SETTING THE SCENE

Indiana will play a mid-week nonconference game as it travels to Louisville, Ky. to face the Louisville Cardinals on Wednesday night.

NEWS AND NOTES

- Indiana won its fourth-straight game with a 2-0 victory over No. 24 Michigan State on Saturday night.
- It was a memorable night for sophomore back Kevin Alston as he scored his first career goals in the match.
- The first was an unassisted shot in the 39th minute, dribbling around defenders for the goal.
- The second goal came off a restart with Alston running in on the left side and receiving the ball before taking a shot from about 10 yards out.
- It is the first multiple-goal game by an IU player this season.
- It was Indiana's second-straight shutout and its fifth of the season.
- Indiana has won six-straight Big Ten matches dating back to last season, including a pair of wins in the 2006 Big Ten Tournament.
- Kevin Noschang continues to lead the team in goals scored (four) and total points (nine).
- Other Hoosiers with more than one goal on the season are Eric Alexander (three), Brad Ring (two), Daniel Kelly (two) and Alston (two).
- Ring has a team-best three assists.
- Indiana will play its next three matches on the road, including Wednesday at Louisville. They will then face No. 9 Northwestern (8-1-1) and No. 3 Notre Dame (7-1-2).
- That is followed by three straight at home, including Ohio State (Oct. 21) and Penn State (Oct. 28) which will be broadcast on the Big Ten Network.
- The Hoosiers have never lost to Louisville, owning a 14-0 record.
- The teams have played every season since 1998. The Cardinals have not scored in any of those games, with IU holding a 21-0 advantage in the goals column.

- Goalkeeper David Simolike has started all 10 matches, recording four shutouts for a 0.80 goals-against average. He also has 25 saves.
- Louisville suffered narrow losses at Wake Forest (1-0) and Notre Dame (2-1), both ranked in the top five.
- Head coach Ken Lolla is in his second season at Louisville and enters Wednesday's game with a record of 11-14-3 at the school.
- In his 18th season as a head coach, his career record is 215-88-28.
- He is assisted by B.J. Craig and Jeremy Proud.

SERIES HISTORY

- Indiana leads the all-time series, 14-0-0.

Cocher Freitag's Comments

Reviewing the Michigan State Game:

"We've gone out and beaten two teams (Michigan and Michigan State) that were undefeated. It is a great thing, but this is still a work in progress. I know what this team can do and the potential they have."

Looking Ahead to Louisville:

"We want to to a better job in front of the goal. We want the guys to continue to have focus and hustle. Going on the road against Louisville is going to be tough. They will be pumped up and will have a great crowd."

- Overall IU has outscored Louisville in the series, 53-4.

LAST TIME OUT

Winners of four straight matches, Indiana improves to 7-3-1 overall, 2-0 in Big Ten play. Michigan State drops to 7-1-2, 1-1-1 in Big Ten action. It was an uneventful first half early on as the two teams felt each other out. A quick sequence of shots in the 19th minute from IU's Neil Wilmarth and Billy Weaver ignited the crowd, with Michigan State goalkeeper Chris Austin recorded a save on Weaver's attempt. The Spartans countered and a shot from Doug DeMartin was stopped by IU goalkeeper Chay Cain.

It was more back-and-forth play until Alston put the Hoosiers on top at 38:49 with his first career goal. Dribbling the ball around the Michigan State defense, Alston took his shot from about 10 yards out and found the far post for the score.

"It felt great," Alston said. "I have been trying all season to put one in, but they all seem to have been bouncing off the posts. It is a great confidence booster."

Indiana held a 9-4 advantage in shot attempts at the half, with just one of the Spartans' shots on frame.

Austin, who entered the game having allowed just five goals all season, gave up his second of the game and the second to Alston in the 54th minute. The Hoosiers' second score came off a restart. As Billy Weaver, Brad Ring and Daniel Kelly gathered around the ball about 10 yards outside the penalty area, it was Kelly who sent a tap to Alston who was coming on from the left side. Alston took the ball just inside the penalty area and unleashed a shot which found the far post yet again.

Alston led the Hoosiers' attack with three shots, all on goal. Ring and Wilmarth had two attempts each as Indiana finished the match with an 11-9 shot advantage.

"I would like us to take our chances better," head coach Mike Freitag said. "All in all, I am pleased with the effort. These guys are making it difficult to select a starting lineup because so many of them can contribute."

Michigan State nearly got a goal back with just under 17 minutes to play as Louis Stephens had a clean look at the net, but the attempt bounced off the right post and out of harms way. That was one of just three on-goal looks for the night as Cain recorded his fourth shutout of the season.

MSU forward Doug DeMartin, who entered the match leading the Big Ten in shots with 36, was limited to just two attempts on the evening.

It was the second time in as many Saturdays that the Hoosiers knocked off an undefeated Big Ten team. Last Saturday Indiana was a 3-2 winner over Michigan in Ann Arbor.

LEAGUE DOMINATION

- Since the Big Ten began recognizing men's soccer in 1991, the Hoosier have dominated the league.
- The Hoosiers are 75-7-7 in regular season matches, tallying nearly 30 more victories than second-place team Penn State (49).
- Indiana has never lost in its Big Ten opener, going 14-0-3 in those matches.
- IU has won 11 Big Ten tournament titles, sharing the 1995 crown with Wisconsin.
- Indiana has also been crowned regular season champion 11 times, including nine-straight seasons from 1996-2004.
- Indiana has been the league's goals-against average leader in 14 of 16 seasons.
- IU had had a league-record 10 Big Ten Players of the Year, including the last two seasons.
- The Hoosiers have also boasted the Freshman of the Year each of the last two years.

OUT OF NOWHERE

- Playing in his 31st career game on Saturday, sophomore Kevin Alston was still searching for his first career goal.
- Unable to wait any longer, he unleashed a pair of scores, including the game winner in a 2-0 victory over No. 24 Michigan State.
- Alston's first goal was unassisted as he took on a pair of MSU defenders before unleashing a shot from about 10 yards out.
- The second score was a perfectly-designed set piece. Alston came streaking in down the left side to collect the pass, sending his shot in to the far back post.
- Alston finished the night with a team-best three shots, all of which were on goal.
- For his efforts, Alston was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week and to the Soccer America, College Soccer News and TopDrawerSoccer Teams of the Week.

TOUGH DEFENDING

- The Indiana defense did an excellent job limiting the offensive opportunities of some of the top players in the country.
- On Sept. 29, it held U.S. National Youth Team member Peri Marosevic in check.
- The 2006 second-team All-Big Ten pick entered the game as the team's leader in shots attempts (21) and goals scored.
- Against the Hoosiers, Marosevic was limited to just one shot attempt.
- Indiana recorded its fourth shutout of the season with a 1-0 win over UIC on Oct. 1.
- The Hoosier defense limited the Flames to just three shots on goal.
- On Oct. 6, the Hoosiers were facing an undefeated Michigan State team which featured Doug DeMartin, the Big Ten's leader in shots and goals.
- DeMartin got off just two shots against the Hoosiers, only one of which was on goal.

- The Hoosiers have posted two-straight shutouts.

WEAVING HIS MAGIC

- Junior Billy Weaver has worked himself into an integral part of the Hoosier attack.
- The week of Sept. 24-29, Weaver played a part in three of five goals scored by Indiana as it went 2-0.
- Against Butler on Sept. 26, Weaver assisted on both goals in a 2-0 win over the Bulldogs.
- On the first goal he sent a cross into Lee Hagedorn who headed it home for the score.
- Goal No. 2 came off a restart with Weaver sending service into the box, where Eric Alexander got his head on it.
- It was the junior's turn to score on Sept. 29 in a 3-2 overtime win at Michigan. Weaver gave IU a 1-0 lead after collecting Brad Ring's rebound and slotting the ball home.
- For his efforts he was named to the College Soccer News and Soccer America Teams of the Week on Oct. 1, his first national honors at IU.
- Weaver appeared in just 19 games over his first two seasons, registering two goals in 2005 and none in 2006.
- The Michigan native has appeared in all 11 matches so far this season, earning five starts.
- Weaver has taken 10 shots on the season, six of which have been on goal.

EARNING THEIR KEEP

- Looking to inject some life into the Hoosiers play, head coach Mike Freitag has shaken up his lineup, giving some of the younger guys a chance to step up and contribute.
- Taking full advantage of that opportunity has been redshirt freshman Neil Wilmarth.
- A scrappy player who never quits working, Wilmarth earned the respect of the coaches and was given the opportunity to start against Butler on Sept. 26.
- Wilmarth took full advantage, wreaking havoc on the Bulldogs' defense from the first whistle.
- He was constantly in the action around the Butler net, whether creating opportunities for his teammates or taking the shot himself. He finished the night with two attempts.
- On the season Wilmarth has appeared in nine games, totaling an assist and 11 shots.
- Since inserting Wilmarth in the starting lineup, the Hoosiers are 4-0.
- Another player whose hustle and grit has earned him a starting spot is freshman Rich Balchan. Balchan has started each of the last five games in the midfield.
- Balchan recorded his first career goal on Sept. 21 against UAB.

SUTTER IS IU MALE SCHOLAR ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

- Midfielder Nick Sutter was named the IU Male Scholar Athlete of the Month for the month of September.
- Sutter has appeared in two matches this season for the Hoosiers and started one match against Saint Louis on Sept. 15.
- "Nick is a valuable member to our team," IU head men's soccer coach Mike Freitag said. "His minutes in games do not reflect his contributions to our team. He comes and competes everyday at practice and is always there with advice and encouragement for our young players. He is very serious about his studies, which is one of the reasons he chose to transfer from UIC. I am glad that he is a part of our program."
- "Nick has been a pleasure to work with," Indiana academic advisor Korinath Patterson said. "He has made a good adjustment to Indiana University. Nick has come in very academically focused this semester taking advantage of the resources available to help him be successful."

HE IS A WINNER

- Junior Kevin Noschang headed home the game-winning score in the 96th minute for a 3-2 victory at No. 10 Michigan on Sept. 29.
- The score marked Noschang's third-game winning goal of the season, tying him for the Big Ten lead in that category.
- Noschang also put home the winners over No. 1 UCLA and Rhode Island.
- On the season Noschang leads the team in goals scored (four) and total points (nine).

CAIN IS ABLE

- Junior goalkeeper Chay Cain has had a solid season between the pipes for the Hoosiers so far, keeping things close in several games.
- In nearly 960 minutes of play, Cain has tallied 48 saves and allowed nine goals for a 0.84 GAA.
- He also has four shutouts to his credit, including two straight entering the match at Louisville on Oct. 10.
- What does not show up on the box scores are several spectacular saves that Cain has come up with to keep opponents at bay.
- While facing just nine shots in a 2-0 win over Butler on Sept. 26, six of those attempts required Cain to make the save, including two spectacular shots in a three-minute span where leaping punch-overs from Cain prevented goals.
- Cain made a diving stop to his right that kept a sure-fire goal from going in against Saint Louis (Sept. 15), one of five saves on the night.
- He also recorded five saves against Creighton on Sept. 13.
- After allowing just one goal in a pair of wins over Northern Illinois and Rhode Island, Cain was named Most Outstanding Goalkeeper at the Mike Berticelli Memorial Tournament.

WELCOME BACK

- Sophomore forward Darren Yeagle made his first appearance on the pitch in 2007 on Sept. 26, playing the final 12 minutes against Butler.
- He also saw action in IU's 3-2 OT win at Michigan on Sept. 29 and in a 1-0 win over UIC on Oct. 3.
- Yeagle suffered an ACL injury in April during the spring season, but a dedicated rehabilitation schedule has him back on the field just five months later.
- The reigning Big Ten Freshman of the Year, Yeagle led the Hoosiers with seven goals last season.
- He led the Big Ten in game-winning goals with four, earning second-team All-Big Ten honors.

DUBIOUS DISTINCTION

- Indiana lost three games in a row (Sept. 13-21) for just the third time since becoming a varsity sport in 1973.
- The only other times IU has lost three in a row in a single season are 1985 (four in a row) and 2000 (three in a row).
- Indiana went through a three-game stretch without a victory last year (0-2-1), as well as 2005 (0-1-2).
- The last time IU lost three in a row in 2000, the team went on to advance to the NCAA College Cup and posted a 16-7 overall record.

QUITE A DEBUT

- It was a whirlwind debut for freshman midfielder Rich Balchan against UAB on Sept. 21.
- Getting his first career starting nod, Balchan made his presence known with his first career goal.
- Balchan's score in the 59th minute tied the game at 1-all.
- He is one of two freshmen to score a goal this season, joining Michael Roach.

Attendance Records

The Indiana men's soccer team regularly draws large crowds to Armstrong Stadium. Below are the top-attended games in stadium history:

1.	vs. UCLA	7,423	9-2-07
2.	vs. SMU	6,000	9-5-87
3.	vs. Virginia	5,672	9-2-89

A HALF CENTURY IN THREE YEARS

- With the win over Rhode Island on Sept. 9, head coach Mike Freitag recorded his 50th career victory at the helm of the Indiana program.
- After 79 matches at IU, Freitag has a career record of 54-14-11.

RING GAINS NATIONAL ACCLAIM

- Several national outlets have taken notice of junior midfielder Brad Ring's solid work on the ball.
- Ring was named the Top Drawer Soccer Player of the Week on Sept. 10 after an outstanding performance in a pair of IU wins at the Mike Berticelli Memorial Tournament.
- College Soccer News also took notice, naming Ring to its Team of the Week.
- Ring was named to the Mike Berticelli All-Tournament Team and was named the tournament's Defensive MVP.

THREE'S A CHARM

- After tallying just three goals over their first three games, the Hoosiers offense woke up against Rhode Island on Sept. 9, putting away two goals in a span of seven minutes and finishing with a 3-1 win.
- Trailing 1-0, Eric Alexander got the scoring started with his first goal of the year. Kevin Noschang added to his goal total with his third of 2007 just seven minutes later to give IU a 2-1 lead it would not relinquish.
- Freshman Michael Roach got in on the scoring act with his first collegiate goal, assisted by another freshman, Andy Adlard, and redshirt freshman Neil Wilmarth.
- The three goals was the most scored by IU since a 4-2 win over Butler on Oct. 24, 2006.
- The Hoosiers moved to 2-0 when scoring three or more goals after a 3-2 overtime win at Michigan on Sept. 29.

RANKING THE HOOSIERS

- The NSCAA coaches poll puts the Hoosiers at No. 13 this week, up six spots.
- Indiana moved up four spots to No. 13 in this week's Soccer America poll.
- Soccer Times moved the Hoosiers up two spots to No. 15 in its Oct. 8 poll.
- College Soccer News bumped Indiana to the No. 13 spot.

THAT WAS QUICK

- With four goals to his credit this season, junior forward Kevin Noschang has already topped his season goal marks of 2005 and 2006.
- Noschang has matched his career goals total of four.

GIANT KILLERS

- Indiana is 2-0 in its last two meetings with No. 1-ranked teams after defeating UCLA, 1-0 on Sept. 2.
- Prior to Sept. 2, the last No. 1 team to visit Bloomington was Akron on Nov. 3, 2005
- The Hoosiers came away with a 1-0 overtime victory in that game. Brian Plotkin scored the game winner in the 95th minute.
- It was Kevin Noschang's goal in the 75th minute that gave IU a 1-0 win over the Bruins.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION

- The Hoosiers will be featured in four regular-season broadcasts on the Big Ten Network.
- In addition the Hoosiers' 1-0 win over No. 1 UCLA on Sept. 2, the Big Ten Network will also broadcast the Hoosiers matches at Armstrong Stadium against Ohio State (Oct. 21- 3 p.m.) and Penn State (Oct. 28- 3 p.m.)
- Indiana's contest at Wisconsin on Nov. 4 (2 p.m. ET) is also part of the network package.

NOSCHANG NAMED BIG TEN OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- With a pair of goals on the weekend against No. 9 Maryland and No. 1 UCLA, junior forward Kevin Noschang was named the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week, the conference office announced on Sept. 3.
- It is the first player of the week honor for Noschang in his three-year career.

MORE HONORS FOR NOSCHANG

- For his two-goal performance in the adidas/IU Credit Union Classic, including the game winner in a 1-0 victory over UCLA, Kevin Noschang was named the National Soccer Coaches Association (NSCAA) Player of the Week on Sept. 4.
- He was also honored by Soccer America with a spot on its Team of the Week.

INTO THE FIRE

- Freshman Andy Adlard has had a quick tutorial in the college soccer game, getting the starting nod in seven of 11 games this season, including No. 9 Maryland and No. 1 UCLA.
- Adlard had two shots in the 1-1 tie with Maryland, and finished with three attempts (two on goal) in the 1-0 win over UCLA.
- Also seeing significant playing time off the bench is freshman forward Michael Roach. Roach was the first to put the ball in the net with a goal in the Hoosiers' 3-1 win over Rhode Island on Sept. 9.
- He made his first career start in his hometown of St. Louis on Sept. 15 against the Billikens.
- Adlard did pick up his first career point with an assist on Roach's goal.

HOOSIERS PICKED TO WIN BIG TEN TITLE

- In a vote of conference head coaches, the Indiana men's soccer team was picked to win the Big Ten in a preseason poll.
- It is the fifth-straight season the Hoosiers have nabbed the top spot.
- The Hoosiers are coming off a 15-4-3 season where they captured both the regular season and tournament titles. They return 18 letterwinners from that team, including second-team All-Big Ten back Greg Stevning, leading scorer Brian Ackley and Big Ten Freshman of the Year Darren Yeagle.

- Northwestern was picked second, followed by Ohio State, Penn State, Wisconsin, Michigan State and Michigan.
- The Hoosiers open Big Ten play on Sept. 29 against the Wolverines in Ann Arbor.
- The Hoosiers have won 10 of the last 11 regular season titles, and 12 Big Ten Tournament titles.

THREE NAMED TO COLLEGE SOCCER NEWS FRESHMEN TO WATCH LIST

- Freshmen Andy Adlard, Alec Purdie and Michael Roach College Soccer News 100 Freshmen To Watch list.
- Adlard is a two-time National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Youth All-America honoree.
- Purdie tallied 38 goals as a senior and was a first-team all-state and NSCAA High School All-American
- Roach was the 2006 Missouri Player of the Year and NSCAA High School All-American.
- It is the second-consecutive season the Hoosiers have had three players named to the watch list. Last year, Eric Alexander, Kevin Alston and Ofori Sarkodie were singled out.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

- The NSCAA, Soccer America, Soccer Times and College Soccer News have placed the Hoosiers in their preseason top-25 polls.
- Indiana is No. 7 in the NSCAA/adidas rankings, while holding down the No. 8 spot in the College Soccer News poll.
- Soccer America has the Hoosiers 12th, while Soccer Times ranks them seventh.
- Five of IU's regular-season opponents are in the NSCAA poll (No. 2 UCLA, No. 9 Maryland, No. 10 Notre Dame, No. 14 Northwestern, No. 22 Saint Louis).
- According to College Soccer News, Indiana will be playing eight of the top 30 teams (No. 1 UCLA, No. 9 Maryland, No. 11 Notre Dame, No. 19 Saint Louis, No. 20 Northwestern, No. 21 Creighton, No. 26 Northern Illinois, No. 29 Rhode Island).
- Soccer America has eight regular-season opponents (No. 1 UCLA, No. 7 Maryland, No. 9 Notre Dame, No. 16 Northwestern, No. 22 Rhode Island, No. 23 Saint Louis, No. 25 UIC).
- Soccer Times has ranked six IU opponents (No. 2 UCLA, No. 9 Maryland, No. 10 Notre Dame, No. 17 Creighton, No. 19 Northwestern, No. 20 Saint Louis).

SARKODIE NAMED TO SOCCER AMERICA PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA TEAM

- Indiana sophomore Ofori Sarkodie was named to Soccer America's preseason All-America team, the publication announced on Aug. 30.
- A unanimous Big Ten All-Freshman selection last season, Sarkodie appeared in 16 games, making 13 starts. He helped lead the Hoosiers to 10 shutouts on the season, including five straight to end the year.
- This summer Sarkodie was named to the U-20 Men's National Team which participated in the U-20 World Cup in Canada. Sarkodie played all 90 minutes in a 2-1 win over Brazil as the Americans advanced to the quarterfinals before falling to Austria.
- Sarkodie was one of just two Big Ten players (David Roth, Northwestern) named to the 23-man squad.

NO REST FOR THE WEARY

- Sophomore Ofori Sarkodie did not have much time to relax over the summer as he competed with the U-20 National Team at the FIFA U-20

World Cup in Canada.

- Sarkodie and the Americans advanced to the quarterfinals after winning Group D with a 2-0-1 record.
- Sarkodie played all 90 minutes in a 2-1 win over Brazil. He also came on in the 33rd minute in a 6-1 win over Poland.
- The Huber Heights, Ohio, native started 13 games in his inaugural campaign for the Hoosiers, and was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. He helped Indiana to eight shutouts playing center back.

STAMPING THEIR PASSPORTS

- Sarkodie was not the only IU player getting his passport stamped this summer. Sophomore Kevin Alston and redshirt freshman Daniel Kelly both made international appearances with the U-18 National Team.
- Alston and Kelly were both part of the U.S. squad that competed at the Pan Am Games in Brazil in July.
- Both went the distance in a 2-1 win over Venezuela, and were in the starting 11 for a 4-2 loss to Bolivia.
- Kelly also competed with the U-18s at the SBS Cup in Japan in August.

CAN'T GET ENOUGH

- Of its 22 games last season, nine went into overtime. Indiana was 5-1-3 in overtime games. The lone loss was a 5-4 loss to Notre Dame. The latest that the Hoosiers scored in a game that they won was against Michigan State, as Darren Yeagle netted the game-winner 106:48 into the game. The fastest overtime goal came against IUPUI, 1:38 into overtime, by Kevin Noschang.
- In 2007, the Hoosiers are 1-0-1 in overtime matches, opening the season with a 1-1 tie with No. 9 Maryland on Aug. 31.

QUICK GOAL

- Brian Ackley and Darren Yeagle teamed up to score the second-quickest goal to start a game in Indiana history, against UAB in 2006. After quickly gaining control of the ball, the Hoosiers drove down the field where Yeagle passed to Ackley, who headed it into the net at the 26-second mark.
- The record for the fastest goal in Hoosier history to start a match is 16 seconds, done by Mike Hylla against Saint Louis on Oct. 2, 1982.

2006 REVIEW- WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS

- In 2006, Indiana captured both the Big Ten regular season and tournament championships.
- The Hoosiers went through league play with a 4-1-1 record. Their only blemish was a 1-0 loss at Penn State.
- They made up for that loss with a 1-0 win over the Nittany Lions in the semifinals of the Big Ten Tournament. The championship game saw Indiana defeat Ohio State, 1-0 on the Buckeyes' home field.
- It was the team's first Big Ten Tournament title since 2003.

2006 REVIEW- HONORS

- It was a clean sweep for Indiana as the Hoosiers claimed the 2006 Big Ten Player of the Year (Josh Tudela), Freshman of the Year (Darren Yeagle) and Coach of the Year (Mike Freitag).
- In addition, Tudela and John Michael Hayden were named to the All-Big Ten first team. Greg Stevning and Yeagle were second-team picks.
- Eric Alexander, Ofori Sarkodie, and Yeagle were selected to the Big Ten All-Freshman team.
- The Hoosiers claimed the Big Ten Tournament title with a 1-0 win over Ohio State. Brian Ackley was named the Offensive MVP, while goalkeeper Chay Cain took home Defensive MVP honors. Both were named to the Big Ten All-Championship team.

Coaching Staff

Head Coach Mike Freitag

- Only the second head coach in Indiana history.
- He has spent a total of 22 years at Indiana as a player, graduate assistant, assistant coach and head coach.
- Led Indiana to its seventh national title in his first season as head coach, 2004. He has been involved with five of the Hoosiers' seven titles.
- Earned Big Ten Coach of the Year laurels in 2006 after leading the team to the Big Ten regular season championship and Big Ten Tournament title.

- In his first three seasons as head coach, he has coached seven National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA)/adidas All-Americans.
- Eleven players have gone on to play professionally under Freitag, including nine Major League Soccer (MLS) draft choices.
- His 2005 recruiting class was ranked first in the nation by College Soccer News, while the 2006 and 2007 crops were ranked second. Those recruits include two National Gatorade Boys Soccer Player of the Year recipients (Lee Nguyen in 2005 and Eric Alexander in 2006).
- Was an assistant coach for the Hoosiers for 11 years before taking the reigns in 2004. In 2002, Freitag was recognized by College Soccer News as one of the nation's top assistant coaches. In addition, AFLAC included him in its list of the 500 best assistant coaches, in any sport, across the United States in 2002.
- Played at Indiana from 1976-79, earning All-America honors in '79. Freitag scored 14 goals with seven assists as a back in his career. In addition, he played professionally for the San Diego Sockers of the North American Soccer League and the Denver Avalanche of the Major League Indoor Soccer League.

Assistant Coach Todd Yeagley

- Yeagley is in his fifth year at Indiana, and his fourth as an assistant coach.
- Helped lead Indiana to national championships in 2003 and 2004 as an assistant.

- In addition to his on-field duties, he manages home game operations, and assists with academics, recruiting, media relations and compliance. Yeagley also serves as the coordinator of Indiana's soccer camps.
- Played with the Columbus Crew of the MLS from 1996-2002, including a one-year stint as the assistant general manager following his playing career.
- Is one of two four-time All-Americans for the Hoosiers, playing from 1991-94. He earned the Missouri Athletic Club Player of the Year Award in 1994.

Assistant Coach Phil Presser

- Presser is in his second season as an assistant coach with the Hoosiers.
- Spent 2005 as an assistant coach at Illinois-Chicago under former Hoosier John Trask.

- Played for the Chicago Storm of the MISL in 2004 and the Kansas City Comets in 2003.
- Was the first undergraduate assistant for Indiana in 2003.
- A four-year letterwinner for the Hoosiers from 1999-2002. He earned All-Big Ten honors in 2001 and 2002. Was a part of the 1999 national championship team.

Highlights:

- Indiana snapped a three-game losing streak with a 2-0 win over the Bulldogs on Sept. 26
- Lee Hagedorn put home the game-winning goal in the 65th minute with a header off a cross from Billy Weaver
- Weaver also set up the second goal off a restart, sending service into the box where Eric Alexander got his head on it for a 2-0 IU lead
- The Hoosiers had a commanding 11-2 advantage in shots in the first half and finished up 16-9
- Making his first appearance of the year was sophomore Darren Yeagle. Yeagle suffered an ACL injury in the spring but is back on the pitch after five months of rehabilitation.
- Redshirt freshman Neil Wilmarth earned his first career start

Highlights:

- Kevin Alston recorded his first career goals in the Hoosiers 2-0 win over No. 24 Michigan State.
- Alston's first score was an unassisted shot in the first half. He added his second career goal in the 54th minute.
- The win improved IU's record to 7-3-1 and 2-0 in Big Ten play.
- It was the second-consecutive match where Indiana defeated a previously unbeaten Big Ten opponent.
- Chay Cain recorded his fourth shutout of the season, picking up three saves.
