THE OPENING TIP

The Indiana men's basketball team is ranked 17th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and 18th by AP and will look to continue its quest for the Big Ten championship when it hosts Minnesota on Senior Night. The Hoosiers boast the top two scorers in the conference in freshman Eric Gordon (21.4) and senior D.J. White (17.0). White also leads the league in rebounds, averaging 10.4 per game. The leading candidate for Big Ten Player of the Year honors, White has been named the league's Player of the Week four times, the second most in Big Ten history. Both White and Gordon are among the top 30 midseason candidates for the Wooden and Naismith Awards. Gordon, a favorite for Big Ten Freshman of the Year, has set the IU record for freshman scoring with 599 points surpassing the old mark of 500 which was set by Mike Woodson in 1976-77. Sophomore Armon Bassett has stepped up his play as of late, reaching double figures in four straight games for the first time this season and the second time in his career. Bassett is the top three-point shooter in the league (48.7%) and is third on the team scoring 11.4 points per game. Minnesota is 18-10 overall and 8-8 in the league. IU knocked off the Golden Gophers, 65-60, in the first meeting of the season between the two teams in Minneapolis on January 17.

THE COACHES

Former Indiana player and assistant coach Dan Dakich was named interim head coach on February 22. He is 2-1 with Indiana and 158-141 overall as a head coach. He steps in for Kelvin Sampson who resigned after guiding Indiana to a 43-15 record in less than two years and notched a 498-272 mark in 25 years as a head coach. Dakich returned to IU this year after serving as the head coach for 10 seasons at Bowling Green. He was the third winningest coach in Falcon history with a 156-140 mark. Dakich helped the Indiana program win 73.7 percent (305-105) of its games over the 12+ years he served as an assistant coach, while the Hoosiers were winning over 70 percent of their Big Ten contests. He was a graduate assistant from 1985-87 before being named full-time prior to the 1987-88 campaign. Coach Tubby Smith is in his first season at Minnesota and holds an 18-10 record and an 8-8 Big Ten mark. He is 405-153 in 17 years of coaching which included stops at Tulsa, Georgia and Kentucky.

SENIOR NIGHT

Seniors D.J. White, Lance Stemer, Mike White and Adam Ahlfeld will hit the Branch McCracken Court for the final time against Minnesota.

UP NEXT

IU closes out the regular season at Penn State on March 9. The Hoosiers have clinched an opening day bye and one of the top three seeds in the Big Ten Tournament and will not play their first game in the event until Friday, March 14.

HOOSIER HISTORY

IU is third all-time in NCAA Championships (5), fifth in NCAA Tournament appearances (34), sixth in NCAA Tournament victories (60), seventh in Final Four appearances (8) and 10th in overall victories (1,633).

Indiana has won 20 Big Ten Championships with the last coming in 2002. The Hoosiers have the best winning percentage in conference games only at 60.0%. No team has had more All-Big Ten selections than IU with 51.

Indiana has won 17 of its last 18 games at Assembly Hall against Big Ten foes and is 30-2 against the league in Bloomington since 2005.

Quickly

• Eric Gordon leads the league in scoring (21.4), is third in the league in free throw percentage (85.3) and fifth in three-point field goals made (2.36). He has made (203) and attempted (238) more free throws than any other player in the league. The last freshman to lead the Big Ten in scoring was Minnesota's Kris Humphries (21.7) in 2004.

• D.J. White has recorded 18 double-doubles in his last 25 outings. He is currently second in the league in scoring (17.0), first in the league in rebounds (10.4) and field goal percentage (60.7), and fourth in the league in blocked shots (1.62). He moved into a tie for 20th on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,365 points and a share of 14th all-time at IU with 709 rebounds. He is averaging 17.7 points and 11.0 rebounds in Big Ten action.

• D.J. White was named IU's Scholar-Athlete of the Month for January.

• Jamarcus Ellis is fourth in the Big Ten in rebounding (7.1) and seventh in assists (3.59). He also is second in the league in defensive rebounds at 5.45.

• The Hoosiers lead the league in scoring (76.3), free throw percentage (76.3), rebounding (38.0) and defensive rebounding (26.55). Indiana sits in the top three in nine total statistical categories.

HOOSIER HIGHLIGHTS

TEAMMATES COMPETE FOR SCORING TITLE

Freshman Eric Gordon and senior D.J. White are looking to become the first teammates to finish first and second in the scoring race in the Big Ten since Michigan's Glen Rice and Gary Grant achieved the feat in 1987-88.

INDIANA AND THE BIG TEN MVP

If either White or Gordon is chosen as the league's MVP, it would mark the third time since the 2000 season that a Hoosier has been selected as the top player in the conference. Since the new millennium, A.J. Guyton shared the honor in 2000 and Jared Jeffries captured the award in 2002. Illinois has had three honorees this decade with Dee Brown (2005), Brian Cook (2003), and Frank Williams (2001), while Wisconsin saw Alando Tucker (2007) and Devin Harris (2004) recognized. Morris Peterson from Michigan State (2000) and Terence Dials from Ohio State (2006) also received the honor.

INDIANA LEADING THE BIG TEN IN...

Conference Games Only

With their 71.9 scoring average the Hoosiers are looking to lead the Big Ten in scoring for the second straight year. Last year, Indiana averaged 70.3 points per game.

The Hoosiers are leading the league in free throw percentage at 76.3. They last led the Big Ten at the line in 1997 when they shot 78.6%.

Indiana is second in the league in rebound margin +7.4 and has not been the best in the Big Ten in that category since 1982 (+4.4).

All Games

Eric Gordon would be the third Hoosier this decade to lead the league in scoring, joining Bracey Wright (18.3, 2005) and A.J. Guyton (19.7, 2000). He needs to score 60 points to break the Big Ten freshman scoring record of 658 set by Michael Redd of Ohio State in 1998.

D.J. White is looking to become the first Hoosier to lead the league in rebounding since George McGinnis in 1971 (14.9). Alan Henderson led the league in conference games only (10.3) in 1994.

White also is trying to become the first Indiana player since Alan Henderson (60.9) in 1995 to lead the conference in field goal percentage.

GORDON COULD BREAK FT RECORD

Freshman Eric Gordon is challenging the all-time school record for free throws made in a season. Don Schlundt made 249 in 1952-53. Gordon has made 203 in the 28 games he has played this season.

TABER SHOWED GLIMPSES IN BAHAMAS

Former walk on Kyle Taber averaged 7.0 rebounds on the team's three-game trip to the Bahamas over Labor Day weekend. Taber, who had his first dunk as a collegian against Purdue, has made 8-of-11 field goal attempts this year.

MORE NEW NOTES

IU set a new school record with its 16th home victory of the season following its win over Ohio State. The previous record was 15 wins, set on three occasions in 1986-87, 1992-93 and 2006-07.

Sophomore Armon Bassett has put together four straight double-digit scoring efforts for the first time this season and the second time in his career. He had 16 points and a career-high eight rebounds against Purdue, added a career-best 24 points at Northwestern, poured in 23 vs. Ohio State and collected 13 at Michigan State. Indiana is 11-2 when he hits two three-pointers or more in a game this season.

Since the UConn game on Jan. 26, D.J. White has played at least 36 minutes in 10-of-11 games. He left the Michigan State game on February 16 with an injury and only played 15 minutes. White played a career-high 48 minutes at Illinois, all 40 at Ohio State, 39 vs. UConn, 38 three times, 37 once and 36 three times.

D.J. White, Eric Gordon, Armon Bassett and Jamarcus Ellis have started together the last five contests and are 9-1 when taking the floor to open games this season.

With 24 wins, the Hoosiers have eclipsed their win total of 21 last season and their 13 conference triumphs also betters the 10 victories in the league a year ago.

Dan Dakich served for 410 games as an assistant coach at Indiana before being named interim head coach on February 22. Indiana was 305-105 in those games.

The Hoosiers earned a 39-34 advantage on the glass vs. Ohio State, improving to 19-2 when outrebounding an opponent this season.

Video coordinator Travis Steele will serve as an assistant coach the remainder of the season.

The Hoosiers scored 85 points, their highest total in league play this season, at Northwestern. Indiana has reached 80 points four times in conference action, posting a 4-0 mark and 11 times overall this season (11-0).

For the season, the Hoosiers have connected on 146-of-183 charity tosses (79.8%) in the final five minutes of contests this season.

Former Hoosier Players As Head Coach

Dan Dakich (81-85), Current
Lou Watson (47-50), 1966-71
Branch McCracken (28-30), 1939-65
Everett Dean (19-21), 1925-38

GORDON GETTING HOTTER

Freshman Eric Gordon is averaging 21.4 points in his last five games. In the five games, he is averaging 11.6 free throw attempts and has made 49-of-58 charity tosses. He had his Big Ten season high of 29 points against Northwestern on February 3 when the Hoosiers defeated the Wildcats, 75-63. The Hoosiers are 7-1 when he makes 10 free throws or more in a game.

D.J. WHITE AND ERIC GORDON

D.J. White and Eric Gordon are having one of the best seasons in school history by a pair of Hoosier teammates. Below is a summary of some of their accomplishments.

WHITE AND GORDON IN RARE COMPANY

Having been named to both the Naismith Trophy Mid-Season Watch List and the Top 30 candidates for the Wooden Award, Indiana's D.J. White and Eric Gordon are in elite company. The duo is one of only four sets of teammates on the Naismith list and one of only four on the Wooden list.

Naismith list teammates:

Indiana: Eric Gordon and D.J. White

North Carolina: Wayne Ellington, Tyler Hansbrough, Ty Lawson

Texas: A.J. Abrams, D.J. Augustin

UCLA: Kevin Love, Josh Shipp

Wooden list teammates:

Indiana: Eric Gordon and D.J. White

Kansas: Mario Chalmers and Brandon Rush

Memphis: Chris Douglas-Roberts and Derrick Rose

North Carolina: Wayne Ellington and Tyler Hansbrough

WHITE DOMINATING BIG TEN POW

Indiana's D.J. White has been dominant in terms of earning Big Ten Player of the Week honors. The senior post player has picked up the award four times this season, while Michigan State's Raymar Morgan and Penn State's Geary Claxton are the only two players who have picked up the honor twice this season. White is one of just three players in league history to have collected the honor four times or more in a single season.

TOP SCORING TANDEM IN IU HISTORY

D.J. White and Eric Gordon are currently combining to average 38.4 points per game this season. The two currently rank 1-2 in the league in scoring in both league games and overall affairs. In all games, the pair is nearly 10 points ahead of the nearest competition, as Michigan State's Raymar Morgan (15.1) and Drew Neitzel (13.5) are combining for 28.6 points per contest.

White and Gordon are also looking to become the seventh duo in school lore to put up an aggregate of 40 points or more.

- 1961-62: Jimmy Rayl (29.8) and Tom Bolyard (18.6) – 48.4
- 1962-63: Jimmy Rayl (25.3) and Tom Bolyard (20.0) – 45.3
- 1963-64: Dick VanArsdale (22.3) and Tom VanArsdale (21.3) – 43.6
- 1975-76: Scott May (23.5) and Kent Benson (17.3) – 40.8
- 1994-95: Alan Henderson (23.5) and Brian Evans (17.4) – 40.9
- 1968-69: Joe Cooke (21.8) and Ken Johnson (18.2) – 40.0
- 1992-93: Calbert Cheaney (22.4) and Greg Graham (16.5) – 38.9
- 2007-08: Eric Gordon (21.4) and D.J. White (17.0) – 38.4
- 1976-77: Mike Woodson (18.5) and Kent Benson (19.8) – 38.3
- 1957-58: Archie Dees (25.5) and Peter Obremsky (12.6) – 38.1

SEEING 25/25

Eric Gordon (29) and D.J. White (26) each cleared the 25-point mark in a 75-63 win over Northwestern on February 3. In doing that, they became the first pair of Hoosier teammates to break 25 points in the same game since Marco Killingsworth (28) and Marshall Strickland (25) did so in a victory over Nicholls State on Nov. 18, 2005. However, while Strickland and Killingsworth combined for 53.5 percent (53 of 99) of IU's points, White and Gordon made up a whopping 73.3 percent (55 of 75) of the Hoosier offense against Northwestern. On the year, Gordon and White have scored 1,092 of Indiana's 2,213 points (49.3 percent).

500/500 CLUB

Eric Gordon (599) and D.J. White (493) are both on pace to top the 500-point barrier this season, as they seek to become the 47th and 48th players in school history to top that mark. Should they both clear 500 points, they would become just the ninth tandem in IU lore to both score more than 500 points in a season. The highest point total that two Hoosiers have posted in the same season came in 1992-93, when Calbert Cheaney and Greg Graham set an IU record by scoring 1,362 points between them. Gordon (on pace for at least 663) and White (on pace for at least 547) could find themselves challenging that duo for the all-time scoring mark.

- 1992-93: Calbert Cheaney (785) and Greg Graham (577) – 1362
- 1975-76: Scott May (752) and Kent Benson (554) – 1306
- 1986-87: Steve Alford (749) and Daryl Thomas (534) – 1283
- 1994-95: Alan Henderson (729) and Brian Evans (538) – 1267
- 1993-94: Damon Bailey (589) and Alan Henderson (534) – 1123
- 1984-85: Steve Alford (580) and Uwe Blab (529) – 1109
- 2007-08: Eric Gordon (599) and D.J. White (493) – 1092
- 1998-99: Luke Recker (546) and A.J. Guyton (543) – 1089

LAST TIME AGAINST MINNESOTA

- The Hoosiers now lead the all-time series over the Golden Gophers 87-63, including victories in the last two meetings. Prior to the win in January, the last time Indiana earned a victory in Minneapolis came on Jan. 24, 2004, an 86-81 overtime triumph.
- Senior forward D.J. White secured his 11th double-double in 12 games with a game-high 17 points and 10 rebounds in 30 minutes. White shot 7-of-12 from the field and added a pair of blocks. He came into the game averaging 16.6 points and 10.6 rebounds.
- Trailing 27-21 with 6:36 remaining in the first half, the Hoosiers ran off the next 17 points over a 4:20 stretch to build a 38-27 advantage. Indiana took a 40-32 edge into the break.
- IU scored the game's final seven points. Minnesota held a 60-58 lead with 1:49 remaining before senior forward Lance Stemler nailed a game-winning trey at the 1:28 mark. Freshman guard Eric Gordon and Stemler each nailed a pair from the charity stripe to cap the run and seal the victory.
- Freshman guard Jordan Crawford poured in 16 points, including a career-best four three-pointers, and added six rebounds. The Detroit native hit all four trifectas and scored 14 of his points in the first stanza.
- Although Indiana attempted only 14 free throws, it hit 12 of those attempts (85.7 percent). The Golden Gophers missed 10 of their 21 attempts, shooting 52.4 percent.
- The Hoosiers outshot the Golden Gophers from the floor 46.8-39.7 and held a decisive advantage on the boards 42-26.

SERIES NOTE

The Hoosiers have not swept the season series from Minnesota since the 1992-93 season.

WHITE PUTTING UP MONSTER NUMBERS

Senior D.J. White is trying to become the first player since Alan Henderson to average double figures in scoring and rebounding at IU. He is currently averaging 17.0 points and 10.4 rebounds.

Fifteen rebounds

White was the first player since Steve Downing in 1972 to collect 15 rebounds or more in three straight games (Chicago State, Iowa, Michigan). White has had 121 rebounds in the last 10 games (12.1).

1,300 points/650 rebounds

White is now the 10th player in Hoosier history to record more than 1,350 points (1,365) and 700 rebounds (709) during his career. He is the first player to accomplish the feat since Kirk Haston had 1,406 points and 748 rebounds from 1999-2001.

Pan-Am Games Experience Helped

White became the eighth player in Indiana basketball history to suit up for Team USA in the Pan American Games this past summer for Villanova Coach Jay Wright and was the top performer for the squad after averaging 16.8 points (4th in the tournament) and 8.6 rebounds (3rd in the event) in five games. He shot 59.3% from the field.

ELLIS SETS THE TONE

Junior Jamarcus Ellis made quite a first impression in his first Big Ten game at Iowa. He had 15 points, seven rebounds, seven assists and five steals. In addition, he tied the score just before halftime with an off-balance jumper, and had six straight points in a key second half stretch which saw the Hoosiers rally from a four-point deficit against the Hawkeyes.

For the season, he is averaging 7.0 points, 7.1 rebounds (fourth in the Big Ten) and 3.59 assists (seventh in the Big Ten) and is second on the team with 20 blocked shots and leads the team with 42 steals. He grabbed a career-high 13 boards at Wisconsin, pulled down a career-best six offensive rebounds against Northwestern and added 11 rebounds, 10 on the defensive end at Illinois. His nickname, Tone, is short for his middle name, Antonio.

GORDON'S BIG TEN DEBUT WAS NOTABLE

Freshman Eric Gordon had 25 points to help lead the Hoosiers to the 79-76 win at Iowa. Here is where his Big Ten opening freshman performance rates among some of the greats in Indiana history.

Steve Alford, 24 points at Ohio State, 1/7/84
 Alan Henderson, 20 points vs. Minnesota, 1/9/91
 Calbert Cheaney, 18 points at Ohio State, 1/4/89
 Bracey Wright, 17 points vs. Penn State, 1/8/03
 A.J. Guyton, 16 points at Michigan State, 1/2/97
 Isiah Thomas, 15 points at Ohio State, 1/3/80
 Damon Bailey, 14 points vs. Illinois, 1/2/91
 Mike Woodson, 14 points vs. Purdue, 1/6/77

HOOSIERS NEED BASSETT

Sophomore point guard Armon Bassett is showing his toughness by playing through pain caused by bone chips in his left foot and the Hoosiers are 11-3 when he scores 10 points or more. The Terre Haute, Ind., native had 16 points (4-of-4 from deep), a career-high eight rebounds and four assists in the team's win against Purdue, carded a season-high 24 points in the full 40 minutes at Northwestern and recorded back-to-back 20-point efforts for the first time in his career with 23 vs. Ohio State. He finished with 13 at Michigan State, reaching double figures in four straight games for the first time this season and the second time in his career. In the four games, Bassett is averaging 19.0 points, shooting 57.5 percent, 60.0 from deep, 88.2 from the line, adding 4.0 boards and 3.8 assists in 36.0 minutes.

Bassett is currently leading the Big Ten in three-point field goal percentage at 48.7 percent. He also saved the day with 11 points at home against Illinois and his clutch triples in the second half helped IU post the win against the Illini. His clutch free throws in overtime helped the Hoosiers top Illinois in Champaign.

Redshirt junior forward Kyle Taber made his first career start and played a career-long 24 minutes against Northwestern. Prior to the game, Taber had seen one minute of action in the previous seven Big Ten games.

He contributed four rebounds (two offensive) and added a blocked shot against the Wildcats. He followed that up with a strong 21 minutes at Illinois and found himself back in the starting fold in the team's win at Ohio State and against Wisconsin. After a solid 18-minute effort against Michigan State, the Evansville, Ind., native posted a career-best six points with five rebounds, two assists and one steal in 21 minutes against rival Purdue. Since the Northwestern game on Feb. 3 (nine games), Taber has started three times and averaged 2.6 rebounds in 15.6 minutes.

HOOSIERS ON THE ROAD THIS SEASON

Indiana is 7-2 on the road this season with wins at Southern Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Illinois and Ohio State. IU is 8-3 in games away from Assembly Hall.

Hoosier opponents are shooting just 31.9% from long distance when they are at home.

IU is winning the battle of the boards, 38.8 to 31.8, in these games.

Freshman Eric Gordon is averaging 19.1 points and shooting 44.9 from the field and 38.6 from three-point range and senior D.J. White is averaging 17.0 points and 13.4 rebounds.

Freshman Jordan Crawford is averaging 12.3 points and shooting 53.3 from long distance.

MICHIGAN STATE POST-GAME NOTES

- Indiana is now 24-5 on the season and 13-3 in the Big Ten, one game behind league leaders Wisconsin and Purdue.
- The Hoosiers still hold a 7-2 mark on the road this season, including a 6-2 ledger in conference play, and are 8-3 overall away from Bloomington this season.
- Interim head coach Dan Dakich suffered his first defeat on the Hoosier sideline. He is now 2-1 and 158-141 overall in his coaching career.
- Senior forward D.J. White recorded his 18th double-double of the season, his 10th of the Big Ten campaign and his 21st in his last 31 games with 14 points and 12 rebounds.
- With his 14 points White moved into a tie for 20th on the Hoosiers' all-time scoring list with Andrae Patterson (1995-98) at 1,365. He also moved into a share of 12 on the all-time rebounding charts with Charles DeHeer (1967-69) at 709. White is the 10th player in IU history to reach 1,350 points and 700 rebounds.
- White also played 36 minutes - the 10th time in the last 11 games he has played at least 36 minutes.
- Freshman guard Eric Gordon reached the 20-point mark for the 17th time this season, pouring in 22 points in 36 minutes. He finished the regular season averaging 25.0 against the Spartans after collecting 28 in the first meeting between the two teams on February 16. Gordon now needs 60 points to break the Big Ten freshman scoring record set by Ohio State's Michael Redd (658) in 1998.
- Gordon hit one 3-pointer to move into a share of the top spot for most treys in a season by a Hoosier freshman. Bracey Wright also hit 66 during the 2002-03 season.
- Sophomore guard Armon Bassett scored in double figures for the fourth straight game and 14th time this season. He contributed 13 points and dished out six assists in 39 minutes.
- Junior forward DeAndre Thomas played 10 minutes and added four points and three rebounds. It marked the first time he logged double-digit minutes since the last meeting between the two teams, where he played 16 minutes on February 16.
- Detroit native Jordan Crawford led the Hoosiers off the bench with 12 points in 27 minutes. The freshman guard shot 5-of-8 from the floor en route to his 15th double-digit scoring effort. Crawford also scored 12 points against the Spartans in Bloomington on February 16.
- Senior forward Lance Stemler set a career-high with two blocks. He added four points and two rebounds in 17 minutes.
- Senior forward Mike White saw his first action since the two teams last met on February 16 in Bloomington.
- Indiana still leads the overall series against the Spartans 64-43.
- The Hoosiers scored 74 points, reaching the 70-point plateau for the 22nd time this season and the 10th time in Big Ten play.

HOME WINNING STREAK SNAPPED

Connecticut's victory at Assembly Hall snapped Indiana's 29-game home winning streak. The Hoosiers had not lost a home contest dating back to Feb. 11, 2006. It also marked IU's first loss on the Branch McCracken Court in two years (27-1) and snapped its 13-game overall winning streak.

The 29-game streak was the fourth-longest in school history and the fourth-longest active streak in the nation. The longest Indiana home streaks are listed below:

No.	Began	Ended
56	Feb. 24, 1991 vs. Michigan 112-79	Jan. 24, 1995 vs. Michigan 52-65
33	Jan. 15, 1986 vs. Ohio State 69-66	Jan. 24, 1988 vs. Michigan 60-72
31	Dec. 22, 1973 vs. South Carolina 84-71	Dec. 6, 1976 vs. Kentucky 51-66
29	Feb. 22, 2006 vs. Penn State, 69-65	Jan. 26, 2008 vs. UConn 63-68

CRAWFORD CONTRIBUTES AS A FROSH

Freshman Jordan Crawford has emerged as a strong candidate for the Big Ten's All-Freshman team and Sixth Man of the Year Award. He is seventh among rookies in scoring in the league averaging 10.4 points. Combined with Gordon, they make up one of the strongest young backcourts in the nation averaging 31.8 points per game or 41.7 percent of the Hoosiers' scoring attack. Usually the first option off the bench, unless there is an injury, he has scored in double figures in 15 of 25 games this season.

His most memorable performance of the season came when he started against his brother, Joe, when the Hoosiers battled Kentucky. Playing 39 minutes in his first career start, he had 20 points, two assists and two steals as the Hoosiers got the best of the Wildcats, 70-51.

At Northwestern, Crawford scored a career-high 21 points in 29 minutes. Crawford went 4-of-5 from deep, matching his career-high (third time) and shot 6-of-7 overall. He also added five assists, four rebounds and went a perfect 5-of-5 from the foul line. He has hit his last 14 of his last 15 free throw attempts.

Since the Hoosiers' win at Illinois (eight games), where he hit a pair of crucial treys in OT, Crawford has averaged 10.8 points, 3.4 boards, 2.8 assists and posted a 1.4 assist/turnover ratio. Crawford is shooting 50.0 percent from the floor and 48.0 from downtown during the stretch.

RPI AND SAGARIN RATINGS

The Hoosiers are 16th in the latest RPI and 15th according to the Sagarin Ratings.

STEMLER IS MR. BIG SHOT

Senior captain Lance Stemler is proving to be quite a performer in the clutch during Big Ten play. Twice in league action, he has made three-pointers which have given IU the lead for good and helped them erase second-half deficits. Against Minnesota, Stemler buried a triple from the top of the key to give the Hoosiers a 61-60 lead with a little more than a minute to go. At Iowa, he hit a trey from the right wing which gave IU the lead for good with more than 12 minutes to go. At Illinois, he hit another big triple late in regulation to cut the Hoosiers deficit from four to one. He has started seven of the last eight games and has hit at least one three-pointer in seven of the last 11 contests.

HOOSIER QUICK HITS

• Chicago State went 0-for-5 from the free throw line, the first Hoosier opponent since at least 1970 to not make at least one free throw during a game against Indiana. San Francisco went 1 for 1 on free throw attempts against Indiana in Assembly Hall on December 20, 1998. On December 3, 1991, the Hoosiers did not make a free throw in a 78-46 win over Notre Dame at home.

• Freshman Eric Gordon had 31 points against Illinois State, his third 30+ point effort of the season. Only one other freshman in school history, Mike Woodson in 1976-77, has scored 30 or more points three times in their freshman year.

The Indianapolis North Central product is the first player in Indiana basketball history to score 20 points or more in the first seven games of his career. George McGinnis held the previous record with six straight to start a career. Gordon also set an IU first game and two-game scoring record with 31 points against UT Chattanooga and a total of 54 points in his first two games, topped, McGinnis who had 52.

The Hoosiers are 16-1 when he makes two or more three-point field goals.

• Senior D.J. White has posted a double-double in 21 of his last 31 games and has notched 10 rebounds or more in 21 of the last 30 games. He was an all-tournament choice at the Chicago Invitational Challenge.

With 709 career rebounds, he is now tied for 14th in career rebounds at IU.

D.J. White's Double-Double Efforts This Season

Xavier--16 points, 10 rebounds
 Georgia Tech--18 points, 14 rebounds
 Southern Illinois--10 points, 12 rebounds
 Tennessee State--29 points, 13 rebounds

 Michigan State-- 14 points, 12 rebounds

• Sophomore Armon Bassett is leading the Big Ten in three-point shooting, connecting on 48.7% of his attempts (58/119).

• The Hoosiers have made more free throws (513) than their opponents have attempted (497) this season.

• Senior co-captain Lance Stemler's triples with more than 12 minutes left in the game gave the Hoosiers the lead over Iowa for good as did his trey with 1:28 left at Minnesota.

• Indiana has won the battle of the boards in 20 of the last 25 games, tying once.

• The Hoosiers are 22-1 when they make more free throws than their opponent.

• The Hoosiers are 21-1 when they commit the same or fewer fouls in a game than their opponent and 12 of the Hoosiers wins have come by 12 points or more.

• The Hoosiers are 7-2 on the road and 8-3 away from Assembly Hall this season.

ODDS AND TRENDS

- Indiana is 35-2 when scoring 70 points during the last two years
- Indiana is 33-4 when leading at the half in the past two seasons.
- The Hoosiers are 32-5 when outrebounding their opponents in the past two seasons.
- The Hoosiers played their first overtime game of the season at Illinois, winning in two extra sessions, 83-79. It was IU's first double-OT game since Jan. 15, 2005, at Purdue. Indiana is now 3-1 in double-overtime games in the last 10 years, with all three wins coming on the road.
- The Hoosiers made defensive stops in back-to-back games in the closing seconds when holding a two-point lead against Illinois and a one-point cushion against Minnesota.
- Indiana posted its first win in two years when trailing with under five minutes to go at Minnesota. The Gophers led 56-52. Indiana replicated the feat at Illinois, as the Illini held a 59-54 edge with five minutes to play.
- At Northwestern, the Hoosiers rallied for their ninth victory when trailing at the half during the past two seasons.
- The Hoosiers rallied for a win for the sixth time this season at Northwestern when trailing by eight points or more in a game. UNC Wilmington led IU, 18-8, with 15:29 to go in the first half, Georgia Tech led the Hoosiers, 26-18, with 9:25 left in the opening half and the Illini led the Hoosiers, 13-4, with 15:52 remaining in the first half in the team's game in Bloomington. In Champaign, the Hoosiers were down 42-30 with 16:33 to go in regulation. Against the Spartans, Indiana trailed 15-4 with 13:33 left in the first half and NU held a 25-16 edge with 9:42 to go in the opening stanza.
- The Hoosiers have four comeback wins when trailing in the second half, two of them against the Illini and one against Georgia Tech and at Northwestern.
- Indiana never trailed against Longwood, Illinois State, Tennessee State, Kentucky, Western Carolina, Chicago State and Northwestern.
- The Hoosiers had 56 rebounds, the most in the last two seasons, against Chicago State.
- Against Southern Illinois, Indiana saw the Salukis miss their first 12 three-point field goal attempts.
- The Hoosiers snapped a four-game losing streak in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge with an 83-79 victory over Georgia Tech.

Assembly Hall

The Hoosiers have won 33 of their last 35 games at home and several numbers show why the Hoosiers have been dominant in Assembly Hall.

- Indiana is 180-19 (90.4) all-time at Assembly Hall against non-conference foes and 264-51 (83.8) against the Big Ten.
- The Hoosiers are averaging 80.1 points per game in their 18 home games this season.
- Indiana is shooting 49.2% from the floor.
- Two players are shooting 50% or better from the field at home. D.J. White (64.8) and Armon Bassett (52.9) have been blistering from the field at home.
- Opponents are shooting just 40.8% from the floor and 35.4% from three-point range.
- The Hoosiers are outrebounding opponents 36.8 to 29.3.
- The Hoosiers have shot 451 free throws compared to 266 for their opponents.

BASKETBALL DEVELOPMENT CENTER

IU held its official groundbreaking ceremony June 19 to signify the beginning of construction of several major athletic facilities including the North Endzone Facility, Basketball Development Center, Baseball Stadium, Softball Stadium and The Academic Resource Center. The $55 million plan was approved by trustees on Sept. 22, 2006. Architectural plans call for the Indiana basketball teams to have a new facility to call home. The Indiana Basketball Development Center will serve as the daily headquarters for the men's and women's programs, featuring practice courts, locker rooms, coach's offices and meeting rooms for each team, as well as a training room and strength development area. The addition of the center will alleviate overcrowding issues encountered in the current facility. In addition, a legacy area will be developed to honor the history of Indiana basketball. The Student Development and Compliance unit at Indiana University (target move-in is spring 2009) will relocate as a part of the facilities plan, moving from a modest 2,500 square foot space in Assembly Hall to a spacious and renovated 18,000 square foot area located on the east side of Memorial Stadium. Classrooms, private tutoring space, study areas, computer labs and staff offices will all be housed in the Academic Center for Excellence.

HOOSIERS WORK OVERTIME FOR WIN AT ILLINOIS

- The last time IU swept the season series from the Illini was also during the 1998-99 season when it logged a 62-53 win in Bloomington before that overtime win in Champaign.
- The 83-79 final score means that each of the last four meetings between the two teams has been decided by exactly four points, with the Hoosiers posting a 3-1 record in those games.
- Indiana's last overtime game was March 9, 2007 at the Big Ten Tournament, also against Illinois. The Illini came away with a 58-54 win in that game.
- The Hoosiers' last overtime win came during the 2004-05 season at home against Michigan State, a 78-74 triumph on Feb. 27, 2005. The last IU overtime win on the road also came that same season, a 75-73 double-overtime win at Purdue on Jan. 15.
- Four Indiana players, Armon Bassett (43), D.J. White (48), Jamarcus Ellis (43) and Eric Gordon (45), played over 40 minutes for the first time since that same double overtime win at Purdue. The totals are new career highs for all four Hoosiers.

HOOSIERS SIGN FOUR

In November, four players signed national letters of intent. The class was rated the 15th best in the nation according to Rivals.com.

Devin Ebanks

6'8" • 185 • Long Island City, N.Y./
St. Thomas More (Conn.) Prep

Ebanks, a native of Long Island City, N.Y., is ranked second among small forwards and 13th overall in the class of 2008, according to Rivals.com. He averaged 23 points, five rebounds, four assists and three steals as a junior at St. Thomas More Prep in Connecticut for Coach Jere Quinn. In the summer of 2007, Ebanks was one of thirty high school players to be invited to the USA Basketball Men's Youth Development Festival at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo., and averaged 28.2 points and 4.8 rebounds per game. He also shot 60.2% from the field and 1.8 steals in 29.8 minutes per game. As a sophomore, he averaged 18 points, nearly six rebounds and 1.3 assists. Ebanks is the son of Yvonne Jackson and Hubert Ebanks.

Terrell Holloway

6'0" • 175 • Hempstead, N.Y./
Cincinnati's Harmony Prep

Holloway is the 20th ranked point guard in the class of 2008 and the 100th overall prospect according to Rivals.com. The Hempstead, N.Y. native is ranked as the 16th best point guard in his class according to scout.com. Holloway led Hempstead High School to the Nassau Class AA title in 2006, the program's first in six seasons. He averaged 20 points, six rebounds, six assists and six steals for Coach Rodney Crawford. He is the son of Angela and Terrell Holloway.

Tom Pritchard

6'8" • 240 • Westlake, Ohio/
Lakewood St. Edward High School

Pritchard averaged 14 points, seven rebounds and two blocked shots a game as a junior, helping Lakewood St. Edward to a 25-1 record and an appearance in the state semifinal. Under Coach Eric Flannery, Pritchard, who hails from Westlake, Ohio, and St. Edward finished the 2006-07 season ranked 23rd in the USA TODAY Super 25 poll. Prior to a loss in the state semifinal game, St. Edward was ranked in the top ten for most of the season. He is the son of Beth and Dan Pritchard.

Matt Roth

6'3" • 175 • Washington, Ill./
Metamora Washington High School

As a junior, Roth averaged 21 points and five rebounds as he led Metamora Washington High School to a 27-2 record. Was a member of the Associated Press's 2006-07 Class AA all-state first team in Illinois following his junior year. He garnered second team honors with the Chicago Tribune and third team accolades with the Chicago Sun-Times. The Washington, Ill., native made 148 triples on his way to shooting a blistering 48 percent from three-point line for Coach Kevin Brown. He led his team in points and blocks and finished second in rebounds. He was named the 2007-08 MidStateHoops.com Preseason Player of the Year.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All media requests should be directed to Director of Media Relations J.D. Campbell by calling 812-322-1437 or via email at jc56@indiana.edu.

In addition to the Big Ten Teleconference, Coach Dakich will hold one press conference per week, generally on Thursday as the team's schedule permits.

Players can be made available after practice on a non-game or travel day as long as the player has no class conflict. We request at least 48 hours notice to ensure the player availability.

IU RADIO NETWORK

This marks the 35th year that Don Fischer has been the radio play-by-play "voice" of Indiana University Football and Basketball games. In addition to broadcasting the games, Fischer hosts the weekly coaches talk shows for both football and basketball, and has a weekly IU sports show, from September through March on the IU Radio Network. Fischer has broadcast more than 1,200 Indiana University games that include six bowl games, four NCAA Basketball Championship games and two N.I.T. Championship games.

Former Indiana guard Todd Leary is in his sixth season as the color analyst. Leary played for the Hoosiers from 1989-94 and still ranks among IU's top-10 career leaders in career three-point field goal percentage at .423, and his .460 shooting from beyond the arc in 1993-94 is ninth on the all-time list.

Joe Smith is in his 25th year with the IU Radio Network. He has handled pre-game, halftime and post-game duties since 1983. Joe handled the IU TV warmup from 1978-82 and hosted several IU Coaches Shows from 1983-96 and again from 2002-04.

INSIDE IU BASKETBALL

Inside Indiana Basketball is a weekly radio show which can be heard each Monday night (except for game night and holidays) from 7 to 8 p.m. on the IU Radio Network.

Long-time voice of the Hoosiers Don Fischer, who is entering his 35th year behind the microphone, will join Coach Dakich to preview the coming week's action and review games from the previous week.

The show will originate from The Hoosier Den, which is located in Foster Quad on the IU campus. The show is produced by IU Sports Properties.

HOOSIERS TOP MOCS, 99-77

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--Overcoming a slow start, No. 8 Indiana (1-0) came back with a dominating second-half performance for a 99-79 win over Chattanooga (1-1) at Assembly Hall in Bloomington.

Making his official collegiate debut, freshman Eric Gordon led all scorers with 33 points. Gordon was 9 of 15 on the court and made a staggering seven of 11 three-point attempts. It is the most points scored by a Hoosier player in his IU debut. The previous record of 26 was set by George McGinnis on December 1, 1970 against Eastern Michigan.

After turning the ball over 10 times in the first half the Hoosiers gave up the ball just three times in the second period while forcing eight Chattanooga giveaways. Indiana shot 60 percent (18-30) from the field in the second half, including 6 of 10 on three-point attempts.

With the Mocs shooting at a blistering 57 percent in the first half, the Indiana defense clamped down in the second period allowing just 29 points on 10 field goals.

Trailing 50-46 at the half the Hoosiers came out of the locker room fired up, punctuated by a dunk from Gordon that brought the crowd to its feet and made it a 50-all contest.

Indiana went back on top with a D.J. White jumper at 17:50 to make it 52-50 and slowly pulled away to an eight-point advantage (65-57).

The Hoosiers finished with five players in double figures as Armon Bassett contributed 20 points and White added 17. Jamarcus Ellis was the top IU rebounder with nine.

HOOSIERS OVER LONGWOOD, 100-49

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--The No. 8 Indiana Hoosiers shot 59 percent from the field, including 61 percent from three-point range in a 100-49 victory over Longwood at Assembly Hall in the first round of the Chicago Invitational Challenge.

Indiana (2-0) led by as many as 56 points (97-41) and finished with six players scoring in double figures for the first time since 1998. For the second time in as many games freshman Eric Gordon led all scorers with 21 points in just 26 minutes of play, hitting five of eight three-point attempts. Junior guard Jamarcus Ellis had a season-high 11 rebounds and just missed out on a double-double with nine points. Indiana won the rebounding battle, 46-33.

Gordon's two-game total of 54 points better the IU record of 52 points scored in the first two games of a career set by George McGinnis in 1970-71.

The Hoosiers' defense smothered the Lancers' attack as Longwood shot just 26 percent for the game, including 17 percent (5 of 29) in the second half. After a layup from Danny Wilson cut the IU lead to one at 7-6, Indiana rattled off a 14-2 run that was punctuated by a Gordon dunk for a 21-8 advantage with 13:15 to play. Longwood would get no closer than eight (21-13) for the remainder of the game as the Hoosiers closed the half on a 24-11 run to take a 54-30 lead into the lockerroom at the break.

Freshman Jordan Crawford made his sixth basket in as many attempts with 9:42 left in the game to put Indiana ahead 79-41. The freshman finished with 16 points on 70 percent (7-10) shooting.

Senior D.J. White played just 21 minutes as head coach Kelvin Sampson turned to his bench early in the second half. White was 4-of-5 from the field and 4-of-5 from the charity stripe for 12 points, while guard Armon Bassett added 14 points and five assists in 23 minutes of action, along with Crawford's 16.

IU TOPS UNCW, 95-71

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--Indiana can win with defense, too.

On a night when Eric Gordon scored 30 points and five Hoosiers finished in double figures, it was a relentless defensive effort that overshadowed everything and allowed No. 8 Indiana to rout North Carolina-Wilmington 95-71 in the second round of the Chicago Invitational Challenge.

For the Hoosiers (3-0), it was actually a well-rounded night.

They shot 60.4 percent from the field, the highest percentage since Sampson took over as coach last year. They forced 26 turnovers and allowed UNCW to shoot only 44.4 percent after it started by making seven of its first nine shots.

Gordon was his usual self, connecting on 8-of-12 shots and making 12-of-13 free throws, and when he started going to the basket it opened things up for his teammates. The result: Armon Bassett scored 19 points, Jordan Crawford 15, D.J. White 12 and DeAndre Thomas 11.

Indiana flirted with the 100-point mark for the third straight game and produced its 20th consecutive regular-season home win. The Seahawks were led by Todd Hendley with 20 points and Chad Tomko with 17 but couldn't keep up with Indiana's scorers, depth or defensive pressure, and again, Gordon, a freshman, proved the difference. The Hoosiers went on a 9-0 run to take their first lead, 27-24, when Bassett completed a three-point play with 7:42 left in the half, and then the defensive pressure changed everything in the final 10 minutes.

With Gordon continually forcing UNCW to go to other players, the turnovers mounted. By halftime, they had 17 turnovers and the Hoosiers were running away with easy baskets that produced a 12-0 spurt and a 39-26 lead. By halftime it was 52-32, and Gordon and Bassett had already combined for as many points as the entire UNCW team.

HOOSIERS BEST ILLINOIS STATE, 70-57

HOFFMAN ESTATES, ILLINOIS--Freshman Eric Gordon scored 31 points, the third time in four games he's hit for at least 30, and No. 8 Indiana held off a second-half charge to beat Illinois State 70-57 in the Chicago Invitational Challenge.

Gordon showed off the dazzling skills that allowed him to average 28 points in the first three games of his freshman career. He scored 20 in the first half on 8-of-11 shooting. He had 11 straight Indiana points during one stretch to help the Hoosiers build a 38-28 halftime lead. Illinois State (3-1), seeking its first victory over a Top 10 opponent since the 1983-84 season, gave Indiana its first real test in its first road game.

Gordon made his first basket of the second half an emphatic one, driving down the lane for a thunderous dunk with 13:05 left, bringing a large contingent of Hoosiers fans at the Sears Center to their feet as Indiana went up by 11. But Levi Dyer, who had 18 points, hit a pair of 3-pointers as the scrappy Redbirds ran off nine straight points to cut the lead to 50-48 with just over 10 minutes remaining.

But another freshman, Jordan Crawford, scored six points to spark a late 10-2 run for Indiana that put the Hoosiers up by 11 with about three minutes to go. Crawford finished with 13 points, 10 in the second half.

Gordon helped the Hoosiers built a 13-point lead in the first half by scoring 11 straight Indiana points. He lost a dribble on a fastbreak but quickly retrieved it and hit a layup. And then moments after hitting two free throws, he sneaked free on an inbounds pass for a layup to make it 25-16.

XAVIER DEFEATS INDIANA, 80-65

HOFFMAN ESTATES, ILLINOIS-- C.J. Anderson and B.J. Raymond scored 19 points apiece, and Xavier handed the eighth-ranked Hoosiers their first loss, beating them 80-65 in the final of the Chicago Invitational Challenge .

"Teams have opportunities to get better through losses," Indiana coach Kelvin Sampson said.

And he thinks this could be one of them.

The Big Ten's leading scorer Eric Gordon led Indiana with 20 points, but the Hoosiers overall were held in check hitting just one of 15 three point attempts.

D.J. White did his best to pick up the slack for Indiana with 16 points and 10 rebounds, as he and Jamarcus Ellis, who finished with 10 points and 11 rebounds were the only Hoosiers to score in double figures.

Xavier (4-1) outscored Indiana (4-1) 13-3 over the final 3:54 of the first half to turn a one-point advantage into a 40-29 lead, and the Musketeers maintained control the rest of the way. Anderson shot 7-of-14, while Raymond hit 7 of 12. And both did a good job on the boards, with Raymond grabbing 10 rebounds and Anderson eight.

They were leading 27-26 when they scored eight straight. Indiana's Armon Bassett hit a 3-pointer with 58 seconds remaining, but Burrell then rattled in one from the wing, the ball hitting the rim before falling through the net. The Musketeers ended the half with another wild shot.

It was a rough half for Indiana, which hit just 12 of 32 shots and was 1-of-9 on 3-pointers.

HOOSIERS OVER GA. TECH, 83-79

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA-- Four players scored in double figures as No. 15 Indiana managed to gut out an 83-79 win over Georgia Tech at Assembly Hall as part of the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. With the win the Hoosiers improved to 5-1, while the Yellow Jackets fall to 3-3.

Indiana, the top shooting team in the Big Ten entering the game, shot 49 percent (24-49) from the field. Solid Georgia Tech defense also limited IU from three-point range, hitting seven of 18 attempts (39 percent). The Hoosiers had a decisive advantage at the free throw line, connecting on 28 of 38 attempts while the Yellow Jackets were 11 of 20.

Freshman Eric Gordon led all scorers with 29 points. Gordon was just 7 of 14 from the field but went to the charity stripe 16 times, making 13 shots. Senior D.J. White recorded his second-straight double double with 18 points and a career-high tying 14 rebounds. Lance Stemler and Jamarcus Ellis each set season highs with 15 points apiece.

Clinging to a 38-34 halftime advantage, Indiana opened the second half with a four-minute scoring drought that allowed the Yellow Jackets to come back and take a 43-38 lead. White made good on one of two free throws with 12:15 to play and the Hoosiers were back within one, 51-50.

It remained a one-point affair at 53-52 until Ellis was fouled driving to the hoop and hit both freebies to put the Hoosiers back in the lead at 8:45. Up 63-60 as the clock ticked under six minutes, Stemler drained his third three-point basket of the night. A pair of Gordon free throws, resulting in some breathing room at 68-60, followed a defensive stand. Indiana's largest lead of the game came with 3:37 remaining when a triple from Gordon made it 75-65.

HOOSIERS KNOCK OFF SIU, 64-51

CARBONDALE, ILLINOIS--Freshman Eric Gordon scored 22 points and teamed with Jamarcus Ellis and D.J. White on defense with three blocked shots apiece to lead #15 Indiana to a 64-51 win over #22 Southern Illinois.

D.J. White added 10 points and 12 rebounds for the Hoosiers (6-1) in their only road nonconference game of the season and Ellis also had a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds. It was the third straight double-double for White and the second in three games for Ellis.

Randal Falker had 12 points and seven rebounds for the Salukis (3-2), who missed all 13 of their 3-point shots before Matt Shaw hit one with 1:03 to play. The Salukis shot 37.5 percent (21-of-56) from the field overall, with many of the looks wide open.

Gordon became the first to score at least 20 points against Southern this season and just the third since the start of last season, when only Western Kentucky's Courtney Lee (23) and Evansville's Matt Webster (21) accomplished the feat.

Gordon needed time to find his groove. He missed his first two shots before finally knocking down a 3-pointer that tied it at 14 about midway through the first half against a Salukis defense among the nation's stingiest, holding opponents this season to just 57 points a game.

Gordon took over after the break, scoring 12 points in a 17-7 Indiana run that turned a 34-30 Hoosier lead to a 51-37 bulge with 5:30 left. Gordon had two 3-pointers during that stretch.

INDIANA DEFEATS TSU, 84-72

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--D.J. White scored a career-high 29 points and No. 15 Indiana rolled to an 84-72 victory over Tennessee State.

The Hoosiers (7-1) led early by as many as 19 points, but freshman Eric Gordon left the game with about 6 minutes left in the first half after he fell hard to the floor, bruising his lower back.

With Gordon gone, the Tigers (2-4) rallied within seven points before two straight 3-pointers by Indiana's Lance Stemler. Two free throws by Jamarcus Ellis then gave Indiana a 73-58 lead and Tennessee State came no closer than 12 points the rest of the way.

White, a 6-foot-9 senior whose previous high was 23 points, was perfect in eight shots from the field in the first half and finished 11-of-16 overall. He was 7-of-9 from the free throw line and had four blocked shots. Mike White finished with 11 points, Ellis had 10 and Stemler finished with nine for Indiana, which held on for its 22nd straight victory in Assembly Hall.

Gordon, who had played all 40 minutes in the past two games, finished with eight points, the first time in his college career he scored fewer than 20.

Gordon was 1-of-4 from the field and was knocked to the court as he passed off to White, who was fouled and hit both free throws for a 36-17 lead. Gordon remained in the game briefly, but he left shortly after that.

The Tigers took advantage of Gordon's absence and cut Indiana's lead to 40-28 with three straight 3-pointers by Price, the man Gordon had been guarding.

Brandon McGee then hit the Hoosiers' first 3-pointer after eight straight misses, and they kept the lead at 16 until a last-second 3-pointer by Price made it 48-35 at halftime.

INDIANA TOPPLES KENTUCKY, 70-51

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--Freshman Jordan Crawford scored 20 points to lead a short-handed Indiana team to a 70-51 win over Kentucky in the first meeting between the two teams in Assembly Hall since 1990.

Indiana took control midway through the first half with a 15-5 run that expanded the lead to 20-15 with 6:11 left in the first half.

Kentucky closed to 31-23 when brother Joe Crawford stole the ball from his brother and drove in for a layup. But Jordan Crawford made three of four free throws in the final 90 seconds, during a five-point flurry that gave Indiana a 37-25 halftime lead.

The second half was all Hoosiers.

Indiana scored the first nine points in the second half, building a 46-25 lead, and then things turned ugly for the Wildcats. Bradley fouled out with 13:51 left, and Michael Porter fouled out with 9:58 to go.

Even when something did go right, like Joe Crawford's driving layup at the 12:49 mark, the Wildcats still made mistakes. Crawford drew a technical foul after the play.

The result: Kentucky never got closer than 17 points the rest of the way, and Jordan Crawford walked away with a win and family bragging rights.

Senior D.J. White became the 41st player in school history to eclipse the 1,000 point mark with his 16-point, 13-rebound performance. He now has scored 1,006 points.

Junior Jamarcus Ellis added 12 points, five rebounds and five assists and junior DeAndre Thomas had 11 points and five rebounds.

HOOSIERS OVER WCU, 100-52

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA-- Freshman Eric Gordon scored 26 points, senior D.J. White had another double-double with 21 points and 11 rebounds and freshman Jordan Crawford added 19 to lead the Hoosiers to a 100-52 win Western Carolina.

Gordon, the Big Ten's leading scorer, topped 20 points for the eighth time this season and came within two baskets of breaking Mike Woodson's freshman mark for most 30-point games in a season (three).

WCU shot 34.5 percent from the field, committed 24 fouls and 21 turnovers and was outrebounded 50-24.

More troubling was the lack of a supporting cast. Michael Porrini scored 20 points and Arnold Gore 16, but no other Western Carolina player had more than six. In fact, until Jake Robinson completed a three-point play with 3:49 left in the first half, no other Catamount had scored.

Gordon had no trouble with his shooting touch, finishing 8-of-13 and 6-of-11 from 3-point range, and the Hoosiers had no problem getting back in sync with their dazzling freshman.

White opened the game with back-to-back three-point plays, an ominous sign of what was to come for the Catamounts.

By halftime, Indiana had already strung together runs of 8-0, 8-0, 11-0 and 7-0, then used a 15-0 spurt early in the second half to close out their 24th consecutive home victory. That's the fourth longest streak in the country, and Sampson is now 22-0 at Assembly Hall since taking over as coach last season.

SECOND HALF HELPS IU OVER COPPIN ST.

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--D.J. White had 21 points and eight rebounds, and freshman Eric Gordon scored 13 of his 15 points in the second half, helping Indiana overcome its sluggish start to beat the Eagles 73-46.

The Hoosiers used a 20-2 run to start the second half to pull away for their 10th victory of the season.

Indiana appeared to take control with a 9-0 run midway through the first half, but Coppin State answered with six straight points to get back within two - the same margin they trailed by at halftime.

Eagles coach Ron "Fang" Mitchell went to the locker room hopeful his overworked players had something left after enduring a brutal back-to-back stretch more suited to NBA teams.

"Our guys understood what the situation was and they were willing to deal with it," Mitchell said. "I was very proud of them the first half but I've never been a coach who believed in moral victories. It said a lot because they fought the whole way, it just wasn't enough."

Tywan McKee led Coppin State with 16 points. No other players reached double figures.

The momentum switched quickly in the second half. Gordon opened with a 3 and sparked a 20-4 run that finally put the Hoosiers in control 48-30 with 12:40 to go. Coppin State never challenged again.

Despite the poor start, Sampson did move closer to Branch McCracken's school record for most consecutive wins at the start of a career. The Hoosiers have won 25 straight at home, and Sampson is 23-0 since coming to Bloomington last season.

HOOSIERS TAKE CONTROL OVER CHI. STATE

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA-Eric Gordon scored 22 points and made 14 of 14 free throws and D.J. White dominated the middle with 21 points and a career-high 15 rebounds and the 13th/14th-ranked Hoosiers used two early scoring runs to defeat Chicago State, 97-59.

"One thing coach emphasized all week was the slow starts and defense," White said. "We wanted to start better. Starting the game fast was a big focus for us."

The Hoosiers dominated Chicago State in every facet. Indiana finished with a 56-26 rebounding edge, blocked 11 shots, had 11 steals and forced 18 turnovers.

But the first half was more impressive. The Hoosiers had 12 offensive rebounds, three on the game's first possession, and built a 48-19 lead despite shooting 34.2 percent from the field.

Indiana has won seven straight and 26 in a row at Assembly Hall where it has been unbeatable since Sampson joined the program last season. Sampson is 24-0 at home since coming to Bloomington and is within one win of tying Branch McCracken's school record for most consecutive home victories at the start of a career. McCracken was 25-0 from 1938-41.

Jordan Crawford had 15 points, eight rebounds, three assists and five steals off the bench and Armon Bassett returned to the starting lineup and posted 13 points, five assists and three steals as the Hoosiers finished December with a 6-0 record and have won their last seven games.

Indiana had a season-high 56 rebounds and made 21 of 23 free throw attempts.

HOOSIERS HOLD ON AT IOWA, 79-76

IOWA CITY, IOWA--Freshman Eric Gordon scored 25 points, D.J. White had 16 points and 15 rebounds and No. 11 Indiana held off a furious late rally by Iowa for a 79-76 victory in the Big Ten opener for both teams.

Jamarcus Ellis added 15 points for the Hoosiers (12-1), who won their eighth straight.

The Hawkeyes (7-7) gave Indiana all it could handle despite missing two starters, but the Hoosiers went on an 11-1 run late in the second half then survived a late barrage of 3-pointers by Iowa's Justin Johnson to snap a three-game losing streak at Iowa.

Johnson hit six 3s in the final 1:56, the last a 40-foot bank shot that brought Iowa within 78-76 with 4.8 seconds left.

Lance Stemler then missed the second of two free throws, but Indiana stole the ensuing inbound pass to seal the win.

Johnson, who was 8-of-13 from 3-point range, finished with 29 points.

Iowa took a four-point lead early in the second half, but Stemler followed a tip-in by Ellis with a 3 to give Indiana a 47-44 lead with 12:04 left. The Hoosiers never trailed again.

Gordon extended Indiana's lead to 59-51, driving past three Iowa defenders for a layup off the glass. Iowa got back within three, but White broke free for slams on consecutive possessions and Gordon followed with a layup to give Indiana a 67-56 lead with 4:56 left.

Jordan Crawford added 12 points for Indiana.

INDIANA WINS AT MICHIGAN, 78-64

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN--Senior D.J. White had 21 points and a career-high 22 rebounds and freshman Eric Gordon added 23 as the #10 Hoosiers won their second straight road game, 78-64, over Michigan.

Indiana trailed only once, 3-2, and led by as many as 16 at 29-13 in the first half. After Gordon and junior Jamarcus Ellis went to the bench with three fouls, the Wolverines mounted a comeback and trailed 37-31 at halftime after DeShawn Sims heaved a 50-footer to the end the half.

With Gordon and Ellis back in the lineup, Indiana went on a 24-8 run to start the half and never looked back. Freshman Jordan Crawford added 11 points, seven rebounds and four assists and Ellis had seven points, four boards, six assists and two steals.

Freshman Manny Harris had 19 points, DeShawn Sims scored 16 and reserve Jevohn Shepherd added 10 for the Wolverines, who haven't struggled this much since they opened 2-13 in 1981-82.

White became the first Hoosier with at least 20 points and 20 rebounds in a game since Alan Henderson in 1995, and his rebounding total was the highest since Henderson had 28 in 1992.

HOOSIERS EDGE ILLINOIS, 62-58

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA.--Indiana went on a 15-4 run midway through the second half and Armon Bassett sank a pair of free throws with two seconds left as the 10th-ranked Hoosiers (14-1, 3-0) escaped with a 62-58 win over Illinois (8-9, 0-4) Sunday afternoon at Assembly Hall.

With Illinois trailing 60-58 with 33 seconds to play, Demetri McCamey pulled down the rebound off Bassett's missed jumper. After the Illini called a timeout with 25 seconds on the clock, McCamey's layup attempt was swatted away by A.J. Ratliff, but Illinois came up with the rebound and a chance to take the lead.

Brian Randle was off the mark with his three-point attempt at eight seconds, but Randle corralled his own rebound before Ratliff came up with a steal at three ticks on the clock. He dished off to Bassett who was immediately fouled and was perfect on his only trip to the charity stripe.

D.J. White recorded his fourth-straight double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds. Eric Gordon led all scorers with 17 points, spurred by an 8-for-10 performance at the free throw line. Indiana shot just 38 percent (19-49) for the game, just the second time it has dipped below 40 percent for the season.

After missing the Michigan and most of the Iowa game due to injury, Bassett contributed 11 points in 18 minutes of action. He was 3 of 4 from the three-point, including a trey with 1:40 left in the game that gave the Hoosiers a 60-55 lead. All 11 of Bassett's points came in the second half.

The Illini opened up a 37-30 lead at the outset of the second half before Gordon drove in the lane at the 17:39 mark for just his second basket of the afternoon.

A three from A.J. Ratliff put IU back within one at 31-30 with just over a minute to go, but the Illini responded with their own three from McCamey for a 34-30 halftime advantage.

INDIANA WINS AT MINNESOTA, 65-60

MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA.--D.J. White had 17 points and 10 rebounds and Lance Stemler hit a crucial 3-pointer to lift the ninth-ranked Hoosiers to a 65-60 victory over Minnesota on Thursday night.

Eric Gordon hit two free throws with 31 seconds left and Stemler added two more charity tosses as the Hoosiers came up huge to extend Indiana's winning streak to 11 games, their longest since a 13-game streak in 1992-93.

But Jordan Crawford scored 14 of his 16 points in the first half as Indiana matched its best start since 1996-97.

Dan Coleman had 15 points and seven rebounds for the feisty Gophers (12-4, 2-2), but they scored just 16 points off all those Hoosiers turnovers and missed 10 free throws.

The Gophers went on a 9-0 run, holding Indiana scoreless for nearly eight minutes, to take a 56-52 lead with 6:50 to go and led 60-58 on a reverse layup by Spencer Tollackson with 1:49 left.

But Stemler came back with a 3-pointer from the top of the key, and the Hoosiers closed it out at the free throw line to keep new Gophers coach Tubby Smith stuck on 399 career victories.

After air-balling his first shot of the game, Crawford hit his next four 3-pointers, including three during a 17-0 run that gave Indiana a 38-27 lead with 2:20 to play.

Many ranked Hoosiers squads have come into this building and lost. They were ranked 25th in a loss here in 2002, ninth in 2000, fourth in 1992 and 12th in 1990.

These ninth-ranked Hoosiers rode an overwhelming 42-26 advantage on the boards to their third conference road victory of the season.

INDIANA PULLS AWAY FROM PENN STATE

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA.--Eric Gordon scored 25 points, D.J. White added 22 and the No. 9 Hoosiers, keeping the same lineup the entire second half, wore down Penn State 81-65.

The Hoosiers (16-1, 5-0 Big Ten) won their 28th straight home game and stretched their winning streak this season to 12 games, their longest in 15 years. IU Coach Kelvin Sampson improved to 26-0 in Assembly Hall, breaking Branch McCracken's record for consecutive home wins to start a career. McCracken, whom the court in Assembly Hall is named after, won his first 25 in Bloomington from 1938-41.

Penn State (10-7, 2-3), which lost leading scorer and rebounder Geary Claxton with a season-ending knee injury against Wisconsin on Tuesday, came out strong, stayed with the Hoosiers most of the game and led 52-51 before a 3-pointer by Gordon started a 14-4 run that put Indiana in control. White had Indiana's next five points and assisted on another basket by Jamarcus Ellis, and the Hoosiers began pulling away for good.

White, Gordon, Ellis, Armon Bassett and Lance Stemler played all 20 minutes in the second half. Two free throws by Talor Battle were the only points by the Nittany Lions in the next 4 minutes after White's scoring burst, and two free throws by Gordon, a 3-pointer by Bassett and a layup by Gordon pushed Indiana's lead to 72-58. Penn State, which has never won in 15 games at Assembly Hall, never came closer than 12 points the rest of the way, and Indiana took its biggest lead at 81-60 in the closing seconds.

Bassett added 17 points and Ellis finished with 12 for the Hoosiers. Battle, a freshman, had a career-high 20 points and Jamelle Cornley added 19 for Penn State. three-point play with a free throw for a 25-22 lead. Gordon's fourth 3-pointer tied the game at 32, then Ellis stole the ball, was fouled and hit both free throws to put the Hoosiers back in front. After a turnover by Penn State, Lance Stemler hit a 3-pointer for the Hoosiers before Battle's basket in the final seconds made it 37-34 at the break.

HOOSIERS OVER IOWA, 65-43

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA.--Indiana used its best defensive effort of the season and the offensive trio of D.J. White (19), Eric Gordon (17) and Jamarcus Ellis (12) outscored the entire Iowa team as the #7 Hoosiers ran their winning streak to 13 with a 65-43 victory over Iowa.

Indiana (17-1, 6-0) has now won 29 in a row at Assembly Hall, the nation's fourth-longest home winning streak. It's their best start for Indiana since the 1975-76 team posted college basketball's last undefeated season and the 13 game winning streak is the longest at Indiana since 1992-93.

After Iowa scored the first four points of the game, Indiana went on a 14-3 run capped by a three-pointer by sophomore Armon Bassett with 13:12 to go. Indiana would lead 22-13 on a jumper by White with 9:51 left in the half, but Iowa would cut the gap to 28-24 with 3:37 before intermission on a dunk by Cyrus Tate.

The Hoosiers would close the half on a 9-2 run with junior DeAndre Thomas' floater hitting nothing but net as the halftime buzzer sounded to give IU a 37-26 edge. Both teams were on target in the first 20 minutes with IU connecting on 59.3% of its shots and Iowa knocking down 56.3%.

However, the Hoosier defense tightened in the second half and Gordon, who finished with a career-high four steals, added three blocked shots as the Hawkeyes shot just 21.4% making just six of 28 attempts. In addition, Ellis scored 10 of his dozen points in the second half and Bassett continued his torrid shooting in Assembly Hall making all three of his field goal tries.

Iowa trailed 43-33 with 15:09 remaining following a 5-0 Hawkeye run and a three-pointer by Tony Freeman. Freshman Jordan Crawford drilled a long triple that started an 11-2 run as the Hoosiers built a 54-35 advantage with 9:27 to go.

For the game, IU shot 53.2% to 34.1% for Iowa. In addition, Indiana forced 20 Hawkeye miscues and garnered 10 steals.

UConn TOPS HOOSIERS, 68-63

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--All five starters scored in double figures for Connecticut and the Huskies used their size advantage to rebound the Hoosiers and control the paint in a 68-63 win over #7/8 Indiana Saturday in Assembly Hall.

The loss, Indiana's first since Nov. 24, ended the Hoosiers' 13-game winning streak and their 29-game home winning streak, the fourth longest in the nation.

UConn rebounded Indiana, 44-28, and outscored them in the paint 34-16.

The Hoosiers (17-2) looked like they were ready to roll when freshman Eric Gordon, junior Jamarcus Ellis and sophomore Armon Bassett drilled three-pointers to give them a 9-0 lead with 16:57 to go in the half. But the Huskies (14-5), who have now won three games in a row, remained patient and clamped down on defense. Junior A.J. Price, who had 14 points and six assists, drilled a three-pointer to give UConn its first lead at 17-16 with 7:55 to go in the half.

While the Hoosiers were connecting from the outside, inside the presence of sophomores Hasheem Thabeet (12 points, 2 blocks), Stanley Robinson (11 points, 11 rebounds) and freshman Jeff Adrien (11 points, 11 rebounds) altered several IU attempts and the Hoosiers were never able to establish an inside game.

After Gordon tied the game with a free throw at 19:19, Price's jumper gave UConn the lead for good with 4:28 left in the half and the Huskies went into the locker room with a 29-24 advantage. In the second half, Bassett hit a three-pointer to cut the deficit to 31-27, but UConn would build a 40-31 advantage with 12:27 to go. Freshman Jordan Crawford, who scored all 10 of his points in the second half, hit two three-pointers around an Adrien layup to make it 42-37 with 10:16 left.

The Huskies would lead by as much as 11 points, but Indiana still had one more run in them and after a steal, Bassett, who nailed a career-high six three-pointers, knocked a triple to cut the deficit to 62-58 with 56 seconds left.

IU FALLS IN MADISON

MADISON, WISCONSIN. -- Trevon Hughes scored 16 points, Marcus Landry had 14 points and 11 rebounds and No. 13 Wisconsin held on to beat No. 11 Indiana 62-49 on Thursday night after the Hoosiers rallied behind D.J. White and freshman Eric Gordon.

White had his way with Wisconsin (17-3, 7-1 Big Ten) most of the game, finishing with 22 points and 17 rebounds. But Wisconsin's Michael Flowers, who scored 10 points, mostly contained Gordon, who fell awkwardly in practice Tuesday and was wearing a padded foam splint on his left wrist.

Patient and experienced, the Badgers looked in complete control early in the second half after Hughes whipped a behind the back pass to Flowers for an easy layup, and Greg Stiemsma's follow-up basket gave Wisconsin a 46-26 lead with 12:55 to play.

That's when Indiana (17-3, 6-1) made its move.

After a tentative first half, Gordon, who finished with 16 points on 6 of 14 shooting, picked it up with a personal 10-0 run. He nailed a 3 from NBA range with his dad, Eric Sr., watching intently in the crowd. White added five points of his own on the 17-2 run he capped with a little hook in the paint that made it 48-43 with 7:23 left.

But the Badgers' defense stiffened, holding the best offensive team in the conference to its lowest scoring output of the season, and they kept getting timely offensive rebounds.

Joe Krabbenhoft tipped in a shot with just under four minutes to play to give Wisconsin a 53-45 lead.

Moments later, Hughes, who was just 3-for-15 from the field, drove the length of the court for a layup that made it 57-47 with Gordon taking a shot to the wind pipe on a screen in the process.

INDIANA OVER NORTHWESTERN, 75-63

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--Indiana switched its defense just in time to cool Northwestern's shooters.

Eric Gordon scored 29 points, D.J. White added 26 points and 13 rebounds, and the 11th-ranked Hoosiers used a zone defense much of the second half to beat the Wildcats 75-63.

Once the Hoosiers went to the zone, Northwestern went more than nine minutes without a field goal, and Indiana pulled away to its 35th straight win at home against the Wildcats since 1968. The Hoosiers (18-3, 7-1 Big Ten) also snapped a two-game losing streak, but it wasn't easy.

Northwestern (7-12, 0-8) never led, but twice rallied from eight-point deficits and cut Indiana's lead to 52-50 with under 12 minutes to go. The Wildcats, who shot 64 percent in the first half, then went cold against the Indiana zone and did not get another field goal until a 3-pointer by Michael Thompson with just over two minutes remaining. By then, it was way too late.

Gordon, who had 17 points in the first half, had eight points during a 14-2 run that broke the game open.

Indiana took a 66-52 lead after a 3-pointer by Gordon, his sixth of the game, and one of two free throws by the freshman guard, the Big Ten's leading scorer. Northwestern, losing its 14th straight Big Ten game over two seasons, never came closer than 10 points the rest of the way.

With the 6-foot-9 White in the middle, Indiana dominated the rebounding 39-17. White, who shot 9-of-11 from the field, also had two blocks and a steal.

Northwestern cooled to 35 percent shooting in the second half and 48 percent for the game. Craig Moore led the Wildcats with 17 points, and Jeremy Nash and Kevin Coble added 12 apiece.

INDIANA TOPS ILLINI 83-79 IN DOUBLE OT

CHAMPAIGN, ILLINOIS--Sophomore Armon Bassett scored 11 of his 16 points in the second overtime and freshman Eric Gordon's key defensive play following a near-costly turnover allowed No. 13/14 Indiana to rally and beat Illinois 83-79 Thursday in a double overtime thriller for the Hoosiers' fourth Big Ten road win of the season. It was the fourth straight game between the two teams to be decided by four points, and second overtime contest in the last three meetings.

Bassett hit a three-pointer with 3:38 to go in the second overtime to give the Hoosiers the lead for good at 74-71. He would later add eight free throws in eight attempts as Indiana notched its first win in Champaign since 1999.

Gordon scored a team-high 19 points and his three-pointer off the glass forced overtime at 63-63 with 25 seconds to go in regulation after being booed the entire game whenever he touched the ball. Illinois senior Shaun Pruitt missed the front end of a one-and-one with four ticks to go and IU called a timeout to try and win the game in regulation. However, a desperation shot by IU freshman Jordan Crawford from near midcourt was off the mark.

In the first overtime, Illinois jumped out to a 66-63 lead, but back-to-back triples from Crawford gave Indiana a 69-66 lead with 1:52 to go in OT. Crawford would finish with 18 points, a season-high for a non-starter this season. IU freshman Demetri McCamey buried a long three to tie the score with 1:03 to go, but both teams missed opportunities for the win at the free throw line. The Hoosiers' Jamarcus Ellis missed two charity tosses with 28 seconds to go and Pruitt rattled the rim for the Illini on a pair of freebies with 2.2 seconds to go.

After Bassett gave the Hoosiers a three-point lead in the second OT, Calvin Brock cut the lead to 74-73 on a jumper with 2:47 left. Following an IU miss, Illinois had a chance to regain the lead but Crawford blocked a McCamey shot and Jeff Jordan missed a jumper for the Illini as Ellis, who finished with a team-high 11 boards started the break for IU.

HOOSIERS BEST BUCKEYES, 59-53

COLUMBUS, OHIO--Senior D.J. White had 21 points and 13 rebounds to lead Indiana to a 59-53 road win over Ohio State. The victory snapped the Buckeyes 19-game Big Ten home court winning streak.

Indiana won its fifth road game of the Big Ten season, the most ever for the Hoosiers since 1993, and Kelvin Sampson posted a 20-win season for the 11th straight year.

White, who posted his 15th double-double of the season, tied the score at 14-14 with a jumper with 9:13 left in the first half, and would add eight more point in the half to give the Hoosiers a 29-21 lead at intermission.

After a White jumper to start the half increased the margin to 31-21, OSU scored the next eight points to make it 31-29 at the first media timeout of the second half. Freshman Eric Gordon, who finished with 15 points, drove for a layup and following a White jumper, sophomore Armon Bassett hit a fast-break three-pointer and a tip-in by junior Kyle Taber completed a 9-0 run to push the lead to 40-29 with 13:14 remaining.

Ohio State was able to cut the lead to 46-43 on a free throw by Evan Turner with 5:44 to go, but a rim-rattling dunk and conventional three-point play by White pushed the Hoosier advantage to 49-43 with 5:30 left. Senior Lance Stemler had a tip-in with 3:48 to go and freshman Jordan Crawford had a jumper with 2:36 left to give Indiana a 53-45 advantage with 2:19 to go.

In the final minute, Gordon hit four free throws and Crawford added a pair for the margin of victory.

BANK SHOT TOPS HOOSIERS, 68-66

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--Last week, the bank helped Indiana on the road. This week it helped visiting Wisconsin at Assembly Hall. Brian Butch banked in a 3-pointer with 4.5 seconds left, the last of Wisconsin's 11 3s, and the 15th-ranked Badgers held on for a 68-66 victory over No. 13 Indiana on Wednesday night.

Last week, Indiana's Eric Gordon hit a 23-foot bank shot which tied the game at Illinois to force overtime before the Hoosiers won in the second overtime.

Tonight, Gordon had given the Hoosiers a 66-65 lead with 17 seconds left with two free throws. After Butch banked in the game winner, the Hoosiers had a great open look on a three-pointer by Jamarcus Ellis, but the shot hit the back of the iron and Wisconsin earned its first win in Bloomington since 2004.

After leading 37-36 at halftime, Indiana had its biggest lead of the second half at 46-40 with 15:22 to go. But Wisconsin's Jason Bohannon cut the lead in half with his sixth three-pointer of the game and the remainder of the game was a classic Big Ten slugfest with both teams displaying grit and heart.

Gordon, who finished with 23 points including 17 in the second half, consistently drove inside and made back-to-back baskets to twice erase Badger leads at 55-54 and 57-56. His jumper with 4:32 to go allowed IU to push the edge to 59-56.

Three times in the final three minutes, Wisconsin used tip-in's off of missed shots to keep itself in the game. With IU leading 60-58, Butch scored off of a miss by Bohannon to tie the score. Following a Hoosier turnover, Trevon Hughes made one of two from the line to give Wisconsin a 61-60 lead with 1:36 left.

Sophomore Armon Bassett made a driving layup to put the Hoosiers back in front at 62-61. Butch would make a layup to give UW the edge, but senior D.J. White hit a 12-footer in the lane to make it 64-63 IU with 43 ticks left. White finished the game with 17 points and eight rebounds.

HOOSIERS OVER SPARTANS, 80-61

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--On a night when No. 12/13 Indiana played most of the game without senior captain D.J. White, the Hoosiers used a record-setting night from Eric Gordon and strong performances off the bench from DeAndre Thomas and Jordan Crawford for an 80-61 victory over No. 9/10 Michigan State at Assembly Hall.

After a D.J. White jumper put the Hoosiers (21-4, 10-2) on the board, the Spartans (20-5, 8-4) countered with a 10-0 run to gain an eight-point lead. But a slam by White stopped the run at the 14:55 mark. After MSU stretched the lead to 15-4, the Hoosiers went on a 14-3 run to knot the game at 18-18, keyed by six points from Thomas inside and capped off with a breakaway dunk from Gordon that created an eruption from the crowd of 17,400.

His teammates came out strong in White's absence, as Taber came up with a crucial steal and Gordon drained a 3-ball from the right wing to stretch the home squad's lead to 32-26. A three by Crawford and a pair of Gordon free throws stretched the lead to 11, but MSU was able to trim the lead to eight at 41-33 heading into the break.

The Hoosiers scored the first four points of the second half on layups by Gordon and Thomas, but Michigan State bounced back with four points of its own to trim the lead to eight once again. Then the Hoosiers got a three-point play and a fastbreak layup from Gordon and an inside layup by Thomas to stretch the lead to 52-39 and force the Spartans to take a timeout with 16:02 to play.

The teams traded baskets for the next several possessions, with the Hoosiers stretching their lead to 60-45. On the next Hoosier possession, Crawford grabbed three offensive rebounds - more than he had in the previous eight games combined - and a wild scramble for a loose ball kept the ball in IU's hands on a brilliant play by Lance Stemler. Following a Hoosier timeout, Crawford finished off his finest possession of the season in style, as he drove to the basket and hit a reverse layup to put the crowd in a frenzy and make the lead a game-high 17 points.

INDIANA TOPPLES PURDUE, 77-68

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--D.J. White had 19 points and 15 rebounds in 36 minutes of action, as the No. 14/15 Indiana basketball team posted a 77-68 win over No. 15/14 Purdue. Eric Gordon added 22 points and Armon Bassett had 16 points and a career-best eight boards in the victory.

For the Hoosiers (22-4, 11-2), the victory represented back-to-back wins over top-15 teams for the first time since 1992. The Hoosiers knocked off No. 11 Michigan State, 103-73, and No. 6 Ohio State, 86-80, en route to a Final Four appearance that season. IU Coach Kelvin Sampson won his 498th career game as he improved to 498-272 (.647). He is 43-15 (.741) in two seasons in Bloomington.

Indiana's performance at the free-throw line was one of the keys to the victory, as IU shot 30-for-34 from the stripe in the game. Eric Gordon started 13-for-13 until missing both attempts after being fouled with 17 seconds remaining. D.J. White was 7-for-8 from the line as well.

The Hoosiers outshot the Boilers (21-6, 12-2) in the game in every facet, as Indiana held an edge in field goals (47.6 to 34.7 percent), 3-point shooting (63.6 to 24.1) and in free throws (88.2 to 52.4). The Hoosiers also held a significant edge in rebounds, pulling down 46 to Purdue's 30. On the defensive glass, Indiana held a dominant 37-16 margin.

Kyle Taber had a strong night from the field, going 3-for-3 with the a dunk and adding five rebounds, two assists and a steal. Ellis scored seven points and had seven rebounds and a block in the win, while Stemler hit his only shot and had a rebound and a block. Jordan Crawford had four points and three rebounds in 23 minutes.

HOOSIERS HOLD OFF WILDCATS, 85-82

EVANSTON, ILLINOIS--Armon Bassett scored a season-high 24 points and the No. 15 Hoosiers earned an 85-82 victory over Northwestern on Saturday night. Interim head coach Dan Dakich earned his first victory patrolling the Hoosier sideline.

Indiana improved to 23-4 on the season and 12-2 in Big Ten play. Both marks are the best since the 1992-93 season when the Hoosiers started 24-3 and went 17-1 in Big Ten play. D.J. White deflected a potential go-ahead layup by Northwestern's Michael Thompson, then hit two free throws to make it 85-82 with 5 seconds left. Thompson missed a pull-up 3-pointer at the buzzer, and the Hoosiers moved into a three-way tie for first with Wisconsin and Purdue.

Bassett played the full 40 minutes and finished one point away from matching his career-high set last season. He shot 7-of-12 from the field, 4-of-7 from beyond the arc and 6-of-7 from the charity stripe.

Jordan Crawford scored 21, and Eric Gordon scored 18, hitting 13-of-16 free throws. White added 16 points and 11 rebounds for his 17th double-double of the campaign.

Crawford went 4-of-5 from deep, matching his career-high (third time) and shot 6-of-7 overall in 29 minutes off the bench. He also added five assists, four rebounds and went a perfect 5-of-5 from the foul line.

Kevin Coble scored a career-high 37 points for Northwestern (7-18, 0-14), and his 3-pointer gave the Wildcats a 78-77 lead with 2:49 left, whipping their fans into a frenzy that only grew louder when Gordon charged into Nikola Baran.

But with Indiana leading 79-78, Northwestern had a chance to go ahead in the final minute, when the Hoosiers' Crawford attempted a long inbound pass near his own basket. Jeremy Nash intercepted the ball near midcourt, but Craig Moore missed a 3-pointer.

INDIANA TOPS OHIO STATE, 72-69

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA--Armon Bassett scored 23 points, hitting four 3-pointers to lead Indiana. Eric Gordon, the Big Ten's top scorer, finished with 17 points and six rebounds despite shooting just 4-of-16. D.J. White added 16 points and eight rebounds despite fighting cramps and Indiana won its fourth straight, all coming since the university released the NCAA report on Feb. 13.

After enduring the circus-like environment of the past two weeks, the Hoosiers just wanted to play basketball.

Kosta Koufos scored 21 points, Evan Turner had 13 and Jamar Butler and Othello Hunter each had 12, not quite enough to pull the upset. Ohio State (17-11, 8-7) has now lost three straight and five of seven but fought back from a dismal opening to nearly pull the upset.

Initially, it didn't look like it would be that close.

Indiana broke out to a 10-3 lead behind a strong early rebounding effort and still led 30-21 at halftime when the Buckeyes shot just 31 percent.

In the second half, Koufos gave the Buckeyes hope. He opened the second half by scoring the Buckeyes' first seven points and then hit another basket with 15:13 left to get Ohio State within 34-32.

The Hoosiers answered with five straight points to make it 39-32 and then fended off Ohio State's charge down the stretch by making 10-of-12 free throws to finally give Dakich his first win in Bloomington.

INTERIM HEAD COACH DAN DAKICH

Former Indiana player and assistant coach Dan Dakich was named interim head coach of the Hoosiers on February 22. He returned to Bloomington this past summer as Director of Basketball Operations and was named an assistant coach in October.

The Indiana native began a 16-year association with the IU program in the fall of 1981 after graduating from Andrean High School in Merrillville.

He played for the Hoosiers and Coach Bob Knight from 1982-85 and was a team captain during his junior and senior seasons as the Hoosiers finished with an 84-39 record during his career. As a player, he helped Indiana win one Big Ten title, earn three NCAA Tournament berths and finish as the NIT runner-up his senior season. As a junior, he was named All-Tournament at the Indiana Classic and as a senior he earned similar accolades at the Hoosier Classic. He is best remembered for his excellent defensive effort against Michael Jordan in Indiana's upset of North Carolina in the 1984 NCAA East Regional.

Dakich also spent 12 seasons on the IU coaching staff under Coach Knight from 1985-97. Dakich helped the Indiana program win 73.7 percent (283-101) of its games over the 12 years he served as an assistant coach while the Hoosiers were winning over 70 percent of their Big Ten contests. He was a graduate assistant from 1985-87 before being named full-time prior to the 1987-88 campaign.

The Hoosiers won a national title in 1987 and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament in each of his 12 seasons on the staff. IU also captured four Big Ten titles while finishing third or better in nine of his 12 years.

He also coached six All-Americans and three national Player of the Year candidates, including 1993 Player of the Year Calbert Cheaney, worked with three Big Ten MVPs, and academically, graduated every four-year player to go through the program (Dakich was the academic monitor on the IU basketball staff his last seven years).

He also coached 10 players at IU who have played in the NBA.

Dakich returns to Bloomington after spending the last 10 years as the men's basketball coach at Bowling Green. At BGSU, he tied for third all-time in victories among Falcon coaches with 156 and also was just one of three coaches in school history to post four 18-plus win seasons or more in men's basketball. He saw 22 of 25 seniors complete their degree requirements and had 12 former players sign professional contracts, including former Indiana Pacers guard Keith McLeod. In addition, he had two players earn MAC Player of the Year honors and three lead the league in scoring during his tenure.

His 2000 squad won the regular season MAC title and played in the NIT and in 2002 his team advanced to the MAC Tournament title game and also played in the NIT. Dakich also was heavily involved in community activities. He ran the Junior Falcons basketball program, a league for children ages 7 thru 14. He also was involved with the United Way, Cherry Street Mission and Make-A-Wish program.

Dakich, who was one of 16 former prep players chosen for the 2006 Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame High School Silver Anniversary team, is a 1985 graduate of IU with a degree in telecommunications. He and his wife, Jackie, have a son, Andrew (13), and a daughter, Laura (10).

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH RAY McCALLUM

Indiana native Ray McCallum was named Assistant Head Coach on February 22, in the middle of his second year at Indiana.

The Ball State graduate has more than 20 years of coaching experience, including two stints as a head coach at the Division I level. Additionally, McCallum spent the two years prior to Indiana as an assistant coach at Oklahoma.

McCallum has helped IU and OU to a combined 66-28 record and three NCAA Tournament appearances and has helped land top-10 recruiting classes at both schools. Prior to going to OU, McCallum was the head coach at Houston from 2000-04.

In 2001-02, he led the Cougars to an 18-15 mark and a berth in the NIT, Houston's first postseason tournament appearance since the 1992-93 season. Houston finished 9-7 in Conference USA's National Division that year, and advanced to the league's tournament semifinal for the first time.

During his stay in UH, McCallum played an integral role in the development of Andre Owens, who is with the Indiana Pacers. Overall, he has coached eight NBA players during their collegiate career.

McCallum made his head coaching debut at Ball State, where the Cardinals posted a 126-76 record from 1993-00. McCallum directed Ball State to two NCAA Tournament appearances and an NIT berth and became the first coach in Ball

State history to post seven consecutive winning seasons.

In 1999-2000, McCallum directed the Cardinals to a 22-9 record and the Mid-American Conference's (MAC) Western Division championship. Ball State captured the MAC Tournament title that year to earn an automatic NCAA Tournament bid. When he left BSU, his .624 winning percentage rated as fourth-best in the 53-year history of the MAC.

During his head coaching career at Ball State, McCallum recruited and coached Bonzi Wells, who has had a long NBA career. McCallum briefly joined the coaching staff at Michigan in 1993 before accepting the Ball State head coaching job.

McCallum started his full-time coaching career as an assistant at Wisconsin in 1984. The Badgers had won only 63 games the six seasons before McCallum joined the program. He helped reverse the trend when the Badgers were selected to play in the 1989 NIT -- Wisconsin's first postseason tournament showing since the 1947 NCAA Tournament.

One of the most illustrious players in Ball State history, McCallum graduated as the MAC's all-time scoring leader and became the first BSU athlete to have his jersey retired in any sport. McCallum led his team in scoring all four years.

In 1979-80, he garnered MAC Freshman of the Year recognition and earned second-team all-conference honors. He picked up All-MAC First Team and MAC All-Tournament Team accolades in each of the 1980-81, 1981-82 and 1982-83 seasons, and was tabbed the 1981 MAC Tournament MVP and the 1982-83 MAC Player of the Year.

McCallum also earned the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award as the nation's most outstanding collegiate senior 6-feet or under in 1983. Later that year, he was selected by the Indiana Pacers in the NBA Draft.

Born in West Memphis, Ark., and raised in Muncie, Ind., McCallum won Indiana state titles at Muncie Central High School in 1978 and '79 before earning his Ball State degree in industrial technology, and his wife, Wendy, are the parents of a daughter, Brittany, and a son, Ray Michael.
