INDIANA (2-0) vs. OLE MISS (2-0)

Thursday, November 19 • 5:00 p.m. ET
 Coliseo de Puerto Rico (San Juan, P.R.)

Series Record: First Meeting

TV: ESPN2

(Jon Sciambi and Hubert Davis)

RADIO: IU Radio Network
 (Jeremy Gray and Todd Leary)

THE OPENING TIP

Indiana is in its 110th season of college basketball and will face Ole Miss in the O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tipoff on Thursday. IU is 2-0 for the third straight year and for the fifth time in six seasons after beating USC Upstate, 69-61, Monday night. Ole Miss is 2-0 after defeating Alabama State at home, 90-53 also on Monday. The Hoosiers will play Kansas State or Boston University on Friday depending on the outcome of Thursday's matchup with the Rebels. Villanova, George Mason, Dayton and Georgia Tech comprise the other half of the bracket.

AGAINST THE SEC

Indiana has a 52-34 all-time record against SEC schools. Ole Miss is the only SEC team IU has never faced. Excluding Kentucky, Indiana is 29-5 against the league.

THE COACHES

Indiana named Tom Crean as its 28th men's basketball coach on April 2, 2008, and is entering his second year with the Hoosiers. He needs two wins to reach the 200-win plateau in his 10+ season career and has a 198-121 record. He came to Indiana from Marquette where he was 190-96 (66.4) in nine seasons and made five NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2003 Final Four. His 2009 recruiting class was ranked among the top 10 in the country. Andy Kennedy is 63-39 in three years at Ole Miss and is 84-52 in four years of Division I head coaching experience after spending one year at the University of Cincinnati before joining the Rebels.

REGULAR SEASON TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Hoosiers will be making their first appearance in the O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tipoff. Through the years, Indiana has a 157-37 record in regular season tournament events. Among their numerous titles, the Hoosiers captured the 2002 EA Sports Maui Invitational and 1992 and 1996 Preseason NIT titles. Indiana also won the 1975 Rainbow Classic, 1976 Sugar Bowl Tournament and 1977 Gator Bowl Classic. Their last championship game appearance came in 2007 at the Chicago Invitational Challenge. Last year, IU was in the Maui Invitational.

CHALLENGES AHEAD FOR THE HOOSIERS

Indiana's schedule could have them play as much as 19 games this season against teams who are ranked or are receiving votes in the Associated Press Preseason Top 25. Indiana will play #2 Michigan State, #5 Kentucky, #7 Purdue, #15 Michigan, #17 Ohio State, #18 Minnesota and could see #6 Villanova, #20 Georgia Tech or #22 Dayton in the O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tipoff Classic. In addition, Maryland, Illinois, Pittsburgh, Kansas State and Mississippi all are receiving votes and, with the exception of Kansas State, are guaranteed to appear on IU's schedule this season.

UP NEXT

Following their trip to Puerto Rico, the Hoosiers will return to Assembly Hall to play host to Northwestern State on Saturday, Nov. 28, at 3:30 p.m.

SCOUTING OLE MISS

Head coach Andy Kennedy is entering his fourth season leading the Ole Miss Rebels. He has a record of 61-39 in his three prior seasons and is returning one of the top backcourts in the country, led by 2009 SEC Freshman of the Year Terrico White. He is joined in the backcourt by Eniel Polynice and Chris Warren, both of whom missed all or part of last season due to injury. The Rebels opened the season with a 92-64 rout of Arkansas-Little Rock behind 21 points and seven rebounds from DeAundre Cranston.

HOOSIER HISTORY

IU is third all-time in NCAA Championships (5), fifth in NCAA Tournament appearances (35), sixth in NCAA Tournament victories (60), seventh in Final Four appearances (8) and 10th in overall victories (1,641). Indiana has won 20 Big Ten Championships and has the best winning percentage in conference games only at nearly 60 percent. No team has had more All-Big Ten selections than IU with 53.

DEJA TWO

Freshman forward Christian Watford finished his first career game with 14 points and 11 rebounds against Howard for his first career double-double. Watford followed that up with 17 points and 10 boards against USC Upstate for two double-doubles in as many games. Last year, teammate Tom Pritchard, who had five double-doubles on the season, had 13 points and 10 boards in his first career contest at IU and 19 points and 10 boards against IUPUI. Pritchard and Watford are the only two Hoosiers to post double-doubles in their first two career games at IU.

TOP FIVE OF ALL-TIME

The Indiana men's basketball program is widely regarded as one of the best programs in college basketball history. Recently, ESPN/Sagarin released it's rankings of the most prestigious basketball programs of all-time and not surprisingly, the Hoosiers were among the elite, checking in at No. 5 on the list. The top five are listed below:

- 1.) Kentucky
- 2.) UCLA
- 3.) Kansas
- 4.) North Carolina
- 5.) Indiana

TOUGHEST SKED IN 08-09

Last year, according to Jeff Sagarin's College Basketball Rankings, Indiana played the toughest schedule of any team in the country. Ken Pomeroy's rating system had the Hoosier's finishing the season with the eighth toughest schedule, and ninth toughest by ESPN.com's RPI.

INDIANA AND THE NBA

Indiana basketball has certainly left its mark in the National Basketball Association and continues to do so today. Below are a couple notes (past and present) about Hoosiers in the NBA:

- Indiana has had 71 players selected in the NBA Draft, the most among Big Ten schools
- There are three players from IU currently on active rosters in the NBA - Eric Gordon (Los Angeles Clippers), D.J. White (Oklahoma City Thunder) and Jared Jeffries (New York Knicks).
- There are also six people with Indiana ties on coaching staffs around the league and they are:
  - Mike Woodson, head coach - Atlanta Hawks
  - Lawrence Frank, head coach - New Jersey Nets
  - Randy Wittman, assistant coach - Washington Wizards
  - Keith Smart, assistant coach - Golden State Warriors
  - Micah Nori, assistant coach - Toronto Raptors
  - Bob Bender, assistant coach - Atlanta Hawks

COACH CREAN AND THE NBA

Indiana head coach Tom Crean also has a number of players currently playing for NBA teams. Below is a list of those players:

- Travis Diener, Indiana Pacers
- Dwyane Wade, Miami Heat
- Steve Novak, Los Angeles Clippers
- Wesley Matthews, Utah Jazz

THE FRESHMEN 200

Five Hoosiers reached the 200-point mark last season, including four true freshmen. Junior Devan Dumes led the team with 344 points (12.7 per game) followed by true freshmen Verdell Jones III 308 (11.0), Tom Pritchard 300 (9.7), Nick Williams 276 (8.9) and Matt Roth 209 (6.7). True freshmen accounted for 71 percent of the team's minutes played (4399 of 6225) and 73 percent of its scoring (1362 points of 1862).

RETURNING EXPERIENCE

When the Hoosiers take the floor this year, they will once again be one of the least experienced teams in the Big Ten. Along with Iowa, the Hoosiers only have one player (Brett Finkelmeier) that has been in the program for at least two seasons. Michigan State leads the conference with nine players with at least two years in their program. Here is how the rest shape up:

Team	2+ years
Michigan State	9
Ohio State	8
Wisconsin	8
Northwestern	7
Penn State	7
Illinois	6
Michigan	6
Purdue	6
Minnesota	4
Iowa	1

MUNIRU CLEARED

Freshman men's basketball player Bawa Muniru has been cleared by the NCAA Eligibility Center and can play for the Hoosiers effective immediately. The 6-11, 260-lb center from Tumu, Ghana was the #111th rated recruit in 2009 and the 14th best center. He is part of a 2009 recruiting class that is recognized as the best in the Big Ten and one of the top ten nationally.

Muniru wasted little time getting his feet wet as a Hoosier, stepping in and playing eight minutes in the second exhibition game against Saint Joseph's College

JIMMY V CLASSIC

The Indiana University men's basketball team will face Pittsburgh in the second game of the 2009 Jimmy V Classic scheduled for 9 p.m., Tuesday December 8 in New York's Madison Square Garden. Butler will face Georgetown in the opening contest at 7 p.m., with both games set to air on ESPN. This is the 15th Annual Classic, with Indiana making its second appearance in the event (1999). IU defeated North Carolina, 82-73, in E. Rutherford, N.J.

The two early-season college basketball events showcasing top programs on ESPN and ESPN2 will conclude the third annual Jimmy V Week, a week-long initiative across multiple ESPN platforms and programs featuring special content to help raise funds for cancer research December 2-8.

OLADIPO SIGNS

Indiana University men's basketball coach Tom Crean has announced the signing of Victor Oladipo, a 6-4, 185 guard from DeMatha Catholic High School in Washington D.C., to a national letter of intent to attend the University and play basketball for the Hoosiers.

A resident of Upper Marlboro, Maryland, Oladipo is entering his senior year at DeMatha for head coach Mike Jones. He is currently ranked No. 133 in the 2010 recruiting class by Rivals.com and No. 36 among shooting guards. Scout.com lists the 6-4 guard as the No. 49 shooting guard in his class while ESPN.com has him listed at No. 53. He led DeMatha to a 29-3 record last year and a conference and city league title in the Washington, D.C. area. He had 14 points and 7 boards in the city championship game. He played AAU basketball for Team Takeover this past summer under the guidance of head coach Keith Stephens.

Born on May 14, 1991, he is the son of Chris and Joan Oladipo and has three siblings, Kritine, Kendra and Victoria.

FOR STARTERS VS. HOWARD

Sophomore's Verdell Jones III and Tom Pritchard are the only Hoosiers to start the season opener in each of the last two seasons. Pritchard has started 32 straight games and Jones III has started 21 consecutive contests. Junior Jeremiah Rivers and freshmen Maurice Creek and Christian Watford made their first IU starts.

IU BY THE NUMBERS

0 - The Hoosiers do not have a player who has been in the program for four seasons. IU fielded one of the least experienced teams in college basketball history in 08-09. Junior walk-on Brett Finkelmeier is the only player who is in his third season at IU.

17.2 - Verdell Jones III averaged 17.2 points per game in the final nine games of the season including 23 points in the final two games of the season against Wisconsin and Penn State. He was second among Big Ten freshman in scoring at 11.0 points per game.

6.4 - Tom Pritchard was the top freshman rebounder in the Big Ten averaging 6.4 boards per game.

9 - Matt Roth set a Big Ten freshman record when he made nine three-pointers at Assembly Hall against Ohio State.

44 - Evansville native Kyle Taber was the lone senior on the squad last year and averaged 4.3 points and 5.2 rebounds and started 23 games. He earned a degree in sport marketing and management.

12 - Eight non-scholarship players suited up for IU last season at one point and Daniel Moore made 10 starts and Brett Finkelmeier started twice.

2.19 - Devan Dumes finished fourth in the Big Ten averaging 2.19 three-point field goals per game. He led the team averaging 12.7 points per game.

2 - the number of players with the program last year that were drafted in the First-Year MLB draft (Kipp Schutz and Eric Arnett).

16 - IU is the only Big Ten program to rank in the Top 16 in the NCAA in attendance every year since 1972.

5 - Indiana has won half of the ten NCAA Men's Basketball championships captured by the Big Ten Conference. That figure alone ranks the Hoosiers third all-time in NCAA history.

71 - Indiana basketball has had 71 players selected in the NBA draft, the most among Big Ten schools.

55 - IU has placed a player on the First Team All-Big Ten a record 55 times.

2,613 - Hoosier great Calbert Cheaney is the all-time leading scorer in Big Ten and Indiana basketball history with 2,613 points. He played from 1989-1993 and was a four-time IU MVP and Wooden Award winner in 1993 as the National Player of the Year.

60 - Indiana has 60 wins in the NCAA Tournament, the most among Big Ten programs.

35 - The Hoosiers have appeared in 35 NCAA Tournaments, most in conference history.

EXHIBITION NOTES

The Hoosiers averaged 95.5 points and shot 50.4% from the field in the two games. IU shot 72.0% from the line and forced 19.5 turnovers per game. In addition, the team garnered 11.5 steals per game. As a team, they outrebounded their opponents 47.0 to 37.5. Individually, 10 players averaged 10 or more minutes. Freshman Christian Watford led the team with 16 points and 7.5 rebounds. He also made 16 of 17 free throws. Junior Jeremiah Rivers had 13.5 points and 4.0 assists. Sophomore Verdell Jones III averaged 12.5 points and 5.5 assists. Freshmen Jordan Hulls and Maurice Creek averaged 10.5 points apiece with Hulls shooting 75.0% from the floor and Creek knocking in 54.5% of his shots. Freshman Derek Elston averaged 9.0 points and 7.5 rebounds and sophomore Tom Pritchard averaged 8.0 points and 6.5 boards.

EXHIBITION HISTORY

The 2009-10 season marks the sixth campaign that the Hoosiers have opened the season with exhibition games against NCAA Division II or III schools. Here are the exhibition results from the past five years:

2009-10
Grace College	W, 96-73

A LOOK AT THE O'REILLY AUTO PARTS TIPOFF FIELD

OLE MISS

Head coach Andy Kennedy is entering his fourth season leading the Ole Miss Rebels. He has a record of 61-39 in his three prior seasons and is returning one of the top backcourts in the country, led by 2009 SEC Freshman of the Year Terrico White. He is joined in the backcourt by Eniel Polynice and Chris Warren, both of whom missed all or part of last season due to injury. The Rebels opened the season with a 92-64 rout of Arkansas-Little Rock behind 21 points and seven rebounds from DeAundre Cranston.

Indiana vs. Ole Miss: First Meeting

BOSTON UNIVERSITY

The Terriers return four starters and 12 letterwinners for first year head coach Patrick Chambers, who joins BU after serving as Associate Head Coach at Villanova under Jay Wright. Among those returning include a pair of First Team All-America East selections from last year in Corey Lowe and John Holland. The Terriers also welcome back 2009 America East Rookie of the Year Jake O'Brien and his 12.5 ppg. In their first action of 2009-10, BU suffered a 82-73 setback on the road to Iona College. Carlos Strong had 12 points and 11 rebounds while Tyler Morris led all scorers with 21 points.

UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON

The Flyers showed up in both national Top 25 polls to start the year and for good reason. They return four starters and 10 of their top 11 scorers from a team that went 27-8 last year. Chris Wright is on the the John Wooden Award Preseason Top 50 Watch List as well as the Naismith Preseason Watch List. The Flyers opened this season with a 90-80 victory at home against Creighton.

Indiana vs. Dayton: First Meeting

VILLANOVA UNIVERSITY

Head Coach Jay Wright has his team ranked fifth in the country coming off a Final Four appearance last year. The Wildcats are led by senior guard Scottie Reynolds and juniors Corey Fisher, Corey Stokes and Antonio Pena, who have won seven NCAA Tournament games over the past two years. They opened the season with a 84-61 win over Fairleigh Dickinson and a 103-65 win over Penn on Monday.

YEAR TWO OF THE RESTORATION

The rebuilding process that began for the Indiana University men's basketball team is in its second year as head coach Tom Crean returns 10 players from last season. He will also introduce six freshmen, who comprised a top-10 recruiting class which is rated the Best in the Big Ten.

Indiana has one player, junior walk-on Brett Finkelmeier, who was even in the program two seasons ago, when the Hoosiers made their last NCAA Tournament appearance and not one member of the roster will be entering their fourth season in the Cream and Crimson. Despite the daunting tasks and ups and downs, several players saw extended playing time last season which could prove beneficial in the future.

Senior guard Devan Dumes is the team's leading scorer coming off a season which saw him average 12.7 points in 25 starts. He also made 38.1 percent of his three-point attempts.

Sophomore guard Verdell Jones III exploded over the final 10 games of the season averaging more than 14 points per game in that span and finished the season with back-to-back 23 point performances against Wisconsin and Penn State. He averaged 11.0 points.

Sophomore center Tom Pritchard is the team's third returning starter and he averaged 9.7 points and 6.4 rebounds and was the only player who started all 31 games for the Hoosiers.

Sophomore sharp-shooter Matt Roth returns after averaging 6.7 points. He also shot 38.1 percent from long distance in Big Ten play, including a school record 9 for 11 against Ohio State.

Sophomore walk-on guard Daniel Moore started 10 games and averaged 2.5 points and had 79 assists in 31 games.

Finkelmeier saw his playing time increased down the stretch as he averaged more than 23 minutes per game in the final three contests.

The coaching staff also will look for improvement from senior center Tijan Jobe who saw action in 22 games last season. Senior Steven Gambles and sophomore Kory Barnett are walk-ons who joined the team last season.

Junior guard Jeremiah Rivers could be the X factor for the Hoosiers. He transferred to Indiana last year after playing two seasons at Georgetown and was a member of the 2007 squad which advanced to the Final Four. He is the son of Boston Celtics Head Coach Doc Rivers and will be counted on for his defense, speed and leadership.

POSTGAME NOTES - USC UPSTATE

- Head Coach Tom Crean continues his quest for 200 career wins, as he is now 198-121 in his 11th year as a head coach.
- After a slow start for the Hoosiers that saw them trailing the Spartans 9-4, IU went on a 12-0 run to turn a five-point deficit into a seven-point advantage. Over that span the Hoosier defense held USC Upstate to 0-for-6 from the floor and forced five Spartan turnovers.
- The Hoosiers used a second run around halftime to push their lead to 11 points. Leading 24-23 with 4:05 to play in the first, IU went on a 16-4 surge to take a 40-27 edge at the 16:35 mark of the second.
- Indiana dominated the offensive boards, grabbing 15 rebounds on the offensive end to just seven for USC Upstate. The Hoosiers turned those 15 boards into 16 second chance points to own that category 16-6.
- Freshman Christian Watford had his second double-double in as many games, posting 17 points and 10 rebounds. It is the second year in a row that an IU frosh has started his career with two double-doubles (Tom Pritchard last year). Watford and Pritchard are the only two freshmen in school history to have started their careers in that manner.
- Freshman Derek Elston had another big day for the Hoosiers off the bench, scoring 10 points and adding a career-best eight rebounds in 24 minutes. After going 6-for-7 in his Indiana debut, he went 4-for-6 on Monday for a career .769 shooting percentage.
- Maurice Creek had another fine day from the floor, shooting 5-for-7, including a 2-for-2 mark from beyond the arc. He finished in double figures for the second straight game, scoring 14 points in just 19 minutes of action.
- Through two college games, the freshman trio of Creek, Elston and Watford has been impressive on the offensive end. The trio is averaging an aggregate 41.0 points per game and has shot a whopping .681 from the floor. The three have also gone 9-for-13 (.692) from behind the arc on the year.
- Verdell Jones III had his first game in double figures on the 2009-10 campaign, scoring 13 points to go along with three steals and one assist. It marks the second straight game that IU has had three players finish in double figures.
- For the second straight game, IU had a strong presence in the paint. The Hoosiers scored 38 of their 69 points from inside the key after scoring 50 of 83 in the paint against Howard.
- Jeremiah Rivers had five assists in the game, his best total in an IU uniform. Rivers finished with two points, four rebounds, five assists and two steals in 31 minutes.
- Jordan Hulls played a strong role in his second game as a Hoosier, scoring four points with one rebound and a steal in 18 minutes. Hulls' lone basket was a three as the shot clock expired to send the Assembly Hall crowd into a frenzy.
- Devan Dumes scored just two points in 20 minutes, but grabbed five defensive boards in the game. He also had an assist and a steal.
- Tom Pritchard hit his only field goal and went 2-for-2 from the charity stripe, but was limited to 10 minutes due to foul trouble in finishing with four points.
- Bawa Muniru made the most of his three minutes of action, snaring three offensive caroms in that time. Tijan Jobe played five minutes as well for Indiana, grabbing one defensive rebound.
- Matt Roth scored two points in four minutes with a pair of free throws, while Daniel Moore hit one free throw in his two minutes. Bobby Capobianco did not score in five minutes of work.
- Monday's game was the first meeting between the Hoosiers and Spartans. IU is now 3-1 against the Atlantic Sun Conference all-time.
- The Hoosiers now head to the O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tipoff for a Thursday date with Ole Miss at 5:00 p.m. ET. The game will be televised on ESPN2.

A LOOK AT THE FROSH

The Hoosiers will have to once again rely on youth as it continues the restoration of a program that is considered one of the five best in the history of college basketball. The recruiting class was generally recognized as the best in the Big Ten and a top-10 class nationally.

Freshman center Bobby Capobianco of Loveland, Ohio is an imposing figure who plays with passion and enthusiasm and is known for his rebounding and shot blocking abilities. A 2009 graduate of Loveland High School, he finished high school career as his school's all-time leading scorer, rebounder and shot blocker. He averaged 17.3 points and 12 rebounds as a senior to lead his team to a 17-4 record. He was rated as the #100 prospect in the 2009 class by ESPN.com as well as the #33 power forward in the class

Freshman guard Maurice Creek comes to IU from Hargrave Military Academy and is a polished offensive performer who is quick and explosive. He averaged 18.4 points, 5.0 rebounds, 4.0 assists, 2.0 steals 2.0 blocks and led his team to a 27-2 record. He was a first-team Prep School All-American and Scout.com ranked Creek as the #9 shooting guard in the 2009 class and #45 in the class overall.

Freshman forward Derek Elston is a Tipton, Indiana native who brings toughness and tenacity to the program. He was named first-team All-State and played in the Indiana/Kentucky All-Star series with averaged 19.7 points, 10.8 rebounds and 2.8 assists in leading his team to a 23-3 record. Rivals.com ranked him as the 90th best overall recruit in the 2009 class and 24th best power forward in the class

Freshman guard Jordan Hulls, who led Bloomington South to a perfect season and a state title, brings leadership and intangibles to his hometown Hoosiers. Hulls will be the 25th Indiana Mr. Basketball to play for the Hoosiers He averaged 15.8 points, 4.0 rebounds, 5.2 assists and 2.6 steals per game and was ranked as the #9 point guard in the 2009 class by Scout.com and #80 in the class as a whole

Freshman forward Christian Watford of Birmingham, Alabama, was the highest rated of the recruits and offers athleticism and poise to the program. He averaged 25 points and 13 rebounds and led his team to a 26-6 record. He was ranked #34 by Rivals.com in class of 2009 and rated as the #6 small forward in the class of 2009 by Rivals.com.

Freshman Bawa Muniru, who comes to IU from Mount Zion Academy, is another big body who can rebound and blocked shots. Rivals.com had Muniru rated as the #111 player in the 2009 class and the #14 center. Scout.com had him ranked as the #32 center in the 2009 recruiting class. He averaged 16 points at Mt. Zion Academy.

POSTGAME NOTES - HOWARD

- Indiana won its 25th straight home opener, its 12th straight victory in a season opener and the ninth straight win in a season opener for Hoosier Coach Tom Crean.
- The game was played in front a sellout crowd of 17,383.
- Indiana is now 1-0 all-time vs. Howard and 3-0 against the MEAC.
- With the win, Coach Tom Crean is now 197-121 in 10-plus seasons as a head coach.
- With IU leading 20-18 with 7:00 left in the half, the Hoosiers went on a 38-11 run over the next 13:30 to lead 58-29 with 14:26 to go in the second half.
- The Hoosiers' 83-points scored matched their season opening effort of 83 points scored against Northwestern State last season.
- The 23-point margin of victory is the largest for a Hoosier team under Crean.
- The Hoosiers had six different players with a blocked shot (Watford, Pritchard, Creek, Rivers, Jones III, and Muniru).
- With 40 points scored in the first half and 43 in the second, it marked the first time during the Crean Era that IU has scored 40 or more points in both halves of a game.
- Indiana's 55.7% shooting effort from the field was its second best in the last two seasons. IU shot 58.1% against Chaminade last year.
- The Hoosiers matched their season high in assists from a year ago with 20 (Ohio State, 1-31-09)
- Freshman Maurice Creek led the Hoosiers with 17 points and knocked down 7 of 11 shots made two of four triples with two assists in his first collegiate start.
- Freshman Christian Watford had a double-double in his first game, 14-points and 11 rebounds, He made all five of his free throw attempts. Teammate Tom Pritchard had 13 points and 10 rebounds in his career debut last year.
- Freshman Derek Elston had 14 points and three rebounds off the bench. He made six of seven field goal attempts.
- Pritchard had 10 points, five rebounds and two assists. He made five of six field goal attempts and had a blocked shot.
- Sophomore Verdell Jones III had nine points and two assists. He and Pritchard are the only two players who started against Howard and in last year's season opener.

STEVE DOWNING AND BOB KNIGHT INDUCTED INTO IU ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The Indiana University Athletic Hall of Fame inducted two of the most important names in the history of the men's basketball program, Steve Downing and Bob Knight. They were honored along with five others November 6 in a ceremony at Assembly Hall that was attended by 800, the largest crowd for the event ever. The pair join former men's soccer coach Jerry Yeagley (men's soccer, 1973-2003), Katrin Koch (women's track and field, 1989-92), Joe Norman (football, 1975-78), the late Mike Rabold (football, 1956-58), and Alan Somers (swimming, 1961-63) in the 2009 class.

Coach Knight was presented by 2008 IU Athletics Hall of Famer Bob Hammel and Rabold was honored by his brother John.

The Hall of Fame was established in 1982 by the Indiana University Varsity Club National Board of Directors, in cooperation with Indiana University, its Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, the I Association, and the Indiana University Alumni Association. Its purpose is to recognize and honor individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the achievements and prestige of Indiana University in the field of athletics and who have demonstrated the values imparted by intercollegiate athletics. Each year, a subcommittee of the Indiana University Varsity Club National Board of Directors selects inductees for the Hall of Fame. This year's class brings the current roster of IU Hall of Fame inductees to 164.

IU RADIO NETWORK

Indiana University's basketball program receives some of the most extensive media coverage in the country. Learfield Communications holds the exclusive rights as Indiana University's official radio outlet.

Headquartered in Jefferson City, Mo., Learfield Communications also owns the multi-media rights to 26 leading universities.

The schools represented by Learfield include: Alabama, Army, Clemson, Colorado, Fresno State, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas State, Maine, Memphis, Miami (Fla.), Minnesota, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon State, Penn State, Purdue, San Jose State, South Carolina, Texas A&M, Tulsa, Wyoming and Wisconsin. Learfield was founded in 1972.

DON FISCHER

This marks the 37th year that Don Fischer has been the radio play-by-play "voice" of Indiana University Football and Basketball games. In addition to broadcasting the games, Fischer hosts the weekly coaches talk shows for both football and basketball, and has a weekly IU sports show, from September through March on the IU Radio Network.

Fischer does freelance sportscasting, and for the last 12 years, he has served as the television voice of the Indianapolis Colts for their preseason games on WTTV-Channel 4 in Indianapolis.

During his 36 years of work with IU, Fischer has been named Indiana Sportscaster of the Year 22 times by two organizations. The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association has honored him 18 times, while the Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association has named him its honoree four times. He has won several awards for best play-by-play, and has been honored by Indiana University with the J.W. Bill Orwig Medal, that goes to non-alumni for distinguished service to the University. He also has been named an Honorary "I" Man. The Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association inducted Fischer into the ISSA Hall of Fame in April 2004.

In addition, the City of Indianapolis and the State of Indiana have each honored Fischer with a special "Recognition Day" for his service as the play-by-play broadcaster for IU.

Fischer has broadcast more than 1,200 Indiana University games that include six bowl games, four NCAA Basketball Championship games and two N.I.T. Championship games. From 1973 through 1987, he worked for ABC Radio, Canada's CBC, and several other major market radio stations, including WIRE in Indianapolis as their source for coverage of the Indianapolis 500. During that 14-year period, he also served Indianapolis radio station WIRE and Network Indiana, a statewide news network, as their Sports Director.

A native of Mendota and Rochelle, Ill., Fischer has been in the radio business for 39 years. His previous broadcast experience includes stops in Butte, Mont., Ottawa, Ill., Springfield, Ill. and Terre Haute, Ind. Fischer has four sons and seven grandchildren. He and his wife, Susy, reside in Greenwood.

TODD LEARY

Former Indiana guard Todd Leary is in his eighth season as the color analyst. Leary played for the Hoosiers from 1989-94 and still ranks among IU's top-10 career leaders in career three-point field goal percentage at .423, and his .460 shooting from beyond the arc in 1993-94 is ninth on the all-time list. Leary, his wife, Kim, and their three children live in Carmel, where Leary co-owns Mortgage Links and Legends Title.

JOE SMITH

Joe Smith is in his 27th year with the IU Radio Network. He has handled pre-game, halftime and post-game duties since 1983. Smith, the sports director of WGCL-AM 1370 in Bloomington, is in his 37th year of radio broadcasting in Bloomington. He began his career in 1969 at WAIK Radio in Galesburg, Ill. From 1973-89, Smith worked on "RFD-4 Agri-Business Show" on WTTV-4 with the late Bob Cook. In 1998, Smith was named Indiana Sportscaster of the Year and in April 2003 was inducted into the Indiana Sportswriters/Sportscasters Hall of Fame. Joe handled the IU TV Warmup Shows from 1978-82 and hosted several IU Coaches Shows from 1983-96 and again from 2002-04.

In June 2004, Smith received the J.W. Bill Orwig Medal, that goes to non-alumni for distinguished service to the University.

Joe has two children, both of whom are Indiana graduates. Jeff is a 2002 graduate with a bachelor's degree in sports communications/broadcasting and recently married the former Kristen Jacob. Smith's daughter, Jamie, earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2005, and she completed her master's in sports management at Tennessee.

TOM CREAN RADIO SHOW

Beginning the first week of December, Don Fischer will host the one-hour Tom Crean Radio Show each Monday night at 7 p.m. from the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Bloomington.

The pair will recap the previous weeks events and take calls from a statewide audience which listens on the IU Radio Network.

TOM CREAN TELEVISION SHOW

DID YOU KNOW?

Head Coach Tom Crean had a 100 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in his nine years at Marquette, as all 27 seniors graduated and earned a degree under his leadership. Four more players he recruited graduated after the 2008-09 season.

Tom Crean, who averaged over 20 wins a season in nine years at Marquette and led the Golden Eagles to five NCAA Tournament appearances including the 2003 Final Four, was named the 28th head basketball coach in Indiana University history, on April 2, 2008. In 10 years as a head coach on the collegiate level, he is 196-121 and has seen all 27 of the seniors who have played for him earn college degrees.

Since coming to Indiana, he and his staff recruited one of the top 10 classes in the country for 2009 and he has been relentless in embracing the tradition of Indiana University and building bridges for future fans of Indiana basketball throughout the state.

In each of his final seven seasons at Marquette, Crean's teams posted at least 19 wins and earned a postseason berth. Over those seven years, he compiled an aggregate record of 160-68 (.702). He is a two-time recipient of the Ray Meyer Conference USA, NABC District XI and USBWA District V Coach of the Year awards, and in 2003 won the Coach Clair Bee Award as well as being named a finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year Award.

Crean built the Marquette program to the level where it has remained one of college basketball's best since 2001. From November 2001 through the end of his tenure at Marquette, the Golden Eagles spent 81 weeks in the rankings, including all but one week of the 2007-08 season, as the squad was ranked as high as 10th by the AP. In his nine years with the Golden Eagles, Crean's teams earned five NCAA Tournament bids, one more than the previous four Marquette coaches had in the 16 years prior to his arrival.

In his nine seasons in Milwaukee, Golden Eagles players earned 22 All-Conference selections and grasped the program's first conference player of the year award when Dwayne Wade won Conference USA's top honor in 2003. Wade also went on to become the first Marquette player since 1978 to be named an Associated Press first team All-American and finalist for the John R. Wooden Award.

In 2007-08, Crean's squad put together a 25-10 season and earned the No. 6 seed in the NCAA South Regional. The Golden Eagles topped Kentucky in the first round and lost a heartbreaker to No. 3 seed Stanford in overtime to come up just shy of a trip to the Sweet 16. MU finished tied for fifth in the BIG EAST with an 11-7 conference record.

Marquette had three All-BIG EAST selections as Lazar Hayward, Dominic James and Jerel McNeal all picked up second team accolades. MU was one of just two teams in the 16-squad BIG EAST to have three players selected to the top two teams. James was a first team all-conference selection in 2006-07 as well, while McNeal was named the conference's defensive player of the year.

In 2006, Steve Novak was a unanimous first team all-conference selection and went on to be selected by the Houston Rockets in the NBA Draft. That followed Travis Diener's All-America selection in 2005, joining Wade as Golden Eagles to earn the recognition under Crean's direction. Diener was selected 38th overall by the Orlando Magic in the 2005 Draft and played last year for the Indiana Pacers.

In Marquette's first two years in the BIG EAST, the Golden Eagles posted 20-plus wins and finished in the conference's top four in both campaigns. Marquette also picked up NCAA Tournament bids and won 10 conference games in both years. MU had strength in regular-season tournaments as well, winning the CBE Classic in 06-07 by topping Texas Tech and Duke and taking the Great Alaska Shootout in 2005-06.

The Golden Eagles earned trips to the National Invitation Tournament in both 2003-04 and 2004-05, their final two seasons in Conference USA. The squad won 19 games each season and posted its finest start (13-1) in over a quarter century in 2004-05.

The 2002-03 campaign was one of the finest in Golden Eagle history, as Marquette made a Final Four appearance for the first time since winning the NCAA Championship in 1977. MU won 27 games that year, 14 in conference play, thanks in part to the play of Wade in his All-America season. The Golden Eagles finished the regular season ranked No. 9 by the Associated Press and No. 6 in the ESPN/USA Today Top 25 poll and their .818 winning percentage was the program's best since 1977-78. Wade also was selected in the first round of the NBA Draft by the Miami Heat later that year.

Crean's breakthrough season came in 2001-02, as he coached Marquette to a 26-7 record and the team's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1997. The 26 victories were the third-most all-time and represented the program's first 20-win season since 1997.

The Golden Eagles secured 13 conference victories, the most in program history, and posted an undefeated home season at 16-0. In each of his first two years with MU, the Golden Eagles won 15 games and finished in the top four of the C-USA standings.

Prior to his arrival in Milwaukee, Crean served under Tom Izzo on the Michigan State basketball staff for four seasons, holding the position of associate head coach the last two. Crean also served as the Spartans' recruiting coordinator, where he routinely lured some of the nation's top talent to East Lansing, including two-time Big Ten Player of the Year Mateen Cleaves and two-time first team All-Big Ten selection Morris Peterson.

In Crean's four years on Izzo's staff, the Spartans put together an 88-41 record and made four consecutive postseason appearances, including a trip to the 1999 Final Four. In each of Crean's four seasons, MSU's win total increased, culminating with a 33-5 season and a 15-1 Big Ten ledger in 1999.

Prior to his tenure at Michigan State, Crean spent the 1994-95 season as an assistant coach at Pittsburgh and served as the associate head coach at Western Kentucky from 1990 to 1994.

In each of his final two seasons with the Hilltoppers, WKU earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament, including a Sun Belt Championship and a trip to the Sweet 16.

Crean got his start in coaching on the Division I level in 1989-90, serving on Jud Heathcote's staff at Michigan State. That team posted a 28-6 record and earned a Sweet 16 trip after winning the Big Ten.

A native of Mount Pleasant, Michigan, Crean earned his bachelor's degree in parks and recreation with a minor in psychology from Central Michigan in 1989. While pursuing his degree, Crean coached basketball at Alma College and Mount Pleasant High School.

Tom and his wife, Joani, are the parents of Megan, 14, Riley, 10, and Ainsley, 4.

Joani's father, Jack Harbaugh, was a long-time college football coach who won a Division I-AA national championship while coaching at Western Kentucky. Her brother, Jim, played quarterback at Michigan and for the Indianapolis Colts and is currently the head football coach at Stanford. Another brother, John, is in his second year as the head coach of the Baltimore Ravens. He was an assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1998-2006 after joining Cam Cameron's staff at Indiana for the 1997 season as a defensive backs/special teams coach.
