The Jayhawk men's and women's track teams will send a strong contingent to the USA Senior and Junior Championships this week in Eugene, Ore. The meet will exhibit hundreds of the nation's tops athletes at both the junior and senior levels and will include 10 athletes from the University of Kansas.

Leading the way for the KU men will be sophomore Mason Finley who will be competing in both the discus and the shot put at the senior level. Finley has the seventh-farthest throw in the shot put in the country this year with a mark of 20.71 meters (67-11.25 ft.) thrown during the indoor season. The Salida, Colo., native will begin his week in the discus, where he finished third at the NCAA Championships two weeks ago. His first throws will begin on Wednesday, June 23 at around 8:10 p.m. (CST). He will conclude his week in the shot put at 2:55 p.m. (CST) Sunday, June 26.

On the women's side, Diamond Dixon will try to continue her stellar freshman season by taking home a title in the 400 meters at the junior level. Dixon, the 2011 Big 12 Champion in the 400 meters, has the fastest time among juniors (ages 14-19) this year at 51.55. Her week will begin at 3:45 p.m. (CST) on Friday, June 24 in the first round of the junior 400 meters. The El Paso, Texas native has already taken home Big 12 Female Freshman of the Year honors and was recently named the Midwest Region Female Track Athlete of the Year by the USTFCCCA.

Other notables competing this week will be senior Jordan Scott (pole vault), sophomore Andrea Geubelle (triple jump), junior Rebeka Stowe (3,000m Steeplechase) and freshman Jessica Maroszek (discus).
