Manhattan (1-2) at #2 Johns Hopkins (4-0)

March 6, 2012 • 3:30 pm
 Homewood Field
 Baltimore, Maryland

TV: ESPN (Tape Delay - 3/7 (7 pm)) _____ Hopkins Radio: None

The Game: Second-ranked Johns Hopkins (4-0) returns home to host Manhattan (1-2) in a rare Tuesday afternoon game for the Blue Jays.

Last Time Out: Johns Hopkins improved to 4-0 with a 10-8 win at 12th-ranked Princeton last Friday evening. Manhattan picked up its first win of the season on Saturday as the Jaspers knocked off Providence, 11-9.

Series History: Johns Hopkins and Manhattan are meeting for just the third time in a series that dates to a 14-3 Johns Hopkins victory in the 2010 season opener. JHU has held the Jaspers to exactly three goals in both previous meetings, taking the 14-3 win in 2010 and a 10-3 victory last season.

These are the Facts: Johns Hopkins enters this week's game against Manhattan with an all-time record of 916-294-15 (.754). The Blue Jays own nine NCAA titles, 29 USILA titles and six ILA titles for a total of 44 national championships.

Career Win Number 150: Johns Hopkins head coach Dave Pietramala picked up career win number 150 with the 12-6 victory vs. Towson in the season opener. He now sports an all-time record of 153-58 (.725), including a 130-41 (.760) record at Johns Hopkins. He ranks second all-time in school history in career coaching victories as only Hall of Fame coach Bob Scott (158 wins from 1955-74) has more victories than Pietramala while patrolling the sidelines at Homewood.

About the 4-0 Start: Johns Hopkins is 4-0 for the first time since 2005 and just the second time under head coach Dave Pietramala (2004). Prior to opening at 4-0 in 2004 and 2005, JHU hadn't opened a season with four straight wins since 1995. Since 1977 the Blue Jays have opened a season with four straight wins 14 times (including this season). JHU has won the national championship six times in those 14 years, made five other trips to the title game and advanced to the NCAA semifinals in the other two years.

Noting JHU in the NCAA Tournament: Johns Hopkins made its 40th consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament last season. By comparison, the next six longest active streaks of qualifying for the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Tournament add up to exactly 40 consecutive appearances (Maryland-9, Cornell-8, Virginia-7, Notre Dame-6, Duke-5, North Carolina-5).

First to 900: Johns Hopkins' 10-6 win at Towson in the 2011 season opener not only got the season off on the right foot for the Blue Jays, but also made history. The win was the 900th all-time in school history, making Johns Hopkins the first program to record 900 all-time wins. JHU now has 916 all-time wins.

That's 622 Games Over .500: The Blue Jays' all-time record is now 916-294-15 (.754) ... that's 622 games over .500. To put this in perspective: JHU has played an average of just over 15 games per season under head coach Dave Pietramala. Using a 15-game season as a reference, if the Blue Jays posted a 5-10 record for 125 straight seasons, they would still be two games over .500.

13-Win Seasons: With a 13-3 record last season, Johns Hopkins reached the 13-win mark for the fifth time under head coach Dave Pietramala and the 12th time in school history.

Home Cookin': Johns Hopkins ran its home winning streak to nine games with the 9-5 win over Siena on February 25. The streak is the second-longest under head coach Dave Pietramala, who picked up his 75th career victory at Homewood Field with the win earlier this season against Delaware and sports a gaudy 76-12 (.860) record in home games during his career at JHU.

JHU won a school and national-record 37 straight home games from 2001-06 under Pietramala's guidance and the current nine-game home winning streak is the fourth home streak of seven wins or more since he arrived. Below is a look at JHU's longest home winning streaks under Pietramala:

Streak	Began	Ended
37	April 3, 2001	March 4, 2006
9	March 9, 2011	Active

Striking the First Blow: Johns Hopkins scored on its first shot of the game seven times in 2011 and has already turned the trick twice this season. After not scoring all the way until their second shot of the game against Towson, the Blue Jays netted their first goal of the game against Delaware (Brandon Benn) and Siena (Wells Stanwick) on their first shot. JHU scored on its second shot of the game at Princeton.

Eleven Straight: Johns Hopkins ran its regular season winning streak to 11 games with the 10-8 win over Princeton. This is the longest regular season winning streak for JHU since a 19-game run that bridged the 2004 and 2006 seasons.

Attack Oriented: The starting attack unit of senior Chris Boland, junior Zach Palmer and sophomore Brandon Benn combined for nine goals and three assists in the 12-6 win vs. Towson. Add in two assists by freshman Wells Stanwick, who played a regular role throughout the game, and JHU got nine goals and five assists from its four primary attackmen.

In a tighter game against Delaware, it was Benn (3g, 1a), Stanwick (1g, 2a) and Palmer (1a) leading the way with a combined four goals and four assists, while the same trio combined for five goals and three assists against Siena. Forced to juggle the lineup against vs. Princeton, Palmer (1g, 3a), Benn (1g) and junior John Kaestner (2g) combined for four goals and three assists.

Jumping Right In: Junior John Kaestner had played in 12 career games and hadn't so much as taken a shot before getting the starting nod at Princeton with freshman Wells Stanwick out. No worries, all Kaestner did is stick the first two goals of his career during a 4-1 fourth-quarter run that fueled JHU's 10-8 win.

Bassett Now 17-3 in Last 20 Starts: Sophomore goalie Pierce Bassett picked up his 20th career victory in goal with the 10-8 win at Princeton as he posted nine saves and allowed eight goals to improve to 20-7 in his 27 career starts. He is 17-3 in his last 20 starts dating back to the start of the 2011 season.

Bassett concluded his first full season as the starter for the Blue Jays last season and posted a 7.07 goals against average and a .570 save percentage. He finished fifth in the nation in GAA and 10th in save percentage. His fifth-place finish in GAA is the highest by a JHU goalie since Jesse Schwartzman led the nation in 2005 (6.68), while he is just the third Blue Jay to finish in the top 10 in save percentage since the NCAA began tracking men's lacrosse statistics in 2000. Bassett's 7.07 goals against average is the second best by a JHU goalie since 1993 (Schwartzman's 6.68 GAA in 2005 is the best since records became available in '93).

Poppleton, Kennedy Fuel Success at the X: Freshman Drew Kennedy did a solid job on faceoffs in the season-opener vs. Towson as he won 9-of-14 in the absence of junior Mike Poppleton. Poppleton returned against Delaware and has been solid in three games since. After winning 10-of-16 vs. Delaware, he won 15-of-18 against Siena and 11-of-21 at Princeton and is now 36-of-54 (.667) on the year. As a team, JHU is 45-of-78 (.577) on faceoffs this season.

Streaking: Johns Hopkins is 105-29 (.784) in its last 134 regular season games dating back to the end of the 2001 season and 122-37 (.767) overall since the start of the 2002 season.

Poll Position: The Blue Jays check in at number two in both the USILA Coaches Poll and the Nike/Inside Lacrosse Media Poll this week. The Johns Hopkins Athletic Communications Office uses the USILA Poll to represent JHU's official ranking at the time of a game. Prior to falling out of the top 20 of the USILA Poll on April 26 and May 3, 2010 (JHU was receiving votes in both polls), the Blue Jays had been ranked in the top 20 in 367 consecutive polls dating back to the first poll in 1973.

More Poll Position: Including this week's USILA Poll, there have been 387 weekly polls since the inception of the poll in 1973. Amazingly, JHU has been ranked in the top 20 in 385 of those 387 polls. The Blue Jays have been in the top 10 in 364 of the 387 and the top five in 290 of those 387.

Below is a breakdown of the Blue Jays in the USILA Coaches Poll since its inception on March 19, 1973:

Total Weeks:	387
Total Weeks at #1:	103
Weeks in top 5:	290
Weeks in top 10:	364
Weeks in top 20:	385
Most Consecutive at #1:	14 (4/12/04-5/9/05)
Most Consecutive in top 5:	130 (3/19/73-3/23/87)
Most Consecutive in top 10:	158 (3/19/73-3/25/90)
Most Consecutive in top 20:	368 (3/19/73-4/19/10)

State Rivalries: Without question the Blue Jays play one of the most difficult schedules in the nation and a big part of the schedule are the in-state rivalries the Blue Jays have. Including the season-opening win vs. Towson, JHU is 54-4 (.931) against teams from Maryland under head coach Dave Pietramala.

Below is a breakdown of JHU's record against teams from the state of Maryland under Pietramala.

Loyola	11-0
Maryland	8-3
Mount St. Mary's	4-0
Navy	11-1
Towson	13-0
UMBC	7-0

Breaking It Down: Johns Hopkins totaled 179 goals and 99 assists in 2011 and those 279 points were spread pretty well throughout the lineup. The balance is evident again this season and will be essential throughout the season. There are several ways of looking at the production, including by class and by position.

Below is a breakdown of JHU's offensive production by class this season:

Sophomores	11	3	14

Offensive Notes of Interest: Below are several notes about the JHU offense:

- JHU has scored at least one goal in every quarter this season and two or more in 13 of the 16 quarters.
- Hopkins fired 42 shots on Towson. JHU generated 40 or more shots just four times last season.
- The Blue Jays scored on their first shot of the game seven times last season and have done the same vs. Delaware and Siena this season.
- Johns Hopkins finished 10th in the nation in scoring offense (11.25), second in scoring margin (+4.0), 12th in assists per game (6.19) and 10th in points per game (17.44) last season.

Defensive Notes of Interest: Below are several notes of interest concerning the JHU defense:

- Hopkins held Towson to just 18 shots - the fewest the Blue Jays have surrendered since holding Mount St. Mary's to 16 shots on April 27, 2009.
- JHU held Towson scoreless for a stretch of 31:05 midway through the game and then held Delaware off the board for 29:32 midway through the game. Siena failed to score for the final 19:30 and Princeton failed to score for a stretch of 25:20 midway through the game.
- JHU has held the opposition scoreless in five of 16 quarters this season (.313).
- Johns Hopkins held the opposition scoreless for a stretch of 15 minutes or longer 16 times in 16 games last season. The Blue Jays held the opposition scoreless for 10 minutes or longer 33 times.
- The Blue Jays rank among the national leaders in scoring defense (6.25) this season.
- The starting attack units the Blue Jays faced last season combined for a total of 39 goals and 36 assists (4.69 points per game). Six of those units were held to three points or less and only five generated more than five points. The JHU starting defense (Tucker Durkin, Chris Lightner and Gavin Crisafulli) picked up where it left off last season as Towson's starting attack totaled just two goals and two assists against JHU, while Delaware's added three goals and three assists.

Opponent Starting Attack Scoring Breakdown

Siena	2g, 1a
#12 Princeton	3g, 2a

Taking Out the Finalists: Johns Hopkins defeated eventual national champion Virginia and eventual national runner-up Maryland during the 2011 regular season.

We're Honored: Johns Hopkins produced six USILA All-Americans last season, four of which return in 2012. Headlining the group is returning First Team All-American John Ranagan (M), while classmates Tucker Durkin (defense) and Pierce Bassett (G) grabbed second team honors. Senior Chris Boland (A) rounds out JHU's four returning All-Americans as he grabbed honorable mention honors in 2011.

The four returning All-Americans are the most for JHU since 2008 and the selection of Ranagan, Durkin and Bassett marked the first time Johns Hopkins had three sophomores earn All-America honors since 1989, when Matt Panetta (A/1st Team), Brian Voelker (M/3rd) and Bill Dwan (D/HM) were selected.

Scouting the Jaspers

The Jaspers Quickly: Manhattan comes to Homewood Field to take on Johns Hopkins fresh off an 11-9 win over Providence. The Jaspers (1-2) had dropped their first two games of the year in a three-day span, but bounced back with the win over the Friars at home on Saturday.

Common Foe: Johns Hopkins and Manhattan have both played Princeton thus far with the Blue Jays taking a 10-8 decision from the Tigers, while the Jaspers fell 13-7 at PU.

Road Warriors: This week's game at Johns Hopkins is the third road game of the season for the Jaspers, who will play five of their first six games of the season away from home. Manhattan will have the luxury of playing four of its last six games at home this year.

McGrath, Thistle Pace Offense: Manhattan is led offensively by junior attackman Brian McGrath and freshman attackman Matt Thistle. McGrath counts a team-high six goals and one assist to his credit, while Thistle has burst on the scene with five goals and a team-high six assists through three games. The dynamic duo accounts for 11 of Manhattan's 18 goals and seven of the team's 15 assists.

Akapnitis Solid in Goal: Sophomore Rich Akapnitis is back in goal this season after playing in 12 games with 10 starts as a freshman last season. He currently sports an 11.00 GAA and .560 save percentage. He posted 10 saves, including six in the second half, in Saturday's win over Providence.

Lanskold Dominates at the X: Brian Lanskold enjoyed one of the finest games of his career in the win over Providence as he won 16-of-20 faceoffs and had a pair of ground balls to his credit. This was a great turnaround after he struggled to an 8-of-23 showing against Princeton.

Notes of Interest: Manhattan is averaging 22 turnovers per game and has failed on 19-of-58 clear attempts thus far • The Jaspers have earned an assist on 83.3% of their goals this season (15-of-18).

POLL NOTES: The Johns Hopkins Sports Information Office uses the STX/USILA Coaches Poll to reflect JHU's actual ranking at the time of the game. The only exception is for games early in the season prior to the release of a coaches poll. In this instance, the team's ranking is based on the Face-Off Yearbook Poll, which is a poll of all Division I head coaches.

In 2007 there wasn't an official coaches poll in Face-Off Yearbook. JHU's ranking at the time of the game for the Albany game was based on the Blue Jays' rank in the Nike/Inside Lacrosse Media Poll.

Towson-6

February 17, 2012

#2 Johns Hopkins-12

Homewood Field

BALTIMORE, MD - Second-ranked Johns Hopkins used a 9-0 run that bridged the second and fourth quarters and held visiting Towson scoreless for more than 31 minutes during that stretch as the Blue Jays eased past the Tigers, 12-6, at Homewood Field Friday evening. The win is the 150th in the career of Johns Hopkins head coach Dave Pietramala, who improves to 150-58 overall and 127-41 during his time at Hopkins.

Towson held a one-goal lead three times in the opening 18:30, including a 3-2 advantage after Robby Zoppo scored on an ally dodge with 11:43 remaining in the second quarter. The Blue Jays needed just 15 seconds to answer Zoppo's strike as senior Chris Boland scored the second of his four goals off a cross-field pass from junior Zach Palmer in an unsettled situation off the ensuing faceoff and that ignited the 9-0 run for the Blue Jays.

Junior Lee Coppersmith and Palmer both struck in the final six minutes of the second quarter to give the Blue Jays a 5-3 lead at the half and Boland added extra-man and even-strength tallies in the first six minutes of the third quarter to push the lead to 7-3. Coppersmith completed his two-goal showing with an unassisted goal less than a minute after Boland's goal to make it 8-3 midway through the third period. By this point, the Tigers' drought had reached nearly 18 minutes.

Sophomore Brandon Benn helped put the game out of reach with back-to-back goals. His first, off an assist from Palmer, made it 9-3 at the end of the third quarter and he added his second just over 90 seconds into the fourth period when he underhanded home a pass from freshman Wells Stanwick. Senior Marshall Burkhart closed the run nine seconds later when he grabbed a long rebound and blew a 12-yarder past Towson's Andrew Wascavage.

The Tigers, who by this point hadn't scored since Zoppo's tally early in the second quarter, needed just nine seconds to score twice early in the final period. Sean Maguire got his hands free and beat Blue Jay goalie Pierce Bassett from seven yards out on a quick feed from Matt Hughes and Andrew Hodgson scored off the ensuing faceoff to make it 11-5.

An extra-man goal by Palmer, which completed his fourth career hat trick, closed the scoring with just under three minutes remaining for the Blue Jays, while Zoppo added his second goal of the game off an assist from Maguire with 33 seconds left to close the scoring.

The Blue Jays' starting attack of Palmer, Boland and Benn combined for nine goals and three assists in the win with Palmer punching up three goals and three assists to lead the way. Bassett faced just 18 shots and posted seven saves as the Blue Jay defense kept the Tigers away from the goal for long stretches. Hopkins held advantages in shots (42-18) and ground balls (30-21) and forced the Tigers into 21 turnovers and a 17-of-25 showing on clear attempts.

Zoppo's two goals the way for the Tigers, who also got one goal and one assist from both Hughes and Zoppo. Wascavage posted 11 saves for Towson, which got a strong showing on faceoffs from Matt Thomas, who won 12-of-20 on the night and grabbed six ground balls.

Delaware-6

February 21, 2012

#3 Johns Hopkins-12

Homewood Field

BALTIMORE, MD - The third-ranked Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse team built a five-goal, third-quarter lead then held off a furious rally by 16th-ranked Delaware as the Blue Jays improved to 2-0 on the year with an 8-6 win over the Blue Hens at Homewood Field Tuesday evening.

Hopkins also extended its home winning streak to eight games with the win and moved to 9-0 all-time against the Blue Hens.

After battling to a 2-2 tie through the first 20 minutes, the Blue Jays slowly began to take control. The second of Brandon Benn's three goals with 9:34 remaining in the second quarter gave JHU a 3-2 lead and sophomore Rob Guida pushed the lead to 4-2 seven minutes later when he spun inside a defender and beat Delaware goalie Chris Herbert to the near post.

The two-goal lead held until midway through the third quarter, when sophomore Greg Edmonds got free on the crease and slipped home his first goal of the season off a nifty feed from freshman Wells Stanwick, who spun away from a defender behind the goal and found Edmonds to pick up the assist.

Benn completed the first hat trick of his career just over five minutes later when he scored from in tight - also off a Stanwick assist - and junior Lee Coppersmith added a transition goal just under two minutes after Benn's strike to give JHU what seemed to be a comfortable 7-2 lead.

The Blue Jays won the faceoff after Coppersmith's goal and junior John Ranagan unloaded on Herbert, but he was equal to the task and jump-started the Blue Hen transition, which ended with a Grant Kaleikau goal just 24 seconds after Coppersmith's goal.

Delaware had gone more than 29 minutes without scoring before Kaleikau's goal, but needed just seven seconds after that to score again as Mark Yetter blew home his third goal of the season off a skip pass from Kaleikau off the ensuing faceoff and the Hens had quickly sliced into the lead and grabbed the momentum.

JHU's 7-4 lead held until midway through the fourth quarter, when Delaware struck twice in less than 45 seconds to draw within a goal. Danny Keane's ninth goal of the year made it 7-5 with 6:27 remaining and Tom Holland got topside on his defender and beat JHU goalie Pierce Bassett from eight yards out while falling to the ground to make it 7-6.

Delaware had two possessions in the final five minutes, but the Blue Jay defense, which has now allowed a total of just 12 goals in two games this season, held the Hens off the board and Ranagan added an insurance goal - an extra-man tally - with 31 seconds remaining to seal the victory.

Benn led the Blue Jays with the three goals and one assist, while Stanwick tallied the first goal of his career and added the two assists as well. Guida (1g, 1a) was the only other Blue Jay with a multi-point game and Bassett posted six saves to pick up the win in goal. JHU held advantages in shots (35-23) and ground balls (30-27) and got a boost from junior Mike Poppleton, who returned to the lineup after missing the season-opener vs. Towson and won 9-of-15 faceoffs with six ground balls.

Kaleikau scored the one goal and added three assists, while Yetter chipped in with the one goal and one assist. Herbert was solid in goal for the Blue Hens as he posted 12 saves, but UD failed on 9-of-26 clears and had 22 turnovers as well.

Game 3

Siena-5

February 25, 2012

#2 Johns Hopkins-9

Homewood Field

BALTIMORE, MD - The third-ranked Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse team scored three goals in a five-minute span early in the fourth quarter to extend a 6-5 lead over visiting Siena to four goals and the Blue Jays held the Saints scoreless for the final 19:30 in a 9-5 victory at wind-swept Homewood Field Saturday afternoon. The win runs JHU's regular season winning streak to 10 games dating back to last season and the Blue Jays improve to 3-0 on the year.

Hopkins had a chance to build on the 6-5 lead in the final seconds of the third quarter, but Siena goalie Tom Morr stoned Hopkins' Zach Palmer from in tight to keep it a one-goal game entering the final 15 minutes.

It took the Blue Jays just over two minutes of the fourth quarter to jump start their game-ending three-goal run as senior Marshall Burkhart forced a turnover in the defensive end and started a transition opportunity that ended with Palmer beating Morr from in tight off a nifty skip pass from freshman Wells Stanwick.

It took the Blue Jays less than a minute - 54 seconds to be exact - to push the lead to 8-5 as sophomore Brandon Benn scooped up a loose ball in front of the cage off a Morr save and fired into and open net. Junior Lee Coppersmith added his second goal of the game and fifth of the season off an ally dodge with 8:05 remaining to close out the scoring and secure JHU's ninth consecutive home victory.

In a game the Blue Jays seemed to control, they couldn't pull away until the three-goal spurt in the fourth quarter. Stanwick, senior Mark Goodrich and Coppersmith all scored in the first quarter as the Blue Jays crafted a 3-1 lead after the opening period, but the Saints hung tight and pulled within a goal four times (3-2, 4-3, 5-4 and 6-5) after JHU had edged ahead by two on four different occasions beginning with the 3-1 advantage.

A Conor Prunty goal for the Saints with 4:31 remaining in the third quarter drew Siena within one for the final time at 6-5, but Palmer's goal 2:08 into the final period ignited the final spree for the Blue Jays, who improved to 4-0 all-time against the Saints with the victory.

Palmer paced the Blue Jays with two goals and two assists, while Stanwick (2g, 1a) and Coppersmith (2g) also enjoyed multi-point games for Hopkins, which also got 10 saves from junior Pierce Bassett. Junior Mike Poppleton enjoyed the finest game of his career for the Blue Jays as he won 15-of-18 faceoffs and grabbed three ground balls in the victory.

Siena got two goals from Chris Roth and one goal and one assist from Danny Martinsen, while Morr posted 12 saves in goal. The Johns Hopkins defense did a nice job of containing the dynamic attack unit of Martinsen, Colin Clive and Bryan Neufeld, who combined for just two goals and one assist.

Game 4

#2 Johns Hopkins-10

March 2, 2012

#12 Princeton-8

Class of 1952 Stadium

PRINCETON, NJ -- Second-ranked Johns Hopkins used a 4-1 run to open the fourth quarter to turn a 6-4 lead into a 10-5 advantage and then held off a late-game rally by 12th-ranked Princeton to knock off the Tigers, 10-8, at Sherrerd Field at Class of 1952 Stadium Friday evening. The win is JHU's fourth straight to open the season, 11th straight in the regular season and third straight against the Tigers at Princeton.

The Blue Jays (4-0) led 6-4 entering the final period, but needed less than nine minutes to turn the two-goal lead into a five-goal advantage and the run was sparked by reserve attackman John Kaestner, who was making his first career start.

Kaestner jump-started the spree with a nifty goal from an impossible angle as he wrapped a shot around the post and Princeton goalie Tyler Fiorito just over two minutes into the final period for his first career goal to make it 7-4.

Princeton's Alex Capretta drew the Tigers to within 7-5 at the 10:04 mark as he stepped down and beat JHU's Pierce Bassett to the far post off a pass from just above the goal line from Mike Grossman, but the Tigers' fate was sealed over the next four minutes as the Blue Jays scored on three straight possessions to go up 10-5.

Sophomore Brandon Benn got free in the high slot and quickly turned and fired one home off Fiorito's thigh 38 seconds after Capretta's goal and Kaestner netted his second of the night 90 seconds later when he came from the side of the goal, took a nice dump pass from John Ranagan and scored from in tight.

Junior Lee Coppersmith added his sixth goal of the season on Hopkins' next possession as junior Zach Palmer's skip pass from the goal line to Fiorito's left found Coppersmith alone and he blew one into the top corner.

Princeton (2-1), as expected, rallied. The Tigers got one back just 38 seconds after Coppersmith's goal as Jeff Froccaro got free in the slot and went low to slip one past Bassett from seven yards out to make it 10-6.

Nearly four minutes, and one big save by Bassett, passed before Princeton would score again as Grossman got free after a long loose ball scramble and scored his only goal of the game with 2:16 remaining. Tom Schreiber worked free of Hopkins' Tucker Durkin on a pick behind the goal and drove top side for his eighth goal of the year with just over a minute to play, but the Blue Jay defense held firm in the final 63 seconds to secure the win.

An extra-man goal by Tucker Shanley opened the scoring for the Tigers early in the first quarter, but Hopkins struck for three goals over the next eight minutes to take a 3-1 lead that they would never relinquish.

A cross-crease pass from Palmer found senior Mark Goodrich alone on the backdoor and he quick-sticked home his second goal of the year and Palmer got top side on his defender and rifled home a shot from six yards out that surprised Fiorito just over three minutes later. When sophomore Rob Guida spun inside his defender and whipped home his third goal of the season three minutes later the Blue Jays had the momentum and the two-goal lead.

Froccaro made it a one-goal game with his first strike of the match with 15 seconds remaining in the second quarter, but that would be the final goal - and shot - for the Tigers in the first half.

Hopkins maintained possession for virtually the entire second quarter and got goals in the final five minutes of the half from junior midfielders John Greeley and Ranagan to carry a 5-2 advantage into the half. The Blue Jays outshot the Tigers 9-0 in the quarter and 19-7 in the first half.

Neither team scored in the first seven minutes of the second half, but Goodrich staked the Blue Jays to a 6-2 advantage when he snapped home a laser to the top corner after a quick move to the inside from eight yards out.

Princeton drew within 6-4 at the end of the third on back-to-back goals by Sonnenfeldt and Mike MacDonald, but Kaestner's goal early in the fourth quarter ignited the decisive run and the Blue Jays pulled out of Princeton with their first 4-0 start since 2005.

Goodrich and Kaestner led the Blue Jays with two goals each, while Palmer added the one goal and a game-high three assists. Bassett totaled nine saves in goal for the Blue Jays, who also won 11-of-21 faceoffs in the game.

Froccaro was the only multi-goal scorer for Princeton as his two tallies led the way. Schreiber and Grossman added one goal and two assists apiece and Fiorito matched Bassett with nine saves.
