

HOOSIERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

ALVIN "BO" MCMILLIN

COACH: 1934-47
INDUCTED: 1951

The first Indiana University product to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, Alvin "Bo" McMillin was responsible for leading the Hoosiers to their first-ever Big Ten championship in football. Enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951, McMillin coached the Hoosiers for 14 years (1934-47) and compiled a record of 63-48-11. In 1945, he led Indiana to its only undefeated season and its first Big Ten championship. Following the 1945 campaign he earned Man-of-the Year and Coach-of-the-Year honors from the Football Writers Association and the Football Coaches Association, respectively. As a player at Centre College in Kentucky, McMillin was responsible for handing Harvard its first loss in over five years when he scored on a 35-yard run to earn a victory over the Crimson in 1921. He was recognized as a first-team All-America selection in 1919 and earned second-team honors one year later. He repeated as a consensus All-America pick in 1921. Following his playing days, McMillin returned to the football field and went on to coach at Centenary, Geneva, Kansas State and Indiana. In 26 seasons he compiled a record of 146-77-13. Born in Prairie View, Texas, McMillin died in Bloomington on March 31, 1952.

PETE PIHOS

END/FB: 1942-43, 1945-47
INDUCTED: 1966

After earning All-America honors as both an end and fullback, Pete Pihos became the second Indiana University football product to be enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame when he was inducted in 1966. After helping Indiana set national records on offense in 1943, he returned from a stint in the Army to lead the Hoosiers in scoring during their Big Ten Championship season of 1945. One year later, Pihos was named the team's Most Valuable Player while shattering previous IU records for touchdowns, total points and receptions. After college, Pihos was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles where he played from 1947-55. An integral member of the Eagles' 1948 and 1949 championship teams, Pihos enjoyed a career that included six trips to the Pro Bowl and three consecutive seasons leading the NFL in receptions. He may best be remembered for his game-winning catch in the 1949 NFL championship game vs. the Rams. Pihos came to the Eagles in 1947 and was a starter on offense for eight of his nine years with the team. He played defense in 1952 but returned to the offensive unit a year later. During his Eagles career, Pihos caught 373 passes and tallied 61 touchdown catches. He led the league in receptions and receiving yards in 1953 (63-1,049) and again in 1955 (62-864). In between, he tied for the league lead in catches with 60 in 1954. After the advent of the Pro Bowl in 1951, he played in the game six times in as many years. In 1970, he was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

ZORA CLEVENGER

HALFBACK: 1900-03
INDUCTED: 1968

Widely recognized as a football pioneer and trailblazing athletic director, Zora G. Clevenger helped Indiana University receive national acclaim. As a member of Indiana's first Big Ten team, Clevenger played for the Hoosiers from 1900-1903 and served as team captain. He earned All-America honors at center during his senior season. A three-sport star, Clevenger drew wide-spread recognition for his speed and leadership. Upon graduating from Indiana he took to coaching and, in 1914, brought the University of Tennessee its first undefeated season. The designer of the Straight-T formation, Clevenger built the Volunteers into a national powerhouse. After retiring from coaching, Clevenger served as athletic director at Missouri and Kansas State before returning to Indiana to work as its athletic director for 23 years. During his tenure, Clevenger witnessed IU's first Big Ten championship in football. The Hoosiers also won three Big Ten championships in basketball and the NCAA basketball title in 1940. A founder of the annual East-West Shrine Game, Clevenger retired in 1946 and was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1968.

GEORGE TALIAFERRO

INDUCTED: 1981

A first-team All-America selection as a defensive back at Indiana in 1948, George Taliaferro may best be known as the first African-American to be drafted by a National Football League team. In addition to his All-America recognition as a senior, Taliaferro was a two-time second-team All-America pick and helped lead the Hoosiers to their first Big Ten championship in 1945. During the '45 campaign, he amassed 719 yards, and in a game at Minnesota, he tallied two touchdowns when he returned a kickoff 95 yards and also scored on an 82-yard interception return. After a successful four-year career at Indiana, Taliaferro played in the NFL from 1948-55 for the Los Angeles Dons, New York Yankees, Dallas Cowboys, Baltimore Colts and Philadelphia Eagles. Taliaferro would later return to Indiana University as the Assistant to the Dean of the School of Social Work. He was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1981.

JOHN TAVENER

CENTER: 1941-44
INDUCTED: 1990

A four-year letterman and a two-year captain at Indiana, John Tavener was named to six different All-America teams following his senior season in 1944. An extremely versatile player, Tavener called the offensive signals at center, excelled on defense, and kicked extra points. He would earn IU Most Valuable Player honors in 1943 and 1944 and went on to play in postseason all-star games following the 1944, 1945, and 1946 seasons. Tavener was drafted by the Miami Seahawks in 1946 but retired after one season and pursued a banking career in Ohio. After retiring from the business in 1986 he became a volunteer assistant coach at Denison University in Granville, Ohio. He coached the centers and implemented a direct long-snap to the team's tailback. It was the same technique he had been taught while playing for the Hoosiers. Tavener was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

BIG TEN MVPS

ANTWAAN RANDLE EL

QUARTERBACK
2001 ALL-AMERICAN

11

Arguably college football's most exciting player went into the NCAA record books as one of the sport's most successful dual-threat quarterbacks. Randle El finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting, won the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player, and was the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year as selected by Big Ten media and coaches in his final season. Randle El rushed for more yards (3,895) than any quarterback in NCAA Division I-A history and in 44 career games passed for 7,469 yards and 42 touchdowns and rushed for 3,895 yards and 44 scores. He finished fifth on the NCAA Division I-A total yardage list with 11,364 yards and is the only player in major college football history to record 2,500 total yards in four consecutive seasons. He is the first player in NCAA Division I-A history to pass for 40 touchdowns and score 40 touchdowns and finished his career with 42 touchdown passes and 45 touchdowns rushing and receiving. He is also the only Division I-A player to pass for over 6,000 yards and rush for over 3,000 yards in a career. He was a second round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2002 and threw a touchdown pass to Hines Ward in Super Bowl XL. In March 2006, Randle El signed a free agent contract with the Washington Redskins.

ANTHONY THOMPSON

RUNNING BACK
1988, 1989 ALL-AMERICAN

32

One of the finest running backs in the history of college football, Anthony Thompson earned first team All-America recognition following both his junior and senior seasons. A native of Terre Haute, Ind., he shattered almost every Indiana rushing record imaginable and set multiple Big Ten and NCAA marks. A two-time Big Ten rushing champion, Thompson captured the NCAA rushing and scoring title during his senior campaign and was named the Walter Camp Foundation's Player of the Year, the AFCA "Coaches Choice" Player of the Year, won the Maxwell Award as the nation's finest college football player, and finished second in the 1989 Heisman Trophy voting. Thompson finished his career with 5,299 rushing yards, including 377 yards in a game at Wisconsin in 1989. He held the Division I record for career touchdowns with 65 until the 1998 season, when it was broken by Texas' Ricky Williams. He also held the Big Ten record for points scored with 412, a total that was surpassed by Wisconsin's Ron Dayne in 1999. Following a stellar collegiate career, Thompson was selected in the second round of the 1990 NFL draft by the Phoenix (now Arizona) Cardinals. He was a member of the Cardinals from 1990-92 and finished his career with the Los Angeles (now St. Louis) Rams.

TIM CLIFFORD

QUARTERBACK

14

Tim Clifford won the 1979 Big Ten Most Valuable Player honor after leading Indiana to an 8-4 record, a solid fourth-place finish in the Big Ten, final national poll rankings of 16th and 19th and the school's first-ever bowl win, an exciting 38-37 triumph over BYU in the Holiday Bowl. Clifford completed nearly 56 percent of his passes for 2,078 yards and 13 touchdowns. In his career, he ranks among the Hoosiers' top 10 in passing yardage (fifth, 4,338), attempts (sixth, 631), and completions (sixth, 333). Clifford was a two-sport athlete who also lettered in baseball.

CORBY DAVIS

FULLBACK
1937 ALL-AMERICAN

The first pick overall in the 1938 National Football League draft, Corby Davis earned first team All-America honors and was voted as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player by the Chicago Tribune in 1937. Although he was forced to participate in World War II, Davis did spend four successful seasons with the Cleveland Browns before retiring in 1942.

VERN HUFFMAN

QUARTERBACK
1936 ALL-AMERICAN

A football and basketball standout at Indiana, Vern Huffman was IU's first All-America quarterback. A second team All-America selection and the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player in 1936, Huffman is the only player in the history of IU to earn All-America honors in football and basketball. IU's Balfour Award winner for football following his senior season, Huffman played professional football for the Detroit Lions.

CHUCK BENNETT

1928 ALL-AMERICAN

The first All-America running back in the history of Indiana University, Chuck Bennett earned second team honors in 1928. A team captain, Bennett also earned All-Big Ten honors and was voted his team's Most Valuable Player following the 1928 season. He would go on to play professionally with the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals.

ANTWAAN RANDLE EL - 2001 FIRST TEAM

Arguably college football's most exciting player went into the NCAA record books as one of the sport's most successful dual-threat quarterbacks. He is also the only Division I-A player to pass for over 6,000 yards and rush for over 3,000 yards in a career. He was a second round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

LEVRON WILLIAMS - 2001 THIRD TEAM

Levron Williams had a breakout senior season and was one of only two Big Ten players to be recognized as a unanimous first team All-Big Ten selection. In 11 games, Williams carried 212 times for 1,401 yards (6.6 ypc average) and 17 touchdowns. He also led the team in receptions with 26 for 289 yards and two scores and was one of the country's leaders in all-purpose yardage with 200.1 yards per game. Williams finished his career with 452 carries for 3,095 yards and 31 touchdowns. He also caught 94 passes for 1,088 yards and seven scores. In doing so, he became one of only a handful of players in NCAA Division I-A history to record 3,000 career rushing yards and 1,000 career receiving yards. He entered his name into the IU record books with a memorable 280-yard, six touchdown performance against Wisconsin.

ERIC ALLEN - 1996 THIRD TEAM

A third team All-America selection as a senior in 1996, Eric Allen tallied five interceptions, 67 tackles, and three fumble recoveries during his senior season. The Indianapolis product played cornerback and safety for the Hoosiers from 1994-96 and finished his career with 10 interceptions, the fifth-highest total in Indiana University history.

ANDREW GREENE - 1994 SECOND TEAM

Andrew Greene started 11 games at guard during both his junior and senior seasons. A native of Kingston, Jamaica, Greene attended high school in Ontario, Canada, and was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at right guard for the Hoosiers. He played at IU from 1991-94 and competed in the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl following his senior season. A second-round draft pick of the Dolphins in 1995, Greene played in six games for Miami that year. He signed as a free agent with the Seattle Seahawks on January 30, 1997, and was on their roster in 1999 and 2000.

VAUGHN DUNBAR - 1991 FIRST TEAM

One of the finest running backs ever to play in the Big Ten Conference, Vaughn Dunbar earned first team All-America recognition in 1991. This Ft. Wayne, Ind., product finished his senior season with a school-record 1,805 rushing yards. A sixth-place finisher in the 1991 Heisman Trophy balloting, Dunbar played only two seasons at Indiana after transferring from Northeastern Oklahoma A&M, where he was a NJCAA All-America selection as a sophomore. Dunbar finished his career at Indiana with 3,029 rushing yards and 25 touchdowns. Following his senior season, Dunbar played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Hula Bowl before becoming a first-round selection of the New Orleans Saints in the 1992 NFL draft. He played in New Orleans from 1992-95.

MIKE DUMAS - 1990 FIRST TEAM

A second-team All-America selection by both Football News and The Sporting News in 1990, Dumas started the first two games of his career as a true freshman in 1987 and went on to become one of the finest defensive backs ever to play at Indiana. After moving from cornerback to safety during the final game of his junior campaign, Dumas stayed at safety for his senior season and went on to tally 116 tackles and intercept 3 passes. A two-time All-Big Ten selection, he participated in the East-West Shrine Game, Japan Bowl and Hula Bowl following his senior season and left Indiana with a school-record nine blocked kicks. A second-round pick of the Houston Oilers in the 1991 NFL draft, Dumas also played for the Bills (1994), Jaguars (1995), and finished his career as a member of the San Diego Chargers (1996-00).

ANTHONY THOMPSON - 1988, 1989 FIRST TEAM

He was a member of the Cardinals from 1990-92 and finished his career with the Los Angeles (now St. Louis) Rams.

PETE STOYANOVICH - 1987 SECOND TEAM

Pete Stoyanovich earned second team All-America honors as a junior in 1987. A first team All-Big Ten selection following his senior season, Stoyanovich finished his career as Indiana's record holder for field goals in a season (17 in 1988), extra points in a season (45 in '88), and consecutive extra points (107). He concluded his career having converted 47 of 71 (66.2%) of his field goal attempts and a then-Big Ten record 107 consecutive PATs for a total of 248 points. During his senior season, Stoyanovich connected on two 53-yard field goals and made 77.3 percent (17 of 22) of his field goal attempts. In addition to playing football for the Hoosiers, Stoyanovich was a three-time letterwinner (1985-87) as a member of Jerry Yeagley's Indiana soccer team before concentrating exclusively on football in 1988. An eighth-round selection of the Miami Dolphins in the 1989 draft, Stoyanovich played in Miami from 1989-95 before being traded to Kansas City prior to the 1996 campaign. The Dearborn, Mich., native booted the longest field goal in Dolphins history with a 59-yarder against the N.Y. Jets on November 12, 1989. It is the fourth longest in league annals.

ALL-AMERICANS

VAN WAITERS - 1986, 1987 THIRD TEAM

A third team All-America selection by the Associated Press following both his junior and senior campaigns, Van Waiters helped lead Indiana to wins over Michigan and Ohio State during his senior season. As a junior in 1986, the Coral Gables, Fla., product was a third-team All-America pick, earned first-team All-Big Ten recognition, and was selected as IU's Most Valuable Player. He followed up his stellar junior year by tallying 83 tackles, 10 passes broken up, and two fumble recoveries as a senior on his way to earning third-team All-America status for the second consecutive year. Following participation in the Hula Bowl after the 1987 season, Waiters was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the 1988 draft. He went on to spend four seasons in Cleveland before finishing his career as a Minnesota Viking in 1992.

ERNIE JONES - 1987 FIRST TEAM

One of the most talented wide receivers to play at Indiana, Ernie Jones earned a reputation for his great hands and excellent acceleration in and out of routes. Although he did catch 25 passes for 483 yards as a junior in 1986, the Elkhart, Ind., product exploded onto the scene a year later with 66 catches for 1,265 yards and 13 touchdowns while earning first team All-America recognition. His single-season totals in 1986 set Indiana records for receptions, touchdowns and yards gained. First on IU's career receiving list with 2,361 yards, Jones was also named All-Big Ten and team Most Valuable Player following his senior campaign. An East-West Shrine Game participant, Jones was selected in the seventh-round of the 1988 draft by the Phoenix (now Arizona) Cardinals. He played in Phoenix from 1988-92 and led the club in receiving in 1991 when he finished the year with 61 catches for 957 yards and four touchdowns. He played his final professional season with the Los Angeles Rams in 1993.

TIM WILBUR - 1980 SECOND TEAM

The Indiana University record holder for interceptions in a season (8 in 1979) and career (19), Tim Wilbur was a first team All-Big Ten selection on two occasions and was a second-team All-America pick at cornerback in 1980. Also a standout punt returner, Wilbur was widely known for making big plays. Among those, he tallied a 62-yard punt return for a touchdown in Indiana's 38-37 Holiday Bowl victory over Brigham Young in 1979. The score helped secure the victory and earned him game MVP honors. He also returned an interception 98 yards for a score at Michigan State in 1978, had three interceptions in a 45-14 win over Illinois in 1979, and scored on a 78-yard punt return and a 40-yard interception return in a 36-30 win at Kentucky in 1980. A native of Indianapolis, Wilbur also holds IU's interception return yardage record for a season (167 yards in 1979) and career (360).

JOE NORMAN - 1978 SECOND TEAM

One of the most productive tacklers in the history of the Big Ten Conference, this hard-nosed linebacker earned second-team All-America recognition and first team All-Big Ten honors following the 1978 campaign. As a senior that year, Norman accumulated 199 total tackles (including 141 solo stops), which shattered the former school record of 165 total tackles set two years earlier by Steve Sanders. Also Indiana's career record holder with 444 tackles, Norman holds the school record for tackles in a single game with 26 against Ohio State on November 18, 1978.

CHARLEY PEAL - 1977 THIRD TEAM

A two-year starter at offensive tackle, Charley Peal earned third team All-America honors and first team All-Big Ten recognition in 1977. He started 11 games during both his junior and senior seasons. A junior college transfer, Peal was a second-team All-America pick at Garden City Junior College.

DONNIE THOMAS - 1975 THIRD TEAM

A product of Michigan City, Ind., Donnie Thomas was a three-year starter at linebacker for the Hoosiers from 1973-75 and earned third-team All-America honors following the 1975 campaign. The 6-foot-2, 265-pound Thomas finished his senior season with 137 total tackles, three passes broken up, and one fumble recovery. As a sophomore in 1973 he led the team in tackles with 98. Indiana's Most Valuable Player in 1974 and 1975, Thomas won the Balfour Award following his senior season for bringing Indiana University "honor and distinction in football." After playing in the Senior Bowl, he was an 11th round selection of the New England Patriots in 1976 and went on to make the Pats' roster that season.

CHRIS GARTNER - 1972 FIRST TEAM

One of the most prolific placekickers in the history of Indiana University, Sven Chris Gartner was the first in what has become a long line of outstanding kickers at IU. A native of Gothenburg, Sweden, Gartner played high school football at Princeton (N.J.) High School and, following his senior season at Indiana, earned first team All-America and All-Big Ten honors. Gartner, who came to IU as a walk-on, was known for having excellent range and accuracy. He twice connected on four field goals in a single game, a school record that was eventually tied by Andy Payne on two occasions. Following his college career, Gartner spent one season with the Cleveland Browns.

JADE BUTCHER - 1969 FIRST TEAM

The Bloomington-bred Jade Butcher earned first team All-America and All-Big Ten honors as a senior in 1969 after finishing with 37 receptions for 552 yards and 10 touchdowns. Also an All-Big Ten selection as a junior, Butcher led the Hoosiers in receiving from 1967-69 and scored 10 touchdowns as a sophomore, junior, and again as a senior. Still first on IU's all-time touchdown reception list with 30, he participated in the North-South Game and Hula Bowl following his senior season.

JIM SNIADOCKI - 1968 FIRST TEAM

An All-Big Ten selection following his junior season, Jim Sniadecki went on to earn second team All-America honors and was an All-Big Ten pick as a senior in 1968. That season, he collected 88 tackles, notched two interceptions, returned one pilfer for a touchdown, and also recovered two fumbles. One year earlier he garnered 84 tackles (59 solo). A native of South Bend, Ind., Sniadecki played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Hula Bowl following his senior season. He was a fourth-round selection by San Francisco in the 1969 draft and went on to play linebacker for the 49ers from 1969-73.

KEN KACZMAREK - 1967 THIRD TEAM

The first Indiana University linebacker to earn All-America recognition, Ken Kaczmarek concluded his senior season by being named as a third team selection and an All-Big Ten pick. Well known for his great range and excellent speed, Kaczmarek led the club with 92 tackles as a junior in 1966 and capped a stellar senior campaign with 118 stops, including nine tackles for loss, two interceptions, and one fumble recovery. Kaczmarek helped lead the Hoosiers to the Big Ten championship in 1967 and a Rose Bowl berth that same season. He participated in the Hula Bowl following the '67 campaign. A product of St. Joe's High School in South Bend, Ind., Kaczmarek was a high school teammate of 1968 Indiana All-American Jim Sniadecki.

DOUG CRUSAN - 1967 SECOND TEAM

One of four Indiana University football All-America selections in 1967, Doug Crusan became the first defensive lineman in IU history to be so recognized when he earned second team honors. That same year he helped lead the Hoosiers to the Big Ten championship and a berth in the Rose Bowl. A product of Monessen, Pa., Crusan began his career playing on the offensive side of the ball but was switched to defense prior to his senior season. During his only season playing on defense, the Hoosier captain totaled 76 tackles, including three tackles for loss, two passes broken up, and three fumble recoveries. The second of two first-round draft selections by the Miami Dolphins in 1968 along with their top pick Larry Csonka, Crusan played offensive tackle for the Dolphins from 1968-74 and was a member of Miami's Super Bowl VII and VIII championship teams. In 1972, he played for the only undefeated team in NFL history.

JOHN ISENBARGER - 1967, 1968 FIRST TEAM

One of only two IU football players to earn first team All-America recognition on two different occasions, Isenbarger was so honored as a sophomore and again as a senior. One in a long line of All-America running backs at Indiana, Isenbarger burst onto the college scene in 1967 and led the team in rushing with 579 yards. He topped this total during his junior campaign and went on to rush for 1,217 yards and five touchdowns as a senior. In 1967, Isenbarger was one of four Indiana University All-America selections that helped lead the Hoosiers to the Big Ten championship and a berth in the Rose Bowl. Also a punter, Isenbarger was IU's Most Valuable Player in 1969 and ranked 13th in the Heisman Trophy voting for a 4-6 IU team. He went on to play running back and wide receiver for the San Francisco 49ers from 1970-73. He was drafted in the second round by the club in 1970.

GARY CASSELLS - 1967 FIRST TEAM

Although he started just a few games as a junior in 1966, this West Hartford, Conn., product burst onto the scene at guard for the Hoosiers in 1967 and went on to earn first-team All-America and All-Big Ten recognition following his senior season. One of four IU football All-America picks in 1967, the 6-foot-3, 221-pound Cassells helped Indiana University to a Big Ten championship and a Rose Bowl berth.

TOM SCHUETTE - 1963 FIRST TEAM

A first team All-America selection at guard by the American Football Coaches Association in 1966, this Collinsville, Ill., product earned letters for 1965 and 1966. In addition to his first-team honors, Schuette was a second-team selection by Sport Magazine and an honorable mention pick by United Press International. This 6-foot, 226-pounder suffered a broken leg against Michigan State in the next to last game of the season but returned to play in the East-West Shrine Game in San Francisco just one month later. He played only one week after having the cast removed. Also a fine student, Schuette was named Academic All-Big Ten in 1966.

DON CROFTCHECK - 1964 FIRST TEAM

A product of Allison, Pa., Don Croftcheck was known for his quickness, strength, and intense competitive desire as an offensive guard at Indiana University. He played as a reserve as a sophomore but assumed a starting role one year later and averaged almost 40 minutes of playing time while seeing action on both sides of the ball. He started all nine games as a senior in 1964 and earned first-team All-America and All-Big Ten honors while blocking for All-America fullback Tom Nowatzke. Following the 1964 season, Croftcheck played in the Blue-Gray Game, Senior Bowl, and All-American Game. He would go on to play guard for the Washington Redskins (1965-66) and Chicago Bears (1967).

TOM NOWATZKE - 1964 FIRST TEAM

Widely considered to be one of the finest players ever to don an Indiana University football uniform, Tom Nowatzke earned first team All-America honors and All-Big Ten recognition as a fullback in 1964. A versatile player, Nowatzke gave every indication during his sophomore year that he could have a great future. One year later, he was the All-Big Ten fullback and IU's Most Valuable Player as he rushed for a conference-leading 756 yards and five touchdowns. He rushed for 545 yards and nine touchdowns as a senior in 1964 and also caught 16 passes for 172 yards and a score. The 6-foot-3, 228-pound Michigan City, Ind., product also kicked for the Hoosiers and connected on 10-of-12 extra point attempts and one field goal. Following his IU career, Nowatzke played in the East-West Shrine Game. He went on to play running back for the Detroit Lions from 1965-69 and for Baltimore from 1970-72. In 1970, he caught 16 passes for the World Champion Colts.

Following an illustrious Indiana career as a fullback and kicker, Tom Nowatzke earned a Super Bowl ring with the Baltimore Colts.

MARV WOODSON - 1963 FIRST TEAM

Marv Woodson earned first team honors in 1963 after being named All-Big Ten the previous season. The Hattiesburg, Miss., product led the Hoosiers in rushing yardage as a junior with 540 yards and 5 touchdowns. He also led the team in receiving yardage (15-200-1TD) and in punt and kickoff returns. He also intercepted two passes on defense. Woodson rushed for 131 yards as a senior. Following his senior season, "Marvelous Marv" was a first-round selection of the Baltimore Colts in the 1964 draft. Although he never played in a game for the Colts, Woodson played for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1964-69) and the New Orleans Saints (1969).

EARL FAISON - 1960 THIRD TEAM

A third team All-America selection and an All-Big Ten pick as a senior in 1960, Faison led the Hoosiers in receiving with seven catches for 154 yards and two touchdowns. The 6-foot-5, 235-pound Faison led the team in scoring as a junior while tallying 13 catches for 192 yards and 3 touchdowns. During his sophomore season, the Newport News, Va., product scored a 92-yard touchdown on a blocked field goal attempt to give the Hoosiers a 6-0 victory over Michigan State. Faison also played defense where his ruggedness and strength prompted impressed teammates to refer to him as "The Tree" and "The Mountain." Indiana's Most Valuable Player in 1960, Faison played professionally for the San Diego Chargers from 1961-66 and finished his playing career with the Miami Dolphins (1966).

TED AUCREMAN - 1958 SECOND TEAM

Only a junior at the time, Ted Aucreman won second-team All-America honors in 1958. The 6-foot, 175-pound end was known as a slashing, fiery, battler and a fine blocker. During his All-America season of 1958, the Lancaster, Ohio, product caught four passes for 63 yards and excelled on defense. In a 6-0 upset win over Michigan State in 1958, he tallied 12 tackles in the final quarter of play to help seal the victory. As a senior, Aucreman caught 13 passes for 260 yards and 3 touchdowns. Following his career at Indiana he played in the 1959 East-West Shrine Game and the 1960 College All-Star Game.

MIKE RABOLD - 1958 THIRD TEAM

A third team All-America selection as a guard in 1958, Mike Rabold led the Hoosiers in minutes played as a junior and was second in that same category during his senior season. Following his career at Indiana he played in the 1958 Blue-Gray Game and the 1959 College All-Star Game and Senior Bowl. A 1959 draft selection of the Detroit Lions, Rabold spent time in the NFL with the Lions (1959), St. Louis (now Arizona) Cardinals (1960), Minnesota Vikings (1961-62), and the Chicago Bears (1964-66).

BRAD BOMBA - 1956 THIRD TEAM

An Academic All-America selection following his senior season, Brad Bomba was a three-time Academic All-Big Ten pick and earned third-team All-America recognition for his play at end as a senior in 1956. Widely regarded for combining vicious blocking, defensive ability and intense competitive spirit with his offensive talents, the 6-foot-3, 214-pound Bomba caught 31 passes for 407 yards and one touchdown as a senior and won the prestigious Balfour Award for bringing honor and distinction to IU in the sport of football. As a sophomore, the Chicago native caught 11 passes for 221 yards. He followed up his first campaign by catching 13 passes for 171 yards and two touchdowns as a junior. Bomba currently lives in Bloomington.

JOHN CANNADY - 1946 SECOND TEAM

A second team All-America selection as a senior in 1946, John Cannady helped pave the way for All-America running back George Taliaferro. Also an All-Big Ten selection as a senior, Cannady was selected by the New York Football Giants in the second round of the 1947 draft. He played back for the Giants from 1947-54 and played in the Pro Bowl following the 1951 and 1953 seasons. A teammate of back/end Frank Gifford from 1952-54, Cannady was a member of the Giants' 1950 squad that finished with a 10-2 record and tied for first place in the American Conference.

BEN RAIMONDI - 1946 SECOND TEAM

A second team All-America selection as a senior in 1946, Raimondi had helped lead the Hoosiers to their first Big Ten football championship one year earlier. In 1945, he threw for 593 yards and 10 touchdowns and one year later he completed 73 of 135 passes for 971 yards and eight scores. Also an All-Big Ten selection following his senior season, Raimondi played one year of professional baseball in the New York Yankees system.

ALL-AMERICANS

The only three-time All-American in Indiana history, George Taliaferro, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1981.

RUSS DEAL - 1945 THIRD TEAM

One of four Indiana University football players to earn All-America honors in 1945, Russ Deal was the team captain and played an integral role as a lineman on the Hoosiers' Big Ten Championship team that season. As a senior one year later, Deal earned All-Big Ten honors and played in the Blue-Gray Game. Deal was inducted into the Indiana University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

HOWARD BROWN - 1945 SECOND TEAM

One of the leaders of Indiana University's 1945 Big Ten championship team, Howard Brown was an IU football captain in 1946 and 1947. He was recognized as a second team All-America selection as a sophomore in 1945. After playing in the East-West Shrine Game in 1947, Brown went on to play professionally for the Detroit Lions from 1948-50. Following his stint in Detroit, Brown returned to Bloomington to become an assistant football coach. He coached at Indiana in 1951 and 1952 and from 1954-75. On October 15, 1977, the I-Men's Association dedicated a bust of Brown that stands on the field of Memorial Stadium next to the IU locker room. It reads, "He demonstrated compassion, courage, understanding, humor, sportsmanship and a strong competitive spirit as a player, coach and as a man. He served Indiana University with boundless love and dedication. His example shall serve as an inspiration to all those who follow him."

GEORGE TALIAFERRO - 1945, 1947, 1948

One in a long line of outstanding running backs who have excelled at Indiana University, George Taliaferro may best be known as the first African-American to be drafted by a National Football League team. The only IU football player to be named to All-America teams following three different seasons, he received first-team recognition in 1948 after earning second-team All-America honors in both 1945 and 1947. Widely regarded for his strong, yet slashing, running style, Taliaferro was selected in the 13th round of the 1949 draft by the Chicago Bears. He went on to play for the Los Angeles Dons, New York Yankees, Dallas Cowboys, Baltimore Colts and Philadelphia Eagles before retiring in 1955. In 1981, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

BOB RAVENSBURG - 1945

To the victor goes the spoils and following Indiana University's first Big Ten football championship in 1945, Bob Ravensburg, George Taliaferro, Howard Brown, and Russ Deal all earned All-America honors. Ravensburg, a first-team selection, played end for the Hoosiers and also earned All-Big Ten honors that same season. Following graduation from IU he played professionally for the Chicago Cardinals from 1948-49.

JOHN TAVENER - 1944 FIRST TEAM

A four-year letterman and a two-year captain at IU, John Tavener was named to six different All-America teams following in 1944. An extremely versatile player, Tavener called the offensive signals as a center, excelled on defense, and kicked extra points. He earned IU's MVP honors in 1943 and 1944 and went on to play in postseason all-star games in 1944, 1945, and 1946. Tavener was drafted by the Miami Seahawks in 1946 but retired after one season and pursued a banking career in Ohio. After retiring from the business in 1986 he became a volunteer assistant coach at Denison University in Granville, Ohio. While there, he coached the centers and implemented a direct long-snap to the team's tailback. It was the same technique he had been taught while playing for the Hoosiers. Tavener was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

BOB HOERNSCHEMEYER - 1943 FIRST TEAM

Although he played only two seasons of football for the Hoosiers, Bob Hoernschemeyer set two NCAA records for freshmen and earned third-team All-America honors in 1943. That season he completed 70 of 155 passes for 1,136 yards and 13 touchdowns. Also an All-Big Ten pick in 1943, he went on to play professional football for the Chicago Rockets, Brooklyn Dodgers, Chicago Hornets and Detroit Lions.

PETE PIHOS - 1943, 1945 ALL-AMERICAN

After earning All-America honors as both an end and fullback, Pete Pihos became the second Indiana University football player to be enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame when he was inducted in 1966. After helping Indiana set national records on offense in 1943, he returned from a stint in the Army to lead the Hoosiers in scoring during their Big Ten Championship season of 1945. In 1946, Pihos was named Indiana's Most Valuable Player while shattering previous IU records for touchdowns, total points, and receptions. After college, Pihos was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles where he played from 1947-55. He may best be remembered for his game-winning catch in the 1949 NFL championship game vs. the Rams. Pihos came to the Eagles in 1947 and was a starter on offense for eight of his nine years with the team. He played defense in 1952 but returned to the offensive unit a year later. During his Eagles career, He led the league in receptions and receiving yards in 1953 (63-1,049) and again in 1955 (62-864). After the advent of the Pro Bowl in 1951, Pihos played in the game six times in as many years. In 1970, he was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

BILL HILLENBRAND - 1941, 1942

A fifth-place finisher in the 1942 Heisman Trophy balloting, Bill Hillenbrand led the Hoosiers in rushing (130-498) and passing (102-50-901-11TDs) that season on his way to earning first-team All-America recognition and All-Big Ten honors. In 1941, he was the club's leading passer and earned third team All-America honors and was an All-Big Ten pick. Hillenbrand went on to play professional football with the Chicago Rockets and Baltimore Colts.

CORBY DAVIS - 1937 FIRST TEAM

The first pick overall in the 1938 National Football League draft, Corby Davis earned first team All-America honors and was voted as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player by the Chicago Tribune in 1937. Although he was forced to participate in World War II, Davis did spend four successful seasons with the Cleveland Browns before retiring in 1942.

VERN HUFFMAN - 1936 SECOND TEAM

A football and basketball standout at Indiana, Vern Huffman was IU's first All-America quarterback. A second team All-America selection and the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player in 1936, Huffman is the only player in the history of IU to earn All-America honors in football and basketball. IU's Balfour Award winner for football following his senior season, Huffman played professional football for the Detroit Lions.

CHUCK BENNETT - 1936 SECOND TEAM

The first All-America running back in the history of Indiana University, Chuck Bennett earned second team honors in 1928. A team captain, Bennett also earned All-Big Ten honors and was voted his team's Most Valuable Player following the 1928 season. He would go on to play professionally with the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals.

CLARE RANDOLPH - 1928 SECOND TEAM

Indiana University's second football All-America selection, Clare Randolph earned second team honors following the 1928 season. Also an All-Big Ten pick, he was IU's Most Valuable Player in 1927 and he played professionally until 1936.

ZORA CLEVINGER - 1903 SECOND TEAM

A member of Indiana's first Big Ten team, Zora Clevenger played for the Hoosiers from 1900-03 and earned All-America honors at center. A three-sport star, Clevenger drew wide-spread recognition for his speed and leadership. Upon graduating from Indiana he took to coaching and brought the University of Tennessee its first undefeated season in 1914. The designer of the Straight-T formation, Clevenger built the Volunteers into a national powerhouse. After retiring from coaching, Clevenger served as athletic director at Missouri and Kansas State before returning to Bloomington to work as Indiana's athletic director for 23 years. During his tenure, Clevenger witnessed IU's first Big Ten championship in football. A founder of the annual East-West Shrine Game, Clevenger retired in 1946 and was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1968.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Will Meyers was one of Indiana's most consistent defensive players in 2005, and he also earned first team Academic All-America accolades.

WILL MEYERS

2005 Academic All-American

First team Academic All-American Will Meyers played in all 11 games in 2005. Meyers was one of the Hoosiers' most consistent defensive players, notching four double digit tackle performances. He tied his career-high with 13 tackles each against Iowa and Minnesota, and he added 10 stops at Michigan and 11 against Illinois. He posted his first career interception against the Illini, and he returned it 34 yards.

JOHN HAMMERSTEIN

1994 & 1995 Academic All-American

The only two-time Academic All-America selection in the history of the Indiana University football program, John Hammerstein was so honored following both his junior and senior campaigns. Also a four-time Academic All-Big Ten selection, the Wapakoneta, Ohio, product won four letters as a defensive tackle at IU and finished his career with 15 tackles for loss. A member of a football family, John's brother, Mike, was a four-year letterman and All-America selection at Michigan, his brother, Mark, was an All-Big Ten pick for the Wolverines, and his brother, Matt, played football at Yale. John majored in biology.

KEVIN SPEER

1980 Academic All-American

Kevin Speer earned Academic All-America honors as a senior in 1980 after a stellar career both on and off the playing field. Also a two-time Academic All-Big Ten pick, Speer played center for the Hoosiers and helped pave the way for running back Mike Harkrader's 807 rushing yards and 6 touchdowns in 1979. To conclude the '79 campaign, the 6-foot-4, 240-pound Speer helped lead the Hoosiers to a 38-37 victory over Brigham Young in the Holiday Bowl. As a senior, he blocked for running back Lonnie Johnson and helped enable him to rush for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns. A product of Harrison High School in Evansville, Ind., Speer ranked first in his high school graduating class of 560 students. He majored in business at Indiana.

In addition to starting at center for Indiana from 1978-80, Kevin Speer was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa in 1980.

GLEN SCOLNIK

1972 Academic All-American

As a senior in 1972, Glenn Scolnik won Academic All-America and Academic All-Big Ten honors after finishing the season with 53 receptions for 727 yards and six touchdowns. He also received recognition for his on-the-field performance in 1972 as he was an All-Big Ten selection and IU's Most Valuable Player. The 6-foot-3, 204-pound Scolnik was IU's leading receiver through the first four games of his junior campaign but suffered a pulled hamstring muscle that caused him to miss the remainder of the year. He did, however, catch 12 passes for 141 yards that season and pulled in 14 for 291 yards as a sophomore. A product of Munster, Ind., he played in the North-South Game in 1972 and spent the 1973 season as a wide receiver for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Scolnik was a liberal arts major at IU.

HARRY GONSO

1967 Academic All-American

One of the finest quarterbacks in the history of Indiana University, Harry Gonso was an Academic All-America selection as a sophomore in 1967 and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors following his junior and senior campaigns. A product of Findlay, Ohio, Gonso was the Most Valuable Player on the IU squad that played Southern California in the Rose Bowl following the 1967 season. That year, he completed 67 of 143 passes for 931 yards and nine touchdowns and was an All-Big Ten selection. Despite missing the better portion of two games as a junior, he still finished the year with 1,109 passing yards and 12 touchdowns and won team MVP honors for the second consecutive season. The 5-foot-11, 187-pound Gonso finished his career by throwing for 1,336 yards and 11 touchdowns as a senior. An all-around athlete, he was one of the nation's top high school swimmers and clocked a :22.5 in the 50-yard freestyle as a prep. He also won the Ohio diving title for 15 and 16-year-olds and competed in track. Gonso was a pre-law major at Indiana.

End Brad Bomba was named Academic All-American in 1956. He later served as Indiana's team physician.

BRAD BOMBA

1956 Academic All-American

Indiana's first Academic-All-America selection in football, Brad Bomba earned such honors following his senior season. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten pick, he earned third-team All-America recognition for his play at end as a senior in 1956. Widely regarded for combining vicious blocking, defensive ability, and intense competitive spirit with his offensive talents, the 6-foot-3, 214-pound Bomba caught 31 passes for 407 yards and one touchdown as a senior and won the prestigious Balfour Award for bringing honor and distinction to Indiana University in the sport of football. As a sophomore, the Chicago native caught 11 passes for 221 yards. As a junior, he followed up his first campaign by catching 13 passes for 171 yards and 2 touchdowns..
