting and sophomore Kristi Cirone led the squad with 24 points and tied her career high with seven rebounds, as the Redbirds defeated the Braves 55-47 on Sunday in front of a school-record 4,190 at Redbird Arena. The victory extends ISU's school-best Missouri Valley Conference start to a perfect 9-0 and keeps the 'Birds alone a top of the conference standings.

The Redbirds struggled shooting a season-low 36 percent from the field, but over came their own shooting woes by forcing the Braves to 18-of-63 from the floor and forcing 17 turnovers.

Illinois State also held a 45-41 advantage on the glass, where reigning MVC Player of the Week junior Lashawn Johnson nabbed a team-best 11 rebounds, her third straight game of double-digit caroms, and was second on the team with nine points. Fellow senior Megan McCracken also grabbed a career-high nine rebounds, while chipping in six points.

With the victory, the Redbirds (16-4, 9-0 MVC) remain unbeaten at home (10-0) and have now won 13 straight at Redbird Arena dating back to last season. The loss drops the Braves' record to 7-13, 3-6 in the Valley, despite the efforts of Jen Brown, who recorded 11 points and grabbed four rebounds.

Aces Top Illinois State, 'Birds Suffer First MVC Loss

NORMAL, III. - Sophomore Kristi Cirone scored a team-high 20 points, but it wasn't enough Friday as Evansville rallied to defeat the Illinois State basketball team 70-65 in front of 4,049 at Redbird Arena. The loss snapped the Redbirds' school-best nine game winning streak to open Missouri Valley Conference action and broke the team's 13-game winning streak at Redbird Arena that dated back to last season.

Trailing 62-54 with 5:27 to play, the Purple Aces closed the game out on a 16-3 run to improve their record to 13-8 overall and 6-4 in the Valley. The Redbirds (16-5, 9-1 MVC) received solid efforts from freshman Maggie Krick, who scored 13 points and dished out a career-high six assists, and junior Lashawn Johnson, who contributed eight points and a team leading eight rebounds.

Evansville was led by center Shannon Novosel who poured in 20 points, including 8-of-9 from the free throw line, grabbed six rebounds and intercepted five passes. Forward Rebekah Parker also chipped in 17 points and nabbed five caroms in the winning effort.

ISU Drops Second Straight, 79-66 to SIU

NORMAL, III. - Sophomore Kristi Cirone scored a team-high 22 points and added five assists, but Southern Illinois shot 58 percent from the field (32-55), as the Salukis defeated the Illinois State basketball team, 79-66, Sunday at Redbird Arena. The loss was the second in a row for the Redbirds in Missouri Valley Conference play and drops ISU into a tie for first place with the Salukis in the conference standings with a 9-2 record.

Southern Illinois (13-9, 9-2 MVC) received an outstanding performance from senior Carlai Moore, who scored 22 points on 11-for-15 shooting, while also grabbing six rebounds. Moore led four other Salukis who scored in double-figures, including Dana Olsen (15), Debbie Burris (13), Jasmine Gibson (13) and Jayme Sweere (11).

The Redbirds (16-6, 9-2 MVC) struggled from the floor all afternoon, shooting 39 percent (24-for-62) and committing 15 turnovers that led to 23 SIU points.

Two other Redbirds scored in double figures, as junior Tiffany Hudson chipped in 11 points off the bench and junior Lashawn Johnson contributed 10 points. Senior Megan McCracken set a new career-high with 11 rebounds to lead ISU.

ISU Upends MSU 65-48; Earns Season Sweep

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. - Illinois State's women's basketball team used a stellar defensive effort and a dominating rebounding performance to upend host Missouri State, 65-48, in a Missouri Valley Conference contest at Hammons Student Center Saturday afternoon. With the win, the Redbirds clinch the season sweep over the Bears for the first time since the 2002-03 campaign.

Illinois State snapped its season-high two-game Valley losing skid, and improved to 17-6 (10-2 MVC). Missouri State drops to 6-14 and 2-10. ISU reached the 17-win plateau for the first time since the 1996-97 campaign.

The Redbirds put three players in double figures, led by Kristi Cirone's 19 points. Junior Ashley Sandstead, making her first start of the season, chipped in 13 points on a 5-of-8 shooting effort, and center Nicolle Lewis recorded 13 points to go along with six rebounds. MSU was paced by Tahnee Balerio, who finished with 13 points on 4-for-19 shooting.

ISU collected a season-high 53 rebounds in the game, including 19 on the offensive end. Lashawn Johnson spearheaded the effort with 11 caroms, her sixth double-digit rebounding effort of the season, and the fifth in the last seven games.

Shockers Hand Redbirds Third MVC Loss, 75-69

WICHITA, Kan. - Sophomore point guard Kristi Cirone recorded her eighth 20-plus scoring outing in Missouri Valley Conference play, but Wichita State's Antionette Wells countered with a dominating, 27 point, 17 rebound effort to lift the host Shockers to a 75-69 win over Illinois State at Charles Koch Arena Monday night. The loss was ISU's third in the past four Valley contests, and moves them into a second-place position in the league standings.

Illinois State moves to 17-7 overall with a 10-3 MVC slate. Wichita State improves to 9-13 and 4-8.

Cirone was joined by two other Redbirds in double figures, as sophomore center Nicolle Lewis scored 12 points and collected a team-high seven rebounds, and junior guard Tiffany Hudson chipped in 10 points on a 5-for-10 shooting effort off the bench. The Shockers' Daria Frazier and Lexee McDonnell tallied 14 and 13 points, respectively.

Both teams recorded 10-point leads in the first half, as Wichita State went up 14-4 in the first six minutes, before Illinois State stormed back with a 30-10 surge to claim a 34-24 advantage with less than two minutes to play in the opening stanza. But after seeing its lead slip to just four points at halftime, the Redbirds lost the lead for good with more than 10 minutes remaining, and couldn't regain the advantage in the game's final two minutes.

ISU Drops Second Straight, 76-66

NORMAL, Ill. - Sophomore point guard Kristi Cirone poured in a game-high 24 points, and Nicolle Lewis added 19 points and seven rebounds, but Indiana State post players Rachel Maenpaa and Laura Rudolphi each tallied double-doubles to lift the Sycamores to a 76-66 win over Illinois State at Redbird Arena Sunday afternoon. With the win, Indiana State earned a regular season split with the Redbirds, who captured an 89-81 win at the Hulman Center on Jan. 19.

The Redbirds out-rebounded the Panthers 40-39, improving to 15-0 this season when they out-rebound the opposition. ISU shot 47 percent for the game, and held the Panthers to a 33 percent clip for the game.

Despite slow offensive starts by both teams, the Redbirds and Sycamores were deadlocked at 12-12 through the first eight and a half minutes. Megan McCracken hit two three-pointers in the stretch, while Maenpaa chipped in six quick points to lead the early Indiana State attack. The Sycamores broke a 21-21 tie with a quick 5-0 spurt, and claimed a 26-21 advantage after back-to-back free throws by Maria Olsthoorn. After Cirone pulled the Redbirds within two (27-25) with 3:13 left, Indiana State finished the frame on an 8-4 spree. Illinois State's Lori Trumblee hit a jumper as time expired in the half to pull the Birds within six, 35-29.

ISU Clinches Season Sweep of BU, 75-66

PEORIA, III. - Sophomore center Nicolle Lewis led a balanced Illinois State attack with 18 points on 8-of-10 shooting to lift the Redbirds to a 75-66 win over host Bradley at Robertson Memorial Field House Friday night. The win snapped ISU's six-game losing skid in Peoria, and sealed the Redbirds' first season sweep over the Braves since the 1998-99 campaign.

Lewis led a group of five Redbirds in double figures: Freshman Kenyatta Shelton and sophomore Kristi Cirone each recorded 10-point efforts, Megan McCracken scored 12 points, and Tiffany Hudson chipped in 11 points off the bench. Bradley was led by Erika Nelson's 22 points.

Illinois State took the lead for good with 11:15 remaining in the first half, but had to fight off an early second half Bradley surge that saw the game tied at 42-42 with just under 18 minutes left. ISU extended its lead to double-digits with 6:23 remaining in the game, and never let the Braves get any closer than six points the rest of the way.

ISU Drops Overtime Decision to UNI, 74-73

NORMAL, III. - Northern Iowa senior Tara King poured in a game-high 31 points, including the go-ahead jumper with 5.5 seconds remaining, to lift the visiting Panthers to a 74-73, overtime win over Illinois State on Senior Day at Doug Collins Court at Redbird Arena Sunday. The game marked the Redbirds' first overtime contest this season. With the win, Northern Iowa salvaged a season split with Illinois State, who defeated the Panthers, 60-58, at the McCleod Center on Jan. 25.

Nicolle Lewis turned in another dominating performance in the post, scoring a career-high 26 points to go along with a game-high nine rebounds. Kristi Cirone finished with 19 points and nine assists, and did not commit a single turnover. King's 31 points led the UNI scoring output, while Jessie Biggs contributed 17 points, and Lindsey Swanson chipped in 10 points on a perfect 3-for-3 shooting effort off the Panther bench.

Illinois State overcame a combined five ties and lead changes in the initial 13 minutes of the first half, and strung together a 13-4 run to end the stanza, taking a 34-25 lead at halftime. Despite Northern Iowa's quick start to the second half, the Redbirds owned a seven-point lead with 5:04 remaining in the second stanza. But the Panthers ended regulation on an 11-4 spurt, forcing ISU's first overtime contest of the season. In the extra period, Cirone scored eight points, but her potential game-winning driving jump shot as time expired circled the rim and missed, giving UNI the one-point win.

ISU Drops Second Straight, 79-66 to SIU

DES MOINES, Iowa - Illinois State's sophomore tandem of Nicolle Lewis and Kristi Cirone each scored 21 points to lead a foursome of Redbirds in double figures, as they defeated host Drake, 67-61, at the Knapp Center Thursday night. The win marked just ISU's second all-time triumph at Drake's home facility, and gave the Redbirds their first 12-win Missouri Valley Conference campaign since the 1996-97 season.

Lewis and Cirone each tallied 21-point efforts, while senior Megan McCracken chipped in 11, and Kenyatta Shelton contributed 10 points off the bench. Drake was led by Lindsay Whorton's 23 points. Whorton also eclipsed her 1,000th career point in the game.

Illinois State built as large as a 13-point lead in the first half, before seeing the Bulldogs finish the stanza on a 10-4 run to pull within seven at halftime. Drake stormed back to tie the game with just over five minutes remaining in the second stanza, but ISU hit five free throws in the final 2:30, and held off a late Bulldog rally to snap its 14-game losing streak at the Knapp Center.

ISU Upends Creighton 72-54; Clinches No. 2 Seed

OMAHA, Neb. - Nicolle Lewis and Kenyatta Shelton combined for 30 points and 17 rebounds to lead Illinois State to a 72-54 victory over host Creighton at the Omaha Civic Auditorium Saturday afternoon. With the win, the Redbirds officially clinched the No. 2 seed in next week's State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament in Des Moines, Iowa. ISU also wrapped up its first 20-win season since the 1989-90 campaign, and swept the Drake-Creighton road swing for the first time in program history.

Lewis led all scorers with 16 points, while Shelton (14), Lashawn Johnson (12) and Kristi Cirone (11) all chipped in double-figure scoring efforts. Creighton's Megan Neuvirth led a foursome of Bluejays in double figures with 12 points.

Illinois State built as large as a six-point lead in the first half, but Creighton finished the stanza on a 4-0 spurt to pull within two at halftime. In the second half, the Redbirds sustained their advantage, and finished the game on a 22-9 run to post the 18-point triumph.

ISU out-rebounded Drake, 41-32, and recorded a 48-20 scoring advantage in the paint. The Redbirds also shut out the Jays on the fast break, 13-0.

ISU Defeats Bradley; Advances to MVC Semifinals

DES MOINES, Iowa - Senior guard Megan McCracken poured in six three-point field goals en route to a team-high 20 points to lift Illinois State's women's basketball team to a 75-60 win over seventh-seeded Bradley in the quarterfinal round of the 2007 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament at the Knapp Center Friday night. With the win, the Redbirds advance to Saturday's second semifinal, where they will face the winner of tonight's No. 3 Indiana State vs. No. 6 Creighton game. Illinois State also defeated its in-state rival three times in the same season for just the second time in program history.

With the victory, ISU upped its season record to 21-9, and clinched its 10th overall appearance in either the Gateway/Missouri Valley Conference semifinals. Bradley is eliminated from the MVC tournament, and wraps up its season with a 12-19 overall slate.

McCracken's 20 points led a threesome of Redbirds in double figures: Kristi Cirone chipped in 12 points to along with five assists, while Tiffany Hudson scored 10 points off the bench. Kenyatta Shelton was ISU's rebounding catalyst, grabbing 10 boards to go along with nine points. Bradley was led by Ashley Chelleen's 23 points.

Creighton Eliminates Illinois State, 59-56

DES MOINES, Iowa - The second-seeded Illinois State women's basketball team's 2007 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament journey ended with a 59-56 semifinal loss to No. 6 Creighton at the Knapp Center Saturday afternoon. The Redbirds either led or were tied for 37 minutes, but committed two turnovers in the final two minutes, and missed three potential game-tying three-pointers in the final 27 seconds to see its season end. The Redbirds will await their postseason fate in the WNIT, which releases its selections Monday night following the NCAA Women's Basketball Selection Show.

Illinois State exits the MVC tournament with a 21-10 overall record, its highest single-season victory total since the 1989-90 season. Creighton upped its season record to 13-18, and will face eighth-seeded Drake in Sunday's Valley championship game at 2 p.m with an automatic NCAA bid on the line.

2006-07 Jackie Stiles Player of the Year and ISU sophomore point guard Kristi Cirone led the Redbird scoring output with 12 points. Kenyatta Shelton chipped in 10 points off the bench to complete Illinois State's double-digit scorers. Creighton was led by Megan Neuvirth and Sara Cain's 13 points a piece.

SDSU Eliminates Redbirds from WNIT, 61-48

BROOKINGS, S.D. - Senior guard Megan McCracken had a team-high 15 points on four three-pointers, but Illinois State's postseason journey ended with a 61-48 setback to host South Dakota State in the second round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) in front of a school-record 5,719 fans at Frost Arena Saturday night. The Redbirds' season ends with a 22-11 overall record, while the Jackrabbits advance to the WNIT round of 16, where they will host the winner of Monday's second-round Indiana-Iona game.

Kristi Cirone joined McCracken in double figures with 11 points, while Kenyatta Shelton narrowly missed her second consecutive double-double with nine points to go along with eight rebounds. South Dakota State was led by senior Megan Vogel's 23 points, five rebounds and four assists. Andrea Verdegan also chipped in 10 points for the Jackrabbits.

South Dakota State built as large as a nine-point lead in the first half before seeing the Redbirds finish the stanza on a 22-16 run over the final 12 minutes of the stanza to pull within 33-30 at halftime. The Jackrabbits started the second half on a 9-2 run, and after building a double-digit lead, never allowed the Redbirds to get any closer than six points for the remainder of the game.
