LAFAYETTE at GEORGETOWN

6:00 p.m.

Washington, D.C. - Multi-Sport Field

THE MATCH-UP: In week two of the college football season, Lafayette takes its first crack at someone wearing a different color uniform. The Leopards travel to Georgetown for a 6 p.m. kick-off at Multi-Sport Field on the Hoyas' Washington, D.C. campus. Georgetown opened the 2009 campaign on Sept. 5 with a 20-7 loss at Holy Cross. The Hoyas are coming off a 2-8 2008 campaign that saw them go winless in conference play. The Leopards faced a bye week in week one, and judging from the number of preseason injuries, the week of rest could not have come at a better time. Lafayette is coming off its second straight 7-4 campaign.

A NOCTURNAL VENTURE: Saturday night's matchup at Georgetown marks the first night game at the Hoyas' current home venue, Multi-Sport Field. Making history at night is not a new feat for Leopard football as Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson played in the first indoor night college football game on Oct. 25, 1930. A crowd of 17,000 witnessed the game at the Atlantic City Auditorium.

The Leopards' first three games of the season are 6 p.m. kick-offs. In a side note, it was pointed out by senior DE Andrew Poulson in his www.GoLeopards.com blog that Leopards are nocturnal hunters.

LET'S OPEN THIS THING UP: Lafayette has never opened the season against Georgetown, and has faced Marist in the season opener in five of the last six seasons. The Leopards have won seven straight season openers, also boasting wins over Monmouth and Sacred Heart in that span. The last loss came in 2001, an overtime setback at Towson.

PATRIOT LEAGUE OPENERS: Lafayette is 12-7 in Patriot League openers with Patriot League play first beginning in 1990. The Leopards have won their last five Patriot League openers (Georgetown in 2004, Fordham, Bucknell and Georgetown in 2006, 2007 and 2008), last losing to Towson in 2003, the Tigers' final year in the conference.

LET'S HOPE IT'S A COINCIDENCE: Lafayette's last loss in a season-opener was a conference game on Sept. 8, 2001 at Towson. Since 1986, with the inception of the Patriot League and its precursor the Colonial League, Lafayette has faced a conference foe in the season opener just five times, holding a 1-4 mark.

Lafayette has been ranked in the top 25 in five straight seasons (2004-2008), climbing as high as 21st in 2008.

THE HEAD COACHES: Lafayette head coach Frank Tavani (Lebanon Valley '75) is in his 10th season as the fiery head man with the headsets and his 23rd year overall as a member of the Lafayette coaching staff. He is the 27th head coach in the program's 128-year history. Tavani was the running backs coach at Lafayette for 14 seasons prior to being named head coach in December of 1999.

Tavani was the 2004 Patriot League Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award in that year.

The native of Lebanon, Pa. guided Lafayette to three straight Patriot League titles (2004, 2005, 2006) and his career record stands at 52-50. Tavani is 22-8 in Patriot League games over the last five years.

Tavani knew a little bit about running the ball in his playing days, becoming the first player in Lebanon Valley College history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. In that senior campaign, he also garnered All-America honors and has since been named to four athletic halls of fame. Tavani signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles out of college in 1976 before jumping into coaching at Franklin and Marshall.

His son, Daniel, carried on the college football tradition as an all-conference selection at Wofford. Of his other three children, Liam and Meghan both graduated from Lafayette and his youngest, Bridget, is a freshman on women's soccer team.

Kevin Kelly (Springfield '82) is in his fourth season as the head coach at Georgetown and holds a 5-28 mark with the Hoyas. He came to Georgetown after four years as the special teams coordinator/linebackers coach at Navy, where he helped lead the Midshipmen to three bowl games.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM: Since 2004, Lafayette is 36-22 and 22-8 in Patriot League play. Lafayette stands as the only Patriot League program to record a winning record in each of the last five regular seasons while also holding a Top 25 national ranking each year.

TAILBACK BY COMMITTEE: The offensive coaching staff led by coordinator Mickey Fein and under the watchful eye of former tailback and current head coach Frank Tavani is faced with a problem of selecting a tailback from a talented group of four. The quartet includes three seniors in Maurice White, DeAndre' Morrow and Tyrell Coon and sophomore Jerome Rudolph. None of the seniors has been able to be healthy an entire season which has opened up opportunities for the other tailbacks and eventually Rudolph as a freshman.

White is a powerful runner who was No. 1 on the depth chart in 2007 and 2008 and led the Leopards in rushing last season with 80 carries, 469 yards and two touchdowns.

Coon is the biggest of the three backs and a slasher. He led the team in carries (108) and ended 2008 with 454 yards and two scores.

Morrow is a shifty back with soft hands out of the backfield who had 58 carries for 336 yards and two touchdowns in 2008.

Rudolph and Morrow are the speediest members of the foursome. He ran for 199 yards on 35 carries with a pair of touchdowns.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL: Lafayette led the nation in fewest turnovers per game in 2008, handing it over just 11 times in 11 games, down from 27 in 2007. Lafayette forced 14 turnovers, nine of them interceptions.

STANDING OUT IN THE CLASSROOM: Under head coach Frank Tavani, Lafayette football players have excelled as student-athletes. Twenty-three have earned CoSIDA Academic All-District selections and 38 have earned the distinction since 1995. In 2008, Lafayette had 18 student-athletes qualify for the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll for which they must achieve a minimum of a 3.2 GPA and earn a varsity letter. Lafayette has also claimed four of the last eight Patriot League Scholar Athletes of the Year.

PRESEASON POLL: Lafayette has been picked third in the Patriot League Preseason Poll of conference head coaches and sports information directors. In 2008, Lafayette was selected to finish fourth and that's where the team ended. This season, Holy Cross is in the top spot followed by Colgate, Lafayette and Lehigh tied for third, Fordham, Bucknell and Georgetown. The last time the preseason pick won the title outright was 2001 (Lehigh).

ALL-PATRIOT LEAGUE RETURNERS: Lafayette placed 10 players on the All-Patriot League first and second teams in 2008, but just three of them return in 2009: senior LB Mark Leggiro, junior PK Davis Rodriguez and senior OL Ryan Hart-Predmore.

THE MAN IN THE MIDDLE: Senior MLB Mark Leggiro is one of the top players in the Patriot League and his play in recent seasons was recognized as he was selected as the Patriot League Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. He finished the 2008 season with 93 tackles, two sacks and an interception on his way to All-Patriot League First-Team honors. As a sophomore in 2007, he was second on the team with 77 tackles and three sacks and was an All-Patriot League Second-Team honoree. In 2006, he was the program's rookie of the year, playing in all 12 games on special teams and as the top backup at linebacker.

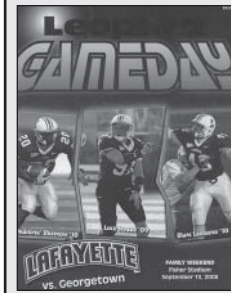

THE GEORGETOWN SERIES: Lafayette holds a 9-3 overall series record versus Georgetown and is 7-1 in Patriot League play since the Hoyas joined the Patriot League in football in 2001. Lafayette is 4-1 in Easton during Patriot League play, the lone blemish a 17-10 setback on Oct. 4, 2003. The teams first met Oct. 25, 1902, a 23-0 Lafayette victory in Washington, D.C. and played in 1922, 1927 and 1937 before meeting every year since 2001.

ABOUT THE DEFENSE: Anyone who has been around the Lafayette football program in recent seasons knows that the Leopards' defense has been the team's strength under defensive coordinator John Loose who is in his 10th season on College Hill. Lafayette finished eighth in the nation in scoring defense in 2008, allowing 17.5 points per game, including four games where it surrendered fewer than two TD's. The Leopards were 10th in the nation in rushing defense (92.2 ypg), 20th in total defense (300 ypg) and 36th in pass efficiency defense (115.9 ypg).

Lafayette boasted the No. 1 ranked defense in the nation in 2007, allowing just EASTON, Pa. (9/13/08) - Though Lafayette tallied nearly 400 yards on offense, the Leopards' stingy defense helped secure the 24-6 win against Georgetown in the teams' Patriot League opener.

QB Rob Curley finished the night 14-of-24 passing for 175 yards. Tyrell Coon and Maurice White dominated the running game with a combined 212 yards on 35 rushes. The Leopards marched 71 yards on their first drive, which was capped off by Curley's one-yard touchdown run. Sophomore Davis Rodriguez's PAT was good and Lafayette took a 7-0 lead at 10:07 in the first quarter.

The Leopards' defense held the Hoyas (1-1, 0-1) scoreless in the first half. The last time Lafayette shut out an opponent in the first half was Oct. 6, 2007 against Columbia.

Junior defensive lineman Andrew Poulson blocked Georgetown kicker Casey Doby's 29-yard field-goal attempt with 5:16 left in the second quarter.

With less than three minutes remaining, LB Neil Goldsmith intercepted Hoyas' quarterback James Brady and picked up 37 yards in the first half. The interception was Goldsmith's second of the season and led to Rodriguez's 23-yard field goal that gave Lafayette a 10-0 lead at the break.

Lafayette attacked again late in the third quarter when Coon rushed for his first score of the season, a one-yard touchdown at 2:27. Rodriguez added the PAT to increase the lead 17-0. Coon finished with 96 yards on 17 carries.

Georgetown broke out of its lull in the fourth quarter on a nine-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in a two-yard touchdown run by quarterback Keerome Lawrence. The Hoyas' failed kick attempt left the score 17-6 at 9:43.

The Leopards weren't finished as Curley recorded his second touchdown with less than a minute remaining on a one-yard rush.

GEORGETOWN

- Georgetown enters the game at 0-1, opening with a 20-7 loss at No. 25 Holy Cross. Georgetown scored on the game's opening drive and battled into the fourth quarter. Dominic Randolph's 13-yard TD pass early in the fourth gave Holy Cross the 13-7 lead which extended to the 20-7 final. Georgetown surrendered 519 yards of offense.

- In 2008, the Hoyas were 2-8, 0-5 in the P.L. Picked seventh in the 2009 preseason poll, Georgetown returns at least seven starters on each side of the ball.

- Georgetown will look to senior RB and 2006 Patriot League Rookie of the Year Charlie Houghton to be a big part of the offense. Despite battling injuries during the last two seasons, Houghton rushed for 458 yards and four touchdowns in 10 games in 2007, averaging 4.2 yards per carry. He was also second on the team in receptions with 34 for 294 yards.

- Jr. Keerome Lawrence made the move from QB to slot for 2009. He was the top receiver in the season opener with four catches for 62 yards and a TD.

- So. James Brady returns to the QB spot, but split time with classmate Scott Darby vs. Holy Cross. In 2008, Brady was 75-of-142 passes for 690 yards with three touchdowns and six interceptions in seven games.

CURLEY'S THE GUY: Senior Rob Curley emerged from spring ball as the Leopards' starting quarterback. He was 3-1 as the starter down the stretch in 2007 and 6-2 as a starter in 2008. Curley completed 57 percent of his passes (121-212) for 1,424 yards with nine touchdowns and four interceptions. He started the first eight games of 2008 before injury and eventually a coach's decision put him second on the depth chart.

Sophomore Ryan O'Neil is penciled in as the backup with junior Marc Quilling, who missed most of preseason with a back injury, close behind. Quilling was 45-for-76 for 55 yards with four touchdowns and one interception. Quilling started the final three games of 2008.

WHO'S GOING TO CATCH THE THING?: With the graduation of the Leopards' top two receivers from 2008, including a career top-5 pass catcher in Shaun Adair, the Leopards are looking to a young group to pick up the slack. Lafayette will go to a rotation of five guys. Sophomores Mitchell Bennett and Greg Stripe are 1 and 1A on one side of the field while junior Mark Layton will be the other starter. Junior Nathan Padia and sophomore Kyle Hayes will also vie for catches.

ABOUT THE KICKER: Junior PK Davis Rodriguez was one of just five underclassmen on any Patriot League squad to earn all-league honors. Rodriguez was 13-of-15 on field goal attempts in 2008 and was 4-of-5 on kicks of 40 to 49 yards, including a career-long kick of 47 yards at Colgate. He also converted 32-of-33 PATs and at one point had made 48 straight PATs. Rodriguez is 63-of-66 for his career (95 percent).

The St. Petersburg, Fla. native earned Sports Network 2009 Preseason All-America Second-Team honors after an All-Patriot League Second-Team selection in 2008.

LINE 'EM UP: While depth could be an issue on the offensive line moving along in the season, the front five is made up of four players who have had starting experience. Team captain and left tackle Ryan Hart-Predmore is in his second season at left tackle and third as a starter. The team captain earned All-Patriot League Second-Team laurels in 2008. He will be lined up next to left guard Brian Wycinowski who started 11 games as a junior. Another "W" returns to the starting lineup at the center spot in Mike Wojcik. Wojcik has started 19 games the last two seasons.

The young buck in the group is sophomore Scott Biel at right guard. Biel earned the Offensive Scout Team award in 2008 and played his way into a starting position. Fifth-year senior Joe Moore sat out 2008 with an ACL injury after starting the final four contests of 2007 at right tackle. The offensive line is under the tutelage of first-year assistant coach Stan Clayton who boasts nearly 15 years of coaching experience at Toledo and Princeton among other institutions. As a player, Clayton was a member of Penn State's 1986 national championship team and went on to play four seasons in the NFL.

THE PUNTER: For the second year, the punting work will be done by Tom Kondash. In 2008, the junior punted 57 times for 2149 yards and 37.7 yards per kick. He landed 22 kicks inside the opponents' 20-yard line with just one touchback and boomed a career-best 79-yard punt vs. Holy Cross.

100-YARD CLUB IN 2008: Lafayette had five 100+ rushing performances in 2008. Maurice White had 212 yards in the season opener at Marist and followed with 106 yards vs. Georgetown. Jerome Rudolph scampered for 140 at Fordham. Tyrell Coon pounded out 169 yards at Bucknell. Versus Holy Cross, DeAndre' Morrow had 15 carries for 111 yards.

I SEE A RED JERSEY AND I WANT TO PAINT IT BLACK: The Leopards' perfect mark in black jerseys came to an end in 2008 with a one-point loss to Holy Cross on Nov. 15 and a setback vs. Lehigh (black pants and jerseys). Lafayette is now 4-2 in the black jerseys. They wore black to beat Lehigh in 2004 and again in 2006 to win Patriot League titles. Fordham was also victim to the black jerseys in 2005. The only other time they've paired black jerseys with black pants was in a driving rain storm with standing water on the old Fisher Field grass surface against Columbia in 2005, a 14-7 victory. The Leopards pulled out the black pants against Holy Cross in week 10 in 2007 and continued their winning streak by beating the Crusaders 31-21.

PATRIOT LEAGUE TITLES: Lafayette won three straight Patriot League titles in 2004, 2005 and 2006. The Leopards begrudgingly shared the title with Lehigh in 2004 and 2006, and with Colgate in 2005. The championships also led to three straight NCAA Playoff appearances, making Lafayette one of six teams in the country to appear in the 16-team field in three straight years. The Leopards have won six PL championships in the 24-year history of the league (1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005, 2006).

LAFAYETTE vs. THE PATRIOT LEAGUE: The Leopards have played 344 games all-time against the six fellow members of the Patriot League, and are 176-152-16 (.540) in those contests. Since the Patriot League began play in 1986, Lafayette is 71-53-1 (.572) vs. member schools and has won league titles in 1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005 and 2006. Lafayette vs. the Patriot League:

Bucknell: 48-32-6 Fordham: 19-7-1 Holy Cross: 14-9-0
Colgate: 10-38-4 Georgetown: 9-3-0 Lehigh: 76-63-5

200+ RUSHING GAMES: When Maurice White ran for 212 yards in the 2008 season opener vs. Marist, it was the first time in nearly six seasons that a Lafayette ballcarrier eclipsed the 200-yard rushing mark in a single game. For White, it was the first time in his career (high school or college) that he managed the feat and it placed him in some elite company. Since 1990, there have been nine 200-yard performances for the Leopards, six of which were the work of Maroon Club Hall of Fame honoree Erik Marsh '95.

IN THE NFL RANKS: Blake Costanzo '06 is currently on the Cleveland Browns' 53-man roster and will likely be one of the team's top special team's performers. Costanzo, who wears No. 44 for the Browns, played the last two seasons with the Buffalo Bills and was the team's special teams MVP in 2008 before being released. In the off-season, his contract was picked up by Cleveland.

AND WE GO TO...OVERTIME: Lafayette has played five overtime games all-time and is 1-4 in those contests. After winning the first overtime affair in 1995 over Fordham (24-21 on 11/11/95), the Leopards have lost their last four OT games (11/18/95 at Lehigh - 37-30; 10/18/97 at Cornell - 41-34; 10/3/98 at Dartmouth - 13-10; 9/8/01 at Towson - 16-13).

HISTORIC FISHER STADIUM: Fisher Stadium has hosted the College's home football games since 1926. The facility underwent a $23 million transformation that gave Lafayette one of the premier FCS football venues in the nation. New spectator seating was built, including chairback seating in select areas, and additional visitors' seating was added for a maximum capacity of 13,132 fans. A state-of-the-art in-fill synthetic surface, lights, a press box and a 19-by-35 foot video board were installed, and improved restroom and vending areas were also included. The Bourger Varsity Football House includes a locker room, offices and team meeting rooms, as well as sports medicine and strength and conditioning areas. Now in its 82nd season, Fisher Stadium has been host to 403 Lafayette football games with the Leopards enjoying an overall record of 239-151-13 for a winning percentage of .609. Of the previous 81 seasons, Lafayette has produced 12 undefeated home seasons with the most recent being the 1992 Patriot League champion Leopards that went a perfect 5-0 – the first undefeated home season for Lafayette at Fisher Stadium since 1970. During the 1991, 1992 and 1993 seasons, Lafayette won 10 straight home games—tying the Fisher Stadium school record for consecutive wins first set 1926 and 1927 in the first 10 games ever played in the stadium.

LAFAYETTE FOOTBALL IN ITS 128th SEASON: Since fielding its first college football team in the fall of 1882 (the same year that dirty little coward Robert Ford shot Jesse James and that Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture debuted), Lafayette has had a proud, colorful gridiron tradition on the way to a total of 640 victories (640-540-39). Lafayette ranks 33rd among all college football teams in all-time wins entering the 2009 season, posting its first win in 1883 (25-0 vs. Rutgers). Lafayette accumulated 100 victories by 1900, 200 by 1915 and 300 by 1934.

LAFAYETTE ON THE RADIO: The Lafayette Sports Network entered into an agreement with WAEB-AM 790 and WGPAA-1100 to broadcast 2009 Lafayette football. The deal places Lafayette on the top two rated AM stations in the Lehigh Valley. See a complete broadcast schedule on the following page.

Veteran broadcaster Dick Hammer is in his 43rd season as the Leopards' play-by-play man and will be joined in the booth on the road by Lafayette SID Phil LaBella.

LAFAYETTE SPORTS NETWORK TO TELEVISION ENTIRE SEASON: The Lafayette Sports Network, the national leader in Division I FCS television coverage, will televise all 11 regular-season Lafayette football games for the seventh straight year. Now in its 13th year, LSN has become a staple for Leopard fans both regionally and across the country. LSN's traditional live distribution to more than 10 million homes on RCN-4 and WBPH-60 covering all of Eastern Pennsylvania will be enhanced this season by live coverage on all of RCN's cable systems in major markets along the East coast. RCN subscribers in Boston (226,000), New York City (250,000), Philadelphia (382,000) and Washington, D.C. (131,000) will be able to watch all 11 Lafayette games on RCN-8.

Nationally, LSN telecasts will be picked up for the ninth straight year by DIRECTV and DISH Network outlets, available to more than 90 million viewers via the Mid Atlantic Sports Network (MASN). MASN, which is available regionally and nationally on DIRECTV channel 640 and DISH Network channel 432, is the official television home of the Baltimore Orioles, Washington Nationals and Baltimore Ravens and reaches nearly 6 million homes in a seven-state region from Harrisburg, Pa. to Charlotte, N.C. Each LSN football telecast will air tape-delay on MASN on the Tuesday following each contest. A complete broadcast schedule follows.

Gary Laubach will handle all of the Leopards' play-by-play duties for the 13th straight season and will be joined by

A HISTORY OF NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS: The Lafayette football program has claimed three national championships -- 1896, 1921 and 1926 -- and recorded five undefeated seasons -- 1896 (11-0-1), 1921 (9-0-0), 1926 (9-0-0), 1937 (8-0-0) and 1940 (9-0-0). Of recent note, the Leopards have won six Patriot League championships -- 1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005 and 2006 -- and made their first three appearances in the NCAA FCS Playoffs.

LAFAYETTE'S FOOTBALL INVENTORS: Two primary elements of the game of football -- the helmet and the huddle -- were invented by former members of the Lafayette football program. George "Rose" Barclay from the Class of 1898, one of Lafayette's all-time great running backs, invented the helmet when the "threat of cultivating cauliflower ears" led him to piece three thick leather straps around his head for the 1896 game against Penn. Former Lafayette coach Herb McCracken (1924-35; 59-40-6) devised the first huddle system during the 1924 season after learning the Pennsylvania football team had stolen Lafayette's signals. Lafayette became the first team to huddle before each play and this system was immediately adopted by other teams.

INSIDE LAFAYETTE FOOTBALL: Inside Lafayette Football can be seen every Thursday evening at 5:30 p.m. throughout the season as well as 30 minutes prior to kickoff of all Lafayette contests. Laubach will sit down with head coach Frank Tavani, as well as select student-athletes, to discuss the Lafayette football program.

LAFAYETTE SPORTS NETWORK ALL-ACCESS: Each LSN telecast will be available live through LSN All-Access, which streams the game worldwide to any high-speed internet connection. In all, more than 60 Lafayette athletic contests, as well as Inside Lafayette Football, are scheduled to be broadcasted through Lafayette All-Access this year for a rate of $6.95 per month and $49.95 for the entire year. The CBS College Sports Online XXL package, which includes content from all CBS College Sports Online member schools, is available for $119.95 annually.
