

2009-10 LAFAYETTE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 2009-10

GAME

FEB. 13, 2010

Match Up: Lafayette (4-19, 2-7) at Navy (12-12, 4-5)

Tip-Off: 7:00 p.m.

Site: Annapolis, Md.

Arena: Alumni Hall (5,710)

Webcast: Navy All-Access navysports.com

All-Time Series: 19-34

Current Streak: W 2

Coach Smith vs. Navy: 5-14

THE MATCH-UP: After an extended stay in Hamilton, N.Y., the Leopards (4-19, 2-7) are back on the road Saturday to face Navy (12-12, 4-5) for a 7 p.m. tip. Lafayette has a season sweep of the Mids in sight while Navy is coming off a dramatic, one-point loss (54-53) to first place Lehigh on Thursday night.

NEXT UP FOR THE LEOPARDS: Lafayette returns home on Wednesday to host Bucknell at 7 p.m. That game is Scout Night as well as National Girls and Women in Sports Day.

FOLLOW THE LEOPARDS: Leopard fans can keep track of how their teams are doing even if they are not able to make it to the games. In addition to live multimedia offerings such as Lafayette Sports Network (LSN) All-Access and Gametracker, fans can now interact with the Lafayette Leopard through Facebook and Twitter. Facebook and Twitter are both accessible by computer or mobile phone, and scores and updates about Lafayette Athletics are posted frequently.

LAST TIME OUT FOR LAFAYETTE: The Leopards were hoping that escaping a blizzard back home in Easton meant good things were awaiting them in Hamilton, but the Raiders came away with a 60-57 overtime win. Lafayette saw its first overtime action in more than a year but 11 Colgate points in the extra session, including clutch free throws in the final six seconds, spelled defeat.

The game went into overtime thanks in part to LaKeisha Wright's layup with 10 seconds left in regulation that knotted the game at 49. Wright scored a game-high 16 points as Lafayette shot a season-high 45.7 percent from the field.

SCOUTING NAVY: The Mids, losers of three of their last four games, dropped a narrow, 54-53 decision to Lehigh on Thursday night in Annapolis to fall to 4-5 in league action.

Junior center Cassie Consedine averages 10.8 ppg and leads the Patriot League with 35 blocks. Angela Myers (10.6 ppg) is second in the league in assists with 92. Navy is averaging 33.5 percent from three-point range, the second best mark in the conference and leads all teams with 182 made threes.

ON THIS DATE: In 1993, the Leopards hosted Navy and handed the Mids a 72-67 loss. Lafayette finished the season by winning nine of its final 12 games, including that five-point win.

DEJA VU: The last time Lafayette lost an overtime game it was by the exact 60-57 score as Wednesday's night OT loss at Colgate. On March 1, 2008, the Leopards lost a three-point overtime game at home to American.

SHE MUST BE BUTTER BECAUSE SHE'S ON A ROLL: Elizabeth Virgin has been putting up consistent numbers for such a long stretch of games that the casual fan may overlook just how

THE LAST MEETING

LAFAYETTE 46, NAVY 43 JAN. 16, 2010 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER

EASTON, Pa. - In one of their most exciting games of the season, the Leopards capped off a brief, two-game homestand by handing conference foe Navy a 46-43 loss. It was a two-point game (45-43) with 27 seconds to play, but Navy wasted 14 seconds before fouling Melissa Downey. The sophomore proceeded to make one of her two free throw attempts and Navy's Cassie Consedine air-balled a three-point attempt at the seven-second mark to end the game. In the first half, the Mids briefly went up by three, but LaKeisha Wright converted two free throw attempts with 28.6 seconds on the clock to make it 19-18. Consedine sank two free throws of her own, however, to keep Navy up 21-18 at the midway point of the game. Wright's free throws at the 1:50 mark put Lafayette back up by one (43-42). Navy's Megan Matheny missed the front end of a one-and-one with 1:06 on the clock, keeping the momentum squarely on the Leopards' side as they held on for the eventual 46-43 win. Neither team led by more than six points and there were seven tied scores and six lead changes over the 40 minutes of action. The Leopards were led in part by Sarah McGorry, whose 16 points marked a career-high as she went 6-of-11 from the field. Elizabeth Virgin (12) and Wright (11) joined her in double figures.

impressive those stats are. The junior forward has reached double figures in five straight games, including a season-tying (and game high) 15 vs. Holy Cross a week ago. She also had a career-best five steals in the game.

Virgin leads the team in rebounding (4.9 rpg) and blocked shots (15), and is third in scoring (8.6 ppg), while her scoring average has been on the rise for the last nine games.

LAFAYETTE vs. the PATRIOT LEAGUE: Lafayette has played 368 games all-time against the seven other current members of the Patriot League and is 154-214 (.419) in those contests. The Leopards own an 90-174 (.341) overall record since joining the league in the 1990-91 season.

American.....	4-20
Army.....	20-27
Bucknell.....	34-29
Colgate.....	29-26
Holy Cross.....	8-43
Lehigh	40-35
Navy.....	19-34
TOTAL.....	154-214

COOL AS ICE: The Leopards have shot 80 percent or better from the free throw line five times this season, including their 80-percent showing vs. Navy. Their best performance this year came against Penn (20-of-23, 87 percent). Lafayette is currently fourth in the Patriot League in free throw percentage (68.3).

TOP TEN: Junior Elizabeth Virgin collected her 33rd and 34th career blocks against Colgate to move into sole possession of seventh place on Lafayette's all-time career blocks list. Through the Leopards' first 23 games, she leads the team with 15 blocks, a total that also places her 10th among all Patriot League players. Virgin is on pace to surpass her single-season high of 16, which she reached last season.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF: Of the many strengths LaKeisha Wright has on the court, free throw shooting typically was not one of them. Entering this season, her junior campaign, she was a career 50 percent shooter (124-of-245) from the charity stripe.

To say Wright has fixed that potential weakness would be an understatement. She is currently second on the team in free throw percentage (minimum 20 attempts) with a 70.5 percent showing from the line (55-78).

WELCOME BACK: Junior Lauren Jackson and freshman Alicia Manning took the court on Jan. 20 for the first time since missing two games. Both suffered injuries in the league opener at Holy Cross on Jan. 9. Jackson started her first game since that injury against Army on Jan. 27.

THE STREAK CONTINUES: The Leopards continued to struggle against Army, dropping their 19th-straight contest vs. the Black Knights with a 54-38 loss on Jan. 27. That 19-game stretch is Lafayette's longest losing streak against any Patriot League team.

NO THREES? NO PROBLEM: For the first time this season, and for the first time since the season opener vs. Middle Tennessee in 2008, Lafayette failed to make a three-pointer when the team went 0-4 vs. Navy. It failed to make a difference, however, as the Leopards came out on the winning side of the 46-43 decision.

EXTREME EFFICIENCY: Freshman Ashley Springer made the most of her playing time vs. Colgate. She came off the bench for six minutes and finished with a career-high seven points, including her first three-pointer.

WAY TO START: For the first time in three years, the Leopards opened league play with a win when they defeated Holy Cross 43-39. The last time Lafayette won a Patriot League season opener was in 2007 when the Leopards defeated Holy Cross, also this year's conference-opening opponent, 61-58 at Kirby Sports Center.

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE: While 43 points may not seem like enough to capture a win, that was all the Leopards needed against Holy Cross. Lafayette's defense held the Crusaders to just 39 points, the fewest scored by Holy Cross so far this season and the fewest scored by a Lafayette opponent since Jan. 18, 1995 (Fordham, 39 points).

GLASS CLEANERS: Lafayette not only had an impressive performance on defense vs. Holy Cross, the team was also all over the boards, picking up a season-best 46 rebounds.

Those 46 rebounds were not just the most this season, however. They also marked the highest team total since a 57-rebound performance against Fairleigh Dickinson on Dec. 21, 2005.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE (TIMES TWO): Junior LaKeisha Wright has not only picked up her first and second career double-doubles this year, she is also the only Leopard to record a double-double.

She finished with an 11-point and 10-rebound performance vs. UNC Asheville for her first double-double and followed that with 10 points and 10 boards just two games later, a 43-39 win at Holy Cross.

Wright, who is averaging a team-high 10.6 points and 4.5 rebounds per game, was the first Leopard to finish with a double-double since Feb. 21 of last season (Emily Garner: 13 points, 12 rebounds vs. Lehigh).

INJURY UPDATE: Sophomore Alexandra Serowoky will miss the remainder of the season with a knee injury.

ALL-TIME RECORD: The program, now in its 38th season, has played 942 games, compiled an overall record of 421-521 (.447) and recorded five 20-win seasons.

SMITH ON THE SIDELINES: Head coach Tammy Smith is in her ninth season at Lafayette and 14th overall as a head coach. In 2008-09, she was at the helm of a program that made history by becoming the first No. 7 seed in the history of the Patriot League Tournament to advance to the championship game.

Smith is the fourth head coach in Lafayette's history. She has a career record of 168-268 (.385), which includes a 113-68 mark and two NCAA Tournament appearances in seven seasons at D-III Muhlenberg.

NON-CONFERENCE FINALE: The Leopards wrapped-up the non-conference portion of their schedule on Jan. 3 with a trip to Iowa State. Lafayette dropped a 67-25 decision to the now-20th ranked Cyclones but held the squad nine points below its season scoring average.

TO BE THE BEST YOU MUST PLAY THE BEST: For the second consecutive season, Lafayette took on a ranked opponent when the team squared off against then-No. 25/25 James Madison at the Dukes' Invitational.

Last year, the Leopards traveled to No. 14 Rutgers, the first time the program had faced a ranked team since the 1990-91 season when Lafayette took on No. 1 Virginia at the Cavalier Classic in Charlottesville, Va.

While not ranked when they faced them on Jan. 3, Iowa State has also now jumped into the number 20 spot in the USA Today/ESPN.

UP TO THE CHALLENGE: Melissa Downey stepped up her game against nationally-ranked James Madison. She chipped in a career-high 10 points and dished out a personal-best eight assists against the Dukes.

The sophomore guard leads the team with 61 assists, which also places her fifth in the Patriot League. She is averaging 3.8 points per game and has started all 23 contests.

FIRST OF THE SEASON: Lafayette finally out-rebounded an opponent as the team held a slim, 37-36 edge over Princeton. Sarah McGorry and LaKeisha Wright led the way with eight rebounds each.

Prior to that game, Lafayette was out-rebounded in its first 10 games. Only two players have reached double figures in rebounds in a game this season, as Amanda Smith picked up a career-best 10 in the Leopards' 58-55 win at Monmouth and LaKeisha Wright collected 10 boards vs. UNC Asheville and Holy Cross.

CARING "HART"S: Over the past year, the women's team became involved with the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ). Earlier this season, the Leopards adopted 14-year-old cancer patient Hannah Hart. Lafayette was matched with Hannah through the foundation and the team will offer her support as she goes through treatments by welcoming her at games and keeping in contact with Hannah and her family. Fans are encouraged to visit her site at www.caringbridge.org/visit/hannahhart.

Last season, the Leopards also adopted the sister of a cancer patient, Gracie Loose, through FOJ, which also gives the siblings of cancer patients the chance to take part in unique opportunities as their families go through difficult times.

Loose is the daughter of Lafayette defensive coordinator John Loose and the sister of Lauren Loose, who suffers from pediatric brain tumors. Gracie has a special spot on the team bench on game days, assisting the players, coaches and cheering on the Leopards.

FREE FOR ALL: While Lafayette as a team had a more than impressive day at the line vs. Penn by shooting 87 percent, one player was actually perfect. Junior Lauren Jackson drained all 15 of her free throw attempts, accounting for 75 percent of the Leopards' total baskets from the charity stripe.

She became the first player in two years to make 10+ free throws and shoot 100% from the line, and was just four shy of the Patriot League single game record (19 by Navy's Erica Hayes). Jackson is averaging 84.7 percent from the line this season, the best mark in the league.

LEOPARDS TOP 60: For the first time this season, the Leopards surpassed the 60-point mark with their 62-56 win at Penn. Lafayette had gone the first seven games without reaching 60 points. However, the 2008-09 team also started the season in the same fashion and ended the year by making a historic run to the Patriot League championship.

BLOCK PARTY: The Leopards had nine blocks against Mount St. Mary's, the most in a single game during head coach Tammy Smith's nearly nine-year tenure. Four different players had two blocks apiece. The most blocks Lafayette had in a single game prior to that game was eight, which the team had achieved twice, both during the 2004-05 season.

Lafayette followed that with eight more blocks in the win at Penn. The Leopards are currently fourth in the league with 70 blocks.

THE LAST TIME...Two Lafayette players combined to score more than 60 percent of the Leopards' points, as Lauren Jackson (22) and LaKeisha Wright (14) did in the 90-55 loss to Liberty on Nov. 28, came last season when Cristin Zavocki (21) and Elizabeth Virgin (18) accounted for 71 percent of Lafayette's offense in a 66-55 loss at Marist.

STREAK SNAPPED: The Leopards saw their streak of home-opening wins come to an end vs. St. Peter's. Lafayette entered the night having won its five previous home openers, starting with a 63-47 win over Radford on Dec. 2, 2004.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN: Four players were chosen to serve as captains this season: Seniors Amanda Leone and Brooke Niquette, junior Lauren Jackson and sophomore Melissa Downey.

ABOUT LAFAYETTE COLLEGE: Located in Easton, Pa. (70 miles west of New York City and 60 miles north of Philadelphia) on the banks of the Delaware and Lehigh Rivers, Lafayette is a small liberal arts school with a renowned engineering program. Lafayette, which has 23 Division I sports with a student body of 2,382 undergraduates, competes in the Patriot League with Army, Navy, Bucknell, Holy Cross, Colgate, American and Lehigh. Lafayette is the alma mater of Pete Carril and Tampa Bay Rays manager Joe Maddon.

FRESH FACES: Lafayette welcomed three freshmen to the squad this fall: Samantha Jordan, Alicia Manning and Ashley Springer. Jordan played four years as a small forward at Stonewall Jackson (Va.) and was a 1,000-point scorer for the Raiders. She averaged 11.4

ppg and 6.2 rpg as a senior and finished her career with 1,151 points. The 5-11 Jordan was a three-time Lady Raiders' Defensive Player of the Year as well as a three-time member of the Second-Team Cedar Run All-District Team.

Manning was a three-year varsity starter at Cardinal O'Hara (Pa.). The 5-10 shooting guard averaged nearly 12 ppg and served as team captain her senior season. She earned Philadelphia All-Catholic League honors as a sophomore and senior, and picked up All-Delaware County honors her junior and senior seasons.

Springer joins the Leopards after a four-year career at Deforest (Wisc.). The 5-8 point guard cemented her role as a starter as a freshman and was a member of three conference champion teams and leaves Deforest as the second all-time leading scorer with 1,114 career points. She averaged 17.5 ppg as a senior to help her Norskies squad to a 12-9 overall record.

2009-10 PATRIOT LEAGUE PRESEASON POLL: The Leopards were picked to finish eighth in the Patriot League's preseason poll, receiving 21 points. Defending league champion Lehigh garnered the top spot with 97 points, including 13 first place votes. American and Holy Cross tied for the number two spot with 76 points apiece, although the Eagles received three first place votes. Navy was chosen to finish fourth (54 votes), Bucknell fifth (52), Army sixth (50), and Colgate seventh (22).

LAFAYETTE ON TELEVISION: For the 14th straight season, Lafayette features the most expansive television package in the Patriot League. This winter, nine of Lafayette's women's basketball games will be televised while three contests will be live streamed on Lafayette Sports Network (LSN) All-Access.

All nine telecasts will be produced by LSN, which annually produces the most expansive and highest quality television packages in the Patriot League. Each of those broadcasts will air live regionally to more than 10 million viewers on RCN-4 and WBPB-60.

As an element of Lafayette's long-term multi-media agreement with CSTV, all LSN telecasts are streamed live on the internet and available worldwide through LSN All-Access on GoLeopards.com. Lafayette was the first of the CSTV.com partners to make live video streaming available to fans everywhere when the 2000 Lafayette-Lehigh football game aired live on GoLeopards.com.

Emmy-nominated local sports broadcaster Gary Laubach will handle all of the Leopards' play-by-play duties for the 12th straight season. Former Lafayette men's basketball coach John Leone will provide color analysis for the 11th season. In his eighth year as a member of the announcing crew is RCN's Dan Mowdy, who will report on the Leopards from the sideline.

ST. PETER'S 61, LAFAYETTE 38 NOV. 13, 2009 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER

EASTON, Pa. - Every streak has to come to an end and unfortunately for Lafayette, its stretch of home-opening wins came to a halt. St. Peter's dealt the Leopards a 61-38 loss in the second game of a doubleheader at Kirby Sports Center. The Peahens held the edge in nearly every category, including a dominating performance on the boards, pulling down 46 boards to Lafayette's 18. They also shot 47 percent from the field while limiting the Leopards to a 26.2 percent showing. Lauren Jackson led the Leopards with 14 points (4-of-10), including six from outside the arc. No individual player finished with more than three rebounds.

FAIRFIELD 52, LAFAYETTE 29 NOV. 18, 2009 -- ALUMNI HALL

FAIRFIELD, Conn. - The chances were there but Lafayette could not get its shots to fall as the Leopards suffered a 52-29 setback to Fairfield in Connecticut. Lafayette actually took more shots than Fairfield with its 60-55 edge, but shot just 18 percent from the field while the Stags came through on 34.5 percent of their shots. Fairfield also held a definitive edge in rebounds, 55-35. Melissa Downey and Alicia Manning both finished with six points for Lafayette while LaKeisha Wright chipped in five. Two Fairfield players reached double figures, led by Desiree Pina's 18.

BRYANT 56, LAFAYETTE 47 NOV. 21, 2009 -- CHACE ATHLETIC CENTER

SMITHFIELD, R.I. - Despite two players reaching double figures, Lafayette could not come up with enough points and lost a 56-47 decision to Bryant. Elizabeth Virgin led all players with 13 points while LaKeisha Wright chipped in 12, but a balanced Bryant team saw all but one of their 10 players score at least two points. Lafayette shot just 62.5 percent from the free throw line and collected only 24 rebounds to the Bears' 42. Lafayette opened the game on an 8-2 run that included baskets from four different players. The Bears proceeded to put together a run of their own, holding Lafayette to just five more points for the remainder of the half while scoring 14 of their own that made it 30-24 at the midway point. Alexandra Serowoky's layup in the paint with eight minutes on the clock made it a two-point game (43-41). Much like in the first half, though, the Leopards fell into an offensive slump and the Bears held Lafayette to just two baskets over the final eight minutes.

ST. BONAVENTURE 58, LAFAYETTE 38 NOV. 24, 2009 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER 5

EASTON, Pa. - Lafayette returned home looking to snap a brief, two-game slide by handing St. Bonaventure its first loss of the season. Unfortunately, things did not fall the Leopards' way as they dropped a 58-38 decision to the Bonnies. The Leopards were nearly evenly matched with St. Bonaventure in field goal percentage and three-point percentage, but the Bonnies held a definitive edge in rebounds (35-24) and forced 17 Lafayette turnovers. Junior LaKeisha Wright led the Lafayette offense with 13 points. Classmate Lauren Jackson chipped in 11 to go along with her career-high four assists. The Leopards jumped out to a quick 9-3 lead but Alaina Walker's fastbreak layup handed St. Bonaventure its first lead of the night at 22-21 with 4:40 on the clock and the Bonnies never again trailed in the game.

LIBERTY 90, LAFAYETTE 55 NOV. 28, 2009 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER 6

EASTON, Pa. - Facing yet another tough opponent, Lafayette was unable to pull off a win against Liberty, falling 90-55 in Easton. Junior Lauren Jackson had a career game with 22 points, nine of which came from three-point range. She was joined in double figures by classmate LaKeisha Wright (14) as those two combined for 36 of Lafayette's 55 points. While the Leopards had an impressive showing from the field, finishing the game shooting 41 percent, the Flames capitalized on nearly 62 percent of their shots. The Flames took a 10-4 edge, but a Wright jumper at 12:40 kept it a five-point game (14-9). Jackson drained the team's first three to cut the Flames' lead down to three (23-20) with more than six minutes on the clock. It remained a three-point game (29-26) with less than three minutes to play in the half after a Jackson layup, but that was as close the Leopards came for the remainder of the game.

MT. ST. MARY'S 59, LAFAYETTE 48 NOV. 30, 2009 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER 7

EASTON, Pa. - Despite facing a double-digit deficit several times throughout the night, Lafayette did not stop fighting but ultimately could not pull off a come-from-behind win, falling 59-48 against Mount St. Mary's. Lafayette, which at one point trailed by 13, found itself within five of the lead with 10 minutes to play, but never pulled any closer. LaKeisha Wright led the way with a season-high 17 points and Lauren Jackson chipped in 12. Melissa Downey contributed a career-best seven assists. Lauren Howell's three-pointer with more than eight minutes to play in the first half put Mount St. Mary's up by five (17-12) and the Mount proceeded to go up by double digits thanks to a 10-0 run that made it 29-16 with four remaining and Lafayette found itself down by 10 (31-21) at halftime. Jackson's basket at the 10-minute mark cut it to 42-36, and an Alexandra Serowoky free throw put the Leopards within five of the lead (42-37), the closest they had been all half. That was also as close as they would pull, as Mount St. Mary's worked its way back into a double-digit lead to seal the win.

LAFAYETTE 62, PENN 58 DEC. 2, 2009 -- THE PALESTRA 8

EASTON, Pa. - Looking to snap a five-game slide, Lafayette took to the road and grabbed a much-needed 62-56 win over Penn. The Leopards' clutch free-throw shooting down the stretch, combined by two players reaching double figures, helped secure the win. Lauren Jackson led Lafayette with 20 points, an impressive 15 of which came from the free throw line as she sank all 15 of her attempts. Penn took a slim, 8-6 edge on a Sarah Bucar three with more than 16 minutes on the clock. Bucar went on to score five points over the next two minutes, making it 13-7 Quakers. A fastbreak layup by Sarah McGorry knotted the game at 15 and Alicia Manning drained a three to give Lafayette an 18-15 advantage, part of a 9-2 Leopard run that put Penn in a 20-16 hole at the eight-minute mark. Danielle Jenkins drained a jumper with three seconds on the clock to give the Leopards a 30-21 halftime advantage. A three-minute scoring drought by Penn allowed Lafayette to take a game-high 14-point edge (39-25). Penn stayed within sight of the lead when a Caitlin Slover three with 59 seconds on the clock made the score 56-51 but Lafayette's defense made sure the Quakers never got any closer.

Game-By-Game Recaps (9-12)

EASTON, Pa. - After a solid first half, it seemed like things would fall the Leopards' way, but Long Island dominated the final seven minutes and dealt Lafayette a 78-65 loss. Lafayette took a 36-29 lead into halftime but the Blackbirds erupted for 49 second-half points en route to the win. Lauren Jackson led the Leopards with her fourth straight double-digit performance with a career-tying 22 points. LaKeisha Wright and Sarah McGorry added 15 and 10 points, respectively. The game started out on a 6-2 Lafayette run before Heidi Mothershead's three-pointer gave the Blackbirds their first lead of the night at 8-6. The Leopards, meanwhile, were in the midst of scoring drought that spanned nearly six minutes before a Jackson basket with 12:45 on the clock cut Long Island's lead to three (13-10). The lead changed hands over the next several possessions but Jackson capped off the first half with a buzzer-beating three from beyond midcourt, giving Lafayette a game-high seven-point lead (36-29) at the midway point. Long Island came out of halftime and quickly found its stride, scoring nine points in less than two minutes to make it 40-38. Six straight points from Kiara Evans upped the Blackbirds' lead to seven (65-58) and were part of 12 unanswered Long Island points that made it 71-58. That run sealed the win for the Blackbirds.

PRINCETON 80, LAFAYETE 47 DEC. 12, 2009 -- JADWIN GYMNASIUM

PRINCETON, N.J. - Turnovers again proved costly for Lafayette as Princeton scored 37 points off the Leopards' 25 miscues to hand Lafayette an 80-47 loss. Elizabeth Virgin scored a season-high 15 points. Lafayette did out-rebound the Tigers, 37-36, the first time this season Lafayette has done so. Princeton opened the game with nine unanswered points over the first five minutes. Lauren Edwards sank back-to-back threes to make it a 15-1 ballgame before Melissa Downey's trey at 13:44, which marked Lafayette's first field goal of the afternoon. LaKeisha Wright's first basket of the game kept the squad within seven (25-18) with less than seven minutes to play. The Tigers took a 31-20 advantage on Krystal Hill's layup and went into halftime up 36-23 over the Leopards. Princeton came out of halftime and put together a 12-4 run that made it 48-27 four minutes into the second period and upped its lead in the final 16 minutes.

HACKENSACK, N.J. - Lafayette's season-long six-game road trip did not start out on a positive note as the women dropped a 69-39 contest to Fairleigh Dickinson. The Leopards saw only one player reach double figures as LaKeisha Wright finished with 11. The Leopards gave up 23 second chance points to the Knights and committed a season-high 24 turnovers that translated into 23 FDU points. Wright accounted for the Leopards' first four points of the night and it remained a tie game four-all after four minutes of play. FDU's Jordan Sykes broke the tie with a layup that made it 6-4 in favor of the Knights. That basket opened a 15-0 FDU run during which the Leopards went 10 minutes without a basket and fell into a 19-4 hole. Two Sarah McGorry free throws marked the Leopards' final points of the period as they went into the locker room trailing 34-15. The Leopards trailed by 30 after two Jackson free throws at the four-minute mark in the second half but finished the half with only nine more points than in the opening half, making the chance of a comeback out of reach.

HARRISONBURG, Va. - The Leopards' first game back following a 16-day hiatus was one of their biggest of the year, as they squared off against No. 25 James Madison at the JMU Invitational. The final 86-54 score failed to reflect Lafayette's performance, which was one of the team's best all-around showings this season. Three Leopards reached double figures, led by Lauren Jackson's 17. Melissa Downey chipped in a career-high 10 points to go along with a personal-best eight assists. The Dukes had the nation's second-leading scorer on their side, however, in Dawn Evans, who finished the night with 27 points and 12 assists. Sarah Williams sank a three with 9:20 on the clock to give JMU an 18-17 edge. That basket sparked a 13-4 run that made it 28-22 and the Dukes out-scored the Leopards 11-4 over the final 4:26 of the half to take a 40-32 lead at halftime. Following the break, JMU stretched its lead from 20 to 30-plus points over the remaining 13 minutes.

Game-By-Game Recaps (13-16)

UNC ASHEVILLE 50, LAFAYETTE 43 DEC. 30, 2009 -- JMU CONVOCATION CENTER 13

HARRISONBURG, Va. - Despite cutting what had been a 12-point deficit to only six points in the final minute, the Leopards were unable to pull off a come-from-behind win in a 50-43 loss to UNC Asheville. Lafayette and the Bulldogs squared-off in the consolation game of the James Madison Invitational. LaKeisha Wright led the Leopards with 11 points and 10 rebounds, the only player in double figures. She also registered the squad's first double-double of the season. Lafayette controlled the tempo early and jumped out to a 4-0 lead while holding Asheville without a basket for the opening four minutes. The Bulldogs countered with nine unanswered points over the next three and a half minutes and upped their lead to eight (16-8) at the eight-minute mark. Amanda Leone sank a three with 47 seconds on the clock, which was followed by a Wright jumper 20 seconds later that made it 28-19, which remained the score at halftime. Late in the second half, Lauren Jackson made it 44-37 with a fastbreak layup, the closest Lafayette had been since the seven-minute mark of the first half. Wright converted on a three-point play at 1:56 to close the gap to 47-41, but Asheville hung on for the 50-43 win.

IOWA STATE 67, LAFAYETTE 25 JAN. 3, 2010 -- HILTON COLISEUM 14

AMES, Iowa. - The Leopards opened the New Year by traveling 1,000 miles to take on Iowa State, a squad fresh off an Elite Eight appearance in last season's NCAA Tournament. Lafayette's defense kept the Cyclones below its season scoring average of 76 points per game, but ultimately fell 67-25. LaKeisha Wright led the Leopards with seven points and collected four rebounds but the squad's 25 points marked a season low. The Leopards held Iowa off the scoreboard for the first three and a half minutes while jumping out to a 5-0 lead. The Cyclones countered with 18 unanswered points over the next seven minutes. Despite holding the Cyclones without a basket for the final 2:29 of the period, Lafayette went into halftime down 35-14. Lauren Jackson converted on a three-point play at 13:12 and Samantha Jordan added another layup to cap off a 7-3 Lafayette run for a 42-23 ballgame. Lafayette struggled to close the gap, though, as Iowa State went on to the 42-point win.

LAFAYETTE 43, HOLY CROSS 39 JAN. 9, 2010 -- HART CENTER 15

WORCESTER, Mass. - Lafayette's Patriot League opener at Holy Cross was not one for the faint of heart, with eight lead changes and no more than a six-point lead for either squad, but it was the Leopards who came out on top of the 43-39 decision. The game came down to the final seconds, but a successful one-and-one opportunity by Amanda Leone, followed by LaKeisha Wright's block with three seconds on the clock, clinched the win, snapping Lafayette's six-game slide. The victory also marked the Leopards' first win in seven tries against Holy Cross. Defense was the name of the game, as Lafayette held the Crusaders to just 39 points, the second-fewest scored by Holy Cross this season and the fewest scored by a Lafayette opponent since 1994 (Fordham, 39 points). The Crusaders' leading scorer, Bethany O'Dell (15.6 ppg) was held without a field goal and had just two points on two free throws. Elizabeth Virgin and LaKeisha Wright added 10 points apiece for Lafayette. The Leopards were particularly active on the glass, pulling down a season-high 46 boards, led by Wright's career-tying 10.

COLGATE 71, LAFAYETTE 63 JAN. 13, 2010 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER 16

EASTON, Pa. - Three players in double figures and 63 points were not enough to lead Lafayette to a win over Colgate, evening both team's league records at 1-1. The Raiders came away with the 71-63 win, spoiling the Leopards' long-awaited return home. Three Leopards reached double figures, led by LaKeisha Wright's 14. Sarah McGorry matched her career high with 12 points and Elizabeth Virgin fell one rebound shy of a double-double (10 p, 9 r). The lead changed hands several times before the Raiders took a 20-11 advantage thanks to a 12-0 run. McGorry put a stop to the run with a free throw that made it 20-12 with 5:12 left in the opening half. Samantha Jordan sank two free throws with 42 seconds remaining to cut it to a three-point game (28-25) but Colgate took a 29-25 lead into halftime. Both squads traded baskets to open the second half before a three-point play by Tricia Oakes put Colgate back up by 10 (41-31) with 17 minutes remaining. Amanda Leone briefly brought the team within five (45-40) on a layup, but the Raiders built their lead back to double figures with 5:14 on the clock and held on for the eventual eight-point win.

EASTON, Pa. - In one of their most exciting games of the season, the Leopards capped off a brief, two-game homestand by handing conference foe Navy a 46-43 loss. It was a two-point game (45-43) with 27 seconds to play, but Navy wasted 14 seconds before fouling Melissa Downey. The sophomore proceeded to make one of her two free throw attempts and Navy's Cassie Considine air-balled a three-point attempt at the seven-second mark to end the game. In the first half, the Mids briefly went up by three, but LaKeisha Wright converted two free throw attempts with 28.6 seconds on the clock to make it 19-18. Considine sank two free throws of her own, however, to keep Navy up 21-18 at the midway point of the game. Wright's free throws at the 1:50 mark put Lafayette back up by one (43-42). Navy's Megan Matheny missed the front end of a one-and-one with 1:06 on the clock, keeping the momentum squarely on the Leopards' side as they held on for the eventual 46-43 win. Neither team led by more than six points and there were seven tied scores and six lead changes over the 40 minutes of action. The Leopards were led in part by Sarah McGorry, whose 16 points marked a career-high as she went 6-of-11 from the field. Elizabeth Virgin (12) and Wright (11) joined her in double figures.

EASTON, Pa. - The Leopards were looking for redemption as they squared off against Lehigh for the first time since falling short in last year's Patriot League title game. Redemption will have to wait as Lafayette fell 66-51 to the Mountain Hawks. LaKeisha Wright finished with a game-high 15 points. Lafayette out-rebounded the Mountain Hawks 33-28. The Mountain Hawks won the opening tip and took control early, jumping out an 8-2 lead. The Leopards tied the game at eight-all on Wright's layup with 15:53 on the clock. Lehigh went up by five (14-9) before two Alicia Manning free throws at 11:53 cut the lead to one (14-13). That was the closest Lafayette got as the Mountain Hawks built a 20-13 advantage midway through the half. That margin increased to double figures (23-13) on Alex Ross's three-pointer at 7:58. Lehigh closed out the half on an 8-2 run and held a 34-22 edge at the midway point of the game. Lehigh maintained at least a 14-point lead for the majority of the second half.

EASTON, Pa. - Lafayette was hoping to capture its third league victory of the season while keeping Bucknell winless in league action, but a 55-42 Bison win evened the Leopards' conference mark at 2-2. The game was up for grabs after the first half, but the Lafayette offense fell cold in the final 20 minutes, scoring just 19 points en route to the loss. The Bison used nine unanswered points over a four-minute span to take an 11-2 lead eight minutes into the action. Lauren Jackson drained her squad's first three of the night with 3:07 on the clock to make it a four-point contest (17-13). That basket seemed to light a spark under Lafayette as back-to-back buckets by Amanda Smith and Jackson tied the game at 20-all with one minute remaining. Smith countered a Trisha Krewson three with 12 seconds on the clock by sinking a jumper at the buzzer to keep it a tie game, 23-23, at half-time. A three-point play by Bucknell's Rachel Voss cut it to a one-point Leopard lead (32-31) with 13 minutes remaining. Consecutive three pointers by the Bison handed a three-point lead (37-34) back to Bucknell. Those baskets were part of a 16-2 Bison run that essentially sealed the outcome. Elizabeth Virgin and Sarah McGorry tied for the team lead with eight points apiece. Bucknell's Krewson led all scorers with 21 points, 15 of which came from three-point range.

WEST POINT, N.Y. - Points were hard to come by for the Lafayette women's basketball squad as the Leopards suffered a 54-38 setback to Army in West Point. The 38 points were the fewest scored against a Patriot League opponent this season. Elizabeth Virgin was the only Leopard to reach double figures with 12 points. Both squads struggled to put points on the board in the early going with three turnovers in the first two minutes. Lafayette took a 3-0 lead before back-to-back threes by Molly Yardley put the Black Knights ahead 6-3. Those baskets were part of a 23-0 Army run that spanned nine minutes and included 12 points from Erin Anthony, who finished with a game-high 22 points. Melissa Downey snapped the streak with a long jumper at the five-minute mark but the Leopards trailed 32-11 with two minutes on the clock and went into halftime down 34-13. While the Leopards easily surpassed their first-half scoring output with 25 points in the final period, the 21-point halftime deficit proved too large to overcome.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Lafayette's bid to end the first half of Patriot League play with a win at American, while also dealing the Eagles their first league loss of the year, fell short as American came away with a 53-31 win thanks in large part to the Leopards' second-half offensive struggles. Lafayette managed only 13 points over the final 20 minutes, the second-fewest points the squad has scored in the second half this season. The Leopards failed to make a single three-point basket, the second straight game Lafayette was cold from beyond the arc. Elizabeth Virgin led Lafayette with her second straight 12-point game. American took its first lead, 11-9, on two Liz Leer free throws with 14:45 on the clock. Points were hard to come by for both teams for the majority of the half, as American managed only two points over a five-minute span. Michelle Kirk pushed American's lead to four (22-18) with a trey at 1:51 and the Eagles closed out the half on a hot streak, scoring eight unanswered points to take a 28-18 halftime lead. Lisa Strack put American back up by double figures (33-23) with a basket at 12:26. That bucket was part of a 10-1 run by the Eagles that eventually upped the lead to 38-23. Lafayette went nearly five minutes without a basket and fell behind by 17 (47-30) with two minutes remaining to put the game out of reach.

HOLY CROSS 50, LAFAYETTE 47 FEB. 6, 2010 -- KIRBY SPORTS CENTER

EASTON, Pa. - As the three-point attempt left Lauren Jackson's hands with six seconds on the clock, it seemed bound to go in, but instead the ball bounced off the rim and Holy Cross held on for a 50-47 win. Elizabeth Virgin led all scorers with 15 points while Jackson chipped in 12, half of which came from three-point range. Virgin's layup with 13 minutes left in the first half kept Lafayette ahead 12-9 before Briana McFadden knotted the game at 12-all with a trey one minute later. The Leopards never let the Crusaders take more than a five-point advantage until Whitney Fremeau's layup with less than two minutes remaining made it 28-21, which remained the halftime score. The teams traded baskets to open the second half. Jackson drained a three to keep it a six-point contest (38-32) with 11:30 left. With 15 seconds remaining, the Leopards had a costly turnover and were forced to foul but Fremeau missed the front end of a one-and-one. Melissa Downey grabbed the rebound and Virgin's ensuing layup made it 49-47 with eight seconds on the clock. The Leopards were again forced to foul, but McFadden was only able to capitalize on one of her two attempts, giving the Leopards 7.7 seconds with which to work, but Jackson's three-point attempt hit the rim.

HAMILTON, N.Y. - The women were hoping that escaping a blizzard back home in Easton meant good things were awaiting them in Hamilton, but the Raiders came away with a 60-57 overtime win. The Leopards saw their first overtime action in more than a year but 11 Colgate points in the extra session spelled defeat for Lafayette. The game went into overtime thanks in part to LaKeisha Wright's layup with 10 seconds left in regulation that knotted the game at 49. Lafayette shot a season-high 45.7 percent from the field, including a 55 percent clip in the first half. Lafayette connected on nearly every early shot attempt, quickly taking a 10-point edge (14-4) with 13 minutes on the clock. A Colgate run, combined with a four-minute Leopard scoring drought, made it a four-point game (24-20) at halftime. Colgate got the ball following a timeout with 4.7 seconds remaining in regulation but never got a good look at the basket, forcing overtime. With less than two minutes to play in the extra session, Candice Green's trey put the Raiders up 56-51 and they held on for the win.
