LAFAYETTE vs. Lehigh

1:08 p.m.

Easton, Pa. - Fisher Stadium

THE MATCH-UP: Lafayette (7-3, 3-2) looks to be an ungracious host to Lehigh (4-6, 3-2) on Saturday in the 144th meeting of College Football's Most Played Rivalry. Lafayette has won four straight over the Mountain Hawks, and the 2008 Lafayette installment looks to be the first to make it five in a row since winning nine straight from 1943-49 (the teams played twice in 1943 and 1944). More recently, Lehigh won seven straight from 1995-2001, prompting some in the Brown and White to assert that teams such as Delaware and Colgate had surpassed Lafayette in terms of the biggest game of the year. No player on either team has suggested that recently.

THE SERIES: College football's most-played rivalry dates back to 1884 when Lafayette shut out Lehigh 50-0 in Easton. The two teams met twice a year from 1884-1901 (three times in 1891) and once a year (for the most part) since then with the exception of 1896 when a player eligibility dispute between the schools cancelled the game. The Leopards lead the series 76-62-5. Home field advantage plays a big role in this rivalry: Lafayette leads 41-22-5 when playing in Easton and Lehigh has a 39-36-0 edge over Leopards in Bethlehem.

LAST TIME OUT: The Leopards are coming off a last-second loss to Holy Cross (27-26), a decision that knocked them from the Patriot League title race. Lehigh had an easier time of it last week, beating Bucknell 31-15, but has lost four games by three points or fewer in 2008. Both teams hold a 3-2 conference mark and the winner will finish third.

THE SERIES MVP: Members of the media will vote on the game's most valuable player on Saturday, marking a tradition that began in 1960. Last season, QB Rob Curley claimed the honor after leading the game-winning drive in a 21-17 victory. In his fourth start of the season, Curley went 15-for-25 for 257 yards with one TD and one interception. In 2006, QB Brad Maurer '07 and TB Jonathan Hurt '07 shared MVP honors, becoming the sixth and seventh players to win the award twice. It was also just the second time in the award's history two players shared the honor (1976 Mark Jones-Lafayette; Rod Gardner-Lehigh). Maurer won in 2004 as a sophomore while Hurt won in 2005. They joined Tom Costello (1988, 89) and Erik Marsh (1992, 94) from Lafayette and Kim McQuilken (1972, 73), Marty Horn (1983, 85) and Ron Jean (1998, 99) from Lehigh as two-time winners.

Lafayette has been ranked in the top 25 in five straight seasons (2004-2008).

THE HEAD COACHES: Lafayette head coach Frank Tavani (Lebanon Valley '75) is in his ninth season as the fiery head man with the headsets and his 23rd year overall as a member of the Lafayette coaching staff. He is the 27th head coach in the program's 127-year history. Tavani was the running backs coach at Lafayette for 14 seasons prior to being named head coach in December of 1999.

Tavani was the 2004 Patriot League Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award in that year.

The native of Lebanon, Pa. guided Lafayette to three straight Patriot League titles (2004, 2005, 2006) and his career record stands at 52-49. Tavani is 22-7 in Patriot League games over the last five years, including 2008.

Tavani knew a little bit about running the ball in his playing days, becoming the first player in Lebanon Valley College history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. In that senior campaign, he also garnered All-America honors and has since been named to four athletic halls of fame. Tavani signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles out of college in 1976 before jumping into coaching at Franklin and Marshall. His son, Daniel, was an all-conference selection at Wofford who graduated in 2007.

Andy Coen (Gettysburg '86) is nearing the end of his third season as head coach at Lehigh. He is in his second stint at the school after spending six years as an offensive line coach (four as the offensive coordinator) from 1994-2000. Coen is 15-17 overall at Lehigh and 0-2 against Lafayette.

ABOUT THE SENIORS: The Class of 2009 has racked up a 28-17 overall record and a 17-6 mark in conference play that includes Patriot League titles and NCAA Playoff appearances in 2005 and 2006.

RECENT D IN THE BIG GAME: In the last four meetings with Lehigh, Lafayette has allowed just over 18.3 points and 101 yards per game on the ground.

ABOUT THE KICKER (with thanks to Paul Reinhard): Sophomore PK Davis Rodriguez missed a PAT vs. Holy Cross, and when the Crusaders' offense marched down the field against the Leopards' top ranked defense, the play took on inflated significance. To put things in perspective, Rodriguez made 17 in a row to finish the 2007 season and added 31 straight this season to run his total to 48 in a row before missing the kick vs. Holy Cross. He is 62-of-65 for his career (95 percent). One year ago against Holy Cross, Rodriguez hit a career-long 41-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to boost the Leopards' lead to 10 in their 31-21 victory. He also went 4-for-4 on PATs and was named Patriot League Special Teams Player of the Week for the second time in 2007.

WHO WILL IT BE AT QB?: When junior QB Rob Curley went down with an injury at Colgate, sophomore Marc Quilling was forced to step into the fold. Curley missed most of the second half of that game and has not played since. He sat out the Bucknell game while recovering, but was available to play vs. Holy Cross. No one doubts the Cinnaminson, N.J. native's toughness. Curley earned Lafayette-Lehigh game MVP honors in 2007, despite playing much of the second half with a broken finger.

In his absence, Quilling has made the most of his unexpected opportunity. In his first career start at Bucknell, the Allentown, Pa. native was 17-for-26 for 274 yards and three touchdowns, the top passing yardage performance for a Lafayette QB this season. He followed that with a 17-for-24 day for 184 yards and one touchdown. Coming into the Colgate game he had played sparingly in just two games.

This week, head coach Frank Tavani will evaluate the two QBs in practice and make his decision prior to the 144th meeting. Curley is 9-3 in games that he has started while the younger Quilling is 1-1.

WHO WILL IT BE AT TB?: With both DeAndre' Morrow and Tyrell Coon healthy at the tailback position, the Leopards have options. Morrow is coming off a 15-carry, 111-yard, two-touchdown game vs. Holy Cross. His running mate, Coon, had a 30-carry, 169-yard afternoon at Bucknell, both career highs for Coon. The duo both missed several games due to injury, but have been healthy in final stretch. Junior TB Maurice White has missed the last five games due to injury, but was in the top spot on the depth chart entering the season.

ADAIR'S CAREER NUMB3RS: Senior WR Shaun Adair has cemented his position as one of the top receivers in Lafayette history. Adair, who is coming off a four-catch, 101-yard day vs. Holy Cross, ranks third in career receiving yards (2,152) and fourth in career receptions (144). Versus Lehigh, Adair made three catches for 52 yards in 2007, five for 98 and a TD in 2006 and five for 57 in 2006. See page 6 for a current list of all-time receiving records at Lafayette.

THE PUNTER: Sophomore Tom Kondash has excelled in his role as the team's punter. Kondash has punted 51 times for an average of 37.9 yards. Twenty punts have ended up inside the 20 and seven punts have been 50 or more yards. Kondash boomed a career-long 79-yard punt vs. Holy Cross, using his patented roll after the initial landing. Kondash finished with four punts inside the 20 vs. Holy Cross. Against Harvard, Kondash punted five times for 175 yards and pinned Harvard's offense inside the 20 on four of the attempts. His best punt of the day was a 53-yard effort that was downed on the one-yard line. At Liberty, Kondash punted five times for 193 yards (38.6 yards per kick) and landed two punts inside the 20. He also managed a 59-yard punt. At Colgate, Kondash punted six times for 254 yards (42.3 ypk) with three kicks inside the 20 and a long of 53 yards.

INT'S AS OF LATE: Lafayette has picked off at least one pass in each of its last three games. FS Eric McGovern and LB Mark Leggiero each picked off passes against Holy Cross. CB Carlos Lowe managed interceptions against Bucknell and Colgate. The Leopards have nine interceptions on the season, with LB Neil Goldsmith leading the way with three.

GOING FORWARD: It isn't like recent Lafayette teams to get mired in lengthy conference losing streaks. Over the last four seasons, Lafayette is 12-1 in regular-season games after suffering its first conference loss. The Leopards went 2-0 in 2004, 2-0 in 2005, 4-0 in 2006, 3-0 in 2007 and 1-1 thus far in 2008.

LAST TIME OUT

Lafayette..... 21
Lehigh..... 17

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - Trailing 17-14 with nine minutes remaining in the game, the Lafayette offense put together an 80-yard drive that gave them a dramatic 21-17 win over Lehigh in college's football's most-played rivalry. The Leopards have now won four straight over the Mountain Hawks for the first time since 1946-1949.

Rob Curley led the game-winning drive and hit Kyle Roeder for a three-yard touchdown pass with 2:53 remaining in the game. Curley earned game MVP honors, going 15-for-25 for 257 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

The Leopards took the opening drive of the game to the endzone for the fifth time this season. Tyrell Coon ran the ball 13 yards and Curley connected on two passes and then carried the ball one yard into the endzone to put the Leopards up 7-0 three minutes into the game.

The Mountain Hawks took over and moved 60 yards to the Lafayette five-yard line. Sedale Threath connected with Mike Fitzgerald to even the score 7-7 with eight minutes left in the first quarter.

Lehigh pulled ahead in the second quarter when Jason Leo booted a 30-yard field goal to make it 10-7. The Leopards regained the lead 10 minutes later when Coon ran in from the three-yard line to make it 14-10.

The Mountain Hawks had a 17-14 lead after Lehigh's Matt McGowan finished a four-play, 65-yard drive with a one-yard run in for the score.

The Leopards' defense was able to keep the Mountain Hawks from scoring on either of their drives in the third quarter, and the session ended as it began, with Lehigh up 17-14.

Lehigh opened up the fourth quarter with a 16-play, 66-yard drive that drained more than 10 minutes off the clock. Leo kicked a 35-yard field goal attempt wide to the right, setting up the Leopards' game-winning drive.

The second-ranked defense in the nation held the Lehigh to just 244 total offensive yards. Andy Romans led the team with 10 tackles.

HAS THE LAFAYETTE OFFENSE HIT ITS STRIDE?: Lafayette has averaged 32 points per game over its last five contests. Lafayette scored 35 at Liberty, 48 at Fordham, 13 at Colgate, 38 at Bucknell and 26 vs. Holy Cross. In the Colgate game, Lafayette turned the ball over inside the 10 on one occasion and played without its starting quarterback for all of the second half.

DEFENSE IS EIGHTH IN THE NATION: Lafayette dropped to eighth in the nation in scoring defense, allowing 16.2 points per game through 10 contests. The Leopards are also ranked 24th in the FCS in total defense (312.1 ypg) and have been ranked as high as first. The team is 19th in rushing defense (111.2 ypg) and 26th in pass efficiency defense (112.84 ypg). Check the chart below to see where they stack up within the league.

IN THE RED ZONE: Lafayette is seventh in the nation in red zone defense. The Leopards' opponents have scored on 18 of 28 attempts in the red zone (64%).

CONTE SETS CAREER-HIGHS THROUGH THE AIR: Senior TE Michael Conte, who has been playing for several weeks with a broken bone in his back, put up big numbers at Bucknell. He reeled in four catches for 118 yards. His career-long 51-yard catch in the third quarter went for a touchdown and his other catches of 47 yards, 10 yards and 10 yards all netted first downs.

PUT THE BAGS AWAY: Lafayette finished its five-game road swing with a 4-1 record. Lafayette traveled to Columbia (13-3 W), No. 14 Liberty (35-21 W), Fordham (48-13 W), Colgate (21-13 L) and Bucknell (38-21 W). It was the longest road stretch since 1996. In that season, Lafayette played Harvard, Columbia, Colgate and Army while a game with Fordham scheduled between the Harvard and Columbia games was canceled due to the untimely death of a Fordham player in warm-ups for the game. The last and only time Lafayette actually played five in a row on the road was 1986 in a season that included trips to Davidson, Bucknell, Colgate, Penn and Army. The Leopards were 2-3 in that span.

SCORPIO SUCCESS: Lafayette has enjoyed plenty of success in the month of November. Excluding postseason games, Lafayette is 11-4 over the past five seasons (including 2008). Colgate represents all but one of the losses in November.

2004: 2-1 2005: 2-1 2006: 3-0 2007: 3-0 2008: 1-2

Defensive Player of the Week three times this season (10/6, 10/13, 10/20) and is making his case to repeat as the Defensive Player of the Year. He managed to match his last weekly award by also earning the conference's Special Teams Player of the Week. Romans merited both honors at No. 14 Liberty. He blocked a punt that he returned 15 yards for a touchdown, recorded a 21-yard run on a fake punt for a first down late in the fourth quarter and tallied 12 tackles and one tackle for a loss to lead the Leopards to a win over a ranked opponent for the first time since the end of the 2005 season.

For the week of the Oct. 6, Romans made a career-high 18 tackles against Harvard to claim his first award of the season. The Oct. 13 naming followed 15 tackles at Columbia when Lafayette held the Lions to three points despite missing four offensive starters. The Allendale, N.J. native boasts 85 tackles this season, which is tied for 42nd in the nation.

ROMANS CAN PLAY A LITTLE BIT: Senior linebacker Andy Romans is the Leopards' most highly-decorated returner. Romans was the 2007 Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year and is the conference's pick to repeat. He has also secured preseason All-America honors from The Sports Network and College Sporting News. He has been named Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week three times in 2008.

PEOPLE ARE WATCHING: Andy Romans, a senior History major, has been named to the Buck Buchanan Award Watch List. The award is given out to the top defensive player in the nation at the FCS level. The list will be revised several times throughout the season. Currently there are 14 linebackers on the list. Lafayette's Maurice Bennett '06 finished eighth in the voting for the national award in 2005.

THE OTHER LB: Coming into the season, it was easy to see how junior linebacker Mark Leggiero could be overlooked despite an All-Patriot League Second-Team selection in 2007. He lines up a couple of steps away from Andy Romans, the 2007 Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year. This year, it has been pretty hard for team's to look past his production. He is second on the team in tackles (behind Romans) with 85 and 12 tackles for loss, has forced a fumble and picked off a pass. In 2007, Leggiero started all 11 games and finished second on the team in tackles (77) and tackles for loss (6.5), trailing Romans in both categories. Leggiero finished fifth in the Patriot League in total tackles last season. In 2006, he was the program's rookie of the year, playing in all 12 games on special teams and as the top backup at linebacker.

Since the Patriot League began play in 1986, Lafayette is 71-52-1 (.583) vs. member schools and has won league titles in 1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005 and 2006. Lafayette vs. the Patriot League:

Bucknell: 48-32-6 Fordham: 19-7-1 Holy Cross: 14-9-0
 Colgate: 10-38-4 Georgetown: 9-3-0 Lehigh: 76-62-5

ELECTION DAY COVERAGE FOR THE LEOPARDS: Sophomore DE Jeff Katz and junior FB Jeff Cumming participated in a student-run live election broadcast on election day. Katz served as an anchor to the program, which was produced as part of a Policy Studies class taught by Mark Crain. The event itself took place from 9-11 p.m. at various sets located throughout Farinon Student Center. Outside on the Quad, a tent was set up to host an election night party. Read this week's game program for more on the story.

THROWING IT TO OUR GUYS: Junior QB Rob Curley has not thrown an interception in 97 passes, which covers all of his attempts in the Leopards' last four games. His last interception was his final pass attempt of the Harvard game on Oct. 4.

IN THE AIR: Until his injury at Colgate, junior QB Rob Curley had been the starting quarterback since day one of training camp. For the season, he is 111-of-193 for 1,302 yards with nine touchdowns and three interceptions. Curley has been named Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week once this season, going 14-for-24 for 175 yards with two rushing TDs vs. Penn (9/15).

He had one of his best performances of the season at Liberty where he was 18-for-32 for 176 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. He was especially crisp in the first half when he was 17-for-26 for 167 yards. He followed that with an 11-for-16 day at Fordham when he threw for 162 yards and two touchdowns.

Curley was the team's starting QB for the final four games of 2007. He completed 62 percent of his passes (77-124), threw seven touchdowns, ran for two scores and was picked off twice. He was named the MVP of the 143rd meeting of Lafayette-Lehigh after leading the game-winning drive.

LEOPARDS SLIP OUT OF THE NATIONAL RANKINGS: Lafayette dropped out of the national Top 25 polls following the eight-point road loss to Colgate which is now ranked No. 23. Lafayette is receiving votes in both The Sports Network and the FCS Coaches Poll. The Leopards were ranked as high as 21st following a 35-point win at Fordham on Oct. 25. Lafayette broke into the top 25 on Oct. 20 by virtue of its 35-21 win at then-No. 14 Liberty on Oct. 18. Lafayette has now been ranked in the top 25 for five straight years (2004-08). The Leopards' highest ranking came in 2004 when they finished No. 19 in both polls. Last season, Lafayette's top ranking was No. 22 in The Sports Network poll, a position it held for two weeks. The team occupied the same No. 22 spot

RUN, RUN RUDOLPH...: TB Jerome Rudolph was a less-than-familiar face in the backfield at Fordham, as the freshman had carried the ball just six times coming into the weekend. Injuries to the Leopards' top three tailbacks, including to Tyrell Coon on the first play from scrimmage, opened the door for the Lithonia, Ga. native. He carried the ball 16 times for 140 yards and two touchdowns and added three catches for 51 yards and a touchdown in his second action of the season. (Rudolph also had six carries in the win at Liberty). At Colgate, Rudolph carried the ball 11 times for 25 yards. He carried just twice at Bucknell.

FRESHMAN FOR 100: The last time a Lafayette freshman rushed for 100+ yards in a game was Nov. 13, 1999 vs. Duquesne. Bill Stocker carried 35 times for 146 yards. Prior to that, Leonard Moore was last freshman to do so (1995).

STRIPE COLLECTS PATRIOT LEAGUE HONOR: Freshman WR Greg Stripe was named the Patriot League Special Teams Player of the Week (10/27). He recorded an 80-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in Lafayette's 48-13 victory at Fordham. The kick return for a touchdown was the first for Lafayette since 2006 (Shaun Adair, 90 yards vs. Georgetown on 11/11/06). Stripe also had five carries for 43 yards and finished with 136 all-purpose yards. The Economics and Business major balances four classes including Intro to Psychology and Intro to U.S. Politics.

SPARKLING START: Lafayette's 6-1 start was the best opening mark since 1981, rolling up wins over Marist, Georgetown, Penn, Columbia, No. 14 Liberty and Fordham. It marked the first time during head coach Frank Tavani's tenure that Lafayette reached the 6-1 mark. The Leopards started 5-1 twice under Coach T (2005 and 2008). The last time Lafayette started 6-1 was 1981 under Tavani's predecessor Bill Russo. That squad started the season 7-1. Prior to that, the last time Lafayette was 6-1 was 1944.

WIN OVER A TOP 25: Lafayette's triumph over No. 14 Liberty was the team's first win over a top-25 opponent since Lafayette beat No. 12 Lehigh 23-19 on Nov. 19, 2005. The victory also snapped the nation's longest winning streak (11) and was head coach Frank Tavani's 50th career coaching victory.

1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005, 2006 PATRIOT LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

PATRIOT GAMES: Lafayette is 3-2 in Patriot League play this season with a 24-6 win over Georgetown on Sept. 13, a 48-13 victory at Fordham on Oct. 25, a 21-13 loss at Colgate on Nov. 1, a 38-21 win at Bucknell on Nov. 8 and a 27-26 setback vs. Holy Cross last week. Lafayette trails Colgate and Holy Cross in the conference race, each undefeated in league play.

STANDING OUT IN THE CLASSROOM: Under head coach Frank Tavani, Lafayette football players have excelled as student-athletes. Twenty-three have earned CoSIDA Academic All-District selections. In 2007, Lafayette had 21 student-athletes qualify for the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll for which they must achieve a minimum of a 3.2 GPA and earn a varsity letter. In the spring semester, 51 members of the team achieved a 3.0 or better GPA, including seven who qualified for the Dean's List. Overall, the team sported a 2.99 GPA, the highest in the program's history since the Academic Resource Center began charting team GPA's in 1992.

JOE FULLBACK: Senior Joe Russo is easily the most experienced fullback in the Patriot League. The Utica, N.Y. native is in his third season as a starter at the position where his primary responsibilities are as a lead blocker and pass protector. Running the ball has also been a strength for Russo who is averaging 4.6 yards per carry, running 40 times for 184 yards with two touchdowns. He also has nine catches for 113 yards and three touchdowns.

In 2007, he averaged 4.8 yards per carry (26-126) with a touchdown while also catching 12 passes, including two scores. As a sophomore, Russo managed 5.0 yards per carry (27-134) with five touchdowns in 2006 and also caught 14 passes for 76 yards.

BOOM, COON, ZOOM: "Boom-Coon-Zoom" is how QB Rob Curley describes the Leopards' corps of tailbacks. "Boom" is Maurice White who blasted his way to 212 yards in the season opener at Marist and followed up with 106 yards vs. Georgetown, 77 vs. Penn and 27 at Columbia. He is currently sidelined with two dislocated toes that he injured in the Columbia game.

"Coon" is Tyrell Coon, a junior who is now vying for the top spot on the depth chart. He started two games in 2007, including the Lehigh game when he carried 29 times for 95 yards. This season, Coon carried the ball 17 times for 96 yards and a touchdown vs. Georgetown. He left the Penn game with injury after carrying six times for 32 yards and missed the Harvard game with a leg bruise. He made his return at Columbia, running for 57 yards on 16 carries. He was injured again after his first carry of the day at Fordham. Coon had a career day at Bucknell with 30 carries for 169 yards.

"Zoom" is junior DeAndre' Morrow, who ran for 245 yards last season and is also a receiving threat who managed 225 all-purpose yards vs. Columbia. Morrow ran for 82 yards on 14 carries and one touchdown in Lafayette's win at Columbia. At Liberty, he scored two more touchdowns and garnered 38 yards before leaving with injury. Morrow was recently out with injury, but made his return at Bucknell. He enjoyed a breakout day vs. Holy Cross, carrying 15 times for 111 yards and two touchdowns.

Lafayette used all three members against Columbia, as White and Coon left with injuries. The Leopards employed six different tailbacks in the starting spot in 2007 with White starting four games, graduated seniors Anthony D'Urso and Brandon Mitchell each starting one, Morrow and Coon two apiece and Matt Ferber one.

THE GROUND GAME: The Lafayette running attack is ranked 29th in the nation, averaging 178.5 yards per game. On the flip side, the passing game is ranked 74th out of 118 teams, passing for 180 yards per game.

THE PUNTER'S ASSISTANT: Sophomore PK Davis Rodriguez punted twice at Liberty, as head coach Frank Tavani elected to use Rodriguez's low line drive efforts to keep his punts under the wind.

100-YARD CLUB IN 2008: Lafayette has had five 100+ rushing performances in 2008. Maurice White had 212 yards in the season opener at Marist and followed with 106 yards vs. Georgetown. Jerome Rudolph scampered for 140 at Fordham. Tyrell Coon pounded out 169 yards at Bucknell. In the Leopards' last outing, DeAndre' Morrow had 15 carries for 11 yards. In 2007, Lafayette had three ballcarriers (Matt Ferber, Maurice White and Anthony D'Urso) rush for 100+ yards.

GOLDEN HANDS: Sophomore linebacker Neil Goldsmith opened the season with an interception in each of the first three games and was ranked in the top 10 early on during the season. Goldsmith missed the Columbia and Liberty games due to injury, but returned to play a key role at Fordham where he made eight solo tackles.

THE DEFENSIVE BACKFIELD: Seniors Marvin Clecidor and Nigel Bryant are the leaders of the defensive backfield. Clecidor is a returning All-Patriot League Second-Team selection at cornerback. Against Penn, Clecidor registered his first interception of the season. Clecidor led the team and was second in the Patriot League in passes defended in 2007 and also finished with two interceptions. Bryant started every game at strong safety and led the team with three interceptions in 2007. This season, Bryant recorded his first pick at Liberty. Juniors Carlos Lowe and Eric McGovern started the season at cornerback and free safety, respectively. McGovern led the team with 11 tackles against Penn and is third on the team with 48.

ON THE LINE: The Leopards return four linemen who started six or more games in 2007. Junior Ryan Hart-Predmore, who played right guard last season, is now at left tackle to anchor the offensive line. Junior Brian Wycinowski holds down the left guard spot. Junior Mike Wojcik is snapping the ball to Rob Curley after starting seven games last year. A pair of seniors with starting experience, Leo Plenski and D.J. Brown, start at right tackle and guard, respectively. The Leopards were forced to shuffle things against Penn when Wojcik went down with injury. Brown slid over to center and sophomore Michael Butler took Brown's spot. Wojcik has been back in the starting lineup ever since.

THE KICKER(S): Sophomore Davis Rodriguez is reprising his role as the team's placekicker.

Rodriguez is 11-for-13 in field goals and has made 31-of-32 PATs. Rodriguez has made 4-of-5 kicks of 40 to 49 yards, hitting a 41-yarder vs. Harvard and 46- and 42-yard field goals vs. Columbia. At Colgate, Rodriguez nailed a 47-yarder at Colgate and added a 36-yarder.

In 2007, Rodriguez was 8-for-13, including a career long of 41 yards. Rodriguez converted 31-of-33 PATs and was the team's leading scorer with 55 points. The St. Petersburg, Fla. native received Patriot League Special Teams Player of the Week honors twice in 2007 and kicked the game-winning field goal at Penn (9/15).

Junior Chris Cosgrove is handling the kickoff duties as he did for much of 2007. Cosgrove has kicked off 54 times for an average net kick of 39.5 yards with four touchbacks.

200+ RUSHING GAMES: When Maurice White ran for 212 yards in the season opener vs. Marist, it was the first time in nearly six seasons that a Lafayette ballcarrier eclipsed the 200-yard rushing mark in a single game. For White, it was the first time in his career (high school or college) that he managed the feat and it placed him in some elite company. Since 1990, there have been nine 200-yard performances for the Leopards, six of which were the work of Maroon Club Hall of Fame honoree Erik Marsh '95.

IN THE NFL RANKS: Blake Costanzo '06 is currently on the Buffalo Bills' 53-man roster, having played in 10 games for the Bills. Costanzo, who now wears No. 54, played three games with the Bills last season and made seven tackles in return coverage assignments. The Franklin Lakes, N.J. native was released by the Bills on Aug. 30, 2008, but was re-signed on Sept. 5 and is playing primarily on special teams. Costanzo and Andy Romans worked out together during the summer.

PRESEASON POLL: Lafayette was picked fourth in the Patriot League Preseason Poll as selected by the conference's head coaches and sports information directors. In 2007, Lafayette was selected to finish first, but ended second. The last time the preseason pick won the title outright was 2001 (Lehigh).

ADAIR SET TO MAKE HIS RETURN: Senior Shaun Adair finished seventh in the nation in punt returns last season. He averaged 14.0 yards per punt return and was ranked first in the conference in that statistical category. Against Marist in 2007, Adair ran back a punt 78 yards for his first career punt return for touchdown (and the longest punt return of his career). This season, Adair ripped off a 63-yard return at Liberty.

Adair also returns kicks for the Leopards, averaging 18.4 yards per return in 2007 down from the previous two seasons when he chugged away for 23.8 yards per kick as a freshman and a 25.5 as a sophomore. For his career, Adair averages 21.8 yards per return. He returned a 90-yard kick for touchdown vs. Georgetown in 2006. This season, he has returned 18 kicks for 286 yards for an average of 15.9 yards.

ALL-PATRIOT LEAGUE RETURNERS: Lafayette placed 11 players on the All-Patriot League first and second teams in 2007. Six of them return in 2008 season led by 2007 Defensive Player of the Year, Andy Romans, junior LB Mark Leggiro and senior CB Marvin Clecidor. On the offense, there are also three returning All-Patriot League selections led by senior co-captain and fullback Joe Russo, senior TE Michael Conte and senior WR Shaun Adair.

BACK IN BLACK: The Leopards' perfect mark in black jerseys came to an end with a one-point loss to Holy Cross on Nov. 15. Lafayette is now 4-1 in the black jerseys. They wore black to beat Lehigh in 2004 and again in 2006 to win Patriot League titles. Fordham was also victim to the black jerseys in 2005. The only other time they've paired black jerseys with black pants was in what has been dubbed "the mud bowl" against Columbia in 2005, a 14-7 victory. The Leopards pulled out the black pants against Holy Cross in week 10 in 2007 and continued their winning streak by beating the Crusaders 31-21.

PATRIOT LEAGUE TITLES: Lafayette won three straight Patriot League titles in 2004, 2005 and 2006. Lafayette shared the title with Lehigh in 2004 and 2006, and with Colgate in 2005. The championships also led to three straight NCAA Playoff appearances, making Lafayette one of six teams in the country to appear in the 16-team field in three straight years. The Leopards have won six PL championships in the 23-year history of the league (1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005, 2006).

ABOUT THE 2007 DEFENSE: Lafayette boasted the No. 1 ranked defense in the nation in 2007. The Leopards, under the direction of defensive coordinator John Loose, allowed just 260.1 yards of total offense per game (first in the nation), 84.9 yards on the ground (fourth in the nation), 16.9 points per game (eighth in the nation) and a pass efficiency rating of 108.3 (15th in the nation). Linebacker Andy Romans ranked 25th in the nation in tackles in 2007 with 10.3 per game.

LIGHT IT UP: Lafayette's season-opening win over Marist in 2007 marked the first home night game in 127 seasons of Lafayette football. The historic game was followed by fireworks. Making history at night is not a new feat for Leopard football as Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson played in the first indoor night college football game on Oct. 25, 1930. A crowd of 17,000 witnessed the game at the Atlantic City Auditorium.

THE CAPTAINS: The Leopards elected senior LB Andy

Romans and senior FB Joe Russo as their captains for the 2008 season. Romans is a two-time All-Patriot League selection and the 2007 Defensive Player of the Year. Russo, too, is a twice-honored all-league player and is in his third year as a starter.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS: Lafayette has won four of the last seven Patriot League Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards. Brad Maurer '07 won the award in 2006, following linebacker Maurice Bennett '05, Stephen Bono '04 and tight end Stewart Kupfer '02. Maurer was also a three-time ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District II selection and was one of 23 Academic All-District selections in Frank Tavani's nine seasons as head coach.

AND WE GO TO...OVERTIME: Lafayette has played five overtime games all-time and is 1-4 in those contests. After winning the first overtime affair in 1995 over Fordham (24-21 on 11/11/95), the Leopards have lost their last four OT games (11/18/95 at Lehigh - 37-30; 10/18/97 at Cornell - 41-34; 10/3/98 at Dartmouth - 13-10; 9/8/01 at Towson - 16-13).

HISTORIC FISHER STADIUM: Fisher Stadium has hosted the College's home football games since 1926. The facility underwent a $23 million transformation that gave Lafayette one of the premier FCS football venues in the nation. New spectator seating was built, including chairback seating in select areas, and additional visitors' seating was added for a maximum capacity of 13,132 fans. A state-of-the-art in-fill synthetic surface, lights, a press box and a 19-by-35 foot video board were installed, and improved restroom and vending areas were also included. The Bourger Varsity Football House includes a locker room, offices and team meeting rooms, as well as sports medicine and strength and conditioning areas. Now in its 81st season, Fisher Stadium has been host to 402 Lafayette football games with the Leopards enjoying an overall record of 239-150-13 for a winning percentage of .612. Of the previous 81 seasons, Lafayette has produced 12 undefeated home seasons with the most recent being the 1992 Patriot League champion Leopards that went a perfect 5-0 – the first undefeated home season for Lafayette at Fisher Stadium since 1970. During the 1991, 1992 and 1993 seasons, Lafayette won 10 straight home games—tying the Fisher Stadium school record for consecutive wins first set 1926 and 1927 in the first 10 games ever played in the stadium.

LAFAYETTE FOOTBALL IN ITS 127 SEASON: Since fielding its first college football team in the fall of 1882, Lafayette has had a proud, colorful gridiron tradition on the way to a total of 639 victories (639-539-39). Lafayette ranks 33rd among all college football teams in all-time wins entering the 2008 season, posting its first win in 1883 (25-0 vs. Rutgers). Lafayette accumulated 100 victories by 1900, 200 by 1915 and 300 by 1934.

A HISTORY OF NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS: The Lafayette football program has claimed three national championships -- 1896, 1921 and 1926 -- and recorded five undefeated seasons -- 1896 (11-0-1), 1921 (9-0-0), 1926 (9-0-0), 1937 (8-0-0) and 1940 (9-0-0). Of recent note, the Leopards have won six Patriot League championships -- 1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005 and 2006 -- and made their first three appearances in the NCAA FCS Playoffs.

LAFAYETTE'S FOOTBALL INVENTORS: Two primary elements of the game of football -- the helmet and the huddle -- were invented by former members of the Lafayette football program. George "Rose" Barclay from the Class of 1898, one of Lafayette's all-time great running backs, invented the helmet when the "threat of cultivating cauliflower ears" led him to piece three thick leather straps around his head for the 1896 game against Penn. Former Lafayette coach Herb McCracken (1924-35; 59-40-6) devised the first huddle system during the 1924 season after learning the Pennsylvania football team had stolen Lafayette's signals. Lafayette became the first team to huddle before each play and this system was immediately adopted by other teams.

INSIDE LAFAYETTE FOOTBALL: LSN-TV premiered Inside Lafayette Football on Sept. 4 at 5:30 p.m. and it can be seen every Thursday evening at 5:30 p.m. throughout the season as well as 30 minutes prior to kickoff of all Lafayette contests. Laubach will sit down with head coach Frank Tavani, as well as select student-athletes to discuss the Lafayette football program.

LAFAYETTE SPORTS NETWORK ALL-ACCESS: Each LSN telecast will be available live through LSN All-Access, which streams the game worldwide to any high-speed internet connection. In all, more than 60 Lafayette athletic contests, as well as Inside Lafayette Football, are scheduled to be broadcasted through Lafayette All-Access this year for a rate of $6.95 per month and $49.95 for the entire year. The CBS College Sports Online XXL package, which includes content from all CBS College Sports Online member schools, is available for $119.95 annually.

Marist..... 6
Lafayette..... 28

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. (9/6/08) - Junior TB Maurice White made a triumphant return from an injury-riddled 2007 season, rushing for 212 yards and two touchdowns in a 28-6 win over Marist. The Lafayette defense held Marist to 37 yards rushing and 58 yards in the air led by 10 tackles and a fumble recovery by preseason All-American Andy Romans.

White's career night at Tenney Stadium was the first time a Lafayette back ran for more than 200 yards since Joe McCourt (212) in 2003.

The Leopards got on the scoreboard in the first quarter, culminating a 10-play, 80-yard drive with a 25-yard TD pass from QB Rob Curley to TE Michael Conte at 4:41. Curley showed his mettle on the drive as he was sacked twice before completing a 22-yard strike to Mark Layton to keep the drive alive. Three plays later Lafayette scored.

A special teams' error proved detrimental in the second quarter, when Marist's Michael Rios broke through the middle of the line and blocked Tom Kondash's punt. The Red Foxes recovered on the one-yard line and Bo Ehikioya ran it in on the next offensive play. Marist missed the PAT and trailed 7-6 at 14:10.

Lafayette ran its own version of the "fumblerooski" to score later in the quarter. Curley had trouble with the snap, but scooped it up, burst through the line and ran 27 yards for a touchdown. LC led 14-6 at halftime.

With fewer than nine minutes left in the third, Marist had the ball fourth and inches at the Lafayette 10. Trailing 14-6, Marist went for it, but QB Chris Debowski fumbled the exchange from center and Lafayette took over on downs.

The Lafayette offense responded with a dominating drive that covered 89 yards on 11 plays. White's seventh carry of the drive came on the first play of the fourth quarter. He broke off the left side and scampered 38 yards for a touchdown. Lafayette led 21-6.

Lafayette took over again with 8:33 left, and the running game put it away. White churned out 47 yards and scored on a three-yard run.

Georgetown..... 6
Lafayette..... 24

EASTON, Pa. (9/13/08) - Though Lafayette tallied nearly 400 yards on offense, the Leopards' stingy defense helped secure the 24-6 win against Georgetown in the teams' Patriot League opener.

Junior QB Rob Curley finished the night 14-of-24 passing for 175 yards. Tyrell Coon and Maurice White dominated the running game with a combined 212 yards on 35 rushes.

The Leopards marched 71 yards on their first drive, which was capped off by Curley's one-yard touchdown run. Sophomore Davis Rodriguez's PAT was good and Lafayette took a 7-0 lead at 10:07 in the first quarter.

The Leopards' defense held the Hoyas (1-1, 0-1) scoreless in the first half. The last time Lafayette shut out an opponent in the first half was Oct. 6, 2007 against Columbia.

Junior defensive lineman Andrew Poulson blocked Georgetown kicker Casey Dobyns' 29-yard field-goal attempt with 5:16 left in the second quarter.

With less than three minutes remaining, LB Neil Goldsmith intercepted Hoyas' quarterback James Brady and picked up 37 yards in the first half. The interception was Goldsmith's second of the season and led to Rodriguez's 23-yard field goal that gave Lafayette a 10-0 lead at the break.

Lafayette attacked again late in the third quarter when Coon rushed for his first score of the season, a one-yard touchdown at 2:27. Rodriguez added the PAT to increase the lead 17-0. Coon finished with 96 yards on 17 carries.

Georgetown broke out of its lull in the fourth quarter on a nine-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in a two-yard touchdown run by quarterback Keerome Lawrence. The Hoyas' failed kick attempt left the score 17-6 at 9:43.

The Leopards weren't finished as Curley recorded his second touchdown with less than a minute remaining on a one-yard rush.

Rob Curley kicked off Lafayette's first-half scoring frenzy when he hit tight end Michael Conte with a 10-yard pass less than five minutes into the first quarter.

Penn looked like it would answer after recovering its own punt on Lafayette's 18, but the 'Pards' defense held its ground and forced Penn to attempt a field goal. Andrew Poulson blocked the kick to keep Penn scoreless.

Lafayette scored again eight seconds into the second quarter. Curley capped an eight-play, 80-yard drive with a 37-yard TD pass to Shaun Adair to increase the lead to 14-0.

The Leopards upped the score to 17-0 after Neil Goldsmith's third interception in three games set up Rodriguez for a 22-yard field goal with 6:47 remaining in the half.

GAME 8

Lafayette..... 13
 Colgate 21

HAMILTON, N.Y. (11/1/08) - Colgate grinded out 186 rushing yards in the second half in a 21-13 come-from-behind win. Colgate's Nate Eachus ran for 171 yards and two touchdowns.

Lafayette scored seven and a half minutes into the game on an eight-play, 55-yard drive. QB Rob Curley finished off the drive with a four-yard TD toss to Joe Russo.

The Leopards extended their lead to 10-0 following the longest field goal of Davis Rodriguez's career, a 47-yard conversion.

Late in the half, Rodriguez attempted a 29-yard field goal, that missed wide left.

Opening the second half with the ball, Curley and the offense moved down the field on five first downs and three catches by Shaun Adair, including a 30-yard pass. For the game, he tied a career high with 10 catches while reeling in a career-high 129 yards. The offense rested 1st-and-goal on the five before Jerome Rudolph fumbled. Colgate recovered at the eight.

The turnover proved costly as Colgate drove the ball 92 yards for a score. Eachus carried five times for 41 yards on the drive, the final run a six-yard scoring stint that cut the lead to 10-7.

Curley was sidelined for good on the next possession. Quilling drove the team down the field for 35-yard field goal that handed Lafayette a 13-7 margin with 1:46 left in the third.

Colgate answered when QB Greg Sullivan ran 35 yards for the go-ahead score. The Raiders led 14-13 with 14:51 left in the game.

The Raiders put the game away on their next drive, using 16 plays over 8:26 to score with Eachus carrying 13 times for 68 yards. He eventually scored on a one-yard run with 8:26 left. Colgate led 21-13.

Lafayette's offense was stifled on its final drive of the game, surrendering two more sacks that forced Lafayette to punt the ball away with just fewer than three minutes remaining. Colgate picked up three first downs, all on the ground, to put the game away.

GAME 9

Lafayette..... 38
 Bucknell 21

LEWISBURG, Pa. (11/8/08) - Marc Quilling and the Lafayette offense put up 474 yards of offense and posted a 38-21 win at Bucknell. Quilling, who started in place of an injured Rob Curley, passed for 274 yards and three TDs.

The rushing game was buoyed by the return of TB Tyrell Coon, who carried 30 times for a career-high 169 yards. TE Mike Conte added four catches for a career-high 118 yards.

Quilling was 4-for-4 on the first drive of the game, and the Leopards scored on a 23-yard strike to Joe Russo. The lead was short-lived, as A.J. Kizekai returned the kickoff 100 yards.

Seconds into the second quarter, Lafayette attempted a 34-yard FG, but a Bucknell defender ran into Davis Rodriguez. The penalty gave Lafayette the ball 4th-and-2 and the 'Pards converted the first down before scoring on Russo's one-yard run. Lafayette led 14-7.

Bucknell tied the game 14-14 at 3:59 in the second with an eight-yard TD pass from Andrew Lair to Shaun Pasternak.

With time winding down in the first half, Eric McGovern forced Pasternak to fumble. Allan Whitesell recovered and the Leopards took over at the Bucknell 46 with 1:14 remaining. Lafayette moved the ball to the four-yard line but settled for 20-yard FG before the half.

Leading 17-14, the Leopards took the ball in the second half and marched 94 yards thanks to a 38-yard run by Coon and the scoring play, a 51-yard strike from Quilling to Conte.

Bucknell's 66-yard drive and 37-yard TD on a halfback option pass cut the lead to 24-21.

When the Leopards got the ball back, Quilling hooked up with Conte for a 47-yard pass. Lafayette then scored on Coon's three-yard run and led 31-21.

In the fourth, Andrew Poulson forced a fumble. The offense scored on a 34-yard flea flicker from Quilling to Shaun Adair to make it 38-21. Adair had five catches for 85 yards.

GAME 10

Holy Cross 27
Lafayette 26

EASTON, Pa. (11/25/08) - Holy Cross scored with :06 left in the game to knock Lafayette out of the Patriot League race with a 27-26 final.

In the first quarter, Holy Cross marched up the field to the Lafayette 20 but the momentum stopped on 1st-and-10 when Mark Leggiro intercepted a pass and returned it 36 yards.

The Leopards needed one play to strike. Marc Quilling connected with Shaun Adair, who slashed his way to a 44-yard TD and a 7-0 lead at 9:54 in the first quarter. HC responded three minutes later with a 91-yard drive capped by Dominic Randolph's 39-yard TD to Brett McDermott.

Adair kicked off the second quarter with a 27-yard reception down to the six-yard line. The play set up Davis Rodriguez for a 22-yard FG as Lafayette regained the lead, 10-7.

Lafayette capitalized when Holy Cross muffed a punt and Adair recovered on the HC 19. Lafayette settled for a field goal and led 13-7.

After halftime, Randolph zeroed in on McDermott cutting through the end zone, but Eric McGovern flew in for an interception.

The play jumpstarted an 80-yard drive that resulted in DeAndre' Morrow's two-yard TD run, upping the score 20-7 at 7:49 in the third.

After the score, Holy Cross' Jon Brock zigzagged his way 54 yards to the nine-yard line. Lafayette's defense held its ground and appeared to come up with a stop on 3rd-and-1, but the Leopards were cited for pass interference - one of four Lafayette pass interference infractions. The 'Pards put together another three-down stand to limit HC to a field goal, making it 20-10 at the end of the third quarter.

Just into the fourth, HC inched closer with a field goal to make it 20-13. The Crusaders tied it at 20 with 5:30 remaining in the game after Nick Cole's 22-yard TD reception.

Morrow scored his second TD two minutes later off a thundering 26-yard rush, boosting Lafayette back to an advantage with 2:45 left in the game. After converting 48 straight PATs, Rodriguez missed and the score sat at 26-20. The Crusaders' final scoring drive culminated with a 37-yard TD pass to Rob Koster, and the PAT secured the game.
