Notes

SCOUTING THE GAMECOCKS

South Carolina enters the weekend with an 11-10 overall record and a 2-9 mark in league play. The Gamecocks are led by 3.88 kills per set from Juliette Thevenin. South Carolina continues to pace the league with 17.26 digs per frame, but manages just 1.47 blocks per set. UK captured a 3-1 victory in Columbia in the first matchup of the year between the two squads.

SCOUTING THE GATORS

Florida owns a 17-3 overall record and a 10-1 mark in conference action with the lone loss coming at the hands of Tennessee in a five-set match in Gainesville. UK fell 3-1 to the Gators in the first contest between the teams this year. Kristy Jaeckel paces the offense with 3.57 kills per set, while do-everything Kelly Murphy adds 2.38 kills and 5.96 assists per set.

HARTMANN NAMED SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Junior setter Christine Hartmann was named the SEC Player of the Week after leading UK to a pair of road victories at Georgia and Auburn. Hartmann totaled a career-high four aces in a win over the Bulldogs. She then topped career-bests with 54 assists and eight blocks against the Tigers.

BLOCK PARTY

Kentucky set a new school-record in the 25-point rally scoring with 20.5 blocks at Georgia. It was the highest total in that era, bettering 20 set back in 2007 against Ole Miss. All of UK's blockers recorded at least four blocks.

UPSET CENTRAL

Kentucky used terrific defense and timely serving to take down No. 18 Tennessee and force a three-way tie among the leaders in the SEC. UK posted 13 blocks, 77 digs and eight aces in the win over the Lady Vols.

DEFENSE SHINES

The UK defense put together a spectacular performance in a 3-0 sweep of Alabama. The Wildcats limited the Tide to -.012 hitting and just 16 kills in the match. It marked the fifth time in the Skinner era UK had limited an opponent to a negative hitting percentage, and the first time since 2008 a team did not total 20 or more kills in the match.

BILLINGS NAMED SEC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Sophomore Whitney Billings was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week after averaging 3.29 digs and 1.14 blocks per set in road victories over Arkansas and LSU. Billings was the first player this season to earn SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors who is not a primary de-

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

Kentucky hit a season-high .398 in a win over South Carolina. Three players (Pavan, Frazier, Armes) totaled 10 or more kills in the match and committed a mere four errors combined in the win.

SEC LIDUFTERS

With a 3-0 victory over Auburn to open conference action, UK is now 5-2 in league openers under Craig Skinner and 30-23-9 mark all-time.

FRAZIER NAMED "CAPITAL ONE" IMPACT PERFORMER OF THE WEEK

For her efforts in UK's opening SEC victory over Auburn, junior Ashley Frazier was one of the Capital One Impact Performer of the Week. Frazier had 10 kills, five digs, three aces and three blocks to lead the Wildcats.

KLEFOT REACHES MILESTONE

Stephanie Klefot became the 10th player in school history to achieve 1,000 or more digs in a career with 69 in UK's 4-0 week (Sept. 7). For her efforts, Klefot was once again named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week.

SEVEN STRAIGHT

To conclude non-conference action, Kentucky captured seven consecutive victories and won 21-of-22 sets in the stretch, and two tournament crowns.

BILLINGS LEADS UK PAST CARDS

Behind the inspired play of sophomore Whitney Billings, UK defeated Louisville for the second straight time since 1993 and earned a sweep for the first time since 1988. Billings had a match to remember with a team-high 11 kills and a season-best 15 digs for her second consecutive double-double effort. She also contributed with four of UK's 11 blocks.

KLEFOT NAMED SEC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

After averaging 5.25 digs per set and earning Kentucky Classic MVP honors, junior Stephanie Klefot was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 6.

WILDCATS CLAIM KENTUCKY CLASSIC

The Wildcats went 3-0 in their opening home tournament of the season earning three straight sweeps over Western Kentucky, Ohio and Virginia Tech. Freshman Lauren O'Conner, junior Christine Hartmann and junior Stephanie Klefot were named to the All-Tournament team, with Klefot claiming MVP honors.

NAPPER NAMED FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Freshman defensive specialist Jackie Napper was selected as the Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week on Aug. 29 following the first week of the season. She ranked second on the team with 2.42 digs per set while posting a .959 reception percentage during the first weekend of collegiate action.

Furthermore, Napper began her career picking up 14 digs in her first career match in a UK win over Albany. In the Wildcats' upset of No. 23 Tulsa, Napper charted 13 digs. With a pair of double-figure efforts, Napper became the first freshman in the Craig Skinner era to tally double-digit digs in two of her first three career matches. Former UK star Jenni Casper was the last Kentucky player to achieve the feat, although she did not record double figures until her second career match.

KOBERSTEIN MAKES HISTORY

With 70 assists in the win over Tulsa, setter Elizabeth Koberstein became the first SEC player and the third nationally to post 70+ helpers since the advent of the 25-point rally scoring in 2008.

OPENING WEEKENDS

In the Craig Skinner era, UK has charted a 15-5 overall record in the opening weekend of action. Skinner has guided his teams to an opening-day win in six of seven seasons at the helm, including a 3-1 win over Albany this season.

TWO NAMED PRESEASON ALL-SEC

Senior Becky Pavan and junior Stephanie Klefot were named to the preseason All-SEC team as selected by the league's coaches. Klefot earned All-SEC second team honors and was tabbed the SEC Libero of the Year in her sophomore season. The preseason honor is the first of both players' careers. UK was one of three teams to have a duo named to the preseason selection.

Kentucky head volleyball coach Craig Skinner took the reins of the UK program in December of 2004. In his tenure in the Bluegrass he has transformed the Kentucky program into a national contender.

Prior to Skinner's arrival, the Kentucky volleyball program had not experienced a winning season in the previous five years and had not made an NCAA Tournament appearance since the 1993 season. Since that time, the Wildcats have advanced to six consecutive NCAA Tournaments for the first time in school history. Skinner led the 2006 squad to its first appearance at the national tournament for the first time since 1993.

In just one season in the Bluegrass, Skinner returned the Wildcats to national prominence with a 17-12 record and their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament. For the team's accomplishments and quick turnaround, Skinner was named the 2005 Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year.

From there Skinner has continued to take the program to new heights with a total of six consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, 31 weeks of national rankings, hosting NCAA Regionals and six players earning All-America status.

- Reached 100 career wins faster than any other UK coach in history
- Totaled five top-30 recruiting classes
- UK has been ranked in 31 polls under his tutelage
- Seven All-America selections in the past four seasons
- Six consecutive 17-win seasons
- Only coach in history to lead his team to an NCAA berth in every season at the helm

2011 Match Recaps

KENTUCKY 3, #23 TULSA 2 (AUG. 27 IN TALLAHASSEE, FLA.)
MATCH #3

Sophomore setter Elizabeth Koberstein dished out 70 assists, while seniors Becky Pavan and Gretchen Giesler had career-high kill outputs in a dramatic 3-2 win (22-25, 25-18, 21-25, 25-20, 15-13) over No. 23 Tulsa Saturday in Tallahassee, Fla. Koberstein becomes the first UK player to pass out 70 assists in a match since Sarah Rumely in 2006. Pavan had a match-high and career-best 19 kills, with Giesler also matching a career-high with 16 hammers in the victory.

Junior Ashley Frazier began the decisive fifth frame with a kill to give the Wildcats the early edge. Tulsa then responded with consecutive points to take the lead, but Kentucky fired back to score the next seven points and earn a commanding 8-2 advantage.

Back-to-back kills from Frazier and senior Ann Armes lifted the Wildcats to a 10-4 lead and forced Tulsa to use its final timeout. Kentucky earned match point at 14-6 following a block from the tandem of Giesler and sophomore Whitney Billings. Tulsa would then put together the largest run of the match to pull to within 14-13, but Giesler fired home with a rifling shot into the center of the court for the match winner.

Koberstein directed UK's offense to 76 kills on .308 hitting. Four players totaled 10 or more kills in the match led by 19 from Pavan. Giesler had 16 and Frazier followed with 15. Armes was the final player to reach double-figures with 13 kills.

Junior libero Stephanie Klefot led the backline defensive effort that continued to stifle the offensive production of the nation's leader in kills in Tulsa's Tyler Henderson. Klefot posted a match-best 28 digs and freshman Jackie Napper added 13. Billings picked up 13 scoops to become the third player to reach double digits. A trio of players had three blocks in the match for the Blue and White in Giesler, Armes and Pavan.

CINCINNATI 3, KENTUCKY 0 (AUG. 30 IN LEXINGTON)
MATCH #4

Junior setter Stephanie Klefot extended her streak of 10 or more digs in a match, while senior Becky Pavan led the team in kills for the third time in four matches in a 3-0 (25-20, 25-19, 25-13) Kentucky loss to Cincinnati, Tuesday in the home opener in front of 1,123 fans in Memorial Coliseum.

With the loss Kentucky drops to 2-2 on the season, while Cincinnati improves to 2-3 overall. Kentucky returns to action when it hosts the Kentucky Classic Sept. 2-3. Up first in the four-team round-robin tournament is Western Kentucky at 7 p.m. ET.

With a match-high 18 scoops, Klefot has now tallied 10 or more digs in 42 career matches including all four matches this year. Pavan paced the attack with seven hammers and has led the team in kills in three of the first four matches of the year. Seniors Ann Armes and Gretchen Giesler chipped in with six apiece, while junior Ashley Frazier pounded out five on the night.

Giesler and sophomore Whitney Billings led the defensive effort at the net with three blocks each. Billings had a pair of solo rejections on the night and added three aces to the Wildcat cause. The match featured 18 tie scores and nine lead changes.

KENTUCKY 3, LOUISVILLE 0 (SEPT. 7 IN LEXINGTON)
MATCH #8

Led by the inspired play of sophomore Whitney Billings the Kentucky volleyball team rolled to its fourth consecutive sweep this time a 25-22, 26-24, 25-11 victory over in-state rival Louisville, Wednesday evening in front of 1,617 fans in Memorial Coliseum.

Billings had a career performance in helping lead the charge for the Blue and White. She totaled her second consecutive double-double effort with a team-high 11 kills on a career-best .450 hitting clip. She added a season-best 15 digs and joined in on four blocks for the match.

With the victory, Kentucky improves its record to 6-2 overall while Louisville drops to 5-2 on the young season. The win tonight over the Cardinals marked the first sweep for UK in the series since 1988. Coupling tonight's victory with a five-set win in 2010, UK has now posted consecutive victories over Louisville for the first time since 1993 when the squads met twice in the same season.

Billings led the way, but the Wildcats received outstanding performances by a slew of players. Senior Ann Armes totaled 10 kills and notched a team-high five blocks. Freshman Lauren O'Conner scored 10 times by way of a kill and has now posted 10 or more hammers in a match in four straight UK victories.

Junior setter Christine Hartmann dished out 36 assists and added four kills of her own. Junior libero Stephanie Klefot posted a match-high 21 digs and has now topped 10 or more scoops in a match in all eight matches this season. Freshman Jackie Napper recorded 13 digs and has totaled 10 or more digs on four occasions this season. Sophomore Jessi Greenberg added a season-high six digs and made several terrific plays off of blocks.

KENTUCKY 3, ALABAMA 0 (Oct. 9 in Lexington)
MATCH #19

The Kentucky defense enjoyed a terrific outing limiting Alabama to a .012 hitting clip and a mere 16 kills for the match in a 3-0 (25-12, 25-8, 25-17) sweep Sunday afternoon in front of another packed house at Memorial Coliseum.

With the win, Kentucky improves to 16-3 overall on the season and 7-1 in Southeastern Conference action. Alabama drops to 9-10 overall and 2-6 in league play.

Kentucky's defensive effort held an opponent to a negative hitting percentage for the sixth time under Skinner's tutelage. UK last held a team to a negative clip was in a 3-0 victory over Georgia in 2010. The last opponent to registered 20 or fewer kills was Tennessee State in 2008.

UK charted six blocks, but the defensive front was a constant factor for Alabama's attackers. Freshman Lauren O'Conner and senior Becky Pavan both recorded three rejections. Junior libero Stephanie Klefot led the back row defensive effort with a match-high 12 digs.

On the offensive front, the Blue and White posted a .368 hitting percentage with 45 kills. Sophomore Whitney Billings reached double-figures for the second consecutive match to lead the way with 11 hammers today. Junior Ashley Frazier notched nine kills and O'Conner chipped in with eight. Senior Ann Armes added six, and Pavan knocked down five. Kentucky's offense also added a season-high 10 aces with O'Conner and Klefot both recording a trio.

Setter Christine Hartmann continues to direct a balanced attack with nine players recording at least one kill in today's match. Hartmann totaled 39 dimes in the win. The junior from St. Charles, Ill., has led the Wildcats to an above .300 hitting percentage in three consecutive Sunday matches.

#25 KENTUCKY 3, #18 TENNESSEE (Oct. 12 in Lexington)
MATCH #20

In a match that featured two top-25 ranked teams, a pair of conference leaders and two dynamic offenses, 1,959 fans at Memorial Coliseum were not disappointed in an exhilarating five-set match in which Kentucky outlasted Tennessee 3-2 (26-24, 24-26, 25-20, 24-26, 15-13).

The back-and-forth battled featured a total of 37 tie scores and 19 lead changes in five sets of action with none closer than the final fifth frame. The two teams battled through seven knotted scores and four lead swaps before Kentucky finally prevailed with the 15-13 final margin.

With the victory, No. 25 Kentucky improves to 17-3 overall on the season and 8-1 in conference action. No. 18 Tennessee drops to 15-3 and 8-1 in league play. With UK's victory, the Lady Vols and Wildcats are tied for first place atop the Southeastern Conference standings.

Consecutive kills from senior Becky Pavan and sophomore Whitney Billings lifted the Wildcats to an early 2-0 lead in the fifth stanza. Tennessee responded with consecutive points of its own. The teams exchanged points back and forth with UK earning a one-point edge at 8-7 following two more kills from Billings into the swapping of sides. UK stretched that lead to three at 12-9 before Tennessee responded with three straight points to even the match at 12.

The Wildcats forced the Lady Vols into an erroneous attack to recapture the lead and an ace from freshman Lauren O'Conner lifted UK to match-point. Tennessee picked up a kill to save the match, but the Lady Vols made the final mistake with a serve going long to lift UK to the victory.
