#4 Johns Hopkins (10-5) vs. #1 Duke (18-1)

Saturday, May 24, 2008 • 2:30 pm
Gillette Stadium • Foxborough, MA
• NCAA Semifinals •

Setting the Scene: Fifth-seeded Johns Hopkins (10-5) and top-seeded Duke (18-1) meet in the NCAA Semifinals at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Massachusetts. The JHU-Duke game is the second game of a semifinal double-header that opens with Syracuse and Virginia meeting at noon. The approximate start time of the Johns Hopkins-Duke game is 2:30 pm.

Looking Back: The Blue Jays (10-5) held Navy scoreless for over 30 minutes midway through the game and used a 6-0 run to break open a close game en route to a 10-4 win over the Midshipmen in the NCAA Quarterfinals last Saturday in Annapolis. Duke spotted Ohio State a 1-0 lead then ripped off 10 straight goals in cruising to a 21-10 win over the Buckeyes in the quarterfinals last Sunday at Cornell.

These are the Facts: Johns Hopkins enters the game against Duke with an all-time record of 881-277-15 (.757). The Blue Jays own nine NCAA titles, 29 USILA titles and six ILA titles for a total of 44 national championships.

125th Anniversary: The 2008 season marks the 125th anniversary of the Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse program. The Blue Jays are wearing commemorative patches on their uniforms for the 125th anniversary of the program (it is NOT the 125th season) and the logo is being used in a variety of printed pieces to promote the anniversary.

Series History: This will be the 15th all-time meeting between Johns Hopkins and Duke and the fourth in the NCAA Tournament. A complete series history can be found elsewhere in this week's notes.

Johns Hopkins Earns 37th Straight NCAA Bid:

Johns Hopkins earned its record 37th straight bid to the NCAA Tournament this season. The 37 consecutive appearances is the longest active streak of qualifying for the NCAA Tournament in any NCAA Division I Team sport (the University of Miami baseball team will earn its 36th straight bid when the NCAA Division I Baseball selections are announced later this month). A list of the longest active streaks of qualifying for the men's lacrosse tournament can be found to the right. In addition, a list of the longest active streaks of qualifying for each Division I team sport can also be found here.

Blue Jays Seeded Fifth: Johns Hopkins earned a number five seed in the 2008 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Tournament. This is the 12th consecutive year the Blue Jays have been seeded in the top five. To put this in perspective, no other team in the nation has even qualified for the NCAA Tournament for 12 straight years. In fact, JHU's streak of 12 straight top-five seeds is twice as long as any other team's streak of qualifying for the tournament at all (Maryland - 6 straight bids).

Semifinal Saturday: The Blue Jays are regulars on semifinal Saturday as this is the sixth time in seven years the Blue Jays have advanced to the semifinals. Overall, this is the 28th trip to the semifinals for the Blue Jays. To put that in perspective, only three other teams (Virginia, Maryland and Syracuse) have even qualified for the tournament 28 times.

That's 604 Games Over .500: Including the win against Navy, the Blue Jays' all-time record is now 880-277-15 (.757) ... that's 604 games over .500. To put this in perspective: JHU has played an average of just under 15 games per season under head coach Dave Pietramala. Using a 15-game season as a reference, if the Blue Jays posted a 5-10 record for 120 straight seasons, they would still be four games over .500.

Poll Position: Johns Hopkins is ranked fourth in the USILA Coaches Poll and the Nike/Inside Lacrosse Media Poll (final regular season polls). Duke is ranked first in the USILA Coaches Poll and first in the Nike/Inside Lacrosse Media Poll. To clarify, the Johns Hopkins Sports Information Office uses the USILA Coaches Poll to reflect JHU's official ranking at the time of a game.

Playing to the Crowd: The win over Navy in front of an NCAA Quarterfinal record crowd of 17,017 improved JHU's winning streak to 10 in games played in front of 10,000 or more people. The streak, which dates to the beginning of the 2005 season, covers the entire career of the seniors on the 2008 team. Below is a look at JHU's results in front of 10,000 or more fans since the start of the 2005 season:

4-15-05	Maryland	W/11-6	10,117
5-28-05	Virginia	(OT) W/9-8	45,275
5-30-05	Duke	W/9-8	44,920

4-19-08	Navy	W/12-5	16,042
5-17-08	Navy	W/10-4	17,017

May Day: Johns Hopkins has posted a 36-4 (.900) record in the month of April under head coach Dave Pietramala and that success has carried over into the month of May. JHU is 26-5 (.839) in the month of May under Pietramala, including a perfect 13-0 at Homewood Field. Overall the Blue Jays have won 21 consecutive games at Homewood Field in the month of May. JHU's last loss at home in May came on May 2, 1992, when Towson dropped the Blue Jays, 14-13, in overtime.

Prepping For May: Head coach Dave Pietramala and the Blue Jays continue to play one of the most difficult schedules in the nation, a fact that was only further solidified with the announcement of the 2008 NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse bracket. Johns Hopkins played nine of its 13 regular season games against teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament and the cumulative regular season record of JHU's 13 opponents was 117-70 (.626).

The nine games against NCAA Tournament teams were the second most in the nation. Only North Carolina (10) played more games against teams that qualified for the NAAs. A complete breakdown of the number of games each team in the tournament played against teams that qualified for the tournament can be found above.

State Rivalries: Without question the Blue Jays play one of the most difficult schedules in the nation and a big part of that schedule are the in-state rivalries the Blue Jays have. JHU won all seven of its games this season against in-state rivals (UMBC, Maryland, Navy-twice, Towson, Mount St. Mary's, Loyola) and the Blue Jays are 39-2 (.951) against teams from Maryland under head coach Dave Pietramala.

Halftime Speech is Working: During the current seven-game winning streak the Blue Jays have out-scored the opposition 27-7 in the third quarter.

Man-Down Unit Improving: One area where the Blue Jays struggled during the middle of the season was in man-down situations. The opposition converted on 9-of-15 (.600) chances in a six-game span that started against Hofstra and ended against Maryland. However, in the last six games the Blue Jays have found their way in man-down situations as Navy (both games), Towson, Mount St. Mary's, Loyola and Hofstra combined to convert on just 2-of-19 (.105) extra-man chances. For the year the opposition is 16-of-44 (.364) with the extra man.

Extra-Man Unit Rolls On: Johns Hopkins has been opportunistic when given extra-man opportunities as the Blue Jays rank sixth in the nation in man-up offense as they've converted on 15-of-35 (.429) chances this season. The 35 chances are the fewest of any team ranked in the top 25 in the nation in this category. Senior Paul Rabil leads the team with five extra-man goals, while freshman Kyle Wharton (3) and seniors Michael Doneger (3) and Kevin Huntley (2) have also cashed in on these chances.

One-Goal Turnarounds: The three straight losses to Hofstra (8-7), Syracuse (14-13) and Virginia (13-12) are rare one-goal losses for the Blue Jays under head coach Dave Pietramala. Johns Hopkins is now 30-9 in one-goal games since Pietramala took over in 2001. Despite the losses, the Blue Jays have won 17 of their last 22 and 21 of their last 27 one-goal games. In the five seasons prior to Pietramala

Scouting the Blue Devils

Duke Quickly: Top-ranked and top-seeded Duke enters this week's game against Johns Hopkins in the NCAA Semifinals riding the crest of a 10-game winning streak and sporting an 18-1 record. The 18 wins for the Devils are already an NCAA single-season record.

It Starts With the Attack: Head coach John Danowski's dynamic offense is paced by a lethal attack unit that features fifth-year senior Matt Danowski, senior Zack Greer and sophomore Max Quinzani. The trio has combined for an amazing 162 goals and 90 assists this season and form the most lethal trio in recent memory.

Danowski, the 2007 Tewaaraton Award winner and the leading candidate for the award this season, counts 39 goals and 55 assists to his credit, while Greer leads the nation with 64 goals and also has 27 assists. Quinzani, a First Team All-American on any other team in the nation, ranks third on the team in scoring with 59 goals and eight assists.

Midfield Not too Shabby: While the attack draws most of the headlines for the Blue Devils, Duke also features a deep and talented midfield as Ned Crotty (17g, 17a), Brad Ross (24g, 8a) and Steve Schoeffel (19g, 4a) all have more than 20 points to their credit. Crotty and Ross combined for five goals and one assist in last year's national championship game against the Blue Jays and four goals and one assist when the teams met earlier this season.

Loftus Fuels Defense: Fifth-year senior goalie Dan Loftus is the leader of the defense that ranks among the nation's finest units. Loftus fashions a 6.83 goals against average and a .632 save percentage in 18 starts this season.

With Loftus leading the way, Duke has held 17 of 19 opponents to nine goals or less and 11 opponents to seven goals or less. In addition, many of the goals the Blue Devils have allowed have come after the outcome has been long been decided.

Payton Among Nation's Finest: An under-rated player for the Blue Devils throughout the year has been Sam Payton. Payton has three goals and four assists on the year, but his true value is at the faceoff X, where Payton has won 167-of-277 (.603) faceoffs on the year. Payton ranks sixth in the nation in faceoff winning percentage.

arriving (1996-2000) the Blue Jays were 5-8 in one-goal games.

More One-Goal Notes: The Blue Jays have come from behind to win 14 times during their last 17 one-goal wins. In 10 of those 14 come-from-behind one-goal wins the Blue Jays came back from a deficit of two goals or more. The latest of these come-from-behind one-goal wins came against Notre Dame in the 2007 NCAA Tournament, when the Blue Jays erased a 4-1 second-quarter deficit.

In Case We Go Extra: The regular season loss at Hofstra snapped a nine-game winning streak for the Blue Jays in overtime games. The Blue Jays had won nine straight overtime games dating back to a 10-9 win at Navy in 2004 before the loss to the Pride. Including the OT loss to Virginia, JHU is 13-5 all-time in overtime under head coach Dave Pietramala's guidance, including an impressive 6-3 on the road.

Players on the 2008 team who have scored game-winning goals in overtime during their career:

- Senior Kevin Huntley punched home the game-winner in the second OT against Duke in 2005.
- Junior Brian Christopher scored 1:22 into OT against Loyola on May 6, 2006.
- Senior Paul Rabil fired home the game-winner 56 seconds into the 2nd OT against Princeton on March 3, 2007 and tallied the game-winner 43 seconds into overtime at Maryland (4-14-07). He is the only player in school history who has scored two overtime game-winners in the same season.

• Sophomore Michael Kimmel became the first freshman in school history to score an overtime goal in an NCAA Tournament game when he netted the game-winner one-minute into overtime against Notre Dame last season.

More Overtime: The three consecutive overtime games for the Blue Jays against Hofstra, Syracuse and Virginia mark the first time Johns Hopkins has ever played three straight overtime games. Twice previously the Blue Jays had played two consecutive overtime games (1982 and 1988).

Comeback Kids: The Blue Jays have come from behind to win five times this season (Albany, UMBC, Towson, Loyola, Navy (NCAA)) and erased a two-goal deficit in the third quarter at Loyola. Johns Hopkins came from behind to win eight times last season, including six times during the season-ending nine-game winning streak. JHU trailed in its first two NCAA Tournament games, but never trailed during the Final Four.

Streiking: Johns Hopkins is 73-16 in its last 89 regular season games dating back to the end of the 2001 season and is 87-20 overall since the start of the 2002 season.

Defensive Turnaround: Johns Hopkins allowed 57 goals in consecutive losses to Syracuse, Virginia, North Carolina and Duke. However, the Blue Jay defense has rebounded nicely in the last month with standout showings in wins over Maryland (10-4), Navy (12-5), Towson (16-7), Mount St. Mary's (12-1), Loyola (9-6), Hofstra (10-4) and Navy (10-4). This is the first time JHU has held seven straight opponents to seven goals or less in the same season since 1967.

Defensive Notes of Interest:

- The four goals the Blue Jays allowed against Navy mark the fourth time in the last six playoff games that JHU has held the opposition to six goals or less (Georgetown-6, Delaware-3 last season & Hofstra-4, Navy-4 this year).
- During the current six-game winning streak the opposition has scored 31 goals on 220 shots for a shooting percentage of .141.
- The one goal allowed in the 12-1 win over Mount St. Mary's is the fewest JHU has allowed since April 24, 1999 when the Blue Jays beat Navy 11-1. The Blue Jays held Mount St. Mary's scoreless for the final 49:11. This is the longest Johns Hopkins has held an opponent scoreless since March 11, 1989, when JHU held Washington College off the board for the first 50:20 in a 12-1 win.

#4 Johns Hopkins (10-5) vs. #1 Duke (18-1)

- Johns Hopkins has held the opposition scoreless for a streak of 14 minutes or longer 19 times in 15 games this season. Since the start of the 2007 season the Blue Jays have held the opposition scoreless for a streak of 14 minutes or longer 35 times.

- Hopkins has held the opposition scoreless for 25 minutes or longer 13 times since the start of the 2007 season, including seven times this season.

- The Blue Jays have held 17 of their last 21 opponents - including 12 of 15 this season - scoreless for a stretch of at least 18 minutes.

- The four goals the Blue Jays allowed against Maryland are the fewest Hopkins has allowed against a team ranked in the top 10 under head coach Dave Pietramala. The last time JHU held a top-10 opponent to four goals or less was on April 16, 1999, when JHU beat then seventh-ranked Maryland, 13-3. Prior to the Maryland game the Blue Jays had allowed 13 or more goals in four straight games.

More Defensive Notes of Interest:

- Albany scored its first goal just 36 seconds into the game against JHU. The Great Danes scored exactly one more goal in the next 41:21.

- Princeton scored exactly one goal in the first 35:18 against JHU.
- Hofstra scored six goals in the first 13:02 against the Blue Jays during the regular season meeting. The Pride didn't score again until just 9:02 remained in the fourth quarter.

- Maryland scored exactly two goals in the first 40:24 against JHU.
- Navy scored three goals in the opening 56:46 before scoring twice in the final 3:14.
- JHU held Towson scoreless for stretches of 23:33 and 16:27 in the win over the Tigers.
- Mount St. Mary's scored with 4:48 remaining in the first quarter and then didn't score again.
- Loyola scored three goals in a span of 3:19 in the third quarter. Just prior to that the 'Hounds had been held scoreless for 25:45 and were then held scoreless for 23:44 after the three-goal spurt.

- Hofstra was held scoreless for the first 16:06, scored twice in a four-minute span and then was held scoreless for the next 25:33 in the first round of the NCAAs.

- Last Saturday, Navy scored three goals in the opening 14:06, then was held scoreless for 33:11. The Midshipmen also didn't score in the final 12:41 of the game.

Don't Forget the Offense: While the focus of any Dave Pietramala-coached team will always be defense, the Blue Jay offense has been effective as well this season. Consider:

- As a team the Blue Jays have scored on 31.8% of their shots through 15 games (159-of-500). JHU connected on 28.8% of its shots en route to winning the national championship a year ago. The Blue Jays' highest shooting percentage in the Pietramala era came in 2003 when they connected on 31.7% (224-of-706) of their shots.

- Although not the highest scoring team in the nation, the Blue Jays may be one of the most balanced teams on the offensive end of the field. JHU has had seven or more different goal-scorers in seven different games this season with a season-high nine different players scoring against Syracuse, Navy and Mount St. Mary's. Eight different players scored against Virginia and Towson and seven hit the back of the net against Princeton and UMBC.

- Dating back to the end of last season, JHU has scored in double figures 16 times in its last 21 games and is averaging 11.0 goals per game during that time (231 goals in 21 games).

- The 16 goals the Blue Jays scored against Towson are the most for JHU since a 17-goal outburst at Syracuse last season.

- Johns Hopkins has scored in all 28 quarters during its current seven-game winning streak and the Blue Jays have scored three or more goals in 16 of those 28 quarters.

A Game of Runs: Johns Hopkins has had at least one significant scoring run in 14 of its 15 games this season. Below is a quick look at JHU's runs of note this season:

Albany	6-1	Turns 1-0 deficit into 6-2 lead ... Albany never closer than two again
Princeton	8-0	Game-opening run covers first 23:03 ... PU never closer than final five-goal margin
UMBC	5-1	Turns 6-5 third-quarter deficit into a 10-7 lead
Hofstra	4-1	Erases 6-3 deficit, but Hofstra wins in OT
Syracuse	4-0	Turns 2-2 tie into a 6-2 second-quarter lead, but SU wins in OT
Virginia	6-3	Turns 8-6 third-quarter deficit into a 12-11 lead, but UVA wins in OT
North Carolina	5-2	Game-ending run
Duke	None
Maryland	5-0	Third-quarter run extends 3-2 lead to 8-2 ... MD never closer than five again
Navy	4-0	Game-opening run gives JHU early lead
	5-0	Second-half run extends 6-3 lead to 11-3
Towson	9-1	Turns 2-1 deficit into 10-3 lead
	6-0	Extends 10-6 lead to 16-6
Mt. St. Mary's	10-0	Game-ending run covered final 49:11 after MSM pulls within 2-1
Loyola	6-0	Turns 5-3 deficit into 9-5 advantage
Hofstra	6-0	Turns 2-2 tie into 8-2 advantage ... Hofstra never close than five again
Navy	6-0	Gives JHU an 8-3 lead .. Navy never closer than four the rest of the way

Rabil, Huntley in Rare Company: Johns Hopkins seniors Paul Rabil and Kevin Huntley have etched their names throughout the Johns Hopkins record book in obvious and not so obvious places. In addition to their ranking among the all-time scoring leaders, the duo is just the second set of classmates to score 100+ goals at JHU (Terry Riordan and Brian Piccola) and they are two of just 11 players in school history to score 20 or more goals four times in their career. Below is a list of the 11 players who have scored 20 or more goals four times at Johns Hopkins.

Johns Hopkins Players with 20+ goals 4X

Paul Rabil (M)	2005-
Kevin Huntley (A)	2005-
Bobby Benson (A)	2000-03
Dan Denihan (A)	1996-97, 1999-2000
Terry Riordan (A)	1992-95
Brian Piccola (A) *	1991-95
Mike Morrill (A)	1985-88
Brian Wood (A)	1984-87
Del Dressel (M)	1983-86
Mike O'Neill (A)	1975-78
Franz Wittlesberger (A)	1973-76

* Piccola received a medical redshirt as a freshman in 1991 and played from 1992-95.

#4 Johns Hopkins (10-5) vs. #1 Duke (18-1)

Playing the Possession Game: JHU has won the ground ball war in 11 of its 15 games this season and has a 487-428 ground ball advantage on the year (+3.4 GBs per game). Hofstra (31-29), Duke (40-38), MSM (31-30) and Navy (NCAA) (28-20) are the only teams to win the ground ball battle against JHU this season.

JHU vs. Top Seed: This week's game against top-seeded Duke will mark the 13th time Johns Hopkins has played the top seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Jays have knocked off the top seed five times in tournament history, including twice in the semifinals (1972, 1987). Below is a look at the 12 games Johns Hopkins has played against the top seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Year	Opponent	Score	Round
1972	Maryland	W/9-6	Semifinals
1973	Maryland	(2OT) L/9-10	Championship
1974	Maryland	W/17-12	Championship

1993	North Carolina	L/10-16	Semifinals
2000	Syracuse	L/12-14	Semifinals

Second Time Around: Johns Hopkins and Duke will be meeting for the second time this season on Saturday in the NCAA Semifinals. This will be the 17th time Johns Hopkins faces a team in the NCAA Tournament that it lost to during the regular season. In 16 previous instances the Blue Jays avenged the loss nine times (including three times in the championship game) and were swept seven times. This week's game against Duke marks just the fourth time the Blue Jays have faced a team that beat them during the regular season under Dave Pietramala. JHU has avenged the regular season loss in each of the previous three instances.

Year	Opponent	Reg. Season	NCAAs	Round
2008	Hofstra	L/7-8 (OT)	W/10-4	First Round

Heading Home: The growth of high school lacrosse in the New England region will be obvious when the final four teams gather at Gillette Stadium. The Blue Jays have three players who hail from New England, including starting attackman Steven Boyle. Below are the three players from the Johns Hopkins team who are heading home this weekend:

Steven Boyle	So.	A	Derry, NH/Pinkerton Academy
John Franklin	Sr.	D	Hanover, MA/Hanover
Mark Goodrich	Fr.	A	Westford, MA/The Rivers School

In Belichick's House: The Blue Jays will be paying a visit to one of their biggest fans in New England Patriots head coach Bill Belichick. Belichick is a regular at Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse games as he and head coach Dave Pietramala have developed a strong friendship. He was in attendance at last season's national championship game in Baltimore and last week's NCAA Quarterfinal victory over Navy. Pietramala and his staff are frequent visitors to the Patriots' facility and have spent time observing the New England coaching staff in action during summer camp. JHU attackman Steven Boyle, a native of Derry, New Hampshire and a die-hard Patriots fan, experienced a thrill last season as a freshman when Pietramala asked Boyle if he wanted to join Belichick as he warmed up the Blue Jay goalies before a practice.

Kevin and Dave Huntley Make History: When Johns Hopkins slipped past Duke, 12-11, for the national championship last spring, there were plenty of members of the Huntley family in high spirits. After all, then junior attackman Kevin Huntley scored three times in the title game and punched home what proved to be the game-winning goal with 3:25 remaining in the fourth quarter. The national championship is the second for the Blue Jays since Huntley arrived in 2005.

A little research reveals that Huntley's game-winner also lifted he and his father, Dave, into the record books. Dave Huntley was a standout midfielder for Johns Hopkins from 1976-79 and was a member of the Blue Jays' 1978 and 1979 NCAA Championship teams.

It is believed that Dave and Kevin Huntley are the first father and son to win multiple NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Championships as players. There are sets of brothers who have won multiple titles and fathers who have coached their sons to championships, but Dave and Kevin Huntley are the only father and son in the history of the sport to each win more than one NCAA Division I title as players.

Kevin and Dave Huntley Make History, Again: When Kevin Huntley scored the 100th goal of his career in the win over Towson few knew that he and his dad, Dave Huntley, had joined such a select group.

Research indicates that Kevin (101 career goals through the Hofstra game) and Dave Huntley (100 goals at Johns Hopkins from 1976-79) join Bill Morrill (107 goals at Johns Hopkins from 1957-59) and Mike Morrill (102 goals at Johns Hopkins from 1985-88) as the only father-son combinations in Division I lacrosse history to score 100 or more goals during their careers.

#4 Johns Hopkins (10-5) vs. #1 Duke (18-1)

Player Notes of Interest

Matt Bocklet - 7

Senior • Defense
(South Salem, NY/John Jay (Fairfield))

2008: Has one goal and one assist and ranks second on the team with 85 ground balls • 85 ground balls are the most for a non-faceoff specialist at Johns Hopkins since Mike Federico (goalie) had 89 in 1978 • Ranks eighth in the nation in ground balls per game (5.67) • Has played in all 15 games this season and picked up where he left off last season with a team-high seven ground balls against Albany and matched that against Syracuse • Matched then career high with eight ground balls against Virginia and added first goal of the season and six ground balls against Duke • Turned in one of the top individual performance by a defenseman in recent Hopkins history with one assist and a then career-high 10 ground balls in the win over Towson • Took that up a notch against Loyola as he was again spectacular on defense and grabbed a career-high 12 ground balls • The 12 GBs are the most by a Johns Hopkins player this season • Anchoring a defense that has been solid against the opposition's starting attack • In 15 games the starting attack units the Blue Jays have faced have totaled just 47 goals and 22 assists (an average of 4.6 points per game).

JHU Lacrosse and Baseball Playing for National Championships This Weekend

The men's lacrosse team is not the only team playing for a national championship at Johns Hopkins this weekend. The Blue Jay baseball team (39-6) won the NCAA Division III South Region Championship last Saturday (about 20 minutes after the men's lacrosse team defeated Navy in the NCAA Quarterfinals) and is competing in the College World Series in Appleton, Wisconsin. The Blue Jays open play in the World Series on Friday afternoon against Adrian (MI).

Some notes of interest about the Blue Jay baseball team:

- This is JHU's second trip to the College World Series. The Blue Jays last advanced to the World Series in 1989, when they played third. That year, the JHU men's lacrosse team, led by a senior defenseman named Dave Pietramala, played Syracuse in the national championship game.
- Hopkins is led by Bob Babb, a 1980 JHU graduate. Babb won his 800th game at Johns Hopkins earlier this season and boasts a 825-286-10 (.740)
- Dave Pietramala is not the only "Petro" representing Johns Hopkins this weekend. The Blue Jay baseball team is led by senior centerfielder Rob Pietroforte (Petro-forty). Pietroforte is hitting .483 and earned Third Team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America honors last season. Both Dave Pietramala and Rob Pietroforte go by the nickname "Petro" and have become friends during Rob's career at JHU.
- Three Johns Hopkins baseball players earned ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors this season.
- This season's success is nothing new for the Blue Jay baseball team, which is making its 14th appearance in the NCAA Tournament under head coach Bob Babb.
- The 2004 Johns Hopkins baseball team spent the entire regular season ranked number one in the nation and finished the season 40-4. The Blue Jays started that season with a 33-0 record, a season-opening winning streak that was snapped on a play at the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning. The 33-0 start is the second best in the history of college baseball (Texas started 34-0 in 1977).

POLL NOTES: The Johns Hopkins Sports Information Office uses the STX/USILA Coaches Poll to reflect JHU's actual ranking at the time of the game. The only exception is for games early in the season prior to the release of a coaches poll. In this instance, the team's ranking is based on the Face-Off Yearbook Poll, which is a poll of all Division I head coaches.

In 2007 there wasn't an official coaches poll in Face-Off Yearbook. JHU's ranking at the time of the game for the Albany game was based on the Blue Jays' rank in the Nike/Inside Lacrosse Media Poll.

Head Coach Dave Pietramala

What You Need to Know About Dave Pietramala

- Boasts a 95-24 (.798) record since taking over as the head coach at Johns Hopkins and an overall record of 118-41 (.742) in 11 years as a college head coach.
- Ranks as the third-winningest coach in school history with his 95 wins at Homewood. Trails only Bob Scott (158 wins from 1955-74) and Henry Ciccarone (105 wins from 1975-83) on JHU's career victories chart.
- Has won two national championships as the head coach at Johns Hopkins (2005, 2007).
- JHU has guided the Blue Jays to the NCAA Tournament in each of his eight years as the head coach at Homewood. The Blue Jays have advanced to the Final Four six times in his eight seasons.
- Sports a 17-5 record in NCAA Tournament games at Johns Hopkins and a 17-6 overall NCAA Tournament record (0-1 at Cornell).
- One of just two coaches to earn National Coach of the Year honors at two schools (Cornell-2000, Johns Hopkins-2002).
- Only person in the history of college lacrosse to earn NCAA Division I Player of the Year honors (1989) and Division I Coach of the Year honors (2000, 2002).
- Only person in the history of college lacrosse to win an NCAA Division I Championship as a player (1987) and a head coach (2005, 2007).
- Johns Hopkins has played 52 games as the number one ranked team in the nation under Dave Pietramala. From 1996-2000 Johns Hopkins played a total of one game as the top-ranked team in the nation.
- Dave Pietramala is generally considered the greatest defensive player in the history of college lacrosse. He earned First Team All-America honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and won the William C. Schmeisser Award as the nation's top defenseman in 1988 and 1989. He was named the 1989 recipient of the Lt. Raymond J. Enners Award as the nation's top player as a senior in 1989.
- He and his wife, Colleen, have twin sons, Nichols and Dominic. The twins are four years old and will turn five on September 1.

(As of May 19, 2008)

• 2008 Game-by-Game Recaps •

Game 1 • February 23, 2008 • Homewood Field #1 Johns Hopkins-10, #11 Albany-5

BALTIMORE, MD – The Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse team spotted 11th-ranked Albany an early 1-0 lead then scored six of the next seven goals en route to a 10-5 win over the Great Danes in front of 1,993 fans at Homewood Field Saturday afternoon. The top-ranked Blue Jays, who never let Albany closer than two after building a 6-2 lead, won for the sixth time in eight season openers under head coach Dave Pietramala and extended their winning streak to 10 games dating back to last season.

Albany's Jordan Levine needed just 36 seconds to give the Great Danes an early 1-0 lead as he scored on an ally dodge down the right side. Hopkins' sophomore attackman Steven Boyle responded and gave the Blue Jays a 2-1 lead with back-to-back goals less than two minutes apart. He handled a tough pass on the back door and beat Albany's Brett Queener from 10-feet out to tie the game and dodged from behind the goal with 11:32 remaining to make it 2-1. As it turned out, the game was never tied again.

Senior Michael Doneger and Levine traded goals over the final 8:04 of the first period as Doneger popped off the crease and one-time a shot past Queener off an assist from Brian Christopher, while Levine scored from in tight with just six seconds left in the opening quarter after holding the ball for nearly a minute.

Senior Kevin Hunley scored the first of his four goals on the day just 80 seconds into the second quarter to account for the only other goal before the half as JHU carried a 4-2 lead into intermission. Doneger added his second goal just over two minutes into the third quarter off an assist from Huntley and senior Paul Rabil made it 6-2 midway through the period when he picked the top of the next with laser from 12 yards out.

Albany didn't go quietly as the Danes scored three of the next four goals to pull within 7-5 early in the fourth quarter. An extra-man goal by Joe Pompo with 3:03 left in the third quarter was answered by Huntley's second of the day just 73 seconds before the end of the third to make it 7-3 at the end of three. Pompo's goal broke a scoreless streak of 27:03 for Albany and ignited a mild-rally for the Danes. Twin brothers Steve and Mike Ammann netted back-to-back goals just 38 seconds apart less than three minutes into the fourth quarter to trim the deficit to two, but Huntley's third of the game with 11:29 remaining pushed the lead back to three and Stephen Peyser and Huntley closed the scoring with goals in the final 7:05 to account for the final scoring.

Huntley's four goals and five points werw game highs, while Boyle added two goals and one assist and Doneger netted the pair to lead the way offensively for the Blue Jays. Sophomore Michael Gvozden registered 11 saves in goal for the Blue Jays, including five in the second and third quarters combined when Hopkins outscored Albany, 4-1. Freshman Matt Dolente won 7-of-9 faceoffs to help the Blue Jays to an 11-8 advantage at the X and Hopkins won the ground ball war, 40-29.

Levine was the only multi-point scorer for Albany, which was 1-for-2 on extra-man opportunities and got six saves from Queener. However, the scoreless stretch of over 27 minutes and the inability to win faceoffs in the middle of the game (JHU won 5-of-7 in the second and third quarters combined) was more than the Danes could overcome.

Game 2 • March 1, 2008 • M&T Bank Stadium #1 Johns Hopkins-14, #9 Princeton-9

BALTIMORE, MD – The top-ranked Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse team jumped out to a 5-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, pushed the lead to 8-0 midway through the second and cruised to a 14-9 win over ninth-ranked Princeton in the second game of the 2008 Konica Minolta Face-Off Classic at M&T Bank Stadium Saturday afternoon. The win, the 11th straight for Johns Hopkins dating back to last season, followed Virginia's 14-13 win over Syracuse in the first game of the day. A crowd of 19,165 was on hand for the doubleheader.

It took the Blue Jays just 10 seconds to take the lead for good as sophomore Michael Kimmel blistered a shot past Princeton goalie Alex Hewitt off a feed from senior Paul Rabil. Rabil grabbed the ground ball on the opening faceoff, found Kimmel unmarked coming in from the box and Kimmel wasted no time netting his first goal of the season.

The goals came in bunches for the Blue Jays in the first half as they methodically built a 10-1 lead at intermission. Senior Stephen Peyser and Rabil scored back-to-back goals less than a minute apart midway through the opening quarter and senior Kevin Huntley netted the natural hat trick with three goals in a six-minute span that bridged the first and second periods. A transition goal by junior Andrew Miller and another unassisted goal by Rabil pushed the lead to 8-0 with 8:34 remaining in the first half. An extra-man goal by Princeton's Bob Schneider finally ended the scoreless drought for the Tigers at the 6:56 mark, but Huntley and sophomore Steven Boyle both scored in the final 4:05 of the quarter to account for the nine-goal halftime lead.

To Princeton's credit the Tigers pushed the Blue Jays throughout the second half. Rabil and Boyle sandwiched goals around a Brendan Reilly goal in the first eight minutes of the third quarter to give the Blue Jays their largest lead of the game (12-2) before the Tigers scored seven of the final nine goals of the game.

A Tommy Davis goal with 2:57 remaining in the third quarter ignited a 3-0 run for Princeton that trimmed the deficit to 12-5 with Schneider and Mark Kovler also scoring during the spree. Senior Michael Doneger and Huntley then bookended another goal by Davis in a three-minute span early in the fourth quarter before Greg Seaman, Alex Haynie and Jack McBride all scored in the final 6:07 for the Tigers to make it a 14-9 final.

Hopkins scored its 10 first-half goals on just 21 shots and the 10 goals in the half match the most Princeton had given up in an entire game since the beginning of the 2007. As it turned out, the 14 the Blue Jays scored are the most allowed by Princeton since 2005.

Huntley scored a game and career-high-tying five goals and added an assist to match his personal-best of six points, while Rabil added three goals and four assists for a career-high seven points. Boyle added two goals and an assist and Miller chipped in with one goal and one assist for the Blue Jays, who improved to 4-0 at M&T Bank Stadium since the start of the 2007 season. JHU is 5-2 all-time at M&T.

Sophomore Michael Gvozden turned in a solid effort for the Blue Jays in goal as he posted 11 saves, including eight through three quarters as Hopkins built a 12-4 lead in the first 45 minutes. Peyser won 12-of-19 faceoffs and grabbed a game-high 11 ground balls to go along with his early goal.

Davis and Kovler both registered three points in the loss as Davis had two goals and one assist, while Kovler had the one goal and two assists. Schneider added the two goals and Hewitt made 12 saves for the Tigers, who also got a 13-for-22 performance from Alex Berg on faceoffs.

Game 3 • March 4, 2008 • Homewood Field #1 Johns Hopkins-10, UMBC-8

BALTIMORE, MD – Sophomore attackman Steven Boyle totaled three goals and two assists and the top-ranked Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse team used a 5-1 second-half run to erase a 6-5 deficit and fuel a 10-8 win over UMBC at Homewood Field Tuesday night. The win is the 12th straight for the Blue Jays (3-0) dating back to last season and improves Hopkins' all-time record against the Retrievers to 6-0. UMBC slips to 1-3 with the loss.

The Retrievers took a 6-5 lead on an unassisted goal by senior midfielder Terry Kimener 94 seconds into the third quarter, but the Blue Jays scored the next three goals to take an 8-6 lead. Boyle opened the spree with his second goal of the game as he was on the back end of tic-tac-toe that started with Stephen Peyser at the top and Paul Rabil on the side. Rabil hit Boyle in stride coming from behind the goal and Boyle beat UMBC goalie Jeremy Blevins from in tight. Freshman Kyle Wharton blew an extra-man goal by Blevins off an assist from sophomore Michael Kimmel just over four minutes later and Kimmel gave the Blue Jays their first two-goal lead of the game less than two minutes into the fourth quarter.

Kyle Wimer drew the Retrievers within 8-7 when he dodged to the goal from the top and beat Blue Jay goalie Michael Gvozden low to the far post with 10:05 remaining in the game and the one-goal lead held for nearly six minutes before Kimmel threaded a pass from the top of the box to Boyle just to Blevins' right and Boyle double-pumped before slipping his third goal of the night into the open cage. An extra-man goal by Rabil with 1:36 remaining made it 10-7 and Matt Latham closed the scoring with an extra-man goal for the Retrievers with 17 seconds on the clock to account for the 10-8 final.

The Retrievers used a deliberate attack throughout the game and built an early 2-0 lead on goals by Wimer and Ryan Smith in the first four minutes of the game. Austin Walker's first goal of the season with 8:02 remaining in the quarter ignited a three-goal Hopkins run that took just over four minutes. Walker's 12-yard blast from the top of the box was assisted by Boyle, who added his first goal of the game 92 seconds later when he came from the side and redodged and slipped inside his defender after being stopped on his first run at the cage. A Tom Duerr goal with 3:47 remaining in the first quarter closed the scoring in the opening period.

UMBC answered by scoring three of the next four goals to take a 5-4 lead late in the second quarter. Maxx Davis opened and closed the run with Rabil and Smith trading goals between the first Davis goal with 8:11 remaining in the period and his final tally with just 20 seconds left in the quarter. It appeared the Retrievers would carry the one-goal lead into intermission, but Peyser won the faceoff after Davis's second goal and needed just six seconds to work his way through the defense and tie the score. Peyser won the ensuing faceoff and Hopkins nearly scored in the final moments of the half, but a pass to the crease was mishandled just before time expired. Kimener's goal just over a minute-and-a-half into the third quarter was answered by what proved to be the deciding run for the Blue Jays.

The five points match Boyle's previous career high, while Kimmel added one goal and three assists for a personal-best four points. Rabil added two goals and one assist, while Peyser won 14-of-16 faceoffs and had nine ground balls to go along with his goal. The 14 faceoffs won match Peyser's career high. Gvozden had eight saves in goal for the Blue Jays, who won 17-of-22 faceoffs and won the ground ball war, 33-28.

Smith, Wimer and Davis all scored two goals for the Retrievers, who got a goal and an assist from Kimener and 10 saves from Blevins. The Retrievers outshot the Blue Jays 39-36 and ran their patient offense to perfection, but scoreless droughts of 17:58 in the first half and 18:10 in the second were more than they could overcome.

Game 4 • March 8, 2008 • Shuart Stadium Hofstra-8, #1 Johns Hopkins-7 (OT)

HEMPSTEAD, NY - Freshman Jay Card scored his fourth goal of the game off a failed Johns Hopkins clear just over two minutes into overtime to lift Hofstra to an 8-7 win over the top-ranked Blue Jays at rain-soaked Shuart Stadium Saturday afternoon. Card, who had scored his three previous goals in the first half as the Pride built a three-goal lead, entered the game with no goals in his first two career games. The loss snaps a 12-game winning streak for the Blue Jays, who slip to 3-1 with the loss.

Hofstra controlled the faceoff to start overtime, but the Blue Jays came up with a loose ball with just over two minutes remaining in the extra session. Junior Matt Drenan's pass to classmate Andrew Miller at midfield failed to connect and the Pride came up with the loose ball. Junior Anthony Muscarella then found Card behind the defense in transition and Card beat Blue Jay goalie Michael Gvozden from in tight for the game-winner and secured Hofstra's (2-1) first-ever win against a number-one ranked team.

Hopkins erased a three-goal halftime deficit and forced overtime by out-scoring the Pride 4-1 in the second half. An unassisted goal by Stephen Peyser just 35 second into the third quarter started the rally for the Blue Jays, who also got third-quarter goals from junior Austin Walker and senior Michael Doneger in a three-minute span midway through the period to knot the game at 6-6. Walker's goal came off an assist from junior Mark Bryan, while Doneger buried an extra-man goal off a nifty pass from sophomore Michael Kimmel on the doorstep.

Both teams had chances in the fourth quarter, but Gvozden came up with four saves in the period and Hofstra's Danny Orlando had three. Still, the Pride pushed out to a 7-6 lead on an extra-man goal by Dan Stein with 9:02 remaining. The Blue Jays had held Hofstra scoreless for 37:56 before Stein's goal.

Hofstra held the Blue Jays down a goal for nearly eight minutes after Stein's goal before JHU isolated Peyser at the top of the box out of a timeout. Working from the top and slightly to Orlando's left, he split the defense before firing home his second goal of the game with 1:15 remaining. That set the stage for Card's game-winner, which gave the Pride their second straight win over the Blue Jays at home.

The Pride built a 6-3 first quarter lead that held through half-time as they worked for good shots and limited the Blue Jays' possessions. Back-to-back unassisted goals by Muscarella and Card gave Hofstra a 2-0 lead just over six minutes into the game. Muscarella stuck a shot just inside the crossbar on an ally drive and Card scooped up a loose ball on the crease and stuck the ball into an open net account for the Pride's first two goals.

The Blue Jays needed just eight seconds to get on the board after Card's goal as freshman Matt Dolente won the ensuing faceoff and fed senior Kevin Huntley, who beat Orlando for his 10th goal of the season. Huntley helped draw the Blue Jays even 59 seconds later when he threaded a pass from the top of the box to Bryan on the crease and Bryan quickly fired home his first of the year. An unassisted goal by Kimmel 90 seconds later gave the Blue Jays a 3-2 lead and what appeared to be all the momentum, but Hofstra scored four times in the final 5:01 of the quarter to take the 6-3 lead that held until the second half.

Card's second goal of the game also came into an open net as he took a nifty cross-crease pass from freshman Kevin Ford and drew the Pride even at 3-3 with 5:01 remaining in the opening period. Card completed the hat trick 11 seconds later when he scored off the faceoff and Muscarella and Mike Unterstein both scored unassisted goals in the final 4:07 to account for the 6-3 score at the end of one.

Neither team scored in the second quarter, although the Pride had several good scoring chances and held a 7-1 advantage in shots in the period. Gvozden made four saves in the period, including three spectacular stops, to keep the Blue Jays alive.

Peyser (2 goals), Huntley (1g, 1a) and Bryan (1g, 1a) were the only Blue Jays to register more than one point in the game and Gvozden posted 11 saves in the loss.

Card's four goals paced Hofstra, which also got two goals and one assist from Muscarella and 14 saves from Orlando. Joe Montemurro won 10-of-18 faceoffs and Hofstra held advantages in shots (32-21) and ground balls (31-29).

Game 5 • March 15, 2008 • Homewood Field #5 Syracuse-14, #4 Johns Hopkins-13 (OT)

BALTIMORE, MD - Senior midfielder Steven Brooks' fourth goal of the game 37 seconds into overtime capped a wild comeback for the fifth-ranked Syracuse men's lacrosse team as the Orange stunned fourth-ranked Johns Hopkins 14-13 at Homewood Field Saturday afternoon. Syracuse, which scored the final four goals of the game after the Blue Jays took a 13-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter and won at Homewood Field for the first time since 1998, improves to 4-1 with the victory while the Blue Jays dropped their second straight and slip to 3-2.

The Blue Jays led 12-9 with 11:51 remaining after a George Castle goal and still held a three-goal lead at 13-10 after Stephen Peyser scored on an ally dodge with 8:01 remaining, but the Orange needed just 12 seconds to answer Peyser's goal and Hopkins never scored again. Junior Matt Abbott scored off the faceoff after Peyser's goal and Dan Hardy punched one home from in tight less than two minutes later to make it a 13-12 game with 6:01 remaining. That lead held for just under four minutes when the Orange made the Blue Jays pay for one of their 14 turnovers. Freshman Joel White stripped Paul Rabil of the ball and John Carrozza started a fast-break the other way. Carrozza carried into the Blue Jay zone and found junior Kenny Nims, who beat Blue Jay goalie Michael Gvozden up high with the equalizer.

Syracuse faceoff specialist Danny Brennan won the opening faceoff in overtime and the Orange worked the ball to Brooks at the top of the box. After starting to his right, he worked back to his left and bounced a shot past Gvozden from 10 yards out for the game-winner. Just like last week's loss at Hofstra, the Blue Jays never had an offensive possession in overtime.

Brooks scored the first two Syracuse goals of the game as he answered tallies by Steven Boyle and Michael Kimmel in the opening eight minutes. His second goal with 7:20 remaining in the opening quarter would be the last the Orange would score for nearly 20 minutes as the Blue Jays built a 6-2 lead with a 4-0 run. Back-to-back unassisted goals by second-line midfielders Austin Walker and Brian Christopher in a three-minute span early in the second quarter made it 4-2 and Kevin Huntley and Rabil added goals in a five-minute span to give the Blue Jays the four-goal lead late in the quarter.

The Orange needed just over two minutes to fire off a three-goal run to pull within 6-5 at the half. Back-to-back unassisted goals by Mike Leveille 66 seconds apart and a Greg Niewieroski tally off an assist from Leveille with just 41 seconds left in the second quarter made it a one-goal game at intermission. The score could have been higher at the half if not the play for Gvozden and Syracuse goalie John Galloway. Gvozden made six save before the half and Galloway made eight stops in the opening two quarters.

The one-goal lead for the Blue Jays held at the end of the third quarter as both teams scored four times in the period. Again, each rally by the Blue Jays was answered by Syracuse. Hopkins scored three of the first four goals in the second half as Huntley scored twice and freshman Kyle Wharton added an extra-man goal with 10:48 remaining with only a Jovan Miller goal in that time for the Orange as the Blue Jays pushed out to a 9-6 lead. SU trimmed the deficit to 9-8 with back-to-back goals by Brendan Loftus and Brooks, but a Boyle steal off a clear attempt led to another Huntley goal with 1:07 remaining to make it 10-8. That lead held until just 12 seconds remained in the period when Miller was on the backside of a misfired pass inside from Leveille and Miller beat Gvozden from eight yards out.

Again the Blue Jays would score three of the first four goals in a period as Peyser book-ended a 3-1 run to open the period with a 12-yard laser 41 seconds into the fourth quarter and the ally dodge six minutes later. Castle and Leveille traded goals between the two Peyser tallies and that set the stage for Abbott's goal that ignited the late-game Syracuse rally.

Leveille paced the Orange with six points on three goals and three assists and Brooks added the four goals to help lead the way for Syracuse. Galloway posted 10 saves in goal for Syracuse, which got another standout performance from Brennan on faceoffs. Brennan entered the game as the nation's top faceoff specialist and didn't disappoint as he won 18-of-27 with three ground balls.

Huntley scored four goals (on four shots) and added an assist, while Kimmel had the one goal and tied his career with three assists. Peyser scored two goals, won 9-of-22 faceoffs and grabbed a game-high 10 ground balls. Boyle, Rabil and Christopher all added one goal and one assist for the Blue Jays, who won the ground ball battle (38-34), but were outshot 40-33 and lost 19-of-31 faceoffs. Gvozden posted 11 saves in goal for Hopkins.

Game 6 • March 22, 2008 • Klockner Stadium #2 Virginia-13, #6 Johns Hopkins-12 (OT)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA - Brian Carroll's second goal of the game with 7.7 seconds remaining in overtime lifted the second-ranked Virginia men's lacrosse team to a 13-12 win over sixth-ranked Johns Hopkins before a Klockner Stadium record crowd of 7,579 Saturday afternoon. Virginia, which will likely take over the top spot in the national rankings after Duke's 11-7 loss at Georgetown earlier today, improves to 9-0, while Johns Hopkins dropped its third straight game in overtime and slips to 3-3. This is the first time Johns Hopkins has ever played three straight overtime games.

Hopkins won the opening faceoff in overtime, but turned the ball over 90 seconds into the extra session. After the Blue Jays forced a turnover it was Virginia that backed up a Stephen Peyser shot and cleared with just over a minute remaining. Hopkins again forced a turnover, but an offsides on the clear gave the ball back to Virginia with 29 seconds remaining and Carroll fired home the game-winner 21 seconds later to give the Cavaliers their third straight win in the series.

The Blue Jays trailed 9-8 entering the fourth quarter, but rallied to take a 12-11 lead with just over three minutes remaining. A Mark Bryan goal just under minutes into the final period drew the Blue Jays even at 9-9, only to have Virginia's Shamel Bratton give the Cavaliers a 10-9 lead when he scored off an ally dodge with 7:38 on the clock. The Blue Jays answered with back-to-back goals by Brian Christopher and Paul Rabil to take an 11-10 lead with 4:02 remaining, but Garrett Billings fired one home 40 seconds later from an impossible angle along the goal line. Hopkins needed just 15 seconds to grab what would be its final lead of the game as Rabil grabbed the ground ball off the faceoff and found Tom Duerr cutting to the net from behind the goal. Duerr beat Virginia's Adam Ghitelman from the doorstep to make it 12-11.

Virginia's Ben Rubear forced overtime when he surprised Blue Jay goalie Michael Gvozen with a sneaky shot through a partial screen from 12 yards out to the far post with 56 seconds left in the fourth quarter. Virginia had the final possession in regulation, but Gvozden came up with a save with 20 seconds remaining and the Cavaliers couldn't generate another shot before the horn sounded. That set the stage for an overtime that featured four turnovers and three shots, including Carroll's game-winner.

Virginia carried a 6-5 lead into the half as UVa got a goal from Carroll with just five seconds remaining in the second quarter to snap a 5-5 tie. The Blue Jays led 3-2 at the end of the first quarter, only to have Virginia score three goals in the first 4:40 of the second period to take a 5-3 lead. Shamel Bratton jump-started the spree when he slipped inside a defender and scored from eight yards out at the 13:36 mark. An extra-man goal from Billings just over three minutes later and a Rubeor goal 10 seconds after that gave the Cavaliers the two-goal lead.

The Blue Jays answered with back-to-back goals from Rabil. He pulled the Blue Jays to within 5-4 as he beat Mike Timms with a swim move near the top of the box and beat Ghitelman upstairs and then added an extra-man goal off an assist from Steven Boyle three minutes later to tie the game with just over two minutes remaining in the second quarter. Carroll gave UVa the one-goal halftime lead just seconds before intermission when he took a pass at the top of the box from Glading and ripped one home from 12 yards.

Peysler knotted the game at 6-6 just over two minutes into the third quarter, but Steve Giannone and Rhamel Bratton scored in a four-minute span midway through the period to give the Cavaliers another two-goal lead. Peysler added his second goal of the game with 3:06 left in the quarter and Matt Dolente scored right off the faceoff six seconds later to tie the game. Shamel Bratton's unassisted goal with 1:15 remaining in the period gave the Cavaliers the 9-8 lead at the end of three and set the stage for a wild fourth quarter and overtime.

Shamel Bratton and Ruber both scored three goals for the Cavalier and Glading added a game-high four assists. Ghitelman posted 10 saves and the Cavaliers outshot the Blue Jays, 44-31, and won 17-of-29 faceoffs.

Rabil scored a team-high three goals and added one assist, while Peysler matched his career high with the two goals and two assists. Gvozen posted a career-high 17 saves in goal for the Blue Jays, who played a third consecutive overtime game for the first time in school history.

Game 7 • March 29, 2008 • Homewood Field
#9 North Carolina-13, #8 Johns Hopkins-8

BALTIMORE, MD – Ninth-ranked North Carolina got two goals from Ben Hunt in the first three minutes of the game, pushed its lead to 5-1 at the half and was never seriously challenged as the Tar Heels eased past the eighth-ranked Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse team, 13-8, before a crowd of 4,250 at Homewood Field Saturday afternoon. The win is the second straight for the Tar Heels against Johns Hopkins and their first at Homewood Field since 1994. UNC improves to 7-2 with the win, while the Blue Jays drop their fourth straight and fall to 3-4.

Hunt needed just 35 seconds to open the scoring and pushed the lead to 2-0 with his second unassisted goal just over two minutes later. The Heels added back-to-back goals in a 46-second span late in the first quarter by Cryder DiPietro and Nick Tintle to push the lead to 4-0 and junior goalie Grant Zimmerman was spectacular in the opening 15 minutes as he registered six of his 14 saves in the first quarter. The Blue Jays outshot the Tar Heels 11-7 in the first quarter, yet trailed 4-0 when the period ended.

The teams traded second quarter goals before the Blue Jays goal two of the first three goals of the third quarter – both by senior Michael Doneger – to slice the deficit to 6-3 with just over 10 minutes remaining in the period. The Tar Heels took over from there and put the game away with a 5-0 run over the final nine minutes of the period to push out to an 11-3 lead at the end of the three quarters. Sean Delaney scored twice and added and assist during the 5-0 spree for North Carolina, which also got Hunt's third goal of the game and a Bart Wagner tally in the period.

The Blue Jays outscored the Tar Heels 5-2 in the final period to account for the 13-8 final score. Stephen Peysler and Dave Spaulding scored in a seven-second span in the first minute of the quarter to pull JHU within 11-5, but DiPietro found Michael B. Burns wide open in front of the net 30 seconds after Spaulding's goal and the Blue Jays solved Zimmerman just once – a Paul Rabil goal off an assist from Kyle Wharton with 8:49 remaining – over the next 10 minutes. Burns added his second goal of the game with 3:25 remaining and Kevin Huntley closed out the scoring with a pair of goals in the final 1:36.

Zimmerman led the way for North Carolina with his 14-save performance, which included 13 saves over the first three quarters as the Tar Heels stretched out to the 11-3 lead after 45 minutes. Hunt scored a game-high three goals and added one assist, while Delaney chipped in with two goals and two assists as the Tar Heels got goals from nine different players and 12 players registered at least one point in the victory.

Huntley, Doneger and Rabil all scored two goals for the Blue Jays, who also got one goal and one assist from Peysler. Peysler also won 11-of-13 faceoffs and grabbed a game-high nine ground balls.

Game 8 • April 5, 2008 • Koskinen Stadium
#2 Duke-17, #11 Johns Hopkins-6

DURHAM, NC – Second-ranked Duke got six goals and one assist from senior attackman Zack Greer and one goal and six assists from fellow senior Matt Danowski as the Blue Devils raced past 11th-ranked Johns Hopkins, 17-6, at Koskinen Stadium Saturday night. The win is the third straight for Duke, which improves to 11-1 with the victory. Johns Hopkins dropped its fifth straight and falls to 3-5.

The Blue Jays trailed 4-2 early in the second quarter before Austin Walker and Paul Rabil scored back-to-back goals in a span of just 24 seconds to pull Hopkins even. Any momentum the Blue Jays had seized was short-lived as the Blue Devils needed just 13 seconds to answer Rabil's extra-man goal as Parker McKee scored in transition off the faceoff to jump-start what would become a 9-0 Duke run that lasted over 20 minutes.

Back-to-back extra-man goals by Max Quinzani and Brad Ross and Ned Crotty's third goal of the first half sent the Devils to the locker room with an 8-4 lead. The Blue Jays then held Duke scoreless for nearly six minutes to open the second half, but failed on several golden opportunities to slice into the four-goal deficit and Blue Devils pounced with a lightning-quick five-goal run that put the game away.

Quinzani opened the spree with his second goal of the game as Danowski found him on the crease with a crisp pass from the top of the box and Quinzani beat Blue Jay goalie Michael Gvozden from the doorstep. Greer scored three of the next four goals for Duke with Mike Catalino's goal in transition also adding to the spree.

A Matt Bocklet goal off the faceoff after a Greer extra-man goal late in the quarter finally halted the run, but Sam Payton and Greer scored added goals before Kevin Huntley fired home JHU's final goal off an assist from Brian Christopher with 11:50 remaining in the final quarter. Leading 15-6 after Huntley's goal, Greer scored twice more in a three-minute span midway through the final period before the Devils emptied the bench late in the game.

The Blue Jays had controlled the opening minutes of the game and took a 1-0 lead just over two minutes in when Huntley capped off a long opening possession by slipping inside a defender six yards from the goal and sticking one inside the far post.

The one-goal lead held for just over five minutes before Duke got back-to-back goals in a 10-second span from Danowski and Quinzani to take a 2-1 lead. The first of Crotty's three goals came three minutes later when he dodged from behind the goal and scored up high. Michael Doneger's extra-man goal early in the second quarter was answered by Crotty's second of the game. That was followed shortly after by the back-to-back goals by Walker and Rabil. Rabil's extra-man goal would be the last tally for the Blue Jays until Bocklet's goal late in the third quarter.

In addition to the seven-point games by Danowski and Greer, the Blue Devils also got the three goals and an assist from Crotty and three goals from Quinzani. Dan Loftus played just over 54 minutes in goal for Duke and posted nine saves while allowing all six Blue Jay goals. Duke won 15-of-25 faceoffs, won the ground ball war 40-38 and outshot the Blue Jays 39-31. The Blue Devils also scored on 4-of-6 extra-man opportunities.

Huntley led the Blue Jays with two goals and two assists, but Christopher (2 assists) was the only other Johns Hopkins player to register more than one point. Gvozden played 56:37 in goal for the Blue Jays and posted eight saves.

Game 9 • April 12, 2008 • Homewood Field
#13 Johns Hopkins-10, #7 Maryland-4

BALTIMORE, MD – The 13th-ranked Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse team thrilled a Homecoming crowd of 8,626 at Homewood Field Saturday afternoon with a thorough 10-4 victory over rival Maryland. The Blue Jays outscored Maryland 6-1 in the third quarter, got great play on faceoffs from senior Stephen Peysler and 13 saves in goal from sophomore Michael Gvozden as they improved to 4-5 on the year. Maryland dropped its second straight and slips to 7-4.

Hopkins led just 3-2 at the half before Peysler won the opening faceoff of the third quarter and raced down and beat Maryland goalie Jason Carter from eight yards just four seconds into the period. Peysler's goal ignited a 5-0 Blue Jay run that took just 7:29 and extended the one-goal halftime lead to 8-2. Michael Doneger's third goal of the game 66 seconds after Peysler's tally pushed the lead to 5-2 and junior Austin Walker fired home a pair of goals in a span of just over four minutes to continue the rally. Sophomore Michael Kimmel assisted on Doneger's goal and Walker's first before junior Mark Bryan assisted on Walker's second tally.

Senior Paul Rabil scored the first of his two second-half goals 45 seconds after Walker's second goal when he split a pair of defenders and picked the net just under the crossbar from nine yards out. Maryland finally halted the run with 4:36 remaining in the third quarter when Grant Catalino scored an extra-man goal off an assist from Dan Groot. The Blue Jays were actually playing two men down and nearly killed off the entire man-down situation before the Terps scored. Hopkins won 7-of-8 faceoffs in the quarter, outshot the Terps 11-6 in the period and got three timely saves from Gvozden to fuel the spree.

Maryland trimmed the deficit to 9-4 with 8:09 remaining in the fourth quarter when Adam Sear side-armed a shot just inside the far post after Catalino drew a slide and dumped it to him, but Rabil finished the scoring for the day with a goal clearly ticketed for SportsCenter. Matched up with a short-stick middle behind the slide, he dodged from behind, used a swim move to beat the first slide and beat Carter from in tight while falling and rolling through the next slide to complete his hat trick.

• 2008 Game-by-Game Recaps •

The Blue Jays had built a 3-0 lead in the first 17 minutes of the game as Doneger scored back-to-back goals in a five-minute span that bridged the first and second quarter. Rabil had give the Blue Jays a 1-0 lead just 71 seconds into the game and Hopkins controlled the tempo throughout the first opening quarter. The Blue Jays outshot the Terrapins 14-5 in the opening 15 minutes and won all three faceoffs in the opening quarter.

The 3-0 lead held until the middle of the second quarter when the Terps finally broke through on an unassisted goal by sophomore Brian Farrell, who raced the length of the field after a Blue Jay turnover and scored under heavy pressure. A Drew Evans goal just over two minutes later trimmed the deficit to 3-2. Gvozden made a nice save on a shot by Max Ritz, but Ritz came up with the rebound and fed Evans who scored his fifth goal of the year. Neither team scored again in the first half and Peyser's goal moments into the third quarter jump-started the game-clinching run for the Blue Jays.

Peyser earned JHU's Chris Gardner Player of the Game Award as he scored the one goal, had a game-high seven ground balls and won 12-of-13 faceoffs. This is the 11th straight year the Blue Jays have played a game in honor of Gardner, a member of the 1996 JHU men's lacrosse team who lost his battle with cancer in the fall of 1997. Rabil scored three goals and added one assist, Doneger matched his career-high with the three goals and Kimmel added a career-high-tying three assists. Gvozden's 13 saves are the second-highest total of his career.

Catalino was the only Terrapin player to register more than one point as he had the one goal and one assist. Carter posted 11 saves in goal for Maryland, but the Terps won just 3-of-18 faceoffs, were outshot 34-28 and lost the ground ball battle, 29-26.

Game 10 • April 19, 2008 • Navy Marine Corps Stadium #7 Johns Hopkins-12, #10 Navy-5

ANNAPOLIS, MD – Playing in front of a hostile crowd of over 16,000 fans at Navy's Marine Corps Stadium, the seventh-ranked Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse team jumped out to an early four-goal lead, withstood a mild Navy rally, held the Mids scoreless for over 30 minutes at one point and cruised to a 12-5 victory over the 10th-ranked Midshipmen Saturday afternoon. The Blue Jays moved back to .500 (5-5) with their second straight win and 34th straight in the series. Navy dropped its second straight and falls to 9-4.

The Blue Jays needed just over 10 minutes to jump to a 4-0 lead as senior attackman Kevin Huntley scored twice in the first six minutes before Kyle Wharton and Steven Boyle added back-to-back extra-man goals in a four-minute span. Huntley opened the scoring with a behind-the-back goal just 1:19 in when he scooped up a loose ball on the crease and scored from three yards out, then brought the heat on his second goal as he swept in from the side and rifled home a 10-yarder off a feed from senior Stephen Peyser.

Wharton and Boyle polished off JHU's first two extra-man chances to push the lead to 4-0. Wharton took a cross-field pass from senior Paul Rabil and blistered a shot past Navy goalie Tommy Phelan from eight yards out, while Boyle, positioned just off the crease to Phelan's right, took a nifty pass from Huntley from the top of the box and quickly slipped a shot home from the doorstep to close the opening spree.

It took less than a minute for Navy to slice the lead in half as sophomore attackman Tim Paul scored back-to-back goals in a 49-second span to make it 4-2. Paul polished of a 5-on-4 fastbreak after a Blue Jay turnover with 3:12 remaining in the opening period and side-armed a shot inside the far post after a nifty spin move just 49 seconds later to make it a two-goal game. Huntley completed the first-quarter hat trick seven seconds after Paul's second goal to give the Blue Jays a three-goal lead at the end of one period.

The pace slowed in the second quarter as the teams traded goals to make it 6-3 at the half. Rabil fired home his 17th goal of the season on an ally dodge with 10:50 remaining in the period to push the lead to 6-2, but the Midshipmen trimmed the lead to three on a Nick Mirabito goal five minutes later as Patrick Moran found him cutting from behind the goal and Mirabito wasted little time beating Blue Jay goalie Michael Gvozden from in close. As it turned out, that would be the last Navy goal until just over three minutes remained in the fourth quarter.

A week after scoring just four seconds into the third quarter, the Blue Jays needed just seven seconds after intermission to increase their lead as senior Michael Doneger one-timed a feed from Tom Duerr past a defenseless Phelan after senior Stephen Peyser cleanly won the opening faceoff of the third quarter.

Navy outshot the Blue Jays 10-6 in the third period, but Gvozden registered five of his 16 saves in the period and Hopkins put the game away with back-to-back goals just over two minutes apart midway through the quarter. Doneger made it five goals in the last two games when he took a Mark Bryan pass and again scored from the doorstep with 7:36 remaining and Bryan poked home a rebound after Phelan had made a nice save on a shot by Rabil with 5:15 on the clock.

Peyser and junior Andrew Miller scored in the first five minutes of the fourth quarter to push the lead to 11-3 before Navy scored two of the last three goals to account for the 12-5 final score. Navy's Greg Clement and Sean Standen sandwiched goals around the second career goal for Hopkins' Andrew Jaffe in the final 3:14.

Huntley paced a balanced scoring attack with the three goals and one assist, while Doneger was the only other player with more than one goal. Rabil, Peyser and Bryan started together on the first midfield for the second straight week and each of the three had one goal and one assist. The Blue Jays won 13-of-21 faceoffs and grabbed one more ground ball (26-25) than Navy.

Paul was the only Navy player with more than one point as he scored two of Navy's five goals on the day. Phelan posted seven saves and allowed 10 goals before giving way to Matt Coughlin, who played the final 11:37 and allowed the last two goals.

Game 11 • April 23, 2008 • Homewood Field #6 Johns Hopkins-16, Towson-7

BALTIMORE, MD – On a night when the Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse team honored its seniors during pre-game festivities, the seniors returned the favor by combining to score the Blue Jays' first nine goals to pace a 16-7 victory over visiting Towson at Homewood Field Wednesday night. The win is the Blue Jays' third straight overall and 13th straight against the Tigers. Hopkins, which used runs of four, five and six goals to fuel the victory, improves to 6-5 while Towson slips to 4-9.

The Blue Jays led just 5-3 after Towson's Jonathan Engelke scored early in the second quarter, but responded with a 5-0 run that stretched the lead to 10-3 early in the second half. Seniors Stephen Peyser and Paul Rabil answered Engelke's goal with back-to-back unassisted tallies midway through the second quarter to give the Blue Jays a 7-3 lead at the half and senior Michael Doneger and sophomore Michael Kimmel sandwiched goals around another Peyser tally in the first 2:49 of the third quarter to build what appeared to be a safe 10-3 lead.

The Tigers had other thoughts and needed exactly three minutes to slice the seven-goal deficit to 10-6. Mitchell Rosensweig needed just five seconds to answer Kimmel's goal as he scored right off the ensuing faceoff to jump-start the Tigers' run. Bill McCutcheon added an extra man goal just over two minutes later and Tim Stratton scored 43 seconds after that. Rosensweig won all three faceoffs in that span as the Blue Jays never had possession during the run and called timeout after Stratton's goal.

Whatever head coach Dave Pietramala said during the time-out worked – on both ends of the field. Senior Kevin Huntley netted back-to-back goals late in the third quarter to ignite what would become a 6-0 run that put the game away. Sophomore Steven Boyle added a pair of goals and Mark Goodrich and Nathan Matthews also scored during the spree, which finally ended when Towson's Randall Cooper scored an extra-man goal with just 31 seconds remaining in the game. The Blue Jay defense held Towson scoreless for a span of 23:33 between Stratton's goal and Cooper's game-ending goal. The scoreless stretch represents the sixth time this season the Blue Jays have held an opponent scoreless for 22 minutes or longer.

The Tigers answered a game-opening goal by Rabil with back-to-back goals by Adam Hagelin and Engelke in a four-minute stretch before the game was six minutes old. Doneger ignited a 4-0 run over the last 8:04 of the first quarter with consecutive goals in a 72-second span midway through the quarter and Peyser and Rabil both added goals before the period was over to push the Blue Jays out to a 5-2 lead entering the second quarter.

Engelke's goal early in the second quarter was answered by the 5-0 run that eventually built the lead to 10-3. Towson was never closer than the four-goal margin at 10-6 and the Blue Jays methodically built the lead to 10 before ending with the nine-goal margin, the team's largest victory of the season.

Seniors accounted for 11 of the Blue Jays' 16 goals with co-captains Rabil, Doneger and Peyser each netting a hat trick. Rabil and Peyser added assists to pace the team with four points apiece. Huntley's two goals push his career total to 100, which ties with his father, Dave Huntley (1976-79) and Brian Wood (1984-87) for 13th place on JHU's career goal-scoring list. Boyle added the two goals and one assist and Kimmel added a goal and assist to help pace an offense that netted the 16 goals on 37 shots.

Sophomore Michael Gvozden posted nine saves for the Blue Jays, who also got a spectacular individual effort on defense from senior Matt Bocklet, who assisted on Doneger's second goal of the game and grabbed a game-high 10 ground balls, many of which came in traffic after he knocked the ball to the ground. He fueled a defense that also killed off 7-of-9 extra-man opportunities for the Tigers.

Engelke paced the Towson attack with two goals and two assists and Cooper added one goal and one assist. Rosensweig added the one goal and dominated on faceoffs as he won 14-of-23 and grabbed seven ground balls. Matt Antol and Rob Wheeler split time in goal for the Tigers and both posted four saves.

Game 12 • April 28, 2008 • Homewood Field #5 Johns Hopkins-12, Mount St. Mary's-1

BALTIMORE, MD – Johns Hopkins got two goals apiece from Steven Boyle, Michael Kimmel and Austin Walker and the Blue Jay defense held visiting Mount St. Mary's scoreless for the final 49:11 as the fifth-ranked Hopkins men's lacrosse team eased past visiting Mount St. Mary's, 12-1, at Homewood Field Monday night. The win is the fourth straight for the Blue Jays, who improve to 7-5 with the victory, while Mount St. Mary's dropped its second straight and ends the season at 2-12.

Hopkins needed just 49 seconds to open the scoring as Boyle one-timed a feed to the crease from Paul Rabil past Mountaineer goalie T.C. DiBartolo. An unassisted goal by Kimmel six minutes later gave the Blue Jays a 2-0 lead, but Jon Rodrick answered three-and-a-half minutes later for the Mount when he split the defense down the middle and fired a low shot past Blue Jay goalie Michael Gvozden.

A tenacious Hopkins ride forced a Mount St. Mary's turnover late in the quarter and senior Kevin Huntley cashed in on the breakaway with 1:45 remaining in the period and Walker's first of the game 56 seconds later made it 4-1 at the end of the first quarter.

DiBartolo came up with seven second-quarter saves and held the Blue Jays at bay until late in the period when Kimmel fired home his second of the game on an ally dodge with 2:17 remaining. A Rabil extra-man goal with four seconds remaining in the opening half sent the Blue Jays to intermission with a 6-1 lead.

Any hopes of a comeback for The Mount were dashed in the first six minutes of the third period as senior Stephen Peyser needed just 13 seconds to net his 16th goal of the season and Boyle dodged from behind the goal and beat DiBartolo from in tight with 9:39 remaining. Tom Duerr scored late in the period for the Blue Jays, who also got fourth-quarter goals from Josh Peck, Walker and Tim Donovan to close out the scoring.

Gvozden made seven saves and allowed just the one goal before departing with just over six minutes remaining in regulation. His efforts keyed a defensive showing that resulted in the fewest goals the Blue Jays have allowed since April 24, 1999 when Hopkins beat Navy, 11-1. Nine different players scored for Johns Hopkins with Boyle, Kimmel and Walker leading the way with the two goals apiece. Huntley and Rabil also netted two points in the win with one goal and one assist.

DiBartolo was spectacular in goal for the Mountaineers as he finished with 15 saves before giving way to A.J. Schaffler with 7:39 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rodrick's unassisted goal was the only shot that found the net for Mount St. Mary's, which was outshot 44-28 and turned the ball over 16 times in the loss.

Game 13 • May 3, 2008 • Diane Geppi Aikens Field #5 Johns Hopkins-9, #17 Loyola-6

BALTIMORE, MD – The fifth-ranked Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse team used a 6-0 second-half run to erase a 5-3 deficit en route to a 9-6 win over host Loyola at Diane Geppi Aikens Field Saturday afternoon. The win is the fifth straight overall and the ninth straight against Loyola for the Blue Jays, who improve to 8-5 on the year and have likely secured their 37th straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Loyola, champions of the ECAC and recipient of the league's automatic bid to the upcoming NCAA Tournament, slips to 7-6 with its second straight loss.

Loyola rattled off three consecutive goals in a span of just over three minutes midway through the third quarter to take a 5-3 lead, but an opportunistic goal by junior Tom Duerr jump-started the game-turning run for the Blue Jays. Duerr's fourth goal of the season came after Loyola's Jake Hagelin made a save, but failed to handle the rebound. Duerr scooped up the loose ball seven yards in front of the cage and fired home his only goal of the game to pull the Blue Jays within one. Junior Brian Christopher knotted the game three minutes later when he dodged from behind the goal and beat Hagelin upstairs. Both teams had chances to take a one-goal lead before the end of the third period, but Hagelin made a nice save on a Mark Bryan shot in the final minute and Michael Gvozden made a save at the buzzer to keep it 5-5 entering the final quarter.

Hopkins needed just 71 seconds of the fourth quarter to take the lead for good as senior Paul Rabil dodged down the ally and snuck a low left-handed laser between Hagelin and the pipe for his 22nd goal of the season. The Blue Jay defense then forced four straight Loyola turnovers before sophomore Michael Kimmel gave the Blue Jays some breathing room with back-to-back goals in a 69-second span. Out of a timeout he isolated behind the goal and stuck one inside the cross bar after dodging to Hagelin's right and the Blue Jays ran the same play a minute later with the same result to push out to an 8-5 lead. Christopher's second goal of the game with 2:23 remaining sealed the victory, although the 'Hounds got the last goal of the game with two seconds remaining on a transition goal by Cooper MacDonnell off an assist from Paul Richards.

A defensive struggle in the first half produced a 2-2 tie at intermission. Shane Koppens gave the Greyhounds an early 1-0 lead as he got a step inside his defender and beat Gvozden with a behind-the-back shot from in tight with 12:53 remaining. Kimmel answered with a 10-yard left-handed blast after spinning inside his defender off an ally dodge. The 1-1 tie lasted just under two minutes before Collin Finnerty drove to the goal and scored from the three yards out with 7:54 remaining in the opening period.

The Loyola defense, and Hagelin in particular, were solid in the first half as the Blue Jays went more than 20 minutes without scoring after Kimmel's goal before Stephen Peyser handcuffed Hagelin from 10 yards out with 3:31 remaining in the first half to make it 2-2.

The Blue Jays took a short-lived 3-2 lead early in the second half as Peyser dodged from the top and netted his 18th goal of the season with a left-handed rocket, but Loyola answered quickly with a 3-0 run that gave the Greyhounds the 5-3 lead. Koppens' second goal of the game less than two minutes after Peyser's goal forced the third tie of the game and Taylor Ebsary scored nine seconds later from the doorstep of a nifty feed from Koppens to make it 4-3. A transition goal by Chris Basler just over three minutes later after a Blue Jay turnover gave the 'Hounds the two-goal lead, but Duerr's goal three minutes after that ignited the game-turning 6-0 run. The Blue Jay defense held Loyola scoreless for 23:44 between Basler's goal and the final tally by MacDonnell in the closing seconds.

Kimmel's three goals led the way for the Blue Jays, who also got two goals from Peyser and Christopher. Gvozden continued to sparkle late in the season as he posted 14 saves while allowing just the six goals. Senior Matt Bockett was dazzling with the ball on the ground as he registered a career-high 12 ground balls. With his efforts leading the way the Blue Jays won the ground ball war 33-24 and were successful on 21-of-22 clearing attempts.

Koppens was the only multi-point scorer for the Greyhounds as he had the two goals and one assist. Hagelin was strong in goal for Loyola as he posted 10 saves, including eight through three quarters as the teams battled to a 5-5 tie after 45 minutes. LC held a 31-27 advantage in shots and won 12-of-19 faceoffs.

Game 14 • May 11, 2008 • Homewood Field #4 Johns Hopkins-10, #16 Hofstra-4 NCAA 1st Rd.

BALTIMORE, MD – Senior midfielder Paul Rabil scored a game-high four goals and host Johns Hopkins used a 6-0 run to break open a close game as the fifth-seeded Blue Jays knocked off Hofstra, 10-4, in the first round of the 2008 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Tournament Sunday afternoon. The win, which avenges an 8-7 overtime loss at Hofstra during the regular season, is the sixth straight for the Blue Jays, who improve to 9-5 and will play Navy in the NCAA Quarterfinals next Saturday at Navy. Hofstra had a four-game winning streak snapped and ends the season at 10-6.

Despite controlling the action for most of the opening 20 minutes, the Blue Jays found themselves in a 2-2 tie after Hofstra's Michael Understein netted an unassisted goal with 8:47 remaining in the second quarter. The Blue Jays needed just 54 seconds to answer as Rabil swept across the top of the box and blew a 14-yard laser past Hofstra goalie Danny Orlando to give the Blue Jays the lead for good. The Pride held the Blue Jays away for six minutes before Rabil gave the Blue Jays a two-goal cushion with 1:53 remaining in the first half as he scored the 100th goal of his career on a left-handed shot inside the far post on an ally dodge. The first of sophomore Michael Kimmel's three goals with 23 seconds remaining in the first half pushed the lead to 5-2 at intermission.

If not for the play of Orlando, the deficit could have been larger at the half as he posted seven first-half saves as the Blue Jays outshot the Pride 24-8 in the first 30 minutes. Any hopes of a second half Hofstra comeback were short-lived as the Blue Jays maintained possession for nearly the first seven minutes of the third quarter and tallied twice during that stretch to push out to a 7-2 lead.

An extra-man goal just under four minutes into the second half by senior Michael Doneger on a nifty pass to the crease by Kimmel made it 6-2 and Doneger scored his second of the game just under two minutes later as he picked the top corner from 10 yards out on a quick pass from senior Stephen Peyser. Kimmel closed the 6-0 run with 2:09 remaining when he quick-sticked a pass from Steven Boyle past Orlando from in tight to make it 8-2 at the end of three quarters.

The teams traded goals in the fourth quarter with Unterstein and Tom Interlicchio sandwiching goals around Rabil's fourth of the day in the first nine minutes of the period. Kimmel polished off his second straight hat trick and the sixth of his career when he closed the scoring with 2:47 remaining with a six-yard shot off a nice feed from Boyle.

Johns Hopkins held the Pride scoreless for the first 16:06, but led only 1-0 after one quarter as a Peyser goal with 6:27 remaining in the first quarter was the only tally for either team in the first 15 minutes. Hofstra finally pushed through with 13:53 remaining in the second quarter when Dan Stein worked from behind the goal and scored on a wrap-around shot to tie the game. Rabil got his day started just over a minute later when he scored the first of his four goals with an unassisted tally at the 12:50 mark. Unterstein's goal four minutes later forced the second and last tie of the game as the Blue Jays embarked on the 6-0 run, during which they held the Pride scoreless for 25:33, shortly after.

Rabil's four-goal effort not only led the way for the Blue Jays, but also pushed him to the top of the all-time goal-scoring list among Hopkins midfielders as he now has 101. The four goals also tied Rabil's career high. Kimmel added the three goals and one assist, while Boyle assisted on three goals for the Blue Jays. The three goals tied Kimmel's career high, while Boyle matched his personal best with the three assists. Sophomore Michael Gvozden anchored the Blue Jays' defensive effort as he posted nine saves while allowing just the four goals.

Unterstein's two goals led the way for Hofstra, which didn't have any assisted goals in the game. Orlando posted 14 saves for the Pride, who were outshot 40-25, won just 7-of-18 faceoffs and lost the ground ball war 34-27.

Game 15 • May 17, 2008 • Navy Marine Corps Stadium
#4 Johns Hopkins-10, #14 Navy-4
NCAA Quarterfinals

ANNAPOLIS, MD – Senior Paul Rabil and sophomore Steven Boyle both scored three goals and Johns Hopkins held host Navy to just one goal over the final three quarters as the Blue Jays eased past the Midshipmen, 10-4, in the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Quarterfinals at Navy's Marine Corps Stadium. The win, the seventh straight overall and 35th straight for Johns Hopkins against Navy, improves the Blue Jays' record to 10-5. Navy finishes the season at 10-6.

With the win, Johns Hopkins advances to the final four for the second consecutive year and the sixth time in the last seven years. The Blue Jays, who won the national championship a year ago, are the first defending national champion to advance to the final four since Syracuse got back in 2003 after winning the 2002 championship.

Leading just 5-3 at the half, the Blue Jays came out and took control in the third quarter as they outscored the Midshipmen 3-0 in the period. After just over six scoreless minutes to open the half, Rabil broke through when he worked to the middle of the field after rolling his defender twice to each side, found space down the middle and bounced home a 12-yarder.

The three-goal lead held until the last two minutes of the period, when Hopkins got back-to-back goals in a span of just nine seconds to extend the lead to 8-3 at the end of the third quarter. Senior Kevin Huntley's second goal of the game with 1:36 on the clock made it 7-3 as he swept in from the side, split a pair of defenders and found the far post despite Navy goalie Tommy Phelan getting a piece of the shot. Boyle capped his first hat trick since March 4 nine seconds later when he took a pass from senior Stephen Peyser off the faceoff and raced in from the side before slipping shot between Phelan's legs from in tight.

Navy finally broke a scoreless streak of 33:11 when the Midshipmen capitalized on a Blue Jay turnover. After Hopkins goalie Michael Gvozden came up with a save, the Blue Jays grabbed the loose ball, but got pinned in near the sideline and turned the ball over. Evan Sullivan then quickly found Gregory Clement 10 yards in front of the goal and Clement fired home his 14th goal of the season. That would be the only goal Navy would score over the final three quarters of the game. In addition, the scoreless streak of 33:11 marks the 11th time this season the Blue Jays have held an opponent scoreless for 20 minutes or longer.

The Blue Jays milked the final 10 minutes of the game and tallied twice in the final 4:25 with Navy pressuring and double-teaming. Rabil completed his hat trick when he came up with a ground ball behind the cage and raced to the front of the goal before scoring from in tight. Junior Brian Christopher closed the scoring with 46 seconds remaining as he slipped inside a defender along the goal line and fired into an open net.

A frenetic first quarter that saw the teams combine for 13 turnovers ended with the Midshipmen holding a 3-2 advantage. Rabil opened the scoring for the Blue Jays with 12:44 on the clock as he split a double team to Phelan's right, worked his way back to the middle of the field and side-armed a shot past Phelan while falling to his knees.

Navy struck back for two straight goals in a four-minute span late in the period to take its first lead at 2-1. Junior Michael Beggins got the Midshipmen on the board when he slipped a 12-yard shot inside the far post that seemed to be more tricky than it was fast. Senior Nick Mirabito made it 2-1 with 2:17 remaining in the opening quarter as he beat Gvozden from a tough angle. Gvozden got a piece of the shot, but it had just enough on it to find the back of the net.

The Blue Jays appeared to grab the momentum back late in the quarter when Boyle dodged hard to the goal from the edge of the box to Phelan's right and dove across the top of the crease and scored. That momentum was gone before the quarterfinal record crowd of 17,017 had sat down.

Navy, which won 9-of-10 first half faceoffs, needed just five seconds to retake the lead as Mikelis Visgauss pushed the ensuing faceoff forward and raced into the offensive zone before slipping a shot past Gvozden from seven yards out. The back-to-back goals by Boyle and Visgauss in a five second span are the third-fastest back-to-back goals in NCAA Division I history.

The goal by Visgauss would be the last for Navy until Clement's goal early in the fourth quarter and the Blue Jays took control by out-scoring the Midshipmen 3-0 in the second quarter.

Boyle one-timed a nifty pass from Rabil past a defenseless Phelan from the doorstep to tie the game at 3-3 and Govzden then made what turned out to be the game-changing play. Mirabito worked his way in tight after a failed Johns Hopkins clearing attempt, but Gvozden stoned him and quickly found Peyser in transition. Peyser pushed the ball into the Navy zone and dished to Huntley, who side-stepped a defender and blistered a shot from eight yards out to make it 4-3.

A Tommy Duerr goal with 58 seconds remaining the second quarter gave the Blue Jays the 5-3 lead at the half, a lead that held until Rabil ignited the 3-0 third-quarter run with his second goal of the game.

Rabil further etched his name in the Johns Hopkins record book with his three-goal, one-assist effort as he became the Blue Jays' career scoring leader in the NCAA Tournament as he now has 21 goals and 21 assists in 12 career tournament games. Brian Wood (1984-87) previously held the record with 39 points.

Gvozden finished with 13 saves to anchor a Johns Hopkins defensive effort that held Navy to just the four goals on 35 shots.

Navy did not have a player with more than one point and Phelan posted six saves in goal for the Midshipmen. Visgauss scored the one goal and won 10-of-16 faceoffs, but the Blue Jays found the answer at the X in the second half as they took 6-of-8 after intermission.
