For the first time since 2008, Kansas soccer earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament to cap an already successful 2011 season that was filled with highlights. Despite a schedule littered with obstacles, the Jayhawks persevered to find ways to win and nearly doubled their win total from a year ago finishing 11-9-1 overall. What's even more promising is that KU will return all 11 starters next season, as the team will look to push even deeper into the postseason.

Kansas' challenging schedule started up right out of the gate as the team faced a pair of SEC schools in its first weekend of the season. The Jayhawks fell to eventual NCAA Tournament participant Tennessee in overtime but bounced back with a convincing 4-1 win over Arkansas two days later. Kansas freshman Jamie Fletcher scored three of the team's five goals during the weekend to earn the season's first Big 12 Newcomer of the Week award. It was a sign of things to come for KU's large group of newcomers.

Fletcher would again prove to be an offensive threat a week later as the Albuquerque, N.M., native netted the game-winning goal versus USC at the USD Tournament in California. Fellow freshman Ingrid Vidal then provided the game-winning goal in the final minutes of the Jayhawks' 3-2 upset at No. 20 San Diego and earned her first of two Big 12 Newcomer of the Week accolades for her effort. Vidal developed into Kansas' top scorer over the course of the season tallying 11 goals, which tied for the third-best mark in the Big 12 Conference and was a new Kansas freshman record.

The Jayhawks continued their winning ways into week three extending their streak to four victories but a setback to Dayton halted KU's momentum. Dayton was another Kansas opponent that went on to participate in the NCAA Tournament at year's end. Of the Jayhawks' nine losses, six were against teams that eventually earned a spot in the NCAA's 64-team bracket.

Kansas embarked on a tough stretch of schedule that had the team facing three ranked teams over a span of five contests. The period was highlighted by a 3-2 double-overtime win versus Texas for KU's third win over the Longhorns in program history. Junior Whitney Berry was vital in the victory collecting the assist on all three Jayhawk goals to earn Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week honors. Berry finished the 2011 season with a school-record 13 assists, which ranked seventh nationally, and her team-high 29 points were the fourth-best mark ever recorded in a KU single season. Berry became one of three Jayhawks honored by the Big 12 at the end of the year earning All-Big 12 Second Team honors along with freshman Liana Salazar. Vidal was named a member of the conference's first team while also earning a top 100 distinction by TopDrawerSoccer.com along with Berry. The NSCAA also honored the trio with Berry named to the All-Central Region Second Team; Salazar and Vidal were placed on the third team.

With four teams ranked in the top 50 ratings percentage index (RPI), the Big 12 Conference provided a daunting slate, which the Jayhawks came out of 3-5 overall to claim the No. 7 seed at the Big 12 Championship. Kansas faced No. 22 and second-seeded Texas A&M in the opening round. Despite losing to the Aggies 3-0 earlier in the year, the Jayhawks matched TAMU's three goals this time around to take the game into overtime. After two scoreless extra periods, penalty kicks eventually knocked KU out of the tournament.

Kansas got the opportunity to extend its already successful season when its name was announced during the selection show for the 2011 NCAA Tournament. It marked the fifth postseason appearance in program history, all under head coach Mark Francis, and first since 2008. KU drew Georgia in its first round of play but fell 2-0 to the Bulldogs at the Jayhawk Soccer Complex to end the 2011 season at 11-9-1 overall and with a No. 47 RPI.

In addition to a successful year on the pitch, KU also showed dedication in the classroom. As has been consistent with Francis' teams, the Jayhawks placed a long list of players on the conference's academic team. Senior Jordyn Perdue was named to the Academic All-Big 12 First Team for the third time in her career to highlight a list of seven Jayhawks with academic distinction. Berry along with sophomores Amy Grow, Madi Hillis and Caroline Kastor were also members of the first team while senior Kortney Clifton and junior Shelby Williamson were named to the second team.
