No. 22/21 LAFAYETTE at lehigh

12:30 p.m.

Bethlehem, Pa. - Goodman Stadium

THE MATCH-UP: No. 22/21 LAFAYETTE (8-2, 4-1) and lehigh square off on Saturday in the 145th meeting of College Football's Most Played Rivalry, and while there is certainly some respect between the two programs, there is still plenty of hatred to go around between the combatants. Lafayette is searching for its fifth win in the last six meetings, but dropped a 31-15 decision a year ago at Fisher Stadium. The Leopards find themselves in a similar situation to a year ago, knocked out of Patriot League title contention by a heart-breaking loss to Holy Cross (28-26 in '09 and 27-26 in '08).

The Mountain Hawks (3-7, 3-2) appear to be playing their best football of the season and have a chance to force their way into a three-way tie for second place in the Patriot League standings. Lehigh is 2-2 down the stretch after starting the season 1-5. The two losses in the final four games came against nationally-ranked Colgate (27-20) and No. 13 Holy Cross (24-20).

THE SERIES: College Football's Most-Played Rivalry dates back to 1884 when LAFAYETTE shut out lehigh 50-0 in Easton. The two teams met twice a year from 1884-1901 (three times in 1891) and once a year (for the most part) since then with the exception of 1896 when a player eligibility dispute between the schools cancelled the game. The Leopards lead the series 76-63-5. Home field advantage plays a big role in this rivalry: LAFAYETTE leads 41-23-5 when playing in Easton and lehigh has a 39-36-0 edge over Leopards in Bethlehem.

MAKING THE CASE: Beyond the obvious rivalry implications, there's a little more at stake this season for the Leopards who are looking to make their case for an at-large berth for the NCAA FCS Playoffs with a nine-win season. A win over lehigh is a must. Lafayette's only two losses have come against nationally ranked opponents (No. 24/25 Liberty and No. 14/13 Holy Cross). Lafayette also holds a win over No. 20/18 Colgate in conference play. Other wins came over the Ivy League's top teams, Penn and Harvard, who played for the Ivy title last weekend. Penn is currently in the top 25.

ON THE POLL: The Leopards saw their seven-game win streak snapped in a controversial loss at No. 14/13 Holy Cross, but remain in both Top 25 polls. The Leopards move down one spot to No. 21 in The Sports Network poll and drop two places to No. 22 in the FCS Coaches Poll. Lafayette trails Colgate by one place in the Coaches Poll, despite beating the Raiders two weeks ago. Lafayette has been ranked in the Top 25 in each of the last six seasons and their highest ranking this season is 20th. Lafayette has been receiving votes since week seven of its 2009 season, and climbed as high as 21st in 2008. The Leopards' highest ever ranking Lafayette has been ranked in the top 25 in six straight seasons (2004-2009), climbing as high as 21st in 2008. The highest Lafayette has ever been ranked is 19th following the 2004 season.

THE HEAD COACHES: Lafayette head coach Frank Tavani (Lebanon Valley '75) is in his 10th season as the fiery head man with the headsets and his 23rd year overall as a member of the Lafayette coaching staff. He is the 27th head coach in the program's 128-year history. Tavani was the running backs coach at Lafayette for 13 seasons prior to being named head coach in December of 1999.

Tavani was the 2004 Patriot League Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award in that year.

The Lebanon, Pa. native guided Lafayette to three straight Patriot League titles (2004, 2005, 2006) and his career record stands at 60-52. Tavani is 26-9 in Patriot League games over the last six seasons (including 2009).

Tavani knew a little bit about running the ball in his playing days, becoming the first player in Lebanon Valley College history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. In that senior campaign, he also garnered All-America honors and has since been named to four athletic halls of fame. Tavani signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles out of college in 1976 before jumping into coaching at Franklin and Marshall.

His son, Daniel, carried on the college football tradition as an all-conference selection at Wofford. Of his other three children, Liam and Meghan both graduated from Lafayette and his youngest, Bridget, is a freshman on the women's soccer team.

Andy Coen (Gettysburg '86) is at the end of his fourth season as head coach at Lehigh. He is in his second stint at the school after spending six years as an offensive line coach (four as the offensive coordinator) from 1994-2000. Coen is 19-24 overall at Lehigh and 1-2 against Lafayette.

came in 2004 when they finished No. 19 in both polls after winning the first of three straight Patriot League titles.

CURLEY COLLECTING SINGLE-SEASON RECORDS: With 312 passing yards at Holy Cross, Rob Curley broke the single-season record for passing yardage. Curley has 2744 yards in 2009, breaking Marko Glavic's mark from 2003 when he threw for 2725 yards. Curley also recently moved into sole possession of second place for single-season touchdowns with 25. He needs to throw two more TD strikes to surpass Tom Kirchhoff's record of 26 in 1992. Curley's 68.2 season completion percentage also ranks first all-time, ahead of Brad Maurer's 67 percent in 2004. His 210 completions are fifth all-time at Lafayette, needing 20 more to set a new mark.

...AND CAREER MARKS: For his career, Curley has completed 63.4 percent (408-644) of his passes, ranking first at Lafayette for career completion percentage. His 41 career passing TD's place him fifth all-time at Lafayette. He also ranks sixth in career passing yards (5,097) and will likely take over fifth place from Brad Maurer (5,114).

CURLEY ON THE NATIONAL SCENE: Rob Curley ranks third in the nation in passing efficiency (163.31), behind only former LSU and current Jacksonville State QB Ryan Perrilloux (176.9) and Appalachian State Armanti Edwards (163.35), the 2008 national player of the year. Curley is 10th in total passing yards (2,744), ninth in passing yards per game (274.4), 17th in completions per game (21.0), tied with Edwards, and 12th in total offense (275.8).

STELLAR START: Lafayette's 8-1 start in 2009 was best since 1940 when the Leopards finished the season at 9-0. The last time a Lafayette team was 8-1 was 1899, and that squad went on to a 12-1 mark. Lafayette also enjoyed several other 9-0 campaigns between 1940 and 1899.

CURLEY NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Two days after he shattered the Lafayette single-game record for touchdowns (five) by hurling seven scoring strikes against nationally-ranked Colgate, senior QB Rob Curley was named National Player of the Week by The Sports Network and College Sporting News. The FCS honors went along with his second straight Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week laurel and third of his career. Curley completed 18-of-31 passes for a career-high 373 yards and seven touchdowns, tying the Patriot League mark for passing touchdowns. The touchdowns went to five different players, including two in the fourth quarter to break a 42-42 tie, and his passing yardage was a career best for the third consecutive week.

SPEAKING OF CURLEY...THE SERIES MVP: Members of the media will vote on the game's most valuable player on Saturday, marking a tradition that began in 1960. In 2007, Rob Curley claimed the honor after leading the game-winning drive in a 21-17 victory. In his fourth start of the season, Curley went 15-for-25 for 257 yards with one TD and one interception. Curley and Lehigh junior QB J.B. Clark, the winner in 2008, will have an opportunity to join an exclusive club in the 145th meeting, winning the MVP award twice.

In 2006, QB Brad Maurer '07 and TB Jonathan Hurt '07 shared MVP honors, becoming the sixth and seventh players to win the award twice. It was also just the second time in the award's history two players shared the honor (1976 Mark Jones-Lafayette; Rod Gardner-Lehigh). Maurer won in 2004 as a sophomore while Hurt won in 2005. They joined Tom Costello (1988, 89) and Erik Marsh (1992, 94) from Lafayette and Kim McQuilken (1972, 73), Marty Horn (1983, 85) and Ron Jean (1998, 99) from Lehigh as two-time winners.

SCHOLARLY GRIDIRON HONORS: Junior DE Doug Gerowski has earned ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District II First-Team honors as selected by COSIDA. Gerowski has accumulated 21 tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack. His standout games came in victories over Ivy League opponents Columbia and Harvard, recording five tackles apiece. The Economics and Business major maintains a 3.61 overall GPA and is enrolled in four courses this semester: Introduction to Finance, Economics of Sports, Introduction to U.S. Politics and Introduction to International Politics. District winners will be placed on a national ballot and the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team will be announced on Nov. 24.

"SPECIAL" KICKER: Junior K Davis Rodriguez was named the Patriot League Football Special Teams Player of the Week (11/9), setting a Patriot League record with his fifth career selection. Rodriguez scored 12 points in Lafayette's 56-49 win over No. 20/18 Colgate. He made field goals of 33 and 34 yards in the first half to

LAST TIME THEY MET

Lehigh 31, Lafayette 15

EASTON, Pa. (11/22/08) - Lafayette lost its first in game in five years to Lehigh, 31-15, in the 144th meeting of college football's most played rivalry. Lafayette held a substantial advantage in time of possession and churned out more than 100 yards of offense compared to Lehigh, but timely defensive plays helped the Mountain Hawks pull out the win.

Facing a nine-point deficit with seven minutes remaining, Lafayette marched 61 yards into the red zone. QB Rob Curley looked to fullback Joe Russo near the end zone, but his pass was intercepted by Lehigh's John Kennedy, who returned it 94 yards for a TD and dashed comeback hopes.

The most anticipated game of the season lived up to its billing in the first half. Lehigh LB Heath Brickner intercepted Lafayette QB Marc Quilling at the LC 48-yard line. The Leopards stopped the Mountain Hawks' drive on the 22-yard line, forcing a field goal on fourth and four. Jason Leo converted the 40-yarder, and Lehigh led 3-0.

Lehigh strutted out to a 10-0 midway through the first quarter following a Jason Leo field goal and a 29-yard TD pass from J.B. Clark to Mike Fitzgerald.

Lafayette responded when Shaun Adair juked his way through 62 yards to score LC's first TD of the game and trailed 10-7, at 5:34 remaining.

A safety inched Lafayette within one point of Lehigh's lead. Russo barreled down the field to the 18-yd. line on a 33-yard completion from Quilling. The play set up Davis Rodriguez's 34-yard FG. Lafayette led, 12-10, with 9:50 remaining in the half.

Lehigh responded with a six-play, 85-yard drive capped off by Nick Johnson's 14-yard touchdown reception. The Brown and White regained the lead, 17-12, at the half.

Curley entered the game for Lafayette's first possession of the second half, leading a 15-play, 71-yard drive that culminated in a 22-yard field goal. DeAndre' Morrow picked up 44 yards on the drive.

Lehigh capitalized three possessions later after taking over at the Leopards' 39-yard line. On third and four, Clark connected with Sekou Yansane on the one-yard line off of a 36-yard pass. Adam Watson broke through the end zone with 7:11 remaining to give Lehigh a 24-15 advantage.

Less than three minutes later, Kennedy came up with the interception that secured the win.

LEHIGH

- lehigh is in the midst of its second straight losing season, checking in at 3-7 overall. The Mountain Hawks have played solid football in their last four games, holding a 2-2 mark in those contests with losses to nationally-ranked Holy Cross (24-20) and Colgate (27-20) and wins over Bucknell (35-16) and most recently Fordham (35-28).

- Head coach Andy Coen has used two quarterbacks in 2009. Junior JB Clark, the 2008 Lafayette-lehigh game MVP, has started seven of the nine games in which he has played, completing 109-of-222 for 1,254 yards with 11 touchdowns and nine interceptions. Soph. Chris Lum is 52-of-107 for 564 yards, five TD's and 5 INT's.

- The lehigh offense is averaging 136 yards per game on the ground, led by junior TB Jay Campbell, the team's starter for eight games. Campbell has gained 624 yards with just one negative rushing play, but has not scored a touchdown. Classmate Jaren Walker has three TD's.

- Three players carry the bulk of the defensive load. Senior LB Matt Cohen was an All-Patriot League First-Team honoree in 2008. This season, he has 58 tackles while also blitzing his way to nine sacks and 13.5 tackles for loss. Fellow senior LB Troy Taylor is tied with Cohen for the team lead in tackles and was the Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week this week, following an 11-tackle effort vs. Fordham. Senior SS Jesse Sanchez has 56 tackles with an interception and a forced fumble.

give Lafayette a 27-21 lead at the half, and nailed all six of his extra point attempts. Rodriguez won the award for the second time in the past three weeks and third time this season. The junior is 8-of-16 on field goals with a long of 42 in 2009 against Fordham and he has made 34-of-37 PAT's. For his career, he is 29-of-44 with a career long of 47 yards and has made 97-of-103 PAT's. Academically, Rodriguez is a Government and Law major. He is enrolled in four courses this semester: African Cultural Institutions, Early American Political Thought, Introduction to Psychology with a lab, and Religion, Myth & Fantasy.

T.O.P. FOR LC: Time of possession has been a key element in the Leopards' success this season (well, for most of the season at least). The Lafayette offense has held the ball an average of 33:04 in each game, leaving just 26:56 for opponents. The Leopards are seventh in the nation, but just second in the Patriot League behind Colgate (36:06). Colgate dominated the Leopards, holding the ball 16 more minutes, just the second time Lafayette has seen a deficit in T.O.P. (Liberty).

MONEY PLAY$ FROM MONEY PLAYER$: Money plays are defined as those resulting in first downs or touchdowns. Maurice White leads Lafayette rushers with 35 (28-1st, 7 TD) money plays. On the receiving side, Mark Layton has 37 (33-1st, 11 TD) and Mitchell Bennett is close behind with 29 (27-1st, 3 TD).

CURLEY -- PLAYER OF THE WEEK X3: Prior to last week's selection as National and Patriot League Player of the Week, senior QB Rob Curley had earned two Patriot League Player of the Week honors. His near flawless effort vs. Bucknell led to Patriot League and ECAC Offensive Player of the Week selections. In a 35-14 win, Curley completed 30-of-35 passes for 333 yards with three TD's with no interceptions or sacks. The completions, attempts and yardage marks were all career highs at the time and it was the first time since Nov. 1, 2006 (Marko Glavic 33 vs. Colgate) that a Lafayette QB completed 30 or more passes. Curley threw all three of his TD's in the second half as Lafayette scored on its first four possessions to break open a game that was tied 7-7 at the break. Curley's quarterback rating was 242.9 for the game, and the performance came one week after he set a career high with 305 passing yards against Fordham. It was his second career Offensive Player of the Week award. Curley is a History major who is enrolled in three classes this semester: Deviance (A&S), Politics & Arts: 1919-45 and Intro to World Music Traditions.

HISTORIC (AND DUSTY): Lafayette's trip to Fitton Field completes a slate of regular-season games at some of the oldest football venues in the country. Fitton Field was opened in 1903, the same year that Harvard Stadium debuted. The Leopards are 6-5 all-time at Fitton Field. This season, the Leopards won at the Yale Bowl (built in 1914), their first-ever win over the Elis. They also claimed a victory at Harvard Stadium, which along with the Yale Bowl and the Rose Bowl are the only football venues which have the distinction of being national historic landmarks. Penn's Franklin Field opened in 1895 and is the oldest venue in the country.

IT FEELS SO NATURAL: In 2009, Lafayette is playing three games on natural turf (including its final two). At Yale, Lafayette played on grass for the first time since Nov. 18, 2007, a 21-17 win at Lehigh's Goodman Stadium.

THE TURNOVER BATTLE: On the season, Lafayette has turned it over 13 times (15th fewest in the nation) while forcing 16 turnovers (76th in the nation). The Leopards have fumbled it away just three times this season, and luckily for Lafayette, three of the 10 interceptions given up were in the same game (Columbia). Lafayette led the nation in fewest turnovers per game in 2008, handing it over just 11 times in 11 games, down from 27 in 2007.

Turnovers were the key to Lafayette jumping out to a fast start at Harvard. On the first play of the Crimson's initial drive, Carlos Lowe forced a fumble that Eric McGovern recovered. Michael Schmidlein also made his first career interception later in the quarter and the Leopards scored on both opportunities.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM IN THE PATRIOT LEAGUE: Since 2004, Lafayette is 44-24 and 26-9 in Patriot League play. Lafayette stands as the only Patriot League program to record a winning record in each of the last six regular seasons (2004-09) while also holding a Top 25 national ranking each year.

1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005, 2006 PATRIOT LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

WHEN IT'S TIME TO SCORE: With an 8-2 record, it's not surprising that for the season, Lafayette has outscored its opponents in every quarter. The Leopards hold a large edge in the first quarter (71-42), have outscored opponents 81-64 in the second quarter, hold a slight 64-45 margin in the third and a 75-53 clip in the fourth. In last year's matchup with Iehigh, the Mountain Hawks outscored Lafayette 14-3 in the fourth quarter.

THIRD AND "I DON'T THINK SO": Lafayette's third-down defense was stellar in the last three games of October. Against Bucknell, the Bison converted just 5-of-15 (33%) third downs. Versus Fordham, the Rams converted 6-of-16 (28%) on third down. The Lafayette defense stopped Harvard 14-of-16 times on third down. For the season, Lafayette is 62nd in the nation in defending the third down, surrendering first downs just 37 percent of the time.

IVY ITINERARY: For the first time in program history, Lafayette went 4-0 against Ivy League opponents. The previous best record against Ancient Eight foes was 3-0, accomplished most recently in 1982. This season, Lafayette beat Yale, Penn, Columbia and Harvard. All four victories extended or snapped significant streaks. The Leopards have won three and eight straight over Penn and Columbia, respectively. Meanwhile, the victory over Yale was the first in program history in eight tries, and the win at Harvard marked the first Lafayette triumph since 1996, snapping an eight-game skid. Harvard and Penn were picked to finished No. 1 and No. 2 in the Ivy league preseason poll and both have either been ranked or are currently receiving votes in the Top 25 polls. The Columbia squad featured 26 seniors.

LAFAYETTE vs. THE PATRIOT LEAGUE: The Leopards have played 348 games all-time against the six fellow members of the Patriot League, and are 180-153-16 (.539) in those contests. Since the Patriot League began play in 1986, Lafayette is 75-54-1 (.583) vs. member schools and has won league titles in 1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005 and 2006. Lafayette vs. the Patriot League:

Bucknell: 49-32-6 Fordham: 20-7-1 Holy Cross: 14-10-0
 Colgate: 11-38-4 Georgetown: 10-3-0 Iehigh: 76-63-5

NATIONAL D RANKINGS: Lafayette's defense is 36th in the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 20.4 ppg. Lafayette is also 19th in rushing defense (108.3 ypg), 52nd in total defense (334.5 ypg) and 75th in pass efficiency defense (126.1 ypg).

11 TIMES SIX FOR 8: Junior WR Mark Layton has 11 touchdown catches this season, a mark that places him second all-time at Lafayette for TD catches in a season. He is tied with Jamal Jordan who had 11 in 1992. Phil Ng holds the record with 13 in 1988.

Layton is in the midst of a breakout season. The Sanford, Fla. native, who made 17 catches for 194 yards all of last season, has much more substantial numbers in 2009 with 59 catches (fifth in Lafayette's single-season bests) for 740 yards through with the first 11 touchdowns of his career. Layton is averaging 5.9 catches and 74.0 yards per game. Layton had two TD's vs. Colgate and a career-high nine catches vs. Bucknell.

47 AND 49 IN THE 4-3: In the Leopards' 4-3 defense, the linebackers are going to make the bulk of the tackles. Junior Michael Schmidlein and senior Mark Leggiero are leading the team in tackles with 10.3 and 8.6 tackles per game, respectively. Schmidlein is 17th in the nation and first in the Patriot League in tackles per game while Leggiero is 52nd in the nation. Both players had five tackles against Holy Cross when an absurd 16 assisted tackles were given out between the two teams.

BENNETT BRINGING IT: Sophomore WR Mitchell Bennett is enjoying a breakout season for the Leopards. Bennett has 38 catches for 560 yards and three touchdowns and is also the Leopards' top blocking wideout. He had TD catches vs. Penn and Columbia. Against Fordham, Bennett reeled in six catches for a 93 yards, both career highs. He was good for five catches for 74 yards at Holy Cross.

SPECIAL TEAMS STANDOUT: Junior K Davis Rodriguez was named the Patriot League Football Special Teams Player of the Week on Oct. 26. Rodriguez made a pair of field goals late in the second quarter vs. Fordham (10/24) and connected on each of his extra-point tries in Lafayette's 26-21 victory. Rodriguez hit from 21 yards out and then nailed his longest field goal of the season, a 42-yarder, to give Lafayette a 13-7 lead just three seconds before halftime. It was his second Special Teams award of the season.

I'LL TAKE WHITE FOR 100 PLEASE...: Senior TB Maurice White churned out 131 yards on 21 carries at Yale and 24 carries for 107 yards vs. Fordham, the only times this season that a Lafayette player has rushed for 100+ yards and the fourth and fifth times in White's career. Lafayette has four players on its roster who have rushed for 100-plus yards in a game: Tyrell Coon, DeAndre' Morrow, Jerome Rudolph and White. The number is third only to Appalachian State, which has six, and Sacramento State which has five.

D-LINE: There is no doubt that the Leopards' defensive line is one of the most talented groups defensive coordinator John Loose has assembled in his 10 years on college hill. Seniors Andrew Poulson (46 tackles, 3 sacks, 7.0 TFL) and Ian Dell (41 tackles, 5.5 sacks, 10.0 TFL) return to the starting lineup at tackle and fellow senior Allan Whitesell (26 tackles, 0.5 sacks, 2.0 TFL), who played in 10 games with four starts in 2008, is playing one of the defensive end spots. Poulson made a career-high 12 tackles vs. Colgate while Dell had 10. At the other end is junior Doug Gerowski (21 tackles, 1 sack, 2.0 TFL), who had a career-best five tackles vs. Harvard and Columbia.

Junior Michael Phillips (20 tackles, 1 sack, 2.5 TFL) made the most of his snaps on the defensive line in the season opener at Georgetown. He forced a pair of fumbles and recovered another. As a group in 2009, the defensive line has forced six fumbles with Dell causing three.

LEGGIERO'S BACKING IT UP: The Patriot League Preseason Defensive Player of the Year, Mark Leggiro, claimed his first-ever Patriot League weekly honor on Oct. 5. The senior made a game-high 12 tackles, including nine solo stops, in Lafayette's 31-14 win at Yale. The Leopards held Yale to 58 rushing and 214 passing yards, 140 of which came in the fourth quarter after Lafayette had built a 17-point lead. Leggiro was Lafayette's second straight Defensive Player of the Week winner. He finished the 2008 season with 93 tackles, two sacks and an interception on his way to All-Patriot League First-Team honors. As a sophomore in 2007, he was second on the team with 77 tackles and three sacks and was an All-Patriot League Second-Team honoree. In 2006, he was the program's rookie of the year, playing in all 12 games on special teams and as the top backup at linebacker.

Academically, Leggiro is an Engineering major who is a Patriot League Academic Honor Roll selection. This semester, Leggiro is enrolled in three classes: Architectural Design & Theory, Civil Engineering Project Management with lab and Political Sociology. Leggiro maintains a 3.2 GPA and posted a 3.3 in the 2009 spring semester.

A SIX-PACK OF SACK: A key to Lafayette's win at Yale was pressure on the quarterback. The Lafayette defense sacked two different Yale quarterbacks six times, thanks to two apiece from Andrew Poulson and Ian Dell and one each from

IN THE RED ZONE: Lafayette has both excelled and struggled in the red zone this season. The Leopards' defense is 56th in the country, allowing opponents to score 21 of the 27 times (78%) they have allowed an opponent inside the 20-yard line. By contrast, the Lafayette offense has scored on 37-of-43 (86%) red-zone opportunities, ranking 15th in the nation.

AND WE GO...TO OVERTIME: Lafayette found success in overtime against Penn (9/26), beating the Quakers with Davis Rodriguez's 28-yard field goal. It was the Leopards' first overtime game since Sept. 8, 2001, when Lafayette lost to former Patriot League member Towson 16-13. Lafayette is now 2-4 all-time in overtime, winning the first overtime affair in 1995 over Fordham (24-21 on 11/11/95) but losing the next four (11/18/95 at Lehigh - 37-30; 10/18/97 at Cornell - 41-34; 10/3/98 at Dartmouth - 13-10; 9/8/01 at Towson - 16-13) before the win vs. Penn.

P.L. PLAUDITS POST PENN: Junior K Davis Rodriguez and junior LB Michael Schmidlein earned Patriot League weekly football honors (9/28) following Lafayette's 20-17 overtime win vs. Penn. Rodriguez nailed the game-winning field goal in overtime and was named Special Teams Player of the Week while his classmate, Schmidlein, made a game- and career-high 16 tackles en route to Defensive Player of the Week laurels.

Rodriguez hit 2-of-3 field goals, including the game winner from 28 yards out in overtime. Rodriguez also connected on both of his PATs, as he scored eight points on the evening. He had previously kicked the game winner against Penn in an 8-7 triumph in 2007. Rodriguez earned his first Special Teams Player of the Week award this season and third of his career.

Schmidlein made 16 tackles to help Lafayette limit Penn to just 17 points in the 20-17 overtime victory, the Leopards' third straight over the Quakers. He also recorded a tackle for loss and pass breakup as the Leopards held Penn to just 2-of-13 on third-down conversions. He earned his first conference Defensive Player of the Week award.

Rodriguez and Schmidlein both were Patriot League Academic Honor Roll selections in 2008, earning varsity letters while maintaining a minimum of a 3.2 GPA in the fall semester. The duo also surpassed the 3.0 GPA threshold in the spring semester. An Economics and Business major, Schmidlein is taking Economics of Health Care, Intro to Finance, Economics of Sport and Intro to Sociology this fall semester.

TAILBACK BY COMMITTEE: The offensive coaching staff led by coordinator Mickey Fein and under the watchful eye of former tailback and current head coach Frank Tavani is faced with a problem of selecting a tailback from a talented group of four. The quartet includes three seniors in Maurice White, DeAndre' Morrow and Tyrell Coon and sophomore Jerome Rudolph. None of the seniors has been able to maintain his health for an entire season which has opened up opportunities for the other tailbacks and eventually Rudolph as a freshman.

White is a powerful runner who was No. 1 on the depth chart in 2007 and 2008 and led the Leopards in rushing last season with 80 carries, 469 yards and 2 TD's. White's top performance of the season came at Yale when he had 131 yards on 21 carries with one touchdown. White leads the team in carries and yards in 2009.

Coon is the biggest of the backs and is a slasher who led the team in carries (108) and ended 2008 with 454 yards and two TD's. Coon had the most carries against Penn, with 15 touches for 40 yards.

Morrow is a shifty back with soft hands who had 58 carries for 336 yards and two touchdowns in 2008. He had eight carries for 61 yards at Georgetown to go along with four catches for 60 yards and a touchdown catch. Morrow has been also earning his keep on the receiving end, catching 21 passes for 217 yards and one TD. He had his best game of the season at Harvard, leading the team in rushing (85 yards with two TD's) and receiving (four catches for 54 yards).

Rudolph and Morrow are the speediest members of the group. Rudolph carried for 199 yards on 35 carries and a pair of scores last year. His red and black cleats reached the end zone at Georgetown on a 48-yard scamper around the end. Rudolph had 247 all-purpose yards (30 run, 80 receiving, 137 on kick returns) against Colgate.

ABOUT THE OFFENSE: Lafayette has used multiple offensive formations in 2009, often choosing to employ three wide receivers and at other times two tailbacks with a pair of wide receivers, with one of the tailbacks in a role as a pass catcher. Lafayette has not completely abandoned the I formation, often going to a power I. The Lafayette offense has been far from predictable, choosing to pass out of the I as often as it does from other formations. The Leopards also introduced the Wildcat formation briefly at Harvard. Lafayette has run the ball 52 percent of the time and passed 48 percent of the time.

UP AND DOWN ON THE GROUND: The Leopard rushing attack pounded out 205 yards on the ground vs. Georgetown, but managed 70 yards vs. No. 24 Liberty. Lafayette had 91 yards vs. Penn's defense, but bounced back with 155 yards at Yale. Lafayette had 118 rushing yards vs. Columbia, 128 at Harvard and 134 vs. Fordham. Lafayette had 142 yards on the ground against Bucknell and had 102 yards vs. Colgate. The Leopards ran for 100 yards at Holy Cross.

DEFENSE VS. GEORGETOWN: A combination of a very strong Lafayette defense and a sputtering Georgetown (9/12) offense resulted in the Leopards shutting down the Hoyas' offensive attack. Lafayette allowed just 19 rushing yards and 194 passing yards, 81 of which came in the fourth quarter when the game was out of reach.

A NOCTURNAL VENTURE: The Georgetown game (9/12) marked the first home night game in Georgetown history. Making history at night is not a new feat for Leopard football as Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson played in the first indoor night college football game on Oct. 25, 1930. A crowd of 17,000 witnessed the game at the Atlantic City Auditorium. Lafayette played four night games this season.

STANDING OUT IN THE CLASSROOM: Under head coach Frank Tavani, Lafayette football players have excelled as student-athletes. Twenty-four have earned CoSIDA Academic All-District selections and 39 have earned the distinction since 1995. In 2008, Lafayette had 18 student-athletes qualify for the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll for which they must achieve a minimum of a 3.2

GPA and earn a varsity letter. Lafayette has also claimed four of the last eight Patriot League Scholar Athletes of the Year.

PRESEASON POLL: Lafayette was picked third in the Patriot League Preseason Poll of conference head coaches and sports information directors. In 2008, Lafayette was selected to finish fourth and that's where the team ended. This season, Holy Cross was in the top spot followed by Colgate, Lafayette and Lehigh tied for third, Fordham, Bucknell and Georgetown. The last time the preseason pick won the title outright was 2001 (Lehigh).

LINE 'EM UP: While depth could be an issue on the offensive line moving along in the season, the front five is made up of four players who have had starting experience. Team captain and left tackle Ryan Hart-Predmore is in his second season at left tackle and third as a starter. The team captain earned All-Patriot League Second-Team laurels in 2008. He will be lined up next to left guard Brian Wycinowski who started 11 games as a junior. Another "W" returns to the starting lineup at the center spot in Mike Wojcik. Wojcik started 19 games the last two seasons.

The young bucks in the group are sophomore Scott Biel at right guard and classmate Anthony Buffolino. Biel earned the Offensive Scout Team MVP award in 2008 and played his way into a starting position. Two games into the season, Buffolino took over for fifth-year senior Joe Moore who had several injuries and has not played since. Moore sat out 2008 with an ACL injury after starting the final four contests of 2007 at right tackle.

The offensive line is under the tutelage of first-year assistant coach Stan Clayton who boasts nearly 15 years of coaching experience at Toledo and Princeton among other institutions. As a player, Clayton was a member of Penn State's 1986 national championship team and went on to play four seasons in the NFL.

ALL-PATRIOT LEAGUE RETURNERS: Lafayette placed 10 players on the All-Patriot League first and second teams in 2008, but just three of them return in 2009: senior LB Mark Leggiero, junior PK Davis Rodriguez and senior OL Ryan Hart-Predmore.

ABOUT THE KICKER: Junior PK Davis Rodriguez was one of just five underclassmen on any Patriot League squad to earn all-league honors. Rodriguez was 13-of-15 on field goal attempts in 2008 and was 4-of-5 on kicks of 40 to 49 yards, including a career-long kick of 47 yards at Colgate. He also converted 32-of-33 PATs and at one point had made 48 straight PATs. Rodriguez is 97-of-104 for his career (94%) on PATs and 29-of-44 on field-goal tries (66%).

The St. Petersburg, Fla. native earned Sports Network 2009 Preseason All-America Second-Team honors after an All-Patriot League Second-Team selection in 2008.

ABOUT THE DEFENSE: Anyone who has been around the Lafayette football program in recent seasons knows that the Leopards' defense has been the team's strength under defensive coordinator John Loose who is in his 10th season on College Hill. Lafayette finished eighth in the nation in scoring defense in 2008, allowing 17.5 points per game, including four games where it surrendered fewer than two TD's. The Leopards were 10th in the nation in rushing defense (92.2 ypg), 20th in total defense (300 ypg) and 36th in pass efficiency defense (115.9 ypg).

Lafayette boasted the No. 1 ranked defense in the nation in 2007, allowing just 260.1 yards of total offense per game (first in the nation), 84.9 yards on the ground (fourth in the nation), 16.9 points per game (eighth in the nation) and a pass efficiency defense rating of 108.3 (15th in the nation). Lafayette's 2009 defensive production follows...

Holy Cross	79	348	427	28
AVERAGES	108.3	226.2	334.5	20.4

WHO'S THE BACKUP: Sophomore Ryan O'Neil is the backup QB with junior Marc Quilling, who missed most of preseason with a back injury, close behind. Quilling was 45-for-76 for 555 yards with four touchdowns and one interception in 2008. Quilling started the final three games of the season. O'Neil has played in two games in 2009 and is 4-of-8.

WHO'S CATCHING THE THING?: With the graduation of the Leopards' top two receivers from 2008, including a career top-5 pass catcher in Shaun Adair, the Leopards are looking to a young group to pick up the slack. Lafayette has moved to a rotation of five players. Sophomores Mitchell Bennett and Greg Stripe are 1 and 1A on one side of the field while junior Mark Layton is the other starter. Junior Nathan Padia and sophomore Kyle Hayes also vie for catches.

THE PUNTER: For the second straight year, the punting work is being done by Tom Kondash. In 2008, the junior punted 57 times for 2,149 yards and 37.7 yards per kick. He landed 22 kicks inside the opponents' 20-yard line with just one touchback and boomed a career-best 79-yard punt vs. Holy Cross.

In 2009, Kondash has booted 11 punts inside the 20 and has three kicks of 50-plus yards. Lafayette is 62nd in the nation in punting (32.9 ypk).

200+ RUSHING GAMES: When Maurice White ran for 212 yards in the 2008 season opener vs. Marist, it was the first time in nearly six seasons that a Lafayette ballcarrier eclipsed the 200-yard rushing mark in a single game. For White, it was the first time in his career (high school or college) that he managed the feat and it placed him in some elite company. Since 1990, there have been nine 200-yard performances for the Leopards, six of which were the work of Maroon Club Hall of Fame honoree Erik Marsh '95.

I SEE A RED JERSEY AND I WANT TO PAINT IT BLACK:

The Leopards' perfect mark in black jerseys came to an end in 2008 with a one-point loss to Holy Cross on Nov. 15 and a setback vs. Lehigh (black pants and jerseys). Lafayette is now 4-2 in the black jerseys. They wore black to beat Lehigh in 2004 and again in 2006 to win Patriot League titles. Fordham was also victim to the black jerseys in 2005. The only other time they've paired black jerseys with black pants was in a driving rain storm with standing water on the old Fisher Field grass surface against Columbia in 2005, a 14-7 victory. The Leopards pulled out the black pants against Holy Cross in week 10 in 2007 and continued their winning streak by beating the Crusaders 31-21. Lafayette has not worn its black jerseys or pants in 2009.

PATRIOT LEAGUE TITLES: Lafayette won three straight Patriot League titles in 2004, 2005 and 2006. The Leopards begrudgingly shared the title with Lehigh in 2004 and 2006, and with Colgate in 2005. The championships also led to three straight NCAA Playoff appearances, making Lafayette one of six teams in the country to appear in the 16-team field in three straight years. The Leopards have won six PL championships in the 24-year history of the league (1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005, 2006).

IN THE NFL RANKS: Blake Costanzo '06 is currently on the Cleveland Browns' 53-man roster. Costanzo, who now wears No. 54 for the Browns, played the last two seasons with the Buffalo Bills and was the team's special teams MVP in 2008 before being released. In the off-season, his contract was picked up by Cleveland. He is the lone Patriot League representative currently on an active NFL roster. In a matchup between his current and former teams on Oct. 11, Costanzo recovered a punt on special teams that set up the game-winning score and also made two tackles.

HISTORIC FISHER STADIUM: Fisher Stadium has hosted the College's home football games since 1926. The facility underwent a $33 million transformation that gave Lafayette one of the premier FCS football venues in the nation. New spectator seating was built, including chairback seating in select areas, and additional visitors' seating was added for a maximum capacity of 13,132 fans. A state-of-the-art in-fill synthetic surface, lights, a press box and a 19-by-35 foot video board were installed, and improved restroom and vending areas were also included. The Bourger Varsity Football House includes a locker room, offices and team meeting rooms, as well as sports medicine and strength and conditioning areas. Now in its 82nd season, Fisher Stadium has been host to 409 Lafayette football games with the Leopards enjoying an overall record of 244-152-13 for a winning percentage of .610. Of the previous 81 seasons, Lafayette has produced 12 undefeated home seasons with the most recent being the 1992 Patriot League champion Leopards who went 5-0 – the first undefeated home season for Lafayette at Fisher Stadium since 1970. During the 1991, 1992 and 1993 seasons, Lafayette won 10 straight home games—tying the Fisher Stadium school record for consecutive wins first set 1926 and 1927 in the first 10 games ever played in the stadium.

LAFAYETTE FOOTBALL IN ITS 128th SEASON: Since fielding its first college football team in the fall of 1882 (the same year that dirty little coward Robert Ford shot Jesse James and that Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture debuted), Lafayette has had a proud, colorful gridiron tradition on the way to a total of 648 victories (648-542-39). Lafayette ranked 33rd among all college football teams in all-time wins entering the 2009 season, posting its first win in 1883 (25-0 vs. Rutgers). Lafayette accumulated 100 victories by 1900, 200 by 1915 and 300 by 1934.

LAFAYETTE'S FOOTBALL INVENTORS: Two primary elements of the game of football -- the helmet and the huddle -- were invented by former members of the Lafayette football program. George "Rose" Barclay from the Class of 1898, one of Lafayette's all-time great running backs, invented the helmet when the "threat of cultivating cauliflower ears" led him to piece three thick leather straps around his head for the 1896 game against Penn. Former Lafayette coach Herb McCracken (1924-35; 59-40-6) devised the first huddle system during the 1924 season after learning the Pennsylvania football team had stolen Lafayette's signals. Lafayette became the first team to huddle before each play and this system was immediately adopted by other teams.

LAFAYETTE SPORTS NETWORK TO TELEVISION ENTIRE SEASON: The Lafayette Sports Network, the national leader in Division I FCS television coverage, will televise all 11 regular-season Lafayette football games for the seventh straight year. Now in its 13th year, LSN has become a staple for Leopard fans both regionally and across the country. LSN's traditional live distribution to more than 10 million homes on RCN-4 and WBPH-60 covering all of Eastern Pennsylvania will be enhanced this season by live coverage on all of RCN's cable systems in major markets along the East coast. RCN subscribers in Boston (226,000), New York City (250,000), Philadelphia (382,000) and Washington, D.C. (131,000) will be able to watch all 11 Lafayette games on RCN-8.

Nationally, LSN telecasts will be picked up for the ninth straight year by DIRECTV and DISH Network outlets, available to more than 90 million viewers via the Mid Atlantic Sports Network (MASN). MASN, which is available regionally and nationally on DIRECTV channel 640 and DISH Network channel 432, is the official television home of the Baltimore Orioles, Washington Nationals and Baltimore Ravens and reaches nearly 6 million homes in a seven-state region from Harrisburg, Pa. to Charlotte, N.C. Each LSN football telecast will air tape-delay on MASN on the Tuesday following each contest. A complete broadcast schedule follows.

Gary Laubach handles all of the Leopards' play-by-play duties for the 13th straight season and is joined by analyst John Leone for the 12th straight year. In his ninth year as a member of the broadcast team is Dan Mowdy, who reports on the Leopards from the sidelines.

LAFAYETTE ON THE RADIO: The Lafayette Sports Network entered into an agreement with WAEB-AM 790 and WGPA AM-1100 to broadcast the 2009 Lafayette football season. The deal places Lafayette on the top two rated AM stations in the Lehigh Valley. See a complete broadcast schedule above.

Veteran broadcaster Dick Hammer is in his 43rd season as the Leopards' play-by-play man and will be joined in the booth at home by former Leopard greats Mike Joseph '88 and Phil Ng '88 on a rotating basis, and on the road by Lafayette SID Phil LaBella.

A HISTORY OF NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS: The Lafayette football program has claimed three national championships -- 1896, 1921 and 1926 -- and recorded five undefeated seasons -- 1896 (11-0-1), 1921 (9-0-0), 1926 (9-0-0), 1937 (8-0-0) and 1940 (9-0-0). Of recent note, the Leopards have won six Patriot League championships -- 1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005 and 2006 -- and made their first three appearances in the NCAA FCS Playoffs.

INSIDE LAFAYETTE FOOTBALL: Inside Lafayette Football can be seen every Thursday evening at 5:30 p.m. throughout the season as well as 30 minutes prior to kickoff of all Lafayette contests. Laubach will sit down with head coach Frank Tavani, as well as select student-athletes, to discuss the Lafayette football program.

LAFAYETTE SPORTS NETWORK ALL-ACCESS: Each LSN telecast is available live through LSN All-Access, which streams the game worldwide to any high-speed internet connection. In all, more than 60 Lafayette athletic contests, as well as Inside Lafayette Football, are scheduled to be broadcast through Lafayette All-Access this year for a rate of $9.95 per month and $79.95 for the entire year.

Georgetown..... 3

WASHINGTON, D.C. (9/12/09) - Lafayette opened the 2009 season with a 28-3 win over Georgetown. In the first home night game in Georgetown history, it was Lafayette that showed glimpses of brilliance under the lights of Multi-Sport Field. QB Rob Curley finished the night 20-of-34 for a career-best 259 yards and three touchdowns while Mark Layton reeled in seven catches for 107 yards and two scores.

It was the running game that put the Leopards on the scoreboard first. With 6:44 left in the opening quarter, Jerome Rudolph ripped off a 48-yard touchdown run around the end to cap a short drive of five plays and 79 yards.

Curley and Layton connected for the Leopards' next two scores in the second quarter, as Lafayette maintained the momentum. Their eight-yard scoring connection and Davis Rodriguez's PAT gave Lafayette a 14-0 lead. The lengthy drive covered 55 yards on 11 plays over seven and a half minutes.

The Lafayette defense forced a three-and-out on Georgetown's next possession, and Lafayette took the ball back on its own 44-yard line. Curley hit Layton for a 46-yard score and a 21-0 lead at halftime.

The defense did more than its part in the first half, allowing just one Georgetown first down (on a penalty) and 35 yards of total offense. The Leopards' offense ran off 44 plays for 296 yards in the first 30 minutes.

Georgetown opened the second half with its only scoring drive of a game. The Hoyas covered 40 yards in nine plays, ending with a 33-yard field goal by Jose-Pablo Buerba.

The Leopards put the game out of reach later in the third quarter. DeAndre' Morrow collected a short throw from Curley. The shifty senior made a quick move, forcing two defenders to collide while allowing Morrow to break away for a 38-yard touchdown.

Mark Leggiere led the Leopard defense with seven tackles while Mike Phillips forced two fumbles and recovered another. Mike Schmidlein also forced a fumble.

No.24 Liberty..... 19
Lafayette..... 13

EASTON, Pa. (9/19/09) - A second-half comeback came up short vs. No. 24 Liberty. Lafayette surrendered 16 first-half points in the 19-13 final.

Lafayette's slow start resulted in four first downs and 100 yards of offense in the first half, while Liberty ran off 13 first downs and 211 yards.

The Flames' offense drove 60 yards on 12 plays to open the game. Lafayette forced a 4th-and-goal on the drive, but QB Mike Brown broke through on a one-yard touchdown run.

Near the end of the first quarter, Lafayette was driving the ball. Mitchell Bennett made a leaping first-down grab on the first play of the drive. Rob Curley later added a 34-yard strike to Greg Stripe, but Lafayette settled for a 23-yard missed FG.

Liberty added two scores late in the first half. With 2:01 left, Brown found Chris Summers (14 rec., 138 yds.) for a 29-yard TD. Mike Grimaldi blocked the PAT with the score at 13-0. The second score was a 26-yard FG to end the half.

On their first possession of the third quarter, Bennett made another sparkling catch to put the Leopards on Liberty's 18-yard line. Lafayette found the end zone when Maurice White pushed through for a four-yard score. Davis Rodriguez's PAT made it a two-possession game (16-7).

On the Leopards' next drive, Layton made a 37-yard grab, but two pass attempts later, Curley was intercepted on a pass tipped by Kyle Hayes.

Lafayette's defense held strong and forced Liberty to go for a 27-yard field goal. Ian Dell blocked the kick.

After picking up a lone first down, Lafayette was forced to punt. On Liberty's drive, Bevins redeemed himself with a 37-yd FG that gave Liberty its first points of the half and a 19-7 edge.

Lafayette took little time to respond. The offense marched down the field and the QB found Layton for another big catch, a 37-yard TD strike.

Lafayette's onside kick was recovered by the skilled Brown. Under center, Brown helped Liberty pick up two first downs and run out the clock.

Lafayette LB Mark Leggiere and Michael Schmidlein had standout individual performances, registering 15 and 14 tackles.

Penn..... 17

EASTON, Pa. (9/26/09) - Davis Rodriguez nailed a 28-yard FG in overtime to clinch a 20-17 win over Penn, the third straight victory over the Quakers. In its first overtime game since 2001, Lafayette won the toss and chose to go on defense first. Lafayette forced a 32-yard field goal attempt by Andrew Samson that missed wide left.

When Lafayette took over, Tyrell Coon rushed for seven yards on 2nd-and-4 to move the ball to the 13-yard line. Lafayette picked up three more yards and Rodriguez was forced to kick his 28-yard game-winning FG in a steady rainfall.

QB Rob Curley went 18-for-27 for 208 yards and two TDs before leaving the game with an injury in the third quarter. Curley did his damage in the first quarter with a 19-yard TD toss to Mark Layton.

Lafayette scored on its ensuing possession. Curley found Mitchell Bennett alone in the end zone to punctuate a 74-yard drive with the 21-yard scoring catch as Lafayette led 14-0.

Samson missed a 47-yarder with six minutes left in the half. Lafayette got the ball back and closed out a 62-yard drive with a 29-yard FG that gave Lafayette a 17-0 lead with 1:05 left in the half. Samson broke up the shutout with a 40-yarder with five seconds left in the half.

Penn tied the game at 5:22 in the third quarter. Kyle Olson found Bradford Blackmon in the end-zone for a 21-yard score.

TB Jerome Rudolph responded with a 44-yard kick-off return to put the Leopards at their own 46. On 3rd-and-4, Curley kept the ball and rushed for the first down, his last play of the game. Soph. Ryan O'Neill finished the game.

The game remained tied 17-17 with fewer than six minutes to play. Penn fumbled and Eric McGovern recovered. O'Neill moved the Leopards to the 20-yard line by the 2:32 mark. Rodriguez attempted a 37-yard FG, but it was inches left of the goalpost and the game went to OT.

The Lafayette defense was led by a 16-tackle effort from Michael Schmidlein and 11 tackles from Carlos Lowe.

Lafayette 31
 Yale 14

WEST HAVEN, Conn. (10/3/09) - Lafayette turned a three-point halftime lead into a 31-14 win over Yale. Rob Curley threw for 241 yards and two TD's, both to Mark Layton, and Maurice White ran for 131 yards and a touchdown.

The series victory, the first ever vs. Yale, had an inauspicious start, as the Leopards fumbled the opening kick to set up a Yale score. Pat Witt hit Peter Balsam for the 7-0 lead.

Lafayette cut into Yale's only lead of the game with 10:13 left in the half. The Leopards drove 83 yards on 18 plays over seven minutes before adding a 31-yard FG by Davis Rodriguez.

The Leopards had a chance for another score late in the half, getting the ball back with 2:30. Curley hit Layton with strikes of 15, 46 and 17 yards to quickly move the ball down the field, the final connection resulting in the Leopards' first touchdown and a 10-7 halftime lead. Layton finished with seven catches for 116 yards.

Curley completed 20-of-28 passes a week after suffering a mild concussion vs. Penn.

Lafayette controlled the second half. Yale received the kickoff, but the Leopards, who held Yale to 272 total yards and just 58 on the ground, stopped Yale on 4th-and-1 at the Lafayette 36-yard line. Doug Gerowski made the key stop.

The Leopard offense produce a balanced drive on the subsequent possession, using four passes and four rushes to up the lead to 17-7. Greg Stripe scored on a six-yard run.

Lafayette threatened to put away the game at the end of the third quarter. A 17-yard pass from Curley to Michael Bolton and five rushes by White put the Leopards 3rd-and-goal at the Yale four-yard line. Curley hit Layton for a TD strike just three seconds into the fourth quarter.

Lafayette squelched any Yale thoughts of a comeback by quickly scoring again. The Leopards started at the Yale 40 and White runs of 21, 13 and finally six yards put the final at 31-14.

Lafayette's defense sacked Yale six times, two apiece from Ian Dell and Andrew Poulson.

Lafayette 24
 Columbia 21

EASTON, Pa. (10/10/09) - Maurice White's two-yard TD run with 13 seconds left on the clock propelled Lafayette to a 24-21 win over Columbia. Lafayette held Columbia scoreless in the second half.

With 6:09 left in the game, Lafayette took over on its own 12-yard line. Nine plays into the drive, Rob Curley hit Greg Stripe with a 32-yard pass to put the ball on the Lions' 11. A pass interference call moved Lafayette to the three-yard line. Lafayette faced a 3rd-and-goal, and White leaped his way into the endzone to cap off an 88-yard, 13-play drive that gave the Leopards the come-from-behind victory.

Columbia scored on its first three possessions of the game and led 21-10 at halftime. The Lions' QB M.A. Olawale scored on a 27-yard run and threw for another TD to Austin Knowlin for a 21-yard score. Ray Rangel also scored on a one-yard run.

The Leopards scored on their first possession of the game on a two-yard run by White to cap a 67-yard drive. Lafayette later added a 35-yard Davis Rodriguez field goal.

Lafayette struck first in the second half. The Leopards took over on Columbia's 39-yard line, and on 3rd-and-1, Curley found a leaping Mitchell Bennett in the far corner of the end zone to make it a one-score game at 21-17.

Columbia got the ball back with 9:32 left in the game. Lafayette forced a 27-yard punt to its own 12-yard line, setting the stage for the win.

Curley finished the night 23-for-39 for 287 yards with one TD and three INTs. White scored both Lafayette touchdowns on 13 rushes for 50 yards. Ten different players caught passes for Lafayette, six of whom made multiple grabs.

Lafayette dominated time of possession, holding the ball for 12 minutes more than Columbia (including 10:20 minutes of possession in the fourth quarter).

Michael Schmidlein and Kyle Simmons combined for 20 tackles (10 apiece) with Schmidlein registering three for loss.

GAME 6

 Harvard 18

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (10/17/09) - Lafayette completed the sweep of Ivy League football foes with a 35-18 win at Harvard Stadium. For the first time in school history, Lafayette posted a 4-0 mark against Ivy foes. The Leopards created a pair of first-quarter turnovers and capitalized on them. On the first play of the Crimson's initial drive, Carlos Lowe forced a fumble and the Leopards' took over at the Harvard 27. On the first play of the Lafayette drive, DeAndre' Morrow scampered 21 yards and followed it up with a six-yard scoring run and a 7-0 lead. Mike Schmidlein's first career INT gave the Leopards' offense another scoring opportunity, starting at the Harvard 47. A 16-yard strike from Rob Curley to Kevin Doty and runs of eight and 23 yards by Morrow put Lafayette ahead 14-0. Lafayette surrendered a 30-yard FG seconds into the second quarter, but responded with a 58-yard drive on 10 plays over six minutes. Lafayette had the ball 2nd-and-4 at the Harvard 28 when Curley hit Mitchell Bennett for a 20-yard completion. Two plays later, Tyrell Coon finished the drive with a five-yard run. Lafayette created more breathing room at the end of the half, marching 11 plays and 65 yards in 2:38. A 13-yard pass from Curley to Morrow, a 13-yard scramble by Curley and a 13-yard Harvard interference penalty all resulted in first downs on the drive. Another 13-yard pass to Bennett was wiped out by a penalty. Bennett reeled in a 21-yard catch that set up Lafayette 1st-and-goal at the Harvard six. The drive concluded with a four-yard pass from Curley to Kyle Hayes for his first career TD and a 28-3 halftime lead. After a scoreless third quarter, Harvard scored a pair of late touchdowns in the fourth quarter while Curley hit Jeff Cumming for a touchdown to run the score to 35-10. Defensively, Lafayette stopped Harvard 14-of-16 times on third down and allowed just 110 rushing yards for a squad averaging 173 yards. Schmidlein led the team with 10 tackles. The Leopards had seven tackles for loss, including four sacks, three of which were literally at the hands of Ian Dell, with Mark Leggiero (6 tackles) accounting for the other.

GAME 7

Lafayette 26
 Fordham 21

EASTON, Pa. (10/24/09) - Lafayette staved off a last-second drive by Fordham to win 26-21. Rob Curley threw for a career-high 305 yards and two touchdowns. Curley hit Mitchell Bennett and Mark Layton for a combined 11 catches and 199 yards. Lafayette dominated in time of possession, holding held the ball for 37 minutes.

The Rams took advantage of an INT when John Skelton found Darryl Robinson for a four-yard TD and a 7-0 lead. After the ensuing kickoff, Lafayette took the ball on its own 10. Tyrell Coon tore off a 36-yard run. On 3rd-and-14, Layton reeled in a pass from Curley in the corner of the endzone to knot the game at seven with 14:24 left in the half. At 10:35, the Rams got the ball back in Lafayette territory, but Eric McGovern quickly halted it with his second INT of the season. Davis Rodriguez made a 23-yard FG and added a season-long 42-yarder before the half to lead 13-7.

Lafayette came out of the locker room and promptly marched 90 yards down the field. Maurice White capped off the 12-play drive with a six-yard pass from Curley. With four minutes left in the third, Fordham trimmed the lead to 20-14 on a 13-yard TD run by Asa Lucas. It remained a one-TD game into the fourth. Lafayette opened the quarter on its own 20. Curley converted a 3rd-and-17 with an 18-yard pass to Layton. White found his way into the endzone for a 26-14 Lafayette advantage. With 3:47 left, the Rams recovered a Leopard fumble on the LC 25. Fordham's drive resulted in a five-yard TD pass from Skelton to Caldwell. Fordham's on-sides kick was recovered by the Leopards at their own 29, but Lafayette turned it over on downs with 26 seconds left. Skelton hit Lucas for a 22-yard completion and moved the ball to the Lafayette 44. With the Leopards defensive backfield standing in front of the goal line, Fordham threw its final pass underneath and Darryl Whiting ran for 29 yards before being tackled by Carlos Lowe at the 10 to end the game. Mike Schmidlein and Mark Leggiero made 11 tackles apiece to pace the Leopards who held the Rams 151 yards below their season average for total yards.

 Bucknell 14

EASTON, Pa. (10/31/09) - Rob Curley completed 30-of-35 passes for 333 yards and three TDs in a 35-14 win over Bucknell. Curley's second-straight career passing game (305 vs. Fordham) helped the Leopards improve to 7-1 for the first time since 1981.

The Leopards scored on the first possession of the game and the Bison scored on the last possession of the first half. Lafayette took over on Bucknell's 42-yard line. Five plays and 2:17 later, Jeff Cumming pushed his way into the endzone for one-yard TD and 7-0 Lafayette lead 3:32 in.

Bucknell held the ball for all but 14 seconds of the final 3:05 of the first half. The Bison finally found the endzone when Marcello Trigg connected with A.J. Kizekai on a 19-yard pass that capped a 15-play, 73-yard drive and tied the game at 7-7 at the half.

Lafayette received the ball to start the second half, and just like its opening drive of the game, wasted no time scoring. Morrow got the ball three times on the drive, including a long rush of 26 yards. On 2nd- and-10, Curley found Mike Bolton in the middle of the endzone for a 13-yard TD 2:18 into the quarter.

On Bucknell's ensuing possession, Brandon Ellis intercepted a Trigg pass. The Leopards took over on their own 18 with 9:48 left in the third. Lafayette put together another scoring drive of nearly seven minutes that ended in a two-yard run from Cumming.

The offense took over from that point, as Curley found Mitch Bennett for a four-yard score, the Leopards' second TD in a 10-minute span. Lafayette led 28-7 lead with 12:42 to play.

Trigg and the Bison responded with seven points on a four-yard rushing score by Trigg, making it a two-touchdown contest with 12 minutes left. Lafayette moved the game out of reach on the next possession with a six-yard TD pass from Curley to Mark Layton with 5:38 left. Layton finished with a career-high nine catches for 70 yards.

Leroy Butler was Lafayette's leading tackler with 10 stops (4 solo, 6 assisted) and four pass breakups.

GAME 9

No. 24/25 Lafayette ... 56
 No. 20/18 Colgate 49

EASTON, Pa. (11/7/09) - QB Rob Curley threw for a school-record seven touchdowns as Lafayette beat Colgate, 56-49, on Senior Day. The Leopards improve to 8-1 overall and a perfect 4-0 in the Patriot League, setting the stage for a Patriot League title showdown with Holy Cross.

Curley finished the day 18-of-31 for a career-best 373 yards and seven TD's. The two teams combined for 105 points and 1,033 total yards with Lafayette's offense primarily through the pass (373) and Colgate's on the ground (279).

The first two drives of the game provided a preview for what was to come. Colgate covered 64 yards on eight plays over 3:13 and scored on a Greg Sullivan to Pat Simonds touchdown catch. TB Nate Eachus had 33 yards on the drive and finished with 45 carries for 216 yards and five touchdowns for the day.

Lafayette started at Colgate's 45-yard line following a 48-yard kick return by Jerome Rudolph. The Leopards scored on their first play from scrimmage, a 45-yard pass from Curley to Michael Bolton to knot the game at 7-7.

The Leopards took advantage of a Colgate fumble late in the first quarter. Ian Dell recovered Sullivan's miscue at the Colgate 14. It took three plays and 46 seconds for Lafayette to take the lead when Curley found Mark Layton for an 11-yard TD pass and a 14-7 lead.

The start of the second quarter signaled another efficient Lafayette drive, one that included a 13-yard pass to Layton and a 45-yard slashing run by Rudolph. For the first time in the game, the Leopards failed to find the endzone but Davis Rodriguez kept the scoring streak going by nailing a 33-yard field goal as Lafayette led 17-7.

On Colgate's ensuing possession, Eachus slid past the Lafayette defense when he broke through for a 43-yard scoring run to once again make it a one possession game. The Raiders then took the lead after picking off Curley at the Colgate 36. Eachus carried six times on the resulting drive, the final carry a one-yard scamper to give Colgate a 21-17 lead with 5:49 left in the half.

The Leopards' offense could not be slowed, taking just a minute to score on its next drive. Curley connected with Mitchell Bennett on the drive, but it was Curley's 23-yard completion to Nathan Padia that gave Lafayette a 24-21 advantage, Padia's first career TD. The Leopards tacked on a 34-yard field goal at the end of the half to lead 27-21, a lead they would not relinquish.

Early in the second half, Lafayette and Colgate traded scores. Curley hit Rudolph for a 35-yard catch and run. Rudolph finished with 247 all-purpose yards. Colgate's steady diet of Eachus on the ground with a smattering of Sullivan on the ground and in the air continued. The Raiders cut the lead to 34-28 with a 12-yard TD run by Eachus with 4:24 left in the third.

DeAndre' Morrow made his presence known on the next drive, ripping off a 25-yard run on first down. Curley's 50-yard TD pass to a wide-open Jeff Cumming and two-point conversion toss to Layton gave Lafayette a 42-28 advantage with three minutes left in the third.

Colgate answered just before the end of the quarter on a five-yard rush by Eachus, cutting Lafayette's lead to 42-35. The Raiders forced Lafayette to punt on their first possession of the fourth quarter and tied the game with an 8-play, 83-yard drive that was spurred by a 31-yard pass from Sullivan to Simonds and capped by a 32-yard pass from Sullivan to Gigi Cadet.

The play of the game came on the Leopards' next drive. After a 30-yard pass from Curley to Bennett early in the drive, Lafayette found itself 2nd-and-10 at the Colgate 22. Curley's pass was intercepted by Uzi Idah at the 10, but Layton stripped the ball from him after the pick and Bolton recovered at the 12, setting Lafayette up with the ball and a new set of downs. Curley looked back across the field and found a wide-open Bolton for a nine-yard TD and a 49-42 lead.

The Lafayette defense slowed Colgate on its next drive, forcing a punt with five and a half minutes left in the game. After a three-yard shank by Colgate, Lafayette took over at the Raiders' 38-yard line. The Leopards converted a 3rd-and-11 situation on a 13-yard pass from Curley to Layton. Morrow later added a 19-yard run, but it was a five-yard toss from to Layton that gave Lafayette the 56-42 advantage.

The Raiders added a late score, again by Eachus, to pull within 56-49. Colgate's onside kick attempt was unsuccessful and Lafayette improved to 8-1 for the first time since 1899 and the best start since 1940 when Lafayette went 9-0.

GAME 10

No. 14/13 Holy Cross . 28
No. 20 Lafayette 26

WORCESTER, Mass. (11/14/09) - Lafayette's bid to win its seventh Patriot League title came up two points short, 28-26, to Holy Cross.

Holy Cross QB Dominic Randolph threw for two TD's and ran for another, finishing the game 23-of-37 for 348 yards and three interceptions. Lafayette QB Rob Curley completed 23-of-32 for 312 yards, two TD's and an interception.

The Leopards scored on their first two possessions of the game. With 8:22 left in the first, Maurice White punched in a touchdown from a yard out. The snap on the PAT was high and Davis Rodriguez's attempt missed, leaving Lafayette with a 6-0 lead.

Lafayette's next drive began after Bran-don Ellis picked off Randolph's 3rd-and-7 pass and the Leopards took over at their own 25. Four passes of nine yards or more and 23 yards rushing from White put Lafayette 1st-and-goal. Curley hit Kevin Doty for the score, but a second missed PAT left Lafayette with a 12-0 lead.

Holy Cross got on the board with seven minutes to go in the second quarter, scoring on a four-yard option run by Luke Chmielinski. The Leopards responded. Jerome Rudolph tore off a 43-yard screen pass to spur the scoring drive. On the next play, Curley hit a Mark Layton for 27 yards. The Leopards took a 19-14 lead when White scored from a yard out at 4:48.

Holy Cross scored just 27 seconds later on a no-huddle gadget play that resulted in a 22-yard TD pass to Chmielinski from Randolph. With 11 seconds left in the half, Holy Cross took its first lead of game when Randolph forced his way into the end zone. The Crusaders led 21-19 at halftime.

The Leopards moved the ball well on their first drive of the second half. Curley found Layton for a 28-yard pass on a 3rd-and-1 to place the ball deep in HC territory. Holy Cross picked off Curley's next pass and took over on its own 20. Randolph rode the momentum, finding Freddie Santana for a 40-yard TD catch and a 28-19 Holy Cross advantage.

With five minutes left in the third quarter, Mark Leggiero registered his first interception of the season. The Leopards' offense went three and out on the ensuing drive and didn't cut into the lead until three and a half minutes into the fourth quarter. Curley's 14-yard TD strike to Layton cut the Holy Cross lead to 28-26.

Lafayette's defense stepped up again on Holy Cross' next drive, limiting the Crusaders to one first down before forcing them to punt the ball away with 9:23 remaining.

Lafayette took over on its own 15 and quickly picked up three first downs in six plays to advance the ball to the Holy Cross 35. Two short rushes and Lafayette's first penalty of the game followed. The Leopards were 3rd-and-10 at the Holy Cross 35. Curley threw a ball to Layton, but Layton was run into by the defender, leaving one official grasping for his flag, which he never threw.

On fourth down, Curley was sacked by Jimmy Thomas for a loss of 20 yards.

Holy Cross ran off 3:20 on its final possession, but turned it back over with 38 seconds left after failing to convert a fourth down. Curley completed a pass to Layton for eight yards, but on his extra effort he was stripped by Marcus Rodriguez and lost the ball.
