INDIANA (5-5) vs. NORTHEASTERN (5-4)

Monday, Dec. 22, 2008, 9:00 p.m. ET

Assembly Hall - 17,357 (Bloomington, Ind.)

Series Record: Indiana leads, 2-0

Last Meeting: Indiana 103, Northeastern 65
(12/28/01 - Indianapolis)

TV: Big Ten Network (TBA and John Laskowski)

RADIO: IU Radio Network (Don Fischer, Todd Leary and Joe Smith)

THE OPENING TIP

Indiana will take on Northeastern in its first game during the holiday break. The Hoosiers will bring a 4-0 home record into the contest, with Indiana last winning at Assembly Hall on December 10, 66-56 over TCU. Indiana is 193-18 all-time against non-conference foes in Assembly Hall. The Huskies boast a two-game winning streak on the road having defeated Harvard, 76-71, in overtime on December 10 and James Madison, 60-55, on December 6. This will be the third meeting between the two teams. IU defeated the Huskies, 100-78 in Maui in 1990 and 103-65 in Indianapolis in December, 2001. The Hoosiers are 10-0 against schools from the Colonial Athletic Association. Last year, Indiana defeated UNC-Wilmington, 95-71, in the preliminary round of the Chicago Invitational Challenge.

HOOSIER FRESHMEN AMONG TOPS IN BIG TEN

Freshman Tom Pritchard leads Big Ten freshmen in rebounds (7.6) and is tied for the top spot among rookies in scoring (13.1), is second in field goal percentage (56.0), and is fourth in blocked shots (1.0). Overall, he is the top offensive rebounder in the league averaging 3.9 per game. Daniel Moore is the top freshman in assists (4.1). Fellow rookie Matt Roth is ranked fourth among freshmen in three-point field percentage (41.9) and third in three-point field goals made per game (1.8). Six of the top seven scorers on the Hoosiers are true freshmen.

THE COACHES

Indiana named Tom Crean as its 28th men's basketball coach on April 2, 2008 and he is 5-5 with the Hoosiers. He came to Indiana from Marquette where he was 190-96 (66.4) in nine seasons and made five NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2003 Final Four. Coach Crean has never faced Northeastern. Bill Coen is in his third year with the Huskies and he is 32-40.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

By a wide margin, the Hoosiers have played the toughest non-conference schedule among members of the Big Ten. The latest Sagarin ratings have IU's schedule ranked as the 39th toughest in the country. Michigan is 76th, Michigan State is 110th, Ohio State is 126th, Wisconsin is 149th, Northwestern is 222nd, Illinois is 232nd, Purdue is 246th, Iowa is 280th, Minnesota is 311th, and Penn State is 323rd. The Hoosiers have played six games away from Assembly Hall, including three against nationally ranked teams (Notre Dame, Wake Forest and Gonzaga). The Hoosiers didn't play their sixth game away from home last year until January at Minnesota, their 16th game of the season.

UP NEXT

The Hoosiers will return to action on Sunday evening, December 28, to host Lipscomb. Big Ten play will open January 3 at Iowa.

HOOSIER EXPERIENCE

Tom Crean and his staff will put one of the least experienced teams in NCAA Division I history on the floor for the 2008-09 season. Senior Kyle Taber (28 points) and sophomore walk-on Brett Finkelmeier (2 points) are all that return from last year's 25-8 squad which advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Indiana will take the floor with seven new scholarship players, an outfielder from the baseball team and three additional walk-ons to start the season with Taber and Finkelmeier during the first semester.

TOUGH NON-LEAGUE SKED

The 2008-09 Hoosiers have played three nationally ranked programs in the non-conference portion of their schedule following their game against #5 Gonzaga at Lucas Oil Stadium. The Hoosiers played #9 Notre Dame in the EA Sports Maui Invitational (11/24), and at #17 Wake Forest in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge (12/3) prior to taking on the Bulldogs. Only Michigan State has played three ranked opponents in non-conference play away from home among Big Ten Teams.

DIVISION I EXPERIENCE

The 2008-09 Indiana men's basketball team will be one of the least experienced teams in the history of Division I basketball. Of the 16 players on the roster, just four have seen action in a game at the Division I level before the start of the 2008-09 season. In addition to returnees Kyle Taber and Brett Finkelmeier, Devan Dumes and Jeremiah Rivers have also played at this level. Dumes played at Eastern Michigan as a freshman before transferring to Vincennes for his sophomore campaign. At EMU, he averaged 8.1 points and 2.0 rebounds, including a season-high 19 points against Ohio. He had 16 points against Tom Crean and Marquette for EMU. Rivers comes to Indiana after playing his first two seasons at Georgetown. As a freshman, the Hoyas reached the Final Four with Rivers playing in 34 games.

DEFENSIVE STOP

In two Hoosier wins (IUPUI and Chaminade) this season, Indiana made two defensive stops in the final seconds against shots that would have either tied the game or given its opponent the lead. Tom Pritchard blocked a three-point field goal attempt at the buzzer against IUPUI, and the Hoosiers put enough team pressure against Chaminade to force an off-balance three-pointer at the buzzer.

IMPROVEMENT

After being outrebounded by 17 in the first three games of the season, IU has a plus-5 advantage on the boards in the last five games.

Indiana also has shot more free throws than nine of its first 10 opponents. IU's 16-for-20 performance (.800) was its top effort from the free-throw line this season.

KENTUCKY POSTGAME NOTES

- Kentucky now holds a 29-23 advantage in the series.
- The loss marks the first by Indiana head coach Tom Crean against Kentucky. Crean entered the game with a 2-0 mark against the Wildcats during his tenure at Marquette. Both of Crean's wins against Kentucky came in the NCAA Tournament (2003 and 2008).
- Indiana is now 52-34 all-time against schools from the Southeastern Conference.
- After the teams traded baskets during the first 1:30 of the second half, the Hoosiers went on a 11-1 run to cut into the Kentucky lead.
- Indiana outscored Kentucky 48-40 over the final 32 minutes.
- The Hoosiers played lockdown defense in the second half, holding Kentucky without a field goal and just one free throw for 7:07.
- Nine Hoosiers played in the game for Indiana and eight of them scored with all of those having at least three points.
- Junior guard Devan Dumes was the Hoosiers' leading scorer in the game with 15 points, the eighth time he has scored in double figures this season.
- Freshman Nick Williams continued his solid all-around play for the Hoosiers with eight points and four rebounds.
- Freshman guard Matt Roth was 3-for-6 from three-point range, the third time this season that Roth has made multiple triples in a game.
- Freshman guard Verdell Jones III scored six points and grabbed two rebounds in his first game back after suffering a head injury against Cornell on Nov. 30.
- Freshman center Tom Pritchard had four points and six rebounds and senior Kyle Taber added four points, seven boards and two steals.
- Freshman guard Daniel Moore had five points and five assists and freshman Malik Story had three points, an assist and a steal.

THE BEST OF POSTGAME NOTES

TCU

- The 23 points TCU scored in the first half marked the second-fewest points IU has allowed in a half this season. The Hoosiers have held three straight opponents under 30 at the break and have held their opposition under 30 points in five of the last six halves of basketball. Indiana is 5-0 when leading at the half.
- The Hoosiers held TCU to a season-low 56 points and they forced TCU to commit 21 turnovers, just one shy of the Horned Frogs' season high.

GONZAGA

- IU and Gonzaga played the first-ever game in Lucas Oil Stadium which opened for business in August.
- IU held Gonzaga to a season-low 70 points in the contest, as the Hoosier defense held the Zags to just 3-for-16 (18.8%) shooting from three-point range and 45.8 percent shooting for the game.
- The Hoosiers had at least three players in double figures for the third time in the previous four games, as Devan Dumes (15), Malik Story (14) and Tom Pritchard (13) all finished with 10 points or more.

WAKE FOREST

- The Hoosiers still hold a 28-18 advantage in the all-time series against teams from the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- Indiana head coach Tom Crean's record against Wake Forest fell to 1-2 all-time with the loss. Crean defeated the Demon Deacons on Feb. 9, 2003 in Milwaukee, 68-61 after losing to Wake Forest in Winston-Salem on Dec. 29, 2001, 64-59.

FIVE ON THE FLOOR

For a minute midway in the first half against NSU, Coach Tom Crean put five freshmen on the floor together for the first time this season (Pritchard, Williams, Jones III, Moore and Story).

CREAN KEEPS STREAK ALIVE

With the win against NSU, Tom Crean became the ninth straight head coach in IU history to win his first game as head coach of the Hoosiers. Those coaches include Branch McCracken (1938) Harry C. Good (1943), Lou Watson (1966), Jerry Oliver (1969), Bob Knight (1972), Mike Davis (2000), Kelvin Sampson (2006), Dan Dakich (2008) and Crean (2008).

Crean also joined elite company by winning his second game as Hoosier head coach on Tuesday against IUPUI. Of the coaches listed above, only Sampson and Good failed to win their second game with the Hoosiers.

FOR OPENERS

The Hoosiers have won 24 straight home openers and are 87-22 in their first game of the season all-time in Bloomington after defeating Northwestern State. IU also has now won 11 straight season openers.

NCAA UPDATE

The NCAA Committee on Infractions accepted Indiana's self-imposed sanctions (which have been completed) and placed the program on three years probation following a 13 month investigation of former IU Coach Kelvin Sampson and assistant coach Rob Senderhoff.

Indiana University President Michael A. McRobbie and senior officials in the Department of Athletics said that for the most part they are satisfied with the conclusions contained in the final report of the NCAA's Committee on Infractions, which was released today (Nov. 25).

"From the very beginning of these proceedings, we cooperated fully with the NCAA and, in fact, imposed severe recruiting penalties on our men's basketball program," McRobbie said. "Although I still believe the failure to monitor charge was unjustified, I am glad that the NCAA has accepted our self-imposed penalties with no further sanctions except a three-year probationary period."

Coach Tom Crean said, "I am happy that the NCAA has accepted our self-imposed sanctions and it now appears that we will be able to put this unpleasant chapter behind us and move IU basketball forward in a positive way."

Under the terms of probation, which runs through Nov. 24, 2011, IU will be required to continue to develop and implement a comprehensive educational program on NCAA recruiting and eligibility rules for all coaches and their staffs and report annually to the NCAA on progress and participation.

MR. DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Freshman forward Tom Pritchard posted his third double-double of the season with 15 points and 11 boards against TCU. He also added two blocks. He had a double-double in his Hoosier debut against Northwestern State with 13 points and 10 rebounds. As an encore, Pritchard dropped in 19 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for his second consecutive double-double to open the season. Pritchard became the first-ever freshman at IU to record double-doubles in his first two career games and the first person since Jared Jeffries in 2002 to post double-doubles in the first two games of a season. He has scored in double figures in seven of 10 games this season and is averaging 13.1 points and 7.6 rebounds. (3rd in the Big Ten). He is also averaging just under a double-double in games played at home this season (17.5ppg and 9.5rpg).

DUMES GETTING HOT

Junior guard Devan Dumes is averaging 16.8 points in his last three games after he had 15 points against Kentucky. He leads the team averaging 13.2 points and 29.5 minutes per game. He had a team-high 20 points against TCU and 15 points against Gonzaga. He also had 13 points against Cornell and 14 against Chaminade. He has scored in double figures in eight of the first 10 games. He also has made seven three-pointers in the last three games.

STORY BRINGING VERSATILITY

In the absence of fellow rookie Verdell Jones III, freshman Malik Story picked up some of the slack at point guard. An offensive sparkplug off the bench who is averaging 6.9 points, his long three-pointer at the halftime buzzer against TCU ignited the Hoosiers in their win against the Horned Frogs. He had 14 against Gonzaga and 10 against Wake Forest. If you include the Notre Dame game, he is averaging 10.0 points against three nationally-ranked teams. He had 12 points against Chaminade and nine against Saint Joseph's and hit seven of 14 shots (50.0%) in those two games. He had seven points, three assists and two steals against TCU.

MR. CONSISTENT

Freshman forward Nick Williams has been a consistent performer thus far for the Hoosiers. He is averaging 8.8 points and 5.1 rebounds. He had eight points and four boards against Kentucky. He also posted an 11-point, seven-rebound, three-steal effort against TCU. He had a season-high 18 points against Cornell and made eight of 12 shots from the floor. He also had 10 points apiece this season against IUPUI and Notre Dame. He finished with nine points and 10 boards against Wake Forest.

MOORE FOR NO MONEY

Freshman walk-on Daniel Moore has been the team's biggest surprise. He is averaging 4.5 points, 4.1 assists and 1.1 steals. He had five points and five assists against Kentucky. He played a season-high 37 minutes against Gonzaga and has averaged 32.5 minutes per game since the injury to Verdell Jones III. He had 10 points against Chaminade, eight against Cornell and seven against Wake Forest. His only scholarship offer out of high school came from Boston University. He had four points and a season-high seven assists against TCU.

JONES III RETURNS FROM INJURY

When the Hoosiers traveled to Kentucky on Dec. 13, Freshman guard Verdell Jones III played for the first time since the Cornell game and had six points and three rebounds. He left the game against Cornell and was taken to the hospital after running into a vicious pick at midcourt. He was examined and later released after it was determined that no serious injury had occurred. He did not play against Wake Forest, Gonzaga or TCU. He sparked the Hoosiers in their win over Northwestern State with 18 points, four rebounds, five assists, three blocks and three steals. He also made 10 of 13 free throws to lead the Hoosiers against the Demons. He is fourth on the team in scoring averaging 8.2 points and he had 13 against Chaminade.

TABER REBOUNDS FROM EARLY SEASON INJURY

After playing just 14 minutes in his first three seasons (redshirted in 2004-05), former walk-on Kyle Taber saw his playing time explode the final 13 games of the 2007-08 season averaging more than 15 minutes per game. So far, he has played 194 minutes in 10 games this season. He is averaging 3.9 points, 4.9 rebounds and leads the team with 12 steals. He had a career-high seven points and two assists against Saint Joseph's and matched that with a seven-point, three-steal output against Wake Forest. He also chipped in five points against IUPUI including his first career three-point field goal on his first-ever attempt. A fifth-year senior, Taber was awarded a scholarship prior to the 2007-08 season, and is a three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection. He had a season-high eight rebounds against Cornell. He had four points and seven boards and made his second career triple against Gonzaga. He played a career-high 26 minutes against Gonzaga.

THE BIG FELLA

Junior Tijan Jobe scored his first career points with the Hoosiers when he made a basket against Saint Joseph's. He also had a season-high three rebounds in that game.

MASK II

Like his former high school teammate Daniel Moore, sophomore walk-on Brett Finkelmeier was wearing protective mask after both players broke their noses early in the season. Finkelmeier played just 11 minutes last season, but notched 10 minutes against NSU. He had two points and a career-high four rebounds and three steals in that game.

AND HE CAN HIT TOO

Sophomore Kipp Schutz hit a pair of free throws against Saint Joseph's in seven minutes of play. He joined the team this year and is an outfielder for the IU baseball team. He played seven minutes against Wake Forest and had an assist and a steal. He had two free throws against Gonzaga and his first rebound against TCU. He was invited to join the team after taking part in a three-point shooting contest that featured the school's baseball team and the basketball team.

INSIDE IU BASKETBALL WITH TOM CREAN

Inside Indiana Basketball With Tom Crean is a weekly radio show which can be heard each Monday night (except for game night and holidays) from 7 to 8 p.m. on the IU Radio Network, beginning December 1. Long-time Voice of the Hoosiers Don Fischer, who is entering his 36th year behind the microphone, will join Coach Crean to preview the coming weeks action and review games from the previous week. The show will originate from Coaches Bar and Grill in the Hilton Garden Inn in Bloomington. The show is produced by IU Sports Properties.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

All media requests should be directed to Director of Athletic Communications J.D. Campbell. In addition to the Big Ten Teleconference, Coach Crean usually will hold one press conference per week, as the team's schedule permits. Players can be made available after practice on a non-game or travel day as long as their is no class conflict. We request at least 48 hours notice to ensure the player availability. Assistant Director Nate Wiecher is the secondary contact and may be reached at (812) 345-1991 or by email at nwiecher@indiana.edu.

ROTH SPREADS THE D

Freshman Matt Roth leads the team in three-point field goal percentage at 40.5% (12-of-37) and he has hit 50.0% of his long distance calls in the last five games (11/22).

MORE BEST OF POSTGAME NOTES

CORNELL

- Indiana led wire-to-wire for the second straight game. The Hoosiers jumped out to a 16-2 lead against Chaminade and never trailed and opened a 14-4 lead en route to Sunday's 15-point victory.

- The Hoosiers used a 14-2 run to turn a 17-16 lead into a 31-18 edge in the closing minutes of the first half. IU held a 35-29 lead at the break.

- For the fourth straight game, the Hoosiers scored the first basket of the contest, as Tom Pritchard put home a layup with 18:47 to play in the opening half. In Indiana's first two games at Assembly Hall this year, its opponents got on the board first. Indiana improved to 2-2 when scoring first and is 2-0 when its opponent scores first.

- Indiana went 26-for-47 (55.3 percent) from the field in the game, the second straight game that IU has finished over 50-percent shooting. It is the first time since Jan. 20 (56.9 vs. Penn State) and Jan. 23 (53.2 percent vs. Iowa) that the Hoosiers have shot over 50 percent two games in a row.

CHAMINADE

- This was the first time Indiana had five players score in double figures since Nov. 20 of last season against UNC Wilmington.

- This was the first time the Hoosiers have shot above 50 percent from the field in a game since Feb. 23 at Northwestern (56.1). The Hoosiers shot 58.8 percent on Wednesday against Chaminade.

- This also was the first time IU has made 30 or more field goals since they made 31 against Michigan State on Feb. 16, 2008.

- This was the first time IU has shot 70 percent or better from the floor in a half since March 1, 2006 against Purdue when they shot 71.4 percent in the second half (15-of-21). Against Chaminade, IU shot 70.4 percent (19-of-27).

SAINT JOSEPH'S

- The Hoosiers gave up a season-low eight offensive rebounds.

- Indiana held a 30-28 scoring advantage in the paint.

- The Hoosier bench outscored the Hawks 27-16.

NOTRE DAME

- Freshman forward Tom Pritchard led the Hoosiers offense in scoring for the second consecutive game, dropping in 14 points and grabbing six rebounds. He also added a pair of blocks to the Hoosiers cause.

- Junior guard Devan Dumes was also in double figures in scoring with 10 points and was second on the team with five rebounds.

IUPUI

- An errant three by IUPUI's Alex Young with three seconds left followed by a pair of free throws from Daniel Moore with 1.2 seconds on the clock preserved a 60-57 win for Indiana.

- IUPUI would go back up by as many as six until a 19-2 IU run over the final 7:29 of the half made it 31-20 at the break. Roth had a pair of three pointers and Pritchard contributed five points during the span. Defensively, the Hoosiers held the Jaguars without a field goal (0-11) over the course of the run.

NORTHWESTERN STATE

- Indiana forced 17 first half turnovers and 30 for the game. That is the most turnovers the Hoosiers have forced since they forced 26 on Nov. 20, 2007 against UNC Wilmington in Assembly Hall.

- Indiana registered 15 steals in the game, the first time they have done that since Feb. 11, 2001 against Michigan.

IU RADIO NETWORK

This marks the 36th year that Don Fischer has been the radio play-by-play "voice" of Indiana University Football and Basketball games. In addition to broadcasting the games, Fischer hosts the weekly coaches talk shows for both football and basketball, and has a weekly IU sports show, from September through March, on the IU Radio Network. Fischer has broadcast more than 1,200 Indiana University games that include seven bowl games, four NCAA Basketball Championship games and two N.I.T. Championship games.

Former Indiana guard Todd Leary is in his seventh season as the color analyst. Leary played for the Hoosiers from 1989-94 and still ranks among IU's top-10 career leaders in career three-point field goal percentage at .423, and his .460 shooting from beyond the arc in 1993-94 is ninth on the all-time list.

Joe Smith is in his 26th year with the IU Radio Network. He has handled pre-game, halftime and post-game duties since 1983. 1978-82 and hosted several IU Coaches Shows from 1983-96 and again from 2002-04.

2009 RECRUITING CLASS RANKED 5TH, 7TH NATIONALLY

Indiana University men's basketball coach Tom Crean has announced that six student-athletes have signed national letters of intent to attend IU and play basketball for the Hoosiers. With just seven months on the recruiting trail, along with NCAA restrictions, the Hoosier staff has hauled in one of the top recruiting classes in the country. The Hoosiers are ranked fifth nationally by Rivals.com and seventh nationally by Scout.com. The Hoosier class is the highest rated among Big Ten schools.

Bobby Capobianco, 6-8, 225, Forward, Loveland, Ohio, Loveland High School

Maurice Creek, 6-5, 195, Guard, Chatham, Va., Hargrave Military Academy

Derek Elston, 6-8, 212, Forward, Tipton, Ind., Tipton High School

Jordan Hulls, 6-0, 170, Guard, Bloomington, Ind., Bloomington South

Christian Watford, 6-7, 215 lbs, Forward, Birmingham, Ala., Shades Valley High School

CREAN ON THE RECRUITING CLASS

"Our coaching staff of Tim Buckley and Bennie Seltzer and the recent addition of Roshown McLeod, along with the rest of our staff, show what can happen when you believe in something and are not afraid to work hard to make it better even when you are hamstrung with restrictions. Our coaches worked extremely hard to build on relationships that we already had and to build new ones and continue to show people why Indiana was a perennial power year-in and year-out. The tradition of Indiana and the opportunity to play right away, the Big Ten conference, the national television schedule we have is only replaced by the fact that young students can come in here and get a world-class education. Our coaches did a tremendous job of showing that and we wouldn't be anywhere near having this kind of class without the hard work of these gentlemen that represent Indiana."

DID YOU KNOW?

Head Coach Tom Crean had a 100 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in his nine years at Marquette, as all 26 seniors graduated and earned a degree under his leadership.

Tom Crean, who averaged over 20 wins a season in nine years at Marquette and led the Golden Eagles to five NCAA Tournament appearances including the 2003 Final Four, was named the 28th head basketball coach in Indiana University history, on April 2.

In each of his final seven seasons, Crean's Marquette team's posted at least 19 wins and earned a postseason berth. Over those seven years, he compiled an aggregate record of 160-68 (.702). He is a two-time recipient of the Ray Meyer Conference USA, NABC District XI and USBWA District V Coach of the Year awards, and in 2003 won the Coach Clair Bee Award as well as being named a finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year Award. Overall, he was 190-96 in nine years with the Golden Eagles.

Crean built the Marquette program to the level where it has remained one of college basketball's best since 2001. Since November 2001, the Golden Eagles spent 81 weeks in the rankings, including all but one week of the 2007-08 season, as the squad was ranked as high as 10th by the AP. In his nine years with the Golden Eagles, Crean's teams earned five NCAA Tournament bids, one more than the previous four Marquette coaches had in the 16 years prior to his arrival.

In his nine seasons in Milwaukee, Golden Eagles players earned 22 All-Conference selections and grasped the program's first conference player of the year award, when Dwayne Wade won Conference USA's top honor in 2003. Wade also went on to become the first Marquette player since 1978 to be named an Associated Press first team All-American and finalist for the John R. Wooden Award.

In 2007-08, Crean's squad put together a 25-10 season and earned the No. 6 seed in the NCAA South Regional. The Golden Eagles topped Kentucky in the first round and lost a heartbreaker to No. 3 seed Stanford in overtime to come up just shy of a trip to the Sweet 16. MU finished tied for fifth in the BIG EAST with an 11-7 conference record.

Marquette had three All-BIG EAST selections as Lazar Hayward, Dominic James and Jerel McNeal all picked up second team accolades. MU was one of just two teams in the 16-squad BIG EAST to have three players selected to the first and second teams. James was a first team all-conference selection in 2006-07 as well, while McNeal was named the conference's Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2006, Steve Novak was a unanimous first team all-conference selection and went on to be selected by the Houston Rockets in the NBA Draft. That followed Travis Diener's All-America selection in 2005, joining Wade as Golden Eagles to earn the recognition under Crean's direction. Diener was selected 38th overall by the Orlando Magic in the 2005 Draft and played last year for the Indiana Pacers.

In Marquette's first two years in the BIG EAST, the Golden Eagles posted 20-plus wins and finished in the conference's top four in both campaigns. Marquette also picked up NCAA Tournament bids and won 10 conference games in both years. MU had strength in regular-season tournaments as well, winning the CBE Classic in 06-07 by topping Texas Tech and Duke and taking the Great Alaska Shootout in 2005-06.

The Golden Eagles earned trips to the National Invitation Tournament in both 2003-04 and 2004-05, their final two seasons in Conference USA. The squad won 19 games each season and posted its finest start (13-1) in over a quarter century in 2004-05.

The 2002-03 campaign was one of the finest in Golden Eagle history, as Marquette made a Final Four appearance for the first time since winning the NCAA Championship in 1977. MU won 27 games that year, 14 in conference play, thanks in part to the play of Wade in his All-America season. The Golden Eagles finished the regular season ranked No. 9 by the Associated Press and No. 6 in the ESPN/USA Today Top 25 poll and their .818 winning percentage was the program's best since 1977-78. Wade also was selected in the first round of the NBA Draft by the Miami Heat later that year.

Crean's breakthrough season came in 2001-02, as he coached Marquette to a 26-7 record and the team's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1997. The 26 victories were the third-most all-time and represented the program's first 20-win season since 1997.

The Golden Eagles secured 13 conference victories, the most in program history, and posted an undefeated home season at 16-0. In each of his first two years with MU, the Golden Eagles won 15 games and finished in the top four of the C-USA standings.

Prior to his arrival in Milwaukee, Crean served under Tom Izzo on the Michigan State basketball staff for four seasons, holding the position of associate head coach the last two. Crean also served as the Spartans' recruiting coordinator, where he routinely lured some of the nation's top talent to East Lansing, including two-time Big Ten Player of the Year Mateen Cleaves and two-time first team All-Big Ten selection Morris Peterson.

In Crean's four years on Izzo's staff, the Spartans put together an 88-41 record and made four consecutive postseason appearances, including a trip to the 1999 Final Four. In each of Crean's four seasons, MSU's win total increased, culminating with a 33-5 season and a 15-1 Big Ten ledger in 1999.

Prior to his tenure at Michigan State, Crean spent the 1994-95 season as an assistant coach at Pittsburgh and served as the associate head coach at Western Kentucky from 1990 to 1994.

In each of his final two seasons with the Hilltoppers, WKU earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament, including a Sun Belt Championship and a trip to the Sweet 16.

Crean got his start in coaching on the Division I level in 1989-90, serving on Jud Heathcote's staff at Michigan State. That team posted a 28-6 record and earned a Sweet 16 trip after winning the Big Ten.

A native of Mount Pleasant, Michigan, Crean earned his bachelor's degree in parks and recreation with a minor in psychology from Central Michigan in 1989. While pursuing his degree, Crean coached basketball at Alma College and Mount Pleasant High School.

Tom and his wife, Joani, are the parents of Megan, 13, Riley, 9, and Ainsley, 3.

Joani's father, Jack Harbaugh, was a long-time college football coach who won a Division IAA national championship while coaching at Western Kentucky. Her brother, John, is in his first year as the head coach of the Baltimore Ravens. He was an assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1998-2006 after joining Cam Cameron's staff at Indiana for the 1997 season as a defensive backs/special teams coach. Another brother, Jim, played quarterback at Michigan and for the Indianapolis Colts and is currently the head football coach at Stanford.
