#11 Albany (0-0) at #1 Johns Hopkins (0-0)

Saturday, February 23, 2008 • Noon
Homewood Field • Baltimore, MD

Setting the Scene: Johns Hopkins and Albany meet for the seventh straight year and the third straight year in the season-opener for both teams. The game is one of just two before March 1 that involves two teams that advanced to the NCAA Quarterfinals last season.

Looking Back: Johns Hopkins won its final nine games of the 2007 season and captured its ninth NCAA Championship with a 12-11 win over Duke in the title game. The Blue Jays posted a 13-4 record. Albany jump-started the finest season in school history with an 8-7 win against JHU and posted a 15-3 record with a loss to top-ranked Cornell, 12-11, in the NCAA Quarterfinals.

These are the Facts: Johns Hopkins enters the 2007 season with an all-time record of 871-272-15 (.759). The Blue Jays own nine NCAA titles, 29 USILA titles and six ILA titles for a total of 44 championships.

Poll Position: Johns Hopkins sits atop the USILA Preseason Coaches Poll and this week's Nike/Inside Lacrosse Media Poll. Albany is ranked 11th in the coaches poll and 12th in the media poll.

125th Anniversary: The 2008 season marks the 125th anniversary of the Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse program. The Blue Jays are wearing commemorative patches on their uniforms for the 125th anniversary of the program (it is NOT the 125th season) and the logo is being used in a variety of printed pieces to promote the anniversary.

Check the Calendar: This week's game against Albany is the earliest game in the history of the Johns Hopkins men's lacrosse program. Previously, the earliest date the Blue Jays had played a game was February 24 (last season).

For Openers: Johns Hopkins is 5-2 in season-openers under head coach Dave Pietramala and close calls have been the norm. The seven openers played under Pietramala have been decided by a total of just 16 goals. None of the seven have been decided by more than three goals.

In February: This week's game against Albany will be just the fifth game the Blue Jays have played in the month of February. Johns Hopkins is 2-2 all-time in games played before the calendar flips to March.

Program Ties: Johns Hopkins head coach Dave Pietramala and Albany head coach Scott Marr played together at Johns Hopkins and were members of the Blue Jays' 1987 NCAA Championship team. Current associate head coach Bill Dwan joined Pietramala and Marr on the Blue Jay squad a year later.

One-Goal Turnarounds: The 12-11 win over Duke in the 2007 NCAA Championship game improved Hopkins' recent run of success in one-goal games as JHU is 30-6 in one-goal games under head coach Dave Pietramala. The Blue Jays have won 17 of their last 19 and 21 of their last 24 one-goal games. In the five seasons prior to Pietramala arriving (1996-2000) the Blue Jays were 5-8 in one-goal games.

More One-Goal Notes: The Blue Jays have come from behind to win 14 times during their last 17 one-goal wins. In 10 of those 14 come-from-behind one-goal wins the Blue Jays have come back from a deficit of two goals or more. The latest of these come-from-behind one-goal wins came against Notre Dame, when the Blue Jays erased a 4-1 second-quarter deficit.

In Case We Go Extra: In addition to the Blue Jays' success in one-goal games under head coach Dave Pietramala, Johns Hopkins has also enjoyed a favorable run in overtime games. The Blue Jays have currently won nine straight overtime games dating back to a 10-9 win at Navy in 2004. JHU is 13-2 all-time in overtime under Pietramala's guidance, including an impressive 6-1 in overtime games played on the road.

Players on the 2008 team who scored game-winning goals in overtime during their career:

- Senior Kevin Huntley punched home the game-winner in the second OT against Duke in 2005.
- Junior Brian Christopher scored 1:22 into OT against Loyola on May 6, 2006.
- Senior Paul Rabil fired home the game-winner 56 seconds into the 2nd OT against Princeton on March 3, 2007 and tallied the game-winner 43 seconds into overtime at Maryland (4-14-07). He is the only player in school history who has scored two overtime game-winners in the same season.
- Sophomore Michael Kimmel became the first freshman in school history to score an overtime goal in an NCAA Tournament game when he netted the game-winner one-minute into overtime against Notre Dame.

Comeback Kids: Johns Hopkins came from behind to win eight times last season, including six times during the season-ending nine-game winning streak. JHU trailed in its first two NCAA Tournament games, but never trailed during the Final Four.

Streaking: Johns Hopkins is 65-11 in its last 76 regular season games dating back to the end of the 2001 season and 77-15 overall since the start of the 2002 season.

Win Streaks Under Petro: Johns Hopkins ended the 2007 season with a nine-game winning streak after a 4-4 start. The nine-game winning streak is the fifth winning streak of eight games or longer under head coach Dave Pietramala. Below is a look at the five longest winning streaks the Blue Jays have enjoyed under Pietramala.

What's Back: The Blue Jays return 10 of their top 11 scorers, all three starters on close defense and both of their short-stick defensive middies from last season's national championship team.

On the offensive end the Blue Jays return players who scored 144 of their 178 goals (.809) and dished out 80 of their 89 assists (.899) a year ago.

What Was Lost: A small, but underrated, senior class guided JHU through the 2007 season to the national championship and will be hard to replace. Attackman

Jake Byrne (30g, 7a), midfielder Drew Dabrowski (3g, 1a), goalie Jesse Schwartzman (8.08 GAA, .572 save %), long stick midfielder Brendan Skakandi (25 GBs) and versatile Jamison Koesterer (81 faceoffs won, 35 GBs) all completed their eligibility at the end of the 2007 season.

Hopkins Tops Victory, Win Percentage Charts Since 2004

With two national championships since 2005, it's no surprise that Johns Hopkins sports the highest victory total and the highest winning percentage in the nation since the start of the 2004 season.

Hopkins sports an overall record of 51-11 (.823) in the last four years and was the only team in the nation to accumulate more than 50 victories from 2004 through 2007. In addition, JHU is the only team that has won better than 80% of its games since 2004.

Below is a look at the top 10 schools in the nation by winning percentage and victories since 2004.

#11 Albany at #1 Johns Hopkins

Scouting the Great Danes

Albany Quickly: Albany comes to Homewood Field looking for its second straight win at Homewood after an 8-7 victory here last season. The 'Danes enjoyed the finest season in school history last year as they parlayed a 10-0 start into a 15-3 record and a trip to the NCAA Quarterfinals.

Don't Get Trapped: Go ahead and focus on what Albany and head coach Scott Marr lost on attack (Frank Resetarits and Merrick Thomson - combined 113 goals) and you'll quickly find yourself in a hole. The 'Danes feature one of the most dynamic offensive units in the nation and count five returning players who totaled 22 or more points a year ago.

Second team USILA All-American Jordan Levine (23g, 16a) is the headliner, but attackman Derek Dale and Corey Small, who combined for 44 goals and 25 assists, return to lead the way on attack and twin brothers Mike and Steve Ammann join Levine at midfield after totaling 22 goals and 29 assists a year ago.

Queener's Last Stand: Fans won't soon forget senior goalie/extra man standout Brett Queener, who has made his mark at both ends of the field for Albany.

Queener garnered Honorable Mention USILA All-America honors as a goalie last season as he posted a 9.68 goals against average and a .520 save percentage and added 57 ground balls.

Don't blink when a penalty is called on the opposition or you'll miss Queener trading in his goalie stick for a regular stick to play on the 'Danes extra man unit. He totaled two goals and five assists last season as part of an extra man unit that converted on 26-of-79 (.329) opportunities.

Notes of Interest: Albany out-scored the opposition 124-74 in the first half of its games last season • The Great Danes allowed just 20 extra man goals on 69 attempts (.290) a year ago • Albany lost its top faceoff specialist - Dan Barnes - and must replace the 191 faceoff wins he accumulated last season • Albany scored 10 or more goals 16 times in 18 games in 2007 and its underrated defense held the opposition under 10 goals nine times in 18 games.

A Defensive Group: Johns Hopkins held all 17 of its opponents scoreless for a span of least 9:32 last season and held the opposition scoreless for a span of 10:45 or longer 23 times during the 2007 season. In all the Blue Jay defense held 13 of its 17 opponents to nine goals or less last year.

More Defensive: Despite dropping the season-opener against Albany last season, the Blue Jay defense held the Great Danes scoreless for a stretch of 33:28 at one point. That was the second-longest such streak turned in by JHU last season and one six scoreless streaks of 25 minutes or longer by the opposition in 2007.

A Final Defensive: Johns Hopkins has not allowed more than nine goals in a season-opener under head coach Dave Pietramala and the Blue Jays have held six of seven season-opening opponents to eight goals or less on Pietramala's watch.

Kevin and Dave Huntley Make History: When Johns Hopkins slipped past Duke, 12-11, for the national championship last spring, there were plenty of members of the Huntley family in high spirits. After all, then junior attackman Kevin Huntley scored three times in the title game and punched home what proved to be the game-winning goal with 3:25 remaining in the fourth quarter. The national championship is the second for the Blue Jays since Huntley arrived in 2005.

A little research reveals that Huntley's game-winner also lifted he and his father, Dave, into the record books. Dave Huntley was a stand-out midfielder for Johns Hopkins from 1976-79 and was a member of the Blue Jays' 1978 and 1979 NCAA Championship teams.

It is believed that Dave and Kevin Huntley are the first father and son to win multiple NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Championships as players. There are sets of brothers who have won multiple titles (Gary and Paul Gait) and fathers who have coached their sons to championships (Henry Ciccarone, Bill Tierney), but Dave and Kevin Huntley are the only father and son in the history of the sport to each win more than one NCAA Division I title as players.

Hopkins Tops Strength of Schedule Rankings

Head coach Dave Pietramala has once again pieced together a schedule that is, quite simply, ridiculous. The Blue Jays will face six teams ranked in the top nine, 10 teams ranked in the top 15 and 12 teams ranked in the top 19 in the 2008 Inside Lacrosse Face-Off Yearbook Preseason Poll. That means that only one of JHU's 13 regular season games this season will be against a team not ranked in the preseason top 20.

With such a difficult slate ahead of them, the Blue Jays easily topped Inside Lacrosse's Strength of Schedule rankings. In fact, Hopkins' SOS average of 44.769 was more than three points higher than the number two team in the rankings (Maryland).

Below is a look at the top 10 schools in Inside Lacrosse's Strength of Schedule rankings:

Rank	School	Gms.	Pts.	Average

Graduate Student • Defense
 (Gambrills, MD/St. Mary's)

2007: Started all 17 games on close defense after making a miraculous recovery from a torn ACL • Suffered what was feared to be a season-threatening injury early in the fall, but battled back to start the season-opener against Albany and didn't miss any time once the season began • Grabbed a career-high 31 ground balls on the year to finish sixth on the team in that category • Notched the first point of his career with an assist in a 14-6 win over Georgetown in the NCAA Quarterfinals • Turned in a tremendous effort against Delaware and Duke at the Final Four • Helped limit Delaware just three goals in the semifinals ... the fewest goals ever allowed in an NCAA Semifinal • Came back two days later and helped hold Zack Greer, the top goal-scorer (67) and second-leading point-scorer (94) in the nation, to just one assist in the national championship game • Sparkled late in the season as the Blue Jay defense began to emerge • Unit allowed an average of just 7.22 goals per game during season-ending nine-game winning streak after allowing an average of 8.5 during the first eight games.
